3I've had to endure your insults, but now my spirit prompts me to reply.

4"Don't you realize that from the beginning of time, ever since people were first placed on the earth, 5the triumph of the wicked has been short lived and the joy of the godless has been only temporary?

6Though the pride of the godless reaches to the heavens and their heads touch the clouds, 7yet they will vanish forever, thrown away like their own dung.

Those who knew them will ask, 'Where are they?'

8They will fade like a dream and not be found.
They will vanish like a vision in the night.

9Those who once saw them will see them no more.
Their families will never see them again.

10Their children will beg from the poor, for they must give back their stolen riches.

11Though they are young, their bones will lie in the dust.

12“They enjoyed the sweet taste of wickedness, letting it melt under their tongue.

13They savored it, holding it long in their mouths.

14But suddenly the food in their bellies turns sour, a poisonous venom in their stomach.

15They will vomit the wealth they swallowed.
God won’t let them keep it down.

16They will suck the poison of cobras.
The viper will kill them.

17They will never again enjoy streams of olive oil or rivers of milk and honey.

18They will give back everything they worked for.
Their wealth will bring them no joy.

19For they oppressed the poor and left them destitute.
They foreclosed on their homes.

20They were always greedy and never satisfied.
Nothing remains of all the things they dreamed about.

Therefore, their prosperity will not endure.

22“In the midst of plenty, they will run into trouble and be overcome by misery.

23May God give them a bellyful of trouble.
May God rain down his anger upon them.

24When they try to escape an iron weapon, a bronze-tipped arrow will pierce them.

25The arrow is pulled from their back, and the arrowhead glistens with blood.*

The terrors of death are upon them.

26Their treasures will be thrown into deepest darkness.
A wildfire will devour their goods, consuming all they have left.

27The heavens will reveal their guilt, and the earth will testify against them.

28A flood will sweep away their house.
God's anger will descend on them in torrents.

29This is the reward that God gives the wicked.
It is the inheritance decreed by God."

Job 21

JOB'S SEVENTH SPEECH: A RESPONSE TO ZOPHAR

1Then Job spoke again:

2"Listen closely to what I am saying.
That's one consolation you can give me.

3Bear with me, and let me speak.
After I have spoken, you may resume mocking me.

4"My complaint is with God, not with people.
I have good reason to be so impatient.

5Look at me and be stunned.
Put your hand over your mouth in shock.

6When I think about what I am saying, I shudder.
My body trembles.

7"Why do the wicked prosper, growing old and powerful?

8They live to see their children grow up and settle down, and they enjoy their grandchildren.

9Their homes are safe from every fear, and God does not punish them.

10Their bulls never fail to breed.
Their cows bear calves and never miscarry.

11They let their children frisk about like lambs.
Their little ones skip and dance.

12They sing with tambourine and harp.
They celebrate to the sound of the flute.

13They spend their days in prosperity, then go down to the grave* in peace.

14And yet they say to God, ‘Go away.
We want no part of you and your ways.

15Who is the Almighty, and why should we obey him?
What good will it do us to pray?’

16(They think their prosperity is of their own doing, but I will have nothing to do with that kind of thinking.)

17“Yet the light of the wicked never seems to be extinguished.
Do they ever have trouble?
Does God distribute sorrows to them in anger?

18Are they driven before the wind like straw?
Are they carried away by the storm like chaff?
Not at all!

19“‘Well,’ you say, ‘at least God will punish their children!’
But I say he should punish the ones who sin, so that they understand his judgment.

20Let them see their destruction with their own eyes.
Let them drink deeply of the anger of the Almighty.

21For they will not care what happens to their family after they are dead.

22“But who can teach a lesson to God, since he judges even the most powerful?

23One person dies in prosperity, completely comfortable and secure,

24the picture of good health, vigorous and fit.

25Another person dies in bitter poverty, never having tasted the good life.

26But both are buried in the same dust, both eaten by the same maggots.

27“Look, I know what you’re thinking.
I know the schemes you plot against me.

28You will tell me of rich and wicked people whose houses have vanished because of their sins.

29But ask those who have been around, and they will tell you the truth.

30Evil people are spared in times of calamity and are allowed to escape disaster.

31No one criticizes them openly or pays them back for what they have done.

32When they are carried to the grave, an honor guard keeps watch at their tomb.

33A great funeral procession goes to the cemetery.
Many pay their respects as the body is laid to rest, and the earth gives sweet repose.

34“How can your empty clichés comfort me?
All your explanations are lies!”

Job 22

ELIPHAZ’S THIRD RESPONSE TO JOB

1Then Eliphaz the Temanite replied:

2“Can a person do anything to help God?
Can even a wise person be helpful to him?

3Is it any advantage to the Almighty if you are righteous?
Would it be any gain to him if you were perfect?

4Is it because you’re so pious that he accuses you and brings judgment against you?

5No, it’s because of your wickedness!
There’s no limit to your sins.

6“For example, you must have lent money to your friend and demanded clothing as security.
Yes, you stripped him to the bone.

7You must have refused water for the thirsty and food for the hungry.

8You probably think the land belongs to the powerful and only the privileged have a right to it!

9You must have sent widows away empty-handed and crushed the hopes of orphans.

10That is why you are surrounded by traps and tremble from sudden fears.

11That is why you cannot see in the darkness, and waves of water cover you.

12“God is so great—higher than the heavens, higher than the farthest stars.

13But you reply, ‘That’s why God can’t see what I am doing!
How can he judge through the thick darkness?

14For thick clouds swirl about him, and he cannot see us.
He is way up there, walking on the vault of heaven.’

15“Will you continue on the old paths where evil people have walked?

16They were snatched away in the prime of life, the foundations of their lives washed away.

17For they said to God, ‘Leave us alone!
What can the Almighty do to us?’

18Yet he was the one who filled their homes with good things, so I will have nothing to do with that kind of thinking.

19“The righteous will be happy to see the wicked destroyed, and the innocent will laugh in contempt.

20They will say, ‘See how our enemies have been destroyed.
The last of them have been consumed in the fire.’

21“Submit to God, and you will have peace; then things will go well for you.

22Listen to his instructions, and store them in your heart.

23If you return to the Almighty, you will be restored— so clean up your life.

24If you give up your lust for money and throw your precious gold into the river,

25the Almighty himself will be your treasure.
He will be your precious silver!

26“Then you will take delight in the Almighty and look up to God.

27You will pray to him, and he will hear you, and you will fulfill your vows to him.

28You will succeed in whatever you choose to do, and light will shine on the road ahead of you.

29If people are in trouble and you say, ‘Help them,’
God will save them.

30Even sinners will be rescued; they will be rescued because your hands are pure.”

Job 23

JOB’S EIGHTH SPEECH: A RESPONSE TO ELIPHAZ

1Then Job spoke again:

2“My complaint today is still a bitter one, and I try hard not to groan aloud.

3If only I knew where to find God, I would go to his court.

4I would lay out my case and present my arguments.

5Then I would listen to his reply and understand what he says to me.

6Would he use his great power to argue with me?
No, he would give me a fair hearing.

7Honest people can reason with him, so I would be forever acquitted by my judge.

8I go east, but he is not there.
I go west, but I cannot find him.

9I do not see him in the north, for he is hidden.
I look to the south, but he is concealed.

10“But he knows where I am going.
And when he tests me, I will come out as pure as gold.

11For I have stayed on God’s paths; I have followed his ways and not turned aside.

12I have not departed from his commands, but have treasured his words more than daily food.

13But once he has made his decision, who can change his mind?

Whatever he wants to do, he does.

14So he will do to me whatever he has planned.
He controls my destiny.

15No wonder I am so terrified in his presence.
When I think of it, terror grips me.

16God has made me sick at heart; the Almighty has terrified me.

17Darkness is all around me; thick, impenetrable darkness is everywhere.

Job 24

JOB ASKS WHY THE WICKED ARE NOT PUNISHED

1“Why doesn’t the Almighty bring the wicked to judgment?
Why must the godly wait for him in vain?

2Evil people steal land by moving the boundary markers.
They steal livestock and put them in their own pastures.

3They take the orphan’s donkey and demand the widow’s ox as security for a loan.

4The poor are pushed off the path; the needy must hide together for safety.

5Like wild donkeys in the wilderness, the poor must spend all their time looking for food, searching even in the desert for food for their children.

6They harvest a field they do not own, and they glean in the vineyards of the wicked.

7All night they lie naked in the cold, without clothing or covering.

8They are soaked by mountain showers, and they huddle against the rocks for want of a home.

9“The wicked snatch a widow’s child from her breast, taking the baby as security for a loan.

10The poor must go about naked, without any clothing.
They harvest food for others while they themselves are starving.

11They press out olive oil without being allowed to taste it, and they tread in the winepress as they suffer from thirst.

12The groans of the dying rise from the city, and the wounded cry for help, yet God ignores their moaning.

13“Wicked people rebel against the light.
They refuse to acknowledge its ways or stay in its paths.

14The murderer rises in the early dawn to kill the poor and needy;
at night he is a thief.

15The adulterer waits for the twilight, saying, ‘No one will see me then.’
He hides his face so no one will know him.

16Thieves break into houses at night and sleep in the daytime.
They are not acquainted with the light.

17The black night is their morning.
They ally themselves with the terrors of the darkness.

18“But they disappear like foam down a river.
Everything they own is cursed, and they are afraid to enter their own vineyards.

19The grave* consumes sinners just as drought and heat consume snow.

20Their own mothers will forget them.
Maggots will find them sweet to eat.
No one will remember them.
Wicked people are broken like a tree in the storm.

21They cheat the woman who has no son to help her.

They refuse to help the needy widow.

22“God, in his power, drags away the rich.
They may rise high, but they have no assurance of life.

23They may be allowed to live in security, but God is always watching them.

24And though they are great now, in a moment they will be gone like all others, cut off like heads of grain.

25Can anyone claim otherwise?
Who can prove me wrong?”

Job 25

BILDAD’S THIRD RESPONSE TO JOB

1Then Bildad the Shuhite replied:

2“God is powerful and dreadful.
He enforces peace in the heavens.

3Who is able to count his heavenly army?
Doesn’t his light shine on all the earth?

4How can a mortal be innocent before God?
Can anyone born of a woman be pure?

5God is more glorious than the moon; he shines brighter than the stars.

6In comparison, people are maggots; we mortals are mere worms.”

Job 26

JOB’S NINTH SPEECH: A RESPONSE TO BILDAD

1Then Job spoke again:

2“How you have helped the powerless!
How you have saved the weak!

3How you have enlightened my stupidity!
What wise advice you have offered!

4Where have you gotten all these wise sayings?
Whose spirit speaks through you?

5“The dead tremble— those who live beneath the waters.

6The underworld* is naked in God’s presence.
The place of destruction* is uncovered.

7God stretches the northern sky over empty space and hangs the earth on nothing.

8He wraps the rain in his thick clouds, and the clouds don’t burst with the weight.

9He covers the face of the moon,* shrouding it with his clouds.

10He created the horizon when he separated the waters; he set the boundary between day and night.

11The foundations of heaven tremble; they shudder at his rebuke.

12By his power the sea grew calm.
By his skill he crushed the great sea monster.*

13His Spirit made the heavens beautiful, and his power pierced the gliding serpent.

14These are just the beginning of all that he does, merely a whisper of his power.
Who, then, can comprehend the thunder of his power?”

Job 27

JOB'S FINAL SPEECH

1Job continued speaking:

2"I vow by the living God, who has taken away my rights, by the Almighty who has embittered my soul—

3As long as I live, while I have breath from God,

4my lips will speak no evil, and my tongue will speak no lies.

5I will never concede that you are right; I will defend my integrity until I die.

6I will maintain my innocence without wavering.
My conscience is clear for as long as I live.

7"May my enemy be punished like the wicked, my adversary like those who do evil.

ANCIENT WRITINGS ABOUT SUFFERING

8For what hope do the godless have when God cuts them off and takes away their life?

9Will God listen to their cry when trouble comes upon them?

10Can they take delight in the Almighty?
Can they call to God at any time?

11I will teach you about God's power.
I will not conceal anything concerning the Almighty.

12But you have seen all this, yet you say all these useless things to me.

13“This is what the wicked will receive from God; this is their inheritance from the Almighty.

14They may have many children, but the children will die in war or starve to death.

15Those who survive will die of a plague, and not even their widows will mourn them.

16“Evil people may have piles of money and may store away mounds of clothing.

17But the righteous will wear that clothing, and the innocent will divide that money.

18The wicked build houses as fragile as a spider’s web,* as flimsy as a shelter made of branches.

19The wicked go to bed rich but wake to find that all their wealth is gone.

20Terror overwhelms them like a flood, and they are blown away in the storms of the night.

21The east wind carries them away, and they are gone.
It sweeps them away.

22It whirls down on them without mercy.
They struggle to flee from its power.

23But everyone jeers at them and mocks them.

Job 28

JOB SPEAKS OF WISDOM AND UNDERSTANDING

1“People know where to mine silver and how to refine gold.

2They know where to dig iron from the earth and how to smelt copper from rock.

3They know how to shine light in the darkness and explore the farthest regions of the earth as they search in the dark for ore.

4They sink a mine shaft into the earth far from where anyone lives. They descend on ropes, swinging back and forth.

5Food is grown on the earth above, but down below, the earth is melted as by fire.

6Here the rocks contain precious lapis lazuli, and the dust contains gold.

7These are treasures no bird of prey can see, no falcon's eye observe.

8No wild animal has walked upon these treasures; no lion has ever set his paw there.

9People know how to tear apart flinty rocks and overturn the roots of mountains.

10They cut tunnels in the rocks and uncover precious stones.

11They dam up the trickling streams and bring to light the hidden treasures.

12"But do people know where to find wisdom?
Where can they find understanding?

13No one knows where to find it,*
for it is not found among the living.

14'It is not here,' says the ocean.
'Nor is it here,' says the sea.

15It cannot be bought with gold.
It cannot be purchased with silver.

16It's worth more than all the gold of Ophir, greater than precious onyx or lapis lazuli.

17Wisdom is more valuable than gold and crystal.
It cannot be purchased with jewels mounted in fine gold.

18Coral and jasper are worthless in trying to get it.
The price of wisdom is far above rubies.

19Precious peridot from Ethiopia* cannot be exchanged for it.
It's worth more than the purest gold.

20"But do people know where to find wisdom?
Where can they find understanding?

21It is hidden from the eyes of all humanity.
Even the sharp-eyed birds in the sky cannot discover it.

22Destruction* and Death say, 'We've heard only rumors of where wisdom can be found.'

23"God alone understands the way to wisdom; he knows where it can be found,

24for he looks throughout the whole earth and sees everything under the heavens.

25He decided how hard the winds should blow and how much rain should fall.

26He made the laws for the rain and laid out a path for the lightning.

27Then he saw wisdom and evaluated it.
He set it in place and examined it thoroughly.

28And this is what he says to all humanity: 'The fear of the Lord is true wisdom; to forsake evil is real understanding.'"

Job 29

JOB SPEAKS OF HIS FORMER BLESSINGS

1Job continued speaking:

2“I long for the years gone by when God took care of me, 3when he lit up the way before me and I walked safely through the darkness.

4When I was in my prime, God’s friendship was felt in my home.

5The Almighty was still with me, and my children were around me.

6My steps were awash in cream, and the rocks gushed olive oil for me.

7“Those were the days when I went to the city gate and took my place among the honored leaders.

8The young stepped aside when they saw me, and even the aged rose in respect at my coming.

9The princes stood in silence and put their hands over their mouths.

10The highest officials of the city stood quietly, holding their tongues in respect.

11“All who heard me praised me.
All who saw me spoke well of me.

12For I assisted the poor in their need and the orphans who required help.

13I helped those without hope, and they blessed me.
And I caused the widows’ hearts to sing for joy.

14Everything I did was honest.
Righteousness covered me like a robe, and I wore justice like a turban.

15I served as eyes for the blind and feet for the lame.

16I was a father to the poor and assisted strangers who needed help.

17I broke the jaws of godless oppressors and plucked their victims from their teeth.

18“I thought, ‘Surely I will die surrounded by my family after a long,
good life.*

19For I am like a tree whose roots reach the water, whose branches are refreshed with the dew.

20New honors are constantly bestowed on me, and my strength is continually renewed.’

21“Everyone listened to my advice.
They were silent as they waited for me to speak.

22And after I spoke, they had nothing to add, for my counsel satisfied them.

23They longed for me to speak as people long for rain.
They drank my words like a refreshing spring rain.

24When they were discouraged, I smiled at them.
My look of approval was precious to them.

25Like a chief, I told them what to do.
I lived like a king among his troops and comforted those who mourned.

Job 30

JOB SPEAKS OF HIS ANGUISH

1“But now I am mocked by people younger than I, by young men whose fathers are not worthy to run with my sheepdogs.

2A lot of good they are to me— those worn-out wretches!

3They are gaunt from poverty and hunger.
They claw the dry ground in desolate wastelands.

4They pluck wild greens from among the bushes and eat from the roots of broom trees.

5They are driven from human society, and people shout at them as if they were thieves.

6So now they live in frightening ravines, in caves and among the rocks.

7They sound like animals howling among the bushes, huddled together beneath the nettles.

8They are nameless fools, outcasts from society.

9“And now they mock me with vulgar songs!
They taunt me!

10They despise me and won’t come near me, except to spit in my face.

11For God has cut my bowstring.
He has humbled me, so they have thrown off all restraint.

12These outcasts oppose me to my face.
They send me sprawling and lay traps in my path.

13They block my road and do everything they can to destroy me.
They know I have no one to help me.

14They come at me from all directions.
They jump on me when I am down.

15I live in terror now.
My honor has blown away in the wind, and my prosperity has vanished like a cloud.

16“And now my life seeps away.
Depression haunts my days.

17At night my bones are filled with pain, which gnaws at me relentlessly.

18With a strong hand, God grabs my shirt.*
He grips me by the collar of my coat.

19He has thrown me into the mud.
I'm nothing more than dust and ashes.

20"I cry to you, O God, but you don't answer.
I stand before you, but you don't even look.

21You have become cruel toward me.
You use your power to persecute me.

22You throw me into the whirlwind and destroy me in the storm.

23And I know you are sending me to my death— the destination of all who live.

24"Surely no one would turn against the needy when they cry for help in their trouble.

25Did I not weep for those in trouble?
Was I not deeply grieved for the needy?

26So I looked for good, but evil came instead.
I waited for the light, but darkness fell.

27My heart is troubled and restless.
Days of suffering torment me.

28I walk in gloom, without sunlight.
I stand in the public square and cry for help.

29Instead, I am considered a brother to jackals and a companion to owls.

30My skin has turned dark, and my bones burn with fever.

31My harp plays sad music, and my flute accompanies those who weep.

Job 31

JOB'S FINAL PROTEST OF INNOCENCE

1"I made a covenant with my eyes not to look with lust at a young woman.

2For what has God above chosen for us?
What is our inheritance from the Almighty on high?

3Isn't it calamity for the wicked and misfortune for those who do evil?

4Doesn't he see everything I do and every step I take?

5"Have I lied to anyone or deceived anyone?

6Let God weigh me on the scales of justice, for he knows my integrity.

7If I have strayed from his pathway, or if my heart has lusted for what my eyes have seen, or if I am guilty of any other sin, 8then let someone else eat the crops I have planted.

Let all that I have planted be uprooted.

9"If my heart has been seduced by a woman, or if I have lusted for my neighbor's wife, 10then let my wife serve* another man; let other men sleep with her.

11For lust is a shameful sin, a crime that should be punished.

12It is a fire that burns all the way to hell.*
It would wipe out everything I own.

13"If I have been unfair to my male or female servants when they brought their complaints to me, 14how could I face God?

What could I say when he questioned me?

15For God created both me and my servants.
He created us both in the womb.

16“Have I refused to help the poor, or crushed the hopes of widows?

17Have I been stingy with my food and refused to share it with orphans?

18No, from childhood I have cared for orphans like a father, and all my life I have cared for widows.

19Whenever I saw the homeless without clothes and the needy with nothing to wear, 20did they not praise me for providing wool clothing to keep them warm?

21“If I raised my hand against an orphan, knowing the judges would take my side, 22then let my shoulder be wrenched out of place!

Let my arm be torn from its socket!

23That would be better than facing God’s judgment.
For if the majesty of God opposes me, what hope is there?

24“Have I put my trust in money or felt secure because of my gold?

25Have I gloated about my wealth and all that I own?

26“Have I looked at the sun shining in the skies, or the moon walking down its silver pathway, 27and been secretly enticed in my heart to throw kisses at them in worship?

28If so, I should be punished by the judges, for it would mean I had denied the God of heaven.

29“Have I ever rejoiced when disaster struck my enemies, or become excited when harm came their way?

30No, I have never sinned by cursing anyone or by asking for revenge.

31“My servants have never said, ‘He let others go hungry.’

32I have never turned away a stranger but have opened my doors to everyone.

33“Have I tried to hide my sins like other people do, concealing my guilt in my heart?

34Have I feared the crowd or the contempt of the masses, so that I kept quiet and stayed indoors?

35“If only someone would listen to me!
Look, I will sign my name to my defense.
Let the Almighty answer me.
Let my accuser write out the charges against me.

36I would face the accusation proudly.
I would wear it like a crown.

37For I would tell him exactly what I have done.
I would come before him like a prince.

38“If my land accuses me and all its furrows cry out together,

39or if I have stolen its crops or murdered its owners,

40then let thistles grow on that land instead of wheat, and weeds instead of barley.”

Job’s words are ended.

Job 32

ELIHU RESPONDS TO JOB’S FRIENDS

1Job’s three friends refused to reply further to him because he kept insisting on his innocence.

2Then Elihu son of Barakel the Buzite, of the clan of Ram, became angry. He was angry because Job refused to admit that he had sinned and that God was right in punishing him. 3He was also angry with Job's three friends, for they made God* appear to be wrong by their inability to answer Job's arguments. 4Elihu had waited for the others to speak to Job because they were older than he. 5But when he saw that they had no further reply, he spoke out angrily. 6Elihu son of Barakel the Buzite said, "I am young and you are old, so I held back from telling you what I think.

7I thought, 'Those who are older should speak, for wisdom comes with age.'

8But there is a spirit* within people, the breath of the Almighty within them, that makes them intelligent.

9Sometimes the elders are not wise.
Sometimes the aged do not understand justice.

10So listen to me, and let me tell you what I think.

11"I have waited all this time, listening very carefully to your arguments, listening to you grope for words.

12I have listened, but not one of you has refuted Job or answered his arguments.

13And don't tell me, 'He is too wise for us.
Only God can convince him.'

14If Job had been arguing with me, I would not answer with your kind of logic!

15You sit there baffled, with nothing more to say.

16Should I continue to wait, now that you are silent?
Must I also remain silent?

17No, I will say my piece.
I will speak my mind.

18For I am full of pent-up words, and the spirit within me urges me on.

19I am like a cask of wine without a vent, like a new wineskin ready to burst!

20I must speak to find relief, so let me give my answers.

21I won't play favorites or try to flatter anyone.

22For if I tried flattery, my Creator would soon destroy me.

Job 33

ELIHU PRESENTS HIS CASE AGAINST JOB

1"Listen to my words, Job; pay attention to what I have to say.

2Now that I have begun to speak, let me continue.

3I speak with all sincerity; I speak the truth.

4For the Spirit of God has made me, and the breath of the Almighty gives me life.

5Answer me, if you can; make your case and take your stand.

6Look, you and I both belong to God.
I, too, was formed from clay.

7So you don't need to be afraid of me.
I won't come down hard on you.

8"You have spoken in my hearing, and I have heard your very words.

9You said, 'I am pure; I am without sin; I am innocent; I have no guilt.

11He puts my feet in the stocks and watches my every move.'

12“But you are wrong, and I will show you why.
For God is greater than any human being.

13So why are you bringing a charge against him?
Why say he does not respond to people’s complaints?

14For God speaks again and again, though people do not recognize it.

15He speaks in dreams, in visions of the night, when deep sleep falls on people as they lie in their beds.

16He whispers in their ears and terrifies them with warnings.

17He makes them turn from doing wrong; he keeps them from pride.

18He protects them from the grave, from crossing over the river of death.

19“Or God disciplines people with pain on their sickbeds, with ceaseless aching in their bones.

20They lose their appetite for even the most delicious food.

21Their flesh wastes away, and their bones stick out.

22They are at death’s door; the angels of death wait for them.

23“But if an angel from heaven appears— a special messenger to intercede for a person and declare that he is upright—

24he will be gracious and say, ‘Rescue him from the grave, for I have found a ransom for his life.’

25Then his body will become as healthy as a child’s, firm and youthful again.

26When he prays to God, he will be accepted.
And God will receive him with joy and restore him to good standing.

27He will declare to his friends, ‘I sinned and twisted the truth, but it was not worth it.*

28God rescued me from the grave, and now my life is filled with light.’

29“Yes, God does these things again and again for people.

30He rescues them from the grave so they may enjoy the light of life.

31Mark this well, Job. Listen to me, for I have more to say.

32But if you have anything to say, go ahead.
Speak, for I am anxious to see you justified.

33But if not, then listen to me.
Keep silent and I will teach you wisdom!”

Job 34

ELIHU ACCUSES JOB OF ARROGANCE

1Then Elihu said:

2“Listen to me, you wise men.
Pay attention, you who have knowledge.

3Job said, ‘The ear tests the words it hears just as the mouth distinguishes between foods.’

4So let us discern for ourselves what is right; let us learn together what is good.

5For Job also said, ‘I am innocent, but God has taken away my rights.

6I am innocent, but they call me a liar.
My suffering is incurable, though I have not sinned.’

7“Tell me, has there ever been a man like Job, with his thirst for irreverent talk?

8He chooses evil people as companions.
He spends his time with wicked men.

9He has even said, ‘Why waste time trying to please God?’

10“Listen to me, you who have understanding.
Everyone knows that God doesn’t sin!
The Almighty can do no wrong.

11He repays people according to their deeds.
He treats people as they deserve.

12Truly, God will not do wrong.
The Almighty will not twist justice.

13Did someone else put the world in his care?
Who set the whole world in place?

14If God were to take back his spirit and withdraw his breath,

15all life would cease, and humanity would turn again to dust.

16“Now listen to me if you are wise.
Pay attention to what I say.

17Could God govern if he hated justice?
Are you going to condemn the almighty judge?

18For he says to kings, ‘You are wicked,’ and to nobles, ‘You are unjust.’

19He doesn’t care how great a person may be, and he pays no more attention to the rich than to the poor.
He made them all.

20In a moment they die.
In the middle of the night they pass away; the mighty are removed without human hand.

21“For God watches how people live; he sees everything they do.

22No darkness is thick enough to hide the wicked from his eyes.

23We don't set the time when we will come before God in judgment.

24He brings the mighty to ruin without asking anyone, and he sets up others in their place.

25He knows what they do, and in the night he overturns and destroys them.

26He strikes them down because they are wicked, doing it openly for all to see.

27For they turned away from following him.
They have no respect for any of his ways.

28They cause the poor to cry out, catching God's attention.
He hears the cries of the needy.

29But if he chooses to remain quiet, who can criticize him?
When he hides his face, no one can find him, whether an individual or a nation.

30He prevents the godless from ruling so they cannot be a snare to the people.

31"Why don't people say to God, 'I have sinned, but I will sin no more'?

32Or 'I don't know what evil I have done—tell me.
If I have done wrong, I will stop at once'?

33"Must God tailor his justice to your demands?
But you have rejected him!
The choice is yours, not mine.
Go ahead, share your wisdom with us.

34After all, bright people will tell me, and wise people will hear me say,

35'Job speaks out of ignorance; his words lack insight.'

36Job, you deserve the maximum penalty for the wicked way you have talked.

37For you have added rebellion to your sin; you show no respect, and you speak many angry words against God.”

Job 35

ELIHU REMINDS JOB OF GOD’S JUSTICE

1Then Elihu said:

2“Do you think it is right for you to claim, ‘I am righteous before God’?

3For you also ask, ‘What’s in it for me?
What’s the use of living a righteous life?’

4“I will answer you and all your friends, too.

5Look up into the sky, and see the clouds high above you.

6If you sin, how does that affect God?
Even if you sin again and again, what effect will it have on him?

7If you are good, is this some great gift to him?
What could you possibly give him?

8No, your sins affect only people like yourself, and your good deeds also affect only humans.

9“People cry out when they are oppressed.
They groan beneath the power of the mighty.

10Yet they don’t ask, ‘Where is God my Creator, the one who gives songs in the night?

11Where is the one who makes us smarter than the animals and wiser than the birds of the sky?’

12And when they cry out, God does not answer because of their pride.

13But it is wrong to say God doesn’t listen, to say the Almighty isn’t concerned.

14You say you can’t see him, but he will bring justice if you will only wait.*

15You say he does not respond to sinners with anger and is not greatly concerned about wickedness.*

16But you are talking nonsense, Job.
You have spoken like a fool.”

SUFFERING JOB 36:1-21

1Elihu continued speaking:

2“Let me go on, and I will show you the truth.
For I have not finished defending God!

3I will present profound arguments for the righteousness of my Creator.

4I am telling you nothing but the truth, for I am a man of great knowledge.

5“God is mighty, but he does not despise anyone!
He is mighty in both power and understanding.

6He does not let the wicked live but gives justice to the afflicted.

7He never takes his eyes off the innocent, but he sets them on thrones with kings and exalts them forever.

8If they are bound in chains and caught up in a web of trouble,

9he shows them the reason.
He shows them their sins of pride.

10He gets their attention and commands that they turn from evil.

11“If they listen and obey God, they will be blessed with prosperity throughout their lives.
All their years will be pleasant.

12But if they refuse to listen to him, they will cross over the river of death, dying from lack of understanding.

13For the godless are full of resentment.
Even when he punishes them, they refuse to cry out to him for help.

14They die when they are young, after wasting their lives in immoral living.

15But by means of their suffering, he rescues those who suffer.
For he gets their attention through adversity.

16“God is leading you away from danger, Job, to a place free from distress.
He is setting your table with the best food.

17But you are obsessed with whether the godless will be judged.
Don't worry, judgment and justice will be upheld.

18But watch out, or you may be seduced by wealth.*
Don't let yourself be bribed into sin.

19Could all your wealth* or all your mighty efforts keep you from distress?

20Do not long for the cover of night, for that is when people will be destroyed.*

21Be on guard! Turn back from evil, for God sent this suffering to keep you from a life of evil.

ELIHU REMINDS JOB OF GOD'S POWER

22"Look, God is all-powerful.

Who is a teacher like him?

23No one can tell him what to do, or say to him, 'You have done wrong.'

24Instead, glorify his mighty works, singing songs of praise.

25Everyone has seen these things, though only from a distance.

26"Look, God is greater than we can understand.
His years cannot be counted.

27He draws up the water vapor and then distills it into rain.

28The rain pours down from the clouds, and everyone benefits.

29Who can understand the spreading of the clouds and the thunder that rolls forth from heaven?

30See how he spreads the lightning around him and how it lights up the depths of the sea.

31By these mighty acts he nourishes* the people, giving them food in abundance.

32He fills his hands with lightning bolts and hurls each at its target.

33The thunder announces his presence; the storm announces his indignant anger.*

Job 37

1“My heart pounds as I think of this.
It trembles within me.

2Listen carefully to the thunder of God’s voice as it rolls from his mouth.

3It rolls across the heavens, and his lightning flashes in every direction.

4Then comes the roaring of the thunder— the tremendous voice of his majesty.
He does not restrain it when he speaks.

5God’s voice is glorious in the thunder.
We can’t even imagine the greatness of his power.

6“He directs the snow to fall on the earth and tells the rain to pour down.

7Then everyone stops working so they can watch his power.

8The wild animals take cover and stay inside their dens.

9The stormy wind comes from its chamber, and the driving winds bring the cold.

10God’s breath sends the ice, freezing wide expanses of water.

11He loads the clouds with moisture, and they flash with his lightning.

12The clouds churn about at his direction.
They do whatever he commands throughout the earth.

13He makes these things happen either to punish people or to show his unfailing love.

14“Pay attention to this, Job.
Stop and consider the wonderful miracles of God!

15Do you know how God controls the storm and causes the lightning to flash from his clouds?

16Do you understand how he moves the clouds with wonderful perfection and skill?

17When you are sweltering in your clothes and the south wind dies down and everything is still,

18he makes the skies reflect the heat like a bronze mirror.
Can you do that?

19“So teach the rest of us what to say to God.
We are too ignorant to make our own arguments.

20Should God be notified that I want to speak?
Can people even speak when they are confused?*

21We cannot look at the sun, for it shines brightly in the sky when the wind clears away the clouds.

22So also, golden splendor comes from the mountain of God.*
He is clothed in dazzling splendor.

23We cannot imagine the power of the Almighty; but even though he is just and righteous, he does not destroy us.

24No wonder people everywhere fear him.
All who are wise show him reverence.*”

Job 38

THE LORD CHALLENGES JOB

1Then the LORD answered Job from the whirlwind:

2“Who is this that questions my wisdom with such ignorant words?

3Brace yourself like a man, because I have some questions for you, and you must answer them.

4“Where were you when I laid the foundations of the earth?
Tell me, if you know so much.

5Who determined its dimensions and stretched out the surveying line?

6What supports its foundations, and who laid its cornerstone

7as the morning stars sang together and all the angels* shouted for joy?

8“Who kept the sea inside its boundaries as it burst from the womb, 9and as I clothed it with clouds and wrapped it in thick darkness?

10For I locked it behind barred gates, limiting its shores.

11I said, ‘This far and no farther will you come.
Here your proud waves must stop!’

12“Have you ever commanded the morning to appear and caused the dawn to rise in the east?

13Have you made daylight spread to the ends of the earth, to bring an end to the night’s wickedness?

14As the light approaches, the earth takes shape like clay pressed beneath a seal; it is robed in brilliant colors.*

15The light disturbs the wicked and stops the arm that is raised in violence.

16“Have you explored the springs from which the seas come?
Have you explored their depths?

17Do you know where the gates of death are located?
Have you seen the gates of utter gloom?

18Do you realize the extent of the earth?
Tell me about it if you know!

19“Where does light come from, and where does darkness go?

20Can you take each to its home?
Do you know how to get there?

21But of course you know all this!
For you were born before it was all created, and you are so very experienced!

22“Have you visited the storehouses of the snow or seen the storehouses of hail?

23(I have reserved them as weapons for the time of trouble, for the day of battle and war.)

24Where is the path to the source of light?
Where is the home of the east wind?

25“Who created a channel for the torrents of rain?
Who laid out the path for the lightning?

26Who makes the rain fall on barren land, in a desert where no one lives?

27Who sends rain to satisfy the parched ground and make the tender grass spring up?

28“Does the rain have a father?
Who gives birth to the dew?

29Who is the mother of the ice?
Who gives birth to the frost from the heavens?

30For the water turns to ice as hard as rock, and the surface of the water freezes.

31“Can you direct the movement of the stars— binding the cluster of the Pleiades or loosening the cords of Orion?

32Can you direct the constellations through the seasons or guide the Bear with her cubs across the heavens?

33Do you know the laws of the universe?
Can you use them to regulate the earth?

34“Can you shout to the clouds and make it rain?

35Can you make lightning appear and cause it to strike as you direct?

36Who gives intuition to the heart and instinct to the mind?

37Who is wise enough to count all the clouds?
Who can tilt the water jars of heaven

38when the parched ground is dry and the soil has hardened into clods?

39“Can you stalk prey for a lioness and satisfy the young lions’ appetites

40as they lie in their dens or crouch in the thicket?

41Who provides food for the ravens when their young cry out to God and wander about in hunger?

Job 39

THE LORD'S CHALLENGE CONTINUES

1"Do you know when the wild goats give birth?
Have you watched as deer are born in the wild?

2Do you know how many months they carry their young?
Are you aware of the time of their delivery?

3They crouch down to give birth to their young and deliver their offspring.

4Their young grow up in the open fields, then leave home and never return.

5"Who gives the wild donkey its freedom?
Who untied its ropes?

6I have placed it in the wilderness; its home is the wasteland.

7It hates the noise of the city and has no driver to shout at it.

8The mountains are its pastureland, where it searches for every blade of grass.

9"Will the wild ox consent to being tamed?
Will it spend the night in your stall?

10Can you hitch a wild ox to a plow?
Will it plow a field for you?

11Given its strength, can you trust it?
Can you leave and trust the ox to do your work?

12Can you rely on it to bring home your grain and deliver it to your threshing floor?

13"The ostrich flaps her wings grandly, but they are no match for the feathers of the stork.

14She lays her eggs on top of the earth, letting them be warmed in the dust.

15She doesn't worry that a foot might crush them or a wild animal might destroy them.

16She is harsh toward her young, as if they were not her own.
She doesn't care if they die.

17For God has deprived her of wisdom.
He has given her no understanding.

18But whenever she jumps up to run, she passes the swiftest horse with its rider.

19"Have you given the horse its strength or clothed its neck with a flowing mane?

20Did you give it the ability to leap like a locust?
Its majestic snorting is terrifying!

21It paws the earth and rejoices in its strength when it charges out to battle.

22It laughs at fear and is unafraid.
It does not run from the sword.

23The arrows rattle against it, and the spear and javelin flash.

24It paws the ground fiercely and rushes forward into battle when the ram's horn blows.

25It snorts at the sound of the horn.
It senses the battle in the distance.
It quivers at the captain's commands and the noise of battle.

26"Is it your wisdom that makes the hawk soar and spread its wings toward the south?

27Is it at your command that the eagle rises to the heights to make its nest?

28It lives on the cliffs, making its home on a distant, rocky crag.

29From there it hunts its prey, keeping watch with piercing eyes.

30Its young gulp down blood.
Where there's a carcass, there you'll find it."

Job 40

1Then the LORD said to Job,

2"Do you still want to argue with the Almighty?
You are God's critic, but do you have the answers?"

JOB RESPONDS TO THE LORD

3Then Job replied to the LORD,

4“I am nothing—how could I ever find the answers?
I will cover my mouth with my hand.

5I have said too much already.
I have nothing more to say.”

THE LORD CHALLENGES JOB AGAIN

6Then the LORD answered Job from the whirlwind:

7“Brace yourself like a man, because I have some questions for you,
and you must answer them.

8“Will you discredit my justice and condemn me just to prove you are right?

9Are you as strong as God?
Can you thunder with a voice like his?

10All right, put on your glory and splendor, your honor and majesty.

11Give vent to your anger.
Let it overflow against the proud.

12Humiliate the proud with a glance; walk on the wicked where they stand.

13Bury them in the dust.
Imprison them in the world of the dead.

14Then even I would praise you, for your own strength would save
you.

15“Take a look at Behemoth,* which I made, just as I made you.
It eats grass like an ox.

16See its powerful loins and the muscles of its belly.

17Its tail is as strong as a cedar.
The sinews of its thighs are knit tightly together.

18Its bones are tubes of bronze.
Its limbs are bars of iron.

19It is a prime example of God's handiwork, and only its Creator can threaten it.

20The mountains offer it their best food, where all the wild animals play.

21It lies under the lotus plants,* hidden by the reeds in the marsh.

22The lotus plants give it shade among the willows beside the stream.

23It is not disturbed by the raging river, not concerned when the swelling Jordan rushes around it.

24No one can catch it off guard or put a ring in its nose and lead it away.

Job 41

THE LORD'S CHALLENGE CONTINUES

1*"Can you catch Leviathan* with a hook or put a noose around its jaw?

2Can you tie it with a rope through the nose or pierce its jaw with a spike?

3Will it beg you for mercy or implore you for pity?

4Will it agree to work for you, to be your slave for life?

5Can you make it a pet like a bird, or give it to your little girls to play with?

6Will merchants try to buy it to sell it in their shops?

7Will its hide be hurt by spears or its head by a harpoon?

8If you lay a hand on it, you will certainly remember the battle that follows.
You won't try that again!

9*No, it is useless to try to capture it.
The hunter who attempts it will be knocked down.

10And since no one dares to disturb it, who then can stand up to me?

11Who has given me anything that I need to pay back?
Everything under heaven is mine.

12"I want to emphasize Leviathan's limbs and its enormous strength and graceful form.

13Who can strip off its hide, and who can penetrate its double layer of armor?*

14Who could pry open its jaws?
For its teeth are terrible!

15The scales on its back are like* rows of shields tightly sealed together.

16They are so close together that no air can get between them.

17Each scale sticks tight to the next.
They interlock and cannot be penetrated.

18“When it sneezes, it flashes light!
Its eyes are like the red of dawn.

19Lightning leaps from its mouth; flames of fire flash out.

20Smoke streams from its nostrils like steam from a pot heated over burning rushes.

21Its breath would kindle coals, for flames shoot from its mouth.

22“The tremendous strength in Leviathan’s neck strikes terror wherever it goes.

23Its flesh is hard and firm and cannot be penetrated.

24Its heart is hard as rock, hard as a millstone.

25When it rises, the mighty are afraid, gripped by terror.

26No sword can stop it, no spear, dart, or javelin.

27Iron is nothing but straw to that creature, and bronze is like rotten wood.

28Arrows cannot make it flee.
Stones shot from a sling are like bits of grass.

29Clubs are like a blade of grass, and it laughs at the swish of javelins.

30Its belly is covered with scales as sharp as glass.
It plows up the ground as it drags through the mud.

31“Leviathan makes the water boil with its commotion.
It stirs the depths like a pot of ointment.

32The water glistens in its wake, making the sea look white.

33Nothing on earth is its equal, no other creature so fearless.

34Of all the creatures, it is the proudest.
It is the king of beasts.”

Job 42

JOB RESPONDS TO THE LORD

1Then Job replied to the LORD:

2“I know that you can do anything, and no one can stop you.

3You asked, ‘Who is this that questions my wisdom with such ignorance?’
It is I—and I was talking about things I knew nothing about, things far too wonderful for me.

4You said, ‘Listen and I will speak!
I have some questions for you, and you must answer them.’

5I had only heard about you before, but now I have seen you with my own eyes.

6I take back everything I said, and I sit in dust and ashes to show my repentance.”

CONCLUSION: THE LORD BLESSES JOB

7After the LORD had finished speaking to Job, he said to Eliphaz the Temanite: “I am angry with you and your two friends, for you have not spoken accurately about me, as my servant Job has. 8So take seven bulls and seven rams and go to my servant Job and offer a burnt offering for yourselves. My servant Job will pray for you, and I will accept his prayer on your behalf. I will not treat you as you deserve, for you have not spoken accurately about me, as my servant Job has.” 9So Eliphaz the Temanite, Bildad the Shuhite, and Zophar the Naamathite did as the LORD commanded them, and the LORD accepted Job’s prayer.

10When Job prayed for his friends, the LORD restored his fortunes. In fact, the LORD gave him twice as much as before! 11Then all his brothers, sisters, and former friends came and feasted with him in his home. And they consoled him and comforted him because of all the trials the LORD had brought against him. And each of them brought him a gift of money* and a gold ring.

12So the LORD blessed Job in the second half of his life even more than in the beginning. For now he had 14,000 sheep, 6,000 camels, 1,000 teams of oxen, and 1,000 female donkeys. 13He also gave Job seven more sons and three more daughters. 14He named his first daughter Jemimah, the second Keziah, and the third Keren-happuch. 15In all the land no women were as lovely as the daughters of Job. And their father put them into his will along with their brothers.

16Job lived 140 years after that, living to see four generations of his children and grandchildren. 17Then he died, an old man who had lived a long, full life.

WELCOME TO

PSALMS

The book of Psalms is a loosely organized collection of poetry and songs that were used during worship in ancient Israel. They were written over the course of centuries by many different authors. The Jews used the book of Psalms in much the same way that churches use worship songs today: for public and personal worship.

These songs are timeless. They speak to the full range of our emotions: sorrow and joy, anger and peace, doubt and faith, repentance and praise. Some psalms are related to a particular writer or historical event from the Bible, but most of the psalms have no specific background other than the Israelites' worship. Rich in imagery, they express profound emotion and provide instruction, celebration, and insights into God's nature. Some psalms recall the past, some describe struggles of present circumstances, and some envision a glorious future. Read one and you'll probably want to read more. You won't be disappointed.

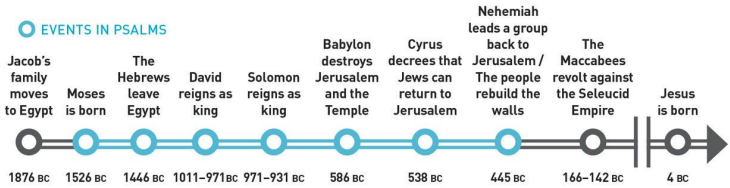
FINDING JESUS IN PSALMS

The psalms contain some of the clearest references to Jesus found in the Old Testament. In all, seventeen psalms are considered "messianic" because they refer to Jesus' mission. Psalm 2 describes the holy power that Jesus has as the King's Son, including his righteous judgment upon sin. Many other psalms specifically describe the suffering and death that Jesus endured. Psalm 22 is especially poignant, being the psalm that Jesus quoted while hanging on the cross: "My God, my God, why have you abandoned me?" Psalm 34:20 contains a prophetic vision of how the Father nonetheless preserved Jesus' body. Finally, Psalm 119 is a meditation on the law of God, which Jesus himself fulfilled completely.



Book One (Psalms 1–41)

Psalm 1

1Oh, the joys of those who do not follow the advice of the wicked, or stand around with sinners, or join in with mockers.

2But they delight in the law of the LORD, meditating on it day and night.

3They are like trees planted along the riverbank, bearing fruit each season.
Their leaves never wither, and they prosper in all they do.

4But not the wicked!

They are like worthless chaff, scattered by the wind.

5They will be condemned at the time of judgment.
Sinners will have no place among the godly.

6For the LORD watches over the path of the godly, but the path of the wicked leads to destruction.

THE MESSIAH PSALM 2

Psalm 2

1Why are the nations so angry?
Why do they waste their time with futile plans?

2The kings of the earth prepare for battle; the rulers plot together against the LORD and against his anointed one.

3“Let us break their chains,” they cry, “and free ourselves from slavery to God.”

4But the one who rules in heaven laughs.
The Lord scoffs at them.

5Then in anger he rebukes them, terrifying them with his fierce fury.

6For the Lord declares, “I have placed my chosen king on the throne in Jerusalem,* on my holy mountain.”

7The king proclaims the LORD’s decree: “The LORD said to me, ‘You are my son.*
Today I have become your Father.*

8Only ask, and I will give you the nations as your inheritance, the whole earth as your possession.

9You will break* them with an iron rod and smash them like clay pots.’”

10Now then, you kings, act wisely!
Be warned, you rulers of the earth!

11Serve the LORD with reverent fear, and rejoice with trembling.

12Submit to God’s royal son,* or he will become angry, and you will be destroyed in the midst of all your activities— for his anger flares up in an instant.
But what joy for all who take refuge in him!

Psalm 3

A psalm of David, regarding the time David fled from his son Absalom.

1O LORD, I have so many enemies; so many are against me.

2So many are saying, “God will never rescue him!”

Interlude

3But you, O LORD, are a shield around me; you are my glory, the one who holds my head high.

4I cried out to the LORD, and he answered me from his holy mountain.

Interlude

5I lay down and slept, yet I woke up in safety, for the LORD was watching over me.

6I am not afraid of ten thousand enemies who surround me on every side.

7Arise, O LORD!
Rescue me, my God!
Slap all my enemies in the face!
Shatter the teeth of the wicked!

8Victory comes from you, O LORD.
May you bless your people.

Interlude

Psalm 4

For the choir director: A psalm of David, to be accompanied by stringed instruments.

1Answer me when I call to you, O God who declares me innocent.
Free me from my troubles.
Have mercy on me and hear my prayer.

2How long will you people ruin my reputation?
How long will you make groundless accusations?

How long will you continue your lies?

Interlude

3You can be sure of this: The LORD set apart the godly for himself.
The LORD will answer when I call to him.

4Don't sin by letting anger control you.
Think about it overnight and remain silent.

Interlude

5Offer sacrifices in the right spirit, and trust the LORD.

6Many people say, "Who will show us better times?"
Let your face smile on us, LORD.

7You have given me greater joy than those who have abundant harvests of grain and new wine.

8In peace I will lie down and sleep, for you alone, O LORD, will keep me safe.

Psalm 5

For the choir director: A psalm of David, to be accompanied by the flute.

1O LORD, hear me as I pray; pay attention to my groaning.

2Listen to my cry for help, my King and my God, for I pray to no one but you.

3Listen to my voice in the morning, LORD.
Each morning I bring my requests to you and wait expectantly.

4O God, you take no pleasure in wickedness; you cannot tolerate the sins of the wicked.

5Therefore, the proud may not stand in your presence, for you hate all who do evil.

6You will destroy those who tell lies.
The LORD detests murderers and deceivers.

7Because of your unfailing love, I can enter your house; I will worship at your Temple with deepest awe.

8Lead me in the right path, O LORD, or my enemies will conquer me.
Make your way plain for me to follow.

9My enemies cannot speak a truthful word.
Their deepest desire is to destroy others.
Their talk is foul, like the stench from an open grave.
Their tongues are filled with flattery.*

10O God, declare them guilty.
Let them be caught in their own traps.
Drive them away because of their many sins, for they have rebelled against you.

11But let all who take refuge in you rejoice; let them sing joyful praises forever.
Spread your protection over them, that all who love your name may be filled with joy.

12For you bless the godly, O LORD; you surround them with your shield of love.

Psalm 6

*For the choir director: A psalm of David, to be accompanied by an eight-stringed instrument.

1O LORD, don't rebuke me in your anger or discipline me in your rage.

2Have compassion on me, LORD, for I am weak.
Heal me, LORD, for my bones are in agony.

3I am sick at heart.
How long, O LORD, until you restore me?

4Return, O LORD, and rescue me.
Save me because of your unfailing love.

5For the dead do not remember you.
Who can praise you from the grave?*

6I am worn out from sobbing.
All night I flood my bed with weeping, drenching it with my tears.

7My vision is blurred by grief; my eyes are worn out because of all my enemies.

8Go away, all you who do evil, for the LORD has heard my weeping.

9The LORD has heard my plea; the LORD will answer my prayer.

10May all my enemies be disgraced and terrified.
May they suddenly turn back in shame.

Psalm 7

A psalm of David, which he sang to the LORD concerning Cush of the tribe of Benjamin.*

1I come to you for protection, O LORD my God.
Save me from my persecutors—rescue me!

2If you don't, they will maul me like a lion, tearing me to pieces with no one to rescue me.

3O LORD my God, if I have done wrong or am guilty of injustice,

4if I have betrayed a friend or plundered my enemy without cause, 5then let my enemies capture me.

Let them trample me into the ground and drag my honor in the dust.

Interlude

6Arise, O LORD, in anger!
Stand up against the fury of my enemies!
Wake up, my God, and bring justice!

7Gather the nations before you.
Rule over them from on high.

8The LORD judges the nations.
Declare me righteous, O LORD, for I am innocent, O Most High!

9End the evil of those who are wicked, and defend the righteous.
For you look deep within the mind and heart, O righteous God.

10God is my shield, saving those whose hearts are true and right.

11God is an honest judge.
He is angry with the wicked every day.

12If a person does not repent, God* will sharpen his sword; he will bend and string his bow.

13He will prepare his deadly weapons and shoot his flaming arrows.

14The wicked conceive evil; they are pregnant with trouble and give birth to lies.

15They dig a deep pit to trap others, then fall into it themselves.

16The trouble they make for others backfires on them.
The violence they plan falls on their own heads.

17I will thank the LORD because he is just; I will sing praise to the name of the LORD Most High.

Psalm 8

For the choir director: A psalm of David, to be accompanied by a stringed instrument. *

1O LORD, our Lord, your majestic name fills the earth!
Your glory is higher than the heavens.

2You have taught children and infants to tell of your strength,* silencing your enemies and all who oppose you.

3When I look at the night sky and see the work of your fingers— the moon and the stars you set in place—

4what are mere mortals that you should think about them, human beings that you should care for them?*

5Yet you made them only a little lower than God* and crowned them* with glory and honor.

6You gave them charge of everything you made, putting all things under their authority—

7the flocks and the herds and all the wild animals,

8the birds in the sky, the fish in the sea, and everything that swims the ocean currents.

9O LORD, our Lord, your majestic name fills the earth!

Psalm 9

For the choir director: A psalm of David, to be sung to the tune "Death of the Son."

1I will praise you, LORD, with all my heart; I will tell of all the marvelous things you have done.

2I will be filled with joy because of you.
I will sing praises to your name, O Most High.

3My enemies retreated; they staggered and died when you appeared.

4For you have judged in my favor; from your throne you have judged with fairness.

5You have rebuked the nations and destroyed the wicked; you have erased their names forever.

6The enemy is finished, in endless ruins; the cities you uprooted are now forgotten.

7But the LORD reigns forever, executing judgment from his throne.

8He will judge the world with justice and rule the nations with fairness.

9The LORD is a shelter for the oppressed, a refuge in times of trouble.

10Those who know your name trust in you, for you, O LORD, do not abandon those who search for you.

11Sing praises to the LORD who reigns in Jerusalem.*
Tell the world about his unforgettable deeds.

12For he who avenges murder cares for the helpless.
He does not ignore the cries of those who suffer.

13LORD, have mercy on me.
See how my enemies torment me.
Snatch me back from the jaws of death.

14Save me so I can praise you publicly at Jerusalem's gates, so I can rejoice that you have rescued me.

15The nations have fallen into the pit they dug for others.
Their own feet have been caught in the trap they set.

16The LORD is known for his justice.
The wicked are trapped by their own deeds.

*Quiet Interlude

17The wicked will go down to the grave.*
This is the fate of all the nations who ignore God.

18But the needy will not be ignored forever; the hopes of the poor will not always be crushed.

19Arise, O LORD!
Do not let mere mortals defy you!
Judge the nations!

20Make them tremble in fear, O LORD.
Let the nations know they are merely human.

Interlude

Psalm 10

1O LORD, why do you stand so far away?
Why do you hide when I am in trouble?

2The wicked arrogantly hunt down the poor.
Let them be caught in the evil they plan for others.

3For they brag about their evil desires; they praise the greedy and curse the LORD.

4The wicked are too proud to seek God.
They seem to think that God is dead.

5Yet they succeed in everything they do.
They do not see your punishment awaiting them.
They sneer at all their enemies.

6They think, “Nothing bad will ever happen to us!
We will be free of trouble forever!”

7Their mouths are full of cursing, lies, and threats.*
Trouble and evil are on the tips of their tongues.

8They lurk in ambush in the villages, waiting to murder innocent people.
They are always searching for helpless victims.

9Like lions crouched in hiding, they wait to pounce on the helpless.
Like hunters they capture the helpless and drag them away in nets.

10Their helpless victims are crushed; they fall beneath the strength of the wicked.

11The wicked think, “God isn’t watching us!
He has closed his eyes and won’t even see what we do!”

12Arise, O LORD!
Punish the wicked, O God!
Do not ignore the helpless!

13Why do the wicked get away with despising God?
They think, “God will never call us to account.”

14But you see the trouble and grief they cause.
You take note of it and punish them.
The helpless put their trust in you.
You defend the orphans.

15Break the arms of these wicked, evil people!
Go after them until the last one is destroyed.

16The LORD is king forever and ever!
The godless nations will vanish from the land.

17LORD, you know the hopes of the helpless.
Surely you will hear their cries and comfort them.

18You will bring justice to the orphans and the oppressed, so mere people can no longer terrify them.

Psalm 11

For the choir director: A psalm of David.

1I trust in the LORD for protection.
So why do you say to me, “Fly like a bird to the mountains for safety!

2The wicked are stringing their bows and fitting their arrows on the bowstrings.
They shoot from the shadows at those whose hearts are right.

3The foundations of law and order have collapsed.
What can the righteous do?”

4But the LORD is in his holy Temple; the LORD still rules from heaven.
He watches everyone closely, examining every person on earth.

5The LORD examines both the righteous and the wicked.
He hates those who love violence.

6He will rain down blazing coals and burning sulfur on the wicked, punishing them with scorching winds.

7For the righteous LORD loves justice.
The virtuous will see his face.

Psalm 12

For the choir director: A psalm of David, to be accompanied by an eight-stringed instrument. *

1Help, O LORD, for the godly are fast disappearing!
The faithful have vanished from the earth!

2Neighbors lie to each other, speaking with flattering lips and deceitful hearts.

3May the LORD cut off their flattering lips and silence their boastful tongues.

4They say, “We will lie to our hearts’ content.
Our lips are our own—who can stop us?”

5The LORD replies, “I have seen violence done to the helpless, and I have heard the groans of the poor.
Now I will rise up to rescue them, as they have longed for me to do.”

6The LORD’s promises are pure, like silver refined in a furnace, purified seven times over.

7Therefore, LORD, we know you will protect the oppressed, preserving them forever from this lying generation, 8even though the wicked strut about, and evil is praised throughout the land.

Psalm 13

For the choir director: A psalm of David.

1O LORD, how long will you forget me? Forever?
How long will you look the other way?

2How long must I struggle with anguish in my soul, with sorrow in my heart every day?
How long will my enemy have the upper hand?

3Turn and answer me, O LORD my God!
Restore the sparkle to my eyes, or I will die.

4Don’t let my enemies gloat, saying, “We have defeated him!”
Don’t let them rejoice at my downfall.

5But I trust in your unfailing love.
I will rejoice because you have rescued me.

6I will sing to the LORD because he is good to me.

Psalm 14

For the choir director: A psalm of David.

1Only fools say in their hearts, “There is no God.”
They are corrupt, and their actions are evil; not one of them does good!

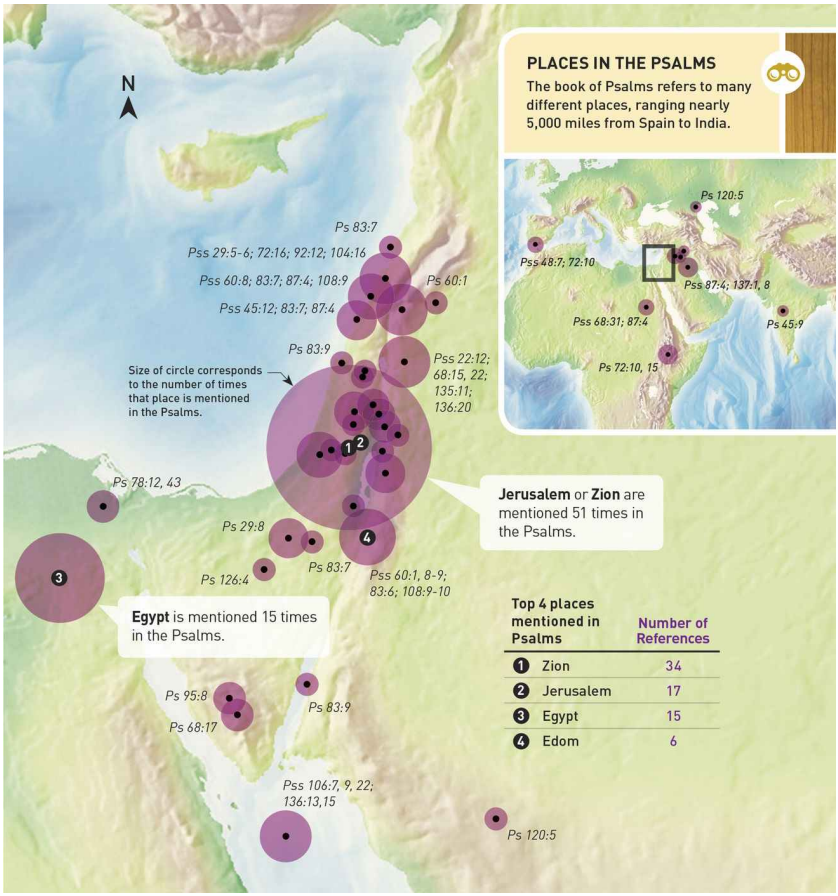
2The LORD looks down from heaven on the entire human race; he looks to see if anyone is truly wise, if anyone seeks God.

3But no, all have turned away; all have become corrupt.*
No one does good, not a single one!

4Will those who do evil never learn?
They eat up my people like bread and wouldn’t think of praying to the LORD.

5Terror will grip them, for God is with those who obey him.

6The wicked frustrate the plans of the oppressed, but the LORD will protect his people.



PLACES IN THE PSALMS

7Who will come from Mount Zion to rescue Israel?
When the LORD restores his people, Jacob will shout with joy, and Israel will rejoice.

Psalm 15

A psalm of David.

1Who may worship in your sanctuary, LORD?
Who may enter your presence on your holy hill?

2Those who lead blameless lives and do what is right, speaking the truth from sincere hearts.

3Those who refuse to gossip or harm their neighbors or speak evil of their friends.

4Those who despise flagrant sinners, and honor the faithful followers of the LORD, and keep their promises even when it hurts.

5Those who lend money without charging interest, and who cannot be bribed to lie about the innocent.
Such people will stand firm forever.

Psalm 16

A psalm of David.*

1Keep me safe, O God, for I have come to you for refuge.

2I said to the LORD, “You are my Master!
Every good thing I have comes from you.”

3The godly people in the land are my true heroes!
I take pleasure in them!

4Troubles multiply for those who chase after other gods.
I will not take part in their sacrifices of blood or even speak the names of their gods.

5LORD, you alone are my inheritance, my cup of blessing.
You guard all that is mine.

6The land you have given me is a pleasant land.
What a wonderful inheritance!

7I will bless the LORD who guides me; even at night my heart instructs me.

8I know the LORD is always with me.
I will not be shaken, for he is right beside me.

9No wonder my heart is glad, and I rejoice.*
My body rests in safety.

10For you will not leave my soul among the dead*
or allow your holy one* to rot in the grave.

11You will show me the way of life, granting me the joy of your presence and the pleasures of living with you forever.*

FACING GOD PSALM 17

Psalm 17

A prayer of David.

1O LORD, hear my plea for justice.
Listen to my cry for help.
Pay attention to my prayer, for it comes from honest lips.

2Declare me innocent, for you see those who do right.

3You have tested my thoughts and examined my heart in the night.
You have scrutinized me and found nothing wrong.
I am determined not to sin in what I say.

4I have followed your commands, which keep me from following cruel and evil people.

5My steps have stayed on your path; I have not wavered from following you.

6I am praying to you because I know you will answer, O God.
Bend down and listen as I pray.

7Show me your unfailing love in wonderful ways.
By your mighty power you rescue those who seek refuge from their enemies.

8Guard me as you would guard your own eyes.*
Hide me in the shadow of your wings.

9Protect me from wicked people who attack me, from murderous enemies who surround me.

10They are without pity.
Listen to their boasting!

11They track me down and surround me, watching for the chance to throw me to the ground.

12They are like hungry lions, eager to tear me apart— like young lions hiding in ambush.

13Arise, O LORD!
Stand against them, and bring them to their knees!
Rescue me from the wicked with your sword!

14By the power of your hand, O LORD, destroy those who look to this world for their reward.
But satisfy the hunger of your treasured ones.
May their children have plenty, leaving an inheritance for their descendants.

15Because I am righteous, I will see you.
When I awake, I will see you face to face and be satisfied.

Psalm 18

For the choir director: A psalm of David, the servant of the LORD. He sang this song to the LORD on the day the LORD rescued him from all his enemies and from Saul. He sang: 1 I love you, LORD; you are my strength.

2 The LORD is my rock, my fortress, and my savior; my God is my rock, in whom I find protection.
He is my shield, the power that saves me, and my place of safety.

3 I called on the LORD, who is worthy of praise, and he saved me from my enemies.

4 The ropes of death entangled me; floods of destruction swept over me.

5 The grave* wrapped its ropes around me; death laid a trap in my path.

6 But in my distress I cried out to the LORD; yes, I prayed to my God for help.
He heard me from his sanctuary; my cry to him reached his ears.

7 Then the earth quaked and trembled.
The foundations of the mountains shook; they quaked because of his anger.

8 Smoke poured from his nostrils; fierce flames leaped from his mouth.
Glowing coals blazed forth from him.

9 He opened the heavens and came down; dark storm clouds were beneath his feet.

10 Mounted on a mighty angelic being,* he flew, soaring on the wings of the wind.

11 He shrouded himself in darkness, veiling his approach with dark rain clouds.

12Thick clouds shielded the brightness around him and rained down hail and burning coals.*

13The LORD thundered from heaven; the voice of the Most High resounded amid the hail and burning coals.

14He shot his arrows and scattered his enemies; great bolts of lightning flashed, and they were confused.

15Then at your command, O LORD, at the blast of your breath, the bottom of the sea could be seen, and the foundations of the earth were laid bare.

16He reached down from heaven and rescued me; he drew me out of deep waters.

17He rescued me from my powerful enemies, from those who hated me and were too strong for me.

18They attacked me at a moment when I was in distress, but the LORD supported me.

19He led me to a place of safety; he rescued me because he delights in me.

20The LORD rewarded me for doing right; he restored me because of my innocence.

21For I have kept the ways of the LORD; I have not turned from my God to follow evil.

22I have followed all his regulations; I have never abandoned his decrees.

23I am blameless before God; I have kept myself from sin.

24The LORD rewarded me for doing right.
He has seen my innocence.

25To the faithful you show yourself faithful; to those with integrity you show integrity.

26To the pure you show yourself pure, but to the crooked you show yourself shrewd.

27You rescue the humble, but you humiliate the proud.

28You light a lamp for me.
The LORD, my God, lights up my darkness.

29In your strength I can crush an army; with my God I can scale any wall.

30God's way is perfect.
All the LORD's promises prove true.
He is a shield for all who look to him for protection.

31For who is God except the LORD?
Who but our God is a solid rock?

32God arms me with strength, and he makes my way perfect.

33He makes me as surefooted as a deer, enabling me to stand on mountain heights.

34He trains my hands for battle; he strengthens my arm to draw a bronze bow.

35You have given me your shield of victory.
Your right hand supports me; your help* has made me great.

36You have made a wide path for my feet to keep them from slipping.

37I chased my enemies and caught them; I did not stop until they were conquered.

38I struck them down so they could not get up; they fell beneath my feet.

39You have armed me with strength for the battle; you have subdued my enemies under my feet.

40You placed my foot on their necks.
I have destroyed all who hated me.

41They called for help, but no one came to their rescue.
They even cried to the LORD, but he refused to answer.

42I ground them as fine as dust in the wind.
I swept them into the gutter like dirt.

43You gave me victory over my accusers.
You appointed me ruler over nations; people I don't even know now serve me.

44As soon as they hear of me, they submit; foreign nations cringe before me.

45They all lose their courage and come trembling from their strongholds.

46The LORD lives! Praise to my Rock!
May the God of my salvation be exalted!

47He is the God who pays back those who harm me; he subdues the nations under me

48and rescues me from my enemies.
You hold me safe beyond the reach of my enemies; you save me from violent opponents.

49For this, O LORD, I will praise you among the nations; I will sing praises to your name.

50You give great victories to your king; you show unfailing love to your anointed, to David and all his descendants forever.

Psalm 19

For the choir director: A psalm of David.

1The heavens proclaim the glory of God.
The skies display his craftsmanship.

2Day after day they continue to speak; night after night they make him known.

3They speak without a sound or word; their voice is never heard.*

4Yet their message has gone throughout the earth, and their words to all the world.
God has made a home in the heavens for the sun.

5It bursts forth like a radiant bridegroom after his wedding.
It rejoices like a great athlete eager to run the race.

6The sun rises at one end of the heavens and follows its course to the other end.
Nothing can hide from its heat.

7The instructions of the LORD are perfect, reviving the soul.
The decrees of the LORD are trustworthy, making wise the simple.

8The commandments of the LORD are right, bringing joy to the heart.
The commands of the LORD are clear, giving insight for living.

9Reverence for the LORD is pure, lasting forever.
The laws of the LORD are true; each one is fair.

10They are more desirable than gold, even the finest gold.
They are sweeter than honey, even honey dripping from the comb.

11They are a warning to your servant, a great reward for those who obey them.

12How can I know all the sins lurking in my heart?
Cleanse me from these hidden faults.

13Keep your servant from deliberate sins!
Don't let them control me.
Then I will be free of guilt and innocent of great sin.

14May the words of my mouth and the meditation of my heart be pleasing to you, O LORD, my rock and my redeemer.

Psalm 20

For the choir director: A psalm of David.

1In times of trouble, may the LORD answer your cry.
May the name of the God of Jacob keep you safe from all harm.

2May he send you help from his sanctuary and strengthen you from Jerusalem.*

3May he remember all your gifts and look favorably on your burnt offerings.

Interlude

4May he grant your heart's desires and make all your plans succeed.

5May we shout for joy when we hear of your victory and raise a victory banner in the name of our God.
May the LORD answer all your prayers.

6Now I know that the LORD rescues his anointed king.
He will answer him from his holy heaven and rescue him by his great power.

7Some nations boast of their chariots and horses, but we boast in the name of the LORD our God.

8Those nations will fall down and collapse, but we will rise up and stand firm.

9Give victory to our king, O LORD!
Answer our cry for help.

Psalm 21

For the choir director: A psalm of David.

1How the king rejoices in your strength, O LORD!
He shouts with joy because you give him victory.

2For you have given him his heart's desire; you have withheld nothing he requested.

Interlude

3You welcomed him back with success and prosperity.
You placed a crown of finest gold on his head.

4He asked you to preserve his life, and you granted his request.
The days of his life stretch on forever.

5Your victory brings him great honor, and you have clothed him with splendor and majesty.

6You have endowed him with eternal blessings and given him the joy of your presence.

7For the king trusts in the LORD.
The unfailing love of the Most High will keep him from stumbling.

8You will capture all your enemies.
Your strong right hand will seize all who hate you.

9You will throw them in a flaming furnace when you appear.
The LORD will consume them in his anger; fire will devour them.

10You will wipe their children from the face of the earth; they will never have descendants.

11Although they plot against you, their evil schemes will never succeed.

12For they will turn and run when they see your arrows aimed at them.

13Rise up, O LORD, in all your power.
With music and singing we celebrate your mighty acts.

SUFFERING PSALM 22

Psalm 22

For the choir director: A psalm of David, to be sung to the tune "Doe of the Dawn."

1My God, my God, why have you abandoned me?
Why are you so far away when I groan for help?

2Every day I call to you, my God, but you do not answer.
Every night I lift my voice, but I find no relief.

3Yet you are holy, enthroned on the praises of Israel.

4Our ancestors trusted in you, and you rescued them.

5They cried out to you and were saved.
They trusted in you and were never disgraced.

6But I am a worm and not a man.

I am scorned and despised by all!

7Everyone who sees me mocks me.
They sneer and shake their heads, saying,

8“Is this the one who relies on the LORD?
Then let the LORD save him!
If the LORD loves him so much, let the LORD rescue him!”

9Yet you brought me safely from my mother’s womb and led me to trust you at my mother’s breast.

10I was thrust into your arms at my birth.
You have been my God from the moment I was born.

11Do not stay so far from me, for trouble is near, and no one else can help me.

12My enemies surround me like a herd of bulls; fierce bulls of Bashan have hemmed me in!

13Like lions they open their jaws against me, roaring and tearing into their prey.

14My life is poured out like water, and all my bones are out of joint.
My heart is like wax, melting within me.

15My strength has dried up like sunbaked clay.
My tongue sticks to the roof of my mouth.
You have laid me in the dust and left me for dead.

16My enemies surround me like a pack of dogs; an evil gang closes in on me.
They have pierced* my hands and feet.

17I can count all my bones.
My enemies stare at me and gloat.

18They divide my garments among themselves and throw dice* for my clothing.

19O LORD, do not stay far away!
You are my strength; come quickly to my aid!

20Save me from the sword; spare my precious life from these dogs.

21Snatch me from the lion's jaws and from the horns of these wild oxen.

22I will proclaim your name to my brothers and sisters.*
I will praise you among your assembled people.

23Praise the LORD, all you who fear him!
Honor him, all you descendants of Jacob!
Show him reverence, all you descendants of Israel!

24For he has not ignored or belittled the suffering of the needy.
He has not turned his back on them, but has listened to their cries for help.

25I will praise you in the great assembly.
I will fulfill my vows in the presence of those who worship you.

26The poor will eat and be satisfied.
All who seek the LORD will praise him.
Their hearts will rejoice with everlasting joy.

27The whole earth will acknowledge the LORD and return to him.
All the families of the nations will bow down before him.

28For royal power belongs to the LORD.
He rules all the nations.

29Let the rich of the earth feast and worship.
Bow before him, all who are mortal, all whose lives will end as dust.

30Our children will also serve him.
Future generations will hear about the wonders of the Lord.

31His righteous acts will be told to those not yet born.
They will hear about everything he has done.

Psalm 23

A psalm of David.

1The LORD is my shepherd; I have all that I need.

2He lets me rest in green meadows; he leads me beside peaceful streams.

3He renews my strength.
He guides me along right paths, bringing honor to his name.

4Even when I walk through the darkest valley,*
I will not be afraid, for you are close beside me.
Your rod and your staff protect and comfort me.

5You prepare a feast for me in the presence of my enemies.
You honor me by anointing my head with oil.
My cup overflows with blessings.

6Surely your goodness and unfailing love will pursue me all the days of my life, and I will live in the house of the LORD forever.

Psalm 24

A psalm of David.

1The earth is the LORD's, and everything in it.
The world and all its people belong to him.

2For he laid the earth's foundation on the seas and built it on the ocean depths.

3Who may climb the mountain of the LORD?
Who may stand in his holy place?

4Only those whose hands and hearts are pure, who do not worship idols and never tell lies.

5They will receive the LORD's blessing and have a right relationship with God their savior.

6Such people may seek you and worship in your presence, O God of Jacob.*

Interlude

7Open up, ancient gates!
Open up, ancient doors, and let the King of glory enter.

8Who is the King of glory?
The LORD, strong and mighty; the LORD, invincible in battle.

9Open up, ancient gates!
Open up, ancient doors, and let the King of glory enter.

10Who is the King of glory?
The LORD of Heaven's Armies— he is the King of glory.

Interlude

Psalm 25 *

A psalm of David.

1O LORD, I give my life to you.

2I trust in you, my God!
Do not let me be disgraced, or let my enemies rejoice in my defeat.

3No one who trusts in you will ever be disgraced, but disgrace comes to those who try to deceive others.

4Show me the right path, O LORD; point out the road for me to follow.

5Lead me by your truth and teach me, for you are the God who saves me.
All day long I put my hope in you.

6Remember, O LORD, your compassion and unfailing love, which you have shown from long ages past.

7Do not remember the rebellious sins of my youth.
Remember me in the light of your unfailing love, for you are merciful, O LORD.

8The LORD is good and does what is right; he shows the proper path to those who go astray.

9He leads the humble in doing right, teaching them his way.

10The LORD leads with unfailing love and faithfulness all who keep his covenant and obey his demands.

11For the honor of your name, O LORD, forgive my many, many sins.

12Who are those who fear the LORD?
He will show them the path they should choose.

13They will live in prosperity, and their children will inherit the land.

14The LORD is a friend to those who fear him.
He teaches them his covenant.

15My eyes are always on the LORD, for he rescues me from the traps of my enemies.

16Turn to me and have mercy, for I am alone and in deep distress.

17My problems go from bad to worse.
Oh, save me from them all!

18Feel my pain and see my trouble.
Forgive all my sins.

19See how many enemies I have and how viciously they hate me!

20Protect me! Rescue my life from them!
Do not let me be disgraced, for in you I take refuge.

21May integrity and honesty protect me, for I put my hope in you.

22O God, ransom Israel from all its troubles.

Psalm 26

A psalm of David.

1Declare me innocent, O LORD, for I have acted with integrity; I have trusted in the LORD without wavering.

2Put me on trial, LORD, and cross-examine me.
Test my motives and my heart.

3For I am always aware of your unfailing love, and I have lived according to your truth.

4I do not spend time with liars or go along with hypocrites.

5I hate the gatherings of those who do evil, and I refuse to join in with the wicked.

6I wash my hands to declare my innocence.
I come to your altar, O LORD,

7singing a song of thanksgiving and telling of all your wonders.

8I love your sanctuary, LORD, the place where your glorious presence dwells.

9Don’t let me suffer the fate of sinners.

Don’t condemn me along with murderers.

10Their hands are dirty with evil schemes, and they constantly take bribes.

11But I am not like that; I live with integrity.
So redeem me and show me mercy.

12Now I stand on solid ground, and I will publicly praise the LORD.

Psalm 27

A psalm of David.

1The LORD is my light and my salvation— so why should I be afraid?
The LORD is my fortress, protecting me from danger, so why should I tremble?

2When evil people come to devour me, when my enemies and foes attack me, they will stumble and fall.

3Though a mighty army surrounds me, my heart will not be afraid.
Even if I am attacked, I will remain confident.

4The one thing I ask of the LORD— the thing I seek most— is to live in the house of the LORD all the days of my life, delighting in the LORD’s perfections and meditating in his Temple.

5For he will conceal me there when troubles come; he will hide me in his sanctuary.
He will place me out of reach on a high rock.

6Then I will hold my head high above my enemies who surround me.
At his sanctuary I will offer sacrifices with shouts of joy, singing and praising the LORD with music.

7Hear me as I pray, O LORD.
Be merciful and answer me!

8My heart has heard you say, “Come and talk with me.”
And my heart responds, “LORD, I am coming.”

9Do not turn your back on me.
Do not reject your servant in anger.
You have always been my helper.
Don’t leave me now; don’t abandon me, O God of my salvation!

10Even if my father and mother abandon me, the LORD will hold me close.

11Teach me how to live, O LORD.
Lead me along the right path, for my enemies are waiting for me.

12Do not let me fall into their hands.
For they accuse me of things I’ve never done; with every breath they threaten me with violence.

13Yet I am confident I will see the LORD’s goodness while I am here in the land of the living.

14Wait patiently for the LORD.
Be brave and courageous.
Yes, wait patiently for the LORD.

Psalm 28

A psalm of David.

1I pray to you, O LORD, my rock.
Do not turn a deaf ear to me.
For if you are silent, I might as well give up and die.

2Listen to my prayer for mercy as I cry out to you for help, as I lift my hands toward your holy sanctuary.

3Do not drag me away with the wicked— with those who do evil— those who speak friendly words to their neighbors while planning evil in their hearts.

4Give them the punishment they so richly deserve!

Measure it out in proportion to their wickedness.
Pay them back for all their evil deeds!
Give them a taste of what they have done to others.

5They care nothing for what the LORD has done or for what his hands have made.
So he will tear them down, and they will never be rebuilt!

6Praise the LORD!
For he has heard my cry for mercy.

7The LORD is my strength and shield.
I trust him with all my heart.
He helps me, and my heart is filled with joy.
I burst out in songs of thanksgiving.

8The LORD gives his people strength.
He is a safe fortress for his anointed king.

9Save your people!
Bless Israel, your special possession.*
Lead them like a shepherd, and carry them in your arms forever.

Psalm 29

A psalm of David.

1Honor the LORD, you heavenly beings*; honor the LORD for his glory and strength.

2Honor the LORD for the glory of his name.
Worship the LORD in the splendor of his holiness.

3The voice of the LORD echoes above the sea.
The God of glory thunders.
The LORD thunders over the mighty sea.

4The voice of the LORD is powerful; the voice of the LORD is majestic.

5The voice of the LORD splits the mighty cedars; the LORD shatters
the cedars of Lebanon.

6He makes Lebanon's mountains skip like a calf; he makes Mount Hermon* leap like a young wild ox.

7The voice of the LORD strikes with bolts of lightning.

8The voice of the LORD makes the barren wilderness quake; the LORD shakes the wilderness of Kadesh.

9The voice of the LORD twists mighty oaks* and strips the forests bare.
In his Temple everyone shouts, "Glory!"

10The LORD rules over the floodwaters.
The LORD reigns as king forever.

11The LORD gives his people strength.
The LORD blesses them with peace.

Psalm 30

A psalm of David. A song for the dedication of the Temple.

1I will exalt you, LORD, for you rescued me.
You refused to let my enemies triumph over me.

2O LORD my God, I cried to you for help, and you restored my health.

3You brought me up from the grave,* O LORD.
You kept me from falling into the pit of death.

4Sing to the LORD, all you godly ones!
Praise his holy name.

5For his anger lasts only a moment, but his favor lasts a lifetime!
Weeping may last through the night, but joy comes with the morning.

6When I was prosperous, I said, “Nothing can stop me now!”

7Your favor, O LORD, made me as secure as a mountain.
Then you turned away from me, and I was shattered.

8I cried out to you, O LORD.
I begged the Lord for mercy, saying,

9“What will you gain if I die, if I sink into the grave?
Can my dust praise you?
Can it tell of your faithfulness?

10Hear me, LORD, and have mercy on me.
Help me, O LORD.”

11You have turned my mourning into joyful dancing.
You have taken away my clothes of mourning and clothed me with joy, 12that I might sing praises to you and not be silent.

O LORD my God, I will give you thanks forever!

Psalm 31

For the choir director: A psalm of David.

1O LORD, I have come to you for protection; don't let me be disgraced.
Save me, for you do what is right.

2Turn your ear to listen to me; rescue me quickly.
Be my rock of protection, a fortress where I will be safe.

3You are my rock and my fortress.
For the honor of your name, lead me out of this danger.

4Pull me from the trap my enemies set for me, for I find protection in you alone.

5I entrust my spirit into your hand.
Rescue me, LORD, for you are a faithful God.

6I hate those who worship worthless idols.
I trust in the LORD.

7I will be glad and rejoice in your unfailing love, for you have seen my troubles, and you care about the anguish of my soul.

8You have not handed me over to my enemies but have set me in a safe place.

9Have mercy on me, LORD, for I am in distress.
Tears blur my eyes.

My body and soul are withering away.

10I am dying from grief; my years are shortened by sadness.
Sin has drained my strength; I am wasting away from within.

11I am scorned by all my enemies and despised by my neighbors—even my friends are afraid to come near me.
When they see me on the street, they run the other way.

12I am ignored as if I were dead, as if I were a broken pot.

13I have heard the many rumors about me, and I am surrounded by terror.
My enemies conspire against me, plotting to take my life.

14But I am trusting you, O LORD, saying, “You are my God!”

15My future is in your hands.
Rescue me from those who hunt me down relentlessly.

16Let your favor shine on your servant.
In your unfailing love, rescue me.

17Don’t let me be disgraced, O LORD, for I call out to you for help.
Let the wicked be disgraced; let them lie silent in the grave.*

18Silence their lying lips— those proud and arrogant lips that accuse the godly.

19How great is the goodness you have stored up for those who fear you.
You lavish it on those who come to you for protection, blessing them before the watching world.

20You hide them in the shelter of your presence, safe from those who conspire against them.
You shelter them in your presence, far from accusing tongues.

21Praise the LORD, for he has shown me the wonders of his unfailing love.
He kept me safe when my city was under attack.

22In panic I cried out, “I am cut off from the LORD!”
But you heard my cry for mercy and answered my call for help.

23Love the LORD, all you godly ones!
For the LORD protects those who are loyal to him, but he harshly punishes the arrogant.

24So be strong and courageous, all you who put your hope in the LORD!

Psalm 32

A psalm of David.*

1Oh, what joy for those whose disobedience is forgiven, whose sin is put out of sight!

2Yes, what joy for those whose record the LORD has cleared of guilt,* whose lives are lived in complete honesty!

3When I refused to confess my sin, my body wasted away, and I groaned all day long.

4Day and night your hand of discipline was heavy on me.
My strength evaporated like water in the summer heat.

Interlude

5Finally, I confessed all my sins to you and stopped trying to hide my guilt.
I said to myself, “I will confess my rebellion to the LORD.”
And you forgave me! All my guilt is gone.

Interlude

6Therefore, let all the godly pray to you while there is still time, that they may not drown in the floodwaters of judgment.

7For you are my hiding place; you protect me from trouble.
You surround me with songs of victory.

Interlude

8The LORD says, “I will guide you along the best pathway for your life.
I will advise you and watch over you.

9Do not be like a senseless horse or mule that needs a bit and bridle to keep it under control.”

10Many sorrows come to the wicked, but unfailing love surrounds those who trust the LORD.

11So rejoice in the LORD and be glad, all you who obey him!
Shout for joy, all you whose hearts are pure!

Psalm 33

1Let the godly sing for joy to the LORD; it is fitting for the pure to praise him.

2Praise the LORD with melodies on the lyre; make music for him on the ten-stringed harp.

3Sing a new song of praise to him; play skillfully on the harp, and sing with joy.

4For the word of the LORD holds true, and we can trust everything he does.

5He loves whatever is just and good; the unfailing love of the LORD fills the earth.

6The LORD merely spoke, and the heavens were created.
He breathed the word, and all the stars were born.

7He assigned the sea its boundaries and locked the oceans in vast reservoirs.

8Let the whole world fear the LORD, and let everyone stand in awe of him.

9For when he spoke, the world began!
It appeared at his command.

10The LORD frustrates the plans of the nations and thwarts all their schemes.

11But the LORD's plans stand firm forever; his intentions can never be shaken.

12What joy for the nation whose God is the LORD, whose people he has chosen as his inheritance.

13The LORD looks down from heaven and sees the whole human race.

14From his throne he observes all who live on the earth.

15He made their hearts, so he understands everything they do.

16The best-equipped army cannot save a king, nor is great strength enough to save a warrior.

17Don't count on your warhorse to give you victory— for all its strength, it cannot save you.

18But the LORD watches over those who fear him, those who rely on his unfailing love.

19He rescues them from death and keeps them alive in times of famine.

20We put our hope in the LORD.
He is our help and our shield.

21In him our hearts rejoice, for we trust in his holy name.

22Let your unfailing love surround us, LORD, for our hope is in you alone.

Psalm 34 *

A psalm of David, regarding the time he pretended to be insane in front of Abimelech, who sent him away.

1I will praise the LORD at all times.
I will constantly speak his praises.

2I will boast only in the LORD; let all who are helpless take heart.

3Come, let us tell of the LORD's greatness; let us exalt his name together.

4I prayed to the LORD, and he answered me.
He freed me from all my fears.

5Those who look to him for help will be radiant with joy; no shadow of shame will darken their faces.

6In my desperation I prayed, and the LORD listened; he saved me from all my troubles.

7For the angel of the LORD is a guard; he surrounds and defends all who fear him.

8Taste and see that the LORD is good.
Oh, the joys of those who take refuge in him!

9Fear the LORD, you his godly people, for those who fear him will have all they need.

10Even strong young lions sometimes go hungry, but those who trust in the LORD will lack no good thing.

11Come, my children, and listen to me, and I will teach you to fear

the LORD.

12Does anyone want to live a life that is long and prosperous?

13Then keep your tongue from speaking evil and your lips from telling lies!

14Turn away from evil and do good.
Search for peace, and work to maintain it.

15The eyes of the LORD watch over those who do right; his ears are open to their cries for help.

16But the LORD turns his face against those who do evil; he will erase their memory from the earth.

17The LORD hears his people when they call to him for help.
He rescues them from all their troubles.

18The LORD is close to the brokenhearted; he rescues those whose spirits are crushed.

19The righteous person faces many troubles, but the LORD comes to the rescue each time.

20For the LORD protects the bones of the righteous; not one of them is broken!

21Calamity will surely destroy the wicked, and those who hate the righteous will be punished.

22But the LORD will redeem those who serve him.
No one who takes refuge in him will be condemned.

Psalm 35

A psalm of David.

1O LORD, oppose those who oppose me.
Fight those who fight against me.

2Put on your armor, and take up your shield.
Prepare for battle, and come to my aid.

3Lift up your spear and javelin against those who pursue me.
Let me hear you say, “I will give you victory!”

4Bring shame and disgrace on those trying to kill me; turn them back and humiliate those who want to harm me.

5Blow them away like chaff in the wind— a wind sent by the angel of the LORD.

6Make their path dark and slippery, with the angel of the LORD pursuing them.

7I did them no wrong, but they laid a trap for me.
I did them no wrong, but they dug a pit to catch me.

8So let sudden ruin come upon them!
Let them be caught in the trap they set for me!
Let them be destroyed in the pit they dug for me.

9Then I will rejoice in the LORD.
I will be glad because he rescues me.

10With every bone in my body I will praise him: “LORD, who can compare with you?
Who else rescues the helpless from the strong?
Who else protects the helpless and poor from those who rob them?”

11Malicious witnesses testify against me.
They accuse me of crimes I know nothing about.

12They repay me evil for good.
I am sick with despair.

13Yet when they were ill, I grieved for them.
I denied myself by fasting for them, but my prayers returned unanswered.

14I was sad, as though they were my friends or family, as if I were grieving for my own mother.

15But they are glad now that I am in trouble; they gleefully join together against me.
I am attacked by people I don't even know; they slander me constantly.

16They mock me and call me names; they snarl at me.

17How long, O Lord, will you look on and do nothing?
Rescue me from their fierce attacks.
Protect my life from these lions!

18Then I will thank you in front of the great assembly.
I will praise you before all the people.

19Don't let my treacherous enemies rejoice over my defeat.
Don't let those who hate me without cause gloat over my sorrow.

20They don't talk of peace; they plot against innocent people who mind their own business.

21They shout, "Aha! Aha!
With our own eyes we saw him do it!"

22O LORD, you know all about this.
Do not stay silent.
Do not abandon me now, O Lord.

23Wake up! Rise to my defense!
Take up my case, my God and my Lord.

24Declare me not guilty, O LORD my God, for you give justice.
Don't let my enemies laugh about me in my troubles.

25Don't let them say, "Look, we got what we wanted!
Now we will eat him alive!"

26May those who rejoice at my troubles be humiliated and disgraced.
May those who triumph over me be covered with shame and dishonor.

27But give great joy to those who came to my defense.
Let them continually say, “Great is the LORD, who delights in blessing his servant with peace!”

28Then I will proclaim your justice, and I will praise you all day long.

Psalm 36

For the choir director: A psalm of David, the servant of the LORD.

1Sin whispers to the wicked, deep within their hearts.*
They have no fear of God at all.

2In their blind conceit, they cannot see how wicked they really are.

3Everything they say is crooked and deceitful.
They refuse to act wisely or do good.

4They lie awake at night, hatching sinful plots.
Their actions are never good.
They make no attempt to turn from evil.

5Your unfailing love, O LORD, is as vast as the heavens; your faithfulness reaches beyond the clouds.

6Your righteousness is like the mighty mountains, your justice like the ocean depths.
You care for people and animals alike, O LORD.

7How precious is your unfailing love, O God!
All humanity finds shelter in the shadow of your wings.

8You feed them from the abundance of your own house, letting them drink from your river of delights.

9For you are the fountain of life, the light by which we see.

10Pour out your unfailing love on those who love you; give justice to those with honest hearts.

11Don’t let the proud trample me or the wicked push me around.

12Look! Those who do evil have fallen!
They are thrown down, never to rise again.

Psalm 37 *

A psalm of David.

1Don’t worry about the wicked or envy those who do wrong.

2For like grass, they soon fade away.
Like spring flowers, they soon wither.

3Trust in the LORD and do good.
Then you will live safely in the land and prosper.

4Take delight in the LORD, and he will give you your heart’s desires.

5Commit everything you do to the LORD.
Trust him, and he will help you.

6He will make your innocence radiate like the dawn, and the justice of your cause will shine like the noonday sun.

7Be still in the presence of the LORD, and wait patiently for him to act.
Don’t worry about evil people who prosper or fret about their wicked schemes.

8Stop being angry!
Turn from your rage!
Do not lose your temper— it only leads to harm.

9For the wicked will be destroyed, but those who trust in the LORD will possess the land.

10Soon the wicked will disappear.
Though you look for them, they will be gone.

11The lowly will possess the land and will live in peace and prosperity.

12The wicked plot against the godly; they snarl at them in defiance.

13But the Lord just laughs, for he sees their day of judgment coming.

14The wicked draw their swords and string their bows to kill the poor and the oppressed, to slaughter those who do right.

15But their swords will stab their own hearts, and their bows will be broken.

16It is better to be godly and have little than to be evil and rich.

17For the strength of the wicked will be shattered, but the LORD takes care of the godly.

18Day by day the LORD takes care of the innocent, and they will receive an inheritance that lasts forever.

19They will not be disgraced in hard times; even in famine they will have more than enough.

20But the wicked will die.
The LORD's enemies are like flowers in a field— they will disappear like smoke.

21The wicked borrow and never repay, but the godly are generous givers.

22Those the LORD blesses will possess the land, but those he curses will die.

23The LORD directs the steps of the godly.
He delights in every detail of their lives.

24Though they stumble, they will never fall, for the LORD holds them by the hand.

25Once I was young, and now I am old.
Yet I have never seen the godly abandoned or their children begging for bread.

26The godly always give generous loans to others, and their children are a blessing.

27Turn from evil and do good, and you will live in the land forever.

28For the LORD loves justice, and he will never abandon the godly.
He will keep them safe forever, but the children of the wicked will die.

29The godly will possess the land and will live there forever.

30The godly offer good counsel; they teach right from wrong.

31They have made God's law their own, so they will never slip from his path.

32The wicked wait in ambush for the godly, looking for an excuse to kill them.

33But the LORD will not let the wicked succeed or let the godly be condemned when they are put on trial.

34Put your hope in the LORD.
Travel steadily along his path.
He will honor you by giving you the land.
You will see the wicked destroyed.

35I have seen wicked and ruthless people flourishing like a tree in its native soil.

36But when I looked again, they were gone!
Though I searched for them, I could not find them!

37Look at those who are honest and good, for a wonderful future awaits those who love peace.

38But the rebellious will be destroyed; they have no future.

39The LORD rescues the godly; he is their fortress in times of trouble.

40The LORD helps them, rescuing them from the wicked.
He saves them, and they find shelter in him.

Psalm 38

A psalm of David, asking God to remember him.

1O LORD, don't rebuke me in your anger or discipline me in your rage!

2Your arrows have struck deep, and your blows are crushing me.

3Because of your anger, my whole body is sick; my health is broken because of my sins.

4My guilt overwhelms me— it is a burden too heavy to bear.

5My wounds fester and stink because of my foolish sins.

6I am bent over and racked with pain.
All day long I walk around filled with grief.

7A raging fever burns within me, and my health is broken.

8I am exhausted and completely crushed.
My groans come from an anguished heart.

9You know what I long for, Lord; you hear my every sigh.

10My heart beats wildly, my strength fails, and I am going blind.

11My loved ones and friends stay away, fearing my disease.
Even my own family stands at a distance.

12Meanwhile, my enemies lay traps to kill me.
Those who wish me harm make plans to ruin me.
All day long they plan their treachery.

13But I am deaf to all their threats.
I am silent before them as one who cannot speak.

14I choose to hear nothing, and I make no reply.

15For I am waiting for you, O LORD.
You must answer for me, O Lord my God.

16I prayed, “Don’t let my enemies gloat over me or rejoice at my downfall.”

17I am on the verge of collapse, facing constant pain.

18But I confess my sins; I am deeply sorry for what I have done.

19I have many aggressive enemies; they hate me without reason.

20They repay me evil for good and oppose me for pursuing good.

21Do not abandon me, O LORD.
Do not stand at a distance, my God.

22Come quickly to help me, O Lord my savior.

Psalm 39

For Jeduthun, the choir director: A psalm of David.

1I said to myself, “I will watch what I do and not sin in what I say.
I will hold my tongue when the ungodly are around me.”

2But as I stood there in silence— not even speaking of good things — the turmoil within me grew worse.

3The more I thought about it, the hotter I got, igniting a fire of words:

4“LORD, remind me how brief my time on earth will be.
Remind me that my days are numbered— how fleeting my life is.

5You have made my life no longer than the width of my hand.
My entire lifetime is just a moment to you; at best, each of us is but a breath.”

Interlude

6We are merely moving shadows, and all our busy rushing ends in nothing.
We heap up wealth, not knowing who will spend it.

7And so, Lord, where do I put my hope?
My only hope is in you.

8Rescue me from my rebellion.
Do not let fools mock me.

9I am silent before you; I won’t say a word, for my punishment is from you.

10But please stop striking me!
I am exhausted by the blows from your hand.

11When you discipline us for our sins, you consume like a moth what is precious to us.
Each of us is but a breath.

Interlude

12Hear my prayer, O LORD!
Listen to my cries for help!
Don’t ignore my tears.
For I am your guest— a traveler passing through, as my ancestors were before me.

13Leave me alone so I can smile again before I am gone and exist no more.

Psalm 40

For the choir director: A psalm of David.

1I waited patiently for the LORD to help me, and he turned to me and heard my cry.

2He lifted me out of the pit of despair, out of the mud and the mire.
He set my feet on solid ground and steadied me as I walked along.

3He has given me a new song to sing, a hymn of praise to our God.
Many will see what he has done and be amazed.
They will put their trust in the LORD.

4Oh, the joys of those who trust the LORD, who have no confidence in the proud or in those who worship idols.

5O LORD my God, you have performed many wonders for us.
Your plans for us are too numerous to list.
You have no equal.
If I tried to recite all your wonderful deeds, I would never come to the end of them.

6You take no delight in sacrifices or offerings.
Now that you have made me listen, I finally understand*— you don't require burnt offerings or sin offerings.

7Then I said, "Look, I have come.
As is written about me in the Scriptures:

8I take joy in doing your will, my God, for your instructions are written on my heart."

9I have told all your people about your justice.
I have not been afraid to speak out,
as you, O LORD, well know.

10I have not kept the good news of your justice hidden in my heart;
I have talked about your faithfulness and saving power.
I have told everyone in the great assembly of your unfailing love and faithfulness.

11LORD, don't hold back your tender mercies from me.
Let your unfailing love and faithfulness always protect me.

12For troubles surround me— too many to count!
My sins pile up so high
I can't see my way out.
They outnumber the hairs on my head.
I have lost all courage.

13Please, LORD, rescue me!
Come quickly, LORD, and help me.

14May those who try to destroy me be humiliated and put to shame.
May those who take delight in my trouble
be turned back in disgrace.

15Let them be horrified by their shame, for they said, "Aha! We've got him now!"

16But may all who search for you be filled with joy and gladness in you.
May those who love your salvation repeatedly shout, "The LORD is great!"

17As for me, since I am poor and needy, let the Lord keep me in his thoughts.
You are my helper and my savior.
O my God, do not delay.

Psalm 41

For the choir director: A psalm of David.

1Oh, the joys of those who are kind to the poor!
The LORD rescues them when they are in trouble.

2The LORD protects them and keeps them alive.
He gives them prosperity in the land and rescues them from their enemies.

3The LORD nurses them when they are sick and restores them to health.

4“O LORD,” I prayed, “have mercy on me.
Heal me, for I have sinned against you.”

5But my enemies say nothing but evil about me.
“How soon will he die and be forgotten?” they ask.

6They visit me as if they were my friends, but all the while they gather gossip, and when they leave, they spread it everywhere.

7All who hate me whisper about me, imagining the worst.

8“He has some fatal disease,” they say.
“He will never get out of that bed!”

9Even my best friend, the one I trusted completely, the one who shared my food, has turned against me.

10LORD, have mercy on me.
Make me well again, so I can pay them back!

11I know you are pleased with me, for you have not let my enemies triumph over me.

12You have preserved my life because I am innocent; you have brought me into your presence forever.

13Praise the LORD, the God of Israel, who lives from everlasting to everlasting.
Amen and amen!

Book Two (Psalms 42–72)

Psalm 42

For the choir director: A psalm* of the descendants of Korah.

1As the deer longs for streams of water, so I long for you, O God.

2I thirst for God, the living God.

When can I go and stand before him?

3Day and night I have only tears for food, while my enemies continually taunt me, saying,
“Where is this God of yours?”

4My heart is breaking as I remember how it used to be:
I walked among the crowds of worshipers, leading a great procession to the house of God, singing for joy and giving thanks amid the sound of a great celebration!

5Why am I discouraged?
Why is my heart so sad?
I will put my hope in God!
I will praise him again—
my Savior and 6my God!
Now I am deeply discouraged, but I will remember you—even from distant Mount Hermon, the source of the Jordan, from the land of Mount Mizar.

7I hear the tumult of the raging seas as your waves and surging tides sweep over me.

8But each day the LORD pours his unfailing love upon me, and through each night I sing his songs, praying to God who gives me life.

9“O God my rock,” I cry, “Why have you forgotten me?
Why must I wander around in grief,
oppressed by my enemies?”

10Their taunts break my bones.
They scoff, “Where is this God of yours?”

11Why am I discouraged?
Why is my heart so sad?
I will put my hope in God!
I will praise him again—

my Savior and my God!

Psalm 43

1Declare me innocent, O God!
Defend me against these ungodly people.
Rescue me from these unjust liars.

2For you are God, my only safe haven.
Why have you tossed me aside?
Why must I wander around in grief,
oppressed by my enemies?

3Send out your light and your truth; let them guide me.
Let them lead me to your holy mountain, to the place where you live.

4There I will go to the altar of God, to God—the source of all my joy.
I will praise you with my harp,
O God, my God!

5Why am I discouraged?
Why is my heart so sad?
I will put my hope in God!
I will praise him again—
my Savior and my God!

Psalm 44

For the choir director: A psalm of the descendants of Korah.*

1O God, we have heard it with our own ears— our ancestors have told us of all you did in their day, in days long ago:

2You drove out the pagan nations by your power and gave all the land to our ancestors.
You crushed their enemies and set our ancestors free.

3They did not conquer the land with their swords; it was not their own strong arm that gave them victory.
It was your right hand and strong arm and the blinding light from your face that helped them, for you loved them.

4You are my King and my God.
You command victories for Israel.*

5Only by your power can we push back our enemies; only in your name can we trample our foes.

6I do not trust in my bow; I do not count on my sword to save me.

7You are the one who gives us victory over our enemies; you disgrace those who hate us.

8O God, we give glory to you all day long and constantly praise your name.

Interlude

9But now you have tossed us aside in dishonor.
You no longer lead our armies to battle.

10You make us retreat from our enemies and allow those who hate us to plunder our land.

11You have butchered us like sheep and scattered us among the nations.

12You sold your precious people for a pittance, making nothing on the sale.

13You let our neighbors mock us.
We are an object of scorn and derision to those around us.

14You have made us the butt of their jokes; they shake their heads at us in scorn.

15We can't escape the constant humiliation; shame is written across our faces.

16All we hear are the taunts of our mockers.
All we see are our vengeful enemies.

17All this has happened though we have not forgotten you.
We have not violated your covenant.

18Our hearts have not deserted you.
We have not strayed from your path.

19Yet you have crushed us in the jackal's desert home.
You have covered us with darkness and death.

20If we had forgotten the name of our God or spread our hands in prayer to foreign gods,

21God would surely have known it, for he knows the secrets of every heart.

22But for your sake we are killed every day; we are being slaughtered like sheep.

23Wake up, O Lord! Why do you sleep?
Get up! Do not reject us forever.

24Why do you look the other way?
Why do you ignore our suffering and oppression?

25We collapse in the dust, lying face down in the dirt.

26Rise up! Help us!
Ransom us because of your unfailing love.

WEDDINGS PSALM 45

Psalm 45

For the choir director: A love song to be sung to the tune "Lilies." A psalm of the descendants of Korah.*

1Beautiful words stir my heart.
I will recite a lovely poem about the king, for my tongue is like the pen of a skillful poet.

2You are the most handsome of all.
Gracious words stream from your lips.
God himself has blessed you forever.

3Put on your sword, O mighty warrior!
You are so glorious, so majestic!

4In your majesty, ride out to victory, defending truth, humility, and justice.
Go forth to perform awe-inspiring deeds!

5Your arrows are sharp, piercing your enemies' hearts.
The nations fall beneath your feet.

6Your throne, O God,* endures forever and ever.
You rule with a scepter of justice.

7You love justice and hate evil.
Therefore God, your God, has anointed you, pouring out the oil of joy on you more than on anyone else.

8Myrrh, aloes, and cassia perfume your robes.
In ivory palaces the music of strings entertains you.

9Kings' daughters are among your noble women.
At your right side stands the queen, wearing jewelry of finest gold from Ophir!

10Listen to me, O royal daughter; take to heart what I say.
Forget your people and your family far away.

11For your royal husband delights in your beauty; honor him, for he is your lord.

12The princess of Tyre* will shower you with gifts.
The wealthy will beg your favor.

13The bride, a princess, looks glorious in her golden gown.

14In her beautiful robes, she is led to the king, accompanied by her bridesmaids.

15What a joyful and enthusiastic procession as they enter the king's palace!

16Your sons will become kings like their father.
You will make them rulers over many lands.

17I will bring honor to your name in every generation.
Therefore, the nations will praise you forever and ever.

Psalm 46

For the choir director: A song of the descendants of Korah, to be sung by soprano voices. *

1God is our refuge and strength, always ready to help in times of trouble.

2So we will not fear when earthquakes come and the mountains crumble into the sea.

3Let the oceans roar and foam.
Let the mountains tremble as the waters surge!

Interlude

4A river brings joy to the city of our God, the sacred home of the Most High.

5God dwells in that city; it cannot be destroyed.
From the very break of day, God will protect it.

6The nations are in chaos, and their kingdoms crumble!
God's voice thunders,
and the earth melts!

7The LORD of Heaven's Armies is here among us; the God of Israel* is our fortress.

Interlude

8Come, see the glorious works of the LORD: See how he brings destruction upon the world.

9He causes wars to end throughout the earth.
He breaks the bow and snaps the spear;
he burns the shields with fire.

10"Be still, and know that I am God!
I will be honored by every nation.
I will be honored throughout the world."

11The LORD of Heaven's Armies is here among us; the God of Israel is our fortress.

Interlude

Psalm 47

For the choir director: A psalm of the descendants of Korah.

1Come, everyone! Clap your hands!
Shout to God with joyful praise!

2For the LORD Most High is awesome.
He is the great King of all the earth.

3He subdues the nations before us, putting our enemies beneath our feet.

4He chose the Promised Land as our inheritance, the proud possession of Jacob's descendants, whom he loves.

Interlude

5God has ascended with a mighty shout.
The LORD has ascended with trumpets blaring.

6Sing praises to God, sing praises; sing praises to our King, sing praises!

7For God is the King over all the earth.
Praise him with a psalm.*

8God reigns above the nations, sitting on his holy throne.

9The rulers of the world have gathered together with the people of the God of Abraham.
For all the kings of the earth belong to God.
He is highly honored everywhere.

Psalm 48

A song. A psalm of the descendants of Korah.

1How great is the LORD, how deserving of praise, in the city of our God,
which sits on his holy mountain!

2It is high and magnificent; the whole earth rejoices to see it!
Mount Zion, the holy mountain,* is the city of the great King!

3God himself is in Jerusalem's towers, revealing himself as its defender.

4The kings of the earth joined forces and advanced against the city.

5But when they saw it, they were stunned; they were terrified and ran away.

6They were gripped with terror and writhed in pain like a woman in labor.

7You destroyed them like the mighty ships of Tarshish shattered by a powerful east wind.

8We had heard of the city's glory, but now we have seen it ourselves — the city of the LORD of Heaven's Armies.
It is the city of our God;
he will make it safe forever.

Interlude

9O God, we meditate on your unfailing love as we worship in your Temple.

10As your name deserves, O God, you will be praised to the ends of the earth.
Your strong right hand is filled with victory.

11Let the people on Mount Zion rejoice.
Let all the towns of Judah be glad because of your justice.

12Go, inspect the city of Jerusalem.*
Walk around and count the many towers.

13Take note of the fortified walls, and tour all the citadels, that you may describe them to future generations.

14For that is what God is like.
He is our God forever and ever,
and he will guide us until we die.

Psalm 49

For the choir director: A psalm of the descendants of Korah.

1Listen to this, all you people!
Pay attention, everyone in the world!

2High and low,
rich and poor—listen!

3For my words are wise, and my thoughts are filled with insight.

4I listen carefully to many proverbs and solve riddles with inspiration from a harp.

5Why should I fear when trouble comes, when enemies surround me?

6They trust in their wealth and boast of great riches.

7Yet they cannot redeem themselves from death*
by paying a ransom to God.

8Redemption does not come so easily, for no one can ever pay enough

9to live forever and never see the grave.

10Those who are wise must finally die, just like the foolish and senseless,

leaving all their wealth behind.

11The grave* is their eternal home, where they will stay forever.
They may name their estates after themselves,

12but their fame will not last.
They will die, just like animals.

13This is the fate of fools, though they are remembered as being wise.*

Interlude

14Like sheep, they are led to the grave,* where death will be their shepherd.
In the morning the godly will rule over them.
Their bodies will rot in the grave, far from their grand estates.

15But as for me, God will redeem my life.
He will snatch me from the power of the grave.

Interlude

16So don't be dismayed when the wicked grow rich and their homes become ever more splendid.

17For when they die, they take nothing with them.
Their wealth will not follow them into the grave.

18In this life they consider themselves fortunate and are applauded for their success.

19But they will die like all before them and never again see the light of day.

20People who boast of their wealth don't understand; they will die, just like animals.

Psalm 50

A psalm of Asaph.

1The LORD, the Mighty One, is God, and he has spoken;
he has summoned all humanity from where the sun rises to where it sets.

2From Mount Zion, the perfection of beauty, God shines in glorious radiance.

3Our God approaches, and he is not silent.
Fire devours everything in his way, and a great storm rages around him.

4He calls on the heavens above and earth below to witness the judgment of his people.

5“Bring my faithful people to me— those who made a covenant with me by giving sacrifices.”

6Then let the heavens proclaim his justice, for God himself will be the judge.

Interlude

7“O my people, listen as I speak.
Here are my charges against you, O Israel:
I am God, your God!

8I have no complaint about your sacrifices or the burnt offerings you constantly offer.

9But I do not need the bulls from your barns or the goats from your pens.

10For all the animals of the forest are mine, and I own the cattle on a thousand hills.

11I know every bird on the mountains, and all the animals of the field are mine.

12If I were hungry, I would not tell you, for all the world is mine and everything in it.

13Do I eat the meat of bulls?
Do I drink the blood of goats?

14Make thankfulness your sacrifice to God, and keep the vows you made to the Most High.

15Then call on me when you are in trouble, and I will rescue you, and you will give me glory.”

16But God says to the wicked: “Why bother reciting my decrees and pretending to obey my covenant?

17For you refuse my discipline and treat my words like trash.

18When you see thieves, you approve of them, and you spend your time with adulterers.

19Your mouth is filled with wickedness, and your tongue is full of lies.

20You sit around and slander your brother— your own mother’s son.

21While you did all this, I remained silent, and you thought I didn’t care.
But now I will rebuke you, listing all my charges against you.

22Repent, all of you who forget me, or I will tear you apart, and no one will help you.

23But giving thanks is a sacrifice that truly honors me.
If you keep to my path,
I will reveal to you the salvation of God.”

Psalm 51

For the choir director: A psalm of David, regarding the time Nathan the prophet came to him after David had committed adultery with Bathsheba.

1Have mercy on me, O God, because of your unfailing love.
Because of your great compassion, blot out the stain of my sins.

2Wash me clean from my guilt.
Purify me from my sin.

3For I recognize my rebellion; it haunts me day and night.

4Against you, and you alone, have I sinned; I have done what is evil in your sight.
You will be proved right in what you say, and your judgment against me is just.*

5For I was born a sinner— yes, from the moment my mother conceived me.

6But you desire honesty from the womb,* teaching me wisdom even there.

7Purify me from my sins,* and I will be clean; wash me, and I will be whiter than snow.

8Oh, give me back my joy again; you have broken me— now let me rejoice.

9Don't keep looking at my sins.
Remove the stain of my guilt.

10Create in me a clean heart, O God.
Renew a loyal spirit within me.

11Do not banish me from your presence, and don't take your Holy Spirit* from me.

12Restore to me the joy of your salvation, and make me willing to obey you.

13Then I will teach your ways to rebels, and they will return to you.

14Forgive me for shedding blood, O God who saves; then I will joyfully sing of your forgiveness.

15Unseal my lips, O Lord, that my mouth may praise you.

16You do not desire a sacrifice, or I would offer one.
You do not want a burnt offering.

17The sacrifice you desire is a broken spirit.
You will not reject a broken and repentant heart, O God.

18Look with favor on Zion and help her; rebuild the walls of Jerusalem.

19Then you will be pleased with sacrifices offered in the right spirit — with burnt offerings and whole burnt offerings.
Then bulls will again be sacrificed on your altar.

Psalm 52

For the choir director: A psalm of David, regarding the time Doeg the Edomite said to Saul, "David has gone to see Ahimelech."*

1Why do you boast about your crimes, great warrior?
Don't you realize God's justice continues forever?

2All day long you plot destruction.
Your tongue cuts like a sharp razor;
you're an expert at telling lies.

3You love evil more than good and lies more than truth.

Interlude

4You love to destroy others with your words, you liar!

5But God will strike you down once and for all.
He will pull you from your home and uproot you from the land of the living.

Interlude

6The righteous will see it and be amazed.
They will laugh and say,

7"Look what happens to mighty warriors who do not trust in God.

They trust their wealth instead and grow more and more bold in their wickedness.”

8But I am like an olive tree, thriving in the house of God.
I will always trust in God’s unfailing love.

9I will praise you forever, O God, for what you have done.
I will trust in your good name in the presence of your faithful people.

Psalm 53

For the choir director: A meditation; a psalm of David.*

1Only fools say in their hearts, “There is no God.”
They are corrupt, and their actions are evil;
not one of them does good!

2God looks down from heaven on the entire human race;
he looks to see if anyone is truly wise,
if anyone seeks God.

3But no, all have turned away; all have become corrupt.*
No one does good,
not a single one!

4Will those who do evil never learn?
They eat up my people like bread and wouldn’t think of praying to God.

5Terror will grip them, terror like they have never known before.
God will scatter the bones of your enemies.
You will put them to shame, for God has rejected them.

6Who will come from Mount Zion to rescue Israel?
When God restores his people,
Jacob will shout with joy, and Israel will rejoice.

Psalm 54

For the choir director: A psalm of David, regarding the time the Ziphites came and said to Saul, "We know where David is hiding." To be accompanied by stringed instruments.*

1Come with great power, O God, and rescue me!
Defend me with your might.

2Listen to my prayer, O God.
Pay attention to my plea.

3For strangers are attacking me; violent people are trying to kill me.
They care nothing for God.

Interlude

4But God is my helper.
The Lord keeps me alive!

5May the evil plans of my enemies be turned against them.
Do as you promised and put an end to them.

6I will sacrifice a voluntary offering to you; I will praise your name, O LORD, for it is good.

7For you have rescued me from my troubles and helped me to triumph over my enemies.

Psalm 55

For the choir director: A psalm of David, to be accompanied by stringed instruments.*

1Listen to my prayer, O God.
Do not ignore my cry for help!

2Please listen and answer me, for I am overwhelmed by my troubles.

3My enemies shout at me, making loud and wicked threats.

They bring trouble on me and angrily hunt me down.

4My heart pounds in my chest.
The terror of death assaults me.

5Fear and trembling overwhelm me, and I can't stop shaking.

6Oh, that I had wings like a dove; then I would fly away and rest!

7I would fly far away to the quiet of the wilderness.

Interlude

8How quickly I would escape— far from this wild storm of hatred.

9Confuse them, Lord, and frustrate their plans, for I see violence and conflict in the city.

10Its walls are patrolled day and night against invaders, but the real danger is wickedness within the city.

11Everything is falling apart; threats and cheating are rampant in the streets.

12It is not an enemy who taunts me— I could bear that.
It is not my foes who so arrogantly insult me—
I could have hidden from them.

13Instead, it is you—my equal, my companion and close friend.

14What good fellowship we once enjoyed as we walked together to the house of God.

15Let death stalk my enemies; let the grave* swallow them alive, for evil makes its home within them.

16But I will call on God, and the LORD will rescue me.

17Morning, noon, and night I cry out in my distress, and the LORD hears my voice.

18He ransoms me and keeps me safe from the battle waged against me, though many still oppose me.

19God, who has ruled forever, will hear me and humble them.

Interlude

For my enemies refuse to change their ways;
they do not fear God.

20As for my companion, he betrayed his friends; he broke his promises.

21His words are as smooth as butter, but in his heart is war.
His words are as soothing as lotion,
but underneath are daggers!

22Give your burdens to the LORD, and he will take care of you.
He will not permit the godly to slip and fall.

23But you, O God, will send the wicked down to the pit of destruction.
Murderers and liars will die young, but I am trusting you to save me.

DON'T FEAR PSALM 56

Psalm 56

For the choir director: A psalm * of David, regarding the time the Philistines seized him in Gath. To be sung to the tune "Dove on Distant Oaks."

1O God, have mercy on me, for people are hounding me.
My foes attack me all day long.

2I am constantly hounded by those who slander me, and many are boldly attacking me.

3But when I am afraid, I will put my trust in you.

4I praise God for what he has promised.
I trust in God, so why should I be afraid?
What can mere mortals do to me?

5They are always twisting what I say; they spend their days plotting to harm me.

6They come together to spy on me— watching my every step, eager to kill me.

7Don't let them get away with their wickedness; in your anger, O God, bring them down.

8You keep track of all my sorrows.*
You have collected all my tears in your bottle.
You have recorded each one in your book.

9My enemies will retreat when I call to you for help.
This I know: God is on my side!

10I praise God for what he has promised; yes, I praise the LORD for what he has promised.

11I trust in God, so why should I be afraid?
What can mere mortals do to me?

12I will fulfill my vows to you, O God, and will offer a sacrifice of thanks for your help.

13For you have rescued me from death; you have kept my feet from slipping.
So now I can walk in your presence, O God, in your life-giving light.

Psalm 57

For the choir director: A psalm of David, regarding the time he fled from Saul and went into the cave. To be sung to the tune "Do Not Destroy!"*

1Have mercy on me, O God, have mercy!
I look to you for protection.
I will hide beneath the shadow of your wings until the danger passes by.

2I cry out to God Most High,*
to God who will fulfill his purpose for me.

3He will send help from heaven to rescue me, disgracing those who hound me.

Interlude

My God will send forth his unfailing love and faithfulness.

4I am surrounded by fierce lions who greedily devour human prey—whose teeth pierce like spears and arrows, and whose tongues cut like swords.

5Be exalted, O God, above the highest heavens!
May your glory shine over all the earth.

6My enemies have set a trap for me.
I am weary from distress.
They have dug a deep pit in my path,
but they themselves have fallen into it.

Interlude

7My heart is confident in you, O God; my heart is confident.
No wonder I can sing your praises!

8Wake up, my heart!
Wake up, O lyre and harp!
I will wake the dawn with my song.

9I will thank you, Lord, among all the people.
I will sing your praises among the nations.

10For your unfailing love is as high as the heavens.
Your faithfulness reaches to the clouds.

11Be exalted, O God, above the highest heavens.
May your glory shine over all the earth.

Psalm 58

For the choir director: A psalm of David, to be sung to the tune "Do Not Destroy!"*

1Justice—do you rulers* know the meaning of the word?
Do you judge the people fairly?

2No! You plot injustice in your hearts.
You spread violence throughout the land.

3These wicked people are born sinners; even from birth they have lied and gone their own way.

4They spit venom like deadly snakes; they are like cobras that refuse to listen, 5ignoring the tunes of the snake charmers, no matter how skillfully they play.

6Break off their fangs, O God!
Smash the jaws of these lions, O LORD!

7 May they disappear like water into thirsty ground.
Make their weapons useless in their hands.*

8 May they be like snails that dissolve into slime, like a stillborn child who will never see the sun.

9 God will sweep them away, both young and old, faster than a pot heats over burning thorns.

10 The godly will rejoice when they see injustice avenged.
They will wash their feet in the blood of the wicked.

11 Then at last everyone will say, “There truly is a reward for those who live for God;
surely there is a God who judges justly here on earth.”

Psalm 59

For the choir director: A psalm of David, regarding the time Saul sent soldiers to watch David's house in order to kill him. To be sung to the tune "Do Not Destroy!"*

1 Rescue me from my enemies, O God.
Protect me from those who have come to destroy me.

2 Rescue me from these criminals; save me from these murderers.

3 They have set an ambush for me.
Fierce enemies are out there waiting, LORD, though I have not sinned or offended them.

4 I have done nothing wrong, yet they prepare to attack me.
Wake up! See what is happening and help me!

5 O LORD God of Heaven's Armies, the God of Israel, wake up and punish those hostile nations.
Show no mercy to wicked traitors.

Interlude

6They come out at night, snarling like vicious dogs
as they prowl the streets.

7Listen to the filth that comes from their mouths; their words cut like swords.
“After all, who can hear us?” they sneer.

8But LORD, you laugh at them.
You scoff at all the hostile nations.

9You are my strength; I wait for you to rescue me, for you, O God, are my fortress.

10In his unfailing love, my God will stand with me.
He will let me look down in triumph on all my enemies.

11Don’t kill them, for my people soon forget such lessons; stagger them with your power, and bring them to their knees, O Lord our shield.

12Because of the sinful things they say, because of the evil that is on their lips, let them be captured by their pride, their curses, and their lies.

13Destroy them in your anger!
Wipe them out completely!
Then the whole world will know that God reigns in Israel.*

Interlude

14My enemies come out at night, snarling like vicious dogs
as they prowl the streets.

15They scavenge for food but go to sleep unsatisfied.*

16But as for me, I will sing about your power.
Each morning I will sing with joy about your unfailing love.

For you have been my refuge,
a place of safety when I am in distress.

17O my Strength, to you I sing praises, for you, O God, are my refuge, the God who shows me unfailing love.

Psalm 60

For the choir director: A psalm of David useful for teaching, regarding the time David fought Aram-naharaim and Aram-zobah, and Joab returned and killed 12,000 Edomites in the Valley of Salt. To be sung to the tune "Lily of the Testimony."*

1You have rejected us, O God, and broken our defenses.
You have been angry with us; now restore us to your favor.

2You have shaken our land and split it open.
Seal the cracks, for the land trembles.

3You have been very hard on us, making us drink wine that sent us reeling.

4But you have raised a banner for those who fear you— a rallying point in the face of attack.

Interlude

5Now rescue your beloved people.
Answer and save us by your power.

6God has promised this by his holiness*: “I will divide up Shechem with joy.
I will measure out the valley of Succoth.

7Gilead is mine, and Manasseh, too.
Ephraim, my helmet, will produce my warriors, and Judah, my scepter, will produce my kings.

8But Moab, my washbasin, will become my servant, and I will wipe my feet on Edom and shout in triumph over Philistia.”

9Who will bring me into the fortified city?
Who will bring me victory over Edom?

10Have you rejected us, O God?
Will you no longer march with our armies?

11Oh, please help us against our enemies, for all human help is useless.

12With God’s help we will do mighty things, for he will trample down our foes.

Psalm 61

For the choir director: A psalm of David, to be accompanied by stringed instruments.

1O God, listen to my cry!
Hear my prayer!

2From the ends of the earth, I cry to you for help when my heart is overwhelmed.
Lead me to the towering rock of safety,

3for you are my safe refuge, a fortress where my enemies cannot reach me.

4Let me live forever in your sanctuary, safe beneath the shelter of your wings!

Interlude

5For you have heard my vows, O God.
You have given me an inheritance reserved for those who fear your name.

6Add many years to the life of the king!
May his years span the generations!

7May he reign under God's protection forever.
May your unfailing love and faithfulness watch over him.

8Then I will sing praises to your name forever as I fulfill my vows each day.

Psalm 62

For Jeduthun, the choir director: A psalm of David.

1I wait quietly before God, for my victory comes from him.

2He alone is my rock and my salvation, my fortress where I will never be shaken.

3So many enemies against one man— all of them trying to kill me.
To them I'm just a broken-down wall or a tottering fence.

4They plan to topple me from my high position.
They delight in telling lies about me.
They praise me to my face but curse me in their hearts.

Interlude

5Let all that I am wait quietly before God, for my hope is in him.

6He alone is my rock and my salvation, my fortress where I will not be shaken.

7My victory and honor come from God alone.
He is my refuge, a rock where no enemy can reach me.

8O my people, trust in him at all times.
Pour out your heart to him,
for God is our refuge.

Interlude

9Common people are as worthless as a puff of wind, and the powerful are not what they appear to be.
If you weigh them on the scales, together they are lighter than a breath of air.

10Don't make your living by extortion or put your hope in stealing.
And if your wealth increases, don't make it the center of your life.

11God has spoken plainly, and I have heard it many times:
Power, O God, belongs to you;

12unfailing love, O Lord, is yours.
Surely you repay all people
according to what they have done.

Psalm 63

A psalm of David, regarding a time when David was in the wilderness of Judah.

1O God, you are my God; I earnestly search for you.
My soul thirsts for you;
my whole body longs for you in this parched and weary land where there is no water.

2I have seen you in your sanctuary and gazed upon your power and glory.

3Your unfailing love is better than life itself; how I praise you!

4I will praise you as long as I live, lifting up my hands to you in prayer.

5You satisfy me more than the richest feast.
I will praise you with songs of joy.

6I lie awake thinking of you, meditating on you through the night.

7Because you are my helper, I sing for joy in the shadow of your wings.

8I cling to you; your strong right hand holds me securely.

9But those plotting to destroy me will come to ruin.
They will go down into the depths of the earth.

10They will die by the sword and become the food of jackals.

11But the king will rejoice in God.
All who swear to tell the truth will praise him, while liars will be silenced.

Psalm 64

For the choir director: A psalm of David.

1O God, listen to my complaint.
Protect my life from my enemies' threats.

2Hide me from the plots of this evil mob, from this gang of wrongdoers.

3They sharpen their tongues like swords and aim their bitter words like arrows.

4They shoot from ambush at the innocent, attacking suddenly and fearlessly.

5They encourage each other to do evil and plan how to set their traps in secret.
"Who will ever notice?" they ask.

6As they plot their crimes, they say, "We have devised the perfect plan!"
Yes, the human heart and mind are cunning.

7But God himself will shoot them with his arrows, suddenly striking them down.

8Their own tongues will ruin them, and all who see them will shake their heads in scorn.

9Then everyone will be afraid; they will proclaim the mighty acts of God and realize all the amazing things he does.

10The godly will rejoice in the LORD and find shelter in him.
And those who do what is right will praise him.

Psalm 65

For the choir director: A song. A psalm of David.

1What mighty praise, O God, belongs to you in Zion.
We will fulfill our vows to you,

2for you answer our prayers.
All of us must come to you.

3Though we are overwhelmed by our sins, you forgive them all.

4What joy for those you choose to bring near, those who live in your holy courts.
What festivities await us inside your holy Temple.

5You faithfully answer our prayers with awesome deeds, O God our savior.
You are the hope of everyone on earth, even those who sail on distant seas.

6You formed the mountains by your power and armed yourself with mighty strength.

7You quieted the raging oceans with their pounding waves and silenced the shouting of the nations.

8Those who live at the ends of the earth stand in awe of your wonders.
From where the sun rises to where it sets,
you inspire shouts of joy.

9You take care of the earth and water it, making it rich and fertile.
The river of God has plenty of water;
it provides a bountiful harvest of grain, for you have ordered it so.

10You drench the plowed ground with rain, melting the clods and leveling the ridges.
You soften the earth with showers and bless its abundant crops.

11You crown the year with a bountiful harvest; even the hard pathways overflow with abundance.

12The grasslands of the wilderness become a lush pasture, and the hillsides blossom with joy.

13The meadows are clothed with flocks of sheep, and the valleys are carpeted with grain.
They all shout and sing for joy!

Psalm 66

For the choir director: A song. A psalm.

1Shout joyful praises to God, all the earth!

2Sing about the glory of his name!
Tell the world how glorious he is.

3Say to God, “How awesome are your deeds!
Your enemies cringe before your mighty power.

4Everything on earth will worship you; they will sing your praises, shouting your name in glorious songs.”

Interlude

5Come and see what our God has done, what awesome miracles he performs for people!

6He made a dry path through the Red Sea,* and his people went across on foot.
There we rejoiced in him.

7For by his great power he rules forever.
He watches every movement of the nations;
let no rebel rise in defiance.

Interlude

8Let the whole world bless our God and loudly sing his praises.

9Our lives are in his hands, and he keeps our feet from stumbling.

10You have tested us, O God; you have purified us like silver.

11You captured us in your net and laid the burden of slavery on our backs.

12Then you put a leader over us.*
We went through fire and flood,
but you brought us to a place of great abundance.

13Now I come to your Temple with burnt offerings to fulfill the vows I made to you—

14yes, the sacred vows that I made when I was in deep trouble.

15That is why I am sacrificing burnt offerings to you— the best of my rams as a pleasing aroma, and a sacrifice of bulls and male goats.

Interlude

16Come and listen, all you who fear God, and I will tell you what he did for me.

17For I cried out to him for help, praising him as I spoke.

18If I had not confessed the sin in my heart, the Lord would not have listened.

19But God did listen!
He paid attention to my prayer.

20Praise God, who did not ignore my prayer or withdraw his unfailing love from me.

Psalm 67

For the choir director: A song. A psalm, to be accompanied by stringed instruments.

1May God be merciful and bless us.
May his face smile with favor on us.

Interlude

2May your ways be known throughout the earth, your saving power among people everywhere.

3May the nations praise you, O God.
Yes, may all the nations praise you.

4Let the whole world sing for joy, because you govern the nations with justice and guide the people of the whole world.

Interlude

5May the nations praise you, O God.
Yes, may all the nations praise you.

6Then the earth will yield its harvests, and God, our God, will richly bless us.

7Yes, God will bless us, and people all over the world will fear him.

Psalm 68

For the choir director: A song. A psalm of David.

1Rise up, O God, and scatter your enemies.
Let those who hate God run for their lives.

2Blow them away like smoke.
Melt them like wax in a fire.
Let the wicked perish in the presence of God.

3But let the godly rejoice.
Let them be glad in God's presence.
Let them be filled with joy.

4Sing praises to God and to his name!
Sing loud praises to him who rides the clouds.*
His name is the LORD—
rejoice in his presence!

5Father to the fatherless, defender of widows— this is God, whose dwelling is holy.

6God places the lonely in families; he sets the prisoners free and gives them joy.
But he makes the rebellious live in a sun-scorched land.

7O God, when you led your people out from Egypt, when you marched through the dry wasteland,

Interlude

8the earth trembled, and the heavens poured down rain before you, the God of Sinai, before God, the God of Israel.

9You sent abundant rain, O God, to refresh the weary land.

10There your people finally settled, and with a bountiful harvest, O God, you provided for your needy people.

11The Lord gives the word, and a great army* brings the good news.

12Enemy kings and their armies flee, while the women of Israel divide the plunder.

13Even those who lived among the sheepfolds found treasures—doves with wings of silver and feathers of gold.

14The Almighty scattered the enemy kings like a blowing snowstorm on Mount Zalmon.

15The mountains of Bashan are majestic, with many peaks stretching high into the sky.

16Why do you look with envy, O rugged mountains, at Mount Zion, where God has chosen to live,
where the LORD himself will live forever?

17Surrounded by unnumbered thousands of chariots, the Lord came from Mount Sinai into his sanctuary.

18When you ascended to the heights, you led a crowd of captives.
You received gifts from the people, even from those who rebelled against you.
Now the LORD God will live among us there.

19Praise the Lord; praise God our savior!
For each day he carries us in his arms.

Interlude

20Our God is a God who saves!
The Sovereign LORD rescues us from death.

21But God will smash the heads of his enemies, crushing the skulls of those who love their guilty ways.

22The Lord says, “I will bring my enemies down from Bashan; I will bring them up from the depths of the sea.

23You, my people, will wash* your feet in their blood, and even your dogs will get their share!”

24Your procession has come into view, O God— the procession of my God and King as he goes into the sanctuary.

25Singers are in front, musicians behind; between them are young women playing tambourines.

26Praise God, all you people of Israel; praise the LORD, the source of Israel’s life.

27Look, the little tribe of Benjamin leads the way.
Then comes a great throng of rulers from Judah and all the rulers of Zebulun and Naphtali.

28Summon your might, O God.*
Display your power, O God, as you have in the past.

29The kings of the earth are bringing tribute to your Temple in Jerusalem.

30Rebuke these enemy nations— these wild animals lurking in the reeds,
this herd of bulls among the weaker calves.
Make them bring bars of silver in humble tribute.
Scatter the nations that delight in war.

31Let Egypt come with gifts of precious metals*; let Ethiopia* bring tribute to God.

32Sing to God, you kingdoms of the earth.
Sing praises to the Lord.

Interlude

33Sing to the one who rides across the ancient heavens, his mighty voice thundering from the sky.

34Tell everyone about God's power.
His majesty shines down on Israel;
his strength is mighty in the heavens.

35God is awesome in his sanctuary.
The God of Israel gives power and strength to his people.
Praise be to God!

Psalm 69

For the choir director: A psalm of David, to be sung to the tune "Lilies."

1Save me, O God, for the floodwaters are up to my neck.

2Deeper and deeper I sink into the mire; I can't find a foothold.
I am in deep water,
and the floods overwhelm me.

3I am exhausted from crying for help; my throat is parched.
My eyes are swollen with weeping, waiting for my God to help me.

4Those who hate me without cause outnumber the hairs on my head.
Many enemies try to destroy me with lies, demanding that I give back what I didn't steal.

5O God, you know how foolish I am; my sins cannot be hidden from
you.

6Don't let those who trust in you be ashamed because of me, O
Sovereign LORD of Heaven's Armies.
Don't let me cause them to be humiliated,
O God of Israel.

7For I endure insults for your sake; humiliation is written all over my face.

8Even my own brothers pretend they don't know me; they treat me like a stranger.

9Passion for your house has consumed me, and the insults of those who insult you have fallen on me.

10When I weep and fast, they scoff at me.

11When I dress in burlap to show sorrow, they make fun of me.

12I am the favorite topic of town gossip, and all the drunks sing about me.

13But I keep praying to you, LORD, hoping this time you will show me favor.
In your unfailing love, O God, answer my prayer with your sure salvation.

14Rescue me from the mud; don't let me sink any deeper!
Save me from those who hate me, and pull me from these deep waters.

15Don't let the floods overwhelm me, or the deep waters swallow me, or the pit of death devour me.

16Answer my prayers, O LORD, for your unfailing love is wonderful.
Take care of me,
for your mercy is so plentiful.

17Don't hide from your servant; answer me quickly, for I am in deep trouble!

18Come and redeem me; free me from my enemies.

19You know of my shame, scorn, and disgrace.
You see all that my enemies are doing.

20Their insults have broken my heart, and I am in despair.
If only one person would show some pity;
if only one would turn and comfort me.

21But instead, they give me poison* for food; they offer me sour wine for my thirst.

22Let the bountiful table set before them become a snare and their prosperity become a trap.*

23Let their eyes go blind so they cannot see, and make their bodies shake continually.*

24Pour out your fury on them; consume them with your burning anger.

25Let their homes become desolate and their tents be deserted.

26To the one you have punished, they add insult to injury; they add to the pain of those you have hurt.

27Pile their sins up high, and don't let them go free.

28Erase their names from the Book of Life; don't let them be counted among the righteous.

29I am suffering and in pain.
Rescue me, O God, by your saving power.

30Then I will praise God's name with singing, and I will honor him with thanksgiving.

31For this will please the LORD more than sacrificing cattle, more than presenting a bull with its horns and hooves.

32The humble will see their God at work and be glad.
Let all who seek God's help be encouraged.

33For the LORD hears the cries of the needy; he does not despise his imprisoned people.

34Praise him, O heaven and earth, the seas and all that move in them.

35For God will save Jerusalem* and rebuild the towns of Judah.
His people will live there and settle in their own land.

36The descendants of those who obey him will inherit the land, and those who love him will live there in safety.

Psalm 70

For the choir director: A psalm of David, asking God to remember him.

1Please, God, rescue me!
Come quickly, LORD, and help me.

2May those who try to kill me be humiliated and put to shame.
May those who take delight in my trouble
be turned back in disgrace.

3Let them be horrified by their shame, for they said, “Aha! We’ve got him now!”

4But may all who search for you be filled with joy and gladness in you.
May those who love your salvation repeatedly shout, “God is great!”

5But as for me, I am poor and needy; please hurry to my aid, O God.
You are my helper and my savior;
O LORD, do not delay.

Psalm 71

1O LORD, I have come to you for protection; don’t let me be disgraced.

2Save me and rescue me, for you do what is right.
Turn your ear to listen to me,
and set me free.

3Be my rock of safety where I can always hide.
Give the order to save me,
for you are my rock and my fortress.

4My God, rescue me from the power of the wicked, from the clutches of cruel oppressors.

5O Lord, you alone are my hope.
I've trusted you, O LORD, from childhood.

6Yes, you have been with me from birth; from my mother's womb you have cared for me.
No wonder I am always praising you!

7My life is an example to many, because you have been my strength and protection.

8That is why I can never stop praising you; I declare your glory all day long.

9And now, in my old age, don't set me aside.
Don't abandon me when my strength is failing.

10For my enemies are whispering against me.
They are plotting together to kill me.

11They say, "God has abandoned him.
Let's go and get him,
for no one will help him now."

12O God, don't stay away.
My God, please hurry to help me.

13Bring disgrace and destruction on my accusers.
Humiliate and shame those who want to harm me.

14But I will keep on hoping for your help; I will praise you more and more.

15I will tell everyone about your righteousness.
All day long I will proclaim your saving power, though I am not skilled with words.*

16I will praise your mighty deeds, O Sovereign LORD.
I will tell everyone that you alone are just.

17O God, you have taught me from my earliest childhood, and I constantly tell others about the wonderful things you do.

18Now that I am old and gray, do not abandon me, O God.
Let me proclaim your power to this new generation, your mighty miracles to all who come after me.

19Your righteousness, O God, reaches to the highest heavens.
You have done such wonderful things.
Who can compare with you, O God?

20You have allowed me to suffer much hardship, but you will restore me to life again and lift me up from the depths of the earth.

21You will restore me to even greater honor and comfort me once again.

22Then I will praise you with music on the harp, because you are faithful to your promises, O my God.
I will sing praises to you with a lyre,
O Holy One of Israel.

23I will shout for joy and sing your praises, for you have ransomed me.

24I will tell about your righteous deeds all day long, for everyone who tried to hurt me has been shamed and humiliated.

Psalm 72

A psalm of Solomon.

1Give your love of justice to the king, O God, and righteousness to the king's son.

2Help him judge your people in the right way; let the poor always be treated fairly.

3May the mountains yield prosperity for all, and may the hills be fruitful.

4Help him to defend the poor, to rescue the children of the needy, and to crush their oppressors.

5May they fear you* as long as the sun shines, as long as the moon remains in the sky.
Yes, forever!

6May the king's rule be refreshing like spring rain on freshly cut grass, like the showers that water the earth.

7May all the godly flourish during his reign.
May there be abundant prosperity until the moon is no more.

8May he reign from sea to sea, and from the Euphrates River* to the ends of the earth.

9Desert nomads will bow before him; his enemies will fall before him in the dust.

SHEBA

10The western kings of Tarshish and other distant lands will bring him tribute.
The eastern kings of Sheba and Seba will bring him gifts.

11All kings will bow before him, and all nations will serve him.

12He will rescue the poor when they cry to him; he will help the oppressed, who have no one to defend them.

13He feels pity for the weak and the needy, and he will rescue them.

14He will redeem them from oppression and violence, for their lives are precious to him.

15Long live the king!
May the gold of Sheba be given to him.
May the people always pray for him and bless him all day long.

16May there be abundant grain throughout the land, flourishing even on the hilltops.
May the fruit trees flourish like the trees of Lebanon, and may the people thrive like grass in a field.

17May the king's name endure forever; may it continue as long as the sun shines.
May all nations be blessed through him and bring him praise.

18Praise the LORD God, the God of Israel, who alone does such wonderful things.

19Praise his glorious name forever!
Let the whole earth be filled with his glory.
Amen and amen!

20(This ends the prayers of David son of Jesse.)

Book Three (Psalms 73–89)

Psalm 73

A psalm of Asaph.

1Truly God is good to Israel, to those whose hearts are pure.

2But as for me, I almost lost my footing.
My feet were slipping, and I was almost gone.

3For I envied the proud when I saw them prosper despite their wickedness.

4They seem to live such painless lives; their bodies are so healthy and strong.

5They don't have troubles like other people; they're not plagued with problems like everyone else.

6They wear pride like a jeweled necklace and clothe themselves with cruelty.

7These fat cats have everything their hearts could ever wish for!

8They scoff and speak only evil; in their pride they seek to crush others.

9They boast against the very heavens, and their words strut throughout the earth.

10And so the people are dismayed and confused, drinking in all their words.

11“What does God know?” they ask.
“Does the Most High even know what’s happening?”

12Look at these wicked people— enjoying a life of ease while their riches multiply.

13Did I keep my heart pure for nothing?
Did I keep myself innocent for no reason?

14I get nothing but trouble all day long; every morning brings me pain.

15If I had really spoken this way to others, I would have been a traitor to your people.

16So I tried to understand why the wicked prosper.
But what a difficult task it is!

17Then I went into your sanctuary, O God, and I finally understood the destiny of the wicked.

18Truly, you put them on a slippery path and send them sliding over the cliff to destruction.

19In an instant they are destroyed, completely swept away by terrors.

20When you arise, O Lord, you will laugh at their silly ideas as a person laughs at dreams in the morning.

21Then I realized that my heart was bitter, and I was all torn up inside.

22I was so foolish and ignorant— I must have seemed like a senseless animal to you.

23Yet I still belong to you; you hold my right hand.

24You guide me with your counsel, leading me to a glorious destiny.

25Whom have I in heaven but you?
I desire you more than anything on earth.

26My health may fail, and my spirit may grow weak, but God remains the strength of my heart;
he is mine forever.

27Those who desert him will perish, for you destroy those who abandon you.

28But as for me, how good it is to be near God!
I have made the Sovereign LORD my shelter, and I will tell everyone about the wonderful things you do.

Psalm 74

A psalm of Asaph.*

1O God, why have you rejected us so long?
Why is your anger so intense against the sheep of your own pasture?

2Remember that we are the people you chose long ago, the tribe you redeemed as your own special possession!
And remember Jerusalem,* your home here on earth.

3Walk through the awful ruins of the city; see how the enemy has destroyed your sanctuary.

4There your enemies shouted their victorious battle cries; there they set up their battle standards.

5They swung their axes like woodcutters in a forest.

6With axes and picks, they smashed the carved paneling.

7They burned your sanctuary to the ground.
They defiled the place that bears your name.

8Then they thought, “Let’s destroy everything!”
So they burned down all the places where God was worshiped.

9We no longer see your miraculous signs.
All the prophets are gone,
and no one can tell us when it will end.

10How long, O God, will you allow our enemies to insult you?
Will you let them dishonor your name forever?

11Why do you hold back your strong right hand?
Unleash your powerful fist and destroy them.

12You, O God, are my king from ages past, bringing salvation to the earth.

13You split the sea by your strength and smashed the heads of the sea monsters.

14You crushed the heads of Leviathan* and let the desert animals eat him.

15You caused the springs and streams to gush forth, and you dried up rivers that never run dry.

16Both day and night belong to you; you made the starlight* and the sun.

17You set the boundaries of the earth, and you made both summer and winter.

18See how these enemies insult you, LORD.
A foolish nation has dishonored your name.

19Don't let these wild beasts destroy your turtledoves.
Don't forget your suffering people forever.

20Remember your covenant promises, for the land is full of darkness and violence!

21Don't let the downtrodden be humiliated again.
Instead, let the poor and needy praise your name.

22Arise, O God, and defend your cause.
Remember how these fools insult you all day long.

23Don't overlook what your enemies have said or their growing uproar.

Psalm 75

For the choir director: A psalm of Asaph. A song to be sung to the tune "Do Not Destroy!"

1We thank you, O God!
We give thanks because you are near.
People everywhere tell of your wonderful deeds.

2God says, "At the time I have planned, I will bring justice against the wicked.

3When the earth quakes and its people live in turmoil, I am the one who keeps its foundations firm.

Interlude

4"I warned the proud, 'Stop your boasting!'

I told the wicked, ‘Don’t raise your fists!

5Don’t raise your fists in defiance at the heavens or speak with such arrogance.’”

6For no one on earth—from east or west, or even from the wilderness— should raise a defiant fist.*

7It is God alone who judges; he decides who will rise and who will fall.

8For the LORD holds a cup in his hand that is full of foaming wine mixed with spices.
He pours out the wine in judgment, and all the wicked must drink it, draining it to the dregs.

9But as for me, I will always proclaim what God has done; I will sing praises to the God of Jacob.

10For God says, “I will break the strength of the wicked, but I will increase the power of the godly.”

Psalm 76

For the choir director: A psalm of Asaph. A song to be accompanied by stringed instruments.

1God is honored in Judah; his name is great in Israel.

2Jerusalem* is where he lives; Mount Zion is his home.

3There he has broken the fiery arrows of the enemy, the shields and swords and weapons of war.

Interlude

4You are glorious and more majestic than the everlasting mountains.*

5Our boldest enemies have been plundered.
They lie before us in the sleep of death.
No warrior could lift a hand against us.

6At the blast of your breath, O God of Jacob, their horses and chariots lay still.

7No wonder you are greatly feared!
Who can stand before you when your anger explodes?

8From heaven you sentenced your enemies; the earth trembled and stood silent before you.

9You stand up to judge those who do evil, O God, and to rescue the oppressed of the earth.

Interlude

10Human defiance only enhances your glory, for you use it as a weapon.*

11Make vows to the LORD your God, and keep them.
Let everyone bring tribute to the Awesome One.

12For he breaks the pride of princes, and the kings of the earth fear him.

Psalm 77

For Jeduthun, the choir director: A psalm of Asaph.

1I cry out to God; yes, I shout.
Oh, that God would listen to me!

2When I was in deep trouble, I searched for the Lord.
All night long I prayed, with hands lifted toward heaven, but my soul was not comforted.

3I think of God, and I moan, overwhelmed with longing for his help.

Interlude

4You don't let me sleep.
I am too distressed even to pray!

5I think of the good old days, long since ended,

6when my nights were filled with joyful songs.
I search my soul and ponder the difference now.

7Has the Lord rejected me forever?
Will he never again be kind to me?

8Is his unfailing love gone forever?
Have his promises permanently failed?

9Has God forgotten to be gracious?
Has he slammed the door on his compassion?

Interlude

10And I said, "This is my fate; the Most High has turned his hand against me."

11But then I recall all you have done, O LORD; I remember your wonderful deeds of long ago.

12They are constantly in my thoughts.
I cannot stop thinking about your mighty works.

13O God, your ways are holy.
Is there any god as mighty as you?

14You are the God of great wonders!
You demonstrate your awesome power among the nations.

15By your strong arm, you redeemed your people, the descendants of Jacob and Joseph.

Interlude

16When the Red Sea* saw you, O God, its waters looked and trembled!
The sea quaked to its very depths.

17The clouds poured down rain; the thunder rumbled in the sky.
Your arrows of lightning flashed.

18Your thunder roared from the whirlwind; the lightning lit up the world!
The earth trembled and shook.

19Your road led through the sea, your pathway through the mighty waters— a pathway no one knew was there!

20You led your people along that road like a flock of sheep, with Moses and Aaron as their shepherds.

Psalm 78

A psalm of Asaph.*

1O my people, listen to my instructions.
Open your ears to what I am saying,

2for I will speak to you in a parable.
I will teach you hidden lessons from our past—

3stories we have heard and known, stories our ancestors handed down to us.

4We will not hide these truths from our children; we will tell the next generation about the glorious deeds of the LORD, about his power and his mighty wonders.

5For he issued his laws to Jacob; he gave his instructions to Israel.

He commanded our ancestors to teach them to their children,

6so the next generation might know them— even the children not yet born— and they in turn will teach their own children.

7So each generation should set its hope anew on God, not forgetting his glorious miracles and obeying his commands.

8Then they will not be like their ancestors— stubborn, rebellious, and unfaithful, refusing to give their hearts to God.

9The warriors of Ephraim, though armed with bows, turned their backs and fled on the day of battle.

10They did not keep God's covenant and refused to live by his instructions.

11They forgot what he had done— the great wonders he had shown them, 12the miracles he did for their ancestors on the plain of Zoan in the land of Egypt.

13For he divided the sea and led them through, making the water stand up like walls!

14In the daytime he led them by a cloud, and all night by a pillar of fire.

15He split open the rocks in the wilderness to give them water, as from a gushing spring.

16He made streams pour from the rock, making the waters flow down like a river!

17Yet they kept on sinning against him, rebelling against the Most High in the desert.

18They stubbornly tested God in their hearts, demanding the foods they craved.

19They even spoke against God himself, saying, "God can't give us food in the wilderness.

20Yes, he can strike a rock so water gushes out, but he can't give his people bread and meat."

21When the LORD heard them, he was furious.
The fire of his wrath burned against Jacob.
Yes, his anger rose against Israel,

22for they did not believe God or trust him to care for them.

23But he commanded the skies to open; he opened the doors of heaven.

24He rained down manna for them to eat; he gave them bread from heaven.

25They ate the food of angels!
God gave them all they could hold.

26He released the east wind in the heavens and guided the south wind by his mighty power.

27He rained down meat as thick as dust— birds as plentiful as the sand on the seashore!

28He caused the birds to fall within their camp and all around their tents.

29The people ate their fill.
He gave them what they craved.

30But before they satisfied their craving, while the meat was yet in their mouths,

31the anger of God rose against them, and he killed their strongest men.
He struck down the finest of Israel's young men.

32But in spite of this, the people kept sinning.
Despite his wonders, they refused to trust him.

33So he ended their lives in failure, their years in terror.

34When God began killing them, they finally sought him.
They repented and took God seriously.

35Then they remembered that God was their rock, that God Most High* was their redeemer.

36But all they gave him was lip service; they lied to him with their tongues.

37Their hearts were not loyal to him.
They did not keep his covenant.

38Yet he was merciful and forgave their sins and did not destroy them all.
Many times he held back his anger and did not unleash his fury!

39For he remembered that they were merely mortal, gone like a breath of wind that never returns.

40Oh, how often they rebelled against him in the wilderness and grieved his heart in that dry wasteland.

41Again and again they tested God's patience and provoked the Holy One of Israel.

42They did not remember his power and how he rescued them from their enemies.

43They did not remember his miraculous signs in Egypt, his wonders on the plain of Zoan.

44For he turned their rivers into blood, so no one could drink from the streams.

45He sent vast swarms of flies to consume them and hordes of frogs to ruin them.

46He gave their crops to caterpillars; their harvest was consumed by locusts.

47He destroyed their grapevines with hail and shattered their sycamore-figs with sleet.

48He abandoned their cattle to the hail, their livestock to bolts of lightning.

49He loosed on them his fierce anger— all his fury, rage, and hostility.
He dispatched against them a band of destroying angels.

50He turned his anger against them; he did not spare the Egyptians' lives but ravaged them with the plague.

51He killed the oldest son in each Egyptian family, the flower of youth throughout the land of Egypt.*

52But he led his own people like a flock of sheep, guiding them safely through the wilderness.

53He kept them safe so they were not afraid; but the sea covered their enemies.

54He brought them to the border of his holy land, to this land of hills he had won for them.

55He drove out the nations before them; he gave them their inheritance by lot.
He settled the tribes of Israel into their homes.

56But they kept testing and rebelling against God Most High.
They did not obey his laws.

57They turned back and were as faithless as their parents.
They were as undependable as a crooked bow.

58They angered God by building shrines to other gods; they made him jealous with their idols.

59When God heard them, he was very angry, and he completely rejected Israel.

60Then he abandoned his dwelling at Shiloh, the Tabernacle where he had lived among the people.

61He allowed the Ark of his might to be captured; he surrendered his glory into enemy hands.

62He gave his people over to be butchered by the sword, because he was so angry with his own people—his special possession.

63Their young men were killed by fire; their young women died before singing their wedding songs.

64Their priests were slaughtered, and their widows could not mourn their deaths.

65Then the Lord rose up as though waking from sleep, like a warrior aroused from a drunken stupor.

66He routed his enemies and sent them to eternal shame.

67But he rejected Joseph's descendants; he did not choose the tribe of Ephraim.

68He chose instead the tribe of Judah, and Mount Zion, which he loved.

69There he built his sanctuary as high as the heavens, as solid and enduring as the earth.

70He chose his servant David, calling him from the sheep pens.

71He took David from tending the ewes and lambs and made him the shepherd of Jacob's descendants— God's own people, Israel.

72He cared for them with a true heart and led them with skillful hands.

Psalm 79

A psalm of Asaph.

1O God, pagan nations have conquered your land, your special possession.
They have defiled your holy Temple and made Jerusalem a heap of ruins.

2They have left the bodies of your servants as food for the birds of heaven.
The flesh of your godly ones has become food for the wild animals.

3Blood has flowed like water all around Jerusalem; no one is left to bury the dead.

4We are mocked by our neighbors, an object of scorn and derision to those around us.

5O LORD, how long will you be angry with us? Forever?
How long will your jealousy burn like fire?

6Pour out your wrath on the nations that refuse to acknowledge you — on kingdoms that do not call upon your name.

7For they have devoured your people Israel,* making the land a desolate wilderness.

8Do not hold us guilty for the sins of our ancestors!
Let your compassion quickly meet our needs, for we are on the brink of despair.

9Help us, O God of our salvation!
Help us for the glory of your name.
Save us and forgive our sins for the honor of your name.

10Why should pagan nations be allowed to scoff, asking, “Where is their God?”
Show us your vengeance against the nations, for they have spilled the blood of your servants.

11Listen to the moaning of the prisoners.
Demonstrate your great power by saving those condemned to die.

12O Lord, pay back our neighbors seven times for the scorn they have hurled at you.

13Then we your people, the sheep of your pasture, will thank you forever and ever, praising your greatness from generation to generation.

Psalm 80

For the choir director: A psalm of Asaph, to be sung to the tune "Lilies of the Covenant."

1Please listen, O Shepherd of Israel, you who lead Joseph's descendants like a flock.
O God, enthroned above the cherubim, display your radiant glory

2to Ephraim, Benjamin, and Manasseh.
Show us your mighty power.
Come to rescue us!

3Turn us again to yourself, O God.
Make your face shine down upon us.
Only then will we be saved.

4O LORD God of Heaven's Armies, how long will you be angry with our prayers?

5You have fed us with sorrow and made us drink tears by the bucketful.

6You have made us the scorn* of neighboring nations.
Our enemies treat us as a joke.

7Turn us again to yourself, O God of Heaven's Armies.
Make your face shine down upon us.
Only then will we be saved.

8You brought us from Egypt like a grapevine; you drove away the pagan nations and transplanted us into your land.

9You cleared the ground for us, and we took root and filled the land.

10Our shade covered the mountains; our branches covered the mighty cedars.

11We spread our branches west to the Mediterranean Sea; our shoots spread east to the Euphrates River.*

12But now, why have you broken down our walls so that all who pass by may steal our fruit?

13The wild boar from the forest devours it, and the wild animals feed on it.

14Come back, we beg you, O God of Heaven's Armies.
Look down from heaven and see our plight.
Take care of this grapevine

15that you yourself have planted, this son you have raised for yourself.

16For we are chopped up and burned by our enemies.
May they perish at the sight of your frown.

17Strengthen the man you love, the son of your choice.

18Then we will never abandon you again.
Revive us so we can call on your name once more.

19Turn us again to yourself, O LORD God of Heaven's Armies.
Make your face shine down upon us.
Only then will we be saved.

Psalm 81

For the choir director: A psalm of Asaph, to be accompanied by a stringed instrument. *

1Sing praises to God, our strength.
Sing to the God of Jacob.

2Sing! Beat the tambourine.
Play the sweet lyre and the harp.

3Blow the ram's horn at new moon, and again at full moon to call a festival!

4For this is required by the decrees of Israel; it is a regulation of the God of Jacob.

5He made it a law for Israel*
when he attacked Egypt to set us free.
I heard an unknown voice say,

6"Now I will take the load from your shoulders; I will free your hands from their heavy tasks.

7You cried to me in trouble, and I saved you; I answered out of the thundercloud and tested your faith when there was no water at Meribah.

Interlude

8"Listen to me, O my people, while I give you stern warnings.
O Israel, if you would only listen to me!

9You must never have a foreign god; you must not bow down before a false god.

10For it was I, the LORD your God, who rescued you from the land of Egypt.
Open your mouth wide, and I will fill it with good things.

11"But no, my people wouldn't listen.
Israel did not want me around.

12So I let them follow their own stubborn desires, living according to their own ideas.

13Oh, that my people would listen to me!
Oh, that Israel would follow me, walking in my paths!

14How quickly I would then subdue their enemies!
How soon my hands would be upon their foes!

15Those who hate the LORD would cringe before him; they would be doomed forever.

16But I would feed you with the finest wheat.
I would satisfy you with wild honey from the rock.”

Psalm 82

A psalm of Asaph.

1God presides over heaven’s court; he pronounces judgment on the heavenly beings:

2“How long will you hand down unjust decisions by favoring the wicked?

Interlude

3“Give justice to the poor and the orphan; uphold the rights of the oppressed and the destitute.

4Rescue the poor and helpless; deliver them from the grasp of evil people.

5But these oppressors know nothing; they are so ignorant!
They wander about in darkness, while the whole world is shaken to the core.

6I say, ‘You are gods; you are all children of the Most High.

7But you will die like mere mortals and fall like every other ruler.’”

8Rise up, O God, and judge the earth, for all the nations belong to you.

Psalm 83

A song. A psalm of Asaph.

1O God, do not be silent!
Do not be deaf.
Do not be quiet, O God.

2Don't you hear the uproar of your enemies?
Don't you see that your arrogant enemies are rising up?

3They devise crafty schemes against your people; they conspire against your precious ones.

4"Come," they say, "let us wipe out Israel as a nation.
We will destroy the very memory of its existence."

5Yes, this was their unanimous decision.
They signed a treaty as allies against you—

6these Edomites and Ishmaelites; Moabites and Hagrites;

7Gebalites, Ammonites, and Amalekites; and people from Philistia and Tyre.

8Assyria has joined them, too, and is allied with the descendants of Lot.

Interlude

9Do to them as you did to the Midianites and as you did to Sisera and Jabin at the Kishon River.

10They were destroyed at Endor, and their decaying corpses fertilized the soil.

11Let their mighty nobles die as Oreb and Zeeb did.
Let all their princes die like Zebah and Zalmunna,

12for they said, "Let us seize for our own use these pasturelands of God!"

13O my God, scatter them like tumbleweed, like chaff before the wind!

14As a fire burns a forest and as a flame sets mountains ablaze, 15chase them with your fierce storm; terrify them with your tempest.

16Utterly disgrace them until they submit to your name, O LORD.

17Let them be ashamed and terrified forever.
Let them die in disgrace.

18Then they will learn that you alone are called the LORD, that you alone are the Most High, supreme over all the earth.

Psalm 84

For the choir director: A psalm of the descendants of Korah, to be accompanied by a stringed instrument. *

1How lovely is your dwelling place, O LORD of Heaven's Armies.

2I long, yes, I faint with longing to enter the courts of the LORD.
With my whole being, body and soul, I will shout joyfully to the living God.

3Even the sparrow finds a home, and the swallow builds her nest and raises her young at a place near your altar, O LORD of Heaven's Armies, my King and my God!

4What joy for those who can live in your house, always singing your praises.

Interlude

5What joy for those whose strength comes from the LORD, who have set their minds on a pilgrimage to Jerusalem.

6When they walk through the Valley of Weeping,*
it will become a place of refreshing springs.
The autumn rains will clothe it with blessings.

7They will continue to grow stronger, and each of them will appear before God in Jerusalem.*

8O LORD God of Heaven's Armies, hear my prayer.
Listen, O God of Jacob.

Interlude

9O God, look with favor upon the king, our shield!
Show favor to the one you have anointed.

10A single day in your courts is better than a thousand anywhere else!
I would rather be a gatekeeper in the house of my God than live the good life in the homes of the wicked.

11For the LORD God is our sun and our shield.
He gives us grace and glory.
The LORD will withhold no good thing from those who do what is right.

12O LORD of Heaven's Armies, what joy for those who trust in you.

Psalm 85

For the choir director: A psalm of the descendants of Korah.

1LORD, you poured out blessings on your land!
You restored the fortunes of Israel.*

2You forgave the guilt of your people— yes, you covered all their sins.

Interlude

3You held back your fury.
You kept back your blazing anger.

4Now restore us again, O God of our salvation.
Put aside your anger against us once more.

5Will you be angry with us always?
Will you prolong your wrath to all generations?

6Won’t you revive us again, so your people can rejoice in you?

7Show us your unfailing love, O LORD, and grant us your salvation.

8I listen carefully to what God the LORD is saying, for he speaks peace to his faithful people.
But let them not return to their foolish ways.

9Surely his salvation is near to those who fear him, so our land will be filled with his glory.

10Unfailing love and truth have met together.
Righteousness and peace have kissed!

11Truth springs up from the earth, and righteousness smiles down from heaven.

12Yes, the LORD pours down his blessings.
Our land will yield its bountiful harvest.

13Righteousness goes as a herald before him, preparing the way for his steps.

Psalm 86

A prayer of David.

1Bend down, O LORD, and hear my prayer; answer me, for I need your help.

2Protect me, for I am devoted to you.
Save me, for I serve you and trust you.
You are my God.

3Be merciful to me, O Lord, for I am calling on you constantly.

4Give me happiness, O Lord, for I give myself to you.

5O Lord, you are so good, so ready to forgive, so full of unfailing love for all who ask for your help.

6Listen closely to my prayer, O LORD; hear my urgent cry.

7I will call to you whenever I'm in trouble, and you will answer me.

8No pagan god is like you, O Lord.
None can do what you do!

9All the nations you made will come and bow before you, Lord;
they will praise your holy name.

10For you are great and perform wonderful deeds.
You alone are God.

11Teach me your ways, O LORD, that I may live according to your truth!
Grant me purity of heart, so that I may honor you.

12With all my heart I will praise you, O Lord my God.
I will give glory to your name forever,

13for your love for me is very great.
You have rescued me from the depths of death.*

14O God, insolent people rise up against me; a violent gang is trying to kill me.
You mean nothing to them.

15But you, O Lord, are a God of compassion and mercy, slow to get angry and filled with unfailing love and faithfulness.

16Look down and have mercy on me.
Give your strength to your servant; save me, the son of your servant.

17Send me a sign of your favor.
Then those who hate me will be put to shame, for you, O LORD, help and comfort me.

Psalm 87

A song. A psalm of the descendants of Korah.

1On the holy mountain stands the city founded by the LORD.

2He loves the city of Jerusalem more than any other city in Israel.*

3O city of God, what glorious things are said of you!

Interlude

4I will count Egypt* and Babylon among those who know me— also Philistia and Tyre, and even distant Ethiopia.*
They have all become citizens of Jerusalem!

5Regarding Jerusalem* it will be said, “Everyone enjoys the rights of citizenship there.”
And the Most High will personally bless this city.

6When the LORD registers the nations, he will say, “They have all become citizens of Jerusalem.”

Interlude

7The people will play flutes* and sing, “The source of my life springs from Jerusalem!”

Psalm 88

For the choir director: A psalm of the descendants of Korah. A song to be sung to the tune “The Suffering of Affliction.” A psalm of Heman the Ezrahite.*

1O LORD, God of my salvation, I cry out to you by day.
I come to you at night.

2Now hear my prayer; listen to my cry.

3For my life is full of troubles, and death* draws near.

4I am as good as dead, like a strong man with no strength left.

5They have left me among the dead, and I lie like a corpse in a grave.
I am forgotten, cut off from your care.

6You have thrown me into the lowest pit, into the darkest depths.

7Your anger weighs me down; with wave after wave you have engulfed me.

Interlude

8You have driven my friends away by making me repulsive to them.
I am in a trap with no way of escape.

9My eyes are blinded by my tears.
Each day I beg for your help, O LORD; I lift my hands to you for mercy.

10Are your wonderful deeds of any use to the dead?
Do the dead rise up and praise you?

Interlude

11Can those in the grave declare your unfailing love?
Can they proclaim your faithfulness in the place of destruction?*

12Can the darkness speak of your wonderful deeds?
Can anyone in the land of forgetfulness talk about your righteousness?

13O LORD, I cry out to you.
I will keep on pleading day by day.

14O LORD, why do you reject me?
Why do you turn your face from me?

15I have been sick and close to death since my youth.
I stand helpless and desperate before your terrors.

16Your fierce anger has overwhelmed me.
Your terrors have paralyzed me.

17They swirl around me like floodwaters all day long.
They have engulfed me completely.

18You have taken away my companions and loved ones.
Darkness is my closest friend.

Psalm 89

A psalm of Ethan the Ezrahite.*

1I will sing of the LORD's unfailing love forever!
Young and old will hear of your faithfulness.

2Your unfailing love will last forever.
Your faithfulness is as enduring as the heavens.

3The LORD said, "I have made a covenant with David, my chosen servant.
I have sworn this oath to him:

4'I will establish your descendants as kings forever; they will sit on your throne from now until eternity.'"

Interlude

5All heaven will praise your great wonders, LORD; myriads of angels will praise you for your faithfulness.

6For who in all of heaven can compare with the LORD?
What mightiest angel is anything like the LORD?

7The highest angelic powers stand in awe of God.
He is far more awesome than all who surround his throne.

8O LORD God of Heaven's Armies!
Where is there anyone as mighty as you, O LORD?
You are entirely faithful.

9You rule the oceans.
You subdue their storm-tossed waves.

10You crushed the great sea monster.*
You scattered your enemies with your mighty arm.

11The heavens are yours, and the earth is yours; everything in the world is yours—you created it all.

12You created north and south.
Mount Tabor and Mount Hermon praise your name.

13Powerful is your arm!
Strong is your hand!
Your right hand is lifted high in glorious strength.

14Righteousness and justice are the foundation of your throne.
Unfailing love and truth walk before you as attendants.

15Happy are those who hear the joyful call to worship, for they will walk in the light of your presence, LORD.

16They rejoice all day long in your wonderful reputation.
They exult in your righteousness.

17You are their glorious strength.
It pleases you to make us strong.

18Yes, our protection comes from the LORD, and he, the Holy One of Israel, has given us our king.

19Long ago you spoke in a vision to your faithful people.
You said, “I have raised up a warrior.
I have selected him from the common people to be king.

20I have found my servant David.
I have anointed him with my holy oil.

21I will steady him with my hand; with my powerful arm I will make him strong.

22His enemies will not defeat him, nor will the wicked overpower him.

23I will beat down his adversaries before him and destroy those who hate him.

24My faithfulness and unfailing love will be with him, and by my authority he will grow in power.

25I will extend his rule over the sea, his dominion over the rivers.

26And he will call out to me, ‘You are my Father, my God, and the Rock of my salvation.’

27I will make him my firstborn son, the mightiest king on earth.

28I will love him and be kind to him forever; my covenant with him will never end.

29I will preserve an heir for him; his throne will be as endless as the days of heaven.

30But if his descendants forsake my instructions and fail to obey my regulations,

31if they do not obey my decrees and fail to keep my commands,

32then I will punish their sin with the rod, and their disobedience with beating.

33But I will never stop loving him nor fail to keep my promise to him.

34No, I will not break my covenant; I will not take back a single word I said.

35I have sworn an oath to David, and in my holiness I cannot lie:

36His dynasty will go on forever; his kingdom will endure as the sun.

37It will be as eternal as the moon, my faithful witness in the sky!”

Interlude

38But now you have rejected him and cast him off.
You are angry with your anointed king.

39You have renounced your covenant with him; you have thrown his crown in the dust.

40You have broken down the walls protecting him and ruined every fort defending him.

41Everyone who comes along has robbed him, and he has become a joke to his neighbors.

42You have strengthened his enemies and made them all rejoice.

43You have made his sword useless and refused to help him in battle.

44You have ended his splendor and overturned his throne.

45You have made him old before his time and publicly disgraced him.

Interlude

46O LORD, how long will this go on?
Will you hide yourself forever?
How long will your anger burn like fire?

47Remember how short my life is, how empty and futile this human existence!

48No one can live forever; all will die.
No one can escape the power of the grave.*

Interlude

49Lord, where is your unfailing love?
You promised it to David with a faithful pledge.

50Consider, Lord, how your servants are disgraced!
I carry in my heart the insults of so many people.

51Your enemies have mocked me, O LORD; they mock your anointed king wherever he goes.

52Praise the LORD forever!
Amen and amen!

Book Four (Psalms 90–106)

Psalm 90

A prayer of Moses, the man of God.

1Lord, through all the generations you have been our home!

2Before the mountains were born, before you gave birth to the earth and the world, from beginning to end, you are God.

3You turn people back to dust, saying, “Return to dust, you mortals!”

4For you, a thousand years are as a passing day, as brief as a few night hours.

5You sweep people away like dreams that disappear.
They are like grass that springs up in the morning.

6In the morning it blooms and flourishes, but by evening it is dry and withered.

7We wither beneath your anger; we are overwhelmed by your fury.

8You spread out our sins before you— our secret sins—and you see them all.

9We live our lives beneath your wrath, ending our years with a groan.

10Seventy years are given to us!
Some even live to eighty.
But even the best years are filled with pain and trouble; soon they disappear, and we fly away.

11Who can comprehend the power of your anger?
Your wrath is as awesome as the fear you deserve.

12Teach us to realize the brevity of life, so that we may grow in wisdom.

13O LORD, come back to us!
How long will you delay?
Take pity on your servants!

14Satisfy us each morning with your unfailing love, so we may sing for joy to the end of our lives.

15Give us gladness in proportion to our former misery!
Replace the evil years with good.

16Let us, your servants, see you work again; let our children see your glory.

17And may the Lord our God show us his approval and make our efforts successful.
Yes, make our efforts successful!

Psalm 91

1Those who live in the shelter of the Most High will find rest in the shadow of the Almighty.

2This I declare about the LORD: He alone is my refuge, my place of safety; he is my God, and I trust him.

3For he will rescue you from every trap and protect you from deadly disease.

4He will cover you with his feathers.
He will shelter you with his wings.
His faithful promises are your armor and protection.

5Do not be afraid of the terrors of the night, nor the arrow that flies in the day.

6Do not dread the disease that stalks in darkness, nor the disaster that strikes at midday.

7Though a thousand fall at your side, though ten thousand are dying around you, these evils will not touch you.

8Just open your eyes, and see how the wicked are punished.

9If you make the LORD your refuge, if you make the Most High your shelter,

10no evil will conquer you; no plague will come near your home.

11For he will order his angels to protect you wherever you go.

12They will hold you up with their hands so you won't even hurt your foot on a stone.

13You will trample upon lions and cobras; you will crush fierce lions and serpents under your feet!

14The LORD says, "I will rescue those who love me.
I will protect those who trust in my name.

15When they call on me, I will answer; I will be with them in trouble.

I will rescue and honor them.

16I will reward them with a long life and give them my salvation.”

SONGS PSALM 92

Psalm 92

A psalm. A song to be sung on the Sabbath Day.

1It is good to give thanks to the LORD, to sing praises to the Most High.

2It is good to proclaim your unfailing love in the morning, your faithfulness in the evening, 3accompanied by a ten-stringed instrument, a harp, and the melody of a lyre.

4You thrill me, LORD, with all you have done for me!
I sing for joy because of what you have done.

5O LORD, what great works you do!
And how deep are your thoughts.

6Only a simpleton would not know, and only a fool would not understand this:

7Though the wicked sprout like weeds and evildoers flourish, they will be destroyed forever.

8But you, O LORD, will be exalted forever.

9Your enemies, LORD, will surely perish; all evildoers will be scattered.

10But you have made me as strong as a wild ox.
You have anointed me with the finest oil.

11My eyes have seen the downfall of my enemies; my ears have heard the defeat of my wicked opponents.

12But the godly will flourish like palm trees and grow strong like the cedars of Lebanon.

13For they are transplanted to the LORD's own house.
They flourish in the courts of our God.

14Even in old age they will still produce fruit; they will remain vital and green.

15They will declare, "The LORD is just!
He is my rock!
There is no evil in him!"

Psalm 93

1The LORD is king! He is robed in majesty.
Indeed, the LORD is robed in majesty and armed with strength.
The world stands firm and cannot be shaken.

2Your throne, O LORD, has stood from time immemorial.
You yourself are from the everlasting past.

3The floods have risen up, O LORD.
The floods have roared like thunder; the floods have lifted their pounding waves.

4But mightier than the violent raging of the seas, mightier than the breakers on the shore— the LORD above is mightier than these!

5Your royal laws cannot be changed.
Your reign, O LORD, is holy forever and ever.

Psalm 94

1O LORD, the God of vengeance, O God of vengeance, let your glorious justice shine forth!

2Arise, O Judge of the earth.
Give the proud what they deserve.

3How long, O LORD?
How long will the wicked be allowed to gloat?

4How long will they speak with arrogance?
How long will these evil people boast?

5They crush your people, LORD, hurting those you claim as your own.

6They kill widows and foreigners and murder orphans.

7"The LORD isn't looking," they say, "and besides, the God of Israel* doesn't care."

8Think again, you fools!
When will you finally catch on?

9Is he deaf—the one who made your ears?
Is he blind—the one who formed your eyes?

10He punishes the nations—won't he also punish you?
He knows everything—doesn't he also know what you are doing?

11The LORD knows people's thoughts; he knows they are worthless!

12Joyful are those you discipline, LORD, those you teach with your instructions.

13You give them relief from troubled times until a pit is dug to capture the wicked.

14The LORD will not reject his people; he will not abandon his special possession.

15Judgment will again be founded on justice, and those with virtuous hearts will pursue it.

16Who will protect me from the wicked?
Who will stand up for me against evildoers?

17Unless the LORD had helped me, I would soon have settled in the silence of the grave.

18I cried out, “I am slipping!”
but your unfailing love, O LORD, supported me.

19When doubts filled my mind, your comfort gave me renewed hope and cheer.

20Can unjust leaders claim that God is on their side— leaders whose decrees permit injustice?

21They gang up against the righteous and condemn the innocent to death.

22But the LORD is my fortress; my God is the mighty rock where I hide.

23God will turn the sins of evil people back on them.
He will destroy them for their sins.
The LORD our God will destroy them.

Psalm 95

1Come, let us sing to the LORD!
Let us shout joyfully to the Rock of our salvation.

2Let us come to him with thanksgiving.
Let us sing psalms of praise to him.

3For the LORD is a great God, a great King above all gods.

4He holds in his hands the depths of the earth and the mightiest mountains.

5The sea belongs to him, for he made it.
His hands formed the dry land, too.

6Come, let us worship and bow down.
Let us kneel before the LORD our maker,

7for he is our God.
We are the people he watches over, the flock under his care.
If only you would listen to his voice today!

8The LORD says, “Don’t harden your hearts as Israel did at Meribah, as they did at Massah in the wilderness.

9For there your ancestors tested and tried my patience, even though they saw everything I did.

10For forty years I was angry with them, and I said, ‘They are a people whose hearts turn away from me.
They refuse to do what I tell them.’

11So in my anger I took an oath: ‘They will never enter my place of rest.’”

Psalm 96

1Sing a new song to the LORD!
Let the whole earth sing to the LORD!

2Sing to the LORD; praise his name.
Each day proclaim the good news that he saves.

3Publish his glorious deeds among the nations.
Tell everyone about the amazing things he does.

4Great is the LORD! He is most worthy of praise!
He is to be feared above all gods.

5The gods of other nations are mere idols, but the LORD made the heavens!

6Honor and majesty surround him; strength and beauty fill his sanctuary.

7O nations of the world, recognize the LORD; recognize that the LORD is glorious and strong.

8Give to the LORD the glory he deserves!

Bring your offering and come into his courts.

9Worship the LORD in all his holy splendor.
Let all the earth tremble before him.

10Tell all the nations, “The LORD reigns!”
The world stands firm and cannot be shaken.
He will judge all peoples fairly.

11Let the heavens be glad, and the earth rejoice!
Let the sea and everything in it shout his praise!

12Let the fields and their crops burst out with joy!
Let the trees of the forest sing for joy

13before the LORD, for he is coming!
He is coming to judge the earth.
He will judge the world with justice, and the nations with his truth.

Psalm 97

1The LORD is king!
Let the earth rejoice!
Let the farthest coastlands be glad.

2Dark clouds surround him.
Righteousness and justice are the foundation of his throne.

3Fire spreads ahead of him and burns up all his foes.

4His lightning flashes out across the world.
The earth sees and trembles.

5The mountains melt like wax before the LORD, before the Lord of all the earth.

6The heavens proclaim his righteousness; every nation sees his glory.

7Those who worship idols are disgraced— all who brag about their worthless gods— for every god must bow to him.

8Jerusalem* has heard and rejoiced, and all the towns of Judah are glad because of your justice, O LORD!

9For you, O LORD, are supreme over all the earth; you are exalted far above all gods.

10You who love the LORD, hate evil!
He protects the lives of his godly people and rescues them from the power of the wicked.

11Light shines on the godly, and joy on those whose hearts are right.

12May all who are godly rejoice in the LORD and praise his holy name!

Psalm 98

A psalm.

1Sing a new song to the LORD, for he has done wonderful deeds.
His right hand has won a mighty victory; his holy arm has shown his saving power!

2The LORD has announced his victory and has revealed his righteousness to every nation!

3He has remembered his promise to love and be faithful to Israel.
The ends of the earth have seen the victory of our God.

4Shout to the LORD, all the earth; break out in praise and sing for joy!

5Sing your praise to the LORD with the harp, with the harp and melodious song,

6with trumpets and the sound of the ram's horn.
Make a joyful symphony before the LORD, the King!

7Let the sea and everything in it shout his praise!
Let the earth and all living things join in.

8Let the rivers clap their hands in glee!
Let the hills sing out their songs of joy

9before the LORD, for he is coming to judge the earth.
He will judge the world with justice, and the nations with fairness.

Psalm 99

1The LORD is king!
Let the nations tremble!
He sits on his throne between the cherubim.
Let the whole earth quake!

2The LORD sits in majesty in Jerusalem,* exalted above all the nations.

3Let them praise your great and awesome name.
Your name is holy!

4Mighty King, lover of justice, you have established fairness.
You have acted with justice and righteousness throughout Israel.*

5Exalt the LORD our God!
Bow low before his feet, for he is holy!

6Moses and Aaron were among his priests; Samuel also called on his name.
They cried to the LORD for help, and he answered them.

7He spoke to Israel from the pillar of cloud, and they followed the laws and decrees he gave them.

8O LORD our God, you answered them.
You were a forgiving God to them, but you punished them when they went wrong.

9Exalt the LORD our God, and worship at his holy mountain in Jerusalem, for the LORD our God is holy!

Psalm 100

A psalm of thanksgiving.

1Shout with joy to the LORD, all the earth!

2Worship the LORD with gladness.
Come before him, singing with joy.

3Acknowledge that the LORD is God!
He made us, and we are his.*
We are his people, the sheep of his pasture.

4Enter his gates with thanksgiving; go into his courts with praise.
Give thanks to him and praise his name.

5For the LORD is good.
His unfailing love continues forever, and his faithfulness continues to each generation.

Psalm 101

A psalm of David.

1I will sing of your love and justice, LORD.
I will praise you with songs.

2I will be careful to live a blameless life— when will you come to help me?

I will lead a life of integrity in my own home.

3I will refuse to look at anything vile and vulgar.
I hate all who deal crookedly; I will have nothing to do with them.

4I will reject perverse ideas and stay away from every evil.

5I will not tolerate people who slander their neighbors.
I will not endure conceit and pride.

6I will search for faithful people to be my companions.
Only those who are above reproach will be allowed to serve me.

7I will not allow deceivers to serve in my house, and liars will not stay in my presence.

8My daily task will be to ferret out the wicked and free the city of the LORD from their grip.

Psalm 102

A prayer of one overwhelmed with trouble, pouring out problems before the LORD.

1LORD, hear my prayer!
Listen to my plea!

2Don't turn away from me in my time of distress.
Bend down to listen, and answer me quickly when I call to you.

3For my days disappear like smoke, and my bones burn like red-hot coals.

4My heart is sick, withered like grass, and I have lost my appetite.

5Because of my groaning, I am reduced to skin and bones.

6I am like an owl in the desert, like a little owl in a far-off wilderness.

7I lie awake, lonely as a solitary bird on the roof.

8My enemies taunt me day after day.
They mock and curse me.

9I eat ashes for food.
My tears run down into my drink

10because of your anger and wrath.
For you have picked me up and thrown me out.

11My life passes as swiftly as the evening shadows.
I am withering away like grass.

12But you, O LORD, will sit on your throne forever.
Your fame will endure to every generation.

13You will arise and have mercy on Jerusalem*— and now is the time to pity her, now is the time you promised to help.

14For your people love every stone in her walls and cherish even the dust in her streets.

15Then the nations will tremble before the LORD.
The kings of the earth will tremble before his glory.

16For the LORD will rebuild Jerusalem.
He will appear in his glory.

17He will listen to the prayers of the destitute.
He will not reject their pleas.

18Let this be recorded for future generations, so that a people not yet born will praise the LORD.

19Tell them the LORD looked down from his heavenly sanctuary.
He looked down to earth from heaven

20to hear the groans of the prisoners, to release those condemned to die.

21And so the LORD's fame will be celebrated in Zion, his praises in Jerusalem, 22when multitudes gather together and kingdoms come to worship the LORD.

23He broke my strength in midlife, cutting short my days.

24But I cried to him, "O my God, who lives forever, don't take my life while I am so young!

25Long ago you laid the foundation of the earth and made the heavens with your hands.

26They will perish, but you remain forever; they will wear out like old clothing.
You will change them like a garment and discard them.

27But you are always the same; you will live forever.

28The children of your people will live in security.
Their children's children will thrive in your presence."

Psalm 103

A psalm of David.

1Let all that I am praise the LORD; with my whole heart, I will praise his holy name.

2Let all that I am praise the LORD; may I never forget the good things he does for me.

3He forgives all my sins and heals all my diseases.

4He redeems me from death and crowns me with love and tender mercies.

5He fills my life with good things.
My youth is renewed like the eagle's!

6The LORD gives righteousness and justice to all who are treated unfairly.

7He revealed his character to Moses and his deeds to the people of Israel.

8The LORD is compassionate and merciful, slow to get angry and filled with unfailing love.

9He will not constantly accuse us, nor remain angry forever.

10He does not punish us for all our sins; he does not deal harshly with us, as we deserve.

11For his unfailing love toward those who fear him is as great as the height of the heavens above the earth.

12He has removed our sins as far from us as the east is from the west.

13The LORD is like a father to his children, tender and compassionate to those who fear him.

14For he knows how weak we are; he remembers we are only dust.

15Our days on earth are like grass; like wildflowers, we bloom and die.

16The wind blows, and we are gone— as though we had never been here.

17But the love of the LORD remains forever with those who fear him.
His salvation extends to the children's children

18of those who are faithful to his covenant, of those who obey his commandments!

19The LORD has made the heavens his throne; from there he rules over everything.

20Praise the LORD, you angels, you mighty ones who carry out his plans, listening for each of his commands.

21Yes, praise the LORD, you armies of angels who serve him and do his will!

22Praise the LORD, everything he has created, everything in all his kingdom.
Let all that I am praise the LORD.

Psalm 104

1Let all that I am praise the LORD.
O LORD my God, how great you are!
You are robed with honor and majesty.

2You are dressed in a robe of light.
You stretch out the starry curtain of the heavens;

3you lay out the rafters of your home in the rain clouds.
You make the clouds your chariot; you ride upon the wings of the wind.

4The winds are your messengers; flames of fire are your servants.*

5You placed the world on its foundation so it would never be moved.

6You clothed the earth with floods of water, water that covered even the mountains.

7At your command, the water fled; at the sound of your thunder, it hurried away.

8Mountains rose and valleys sank to the levels you decreed.

9Then you set a firm boundary for the seas, so they would never again cover the earth.

10You make springs pour water into the ravines, so streams gush down from the mountains.

11They provide water for all the animals, and the wild donkeys quench their thirst.

12The birds nest beside the streams and sing among the branches of the trees.

13You send rain on the mountains from your heavenly home, and you fill the earth with the fruit of your labor.

14You cause grass to grow for the livestock and plants for people to use.
You allow them to produce food from the earth—

15wine to make them glad, olive oil to soothe their skin, and bread to give them strength.

16The trees of the LORD are well cared for— the cedars of Lebanon that he planted.

17There the birds make their nests, and the storks make their homes in the cypresses.

18High in the mountains live the wild goats, and the rocks form a refuge for the hyraxes.*

19You made the moon to mark the seasons, and the sun knows when to set.

20You send the darkness, and it becomes night, when all the forest animals prowl about.

21Then the young lions roar for their prey, stalking the food provided by God.

22At dawn they slink back into their dens to rest.

23Then people go off to their work, where they labor until evening.

24O LORD, what a variety of things you have made!
In wisdom you have made them all.
The earth is full of your creatures.

25Here is the ocean, vast and wide, teeming with life of every kind, both large and small.

26See the ships sailing along, and Leviathan,* which you made to play in the sea.

27They all depend on you to give them food as they need it.

28When you supply it, they gather it.
You open your hand to feed them, and they are richly satisfied.

29But if you turn away from them, they panic.
When you take away their breath, they die and turn again to dust.

30When you give them your breath,* life is created, and you renew the face of the earth.

31May the glory of the LORD continue forever!
The LORD takes pleasure in all he has made!

32The earth trembles at his glance; the mountains smoke at his touch.

33I will sing to the LORD as long as I live.
I will praise my God to my last breath!

34May all my thoughts be pleasing to him, for I rejoice in the LORD.

35Let all sinners vanish from the face of the earth; let the wicked disappear forever.
Let all that I am praise the LORD.
Praise the LORD!

Psalm 105

1Give thanks to the LORD and proclaim his greatness.
Let the whole world know what he has done.

2Sing to him; yes, sing his praises.
Tell everyone about his wonderful deeds.

3Exult in his holy name; rejoice, you who worship the LORD.

4Search for the LORD and for his strength; continually seek him.

5Remember the wonders he has performed, his miracles, and the rulings he has given,

6you children of his servant Abraham, you descendants of Jacob, his chosen ones.

7He is the LORD our God.
His justice is seen throughout the land.

8He always stands by his covenant— the commitment he made to a thousand generations.

9This is the covenant he made with Abraham and the oath he swore to Isaac.

10He confirmed it to Jacob as a decree, and to the people of Israel as a never-ending covenant:

11"I will give you the land of Canaan as your special possession."

12He said this when they were few in number, a tiny group of strangers in Canaan.

13They wandered from nation to nation, from one kingdom to another.

14Yet he did not let anyone oppress them.
He warned kings on their behalf:

15"Do not touch my chosen people, and do not hurt my prophets."

16He called for a famine on the land of Canaan, cutting off its food supply.

17Then he sent someone to Egypt ahead of them— Joseph, who was sold as a slave.

18They bruised his feet with fetters and placed his neck in an iron collar.

19Until the time came to fulfill his dreams,*
the LORD tested Joseph's character.

20Then Pharaoh sent for him and set him free; the ruler of the nation opened his prison door.

21Joseph was put in charge of all the king's household; he became ruler over all the king's possessions.

22He could instruct* the king's aides as he pleased and teach the king's advisers.

23Then Israel arrived in Egypt; Jacob lived as a foreigner in the land of Ham.

24And the LORD multiplied the people of Israel until they became too mighty for their enemies.

25Then he turned the Egyptians against the Israelites, and they plotted against the LORD's servants.

26But the LORD sent his servant Moses, along with Aaron, whom he had chosen.

27They performed miraculous signs among the Egyptians, and wonders in the land of Ham.

28The LORD blanketed Egypt in darkness, for they had defied* his commands to let his people go.

29He turned their water into blood, poisoning all the fish.

30Then frogs overran the land and even invaded the king's bedrooms.

31When the LORD spoke, flies descended on the Egyptians, and gnats swarmed across Egypt.

32He sent them hail instead of rain, and lightning flashed over the land.

33He ruined their grapevines and fig trees and shattered all the trees.

34He spoke, and hordes of locusts came— young locusts beyond number.

35They ate up everything green in the land, destroying all the crops in their fields.

36Then he killed the oldest son in each Egyptian home, the pride and joy of each family.

37The LORD brought his people out of Egypt, loaded with silver and gold; and not one among the tribes of Israel even stumbled.

38Egypt was glad when they were gone, for they feared them greatly.

39The LORD spread a cloud above them as a covering and gave them a great fire to light the darkness.

40They asked for meat, and he sent them quail; he satisfied their hunger with manna—bread from heaven.

41He split open a rock, and water gushed out to form a river through the dry wasteland.

42For he remembered his sacred promise to his servant Abraham.

43So he brought his people out of Egypt with joy, his chosen ones with rejoicing.

44He gave his people the lands of pagan nations, and they harvested crops that others had planted.

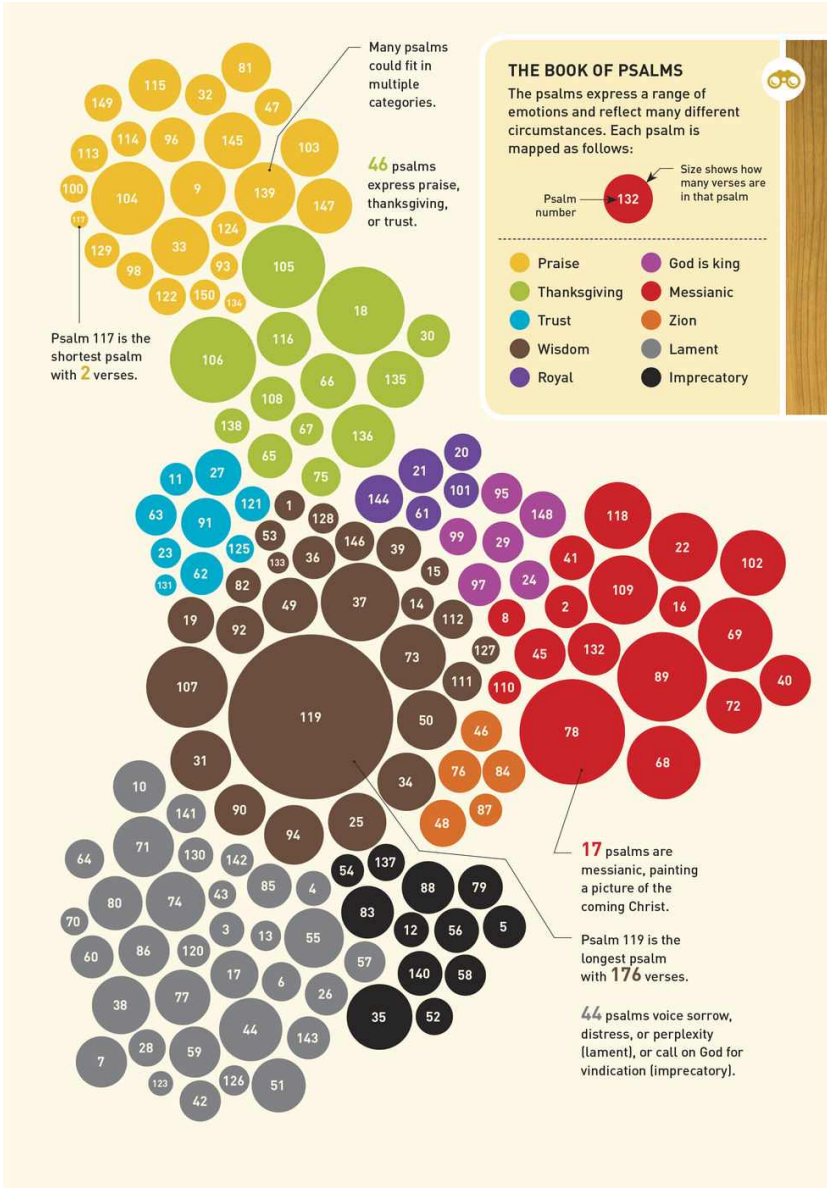
45All this happened so they would follow his decrees and obey his instructions.
Praise the LORD!



THE BOOK OF PSALMS

Psalm 106

1Praise the LORD!
Give thanks to the LORD, for he is good!
His faithful love endures forever.

2Who can list the glorious miracles of the LORD?
Who can ever praise him enough?

3There is joy for those who deal justly with others and always do what is right.

4Remember me, LORD, when you show favor to your people; come near and rescue me.

5Let me share in the prosperity of your chosen ones.
Let me rejoice in the joy of your people; let me praise you with those who are your heritage.

6Like our ancestors, we have sinned.
We have done wrong! We have acted wickedly!

7Our ancestors in Egypt were not impressed by the LORD's miraculous deeds.
They soon forgot his many acts of kindness to them.
Instead, they rebelled against him at the Red Sea.*

8Even so, he saved them— to defend the honor of his name and to demonstrate his mighty power.

9He commanded the Red Sea* to dry up.
He led Israel across the sea as if it were a desert.

10So he rescued them from their enemies and redeemed them from their foes.

11Then the water returned and covered their enemies; not one of them survived.

12Then his people believed his promises.
Then they sang his praise.

13Yet how quickly they forgot what he had done!
They wouldn't wait for his counsel!

14In the wilderness their desires ran wild, testing God's patience in that dry wasteland.

15So he gave them what they asked for, but he sent a plague along with it.

16The people in the camp were jealous of Moses and envious of Aaron, the LORD's holy priest.

17Because of this, the earth opened up; it swallowed Dathan and buried Abiram and the other rebels.

18Fire fell upon their followers; a flame consumed the wicked.

19The people made a calf at Mount Sinai*; they bowed before an image made of gold.

20They traded their glorious God for a statue of a grass-eating bull.

21They forgot God, their savior, who had done such great things in Egypt—

22such wonderful things in the land of Ham, such awesome deeds at the Red Sea.

23So he declared he would destroy them.
But Moses, his chosen one, stepped between the LORD and the people.
He begged him to turn from his anger and not destroy them.

24The people refused to enter the pleasant land, for they wouldn't believe his promise to care for them.

25Instead, they grumbled in their tents and refused to obey the LORD.

26Therefore, he solemnly swore that he would kill them in the wilderness, 27that he would scatter their descendants* among the nations, exiling them to distant lands.

28Then our ancestors joined in the worship of Baal at Peor; they even ate sacrifices offered to the dead!

29They angered the LORD with all these things, so a plague broke out among them.

30But Phinehas had the courage to intervene, and the plague was stopped.

31So he has been regarded as a righteous man ever since that time.

32At Meribah, too, they angered the LORD, causing Moses serious trouble.

33They made Moses angry,*
and he spoke foolishly.

34Israel failed to destroy the nations in the land, as the LORD had commanded them.

35Instead, they mingled among the pagans and adopted their evil customs.

36They worshiped their idols, which led to their downfall.

37They even sacrificed their sons and their daughters to the demons.

38They shed innocent blood, the blood of their sons and daughters.
By sacrificing them to the idols of Canaan, they polluted the land with murder.

39They defiled themselves by their evil deeds, and their love of idols was adultery in the LORD's sight.

40That is why the LORD's anger burned against his people, and he abhorred his own special possession.

41He handed them over to pagan nations, and they were ruled by those who hated them.

42Their enemies crushed them and brought them under their cruel power.

43Again and again he rescued them, but they chose to rebel against him, and they were finally destroyed by their sin.

44Even so, he pitied them in their distress and listened to their cries.

45He remembered his covenant with them and relented because of his unfailing love.

46He even caused their captors to treat them with kindness.

47Save us, O LORD our God!
Gather us back from among the nations, so we can thank your holy name and rejoice and praise you.

48Praise the LORD, the God of Israel, who lives from everlasting to everlasting!
Let all the people say, “Amen!”
Praise the LORD!

Book Five (Psalms 107–150) Psalm 107

1Give thanks to the LORD, for he is good!
His faithful love endures forever.

2Has the LORD redeemed you? Then speak out!
Tell others he has redeemed you from your enemies.

3For he has gathered the exiles from many lands, from east and west, from north and south.*

4Some wandered in the wilderness, lost and homeless.

5Hungry and thirsty, they nearly died.

6“LORD, help!” they cried in their trouble, and he rescued them from their distress.

7He led them straight to safety, to a city where they could live.

8Let them praise the LORD for his great love and for the wonderful things he has done for them.

9For he satisfies the thirsty and fills the hungry with good things.

10Some sat in darkness and deepest gloom, imprisoned in iron chains of misery.

11They rebelled against the words of God, scorning the counsel of the Most High.

12That is why he broke them with hard labor; they fell, and no one was there to help them.

13“LORD, help!” they cried in their trouble, and he saved them from their distress.

14He led them from the darkness and deepest gloom; he snapped their chains.

15Let them praise the LORD for his great love and for the wonderful things he has done for them.

16For he broke down their prison gates of bronze; he cut apart their bars of iron.

17Some were fools; they rebelled and suffered for their sins.

18They couldn’t stand the thought of food, and they were knocking on death’s door.

19“LORD, help!” they cried in their trouble, and he saved them from their distress.

20He sent out his word and healed them, snatching them from the door of death.

21Let them praise the LORD for his great love and for the wonderful things he has done for them.

22Let them offer sacrifices of thanksgiving and sing joyfully about his glorious acts.

23Some went off to sea in ships, plying the trade routes of the world.

24They, too, observed the LORD's power in action, his impressive works on the deepest seas.

25He spoke, and the winds rose, stirring up the waves.

26Their ships were tossed to the heavens and plunged again to the depths; the sailors cringed in terror.

27They reeled and staggered like drunkards and were at their wits' end.

28"LORD, help!" they cried in their trouble, and he saved them from their distress.

29He calmed the storm to a whisper and stilled the waves.

30What a blessing was that stillness as he brought them safely into harbor!

31Let them praise the LORD for his great love and for the wonderful things he has done for them.

32Let them exalt him publicly before the congregation and before the leaders of the nation.

33He changes rivers into deserts, and springs of water into dry, thirsty land.

34He turns the fruitful land into salty wastelands, because of the wickedness of those who live there.

35But he also turns deserts into pools of water, the dry land into springs of water.

36He brings the hungry to settle there and to build their cities.

37They sow their fields, plant their vineyards, and harvest their bumper crops.

38How he blesses them!
They raise large families there, and their herds of livestock increase.

39When they decrease in number and become impoverished through oppression, trouble, and sorrow, 40the LORD pours contempt on their princes, causing them to wander in trackless wastelands.

41But he rescues the poor from trouble and increases their families like flocks of sheep.

42The godly will see these things and be glad, while the wicked are struck silent.

43Those who are wise will take all this to heart; they will see in our history the faithful love of the LORD.

Psalm 108

A song. A psalm of David.

1My heart is confident in you, O God; no wonder I can sing your praises with all my heart!

2Wake up, lyre and harp!
I will wake the dawn with my song.

3I will thank you, LORD, among all the people.
I will sing your praises among the nations.

4For your unfailing love is higher than the heavens.
Your faithfulness reaches to the clouds.

5Be exalted, O God, above the highest heavens.
May your glory shine over all the earth.

6Now rescue your beloved people.
Answer and save us by your power.

7God has promised this by his holiness*: “I will divide up Shechem with joy.
I will measure out the valley of Succoth.

8Gilead is mine, and Manasseh, too.
Ephraim, my helmet, will produce my warriors, and Judah, my scepter, will produce my kings.

9But Moab, my washbasin, will become my servant, and I will wipe my feet on Edom and shout in triumph over Philistia.”

10Who will bring me into the fortified city?
Who will bring me victory over Edom?

11Have you rejected us, O God?
Will you no longer march with our armies?

12Oh, please help us against our enemies, for all human help is useless.

13With God’s help we will do mighty things, for he will trample down our foes.

Psalm 109

For the choir director: A psalm of David.

1O God, whom I praise, don’t stand silent and aloof

2while the wicked slander me and tell lies about me.

3They surround me with hateful words and fight against me for no reason.

4I love them, but they try to destroy me with accusations even as I am praying for them!

5They repay evil for good, and hatred for my love.

6They say,* “Get an evil person to turn against him.
Send an accuser to bring him to trial.

7When his case comes up for judgment, let him be pronounced guilty.
Count his prayers as sins.

8Let his years be few; let someone else take his position.

9May his children become fatherless, and his wife a widow.

10May his children wander as beggars and be driven from* their ruined homes.

11May creditors seize his entire estate, and strangers take all he has earned.

12Let no one be kind to him; let no one pity his fatherless children.

13May all his offspring die.
May his family name be blotted out in the next generation.

14May the LORD never forget the sins of his fathers; may his mother’s sins never be erased from the record.

15May the LORD always remember these sins, and may his name disappear from human memory.

16For he refused all kindness to others; he persecuted the poor and needy, and he hounded the brokenhearted to death.

17He loved to curse others; now you curse him.
He never blessed others; now don’t you bless him.

18Cursing is as natural to him as his clothing, or the water he drinks, or the rich food he eats.

19Now may his curses return and cling to him like clothing; may they be tied around him like a belt."

20May those curses become the LORD's punishment for my accusers who speak evil of me.

21But deal well with me, O Sovereign LORD, for the sake of your own reputation!
Rescue me because you are so faithful and good.

22For I am poor and needy, and my heart is full of pain.

23I am fading like a shadow at dusk; I am brushed off like a locust.

24My knees are weak from fasting, and I am skin and bones.

25I am a joke to people everywhere; when they see me, they shake their heads in scorn.

26Help me, O LORD my God!
Save me because of your unfailing love.

27Let them see that this is your doing, that you yourself have done it, LORD.

28Then let them curse me if they like, but you will bless me!
When they attack me, they will be disgraced!
But I, your servant, will go right on rejoicing!

29May my accusers be clothed with disgrace; may their humiliation cover them like a cloak.

30But I will give repeated thanks to the LORD, praising him to everyone.

31For he stands beside the needy, ready to save them from those who condemn them.

Psalm 110

A psalm of David.

1The LORD said to my Lord,* “Sit in the place of honor at my right hand until I humble your enemies, making them a footstool under your feet.”

2The LORD will extend your powerful kingdom from Jerusalem*;
you will rule over your enemies.

3When you go to war, your people will serve you willingly.
You are arrayed in holy garments, and your strength will be renewed each day like the morning dew.

4The LORD has taken an oath and will not break his vow: “You are a priest forever in the order of Melchizedek.”

5The Lord stands at your right hand to protect you.
He will strike down many kings when his anger erupts.

6He will punish the nations and fill their lands with corpses; he will shatter heads over the whole earth.

7But he himself will be refreshed from brooks along the way.
He will be victorious.

Psalm 111 *

1Praise the LORD!
I will thank the LORD with all my heart as I meet with his godly people.

2How amazing are the deeds of the LORD!
All who delight in him should ponder them.

3Everything he does reveals his glory and majesty.
His righteousness never fails.

4He causes us to remember his wonderful works.
How gracious and merciful is our LORD!

5He gives food to those who fear him; he always remembers his covenant.

6He has shown his great power to his people by giving them the lands of other nations.

7All he does is just and good, and all his commandments are trustworthy.

8They are forever true, to be obeyed faithfully and with integrity.

9He has paid a full ransom for his people.
He has guaranteed his covenant with them forever.
What a holy, awe-inspiring name he has!

10Fear of the LORD is the foundation of true wisdom.
All who obey his commandments will grow in wisdom.
Praise him forever!

Psalm 112 *

1Praise the LORD!
How joyful are those who fear the LORD and delight in obeying his commands.

2Their children will be successful everywhere; an entire generation of godly people will be blessed.

3They themselves will be wealthy, and their good deeds will last forever.

4Light shines in the darkness for the godly.
They are generous, compassionate, and righteous.

5Good comes to those who lend money generously and conduct their business fairly.

6Such people will not be overcome by evil.
Those who are righteous will be long remembered.

7They do not fear bad news; they confidently trust the LORD to care for them.

8They are confident and fearless and can face their foes triumphantly.

9They share freely and give generously to those in need.
Their good deeds will be remembered forever.
They will have influence and honor.

10The wicked will see this and be infuriated.
They will grind their teeth in anger; they will slink away, their hopes thwarted.

SONGS PSALM 113–118

Psalm 113

1Praise the LORD!
Yes, give praise, O servants of the LORD.
Praise the name of the LORD!

2Blessed be the name of the LORD
now and forever.

3Everywhere—from east to west— praise the name of the LORD.

4For the LORD is high above the nations; his glory is higher than the heavens.

5Who can be compared with the LORD our God, who is enthroned on high?

6He stoops to look down on heaven and on earth.

7He lifts the poor from the dust and the needy from the garbage dump.

8He sets them among princes, even the princes of his own people!

9He gives the childless woman a family, making her a happy mother.
Praise the LORD!

Psalm 114

1When the Israelites escaped from Egypt— when the family of Jacob left that foreign land—

2the land of Judah became God's sanctuary, and Israel became his kingdom.

3The Red Sea* saw them coming and hurried out of their way!
The water of the Jordan River turned away.

4The mountains skipped like rams, the hills like lambs!

The Jordan River, Psalm 114:5

JORDAN RIVER

5What's wrong, Red Sea, that made you hurry out of their way?
What happened, Jordan River, that you turned away?

6Why, mountains, did you skip like rams?
Why, hills, like lambs?

7Tremble, O earth, at the presence of the Lord, at the presence of the God of Jacob.

8He turned the rock into a pool of water; yes, a spring of water flowed from solid rock.

Psalm 115

1Not to us, O LORD, not to us, but to your name goes all the glory for your unfailing love and faithfulness.

2Why let the nations say, "Where is their God?"

3Our God is in the heavens, and he does as he wishes.

4Their idols are merely things of silver and gold, shaped by human hands.

6They have ears but cannot hear, and noses but cannot smell.

7They have hands but cannot feel, and feet but cannot walk, and throats but cannot make a sound.

8And those who make idols are just like them, as are all who trust in them.

9O Israel, trust the LORD!
He is your helper and your shield.

10O priests, descendants of Aaron, trust the LORD!
He is your helper and your shield.

11All you who fear the LORD, trust the LORD!
He is your helper and your shield.

12The LORD remembers us and will bless us.
He will bless the people of Israel and bless the priests, the descendants of Aaron.

13He will bless those who fear the LORD, both great and lowly.

14May the LORD richly bless both you and your children.

15May you be blessed by the LORD, who made heaven and earth.

16The heavens belong to the LORD, but he has given the earth to all humanity.

17The dead cannot sing praises to the LORD, for they have gone into the silence of the grave.

18But we can praise the LORD both now and forever!
Praise the LORD!

Psalm 116

1I love the LORD because he hears my voice and my prayer for mercy.

2Because he bends down to listen, I will pray as long as I have breath!

3Death wrapped its ropes around me; the terrors of the grave* overtook me.
I saw only trouble and sorrow.

4Then I called on the name of the LORD: “Please, LORD, save me!”

5How kind the LORD is! How good he is!
So merciful, this God of ours!

6The LORD protects those of childlike faith; I was facing death, and he saved me.

7Let my soul be at rest again, for the LORD has been good to me.

8He has saved me from death, my eyes from tears, my feet from stumbling.

9And so I walk in the LORD’s presence as I live here on earth!

10I believed in you, so I said, “I am deeply troubled, LORD.”

11In my anxiety I cried out to you, “These people are all liars!”

12What can I offer the LORD for all he has done for me?

13I will lift up the cup of salvation and praise the LORD’s name for saving me.

14I will keep my promises to the LORD
in the presence of all his people.

15The LORD cares deeply when his loved ones die.

16O LORD, I am your servant; yes, I am your servant, born into your household; you have freed me from my chains.

17I will offer you a sacrifice of thanksgiving and call on the name of the LORD.

18I will fulfill my vows to the LORD
in the presence of all his people—

19in the house of the LORD in the heart of Jerusalem.
Praise the LORD!

Psalm 117

1Praise the LORD, all you nations.
Praise him, all you people of the earth.

2For his unfailing love for us is powerful; the LORD's faithfulness endures forever.
Praise the LORD!

DON'T FEAR PSALM 118:1-18

Psalm 118

1Give thanks to the LORD, for he is good!
His faithful love endures forever.

2Let all Israel repeat: "His faithful love endures forever."

3Let Aaron's descendants, the priests, repeat: "His faithful love endures forever."

4Let all who fear the LORD repeat: "His faithful love endures forever."

5In my distress I prayed to the LORD, and the LORD answered me and set me free.

6The LORD is for me, so I will have no fear.
What can mere people do to me?

7Yes, the LORD is for me; he will help me.
I will look in triumph at those who hate me.

8It is better to take refuge in the LORD
than to trust in people.

9It is better to take refuge in the LORD
than to trust in princes.

10Though hostile nations surrounded me, I destroyed them all with the authority of the LORD.

11Yes, they surrounded and attacked me, but I destroyed them all with the authority of the LORD.

12They swarmed around me like bees; they blazed against me like a crackling fire.

But I destroyed them all with the authority of the LORD.

13My enemies did their best to kill me, but the LORD rescued me.

14The LORD is my strength and my song; he has given me victory.

15Songs of joy and victory are sung in the camp of the godly.
The strong right arm of the LORD has done glorious things!

16The strong right arm of the LORD is raised in triumph.
The strong right arm of the LORD has done glorious things!

17I will not die; instead, I will live to tell what the LORD has done.

18The LORD has punished me severely, but he did not let me die.

19Open for me the gates where the righteous enter, and I will go in and thank the LORD.

20These gates lead to the presence of the LORD, and the godly enter there.

21I thank you for answering my prayer and giving me victory!

22The stone that the builders rejected has now become the cornerstone.

23This is the LORD's doing, and it is wonderful to see.

24This is the day the LORD has made.
We will rejoice and be glad in it.

25Please, LORD, please save us.
Please, LORD, please give us success.

26Bless the one who comes in the name of the LORD.
We bless you from the house of the LORD.

27The LORD is God, shining upon us.
Take the sacrifice and bind it with cords on the altar.

28You are my God, and I will praise you!
You are my God, and I will exalt you!

29Give thanks to the LORD, for he is good!
His faithful love endures forever.

Psalm 119 *

Aleph

1Joyful are people of integrity, who follow the instructions of the LORD.

2Joyful are those who obey his laws and search for him with all their hearts.

3They do not compromise with evil, and they walk only in his paths.

4You have charged us to keep your commandments carefully.

5Oh, that my actions would consistently reflect your decrees!

6Then I will not be ashamed when I compare my life with your commands.

7As I learn your righteous regulations, I will thank you by living as I should!

8I will obey your decrees.
Please don't give up on me!

Beth

9How can a young person stay pure?

By obeying your word.

10I have tried hard to find you— don't let me wander from your commands.

11I have hidden your word in my heart, that I might not sin against you.

12I praise you, O LORD; teach me your decrees.

13I have recited aloud all the regulations you have given us.

14I have rejoiced in your laws as much as in riches.

15I will study your commandments and reflect on your ways.

16I will delight in your decrees and not forget your word.

Gimel

17Be good to your servant, that I may live and obey your word.

18Open my eyes to see the wonderful truths in your instructions.

19I am only a foreigner in the land.
Don't hide your commands from me!

20I am always overwhelmed with a desire for your regulations.

21You rebuke the arrogant; those who wander from your commands are cursed.

22Don't let them scorn and insult me, for I have obeyed your laws.

23Even princes sit and speak against me, but I will meditate on your decrees.

24Your laws please me; they give me wise advice.

Daleth

25I lie in the dust; revive me by your word.

26I told you my plans, and you answered.
Now teach me your decrees.

27Help me understand the meaning of your commandments, and I will meditate on your wonderful deeds.

28I weep with sorrow; encourage me by your word.

29Keep me from lying to myself; give me the privilege of knowing your instructions.

30I have chosen to be faithful; I have determined to live by your regulations.

31I cling to your laws.
LORD, don't let me be put to shame!

32I will pursue your commands, for you expand my understanding.

He

33Teach me your decrees, O LORD; I will keep them to the end.

34Give me understanding and I will obey your instructions; I will put them into practice with all my heart.

35Make me walk along the path of your commands, for that is where my happiness is found.

36Give me an eagerness for your laws rather than a love for money!

37Turn my eyes from worthless things, and give me life through your word.*

38Reassure me of your promise, made to those who fear you.

39Help me abandon my shameful ways; for your regulations are good.

40I long to obey your commandments!
Renew my life with your goodness.

Waw

41LORD, give me your unfailing love, the salvation that you promised me.

42Then I can answer those who taunt me, for I trust in your word.

43Do not snatch your word of truth from me, for your regulations are my only hope.

44I will keep on obeying your instructions forever and ever.

45I will walk in freedom, for I have devoted myself to your commandments.

46I will speak to kings about your laws, and I will not be ashamed.

47How I delight in your commands!
How I love them!

48I honor and love your commands.
I meditate on your decrees.

Zayin

49Remember your promise to me; it is my only hope.

50Your promise revives me; it comforts me in all my troubles.

51The proud hold me in utter contempt, but I do not turn away from your instructions.

52I meditate on your age-old regulations; O LORD, they comfort me.

53I become furious with the wicked, because they reject your instructions.

54Your decrees have been the theme of my songs wherever I have lived.

55I reflect at night on who you are, O LORD; therefore, I obey your instructions.

56This is how I spend my life: obeying your commandments.

Heth

57LORD, you are mine!

I promise to obey your words!

58With all my heart I want your blessings.
Be merciful as you promised.

59I pondered the direction of my life, and I turned to follow your laws.

60I will hurry, without delay, to obey your commands.

61Evil people try to drag me into sin, but I am firmly anchored to your instructions.

62I rise at midnight to thank you for your just regulations.

63I am a friend to anyone who fears you— anyone who obeys your commandments.

64O LORD, your unfailing love fills the earth; teach me your decrees.

Teth

65You have done many good things for me, LORD, just as you promised.

66I believe in your commands; now teach me good judgment and knowledge.

67I used to wander off until you disciplined me; but now I closely follow your word.

68You are good and do only good; teach me your decrees.

69Arrogant people smear me with lies, but in truth I obey your commandments with all my heart.

70Their hearts are dull and stupid, but I delight in your instructions.

71My suffering was good for me, for it taught me to pay attention to your decrees.

72Your instructions are more valuable to me than millions in gold and silver.

Yodh

73You made me; you created me.

Now give me the sense to follow your commands.

74May all who fear you find in me a cause for joy, for I have put my hope in your word.

75I know, O LORD, that your regulations are fair; you disciplined me because I needed it.

76Now let your unfailing love comfort me, just as you promised me, your servant.

77Surround me with your tender mercies so I may live, for your instructions are my delight.

78Bring disgrace upon the arrogant people who lied about me;
meanwhile, I will concentrate on your commandments.

79Let me be united with all who fear you, with those who know your laws.

80May I be blameless in keeping your decrees; then I will never be ashamed.

Kaph

81I am worn out waiting for your rescue, but I have put my hope in your word.

82My eyes are straining to see your promises come true.
When will you comfort me?

83I am shriveled like a wineskin in the smoke, but I have not forgotten to obey your decrees.

84How long must I wait?
When will you punish those who persecute me?

85These arrogant people who hate your instructions have dug deep pits to trap me.

86All your commands are trustworthy.
Protect me from those who hunt me down without cause.

87They almost finished me off, but I refused to abandon your commandments.

88In your unfailing love, spare my life; then I can continue to obey your laws.

Lamedh

89Your eternal word, O LORD, stands firm in heaven.

90Your faithfulness extends to every generation, as enduring as the earth you created.

91Your regulations remain true to this day, for everything serves your plans.

92If your instructions hadn't sustained me with joy, I would have died in my misery.

93I will never forget your commandments, for by them you give me life.

94I am yours; rescue me!
For I have worked hard at obeying your commandments.

95Though the wicked hide along the way to kill me, I will quietly keep my mind on your laws.

96Even perfection has its limits, but your commands have no limit.

Mem

97Oh, how I love your instructions!

I think about them all day long.

98Your commands make me wiser than my enemies, for they are my constant guide.

99Yes, I have more insight than my teachers, for I am always thinking of your laws.

100I am even wiser than my elders, for I have kept your commandments.

101I have refused to walk on any evil path, so that I may remain obedient to your word.

102I haven't turned away from your regulations, for you have taught me well.

103How sweet your words taste to me; they are sweeter than honey.

104Your commandments give me understanding; no wonder I hate every false way of life.

Nun

105Your word is a lamp to guide my feet and a light for my path.

106I've promised it once, and I'll promise it again: I will obey your righteous regulations.

107I have suffered much, O LORD; restore my life again as you promised.

108LORD, accept my offering of praise, and teach me your regulations.

109My life constantly hangs in the balance, but I will not stop obeying your instructions.

110The wicked have set their traps for me, but I will not turn from your commandments.

111Your laws are my treasure; they are my heart's delight.

112I am determined to keep your decrees to the very end.

Samekh

113I hate those with divided loyalties, but I love your instructions.

114You are my refuge and my shield; your word is my source of hope.

115Get out of my life, you evil-minded people, for I intend to obey the commands of my God.

116LORD, sustain me as you promised, that I may live!
Do not let my hope be crushed.

117Sustain me, and I will be rescued; then I will meditate continually on your decrees.

118But you have rejected all who stray from your decrees.
They are only fooling themselves.

119You skim off the wicked of the earth like scum; no wonder I love to obey your laws!

120I tremble in fear of you; I stand in awe of your regulations.

Ayin

121Don't leave me to the mercy of my enemies, for I have done what is just and right.

122Please guarantee a blessing for me.
Don't let the arrogant oppress me!

123My eyes strain to see your rescue, to see the truth of your promise fulfilled.

124I am your servant; deal with me in unfailing love, and teach me your decrees.

125Give discernment to me, your servant; then I will understand your laws.

126LORD, it is time for you to act, for these evil people have violated your instructions.

127Truly, I love your commands more than gold, even the finest gold.

128Each of your commandments is right.
That is why I hate every false way.

Pe

129Your laws are wonderful.

No wonder I obey them!

130The teaching of your word gives light, so even the simple can understand.

131I pant with expectation, longing for your commands.

132Come and show me your mercy, as you do for all who love your name.

133Guide my steps by your word, so I will not be overcome by evil.

134Ransom me from the oppression of evil people; then I can obey your commandments.

135Look upon me with love; teach me your decrees.

136Rivers of tears gush from my eyes because people disobey your instructions.

Tsadhe

137O LORD, you are righteous, and your regulations are fair.

138Your laws are perfect and completely trustworthy.

139I am overwhelmed with indignation, for my enemies have disregarded your words.

140Your promises have been thoroughly tested; that is why I love them so much.

141I am insignificant and despised, but I don't forget your commandments.

142Your justice is eternal, and your instructions are perfectly true.

143As pressure and stress bear down on me, I find joy in your commands.

144Your laws are always right; help me to understand them so I may live.

Qoph

145I pray with all my heart; answer me, LORD!

I will obey your decrees.

146I cry out to you; rescue me, that I may obey your laws.

147I rise early, before the sun is up; I cry out for help and put my hope in your words.

148I stay awake through the night, thinking about your promise.

149In your faithful love, O LORD, hear my cry; let me be revived by following your regulations.

150Lawless people are coming to attack me; they live far from your instructions.

151But you are near, O LORD, and all your commands are true.

152I have known from my earliest days that your laws will last forever.

Resh

153Look upon my suffering and rescue me, for I have not forgotten your instructions.

154Argue my case; take my side!
Protect my life as you promised.

155The wicked are far from rescue, for they do not bother with your decrees.

156LORD, how great is your mercy; let me be revived by following your regulations.

157Many persecute and trouble me, yet I have not swerved from your laws.

158Seeing these traitors makes me sick at heart, because they care nothing for your word.

159See how I love your commandments, LORD.
Give back my life because of your unfailing love.

160The very essence of your words is truth; all your just regulations will stand forever.

Shin

161Powerful people harass me without cause, but my heart trembles only at your word.

162I rejoice in your word like one who discovers a great treasure.

163I hate and abhor all falsehood, but I love your instructions.

164I will praise you seven times a day because all your regulations are just.

165Those who love your instructions have great peace and do not stumble.

166I long for your rescue, LORD, so I have obeyed your commands.

167I have obeyed your laws, for I love them very much.

168Yes, I obey your commandments and laws because you know everything I do.

Taw

169O LORD, listen to my cry; give me the discerning mind you promised.

170Listen to my prayer; rescue me as you promised.

171Let praise flow from my lips, for you have taught me your decrees.

172Let my tongue sing about your word, for all your commands are right.

173Give me a helping hand, for I have chosen to follow your commandments.

174O LORD, I have longed for your rescue, and your instructions are my delight.

175Let me live so I can praise you, and may your regulations help me.

176I have wandered away like a lost sheep; come and find me, for I have not forgotten your commands.

Psalm 120

A song for pilgrims ascending to Jerusalem.

1I took my troubles to the LORD; I cried out to him, and he answered my prayer.

2Rescue me, O LORD, from liars and from all deceitful people.

3O deceptive tongue, what will God do to you?
How will he increase your punishment?

4You will be pierced with sharp arrows and burned with glowing coals.

5How I suffer in far-off Meshech.
It pains me to live in distant Kedar.

6I am tired of living among people who hate peace.

7I search for peace; but when I speak of peace, they want war!

Psalm 121

A song for pilgrims ascending to Jerusalem.

1I look up to the mountains— does my help come from there?

2My help comes from the LORD, who made heaven and earth!

3He will not let you stumble; the one who watches over you will not slumber.

4Indeed, he who watches over Israel never slumbers or sleeps.

5The LORD himself watches over you!
The LORD stands beside you as your protective shade.

6The sun will not harm you by day, nor the moon at night.

7The LORD keeps you from all harm and watches over your life.

8The LORD keeps watch over you as you come and go, both now and forever.

Psalm 122

A song for pilgrims ascending to Jerusalem. A psalm of David.

1I was glad when they said to me, “Let us go to the house of the LORD.”

2And now here we are, standing inside your gates, O Jerusalem.

3Jerusalem is a well-built city; its seamless walls cannot be breached.

4All the tribes of Israel—the LORD’s people— make their pilgrimage here.
They come to give thanks to the name of the LORD, as the law requires of Israel.

5Here stand the thrones where judgment is given, the thrones of the dynasty of David.

6Pray for peace in Jerusalem.
May all who love this city prosper.

7O Jerusalem, may there be peace within your walls and prosperity in your palaces.

8For the sake of my family and friends, I will say, “May you have peace.”

9For the sake of the house of the LORD our God, I will seek what is best for you, O Jerusalem.

Psalm 123

A song for pilgrims ascending to Jerusalem.

1I lift my eyes to you, O God, enthroned in heaven.

2We keep looking to the LORD our God for his mercy, just as servants keep their eyes on their master, as a slave girl watches her mistress for the slightest signal.

3Have mercy on us, LORD, have mercy, for we have had our fill of contempt.

4We have had more than our fill of the scoffing of the proud and the contempt of the arrogant.

Psalm 124

A song for pilgrims ascending to Jerusalem. A psalm of David.

1What if the LORD had not been on our side?
Let all Israel repeat:

2What if the LORD had not been on our side when people attacked us?

3They would have swallowed us alive in their burning anger.

4The waters would have engulfed us; a torrent would have overwhelmed us.

5Yes, the raging waters of their fury would have overwhelmed our very lives.

6Praise the LORD, who did not let their teeth tear us apart!

7We escaped like a bird from a hunter's trap.
The trap is broken, and we are free!

8Our help is from the LORD, who made heaven and earth.

Psalm 125

A song for pilgrims ascending to Jerusalem.

1Those who trust in the LORD are as secure as Mount Zion; they will not be defeated but will endure forever.

2Just as the mountains surround Jerusalem, so the LORD surrounds his people, both now and forever.

3The wicked will not rule the land of the godly, for then the godly might be tempted to do wrong.

4O LORD, do good to those who are good, whose hearts are in tune with you.

5But banish those who turn to crooked ways, O LORD.
Take them away with those who do evil.
May Israel have peace!

Psalm 126

A song for pilgrims ascending to Jerusalem.

1When the LORD brought back his exiles to Jerusalem,*
it was like a dream!

2We were filled with laughter, and we sang for joy.
And the other nations said, "What amazing things the LORD has done for them."

3Yes, the LORD has done amazing things for us!
What joy!

4Restore our fortunes, LORD, as streams renew the desert.

5Those who plant in tears will harvest with shouts of joy.

6They weep as they go to plant their seed, but they sing as they return with the harvest.

Psalm 127

A song for pilgrims ascending to Jerusalem. A psalm of Solomon.

1Unless the LORD builds a house, the work of the builders is wasted.
Unless the LORD protects a city, guarding it with sentries will do no good.

2It is useless for you to work so hard from early morning until late at night, anxiously working for food to eat; for God gives rest to his loved ones.

3Children are a gift from the LORD; they are a reward from him.

4Children born to a young man are like arrows in a warrior's hands.

5How joyful is the man whose quiver is full of them!

He will not be put to shame when he confronts his accusers at the city gates.

Psalm 128

A song for pilgrims ascending to Jerusalem.

1How joyful are those who fear the LORD— all who follow his ways!

2You will enjoy the fruit of your labor.
How joyful and prosperous you will be!

3Your wife will be like a fruitful grapevine, flourishing within your home.
Your children will be like vigorous young olive trees as they sit around your table.

4That is the LORD's blessing for those who fear him.

5May the LORD continually bless you from Zion.
May you see Jerusalem prosper as long as you live.

6May you live to enjoy your grandchildren.
May Israel have peace!

Psalm 129

A song for pilgrims ascending to Jerusalem.

1From my earliest youth my enemies have persecuted me.
Let all Israel repeat this:

2From my earliest youth my enemies have persecuted me, but they have never defeated me.

3My back is covered with cuts, as if a farmer had plowed long furrows.

4But the LORD is good; he has cut me free from the ropes of the ungodly.

5May all who hate Jerusalem* be turned back in shameful defeat.

6May they be as useless as grass on a rooftop, turning yellow when only half grown,

7ignored by the harvester, despised by the binder.

8And may those who pass by refuse to give them this blessing: “The LORD bless you; we bless you in the LORD’s name.”

Psalm 130

A song for pilgrims ascending to Jerusalem.

1From the depths of despair, O LORD, I call for your help.

2Hear my cry, O Lord.
Pay attention to my prayer.

3LORD, if you kept a record of our sins, who, O Lord, could ever survive?

4But you offer forgiveness, that we might learn to fear you.

5I am counting on the LORD; yes, I am counting on him.
I have put my hope in his word.

6I long for the Lord more than sentries long for the dawn, yes, more than sentries long for the dawn.

7O Israel, hope in the LORD; for with the LORD there is unfailing love.
His redemption overflows.

8He himself will redeem Israel from every kind of sin.

Psalm 131

A song for pilgrims ascending to Jerusalem. A psalm of David.

1LORD, my heart is not proud; my eyes are not haughty.
I don't concern myself with matters too great or too awesome for me to grasp.

2Instead, I have calmed and quieted myself, like a weaned child who no longer cries for its mother's milk.
Yes, like a weaned child is my soul within me.

3O Israel, put your hope in the LORD— now and always.

Psalm 132

A song for pilgrims ascending to Jerusalem.

1LORD, remember David and all that he suffered.

2He made a solemn promise to the LORD.
He vowed to the Mighty One of Israel,*

3"I will not go home; I will not let myself rest.

4I will not let my eyes sleep nor close my eyelids in slumber

5until I find a place to build a house for the LORD, a sanctuary for the Mighty One of Israel."

6We heard that the Ark was in Ephrathah; then we found it in the distant countryside of Jaar.

7Let us go to the sanctuary of the LORD; let us worship at the footstool of his throne.

8Arise, O LORD, and enter your resting place, along with the Ark, the symbol of your power.

9May your priests be clothed in godliness; may your loyal servants sing for joy.

10For the sake of your servant David, do not reject the king you have anointed.

11The LORD swore an oath to David with a promise he will never take back: “I will place one of your descendants on your throne.

12If your descendants obey the terms of my covenant and the laws that I teach them, then your royal line will continue forever and ever.”

13For the LORD has chosen Jerusalem*; he has desired it for his home.

14“This is my resting place forever,” he said.
“I will live here, for this is the home I desired.

15I will bless this city and make it prosperous; I will satisfy its poor with food.

16I will clothe its priests with godliness; its faithful servants will sing for joy.

17Here I will increase the power of David; my anointed one will be a light for my people.

18I will clothe his enemies with shame, but he will be a glorious king.”

Psalm 133

A song for pilgrims ascending to Jerusalem. A psalm of David.

1How wonderful and pleasant it is when brothers live together in harmony!

2For harmony is as precious as the anointing oil that was poured over Aaron's head, that ran down his beard and onto the border of his robe.

3Harmony is as refreshing as the dew from Mount Hermon that falls on the mountains of Zion.
And there the LORD has pronounced his blessing, even life everlasting.

Psalm 134

A song for pilgrims ascending to Jerusalem.

1Oh, praise the LORD, all you servants of the LORD, you who serve at night in the house of the LORD.

2Lift your hands toward the sanctuary, and praise the LORD.

3May the LORD, who made heaven and earth, bless you from Jerusalem.*

Psalm 135

1Praise the LORD!
Praise the name of the LORD!
Praise him, you who serve the LORD,

2you who serve in the house of the LORD, in the courts of the house of our God.

3Praise the LORD, for the LORD is good; celebrate his lovely name with music.

4For the LORD has chosen Jacob for himself, Israel for his own special treasure.

5I know the greatness of the LORD— that our Lord is greater than any other god.

6The LORD does whatever pleases him throughout all heaven and earth, and on the seas and in their depths.

7He causes the clouds to rise over the whole earth.
He sends the lightning with the rain and releases the wind from his storehouses.

8He destroyed the firstborn in each Egyptian home, both people and animals.

9He performed miraculous signs and wonders in Egypt against Pharaoh and all his people.

10He struck down great nations and slaughtered mighty kings—

11Sihon king of the Amorites, Og king of Bashan, and all the kings of Canaan.

12He gave their land as an inheritance, a special possession to his people Israel.

13Your name, O LORD, endures forever; your fame, O LORD, is known to every generation.

14For the LORD will give justice to his people and have compassion on his servants.

15The idols of the nations are merely things of silver and gold, shaped by human hands.

17They have ears but cannot hear, and mouths but cannot breathe.

18And those who make idols are just like them, as are all who trust in them.

19O Israel, praise the LORD!
O priests—descendants of Aaron—praise the LORD!

20O Levites, praise the LORD!
All you who fear the LORD, praise the LORD!

21The LORD be praised from Zion, for he lives here in Jerusalem.
Praise the LORD!

Psalm 136

1Give thanks to the LORD, for he is good!
His faithful love endures forever.

2Give thanks to the God of gods.
His faithful love endures forever.

3Give thanks to the Lord of lords.
His faithful love endures forever.

4Give thanks to him who alone does mighty miracles.
His faithful love endures forever.

5Give thanks to him who made the heavens so skillfully.
His faithful love endures forever.

6Give thanks to him who placed the earth among the waters.
His faithful love endures forever.

7Give thanks to him who made the heavenly lights— His faithful love endures forever.

8the sun to rule the day, His faithful love endures forever.

9and the moon and stars to rule the night.
His faithful love endures forever.

10Give thanks to him who killed the firstborn of Egypt.
His faithful love endures forever.

11He brought Israel out of Egypt.

His faithful love endures forever.

12He acted with a strong hand and powerful arm.
His faithful love endures forever.

THE SHORES OF THE RED SEA

13Give thanks to him who parted the Red Sea.*

His faithful love endures forever.

14He led Israel safely through, His faithful love endures forever.

15but he hurled Pharaoh and his army into the Red Sea.
His faithful love endures forever.

16Give thanks to him who led his people through the wilderness.
His faithful love endures forever.

17Give thanks to him who struck down mighty kings.
His faithful love endures forever.

18He killed powerful kings— His faithful love endures forever.

19Sihon king of the Amorites, His faithful love endures forever.

20and Og king of Bashan.
His faithful love endures forever.

21God gave the land of these kings as an inheritance— His faithful love endures forever.

22a special possession to his servant Israel.
His faithful love endures forever.

23He remembered us in our weakness.
His faithful love endures forever.

24He saved us from our enemies.
His faithful love endures forever.

25He gives food to every living thing.
His faithful love endures forever.

26Give thanks to the God of heaven.
His faithful love endures forever.

THE RIVERS OF BABYLON

Psalm 137

1Beside the rivers of Babylon, we sat and wept as we thought of Jerusalem.*

2We put away our harps, hanging them on the branches of poplar trees.

3For our captors demanded a song from us.
Our tormentors insisted on a joyful hymn: “Sing us one of those songs of Jerusalem!”

4But how can we sing the songs of the LORD while in a pagan land?

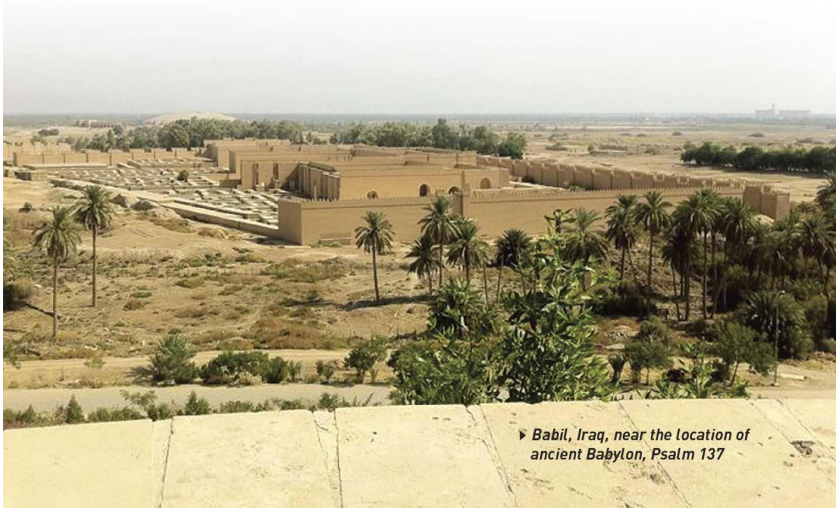
5If I forget you, O Jerusalem, let my right hand forget how to play the harp.

6May my tongue stick to the roof of my mouth if I fail to remember you, if I don’t make Jerusalem my greatest joy.

7O LORD, remember what the Edomites did on the day the armies of Babylon captured Jerusalem.
“Destroy it!” they yelled.
“Level it to the ground!”

8O Babylon, you will be destroyed.
Happy is the one who pays you back for what you have done to us.



ANCIENT BABYLON

9Happy is the one who takes your babies and smashes them against the rocks!

Psalm 138

A psalm of David.

1I give you thanks, O LORD, with all my heart; I will sing your praises before the gods.

2I bow before your holy Temple as I worship.
I praise your name for your unfailing love and faithfulness; for your promises are backed by all the honor of your name.

3As soon as I pray, you answer me; you encourage me by giving me strength.

4Every king in all the earth will thank you, LORD, for all of them will hear your words.

5Yes, they will sing about the LORD's ways, for the glory of the LORD is very great.

6Though the LORD is great, he cares for the humble, but he keeps his distance from the proud.

7Though I am surrounded by troubles, you will protect me from the anger of my enemies.
You reach out your hand, and the power of your right hand saves me.

8The LORD will work out his plans for my life— for your faithful love, O LORD, endures forever.
Don't abandon me, for you made me.

GOD LOVES YOU PSALM 139

Psalm 139

For the choir director: A psalm of David.

1O LORD, you have examined my heart and know everything about me.

2You know when I sit down or stand up.
You know my thoughts even when I'm far away.

3You see me when I travel and when I rest at home.

You know everything I do.

4You know what I am going to say even before I say it, LORD.

5You go before me and follow me.
You place your hand of blessing on my head.

6Such knowledge is too wonderful for me, too great for me to understand!

7I can never escape from your Spirit!
I can never get away from your presence!

8If I go up to heaven, you are there; if I go down to the grave,* you are there.

9If I ride the wings of the morning, if I dwell by the farthest oceans, 10even there your hand will guide me, and your strength will support me.

11I could ask the darkness to hide me and the light around me to become night—

12but even in darkness I cannot hide from you.
To you the night shines as bright as day.
Darkness and light are the same to you.

13You made all the delicate, inner parts of my body and knit me together in my mother's womb.

14Thank you for making me so wonderfully complex!
Your workmanship is marvelous—how well I know it.

15You watched me as I was being formed in utter seclusion, as I was woven together in the dark of the womb.

16You saw me before I was born.
Every day of my life was recorded in your book.

Every moment was laid out before a single day had passed.

17How precious are your thoughts about me,* O God.
They cannot be numbered!

18I can't even count them; they outnumber the grains of sand!
And when I wake up, you are still with me!

19O God, if only you would destroy the wicked!
Get out of my life, you murderers!

20They blaspheme you; your enemies misuse your name.

21O LORD, shouldn't I hate those who hate you?
Shouldn't I despise those who oppose you?

22Yes, I hate them with total hatred, for your enemies are my enemies.

23Search me, O God, and know my heart; test me and know my anxious thoughts.

24Point out anything in me that offends you, and lead me along the path of everlasting life.

Psalm 140

For the choir director: A psalm of David.

1O LORD, rescue me from evil people.
Protect me from those who are violent,

2those who plot evil in their hearts and stir up trouble all day long.

3Their tongues sting like a snake; the venom of a viper drips from their lips.

Interlude

4O LORD, keep me out of the hands of the wicked.
Protect me from those who are violent, for they are plotting against me.

5The proud have set a trap to catch me; they have stretched out a net; they have placed traps all along the way.

Interlude

6I said to the LORD, “You are my God!”
Listen, O LORD, to my cries for mercy!

7O Sovereign LORD, the strong one who rescued me, you protected me on the day of battle.

8LORD, do not let evil people have their way.
Do not let their evil schemes succeed, or they will become proud.

Interlude

9Let my enemies be destroyed by the very evil they have planned for me.

10Let burning coals fall down on their heads.
Let them be thrown into the fire or into watery pits from which they can’t escape.

11Don’t let liars prosper here in our land.
Cause great disasters to fall on the violent.

12But I know the LORD will help those they persecute; he will give justice to the poor.

13Surely righteous people are praising your name; the godly will live in your presence.

Psalm 141

A psalm of David.

1O LORD, I am calling to you. Please hurry!
Listen when I cry to you for help!

2Accept my prayer as incense offered to you, and my upraised hands as an evening offering.

3Take control of what I say, O LORD, and guard my lips.

4Don't let me drift toward evil or take part in acts of wickedness.
Don't let me share in the delicacies of those who do wrong.

5Let the godly strike me!
It will be a kindness!
If they correct me, it is soothing medicine.
Don't let me refuse it.
But I pray constantly against the wicked and their deeds.

6When their leaders are thrown down from a cliff, the wicked will listen to my words and find them true.

7Like rocks brought up by a plow, the bones of the wicked will lie scattered without burial.*

8I look to you for help, O Sovereign LORD.
You are my refuge; don't let them kill me.

9Keep me from the traps they have set for me, from the snares of those who do wrong.

10Let the wicked fall into their own nets, but let me escape.

Psalm 142

A psalm of David, regarding his experience in the cave. A prayer.*

1I cry out to the LORD; I plead for the LORD's mercy.

2I pour out my complaints before him and tell him all my troubles.

3When I am overwhelmed, you alone know the way I should turn.
Wherever I go, my enemies have set traps for me.

4I look for someone to come and help me, but no one gives me a passing thought!
No one will help me; no one cares a bit what happens to me.

5Then I pray to you, O LORD.
I say, “You are my place of refuge.
You are all I really want in life.

6Hear my cry, for I am very low.
Rescue me from my persecutors, for they are too strong for me.

7Bring me out of prison so I can thank you.
The godly will crowd around me, for you are good to me.”

Psalm 143

A psalm of David.

1Hear my prayer, O LORD; listen to my plea!
Answer me because you are faithful and righteous.

2Don’t put your servant on trial, for no one is innocent before you.

3My enemy has chased me.
He has knocked me to the ground and forces me to live in darkness like those in the grave.

4I am losing all hope; I am paralyzed with fear.

5I remember the days of old.
I ponder all your great works and think about what you have done.

6I lift my hands to you in prayer.

I thirst for you as parched land thirsts for rain.

Interlude

7Come quickly, LORD, and answer me, for my depression deepens.
Don't turn away from me, or I will die.

8Let me hear of your unfailing love each morning, for I am trusting you.
Show me where to walk, for I give myself to you.

9Rescue me from my enemies, LORD; I run to you to hide me.

10Teach me to do your will, for you are my God.
May your gracious Spirit lead me forward on a firm footing.

11For the glory of your name, O LORD, preserve my life.
Because of your faithfulness, bring me out of this distress.

12In your unfailing love, silence all my enemies and destroy all my foes, for I am your servant.

Psalm 144

A psalm of David.

1Praise the LORD, who is my rock.
He trains my hands for war and gives my fingers skill for battle.

2He is my loving ally and my fortress, my tower of safety, my rescuer.
He is my shield, and I take refuge in him.
He makes the nations* submit to me.

3O LORD, what are human beings that you should notice them, mere mortals that you should think about them?

4For they are like a breath of air; their days are like a passing shadow.

5Open the heavens, LORD, and come down.
Touch the mountains so they billow smoke.

6Hurl your lightning bolts and scatter your enemies!
Shoot your arrows and confuse them!

7Reach down from heaven and rescue me; rescue me from deep waters, from the power of my enemies.

8Their mouths are full of lies; they swear to tell the truth, but they lie instead.

9I will sing a new song to you, O God!
I will sing your praises with a ten-stringed harp.

10For you grant victory to kings!
You rescued your servant David from the fatal sword.

11Save me!
Rescue me from the power of my enemies.
Their mouths are full of lies; they swear to tell the truth, but they lie instead.

12May our sons flourish in their youth like well-nurtured plants.
May our daughters be like graceful pillars, carved to beautify a palace.

13May our barns be filled with crops of every kind.
May the flocks in our fields multiply by the thousands, even tens of thousands, 14and may our oxen be loaded down with produce.

May there be no enemy breaking through our walls, no going into captivity, no cries of alarm in our town squares.

15Yes, joyful are those who live like this!
Joyful indeed are those whose God is the LORD.

Psalm 145 *

A psalm of praise of David.

1I will exalt you, my God and King, and praise your name forever and ever.

2I will praise you every day; yes, I will praise you forever.

3Great is the LORD! He is most worthy of praise!
No one can measure his greatness.

4Let each generation tell its children of your mighty acts; let them proclaim your power.

5I will meditate on your majestic, glorious splendor and your wonderful miracles.

6Your awe-inspiring deeds will be on every tongue; I will proclaim your greatness.

7Everyone will share the story of your wonderful goodness; they will sing with joy about your righteousness.

8The LORD is merciful and compassionate, slow to get angry and filled with unfailing love.

9The LORD is good to everyone.
He showers compassion on all his creation.

10All of your works will thank you, LORD, and your faithful followers will praise you.

11They will speak of the glory of your kingdom; they will give examples of your power.

12They will tell about your mighty deeds and about the majesty and glory of your reign.

13For your kingdom is an everlasting kingdom.
You rule throughout all generations.
The LORD always keeps his promises; he is gracious in all he does.*

14The LORD helps the fallen and lifts those bent beneath their loads.

15The eyes of all look to you in hope; you give them their food as they need it.

16When you open your hand, you satisfy the hunger and thirst of every living thing.

17The LORD is righteous in everything he does; he is filled with kindness.

18The LORD is close to all who call on him, yes, to all who call on him in truth.

19He grants the desires of those who fear him; he hears their cries for help and rescues them.

20The LORD protects all those who love him, but he destroys the wicked.

21I will praise the LORD, and may everyone on earth bless his holy name forever and ever.

Psalm 146

1Praise the LORD!
Let all that I am praise the LORD.

2I will praise the LORD as long as I live.
I will sing praises to my God with my dying breath.

3Don't put your confidence in powerful people; there is no help for you there.

4When they breathe their last, they return to the earth, and all their plans die with them.

5But joyful are those who have the God of Israel* as their helper, whose hope is in the LORD their God.

6He made heaven and earth, the sea, and everything in them.
He keeps every promise forever.

7He gives justice to the oppressed and food to the hungry.
The LORD frees the prisoners.

8The LORD opens the eyes of the blind.
The LORD lifts up those who are weighed down.
The LORD loves the godly.

9The LORD protects the foreigners among us.
He cares for the orphans and widows, but he frustrates the plans of the wicked.

10The LORD will reign forever.
He will be your God, O Jerusalem,* throughout the generations.
Praise the LORD!

Psalm 147

1Praise the LORD!
How good to sing praises to our God!
How delightful and how fitting!

2The LORD is rebuilding Jerusalem and bringing the exiles back to Israel.

3He heals the brokenhearted and bandages their wounds.

4He counts the stars and calls them all by name.

5How great is our Lord! His power is absolute!
His understanding is beyond comprehension!

6The LORD supports the humble, but he brings the wicked down into the dust.

7Sing out your thanks to the LORD; sing praises to our God with a harp.

8He covers the heavens with clouds, provides rain for the earth, and makes the grass grow in mountain pastures.

9He gives food to the wild animals and feeds the young ravens when they cry.

10He takes no pleasure in the strength of a horse or in human might.

11No, the LORD's delight is in those who fear him, those who put their hope in his unfailing love.

12Glorify the LORD, O Jerusalem!
Praise your God, O Zion!

13For he has strengthened the bars of your gates and blessed your children within your walls.

14He sends peace across your nation and satisfies your hunger with the finest wheat.

15He sends his orders to the world— how swiftly his word flies!

16He sends the snow like white wool; he scatters frost upon the ground like ashes.

17He hurls the hail like stones.*
Who can stand against his freezing cold?

18Then, at his command, it all melts.
He sends his winds, and the ice thaws.

19He has revealed his words to Jacob, his decrees and regulations to Israel.

20He has not done this for any other nation; they do not know his regulations.
Praise the LORD!

Psalm 148

1Praise the LORD!
Praise the LORD from the heavens!
Praise him from the skies!

2Praise him, all his angels!
Praise him, all the armies of heaven!

3Praise him, sun and moon!
Praise him, all you twinkling stars!

4Praise him, skies above!
Praise him, vapors high above the clouds!

5Let every created thing give praise to the LORD, for he issued his command, and they came into being.

6He set them in place forever and ever.
His decree will never be revoked.

7Praise the LORD from the earth, you creatures of the ocean depths, 8fire and hail, snow and clouds,*

wind and weather that obey him,

9mountains and all hills, fruit trees and all cedars,

10wild animals and all livestock, small scurrying animals and birds,

11kings of the earth and all people, rulers and judges of the earth, 12young men and young women, old men and children.

13Let them all praise the name of the LORD.
For his name is very great; his glory towers over the earth and heaven!

14He has made his people strong, honoring his faithful ones— the people of Israel who are close to him.
Praise the LORD!

Psalm 149

1Praise the LORD!
Sing to the LORD a new song.
Sing his praises in the assembly of the faithful.

2O Israel, rejoice in your Maker.
O people of Jerusalem,* exult in your King.

3Praise his name with dancing, accompanied by tambourine and harp.

4For the LORD delights in his people; he crowns the humble with victory.

5Let the faithful rejoice that he honors them.
Let them sing for joy as they lie on their beds.

6Let the praises of God be in their mouths, and a sharp sword in their hands—

7to execute vengeance on the nations and punishment on the peoples,

8to bind their kings with shackles and their leaders with iron chains, 9to execute the judgment written against them.

This is the glorious privilege of his faithful ones.
Praise the LORD!

Psalm 150

1Praise the LORD!
Praise God in his sanctuary; praise him in his mighty heaven!

2Praise him for his mighty works; praise his unequaled greatness!

3Praise him with a blast of the ram's horn; praise him with the lyre and harp!

4Praise him with the tambourine and dancing; praise him with strings and flutes!

5Praise him with a clash of cymbals; praise him with loud clanging cymbals.

6Let everything that breathes sing praises to the LORD!
Praise the LORD!

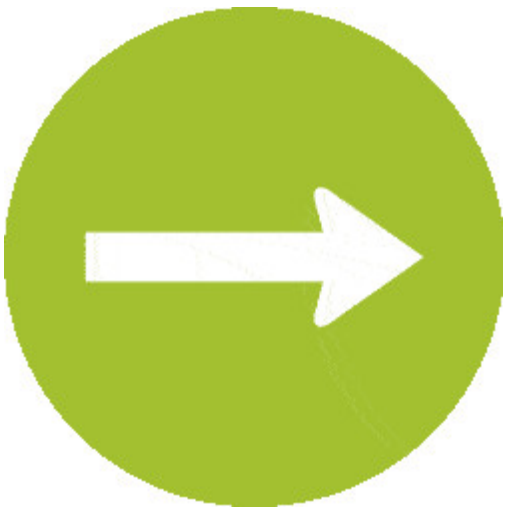
WELCOME TO

PROVERBS

Proverbs contains hundreds of wise sayings and bits of advice, often distilled into single sentences, given by God to support and build upon the teachings of Israel's prophets and the work of Israel's priests. It provides us with wisdom for everyday living, forming our attitudes toward God, others, and ourselves. Although King Solomon wrote or collected much of the book's contents, some parts are from other eras of Israel's history. These proverbs address issues as diverse as money, social justice, foolish talk, and disciplining children. An overriding theme throughout this book is that the source of wisdom is God, our Creator. All wisdom and understanding come from him (see 2:6).

0 STOPS

ON THE FLYOVER ROUTE: Although you won't be touching down in Proverbs this time, be sure to return later to catch some of the book's wisdom. Your next stop is at Isaiah 11:1.



2 STOPS

ON THE DIRECT ROUTE: There are only two readings on your route, but feel free to read as many proverbs as you like; they are a bit addictive. Your next stop is at Proverbs 3:1.

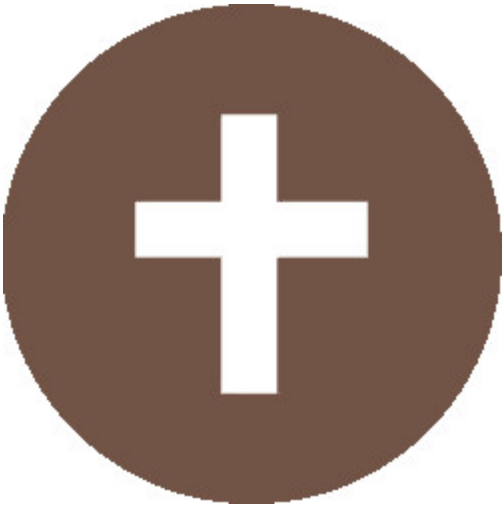
5 STOPS

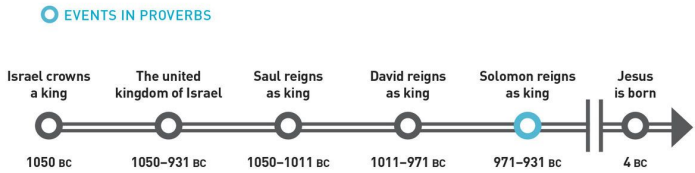
ON THE SCENIC ROUTE: The five readings on your journey through Proverbs will offer wise sayings on everything from trusting God to discipline to the source of wisdom itself. Your next stop is at Proverbs 1:1.



FINDING JESUS IN PROVERBS

In Proverbs 8:17, the personified Wisdom says, “Those who search will surely find me.” Jesus is the wisdom of God, and if you search for Jesus you will find him in Proverbs. Paul recognized this when he wrote that “Christ is . . . the wisdom of God” (1 Corinthians 1:24).

As you read through Proverbs, you’ll find phrases that Jesus used in his teaching. In the Lord’s Prayer, Jesus’ words echo Proverbs 30:8: “Give me just enough to satisfy my needs.” In the Sermon on the Mount, Jesus’ teaching on money lines up with Proverbs 23:4. Jesus’ story of the lost son in Luke 15 brings the truth of Proverbs 29:3 to life. And in Proverbs 30:4, an impossible idea emerges: “Who but God goes up to heaven and comes back down? . . . What is his name—and his son’s name?” That God would have a son seemed unthinkable, but Jesus is in fact the Son of God; and he came to show and teach us the wisdom of heaven.



Proverbs 1

THE PURPOSE OF PROVERBS

1These are the proverbs of Solomon, David's son, king of Israel.

2Their purpose is to teach people wisdom and discipline, to help them understand the insights of the wise.

3Their purpose is to teach people to live disciplined and successful lives, to help them do what is right, just, and fair.

4These proverbs will give insight to the simple, knowledge and discernment to the young.

5Let the wise listen to these proverbs and become even wiser.
Let those with understanding receive guidance

6by exploring the meaning in these proverbs and parables, the words of the wise and their riddles.

7Fear of the LORD is the foundation of true knowledge, but fools despise wisdom and discipline.

A FATHER'S EXHORTATION: ACQUIRE WISDOM

8My child,* listen when your father corrects you.

Don't neglect your mother's instruction.

9What you learn from them will crown you with grace and be a chain of honor around your neck.

10My child, if sinners entice you, turn your back on them!

11They may say, "Come and join us.
Let's hide and kill someone!
Just for fun, let's ambush the innocent!

12Let's swallow them alive, like the grave*; let's swallow them whole, like those who go down to the pit of death.

13Think of the great things we'll get!
We'll fill our houses with all the stuff we take.

14Come, throw in your lot with us; we'll all share the loot."

15My child, don't go along with them!
Stay far away from their paths.

16They rush to commit evil deeds.
They hurry to commit murder.

17If a bird sees a trap being set, it knows to stay away.

18But these people set an ambush for themselves; they are trying to get themselves killed.

19Such is the fate of all who are greedy for money; it robs them of life.

WISDOM SHOUTS IN THE STREETS

20Wisdom shouts in the streets.

She cries out in the public square.

21She calls to the crowds along the main street, to those gathered in front of the city gate:

22"How long, you simpletons, will you insist on being simpleminded?
How long will you mockers relish your mocking?
How long will you fools hate knowledge?

23Come and listen to my counsel.
I'll share my heart with you and make you wise.

24"I called you so often, but you wouldn't come.
I reached out to you, but you paid no attention.

25You ignored my advice and rejected the correction I offered.

26So I will laugh when you are in trouble!
I will mock you when disaster overtakes you—

27when calamity overtakes you like a storm, when disaster engulfs you like a cyclone, and anguish and distress overwhelm you.

28"When they cry for help, I will not answer.
Though they anxiously search for me, they will not find me.

29For they hated knowledge and chose not to fear the LORD.

30They rejected my advice and paid no attention when I corrected them.

31Therefore, they must eat the bitter fruit of living their own way, choking on their own schemes.

32For simpletons turn away from me—to death.
Fools are destroyed by their own complacency.

33But all who listen to me will live in peace, untroubled by fear of harm.”

Proverbs 2

THE BENEFITS OF WISDOM

1My child,* listen to what I say, and treasure my commands.

2Tune your ears to wisdom, and concentrate on understanding.

3Cry out for insight, and ask for understanding.

4Search for them as you would for silver; seek them like hidden treasures.

5Then you will understand what it means to fear the LORD, and you will gain knowledge of God.

6For the LORD grants wisdom!
From his mouth come knowledge and understanding.

7He grants a treasure of common sense to the honest.
He is a shield to those who walk with integrity.

8He guards the paths of the just and protects those who are faithful to him.

9Then you will understand what is right, just, and fair, and you will find the right way to go.

10For wisdom will enter your heart, and knowledge will fill you with joy.

11Wise choices will watch over you.
Understanding will keep you safe.

12Wisdom will save you from evil people, from those whose words are twisted.

13These men turn from the right way to walk down dark paths.

14They take pleasure in doing wrong, and they enjoy the twisted ways of evil.

15Their actions are crooked, and their ways are wrong.

16Wisdom will save you from the immoral woman, from the seductive words of the promiscuous woman.

17She has abandoned her husband and ignores the covenant she made before God.

18Entering her house leads to death; it is the road to the grave.*

19The man who visits her is doomed.
He will never reach the paths of life.

20Follow the steps of good men instead, and stay on the paths of the righteous.

21For only the godly will live in the land, and those with integrity will remain in it.

22But the wicked will be removed from the land, and the treacherous will be uprooted.

Proverbs 3

TRUSTING IN THE LORD

1My child,* never forget the things I have taught you.
Store my commands in your heart.

2If you do this, you will live many years, and your life will be satisfying.

3Never let loyalty and kindness leave you!
Tie them around your neck as a reminder.
Write them deep within your heart.

4Then you will find favor with both God and people, and you will earn a good reputation.

5Trust in the LORD with all your heart; do not depend on your own understanding.

6Seek his will in all you do, and he will show you which path to take.

7Don't be impressed with your own wisdom.
Instead, fear the LORD and turn away from evil.

8Then you will have healing for your body and strength for your bones.

9Honor the LORD with your wealth and with the best part of everything you produce.

10Then he will fill your barns with grain, and your vats will overflow with good wine.

11My child, don't reject the LORD's discipline, and don't be upset when he corrects you.

12For the LORD corrects those he loves, just as a father corrects a child in whom he delights.*

13Joyful is the person who finds wisdom, the one who gains understanding.

14For wisdom is more profitable than silver, and her wages are better than gold.

15Wisdom is more precious than rubies; nothing you desire can compare with her.

16She offers you long life in her right hand, and riches and honor in her left.

17She will guide you down delightful paths; all her ways are satisfying.

18Wisdom is a tree of life to those who embrace her; happy are those who hold her tightly.

19By wisdom the LORD founded the earth; by understanding he created the heavens.

20By his knowledge the deep fountains of the earth burst forth, and the dew settles beneath the night sky.

21My child, don't lose sight of common sense and discernment. Hang on to them, 22for they will refresh your soul.

They are like jewels on a necklace.

23They keep you safe on your way, and your feet will not stumble.

24You can go to bed without fear; you will lie down and sleep soundly.

25You need not be afraid of sudden disaster or the destruction that comes upon the wicked, 26for the LORD is your security.

He will keep your foot from being caught in a trap.

27Do not withhold good from those who deserve it when it's in your power to help them.

28If you can help your neighbor now, don't say, "Come back tomorrow, and then I'll help you."

29Don't plot harm against your neighbor, for those who live nearby trust you.

30Don't pick a fight without reason, when no one has done you harm.

31Don't envy violent people or copy their ways.

32Such wicked people are detestable to the LORD, but he offers his friendship to the godly.

33The LORD curses the house of the wicked, but he blesses the home of the upright.

34The LORD mocks the mockers but is gracious to the humble.*

35The wise inherit honor, but fools are put to shame!

Proverbs 4

A FATHER'S WISE ADVICE

1My children,* listen when your father corrects you.
Pay attention and learn good judgment,

2for I am giving you good guidance.
Don’t turn away from my instructions.

3For I, too, was once my father’s son, tenderly loved as my mother’s only child.

4My father taught me, “Take my words to heart.
Follow my commands, and you will live.

5Get wisdom; develop good judgment.
Don’t forget my words or turn away from them.

6Don’t turn your back on wisdom, for she will protect you.
Love her, and she will guard you.

7Getting wisdom is the wisest thing you can do!
And whatever else you do, develop good judgment.

8If you prize wisdom, she will make you great.
Embrace her, and she will honor you.

9She will place a lovely wreath on your head; she will present you with a beautiful crown.”

10My child,* listen to me and do as I say, and you will have a long, good life.

11I will teach you wisdom’s ways and lead you in straight paths.

12When you walk, you won’t be held back; when you run, you won’t stumble.

13Take hold of my instructions; don’t let them go.
Guard them, for they are the key to life.

14Don’t do as the wicked do, and don’t follow the path of evildoers.

15Don’t even think about it; don’t go that way.
Turn away and keep moving.

16For evil people can’t sleep until they’ve done their evil deed for the day.

They can't rest until they've caused someone to stumble.

17They eat the food of wickedness and drink the wine of violence!

18The way of the righteous is like the first gleam of dawn, which shines ever brighter until the full light of day.

19But the way of the wicked is like total darkness.
They have no idea what they are stumbling over.

20My child, pay attention to what I say.
Listen carefully to my words.

21Don't lose sight of them.
Let them penetrate deep into your heart,

22for they bring life to those who find them, and healing to their whole body.

23Guard your heart above all else, for it determines the course of your life.

24Avoid all perverse talk; stay away from corrupt speech.

25Look straight ahead, and fix your eyes on what lies before you.

26Mark out a straight path for your feet; stay on the safe path.

27Don't get sidetracked; keep your feet from following evil.

Proverbs 5

AVOID IMMORAL WOMEN

1My son, pay attention to my wisdom; listen carefully to my wise counsel.

2Then you will show discernment, and your lips will express what you've learned.

3For the lips of an immoral woman are as sweet as honey, and her mouth is smoother than oil.

4But in the end she is as bitter as poison, as dangerous as a double-edged sword.

5Her feet go down to death; her steps lead straight to the grave.*

6For she cares nothing about the path to life.
She staggers down a crooked trail and doesn't realize it.

7So now, my sons, listen to me.
Never stray from what I am about to say:

8Stay away from her!
Don't go near the door of her house!

9If you do, you will lose your honor and will lose to merciless people all you have achieved.

10Strangers will consume your wealth, and someone else will enjoy the fruit of your labor.

11In the end you will groan in anguish when disease consumes your body.

12You will say, "How I hated discipline!
If only I had not ignored all the warnings!

13Oh, why didn't I listen to my teachers?
Why didn't I pay attention to my instructors?

14I have come to the brink of utter ruin, and now I must face public disgrace."

15Drink water from your own well— share your love only with your wife.*

16Why spill the water of your springs in the streets, having sex with just anyone?*

17You should reserve it for yourselves.
Never share it with strangers.

18Let your wife be a fountain of blessing for you.
Rejoice in the wife of your youth.

19She is a loving deer, a graceful doe.
Let her breasts satisfy you always.
May you always be captivated by her love.

20Why be captivated, my son, by an immoral woman, or fondle the breasts of a promiscuous woman?

21For the LORD sees clearly what a man does, examining every path he takes.

22An evil man is held captive by his own sins; they are ropes that catch and hold him.

23He will die for lack of self-control; he will be lost because of his great foolishness.

Proverbs 6

LESSONS FOR DAILY LIFE

1My child,* if you have put up security for a friend's debt or agreed to guarantee the debt of a stranger—

2if you have trapped yourself by your agreement and are caught by what you said—

3follow my advice and save yourself, for you have placed yourself at your friend's mercy.
Now swallow your pride; go and beg to have your name erased.

4Don't put it off; do it now!
Don't rest until you do.

5Save yourself like a gazelle escaping from a hunter, like a bird fleeing from a net.

6Take a lesson from the ants, you lazybones.
Learn from their ways and become wise!

7Though they have no prince or governor or ruler to make them work,

8they labor hard all summer, gathering food for the winter.

9But you, lazybones, how long will you sleep?
When will you wake up?

10A little extra sleep, a little more slumber, a little folding of the hands to rest—

11then poverty will pounce on you like a bandit; scarcity will attack you like an armed robber.

12What are worthless and wicked people like?
They are constant liars,

13signaling their deceit with a wink of the eye, a nudge of the foot, or the wiggle of fingers.

14Their perverted hearts plot evil, and they constantly stir up trouble.

15But they will be destroyed suddenly, broken in an instant beyond all hope of healing.

16There are six things the LORD hates— no, seven things he detests:

17haughty eyes, a lying tongue, hands that kill the innocent,

18a heart that plots evil, feet that race to do wrong,

19a false witness who pours out lies, a person who sows discord in a family.

20My son, obey your father's commands, and don't neglect your mother's instruction.

21Keep their words always in your heart.
Tie them around your neck.

22When you walk, their counsel will lead you.
When you sleep, they will protect you.
When you wake up, they will advise you.

23For their command is a lamp and their instruction a light; their corrective discipline is the way to life.

24It will keep you from the immoral woman, from the smooth tongue of a promiscuous woman.

25Don't lust for her beauty.
Don't let her coy glances seduce you.

26For a prostitute will bring you to poverty,* but sleeping with another man's wife will cost you your life.

27Can a man scoop a flame into his lap and not have his clothes catch on fire?

28Can he walk on hot coals and not blister his feet?

29So it is with the man who sleeps with another man's wife.
He who embraces her will not go unpunished.

30Excuses might be found for a thief who steals because he is starving.

31But if he is caught, he must pay back seven times what he stole, even if he has to sell everything in his house.

32But the man who commits adultery is an utter fool, for he destroys himself.

33He will be wounded and disgraced.
His shame will never be erased.

34For the woman's jealous husband will be furious, and he will show no mercy when he takes revenge.

35He will accept no compensation, nor be satisfied with a payoff of any size.

Proverbs 7

ANOTHER WARNING ABOUT IMMORAL WOMEN

1Follow my advice, my son; always treasure my commands.

2Obey my commands and live!
Guard my instructions as you guard your own eyes.*

3Tie them on your fingers as a reminder.
Write them deep within your heart.

4Love wisdom like a sister; make insight a beloved member of your family.

5Let them protect you from an affair with an immoral woman, from listening to the flattery of a promiscuous woman.

6While I was at the window of my house, looking through the curtain,

7I saw some naive young men, and one in particular who lacked common sense.

8He was crossing the street near the house of an immoral woman, strolling down the path by her house.

9It was at twilight, in the evening, as deep darkness fell.

10The woman approached him, seductively dressed and sly of heart.

11She was the brash, rebellious type, never content to stay at home.

12She is often in the streets and markets, soliciting at every corner.

13She threw her arms around him and kissed him, and with a brazen look she said,

14“I’ve just made my peace offerings and fulfilled my vows.

15You’re the one I was looking for!
I came out to find you, and here you are!

16My bed is spread with beautiful blankets, with colored sheets of Egyptian linen.

17I’ve perfumed my bed with myrrh, aloes, and cinnamon.

18Come, let’s drink our fill of love until morning.
Let’s enjoy each other’s caresses,

19for my husband is not home.
He’s away on a long trip.

20He has taken a wallet full of money with him and won’t return until later this month.*”

21So she seduced him with her pretty speech and enticed him with her flattery.

22He followed her at once, like an ox going to the slaughter.
He was like a stag caught in a trap,*

23awaiting the arrow that would pierce its heart.
He was like a bird flying into a snare, little knowing it would cost him his life.

24So listen to me, my sons, and pay attention to my words.

25Don’t let your hearts stray away toward her.
Don’t wander down her wayward path.

26For she has been the ruin of many; many men have been her victims.

27Her house is the road to the grave.*
Her bedroom is the den of death.

Proverbs 8

WISDOM CALLS FOR A HEARING

1Listen as Wisdom calls out!
Hear as understanding raises her voice!

2On the hilltop along the road, she takes her stand at the crossroads.

3By the gates at the entrance to the town, on the road leading in, she cries aloud,

4"I call to you, to all of you!
I raise my voice to all people.

5You simple people, use good judgment.
You foolish people, show some understanding.

6Listen to me! For I have important things to tell you.
Everything I say is right,

7for I speak the truth and detest every kind of deception.

8My advice is wholesome.
There is nothing devious or crooked in it.

9My words are plain to anyone with understanding, clear to those with knowledge.

10Choose my instruction rather than silver, and knowledge rather than pure gold.

11For wisdom is far more valuable than rubies.
Nothing you desire can compare with it.

12“I, Wisdom, live together with good judgment.
I know where to discover knowledge and discernment.

13All who fear the LORD will hate evil.
Therefore, I hate pride and arrogance, corruption and perverse speech.

14Common sense and success belong to me.
Insight and strength are mine.

15Because of me, kings reign, and rulers make just decrees.

16Rulers lead with my help, and nobles make righteous judgments.*

17“I love all who love me.
Those who search will surely find me.

18I have riches and honor, as well as enduring wealth and justice.

19My gifts are better than gold, even the purest gold, my wages better than sterling silver!

20I walk in righteousness, in paths of justice.

21Those who love me inherit wealth.
I will fill their treasuries.

22“The LORD formed me from the beginning, before he created anything else.

23I was appointed in ages past, at the very first, before the earth began.

24I was born before the oceans were created, before the springs bubbled forth their waters.

25Before the mountains were formed, before the hills, I was born—

26before he had made the earth and fields and the first handfuls of soil.

27I was there when he established the heavens, when he drew the horizon on the oceans.

28I was there when he set the clouds above, when he established springs deep in the earth.

29I was there when he set the limits of the seas, so they would not spread beyond their boundaries.
And when he marked off the earth's foundations,

30I was the architect at his side.
I was his constant delight, rejoicing always in his presence.

31And how happy I was with the world he created; how I rejoiced with the human family!

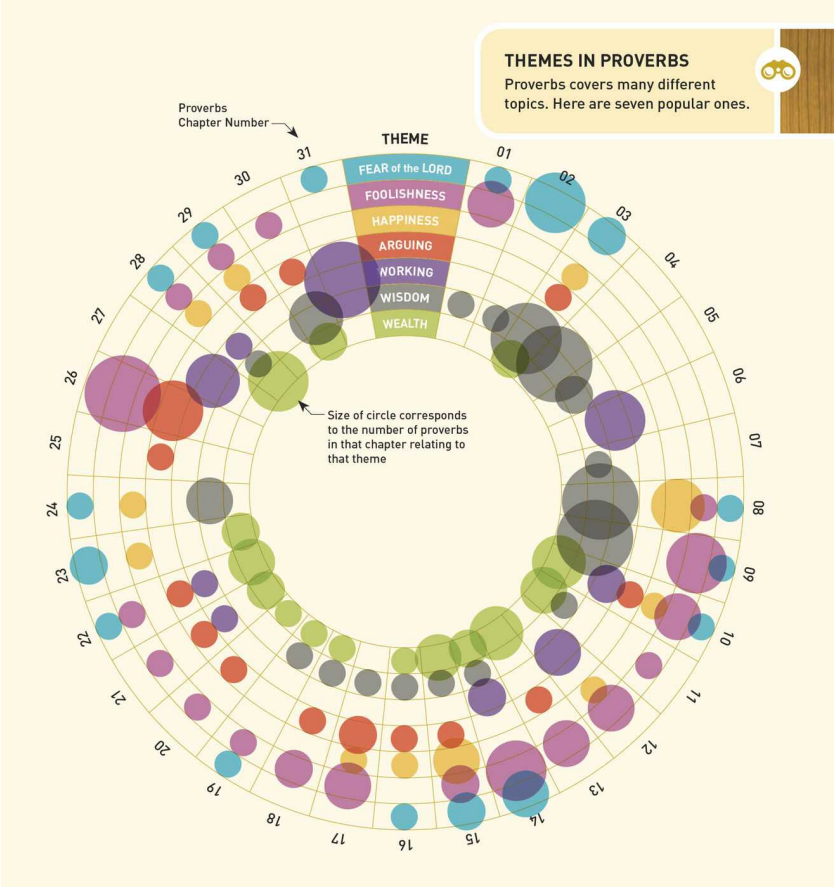
32"And so, my children,* listen to me, for all who follow my ways are joyful.

33Listen to my instruction and be wise.
Don't ignore it.

34Joyful are those who listen to me, watching for me daily at my gates, waiting for me outside my home!

35For whoever finds me finds life and receives favor from the LORD.

36But those who miss me injure themselves.
All who hate me love death."



THEMES IN PROVERBS

Proverbs 9

1Wisdom has built her house; she has carved its seven columns.

2She has prepared a great banquet, mixed the wines, and set the table.

3She has sent her servants to invite everyone to come.
She calls out from the heights overlooking the city.

4“Come in with me,” she urges the simple.

To those who lack good judgment, she says,

5“Come, eat my food, and drink the wine I have mixed.

6Leave your simple ways behind, and begin to live; learn to use good judgment.”

7Anyone who rebukes a mocker will get an insult in return.
Anyone who corrects the wicked will get hurt.

8So don’t bother correcting mockers; they will only hate you.
But correct the wise, and they will love you.

9Instruct the wise, and they will be even wiser.
Teach the righteous, and they will learn even more.

10Fear of the LORD is the foundation of wisdom.
Knowledge of the Holy One results in good judgment.

11Wisdom will multiply your days and add years to your life.

12If you become wise, you will be the one to benefit.
If you scorn wisdom, you will be the one to suffer.

FOLLY CALLS FOR A HEARING

13The woman named Folly is brash.

She is ignorant and doesn’t know it.

14She sits in her doorway on the heights overlooking the city.

15She calls out to men going by who are minding their own business.

16“Come in with me,” she urges the simple.
To those who lack good judgment, she says,

17“Stolen water is refreshing; food eaten in secret tastes the best!”

18But little do they know that the dead are there.
Her guests are in the depths of the grave.*

Proverbs 10

THE PROVERBS OF SOLOMON

1The proverbs of Solomon: A wise child* brings joy to a father; a foolish child brings grief to a mother.

2Tainted wealth has no lasting value, but right living can save your life.

3The LORD will not let the godly go hungry, but he refuses to satisfy the craving of the wicked.

4Lazy people are soon poor; hard workers get rich.

5A wise youth harvests in the summer, but one who sleeps during harvest is a disgrace.

6The godly are showered with blessings; the words of the wicked conceal violent intentions.

7We have happy memories of the godly, but the name of a wicked person rots away.

8The wise are glad to be instructed, but babbling fools fall flat on their faces.

9People with integrity walk safely, but those who follow crooked paths will be exposed.

10People who wink at wrong cause trouble, but a bold reproof promotes peace.*

11The words of the godly are a life-giving fountain; the words of the wicked conceal violent intentions.

12Hatred stirs up quarrels, but love makes up for all offenses.

13Wise words come from the lips of people with understanding, but those lacking sense will be beaten with a rod.

14Wise people treasure knowledge, but the babbling of a fool invites disaster.

15The wealth of the rich is their fortress; the poverty of the poor is their destruction.

16The earnings of the godly enhance their lives, but evil people squander their money on sin.

17People who accept discipline are on the pathway to life, but those who ignore correction will go astray.

18Hiding hatred makes you a liar; slandering others makes you a fool.

19Too much talk leads to sin.
Be sensible and keep your mouth shut.

20The words of the godly are like sterling silver; the heart of a fool is worthless.

21The words of the godly encourage many, but fools are destroyed by their lack of common sense.

22The blessing of the LORD makes a person rich, and he adds no sorrow with it.

23Doing wrong is fun for a fool, but living wisely brings pleasure to the sensible.

24The fears of the wicked will be fulfilled; the hopes of the godly will be granted.

25When the storms of life come, the wicked are whirled away, but the godly have a lasting foundation.

26Lazy people irritate their employers, like vinegar to the teeth or smoke in the eyes.

27Fear of the LORD lengthens one's life, but the years of the wicked are cut short.

28The hopes of the godly result in happiness, but the expectations of the wicked come to nothing.

29The way of the LORD is a stronghold to those with integrity, but it destroys the wicked.

30The godly will never be disturbed, but the wicked will be removed from the land.

31The mouth of the godly person gives wise advice, but the tongue that deceives will be cut off.

32The lips of the godly speak helpful words, but the mouth of the wicked speaks perverse words.

Proverbs 11

1The LORD detests the use of dishonest scales, but he delights in accurate weights.

2Pride leads to disgrace, but with humility comes wisdom.

3Honesty guides good people; dishonesty destroys treacherous people.

4Riches won't help on the day of judgment, but right living can save you from death.

5The godly are directed by honesty; the wicked fall beneath their load of sin.

6The godliness of good people rescues them; the ambition of treacherous people traps them.

7When the wicked die, their hopes die with them, for they rely on their own feeble strength.

8The godly are rescued from trouble, and it falls on the wicked instead.

9With their words, the godless destroy their friends, but knowledge will rescue the righteous.

10The whole city celebrates when the godly succeed; they shout for joy when the wicked die.

11Upright citizens are good for a city and make it prosper, but the talk of the wicked tears it apart.

12It is foolish to belittle one's neighbor; a sensible person keeps quiet.

13A gossip goes around telling secrets, but those who are trustworthy can keep a confidence.

14Without wise leadership, a nation falls; there is safety in having many advisers.

15There's danger in putting up security for a stranger's debt; it's safer not to guarantee another person's debt.

16A gracious woman gains respect, but ruthless men gain only wealth.

17Your kindness will reward you, but your cruelty will destroy you.

18Evil people get rich for the moment, but the reward of the godly will last.

19Godly people find life; evil people find death.

20The LORD detests people with crooked hearts, but he delights in those with integrity.

21Evil people will surely be punished, but the children of the godly will go free.

22A beautiful woman who lacks discretion is like a gold ring in a pig's snout.

23The godly can look forward to a reward, while the wicked can expect only judgment.

24Give freely and become more wealthy; be stingy and lose everything.

25The generous will prosper; those who refresh others will themselves be refreshed.

26People curse those who hoard their grain, but they bless the one who sells in time of need.

27If you search for good, you will find favor; but if you search for evil, it will find you!

28Trust in your money and down you go!
But the godly flourish like leaves in spring.

29Those who bring trouble on their families inherit the wind.
The fool will be a servant to the wise.

30The seeds of good deeds become a tree of life; a wise person wins friends.*

31If the righteous are rewarded here on earth, what will happen to wicked sinners?*

Proverbs 12

1To learn, you must love discipline; it is stupid to hate correction.

2The LORD approves of those who are good, but he condemns those who plan wickedness.

3Wickedness never brings stability, but the godly have deep roots.

4A worthy wife is a crown for her husband, but a disgraceful woman is like cancer in his bones.

5The plans of the godly are just; the advice of the wicked is treacherous.

6The words of the wicked are like a murderous ambush, but the words of the godly save lives.

7The wicked die and disappear, but the family of the godly stands firm.

8A sensible person wins admiration, but a warped mind is despised.

9Better to be an ordinary person with a servant than to be self-important but have no food.

10The godly care for their animals, but the wicked are always cruel.

11A hard worker has plenty of food, but a person who chases fantasies has no sense.

12Thieves are jealous of each other's loot, but the godly are well rooted and bear their own fruit.

13The wicked are trapped by their own words, but the godly escape such trouble.

14Wise words bring many benefits, and hard work brings rewards.

15Fools think their own way is right, but the wise listen to others.

16A fool is quick-tempered, but a wise person stays calm when insulted.

17An honest witness tells the truth; a false witness tells lies.

18Some people make cutting remarks, but the words of the wise bring healing.

19Truthful words stand the test of time, but lies are soon exposed.

20Deceit fills hearts that are plotting evil; joy fills hearts that are planning peace!

21No harm comes to the godly, but the wicked have their fill of trouble.

22The LORD detests lying lips, but he delights in those who tell the truth.

23The wise don't make a show of their knowledge, but fools broadcast their foolishness.

24Work hard and become a leader; be lazy and become a slave.

25Worry weighs a person down; an encouraging word cheers a person up.

26The godly give good advice to their friends;*
the wicked lead them astray.

27Lazy people don't even cook the game they catch, but the diligent make use of everything they find.

28The way of the godly leads to life; that path does not lead to death.

Proverbs 13

1A wise child accepts a parent's discipline;*
a mocker refuses to listen to correction.

2Wise words will win you a good meal, but treacherous people have an appetite for violence.

3Those who control their tongue will have a long life; opening your mouth can ruin everything.

4Lazy people want much but get little, but those who work hard will prosper.

5The godly hate lies; the wicked cause shame and disgrace.

6Godliness guards the path of the blameless, but the evil are misled by sin.

7Some who are poor pretend to be rich; others who are rich pretend to be poor.

8The rich can pay a ransom for their lives, but the poor won't even get threatened.

9The life of the godly is full of light and joy, but the light of the wicked will be snuffed out.

10Pride leads to conflict; those who take advice are wise.

11Wealth from get-rich-quick schemes quickly disappears; wealth from hard work grows over time.

12Hope deferred makes the heart sick, but a dream fulfilled is a tree of life.

13People who despise advice are asking for trouble; those who respect a command will succeed.

14The instruction of the wise is like a life-giving fountain; those who accept it avoid the snares of death.

15A person with good sense is respected; a treacherous person is headed for destruction.*

16Wise people think before they act; fools don't—and even brag about their foolishness.

17An unreliable messenger stumbles into trouble, but a reliable messenger brings healing.

18If you ignore criticism, you will end in poverty and disgrace; if you accept correction, you will be honored.

19It is pleasant to see dreams come true, but fools refuse to turn from evil to attain them.

20Walk with the wise and become wise; associate with fools and get in trouble.

21Trouble chases sinners, while blessings reward the righteous.

22Good people leave an inheritance to their grandchildren, but the sinner's wealth passes to the godly.

23A poor person's farm may produce much food, but injustice sweeps it all away.

24Those who spare the rod of discipline hate their children.
Those who love their children care enough to discipline them.

25The godly eat to their hearts' content, but the belly of the wicked goes hungry.

Proverbs 14

1A wise woman builds her home, but a foolish woman tears it down with her own hands.

2Those who follow the right path fear the LORD; those who take the wrong path despise him.

3A fool's proud talk becomes a rod that beats him, but the words of the wise keep them safe.

4Without oxen a stable stays clean, but you need a strong ox for a large harvest.

5An honest witness does not lie; a false witness breathes lies.

6A mocker seeks wisdom and never finds it, but knowledge comes easily to those with understanding.

7Stay away from fools, for you won't find knowledge on their lips.

8The prudent understand where they are going, but fools deceive themselves.

9Fools make fun of guilt, but the godly acknowledge it and seek reconciliation.

10Each heart knows its own bitterness, and no one else can fully share its joy.

11The house of the wicked will be destroyed, but the tent of the godly will flourish.

12There is a path before each person that seems right, but it ends in death.

13Laughter can conceal a heavy heart, but when the laughter ends, the grief remains.

14Backsliders get what they deserve; good people receive their reward.

15Only simpletons believe everything they're told!
The prudent carefully consider their steps.

16The wise are cautious* and avoid danger; fools plunge ahead with reckless confidence.

17Short-tempered people do foolish things, and schemers are hated.

18Simpletons are clothed with foolishness,*
but the prudent are crowned with knowledge.

19Evil people will bow before good people; the wicked will bow at the gates of the godly.

20The poor are despised even by their neighbors, while the rich have many "friends."

21It is a sin to belittle one's neighbor; blessed are those who help the poor.

22If you plan to do evil, you will be lost; if you plan to do good, you will receive unfailing love and faithfulness.

23Work brings profit, but mere talk leads to poverty!

24Wealth is a crown for the wise; the effort of fools yields only foolishness.

25A truthful witness saves lives, but a false witness is a traitor.

26Those who fear the LORD are secure; he will be a refuge for their children.

27Fear of the LORD is a life-giving fountain; it offers escape from the snares of death.

28A growing population is a king's glory; a prince without subjects has nothing.

29People with understanding control their anger; a hot temper shows great foolishness.

30A peaceful heart leads to a healthy body; jealousy is like cancer in the bones.

31Those who oppress the poor insult their Maker, but helping the poor honors him.

32The wicked are crushed by disaster, but the godly have a refuge when they die.

33Wisdom is enshrined in an understanding heart; wisdom is not* found among fools.

34Godliness makes a nation great, but sin is a disgrace to any people.

35A king rejoices in wise servants but is angry with those who disgrace him.

Proverbs 15

1A gentle answer deflects anger, but harsh words make tempers flare.

2The tongue of the wise makes knowledge appealing, but the mouth of a fool belches out foolishness.

3The LORD is watching everywhere, keeping his eye on both the evil and the good.

4Gentle words are a tree of life; a deceitful tongue crushes the spirit.

5Only a fool despises a parent's* discipline; whoever learns from correction is wise.

6There is treasure in the house of the godly, but the earnings of the wicked bring trouble.

7The lips of the wise give good advice; the heart of a fool has none to give.

8The LORD detests the sacrifice of the wicked, but he delights in the prayers of the upright.

9The LORD detests the way of the wicked, but he loves those who pursue godliness.

10Whoever abandons the right path will be severely disciplined;
whoever hates correction will die.

11Even Death and Destruction* hold no secrets from the LORD.
How much more does he know the human heart!

12Mockers hate to be corrected, so they stay away from the wise.

13A glad heart makes a happy face; a broken heart crushes the spirit.

14A wise person is hungry for knowledge, while the fool feeds on trash.

15For the despondent, every day brings trouble; for the happy heart, life is a continual feast.

16Better to have little, with fear for the LORD, than to have great treasure and inner turmoil.

17A bowl of vegetables with someone you love is better than steak with someone you hate.

18A hot-tempered person starts fights; a cool-tempered person stops them.

19A lazy person's way is blocked with briers, but the path of the upright is an open highway.

20Sensible children bring joy to their father; foolish children despise their mother.

21Foolishness brings joy to those with no sense; a sensible person stays on the right path.

22Plans go wrong for lack of advice; many advisers bring success.

23Everyone enjoys a fitting reply; it is wonderful to say the right thing at the right time!

24The path of life leads upward for the wise; they leave the grave* behind.

25The LORD tears down the house of the proud, but he protects the property of widows.

26The LORD detests evil plans, but he delights in pure words.

27Greed brings grief to the whole family, but those who hate bribes will live.

28The heart of the godly thinks carefully before speaking; the mouth of the wicked overflows with evil words.

29The LORD is far from the wicked, but he hears the prayers of the righteous.

30A cheerful look brings joy to the heart; good news makes for good health.

31If you listen to constructive criticism, you will be at home among the wise.

32If you reject discipline, you only harm yourself; but if you listen to correction, you grow in understanding.

33Fear of the LORD teaches wisdom; humility precedes honor.

Proverbs 16

1We can make our own plans, but the LORD gives the right answer.

2People may be pure in their own eyes, but the LORD examines their motives.

3Commit your actions to the LORD, and your plans will succeed.

4The LORD has made everything for his own purposes, even the wicked for a day of disaster.

5The LORD detests the proud; they will surely be punished.

6Unfailing love and faithfulness make atonement for sin.
By fearing the LORD, people avoid evil.

7When people's lives please the LORD, even their enemies are at peace with them.

8Better to have little, with godliness, than to be rich and dishonest.

9We can make our plans, but the LORD determines our steps.

10The king speaks with divine wisdom; he must never judge unfairly.

11The LORD demands accurate scales and balances; he sets the standards for fairness.

12A king detests wrongdoing, for his rule is built on justice.

13The king is pleased with words from righteous lips; he loves those who speak honestly.

14The anger of the king is a deadly threat; the wise will try to appease it.

15When the king smiles, there is life;
his favor refreshes like a spring rain.

16How much better to get wisdom than gold, and good judgment than silver!

17The path of the virtuous leads away from evil; whoever follows that path is safe.

18Pride goes before destruction, and haughtiness before a fall.

19Better to live humbly with the poor than to share plunder with the proud.

20Those who listen to instruction will prosper; those who trust the LORD will be joyful.

21The wise are known for their understanding, and pleasant words are persuasive.

22Discretion is a life-giving fountain to those who possess it, but discipline is wasted on fools.

23From a wise mind comes wise speech; the words of the wise are persuasive.

24Kind words are like honey— sweet to the soul and healthy for the body.

25There is a path before each person that seems right, but it ends in death.

26It is good for workers to have an appetite; an empty stomach drives them on.

27Scoundrels create trouble; their words are a destructive blaze.

28A troublemaker plants seeds of strife; gossip separates the best of friends.

29Violent people mislead their companions, leading them down a harmful path.

30With narrowed eyes, people plot evil; with a smirk, they plan their mischief.

31Gray hair is a crown of glory; it is gained by living a godly life.

32Better to be patient than powerful; better to have self-control than to conquer a city.

33We may throw the dice,*
but the LORD determines how they fall.

Proverbs 17

1Better a dry crust eaten in peace than a house filled with feasting—and conflict.

2A wise servant will rule over the master's disgraceful son and will share the inheritance of the master's children.

3Fire tests the purity of silver and gold, but the LORD tests the heart.

4Wrongdoers eagerly listen to gossip; liars pay close attention to slander.

5Those who mock the poor insult their Maker; those who rejoice at the misfortune of others will be punished.

6Grandchildren are the crowning glory of the aged; parents* are the pride of their children.

7Eloquent words are not fitting for a fool; even less are lies fitting for a ruler.

8A bribe is like a lucky charm; whoever gives one will prosper!

9Love prospers when a fault is forgiven, but dwelling on it separates close friends.

10A single rebuke does more for a person of understanding than a hundred lashes on the back of a fool.

11Evil people are eager for rebellion, but they will be severely punished.

12It is safer to meet a bear robbed of her cubs than to confront a fool caught in foolishness.

13If you repay good with evil, evil will never leave your house.

14Starting a quarrel is like opening a floodgate, so stop before a dispute breaks out.

15Acquitting the guilty and condemning the innocent— both are detestable to the LORD.

16It is senseless to pay to educate a fool, since he has no heart for learning.

17A friend is always loyal, and a brother is born to help in time of need.

18It’s poor judgment to guarantee another person’s debt or put up security for a friend.

19Anyone who loves to quarrel loves sin; anyone who trusts in high walls invites disaster.

20The crooked heart will not prosper; the lying tongue tumbles into trouble.

21It is painful to be the parent of a fool; there is no joy for the father of a rebel.

22A cheerful heart is good medicine, but a broken spirit saps a person’s strength.

23The wicked take secret bribes to pervert the course of justice.

24Sensible people keep their eyes glued on wisdom, but a fool’s eyes wander to the ends of the earth.

25Foolish children* bring grief to their father and bitterness to the one who gave them birth.

26It is wrong to punish the godly for being good or to flog leaders for being honest.

27A truly wise person uses few words; a person with understanding is even-tempered.

28Even fools are thought wise when they keep silent; with their mouths shut, they seem intelligent.

Proverbs 18

1Unfriendly people care only about themselves; they lash out at common sense.

2Fools have no interest in understanding; they only want to air their own opinions.

3Doing wrong leads to disgrace, and scandalous behavior brings contempt.

4Wise words are like deep waters; wisdom flows from the wise like a bubbling brook.

5It is not right to acquit the guilty or deny justice to the innocent.

6Fools' words get them into constant quarrels; they are asking for a beating.

7The mouths of fools are their ruin; they trap themselves with their lips.

8Rumors are dainty morsels that sink deep into one's heart.

9A lazy person is as bad as someone who destroys things.

10The name of the LORD is a strong fortress; the godly run to him and are safe.

11The rich think of their wealth as a strong defense; they imagine it to be a high wall of safety.

12Haughtiness goes before destruction; humility precedes honor.

13Spouting off before listening to the facts is both shameful and foolish.

14The human spirit can endure a sick body, but who can bear a crushed spirit?

15Intelligent people are always ready to learn.
Their ears are open for knowledge.

16Giving a gift can open doors; it gives access to important people!

17The first to speak in court sounds right— until the cross-examination begins.

18Flipping a coin* can end arguments; it settles disputes between powerful opponents.

19An offended friend is harder to win back than a fortified city.
Arguments separate friends like a gate locked with bars.

20Wise words satisfy like a good meal; the right words bring satisfaction.

21The tongue can bring death or life; those who love to talk will reap the consequences.

22The man who finds a wife finds a treasure, and he receives favor from the LORD.

23The poor plead for mercy; the rich answer with insults.

24There are “friends” who destroy each other, but a real friend sticks closer than a brother.

Proverbs 19

1Better to be poor and honest than to be dishonest and a fool.

2Enthusiasm without knowledge is no good; haste makes mistakes.

3People ruin their lives by their own foolishness and then are angry at the LORD.

4Wealth makes many “friends”; poverty drives them all away.

5A false witness will not go unpunished, nor will a liar escape.

6Many seek favors from a ruler; everyone is the friend of a person who gives gifts!

7The relatives of the poor despise them; how much more will their friends avoid them!

Though the poor plead with them, their friends are gone.

8To acquire wisdom is to love yourself; people who cherish understanding will prosper.

9A false witness will not go unpunished, and a liar will be destroyed.

10It isn't right for a fool to live in luxury or for a slave to rule over princes!

11Sensible people control their temper; they earn respect by overlooking wrongs.

12The king's anger is like a lion's roar, but his favor is like dew on the grass.

13A foolish child* is a calamity to a father; a quarrelsome wife is as annoying as constant dripping.

14Fathers can give their sons an inheritance of houses and wealth, but only the LORD can give an understanding wife.

15Lazy people sleep soundly, but idleness leaves them hungry.

16Keep the commandments and keep your life; despising them leads to death.

17If you help the poor, you are lending to the LORD— and he will repay you!

18Discipline your children while there is hope.
Otherwise you will ruin their lives.

19Hot-tempered people must pay the penalty.
If you rescue them once, you will have to do it again.

20Get all the advice and instruction you can, so you will be wise the rest of your life.

21You can make many plans, but the LORD's purpose will prevail.

22Loyalty makes a person attractive.
It is better to be poor than dishonest.

23Fear of the LORD leads to life, bringing security and protection from harm.

24Lazy people take food in their hand but don't even lift it to their mouth.

25If you punish a mocker, the simpleminded will learn a lesson; if you correct the wise, they will be all the wiser.

26Children who mistreat their father or chase away their mother are an embarrassment and a public disgrace.

27If you stop listening to instruction, my child, you will turn your back on knowledge.

28A corrupt witness makes a mockery of justice; the mouth of the wicked gulps down evil.

29Punishment is made for mockers, and the backs of fools are made to be beaten.

Proverbs 20

1Wine produces mockers; alcohol leads to brawls.
Those led astray by drink cannot be wise.

2The king's fury is like a lion's roar; to rouse his anger is to risk your life.

3Avoiding a fight is a mark of honor; only fools insist on quarreling.

4Those too lazy to plow in the right season will have no food at the harvest.

5Though good advice lies deep within the heart, a person with understanding will draw it out.

6Many will say they are loyal friends, but who can find one who is truly reliable?

7The godly walk with integrity; blessed are their children who follow them.

8When a king sits in judgment, he weighs all the evidence, distinguishing the bad from the good.

9Who can say, “I have cleansed my heart; I am pure and free from sin”?

10False weights and unequal measures*— the LORD detests double standards of every kind.

11Even children are known by the way they act, whether their conduct is pure, and whether it is right.

12Ears to hear and eyes to see— both are gifts from the LORD.

13If you love sleep, you will end in poverty.
Keep your eyes open, and there will be plenty to eat!

14The buyer haggles over the price, saying, “It’s worthless,” then brags about getting a bargain!

15Wise words are more valuable than much gold and many rubies.

16Get security from someone who guarantees a stranger’s debt.
Get a deposit if he does it for foreigners.*

17Stolen bread tastes sweet, but it turns to gravel in the mouth.

18Plans succeed through good counsel; don’t go to war without wise advice.

19A gossip goes around telling secrets, so don’t hang around with chatterers.

20If you insult your father or mother, your light will be snuffed out in total darkness.

21An inheritance obtained too early in life is not a blessing in the end.

22Don't say, "I will get even for this wrong."
Wait for the LORD to handle the matter.

23The LORD detests double standards; he is not pleased by dishonest scales.

24The LORD directs our steps, so why try to understand everything along the way?

25Don't trap yourself by making a rash promise to God and only later counting the cost.

26A wise king scatters the wicked like wheat, then runs his threshing wheel over them.

27The LORD's light penetrates the human spirit,* exposing every hidden motive.

28Unfailing love and faithfulness protect the king; his throne is made secure through love.

29The glory of the young is their strength; the gray hair of experience is the splendor of the old.

30Physical punishment cleanses away evil;*
such discipline purifies the heart.

Proverbs 21

1The king's heart is like a stream of water directed by the LORD; he guides it wherever he pleases.

2People may be right in their own eyes, but the LORD examines their heart.

3The LORD is more pleased when we do what is right and just than when we offer him sacrifices.

4Haughty eyes, a proud heart, and evil actions are all sin.

5Good planning and hard work lead to prosperity, but hasty shortcuts lead to poverty.

6Wealth created by a lying tongue is a vanishing mist and a deadly trap.*

7The violence of the wicked sweeps them away, because they refuse to do what is just.

8The guilty walk a crooked path; the innocent travel a straight road.

9It's better to live alone in the corner of an attic than with a quarrelsome wife in a lovely home.

10Evil people desire evil; their neighbors get no mercy from them.

11If you punish a mocker, the simpleminded become wise; if you instruct the wise, they will be all the wiser.

12The Righteous One* knows what is going on in the homes of the wicked; he will bring disaster on them.

13Those who shut their ears to the cries of the poor will be ignored in their own time of need.

14A secret gift calms anger; a bribe under the table pacifies fury.

15Justice is a joy to the godly, but it terrifies evildoers.

16The person who strays from common sense will end up in the company of the dead.

17Those who love pleasure become poor; those who love wine and luxury will never be rich.

18The wicked are punished in place of the godly, and traitors in place of the honest.

19It's better to live alone in the desert than with a quarrelsome, complaining wife.

20The wise have wealth and luxury, but fools spend whatever they get.

21Whoever pursues righteousness and unfailing love will find life, righteousness, and honor.

22The wise conquer the city of the strong and level the fortress in which they trust.

23Watch your tongue and keep your mouth shut, and you will stay out of trouble.

24Mockers are proud and haughty; they act with boundless arrogance.

25Despite their desires, the lazy will come to ruin, for their hands refuse to work.

26Some people are always greedy for more, but the godly love to give!

27The sacrifice of an evil person is detestable, especially when it is offered with wrong motives.

28A false witness will be cut off, but a credible witness will be allowed to speak.

29The wicked bluff their way through, but the virtuous think before they act.

30No human wisdom or understanding or plan can stand against the
LORD.

31The horse is prepared for the day of battle, but the victory belongs to the LORD.

Proverbs 22

1Choose a good reputation over great riches; being held in high esteem is better than silver or gold.

2The rich and poor have this in common: The LORD made them both.

3A prudent person foresees danger and takes precautions.
The simpleton goes blindly on and suffers the consequences.

4True humility and fear of the LORD lead to riches, honor, and long life.

5Corrupt people walk a thorny, treacherous road; whoever values life will avoid it.

6Direct your children onto the right path, and when they are older, they will not leave it.

7Just as the rich rule the poor, so the borrower is servant to the lender.

8Those who plant injustice will harvest disaster, and their reign of terror will come to an end.*

9Blessed are those who are generous, because they feed the poor.

10Throw out the mocker, and fighting goes, too.
Quarrels and insults will disappear.

11Whoever loves a pure heart and gracious speech will have the king as a friend.

12The LORD preserves those with knowledge, but he ruins the plans of the treacherous.

13The lazy person claims, “There’s a lion out there!
If I go outside, I might be killed!”

14The mouth of an immoral woman is a dangerous trap; those who make the LORD angry will fall into it.

15A youngster’s heart is filled with foolishness, but physical discipline will drive it far away.

16A person who gets ahead by oppressing the poor or by showering gifts on the rich will end in poverty.

SAYINGS OF THE WISE

17Listen to the words of the wise; apply your heart to my instruction.

18For it is good to keep these sayings in your heart and always ready on your lips.

19I am teaching you today—yes, you— so you will trust in the LORD.

20I have written thirty sayings* for you, filled with advice and knowledge.

21In this way, you may know the truth and take an accurate report to those who sent you.

22Don’t rob the poor just because you can, or exploit the needy in court.

23For the LORD is their defender.
He will ruin anyone who ruins them.

24Don’t befriend angry people or associate with hot-tempered people,

25or you will learn to be like them and endanger your soul.

26Don’t agree to guarantee another person’s debt or put up security for someone else.

27If you can’t pay it, even your bed will be snatched from under
you.

28Don’t cheat your neighbor by moving the ancient boundary markers set up by previous generations.

29Do you see any truly competent workers?
They will serve kings rather than working for ordinary people.

Proverbs 23

1While dining with a ruler, pay attention to what is put before you.

2If you are a big eater, put a knife to your throat;

3don’t desire all the delicacies, for he might be trying to trick you.

4Don’t wear yourself out trying to get rich.
Be wise enough to know when to quit.

5In the blink of an eye wealth disappears, for it will sprout wings and fly away like an eagle.

6Don’t eat with people who are stingy; don’t desire their delicacies.

7They are always thinking about how much it costs.*
“Eat and drink,” they say, but they don’t mean it.

8You will throw up what little you’ve eaten, and your compliments will be wasted.

9Don’t waste your breath on fools, for they will despise the wisest advice.

10 Don’t cheat your neighbor by moving the ancient boundary markers; don’t take the land of defenseless orphans.

11 For their Redeemer* is strong; he himself will bring their charges against you.

12 Commit yourself to instruction; listen carefully to words of knowledge.

13 Don’t fail to discipline your children.
The rod of punishment won’t kill them.

14 Physical discipline may well save them from death.*

15 My child,* if your heart is wise, my own heart will rejoice!

16 Everything in me will celebrate when you speak what is right.

17 Don’t envy sinners, but always continue to fear the LORD.

18 You will be rewarded for this; your hope will not be disappointed.

19 My child, listen and be wise: Keep your heart on the right course.

20 Do not carouse with drunkards or feast with gluttons,

21 for they are on their way to poverty, and too much sleep clothes them in rags.

22 Listen to your father, who gave you life, and don’t despise your mother when she is old.

23 Get the truth and never sell it; also get wisdom, discipline, and good judgment.

24 The father of godly children has cause for joy.
What a pleasure to have children who are wise.*

25So give your father and mother joy!
May she who gave you birth be happy.

26O my son, give me your heart.
May your eyes take delight in following my ways.

27A prostitute is a dangerous trap; a promiscuous woman is as dangerous as falling into a narrow well.

28She hides and waits like a robber, eager to make more men unfaithful.

29Who has anguish? Who has sorrow?
Who is always fighting? Who is always complaining?
Who has unnecessary bruises? Who has bloodshot eyes?

30It is the one who spends long hours in the taverns, trying out new drinks.

31Don't gaze at the wine, seeing how red it is, how it sparkles in the cup, how smoothly it goes down.

32For in the end it bites like a poisonous snake; it stings like a viper.

33You will see hallucinations, and you will say crazy things.

34You will stagger like a sailor tossed at sea, clinging to a swaying mast.

35And you will say, "They hit me, but I didn't feel it.
I didn't even know it when they beat me up.
When will I wake up so I can look for another drink?"

Proverbs 24

1Don't envy evil people or desire their company.

2For their hearts plot violence, and their words always stir up trouble.

3A house is built by wisdom and becomes strong through good sense.

4Through knowledge its rooms are filled with all sorts of precious riches and valuables.

5The wise are mightier than the strong,*
and those with knowledge grow stronger and stronger.

6So don't go to war without wise guidance; victory depends on having many advisers.

7Wisdom is too lofty for fools.
Among leaders at the city gate, they have nothing to say.

8A person who plans evil will get a reputation as a troublemaker.

9The schemes of a fool are sinful; everyone detests a mocker.

10If you fail under pressure, your strength is too small.

11Rescue those who are unjustly sentenced to die; save them as they stagger to their death.

12Don't excuse yourself by saying, "Look, we didn't know."
For God understands all hearts, and he sees you.
He who guards your soul knows you knew.
He will repay all people as their actions deserve.

13My child,* eat honey, for it is good, and the honeycomb is sweet to the taste.

14In the same way, wisdom is sweet to your soul.
If you find it, you will have a bright future, and your hopes will not be cut short.

15Don't wait in ambush at the home of the godly, and don't raid the house where the godly live.

16The godly may trip seven times, but they will get up again.

But one disaster is enough to overthrow the wicked.

17Don't rejoice when your enemies fall; don't be happy when they stumble.

18For the LORD will be displeased with you and will turn his anger away from them.

19Don't fret because of evildoers; don't envy the wicked.

20For evil people have no future; the light of the wicked will be snuffed out.

21My child, fear the LORD and the king.
Don't associate with rebels,

22for disaster will hit them suddenly.
Who knows what punishment will come from the LORD and the king?

MORE SAYINGS OF THE WISE

23Here are some further sayings of the wise: It is wrong to show favoritism when passing judgment.

24A judge who says to the wicked, "You are innocent," will be cursed by many people and denounced by the nations.

25But it will go well for those who convict the guilty; rich blessings will be showered on them.

26An honest answer is like a kiss of friendship.

27Do your planning and prepare your fields before building your house.

28Don't testify against your neighbors without cause; don't lie about them.

29And don't say, "Now I can pay them back for what they've done to me!

I'll get even with them!"

30I walked by the field of a lazy person, the vineyard of one with no common sense.

31I saw that it was overgrown with nettles.
It was covered with weeds, and its walls were broken down.

32Then, as I looked and thought about it, I learned this lesson:

33A little extra sleep, a little more slumber, a little folding of the hands to rest—

34then poverty will pounce on you like a bandit; scarcity will attack you like an armed robber.

Proverbs 25

MORE PROVERBS OF SOLOMON

1These are more proverbs of Solomon, collected by the advisers of King Hezekiah of Judah.

2It is God's privilege to conceal things and the king's privilege to discover them.

3No one can comprehend the height of heaven, the depth of the earth, or all that goes on in the king's mind!

4Remove the impurities from silver, and the sterling will be ready for the silversmith.

5Remove the wicked from the king's court, and his reign will be made secure by justice.

6Don't demand an audience with the king or push for a place among the great.

7It's better to wait for an invitation to the head table than to be sent away in public disgrace.

Just because you've seen something,

8don't be in a hurry to go to court.
For what will you do in the end if your neighbor deals you a shameful defeat?

9When arguing with your neighbor, don't betray another person's secret.

10Others may accuse you of gossip, and you will never regain your good reputation.

11Timely advice is lovely, like golden apples in a silver basket.

12To one who listens, valid criticism is like a gold earring or other gold jewelry.

13Trustworthy messengers refresh like snow in summer.
They revive the spirit of their employer.

14A person who promises a gift but doesn't give it is like clouds and wind that bring no rain.

15Patience can persuade a prince, and soft speech can break bones.

16Do you like honey?
Don't eat too much, or it will make you sick!

17Don't visit your neighbors too often, or you will wear out your welcome.

18Telling lies about others is as harmful as hitting them with an ax, wounding them with a sword, or shooting them with a sharp arrow.

19Putting confidence in an unreliable person in times of trouble is like chewing with a broken tooth or walking on a lame foot.

20Singing cheerful songs to a person with a heavy heart is like taking someone's coat in cold weather or pouring vinegar in a wound.*

21If your enemies are hungry, give them food to eat.
If they are thirsty, give them water to drink.

22You will heap burning coals of shame on their heads, and the LORD will reward you.

23As surely as a north wind brings rain, so a gossiping tongue causes anger!

24It's better to live alone in the corner of an attic than with a quarrelsome wife in a lovely home.

25Good news from far away is like cold water to the thirsty.

26If the godly give in to the wicked, it's like polluting a fountain or muddying a spring.

27It's not good to eat too much honey, and it's not good to seek honors for yourself.

28A person without self-control is like a city with broken-down walls.

Proverbs 26

1Honor is no more associated with fools than snow with summer or rain with harvest.

2Like a fluttering sparrow or a darting swallow, an undeserved curse will not land on its intended victim.

3Guide a horse with a whip, a donkey with a bridle, and a fool with a rod to his back!

4Don't answer the foolish arguments of fools, or you will become as foolish as they are.

5Be sure to answer the foolish arguments of fools, or they will become wise in their own estimation.

6Trusting a fool to convey a message is like cutting off one's feet or drinking poison!

7A proverb in the mouth of a fool is as useless as a paralyzed leg.

8Honoring a fool is as foolish as tying a stone to a slingshot.

9A proverb in the mouth of a fool is like a thorny branch brandished by a drunk.

10An employer who hires a fool or a bystander is like an archer who shoots at random.

11As a dog returns to its vomit, so a fool repeats his foolishness.

12There is more hope for fools than for people who think they are wise.

13The lazy person claims, "There's a lion on the road!
Yes, I'm sure there's a lion out there!"

14As a door swings back and forth on its hinges, so the lazy person turns over in bed.

15Lazy people take food in their hand but don't even lift it to their mouth.

16Lazy people consider themselves smarter than seven wise counselors.

17Interfering in someone else's argument is as foolish as yanking a dog's ears.

18Just as damaging as a madman shooting a deadly weapon

19is someone who lies to a friend and then says, "I was only joking."

20Fire goes out without wood, and quarrels disappear when gossip stops.

21A quarrelsome person starts fights as easily as hot embers light charcoal or fire lights wood.

22Rumors are dainty morsels that sink deep into one's heart.

23Smooth* words may hide a wicked heart, just as a pretty glaze covers a clay pot.

24People may cover their hatred with pleasant words, but they're deceiving you.

25They pretend to be kind, but don't believe them.
Their hearts are full of many evils.*

26While their hatred may be concealed by trickery, their wrongdoing will be exposed in public.

27If you set a trap for others, you will get caught in it yourself.
If you roll a boulder down on others, it will crush you instead.

28A lying tongue hates its victims, and flattering words cause ruin.

Proverbs 27

1Don't brag about tomorrow, since you don't know what the day will bring.

2Let someone else praise you, not your own mouth— a stranger, not your own lips.

3A stone is heavy and sand is weighty, but the resentment caused by a fool is even heavier.

4Anger is cruel, and wrath is like a flood, but jealousy is even more dangerous.

5An open rebuke is better than hidden love!

6Wounds from a sincere friend are better than many kisses from an enemy.

7A person who is full refuses honey, but even bitter food tastes sweet to the hungry.

8A person who strays from home is like a bird that strays from its nest.

9The heartfelt counsel of a friend is as sweet as perfume and incense.

10Never abandon a friend— either yours or your father's.
When disaster strikes, you won't have to ask your brother for assistance.
It's better to go to a neighbor than to a brother who lives far away.

11Be wise, my child,* and make my heart glad.
Then I will be able to answer my critics.

12A prudent person foresees danger and takes precautions.
The simpleton goes blindly on and suffers the consequences.

13Get security from someone who guarantees a stranger's debt.
Get a deposit if he does it for foreigners.*

14A loud and cheerful greeting early in the morning will be taken as a curse!

15A quarrelsome wife is as annoying as constant dripping on a rainy day.

16Stopping her complaints is like trying to stop the wind or trying to hold something with greased hands.

17As iron sharpens iron, so a friend sharpens a friend.

18As workers who tend a fig tree are allowed to eat the fruit, so workers who protect their employer's interests will be rewarded.

19As a face is reflected in water, so the heart reflects the real person.

20Just as Death and Destruction* are never satisfied, so human desire is never satisfied.

21Fire tests the purity of silver and gold, but a person is tested by being praised.*

22You cannot separate fools from their foolishness, even though you grind them like grain with mortar and pestle.

23Know the state of your flocks, and put your heart into caring for your herds,

24for riches don't last forever, and the crown might not be passed to the next generation.

25After the hay is harvested and the new crop appears and the mountain grasses are gathered in,

26your sheep will provide wool for clothing, and your goats will provide the price of a field.

27And you will have enough goats' milk for yourself, your family, and your servant girls.

Proverbs 28

1The wicked run away when no one is chasing them, but the godly are as bold as lions.

2When there is moral rot within a nation, its government topples easily.
But wise and knowledgeable leaders bring stability.

3A poor person who oppresses the poor is like a pounding rain that destroys the crops.

4To reject the law is to praise the wicked; to obey the law is to fight them.

5Evil people don't understand justice, but those who follow the LORD understand completely.

6Better to be poor and honest than to be dishonest and rich.

7Young people who obey the law are wise; those with wild friends bring shame to their parents.*

8Income from charging high interest rates will end up in the pocket of someone who is kind to the poor.

9God detests the prayers of a person who ignores the law.

10Those who lead good people along an evil path will fall into their own trap, but the honest will inherit good things.

11Rich people may think they are wise, but a poor person with discernment can see right through them.

12When the godly succeed, everyone is glad.
When the wicked take charge, people go into hiding.

13People who conceal their sins will not prosper, but if they confess and turn from them, they will receive mercy.

14Blessed are those who fear to do wrong,* but the stubborn are headed for serious trouble.

15A wicked ruler is as dangerous to the poor as a roaring lion or an attacking bear.

16A ruler with no understanding will oppress his people, but one who hates corruption will have a long life.

17A murderer's tormented conscience will drive him into the grave.
Don't protect him!

18The blameless will be rescued from harm, but the crooked will be suddenly destroyed.

19A hard worker has plenty of food, but a person who chases fantasies ends up in poverty.

20The trustworthy person will get a rich reward, but a person who wants quick riches will get into trouble.

21Showing partiality is never good, yet some will do wrong for a mere piece of bread.

22Greedy people try to get rich quick but don't realize they're headed for poverty.

23In the end, people appreciate honest criticism far more than flattery.

24Anyone who steals from his father and mother and says, "What's wrong with that?"
is no better than a murderer.

25Greed causes fighting; trusting the LORD leads to prosperity.

26Those who trust their own insight are foolish, but anyone who walks in wisdom is safe.

27Whoever gives to the poor will lack nothing, but those who close their eyes to poverty will be cursed.

28When the wicked take charge, people go into hiding.
When the wicked meet disaster, the godly flourish.

Proverbs 29

1Whoever stubbornly refuses to accept criticism will suddenly be destroyed beyond recovery.

2When the godly are in authority, the people rejoice.
But when the wicked are in power, they groan.

3The man who loves wisdom brings joy to his father, but if he hangs around with prostitutes, his wealth is wasted.

4A just king gives stability to his nation, but one who demands bribes destroys it.

5To flatter friends is to lay a trap for their feet.

6Evil people are trapped by sin, but the righteous escape, shouting for joy.

7The godly care about the rights of the poor; the wicked don't care at all.

8Mockers can get a whole town agitated, but the wise will calm anger.

9If a wise person takes a fool to court, there will be ranting and ridicule but no satisfaction.

10The bloodthirsty hate blameless people, but the upright seek to help them.*

11Fools vent their anger, but the wise quietly hold it back.

12If a ruler pays attention to liars, all his advisers will be wicked.

13The poor and the oppressor have this in common— the LORD gives sight to the eyes of both.

14If a king judges the poor fairly, his throne will last forever.

15To discipline a child produces wisdom, but a mother is disgraced by an undisciplined child.

16When the wicked are in authority, sin flourishes, but the godly will live to see their downfall.

17Discipline your children, and they will give you peace of mind and will make your heart glad.

18When people do not accept divine guidance, they run wild.
But whoever obeys the law is joyful.

19Words alone will not discipline a servant; the words may be understood, but they are not heeded.

20There is more hope for a fool than for someone who speaks without thinking.

21A servant pampered from childhood will become a rebel.

22An angry person starts fights; a hot-tempered person commits all kinds of sin.

23Pride ends in humiliation, while humility brings honor.

24If you assist a thief, you only hurt yourself.
You are sworn to tell the truth, but you dare not testify.

25Fearing people is a dangerous trap, but trusting the LORD means safety.

26Many seek the ruler's favor, but justice comes from the LORD.

27The righteous despise the unjust; the wicked despise the godly.

Proverbs 30

THE SAYINGS OF AGUR

1The sayings of Agur son of Jakeh contain this message.*

I am weary, O God; I am weary and worn out, O God.*

2I am too stupid to be human, and I lack common sense.

3I have not mastered human wisdom, nor do I know the Holy One.

4Who but God goes up to heaven and comes back down?
Who holds the wind in his fists?
Who wraps up the oceans in his cloak?
Who has created the whole wide world?
What is his name—and his son's name?
Tell me if you know!

5Every word of God proves true.
He is a shield to all who come to him for protection.

6Do not add to his words, or he may rebuke you and expose you as a liar.

7O God, I beg two favors from you; let me have them before I die.

8First, help me never to tell a lie.
Second, give me neither poverty nor riches!
Give me just enough to satisfy my needs.

9For if I grow rich, I may deny you and say, "Who is the LORD?"
And if I am too poor, I may steal and thus insult God's holy name.

10Never slander a worker to the employer, or the person will curse you, and you will pay for it.

11Some people curse their father and do not thank their mother.

12They are pure in their own eyes, but they are filthy and unwashed.

13They look proudly around, casting disdainful glances.

14They have teeth like swords and fangs like knives.
They devour the poor from the earth and the needy from among humanity.

15The leech has two suckers that cry out, "More, more!"*

There are three things that are never satisfied— no, four that never say, “Enough!”:

16the grave,*
the barren womb, the thirsty desert, the blazing fire.

17The eye that mocks a father and despises a mother’s instructions will be plucked out by ravens of the valley and eaten by vultures.

18There are three things that amaze me— no, four things that I don’t understand:

19how an eagle glides through the sky, how a snake slithers on a rock, how a ship navigates the ocean, how a man loves a woman.

20An adulterous woman consumes a man, then wipes her mouth and says, “What’s wrong with that?”

21There are three things that make the earth tremble— no, four it cannot endure:

22a slave who becomes a king, an overbearing fool who prospers,

23a bitter woman who finally gets a husband, a servant girl who supplants her mistress.

24There are four things on earth that are small but unusually wise:

25Ants—they aren’t strong, but they store up food all summer.

26Hyraxes*—they aren’t powerful, but they make their homes among the rocks.

27Locusts—they have no king, but they march in formation.

28Lizards—they are easy to catch, but they are found even in kings’ palaces.

29There are three things that walk with stately stride— no, four that strut about:

30the lion, king of animals, who won't turn aside for anything,

31the strutting rooster, the male goat, a king as he leads his army.

32If you have been a fool by being proud or plotting evil, cover your mouth in shame.

33As the beating of cream yields butter and striking the nose causes bleeding, so stirring up anger causes quarrels.

Proverbs 31

THE SAYINGS OF KING LEMUEL

1The sayings of King Lemuel contain this message,* which his mother taught him.

2O my son, O son of my womb, O son of my vows,

3do not waste your strength on women, on those who ruin kings.

4It is not for kings, O Lemuel, to guzzle wine.
Rulers should not crave alcohol.

5For if they drink, they may forget the law and not give justice to the oppressed.

6Alcohol is for the dying, and wine for those in bitter distress.

7Let them drink to forget their poverty and remember their troubles no more.

8Speak up for those who cannot speak for themselves; ensure justice for those being crushed.

9Yes, speak up for the poor and helpless, and see that they get justice.

A WIFE OF NOBLE CHARACTER

10* Who can find a virtuous and capable wife?

She is more precious than rubies.

11 Her husband can trust her, and she will greatly enrich his life.

12 She brings him good, not harm, all the days of her life.

13 She finds wool and flax and busily spins it.

14 She is like a merchant's ship, bringing her food from afar.

15 She gets up before dawn to prepare breakfast for her household and plan the day's work for her servant girls.

16 She goes to inspect a field and buys it; with her earnings she plants a vineyard.

17 She is energetic and strong, a hard worker.

18 She makes sure her dealings are profitable; her lamp burns late into the night.

19 Her hands are busy spinning thread, her fingers twisting fiber.

20 She extends a helping hand to the poor and opens her arms to the needy.

21 She has no fear of winter for her household, for everyone has warm* clothes.

22 She makes her own bedspreads.
She dresses in fine linen and purple gowns.

23 Her husband is well known at the city gates, where he sits with the other civic leaders.

24 She makes belted linen garments and sashes to sell to the merchants.

25 She is clothed with strength and dignity, and she laughs without fear of the future.

26 When she speaks, her words are wise, and she gives instructions with kindness.

27 She carefully watches everything in her household and suffers nothing from laziness.

28 Her children stand and bless her.
Her husband praises her:

29 "There are many virtuous and capable women in the world, but you surpass them all!"

30 Charm is deceptive, and beauty does not last; but a woman who fears the LORD will be greatly praised.

31 Reward her for all she has done.
Let her deeds publicly declare her praise.

Ecclesiastes

WELCOME TO

ECCLESIASTES

The book of Ecclesiastes gives us a close look at one man's desperate search for meaning and purpose in life, describing how the author, "the Teacher," has pursued meaning in every way imaginable. All of us wonder from time to time why we are here on earth. The Teacher searches for the answer to this question relentlessly, and his life shows that even extreme wealth, wisdom, popularity, and pleasure are ultimately meaningless. In the end, he realizes that those paths only lead to futility.

The book concludes with the only possible solution to life's puzzle: "Fear God and obey his commands, for this is everyone's duty" (12:13). Only when people turn from this world to God will they find true happiness. With him as our focal point, life has meaning and purpose; without him, nothing makes sense.

ON THE FLYOVER ROUTE: Ecclesiastes isn't a stop on your route through the Bible, so you may fly over it. Your next stop is at Isaiah 11:1.

1 STOP

ON THE DIRECT ROUTE: One short reading in Ecclesiastes—

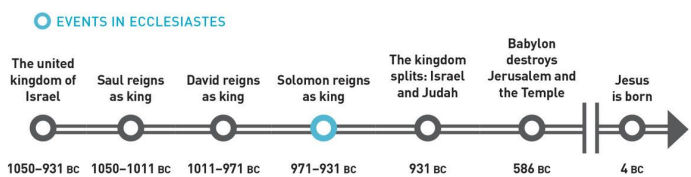
perhaps its most well-known passage—will give you an idea of the book's larger themes. Your next stop is at Ecclesiastes 3:1.

3 STOPS

ON THE SCENIC ROUTE: The three readings in Ecclesiastes will give you the highlights of the wisdom contained in this book: True meaning is found not in pleasure or earthly pursuits, but in a godly perspective. Your next stop is at Ecclesiastes 1:1.

FINDING JESUS IN ECCLESIASTES

Jesus is the answer to the question raised in Ecclesiastes: What is the meaning and purpose of life? We will find all of life meaningless and empty if we are not living for Jesus Christ. He alone gives life purpose and makes every activity under the sun worthwhile.
Jesus, when he came here to earth, put it this way. He said, “Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world” (John 16:33). We may live in a world where everything is meaningless under the sun, but Jesus came to this world too and lived under the sun with us. He brought with him a peace and a hope that the world could not give, so we don’t have to live in despair.



Ecclesiastes 1

1These are the words of the Teacher,* King David's son, who ruled in Jerusalem.

EVERYTHING IS MEANINGLESS

2"Everything is meaningless," says the Teacher, "completely meaningless!"

3What do people get for all their hard work under the sun?
4Generations come and generations go, but the earth never changes.
5The sun rises and the sun sets, then hurries around to rise again.
6The wind blows south, and then turns north. Around and around it goes, blowing in circles. 7Rivers run into the sea, but the sea is never full. Then the water returns again to the rivers and flows out again to the sea. 8Everything is wearisome beyond description. No matter how much we see, we are never satisfied. No matter how much we hear, we are not content.

9History merely repeats itself. It has all been done before. Nothing under the sun is truly new. 10Sometimes people say, “Here is something new!” But actually it is old; nothing is ever truly new.

11We don’t remember what happened in the past, and in future generations, no one will remember what we are doing now.

THE TEACHER SPEAKS: THE FUTILITY OF WISDOM

12I, the Teacher, was king of Israel, and I lived in Jerusalem. 13I devoted myself to search for understanding and to explore by wisdom everything being done under heaven. I soon discovered that God has dealt a tragic existence to the human race. 14I observed everything going on under the sun, and really, it is all meaningless —like chasing the wind.

15What is wrong cannot be made right.
What is missing cannot be recovered.

16I said to myself, “Look, I am wiser than any of the kings who ruled in Jerusalem before me. I have greater wisdom and knowledge than any of them.” 17So I set out to learn everything from wisdom to madness and folly. But I learned firsthand that pursuing all this is like chasing the wind.

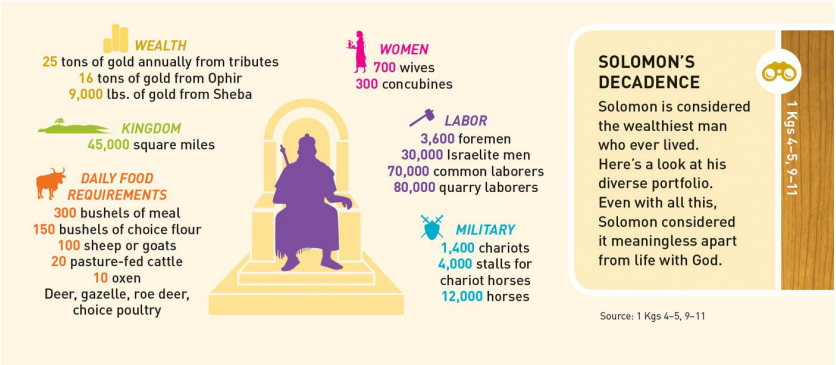
18The greater my wisdom, the greater my grief.
To increase knowledge only increases sorrow.



SOLOMON'S DECADENCE

Ecclesiastes 2

THE FUTILITY OF PLEASURE

1I said to myself, "Come on, let's try pleasure. Let's look for the 'good things' in life." But I found that this, too, was meaningless.
2So I said, "Laughter is silly. What good does it do to seek pleasure?" 3After much thought, I decided to cheer myself with wine. And while still seeking wisdom, I clutched at foolishness. In this way, I tried to experience the only happiness most people find during their brief life in this world.

4I also tried to find meaning by building huge homes for myself and by planting beautiful vineyards. 5I made gardens and parks, filling them with all kinds of fruit trees. 6I built reservoirs to collect the water to irrigate my many flourishing groves. 7I bought slaves, both men and women, and others were born into my household. I also owned large herds and flocks, more than any of the kings who had lived in Jerusalem before me. 8I collected great sums of silver and gold, the treasure of many kings and provinces. I hired wonderful singers, both men and women, and had many beautiful concubines.
I had everything a man could desire!

9So I became greater than all who had lived in Jerusalem before me, and my wisdom never failed me. 10Anything I wanted, I would take. I denied myself no pleasure. I even found great pleasure in hard work, a reward for all my labors. 11But as I looked at everything I had worked so hard to accomplish, it was all so meaningless—like chasing the wind. There was nothing really worthwhile anywhere.

THE WISE AND THE FOOLISH

12So I decided to compare wisdom with foolishness and madness (for who can do this better than I, the king?*). 13I thought, "Wisdom is better than foolishness, just as light is better than darkness. 14For the wise can see where they are going, but fools walk in the dark." Yet I saw that the wise and the foolish share the same fate. 15Both will die. So I said to myself, "Since I will end up the same as the fool, what's the value of all my wisdom? This is all so meaningless!" 16For the wise and the foolish both die. The wise will not be remembered any longer than the fool. In the days to come, both will be forgotten.

17So I came to hate life because everything done here under the sun is so troubling. Everything is meaningless—like chasing the wind.

THE FUTILITY OF WORK

18I came to hate all my hard work here on earth, for I must leave to others everything I have earned. 19And who can tell whether my successors will be wise or foolish? Yet they will control everything I have gained by my skill and hard work under the sun. How meaningless! 20So I gave up in despair, questioning the value of all my hard work in this world.

21Some people work wisely with knowledge and skill, then must leave the fruit of their efforts to someone who hasn't worked for it. This, too, is meaningless, a great tragedy. 22So what do people get in this life for all their hard work and anxiety? 23Their days of labor are filled with pain and grief; even at night their minds cannot rest.

It is all meaningless.

24So I decided there is nothing better than to enjoy food and drink and to find satisfaction in work. Then I realized that these pleasures are from the hand of God. 25For who can eat or enjoy anything apart from him?*26God gives wisdom, knowledge, and joy to those who please him. But if a sinner becomes wealthy, God takes the wealth away and gives it to those who please him. This, too, is meaningless—like chasing the wind.

Ecclesiastes 3

A TIME FOR EVERYTHING

1For everything there is a season, a time for every activity under heaven.

2A time to be born and a time to die.
A time to plant and a time to harvest.

3A time to kill and a time to heal.
A time to tear down and a time to build up.

4A time to cry and a time to laugh.
A time to grieve and a time to dance.

5A time to scatter stones and a time to gather stones.
A time to embrace and a time to turn away.

6A time to search and a time to quit searching.
A time to keep and a time to throw away.

7A time to tear and a time to mend.
A time to be quiet and a time to speak.

8A time to love and a time to hate.
A time for war and a time for peace.

9What do people really get for all their hard work? 10I have seen the burden God has placed on us all. 11Yet God has made everything beautiful for its own time. He has planted eternity in the human heart, but even so, people cannot see the whole scope of God's work from beginning to end. 12So I concluded there is nothing better than to be happy and enjoy ourselves as long as we can. 13And people should eat and drink and enjoy the fruits of their labor, for these are gifts from God.

14And I know that whatever God does is final. Nothing can be added to it or taken from it. God's purpose is that people should fear him. 15What is happening now has happened before, and what will happen in the future has happened before, because God makes the same things happen over and over again.

THE INJUSTICES OF LIFE

16I also noticed that under the sun there is evil in the courtroom. Yes, even the courts of law are corrupt! 17I said to myself, "In due season God will judge everyone, both good and bad, for all their deeds."

18I also thought about the human condition—how God proves to people that they are like animals. 19For people and animals share the same fate—both breathe* and both must die. So people have no real advantage over the animals. How meaningless! 20Both go to the same place—they came from dust and they return to dust. 21For who can prove that the human spirit goes up and the spirit of animals goes down into the earth? 22So I saw that there is nothing better for people than to be happy in their work. That is our lot in life. And no one can bring us back to see what happens after we die.

Ecclesiastes 4

1Again, I observed all the oppression that takes place under the sun.
I saw the tears of the oppressed, with no one to comfort them. The oppressors have great power, and their victims are helpless. 2So I concluded that the dead are better off than the living. 3But most fortunate of all are those who are not yet born. For they have not seen all the evil that is done under the sun.

4Then I observed that most people are motivated to success because they envy their neighbors. But this, too, is meaningless—like chasing the wind.

5"Fools fold their idle hands, leading them to ruin."

6And yet, "Better to have one handful with quietness than two handfuls with hard work and chasing the wind."

THE ADVANTAGES OF COMPANIONSHIP

7I observed yet another example of something meaningless under the sun. 8This is the case of a man who is all alone, without a child or a brother, yet who works hard to gain as much wealth as he can.
But then he asks himself, "Who am I working for? Why am I giving up so much pleasure now?" It is all so meaningless and depressing.

9Two people are better off than one, for they can help each other succeed. 10If one person falls, the other can reach out and help. But someone who falls alone is in real trouble. 11Likewise, two people lying close together can keep each other warm. But how can one be warm alone? 12A person standing alone can be attacked and defeated, but two can stand back-to-back and conquer. Three are even better, for a triple-braided cord is not easily broken.

THE FUTILITY OF POLITICAL POWER

13It is better to be a poor but wise youth than an old and foolish king who refuses all advice. 14Such a youth could rise from poverty and succeed. He might even become king, though he has been in prison. 15But then everyone rushes to the side of yet another youth* who replaces him. 16Endless crowds stand around him,* but then another generation grows up and rejects him, too. So it is all meaningless—like chasing the wind.

Ecclesiastes 5

APPROACHING GOD WITH CARE

1*As you enter the house of God, keep your ears open and your mouth shut. It is evil to make mindless offerings to God. 2*Don't make rash promises, and don't be hasty in bringing matters before God. After all, God is in heaven, and you are here on earth. So let your words be few.

3Too much activity gives you restless dreams; too many words make you a fool.

4When you make a promise to God, don't delay in following through, for God takes no pleasure in fools. Keep all the promises you make to him. 5It is better to say nothing than to make a promise and not keep it. 6Don't let your mouth make you sin. And don't defend yourself by telling the Temple messenger that the promise you made was a mistake. That would make God angry, and he might wipe out everything you have achieved.

7Talk is cheap, like daydreams and other useless activities. Fear God instead.

THE FUTILITY OF WEALTH

8Don't be surprised if you see a poor person being oppressed by the powerful and if justice is being miscarried throughout the land. For every official is under orders from higher up, and matters of justice get lost in red tape and bureaucracy. 9Even the king milks the land for his own profit!*

10Those who love money will never have enough. How meaningless to think that wealth brings true happiness! 11The more you have, the more people come to help you spend it. So what good is wealth —except perhaps to watch it slip through your fingers!

12People who work hard sleep well, whether they eat little or much. But the rich seldom get a good night's sleep.

13There is another serious problem I have seen under the sun. Hoarding riches harms the saver. 14Money is put into risky investments that turn sour, and everything is lost. In the end, there is nothing left to pass on to one's children. 15We all come to the end of our lives as naked and empty-handed as on the day we were born. We can't take our riches with us.

16And this, too, is a very serious problem. People leave this world no better off than when they came. All their hard work is for nothing—like working for the wind. 17Throughout their lives, they live under a cloud—frustrated, discouraged, and angry.

18Even so, I have noticed one thing, at least, that is good. It is good for people to eat, drink, and enjoy their work under the sun during the short life God has given them, and to accept their lot in life.

19And it is a good thing to receive wealth from God and the good health to enjoy it. To enjoy your work and accept your lot in life—this is indeed a gift from God. 20God keeps such people so busy enjoying life that they take no time to brood over the past.

Ecclesiastes 6

1There is another serious tragedy I have seen under the sun, and it weighs heavily on humanity. 2God gives some people great wealth and honor and everything they could ever want, but then he doesn't give them the chance to enjoy these things. They die, and someone else, even a stranger, ends up enjoying their wealth! This is meaningless—a sickening tragedy.

3A man might have a hundred children and live to be very old. But if he finds no satisfaction in life and doesn't even get a decent burial, it would have been better for him to be born dead. 4His birth would have been meaningless, and he would have ended in darkness. He wouldn't even have had a name, 5and he would never have seen the sun or known of its existence. Yet he would have had more peace than in growing up to be an unhappy man. 6He might live a thousand years twice over but still not find contentment. And since he must die like everyone else—well, what's the use?

7All people spend their lives scratching for food, but they never seem to have enough. 8So are wise people really better off than fools? Do poor people gain anything by being wise and knowing how to act in front of others?

9Enjoy what you have rather than desiring what you don't have.
Just dreaming about nice things is meaningless—like chasing the wind.

THE FUTURE—DETERMINED AND UNKNOWN

10Everything has already been decided. It was known long ago what each person would be. So there's no use arguing with God about your destiny.

11The more words you speak, the less they mean. So what good are they?

12In the few days of our meaningless lives, who knows how our days can best be spent? Our lives are like a shadow. Who can tell what will happen on this earth after we are gone?

Ecclesiastes 7

WISDOM FOR LIFE

1A good reputation is more valuable than costly perfume.
And the day you die is better than the day you are born.

2Better to spend your time at funerals than at parties.
After all, everyone dies— so the living should take this to heart.

3Sorrow is better than laughter, for sadness has a refining influence on us.

4A wise person thinks a lot about death, while a fool thinks only about having a good time.

5Better to be criticized by a wise person than to be praised by a fool.

6A fool's laughter is quickly gone, like thorns crackling in a fire.
This also is meaningless.

7Extortion turns wise people into fools, and bribes corrupt the heart.

8Finishing is better than starting.
Patience is better than pride.

9Control your temper, for anger labels you a fool.

10Don't long for "the good old days."
This is not wise.

11Wisdom is even better when you have money.
Both are a benefit as you go through life.

12Wisdom and money can get you almost anything, but only wisdom can save your life.

13Accept the way God does things, for who can straighten what he has made crooked?

14Enjoy prosperity while you can, but when hard times strike, realize that both come from God.
Remember that nothing is certain in this life.

THE LIMITS OF HUMAN WISDOM

15I have seen everything in this meaningless life, including the death of good young people and the long life of wicked people. 16So don't be too good or too wise! Why destroy yourself? 17On the other hand, don't be too wicked either. Don't be a fool! Why die before your time? 18Pay attention to these instructions, for anyone who fears God will avoid both extremes.*

19One wise person is stronger than ten leading citizens of a town!

20Not a single person on earth is always good and never sins.

21Don't eavesdrop on others—you may hear your servant curse you.
22For you know how often you yourself have cursed others.

23I have always tried my best to let wisdom guide my thoughts and actions. I said to myself, "I am determined to be wise." But it didn't work. 24Wisdom is always distant and difficult to find. 25I searched everywhere, determined to find wisdom and to understand the reason for things. I was determined to prove to myself that wickedness is stupid and that foolishness is madness.

26I discovered that a seductive woman* is a trap more bitter than death. Her passion is a snare, and her soft hands are chains. Those who are pleasing to God will escape her, but sinners will be caught in her snare.

27"This is my conclusion," says the Teacher. "I discovered this after looking at the matter from every possible angle. 28Though I have searched repeatedly, I have not found what I was looking for. Only one out of a thousand men is virtuous, but not one woman! 29But I did find this: God created people to be virtuous, but they have each turned to follow their own downward path."

Ecclesiastes 8

1How wonderful to be wise, to analyze and interpret things. Wisdom lights up a person's face, softening its harshness.

OBEDIENCE TO THE KING

2Obey the king since you vowed to God that you would. 3Don't try to avoid doing your duty, and don't stand with those who plot evil, for the king can do whatever he wants. 4His command is backed by great power. No one can resist or question it. 5Those who obey him will not be punished. Those who are wise will find a time and a way to do what is right, 6for there is a time and a way for everything, even when a person is in trouble.

7Indeed, how can people avoid what they don't know is going to happen? 8None of us can hold back our spirit from departing. None of us has the power to prevent the day of our death. There is no escaping that obligation, that dark battle. And in the face of death, wickedness will certainly not rescue the wicked.

THE WICKED AND THE RIGHTEOUS

9I have thought deeply about all that goes on here under the sun, where people have the power to hurt each other. 10I have seen wicked people buried with honor. Yet they were the very ones who frequented the Temple and are now praised* in the same city where they committed their crimes! This, too, is meaningless. 11When a crime is not punished quickly, people feel it is safe to do wrong.
12But even though a person sins a hundred times and still lives a long time, I know that those who fear God will be better off. 13The wicked will not prosper, for they do not fear God. Their days will never grow long like the evening shadows.

14And this is not all that is meaningless in our world. In this life, good people are often treated as though they were wicked, and wicked people are often treated as though they were good. This is so meaningless!

15So I recommend having fun, because there is nothing better for people in this world than to eat, drink, and enjoy life. That way they will experience some happiness along with all the hard work God gives them under the sun.

16In my search for wisdom and in my observation of people's burdens here on earth, I discovered that there is ceaseless activity, day and night. 17I realized that no one can discover everything God is doing under the sun. Not even the wisest people discover everything, no matter what they claim.

Ecclesiastes 9

DEATH COMES TO ALL

1This, too, I carefully explored: Even though the actions of godly and wise people are in God's hands, no one knows whether God will show them favor. 2The same destiny ultimately awaits everyone, whether righteous or wicked, good or bad,* ceremonially clean or unclean, religious or irreligious. Good people receive the same treatment as sinners, and people who make promises to God are treated like people who don't.

3It seems so wrong that everyone under the sun suffers the same fate. Already twisted by evil, people choose their own mad course, for they have no hope. There is nothing ahead but death anyway. 4There is hope only for the living. As they say, "It's better to be a live dog than a dead lion!"

5The living at least know they will die, but the dead know nothing. They have no further reward, nor are they remembered. 6Whatever they did in their lifetime—loving, hating, envying—is all long gone. They no longer play a part in anything here on earth. 7So go ahead. Eat your food with joy, and drink your wine with a happy heart, for God approves of this! 8Wear fine clothes, with a splash of cologne!

9Live happily with the woman you love through all the meaningless days of life that God has given you under the sun. The wife God gives you is your reward for all your earthly toil. 10Whatever you do, do well. For when you go to the grave,* there will be no work or planning or knowledge or wisdom.

11I have observed something else under the sun. The fastest runner doesn't always win the race, and the strongest warrior doesn't always win the battle. The wise sometimes go hungry, and the skillful are not necessarily wealthy. And those who are educated don't always lead successful lives. It is all decided by chance, by being in the right place at the right time.

12People can never predict when hard times might come. Like fish in a net or birds in a trap, people are caught by sudden tragedy.

THOUGHTS ON WISDOM AND FOLLY

13Here is another bit of wisdom that has impressed me as I have watched the way our world works. 14There was a small town with only a few people, and a great king came with his army and besieged it. 15A poor, wise man knew how to save the town, and so it was rescued. But afterward no one thought to thank him. 16So even though wisdom is better than strength, those who are wise will be despised if they are poor. What they say will not be appreciated for long.

17Better to hear the quiet words of a wise person than the shouts of a foolish king.

18Better to have wisdom than weapons of war, but one sinner can destroy much that is good.

Ecclesiastes 10

1As dead flies cause even a bottle of perfume to stink, so a little foolishness spoils great wisdom and honor.

2A wise person chooses the right road; a fool takes the wrong one.

3You can identify fools just by the way they walk down the street!

4If your boss is angry at you, don't quit!
A quiet spirit can overcome even great mistakes.

THE IRONIES OF LIFE

5There is another evil I have seen under the sun. Kings and rulers make a grave mistake 6when they give great authority to foolish people and low positions to people of proven worth. 7I have even seen servants riding horseback like princes—and princes walking like servants!

8When you dig a well, you might fall in.
When you demolish an old wall, you could be bitten by a snake.

9When you work in a quarry, stones might fall and crush you.

When you chop wood, there is danger with each stroke of your ax.

10Using a dull ax requires great strength, so sharpen the blade.
That's the value of wisdom; it helps you succeed.

11If a snake bites before you charm it, what's the use of being a snake charmer?

12Wise words bring approval, but fools are destroyed by their own words.

13Fools base their thoughts on foolish assumptions, so their conclusions will be wicked madness;

14they chatter on and on.
No one really knows what is going to happen; no one can predict the future.

15Fools are so exhausted by a little work that they can't even find their way home.

16What sorrow for the land ruled by a servant,*
the land whose leaders feast in the morning.

17Happy is the land whose king is a noble leader and whose leaders feast at the proper time to gain strength for their work, not to get drunk.

18Laziness leads to a sagging roof; idleness leads to a leaky house.

19A party gives laughter, wine gives happiness, and money gives everything!

20Never make light of the king, even in your thoughts.
And don't make fun of the powerful, even in your own bedroom.
For a little bird might deliver your message and tell them what you said.

Ecclesiastes 11

THE UNCERTAINTIES OF LIFE

1Send your grain across the seas, and in time, profits will flow back to you.*

2But divide your investments among many places,*
for you do not know what risks might lie ahead.

3When clouds are heavy, the rains come down.
Whether a tree falls north or south, it stays where it falls.

4Farmers who wait for perfect weather never plant.
If they watch every cloud, they never harvest.

5Just as you cannot understand the path of the wind or the mystery of a tiny baby growing in its mother's womb,* so you cannot understand the activity of God, who does all things.

6Plant your seed in the morning and keep busy all afternoon, for you don't know if profit will come from one activity or another—or maybe both.

ADVICE FOR YOUNG AND OLD

7Light is sweet; how pleasant to see a new day dawning.

8When people live to be very old, let them rejoice in every day of life. But let them also remember there will be many dark days.
Everything still to come is meaningless.

9Young people,* it's wonderful to be young! Enjoy every minute of it. Do everything you want to do; take it all in. But remember that you must give an account to God for everything you do. 10So refuse to worry, and keep your body healthy. But remember that youth, with a whole life before you, is meaningless.

Ecclesiastes 12

1Don't let the excitement of youth cause you to forget your Creator.
Honor him in your youth before you grow old and say, "Life is not pleasant anymore." 2Remember him before the light of the sun, moon, and stars is dim to your old eyes, and rain clouds continually darken your sky. 3Remember him before your legs—the guards of your house—start to tremble; and before your shoulders—the strong men—stoop. Remember him before your teeth—your few remaining servants—stop grinding; and before your eyes—the women looking through the windows—see dimly.

4Remember him before the door to life's opportunities is closed and the sound of work fades. Now you rise at the first chirping of the birds, but then all their sounds will grow faint.

5Remember him before you become fearful of falling and worry about danger in the streets; before your hair turns white like an almond tree in bloom, and you drag along without energy like a dying grasshopper, and the caperberry no longer inspires sexual desire. Remember him before you near the grave, your everlasting home, when the mourners will weep at your funeral.

6Yes, remember your Creator now while you are young, before the silver cord of life snaps and the golden bowl is broken. Don't wait until the water jar is smashed at the spring and the pulley is broken at the well. 7For then the dust will return to the earth, and the spirit will return to God who gave it.

CONCLUDING THOUGHTS ABOUT THE TEACHER

8"Everything is meaningless," says the Teacher, "completely meaningless."

9Keep this in mind: The Teacher was considered wise, and he taught the people everything he knew. He listened carefully to many proverbs, studying and classifying them. 10The Teacher sought to find just the right words to express truths clearly.*

11The words of the wise are like cattle prods—painful but helpful.
Their collected sayings are like a nail-studded stick with which a shepherd* drives the sheep.

12But, my child,* let me give you some further advice: Be careful, for writing books is endless, and much study wears you out.

13That's the whole story. Here now is my final conclusion: Fear God and obey his commands, for this is everyone's duty. 14God will judge us for everything we do, including every secret thing, whether good or bad.

Song of Songs

Introduction 1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8

WELCOME TO

SONG OF SONGS

The Song of Songs has all the elements of a great love story: lovers, friends, tension, passion, and desire. The story is told like a musical, consisting of a series of songs. It is a simple but moving piece, describing the longing of two lovers for each other, their struggle to overcome obstacles and problems, the tender feelings awakened by their love, and the joy that they find in being together. The songs have parts for two characters and a choir: the young man, his beloved, and the women of Jerusalem.

The Song of Songs portrays love as beautiful and pure: a relationship full of unselfishness and restraint, culminating in a commitment of marriage. This is love at its best, the way God meant it to be.

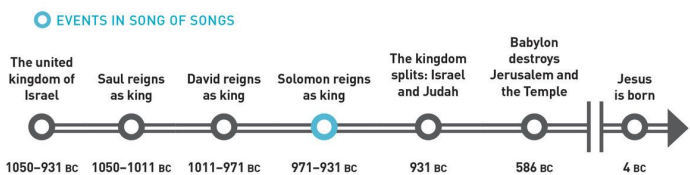
FINDING JESUS IN SONG OF SONGS

In this beautiful poem, Jesus' love for his people is illustrated both by the love between a man and a woman and by their marriage. Because he loves us and wants to have a relationship with us, God passionately pursues his people. Jesus is the bridegroom, and the people of God are his bride.



Song of Songs 1

1This is Solomon’s song of songs, more wonderful than any other.

*Young Woman

2Kiss me and kiss me again, for your love is sweeter than wine.

3How fragrant your cologne; your name is like its spreading fragrance.
No wonder all the young women love you!

4Take me with you; come, let’s run!
The king has brought me into his bedroom.

Young Women of Jerusalem

How happy we are for you, O king.

We praise your love even more than wine.

Young Woman

How right they are to adore you.

5I am dark but beautiful, O women of Jerusalem— dark as the tents of Kedar, dark as the curtains of Solomon's tents.

6Don't stare at me because I am dark— the sun has darkened my skin.
My brothers were angry with me;
they forced me to care for their vineyards, so I couldn't care for myself—my own vineyard.

7Tell me, my love, where are you leading your flock today?
Where will you rest your sheep at noon?
For why should I wander like a prostitute* among your friends and their flocks?

Young Man

8If you don't know, O most beautiful woman, follow the trail of my flock, and graze your young goats by the shepherds' tents.

9You are as exciting, my darling, as a mare among Pharaoh's stallions.

10How lovely are your cheeks; your earrings set them afire!
How lovely is your neck, enhanced by a string of jewels.

11We will make for you earrings of gold and beads of silver.

Young Woman

12The king is lying on his couch, enchanted by the fragrance of my perfume.

13My lover is like a sachet of myrrh lying between my breasts.

14He is like a bouquet of sweet henna blossoms from the vineyards of En-gedi.

Young Man

15How beautiful you are, my darling, how beautiful!

Your eyes are like doves.

Young Woman

16You are so handsome, my love, pleasing beyond words!

The soft grass is our bed;

17fragrant cedar branches are the beams of our house, and pleasant smelling firs are the rafters.

THE SHARON PLAIN

Song of Songs 2

Young Woman

1 I am the spring crocus blooming on the Sharon Plain,*
the lily of the valley.

Young Man

2 Like a lily among thistles is my darling among young women.

Young Woman

3 Like the finest apple tree in the orchard is my lover among other young men.

I sit in his delightful shade and taste his delicious fruit.

4He escorts me to the banquet hall; it's obvious how much he loves me.

5Strengthen me with raisin cakes, refresh me with apples, for I am weak with love.

6His left arm is under my head, and his right arm embraces me.

7Promise me, O women of Jerusalem, by the gazelles and wild deer,
not to awaken love until the time is right.*

8Ah, I hear my lover coming!
He is leaping over the mountains, bounding over the hills.

9My lover is like a swift gazelle or a young stag.
Look, there he is behind the wall, looking through the window, peering into the room.

10My lover said to me, "Rise up, my darling!
Come away with me, my fair one!

11Look, the winter is past, and the rains are over and gone.

12The flowers are springing up, the season of singing birds* has come, and the cooing of turtledoves fills the air.

13The fig trees are forming young fruit, and the fragrant grapevines are blossoming.
Rise up, my darling!
Come away with me, my fair one!"

Young Man

14My dove is hiding behind the rocks, behind an outcrop on the cliff.

Let me see your face;
let me hear your voice.
For your voice is pleasant, and your face is lovely.

Young Women of Jerusalem

15Catch all the foxes,

those little foxes,
before they ruin the vineyard of love, for the grapevines are blossoming!

Young Woman

16My lover is mine, and I am his.

He browses among the lilies.

17Before the dawn breezes blow and the night shadows flee, return to me, my love, like a gazelle or a young stag on the rugged mountains.*

Song of Songs 3

Young Woman

1One night as I lay in bed, I yearned for my lover.
I yearned for him, but he did not come.

2So I said to myself, “I will get up and roam the city, searching in all its streets and squares.

I will search for the one I love.”
So I searched everywhere but did not find him.

3The watchmen stopped me as they made their rounds, and I asked,
“Have you seen the one I love?”

4Then scarcely had I left them when I found my love!
I caught and held him tightly,
then I brought him to my mother’s house, into my mother’s bed, where I had been conceived.

5Promise me, O women of Jerusalem, by the gazelles and wild deer,
not to awaken love until the time is right.*

Young Women of Jerusalem

6Who is this sweeping in from the wilderness like a cloud of smoke?

Who is it, fragrant with myrrh and frankincense and every kind of spice?

7Look, it is Solomon’s carriage, surrounded by sixty heroic men, the best of Israel’s soldiers.

8They are all skilled swordsmen, experienced warriors.
Each wears a sword on his thigh, ready to defend the king against an attack in the night.

9King Solomon’s carriage is built of wood imported from Lebanon.

10Its posts are silver, its canopy gold;
its cushions are purple.
It was decorated with love
by the young women of Jerusalem.

Young Woman

11Come out to see King Solomon,

young women of Jerusalem.*
He wears the crown his mother gave him on his wedding day, his most joyous day.

GOD LOVES YOU SONG OF SONGS 4:1-15

Song of Songs 4

Young Man

1You are beautiful, my darling, beautiful beyond words.
Your eyes are like doves
behind your veil.
Your hair falls in waves,
like a flock of goats winding down the slopes of Gilead.

2Your teeth are as white as sheep, recently shorn and freshly washed.
Your smile is flawless,
each tooth matched with its twin.*

3Your lips are like scarlet ribbon; your mouth is inviting.
Your cheeks are like rosy pomegranates
behind your veil.

4Your neck is as beautiful as the tower of David, jeweled with the shields of a thousand heroes.

5Your breasts are like two fawns, twin fawns of a gazelle grazing among the lilies.

6Before the dawn breezes blow and the night shadows flee,
I will hurry to the mountain of myrrh and to the hill of frankincense.

7You are altogether beautiful, my darling, beautiful in every way.

8Come with me from Lebanon, my bride, come with me from Lebanon.
Come down* from Mount Amana, from the peaks of Senir and Hermon, where the lions have their dens and leopards live among the hills.

9You have captured my heart, my treasure,* my bride.
You hold it hostage with one glance of your eyes, with a single jewel of your necklace.

10Your love delights me, my treasure, my bride.
Your love is better than wine, your perfume more fragrant than spices.

11Your lips are as sweet as nectar, my bride.
Honey and milk are under your tongue.
Your clothes are scented like the cedars of Lebanon.

12You are my private garden, my treasure, my bride, a secluded spring, a hidden fountain.

13Your thighs shelter a paradise of pomegranates with rare spices—henna with nard,

14nard and saffron, fragrant calamus and cinnamon, with all the trees of frankincense, myrrh, and aloes, and every other lovely spice.

15You are a garden fountain, a well of fresh water streaming down from Lebanon’s mountains.

Young Woman

16Awake, north wind!

Rise up, south wind!

Blow on my garden
and spread its fragrance all around.
Come into your garden, my love;
taste its finest fruits.

Song of Songs 5

Young Man

1 I have entered my garden, my treasure,* my bride!
I gather myrrh with my spices and eat honeycomb with my honey.
I drink wine with my milk.

Young Women of Jerusalem

Oh, lover and beloved, eat and drink!

Yes, drink deeply of your love!

Young Woman

2 I slept, but my heart was awake, when I heard my lover knocking and calling: “Open to me, my treasure, my darling, my dove, my perfect one.

My head is drenched with dew,
my hair with the dampness of the night.”

3 But I responded, “I have taken off my robe.
Should I get dressed again?
I have washed my feet.
Should I get them soiled?”

4 My lover tried to unlatch the door, and my heart thrilled within me.

5 I jumped up to open the door for my love, and my hands dripped with perfume.
My fingers dripped with lovely myrrh

as I pulled back the bolt.

6I opened to my lover, but he was gone!
My heart sank.
I searched for him
but could not find him anywhere.
I called to him,
but there was no reply.

7The night watchmen found me as they made their rounds.
They beat and bruised me and stripped off my veil, those watchmen on the walls.

8Make this promise, O women of Jerusalem— If you find my lover, tell him I am weak with love.

Young Women of Jerusalem

9Why is your lover better than all others,

O woman of rare beauty?
What makes your lover so special that we must promise this?

Young Woman

10My lover is dark and dazzling, better than ten thousand others!

11His head is finest gold, his wavy hair is black as a raven.

12His eyes sparkle like doves beside springs of water;
they are set like jewels washed in milk.

13His cheeks are like gardens of spices giving off fragrance.
His lips are like lilies, perfumed with myrrh.

14His arms are like rounded bars of gold, set with beryl.

His body is like bright ivory, glowing with lapis lazuli.

15His legs are like marble pillars set in sockets of finest gold.
His posture is stately, like the noble cedars of Lebanon.

16His mouth is sweetness itself; he is desirable in every way.
Such, O women of Jerusalem, is my lover, my friend.

Song of Songs 6

Young Women of Jerusalem

1Where has your lover gone, O woman of rare beauty?
Which way did he turn so we can help you find him?

Young Woman

2My lover has gone down to his garden, to his spice beds,

to browse in the gardens and gather the lilies.

3I am my lover's, and my lover is mine.
He browses among the lilies.

Young Man

4You are beautiful, my darling, like the lovely city of Tirzah.

Yes, as beautiful as Jerusalem,
as majestic as an army with billowing banners.

5Turn your eyes away, for they overpower me.
Your hair falls in waves,
like a flock of goats winding down the slopes of Gilead.

6Your teeth are as white as sheep that are freshly washed.
Your smile is flawless,
each tooth matched with its twin.*

7Your cheeks are like rosy pomegranates behind your veil.

8Even among sixty queens and eighty concubines and countless young women,

9I would still choose my dove, my perfect one— the favorite of her mother, dearly loved by the one who bore her.
The young women see her and praise her;
even queens and royal concubines sing her praises:

10"Who is this, arising like the dawn, as fair as the moon, as bright as the sun,
as majestic as an army with billowing banners?"

Young Woman

11I went down to the grove of walnut trees and out to the valley to see the new spring growth, to see whether the grapevines had budded or the pomegranates were in bloom.

12Before I realized it, my strong desires had taken me to the chariot of a noble man.*

Young Women of Jerusalem

13*Return, return to us, O maid of Shulam.

Come back, come back, that we may see you again.

Young Man

Why do you stare at this young woman of Shulam, as she moves so gracefully between two lines of dancers?*

Song of Songs 7

1*How beautiful are your sandaled feet, O queenly maiden.
Your rounded thighs are like jewels,
the work of a skilled craftsman.

2Your navel is perfectly formed like a goblet filled with mixed wine.
Between your thighs lies a mound of wheat bordered with lilies.

3Your breasts are like two fawns, twin fawns of a gazelle.

4Your neck is as beautiful as an ivory tower.
Your eyes are like the sparkling pools in Heshbon by the gate of Bath-rabbim.
Your nose is as fine as the tower of Lebanon overlooking Damascus.

5Your head is as majestic as Mount Carmel, and the sheen of your hair radiates royalty.
The king is held captive by its tresses.

6Oh, how beautiful you are!
How pleasing, my love, how full of delights!

7You are slender like a palm tree, and your breasts are like its clusters of fruit.

8I said, “I will climb the palm tree and take hold of its fruit.”
May your breasts be like grape clusters, and the fragrance of your breath like apples.

9May your kisses be as exciting as the best wine— Young Woman

Yes, wine that goes down smoothly for my lover, flowing gently over lips and teeth.*

10I am my lover's, and he claims me as his own.

11Come, my love, let us go out to the fields and spend the night among the wildflowers.*

12Let us get up early and go to the vineyards to see if the grapevines have budded,
if the blossoms have opened,
and if the pomegranates have bloomed.
There I will give you my love.

13There the mandrakes give off their fragrance, and the finest fruits are at our door,
new delights as well as old,
which I have saved for you, my lover.

Song of Songs 8

Young Woman

1Oh, I wish you were my brother, who nursed at my mother's breasts.
Then I could kiss you no matter who was watching, and no one would criticize me.

2I would bring you to my childhood home, and there you would teach me.*
I would give you spiced wine to drink,
my sweet pomegranate wine.

3Your left arm would be under my head, and your right arm would embrace me.

4Promise me, O women of Jerusalem, not to awaken love until the time is right.*

Young Women of Jerusalem

5Who is this sweeping in from the desert, leaning on her lover?

Young Woman

I aroused you under the apple tree, where your mother gave you birth,

where in great pain she delivered you.

6Place me like a seal over your heart, like a seal on your arm.
For love is as strong as death, its jealousy* as enduring as the grave.*
Love flashes like fire,
the brightest kind of flame.

7Many waters cannot quench love, nor can rivers drown it.
If a man tried to buy love with all his wealth, his offer would be utterly scorned.

The Young Woman's Brothers

8We have a little sister too young to have breasts.

What will we do for our sister if someone asks to marry her?

9If she is a virgin, like a wall, we will protect her with a silver tower.
But if she is promiscuous, like a swinging door, we will block her door with a cedar bar.

Young Woman

10I was a virgin, like a wall;

now my breasts are like towers.
When my lover looks at me,
he is delighted with what he sees.

11Solomon has a vineyard at Baal-hamon, which he leases out to tenant farmers.
Each of them pays a thousand pieces of silver for harvesting its fruit.

12But my vineyard is mine to give, and Solomon need not pay a thousand pieces of silver.
But I will give two hundred pieces to those who care for its vines.

Young Man

13O my darling, lingering in the gardens, your companions are fortunate to hear your voice.

Let me hear it, too!

Young Woman

14Come away, my love! Be like a gazelle or a young stag on the mountains of spices.

WELCOME TO

ISAIAH

Isaiah is a prominent spokesperson for God and a historian of Judah. He lives most of his life in Jerusalem, but he is aware of the destruction of Samaria (the capital city of the northern kingdom of Israel), which happens during his nearly sixty-year ministry. He predicts the same fate for Jerusalem if the king and people do not listen to God's warnings. He tells the people what will happen in the future—God will judge Judah and all the nations severely. But Isaiah also gives the people hope through God's promises. He foretells a time when God will restore his people to their homes and send a Messiah to save the world.

FINDING JESUS IN ISAIAH

Jesus appears frequently in Isaiah. The prophet spoke regularly of God's promised Messiah. Early in his book, Isaiah mentions a child born of a virgin who will be called Immanuel (7:14); Wonderful Counselor, Mighty God, Everlasting Father, and Prince of Peace (9:6); and the Branch from David's line (11:1).
Jesus comes into sharp focus later in the book through vivid descriptions of the Lord's servant (chapters 42–53). Isaiah describes a person who will be a witness for God and a light to all people. This servant will be perfectly faithful to God but also will suffer for the sake of others. Jesus proved to be the servant that Isaiah was speaking of. He suffered in order for God's will to be done, and he made it possible for everyone to live with God forever.

Isaiah 1

1These are the visions that Isaiah son of Amoz saw concerning Judah and Jerusalem. He saw these visions during the years when Uzziah, Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah were kings of Judah.*

A MESSAGE FOR REBELLIOUS JUDAH

2Listen, O heavens! Pay attention, earth!

This is what the LORD says:
“The children I raised and cared for have rebelled against me.

3Even an ox knows its owner, and a donkey recognizes its master’s care— but Israel doesn’t know its master.
My people don’t recognize my care for them.”

4Oh, what a sinful nation they are— loaded down with a burden of guilt.
They are evil people,
corrupt children who have rejected the LORD.
They have despised the Holy One of Israel and turned their backs on him.

5Why do you continue to invite punishment?
Must you rebel forever?
Your head is injured,
and your heart is sick.

6You are battered from head to foot— covered with bruises, welts, and infected wounds—
without any soothing ointments or bandages.

7Your country lies in ruins, and your towns are burned.
Foreigners plunder your fields before your eyes and destroy everything they see.

8Beautiful Jerusalem* stands abandoned like a watchman's shelter in a vineyard, like a lean-to in a cucumber field after the harvest, like a helpless city under siege.

9If the LORD of Heaven's Armies had not spared a few of us,* we would have been wiped out like Sodom, destroyed like Gomorrah.

10Listen to the LORD, you leaders of "Sodom."
Listen to the law of our God, people of "Gomorrah."

11"What makes you think I want all your sacrifices?"
says the LORD.
"I am sick of your burnt offerings of rams and the fat of fattened cattle.
I get no pleasure from the blood of bulls and lambs and goats.

12When you come to worship me, who asked you to parade through my courts with all your ceremony?

13Stop bringing me your meaningless gifts; the incense of your offerings disgusts me!
As for your celebrations of the new moon and the Sabbath and your special days for fasting—they are all sinful and false.
I want no more of your pious meetings.

14I hate your new moon celebrations and your annual festivals.
They are a burden to me. I cannot stand them!

15When you lift up your hands in prayer, I will not look.
Though you offer many prayers, I will not listen, for your hands are covered with the blood of innocent victims.

16Wash yourselves and be clean!
Get your sins out of my sight.
Give up your evil ways.

17Learn to do good.
Seek justice.
Help the oppressed.
Defend the cause of orphans.
Fight for the rights of widows.

18“Come now, let’s settle this,”
says the LORD.
“Though your sins are like scarlet,
I will make them as white as snow.
Though they are red like crimson,
I will make them as white as wool.

19If you will only obey me, you will have plenty to eat.

20But if you turn away and refuse to listen, you will be devoured by the sword of your enemies.
I, the LORD, have spoken!”

UNFAITHFUL JERUSALEM

21See how Jerusalem, once so faithful, has become a prostitute.

Once the home of justice and righteousness,
she is now filled with murderers.

22Once like pure silver,
you have become like worthless slag.
Once so pure,
you are now like watered-down wine.

23Your leaders are rebels, the companions of thieves.
All of them love bribes and demand payoffs,
but they refuse to defend the cause of orphans or fight for the rights of widows.

24Therefore, the Lord, the LORD of Heaven’s Armies, the Mighty One of Israel, says,

“I will take revenge on my enemies and pay back my foes!

25I will raise my fist against you.
I will melt you down and skim off your slag.
I will remove all your impurities.

26Then I will give you good judges again and wise counselors like you used to have.
Then Jerusalem will again be called the Home of Justice and the Faithful City.”

27Zion will be restored by justice; those who repent will be revived by righteousness.

28But rebels and sinners will be completely destroyed, and those who desert the LORD will be consumed.

29You will be ashamed of your idol worship in groves of sacred oaks.
You will blush because you worshiped in gardens dedicated to idols.

30You will be like a great tree with withered leaves, like a garden without water.

31The strongest among you will disappear like straw; their evil deeds will be the spark that sets it on fire.
They and their evil works will burn up together, and no one will be able to put out the fire.

Isaiah 2

THE LORD’S FUTURE REIGN

1This is a vision that Isaiah son of Amoz saw concerning Judah and Jerusalem:

2In the last days, the mountain of the LORD’s house will be the highest of all— the most important place on earth.

It will be raised above the other hills,
and people from all over the world will stream there to worship.

3People from many nations will come and say, “Come, let us go up to the mountain of the LORD, to the house of Jacob’s God.
There he will teach us his ways,
and we will walk in his paths.”
For the LORD’s teaching will go out from Zion;
his word will go out from Jerusalem.

4The LORD will mediate between nations and will settle international disputes.
They will hammer their swords into plowshares
and their spears into pruning hooks.
Nation will no longer fight against nation,
nor train for war anymore.

A WARNING OF JUDGMENT

5Come, descendants of Jacob,

let us walk in the light of the LORD!

6For the LORD has rejected his people, the descendants of Jacob, because they have filled their land with practices from the East and with sorcerers, as the Philistines do.
They have made alliances with pagans.

7Israel is full of silver and gold; there is no end to its treasures.
Their land is full of warhorses;
there is no end to its chariots.

8Their land is full of idols; the people worship things they have made with their own hands.

9So now they will be humbled, and all will be brought low— do not forgive them.

10Crawl into caves in the rocks.
Hide in the dust

from the terror of the LORD
and the glory of his majesty.

11Human pride will be brought down, and human arrogance will be humbled.
Only the LORD will be exalted
on that day of judgment.

12For the LORD of Heaven's Armies has a day of reckoning.
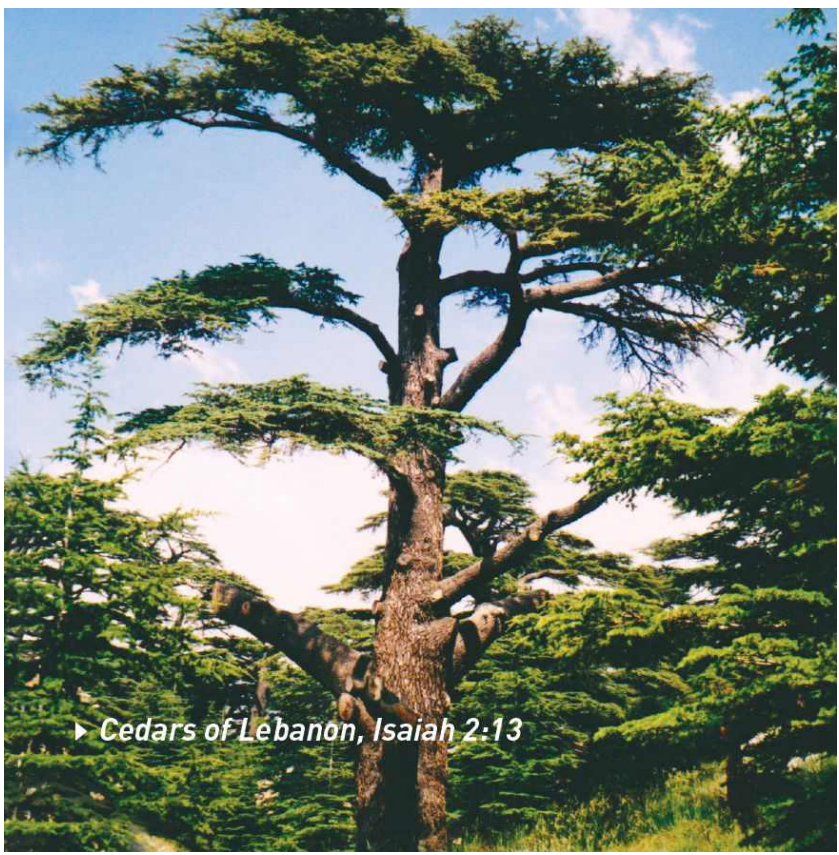
He will punish the proud and mighty and bring down everything that is exalted.



CEDARS OF LEBANON

13He will cut down the tall cedars of Lebanon and all the mighty oaks of Bashan.

14He will level all the high mountains and all the lofty hills.

15He will break down every high tower and every fortified wall.

16He will destroy all the great trading ships* and every magnificent vessel.

17Human pride will be humbled, and human arrogance will be brought down.
Only the LORD will be exalted
on that day of judgment.

18Idols will completely disappear.

19When the LORD rises to shake the earth, his enemies will crawl into holes in the ground.
They will hide in caves in the rocks
from the terror of the LORD
and the glory of his majesty.

20On that day of judgment they will abandon the gold and silver idols they made for themselves to worship.
They will leave their gods to the rodents and bats,

21while they crawl away into caverns and hide among the jagged rocks in the cliffs.
They will try to escape the terror of the LORD
and the glory of his majesty
as he rises to shake the earth.

22Don't put your trust in mere humans.
They are as frail as breath.
What good are they?

Isaiah 3

JUDGMENT AGAINST JUDAH

1The Lord, the LORD of Heaven's Armies, will take away from Jerusalem and Judah everything they depend on:
every bit of bread
and every drop of water,

2all their heroes and soldiers, judges and prophets, fortune-tellers and elders,

3army officers and high officials, advisers, skilled sorcerers, and astrologers.

4I will make boys their leaders, and toddlers their rulers.

5People will oppress each other— man against man, neighbor against neighbor.
Young people will insult their elders, and vulgar people will sneer at the honorable.

6In those days a man will say to his brother, "Since you have a coat, you be our leader!
Take charge of this heap of ruins!"

7But he will reply,
"No! I can't help.
I don't have any extra food or clothes.
Don't put me in charge!"

8For Jerusalem will stumble, and Judah will fall, because they speak out against the LORD and refuse to obey him.
They provoke him to his face.

9The very look on their faces gives them away.
They display their sin like the people of Sodom and don't even try to hide it.
They are doomed!
They have brought destruction upon themselves.

10Tell the godly that all will be well for them.
They will enjoy the rich reward they have earned!

11But the wicked are doomed, for they will get exactly what they deserve.

12Childish leaders oppress my people, and women rule over them.
O my people, your leaders mislead you;
they send you down the wrong road.

13The LORD takes his place in court and presents his case against his people.*

14The LORD comes forward to pronounce judgment on the elders and rulers of his people:
“You have ruined Israel, my vineyard.
Your houses are filled with things stolen from the poor.

15How dare you crush my people, grinding the faces of the poor into the dust?”
demands the Lord, the LORD of Heaven’s Armies.

A WARNING TO JERUSALEM

16The LORD says, “Beautiful Zion* is haughty: craning her elegant neck, flirting with her eyes,

walking with dainty steps, tinkling her ankle bracelets.

17So the Lord will send scabs on her head; the LORD will make beautiful Zion bald.”

18On that day of judgment the Lord will strip away everything that makes her beautiful:
ornaments, headbands, crescent necklaces,

19earrings, bracelets, and veils;

20scarves, ankle bracelets, sashes, perfumes, and charms;

21rings, jewels,

22party clothes, gowns, capes, and purses;

23mirrors, fine linen garments, head ornaments, and shawls.

24Instead of smelling of sweet perfume, she will stink.
She will wear a rope for a sash,
and her elegant hair will fall out.
She will wear rough burlap instead of rich robes.
Shame will replace her beauty.*

25The men of the city will be killed with the sword, and her warriors will die in battle.

26The gates of Zion will weep and mourn.
The city will be like a ravaged woman, huddled on the ground.

Isaiah 4

1In that day so few men will be left that seven women will fight for each man, saying, “Let us all marry you! We will provide our own food and clothing. Only let us take your name so we won’t be mocked as old maids.”

A PROMISE OF RESTORATION

2But in that day, the branch* of the LORD will be beautiful and glorious;

the fruit of the land will be the pride and glory of all who survive in Israel.

3All who remain in Zion will be a holy people—those who survive the destruction of Jerusalem and are recorded among the living.

4The Lord will wash the filth from beautiful Zion* and cleanse Jerusalem of its bloodstains with the hot breath of fiery judgment.

5Then the LORD will provide shade for Mount Zion and all who assemble there.
He will provide a canopy of cloud during the day and smoke and flaming fire at night, covering the glorious land.

6It will be a shelter from daytime heat and a hiding place from storms and rain.

Isaiah 5

A SONG ABOUT THE LORD'S VINEYARD

1Now I will sing for the one I love a song about his vineyard:
My beloved had a vineyard on a rich and fertile hill.

2He plowed the land, cleared its stones, and planted it with the best vines.
In the middle he built a watchtower and carved a winepress in the nearby rocks.
Then he waited for a harvest of sweet grapes,
but the grapes that grew were bitter.

3Now, you people of Jerusalem and Judah, you judge between me and my vineyard.

4What more could I have done for my vineyard that I have not already done?
When I expected sweet grapes, why did my vineyard give me bitter grapes?

5Now let me tell you what I will do to my vineyard:
I will tear down its hedges and let it be destroyed.

I will break down its walls and let the animals trample it.

6I will make it a wild place where the vines are not pruned and the ground is not hoed, a place overgrown with briers and thorns.
I will command the clouds to drop no rain on it.

7The nation of Israel is the vineyard of the LORD of Heaven's Armies.
The people of Judah are his pleasant garden.
He expected a crop of justice,
but instead he found oppression.
He expected to find righteousness,
but instead he heard cries of violence.

JUDAH'S GUILT AND JUDGMENT

8What sorrow for you who buy up house after house and field after field, until everyone is evicted and you live alone in the land.

9But I have heard the LORD of Heaven's Armies swear a solemn oath:
"Many houses will stand deserted;
even beautiful mansions will be empty.

10Ten acres* of vineyard will not produce even six gallons* of wine.
Ten baskets of seed will yield only one basket* of grain."

11What sorrow for those who get up early in the morning looking for a drink of alcohol and spend long evenings drinking wine to make themselves flaming drunk.

12They furnish wine and lovely music at their grand parties— lyre and harp, tambourine and flute—but they never think about the LORD or notice what he is doing.

13So my people will go into exile far away because they do not know me.
Those who are great and honored will starve,
and the common people will die of thirst.

14The grave* is licking its lips in anticipation, opening its mouth wide.
The great and the lowly and all the drunken mob will be swallowed up.

15Humanity will be destroyed, and people brought down; even the arrogant will lower their eyes in humiliation.

16But the LORD of Heaven's Armies will be exalted by his justice.
The holiness of God will be displayed by his righteousness.

17In that day lambs will find good pastures, and fattened sheep and young goats* will feed among the ruins.

18What sorrow for those who drag their sins behind them with ropes made of lies,
who drag wickedness behind them like a cart!

19They even mock God and say, "Hurry up and do something!
We want to see what you can do.
Let the Holy One of Israel carry out his plan, for we want to know what it is."

20What sorrow for those who say that evil is good and good is evil, that dark is light and light is dark, that bitter is sweet and sweet is bitter.

21What sorrow for those who are wise in their own eyes and think themselves so clever.

22What sorrow for those who are heroes at drinking wine and boast about all the alcohol they can hold.

23They take bribes to let the wicked go free, and they punish the innocent.

24Therefore, just as fire licks up stubble and dry grass shrivels in the flame, so their roots will rot
and their flowers wither.
For they have rejected the law of the LORD of Heaven's Armies;
they have despised the word of the Holy One of Israel.

25That is why the LORD's anger burns against his people, and why he has raised his fist to crush them.
The mountains tremble, and the corpses of his people litter the streets like garbage.
But even then the LORD's anger is not satisfied.
His fist is still poised to strike!

26He will send a signal to distant nations far away and whistle to those at the ends of the earth.
They will come racing toward Jerusalem.

27They will not get tired or stumble.
They will not stop for rest or sleep.
Not a belt will be loose,
not a sandal strap broken.

28Their arrows will be sharp and their bows ready for battle.
Sparks will fly from their horses' hooves, and the wheels of their chariots will spin like a whirlwind.

29They will roar like lions, like the strongest of lions.
Growling, they will pounce on their victims and carry them off, and no one will be there to rescue them.

30They will roar over their victims on that day of destruction like the roaring of the sea.
If someone looks across the land, only darkness and distress will be seen;
even the light will be darkened by clouds.

Isaiah 6

ISAIAH'S CLEANSING AND CALL

1It was in the year King Uzziah died* that I saw the Lord. He was sitting on a lofty throne, and the train of his robe filled the Temple.
2Attending him were mighty seraphim, each having six wings. With two wings they covered their faces, with two they covered their feet, and with two they flew. 3They were calling out to each other,
"Holy, holy, holy is the LORD of Heaven's Armies!

The whole earth is filled with his glory!"

4Their voices shook the Temple to its foundations, and the entire building was filled with smoke.

5Then I said, "It's all over! I am doomed, for I am a sinful man. I have filthy lips, and I live among a people with filthy lips. Yet I have seen the King, the LORD of Heaven's Armies."

6Then one of the seraphim flew to me with a burning coal he had taken from the altar with a pair of tongs. 7He touched my lips with it and said, “See, this coal has touched your lips. Now your guilt is removed, and your sins are forgiven.”

8Then I heard the Lord asking, “Whom should I send as a messenger to this people? Who will go for us?”

I said, “Here I am. Send me.”

9And he said, “Yes, go, and say to this people,

‘Listen carefully, but do not understand.
Watch closely, but learn nothing.’

10Harden the hearts of these people.
Plug their ears and shut their eyes.
That way, they will not see with their eyes,
nor hear with their ears,
nor understand with their hearts and turn to me for healing.”*

11Then I said, “Lord, how long will this go on?”

And he replied,

“Until their towns are empty, their houses are deserted,
and the whole country is a wasteland;

12until the LORD has sent everyone away, and the entire land of Israel lies deserted.

13If even a tenth—a remnant—survive, it will be invaded again and burned.
But as a terebinth or oak tree leaves a stump when it is cut down, so Israel’s stump will be a holy seed.”

Isaiah 7

A MESSAGE FOR AHAZ

1When Ahaz, son of Jotham and grandson of Uzziah, was king of Judah, King Rezin of Syria* and Pekah son of Remaliah, the king of Israel, set out to attack Jerusalem. However, they were unable to carry out their plan.

2The news had come to the royal court of Judah: “Syria is allied with Israel* against us!” So the hearts of the king and his people trembled with fear, like trees shaking in a storm.

3Then the LORD said to Isaiah, “Take your son Shear-jashub* and go out to meet King Ahaz. You will find him at the end of the aqueduct that feeds water into the upper pool, near the road leading to the field where cloth is washed.*4Tell him to stop worrying. Tell him he doesn’t need to fear the fierce anger of those two burned-out embers, King Rezin of Syria and Pekah son of Remaliah. 5Yes, the kings of Syria and Israel are plotting against him, saying, 6‘We will attack Judah and capture it for ourselves. Then we will install the son of Tabeel as Judah’s king.’ 7But this is what the Sovereign LORD says: “This invasion will never happen;

it will never take place;

8for Syria is no stronger than its capital, Damascus, and Damascus is no stronger than its king, Rezin.
As for Israel, within sixty-five years it will be crushed and completely destroyed.

9Israel is no stronger than its capital, Samaria, and Samaria is no stronger than its king, Pekah son of Remaliah.
Unless your faith is firm,
I cannot make you stand firm.”

THE MESSIAH ISAIAH 7:10-16

THE SIGN OF IMMANUEL

10Later, the LORD sent this message to King Ahaz: 11“Ask the LORD your God for a sign of confirmation, Ahaz. Make it as difficult as you want—as high as heaven or as deep as the place of the dead.*”

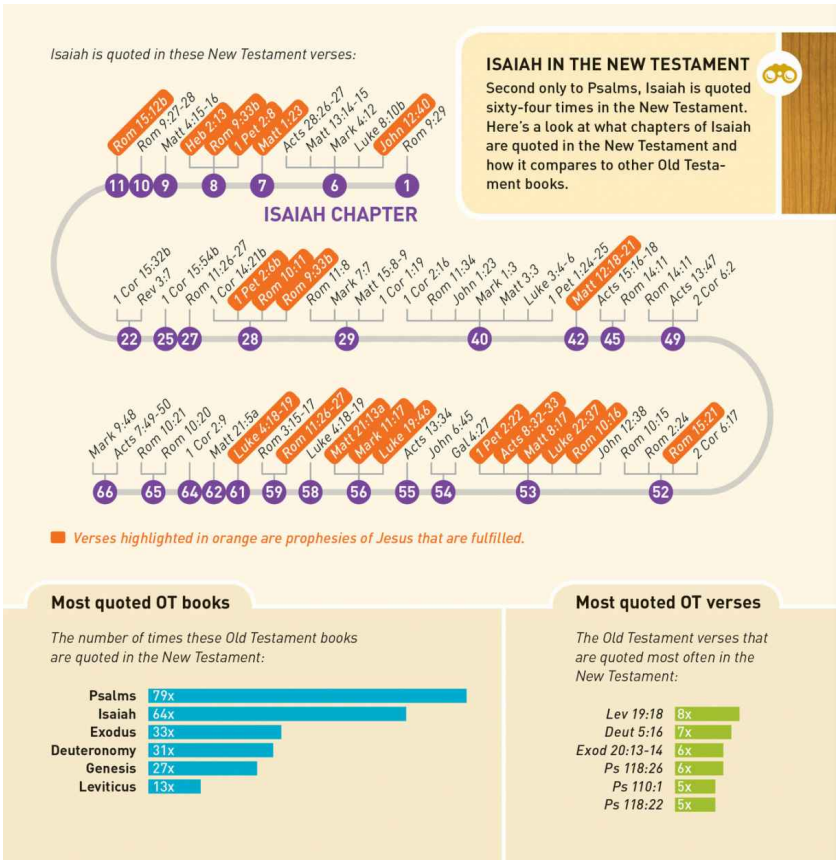
12But the king refused. “No,” he said, “I will not test the LORD like that.”



ISAIAH IN THE NEW TESTAMENT

13Then Isaiah said, “Listen well, you royal family of David! Isn’t it enough to exhaust human patience? Must you exhaust the patience of my God as well? 14All right then, the Lord himself will give you the sign. Look! The virgin* will conceive a child! She will give birth to a son and will call him Immanuel (which means ‘God is with us’).

15By the time this child is old enough to choose what is right and reject what is wrong, he will be eating yogurt* and honey. 16For before the child is that old, the lands of the two kings you fear so much will both be deserted.

17“Then the LORD will bring things on you, your nation, and your family unlike anything since Israel broke away from Judah. He will bring the king of Assyria upon you!”

18In that day the LORD will whistle for the army of southern Egypt and for the army of Assyria. They will swarm around you like flies and bees. 19They will come in vast hordes and settle in the fertile areas and also in the desolate valleys, caves, and thorny places. 20In that day the Lord will hire a “razor” from beyond the Euphrates River*—the king of Assyria—and use it to shave off everything:
your land, your crops, and your people.*

21In that day a farmer will be fortunate to have a cow and two sheep or goats left. 22Nevertheless, there will be enough milk for everyone because so few people will be left in the land. They will eat their fill of yogurt and honey. 23In that day the lush vineyards, now worth 1,000 pieces of silver,* will become patches of briers and thorns. 24The entire land will become a vast expanse of briers and thorns, a hunting ground overrun by wildlife. 25No one will go to the fertile hillsides where the gardens once grew, for briers and thorns will cover them. Cattle, sheep, and goats will graze there.

Isaiah 8

THE COMING ASSYRIAN INVASION

1Then the LORD said to me, “Make a large signboard and clearly write this name on it: Maher-shalal-hash-baz.*” 2I asked Uriah the priest and Zechariah son of Jeberekiah, both known as honest men, to witness my doing this.

3Then I slept with my wife, and she became pregnant and gave birth to a son. And the LORD said, “Call him Maher-shalal-hash-baz.
4For before this child is old enough to say ‘Papa’ or ‘Mama,’ the king of Assyria will carry away both the abundance of Damascus and the riches of Samaria.”

5Then the LORD spoke to me again and said, 6“My care for the people of Judah is like the gently flowing waters of Shiloah, but they have rejected it. They are rejoicing over what will happen to* King Rezin and King Pekah.7Therefore, the Lord will overwhelm them with a mighty flood from the Euphrates River—the king of Assyria and all his glory. This flood will overflow all its channels 8and sweep into Judah until it is chin deep. It will spread its wings, submerging your land from one end to the other, O Immanuel.

9“Huddle together, you nations, and be terrified.
Listen, all you distant lands.
Prepare for battle, but you will be crushed!
Yes, prepare for battle, but you will be crushed!

10Call your councils of war, but they will be worthless.
Develop your strategies, but they will not succeed.
For God is with us!*”

A CALL TO TRUST THE LORD

11The LORD has given me a strong warning not to think like everyone else does. He said,

12“Don’t call everything a conspiracy, like they do, and don’t live in dread of what frightens them.

13Make the LORD of Heaven’s Armies holy in your life.
He is the one you should fear.
He is the one who should make you tremble.

14He will keep you safe.

But to Israel and Judah
he will be a stone that makes people stumble, a rock that makes them fall.
And for the people of Jerusalem
he will be a trap and a snare.

15Many will stumble and fall, never to rise again.
They will be snared and captured.”

16Preserve the teaching of God; entrust his instructions to those who follow me.

17I will wait for the LORD, who has turned away from the descendants of Jacob.
I will put my hope in him.

THE TEMPLE ON MOUNT ZION

18I and the children the LORD has given me serve as signs and warnings to Israel from the LORD of Heaven’s Armies who dwells in his Temple on Mount Zion.

19Someone may say to you, “Let’s ask the mediums and those who consult the spirits of the dead. With their whisperings and mutterings, they will tell us what to do.” But shouldn’t people ask God for guidance? Should the living seek guidance from the dead?

20Look to God’s instructions and teachings! People who contradict his word are completely in the dark. 21They will go from one place to another, weary and hungry. And because they are hungry, they will rage and curse their king and their God. They will look up to heaven 22and down at the earth, but wherever they look, there will be trouble and anguish and dark despair. They will be thrown out into the darkness.

Isaiah 9

HOPE IN THE MESSIAH

1*Nevertheless, that time of darkness and despair will not go on forever. The land of Zebulun and Naphtali will be humbled, but there will be a time in the future when Galilee of the Gentiles, which lies along the road that runs between the Jordan and the sea, will be filled with glory.

THE MESSIAH ISAIAH 9:2-7

2*The people who walk in darkness will see a great light.
For those who live in a land of deep darkness,*
a light will shine.

3You will enlarge the nation of Israel, and its people will rejoice.
They will rejoice before you as people rejoice at the harvest and like warriors dividing the plunder.

4For you will break the yoke of their slavery and lift the heavy burden from their shoulders.
You will break the oppressor's rod, just as you did when you destroyed the army of Midian.

5The boots of the warrior and the uniforms bloodstained by war will all be burned.
They will be fuel for the fire.

6For a child is born to us, a son is given to us.
The government will rest on his shoulders.
And he will be called:
Wonderful Counselor,* Mighty God, Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace.

7His government and its peace will never end.
He will rule with fairness and justice from the throne of his ancestor David for all eternity.
The passionate commitment of the LORD of Heaven's Armies will make this happen!

THE LORD'S ANGER AGAINST ISRAEL

8The Lord has spoken out against Jacob;

his judgment has fallen upon Israel.

9And the people of Israel* and Samaria, who spoke with such pride and arrogance, will soon know it.

10They said, "We will replace the broken bricks of our ruins with finished stone, and replant the felled sycamore-fig trees with cedars."

11But the LORD will bring Rezin's enemies against Israel and stir up all their foes.

12The Syrians* from the east and the Philistines from the west will bare their fangs and devour Israel.
But even then the LORD's anger will not be satisfied.
His fist is still poised to strike.

13For after all this punishment, the people will still not repent.
They will not seek the LORD of Heaven's Armies.

14Therefore, in a single day the LORD will destroy both the head and the tail, the noble palm branch and the lowly reed.

15The leaders of Israel are the head, and the lying prophets are the tail.

16For the leaders of the people have misled them.
They have led them down the path of destruction.

17That is why the Lord takes no pleasure in the young men and shows no mercy even to the widows and orphans.
For they are all wicked hypocrites, and they all speak foolishness.
But even then the LORD's anger will not be satisfied.
His fist is still poised to strike.

18This wickedness is like a brushfire.
It burns not only briers and thorns but also sets the forests ablaze.
Its burning sends up clouds of smoke.

19The land will be blackened by the fury of the LORD of Heaven's Armies.
The people will be fuel for the fire, and no one will spare even his own brother.

20They will attack their neighbor on the right but will still be hungry.

They will devour their neighbor on the left but will not be satisfied.
In the end they will even eat their own children.*

21Manasseh will feed on Ephraim, Ephraim will feed on Manasseh, and both will devour Judah.
But even then the LORD's anger will not be satisfied.
His fist is still poised to strike.

Isaiah 10

1What sorrow awaits the unjust judges and those who issue unfair laws.

2They deprive the poor of justice and deny the rights of the needy among my people.
They prey on widows and take advantage of orphans.

3What will you do when I punish you, when I send disaster upon you from a distant land?
To whom will you turn for help?
Where will your treasures be safe?

4You will stumble along as prisoners or lie among the dead.
But even then the LORD's anger will not be satisfied.
His fist is still poised to strike.

JUDGMENT AGAINST ASSYRIA

5"What sorrow awaits Assyria, the rod of my anger.

I use it as a club to express my anger.

6I am sending Assyria against a godless nation, against a people with whom I am angry.
Assyria will plunder them,
trampling them like dirt beneath its feet.

7But the king of Assyria will not understand that he is my tool; his mind does not work that way.

His plan is simply to destroy, to cut down nation after nation.

8He will say,
‘Each of my princes will soon be a king.

9We destroyed Calno just as we did Carchemish.
Hamath fell before us as Arpad did.
And we destroyed Samaria just as we did Damascus.

10Yes, we have finished off many a kingdom whose gods were greater than those in Jerusalem and Samaria.

11So we will defeat Jerusalem and her gods, just as we destroyed Samaria with hers.’”

12After the Lord has used the king of Assyria to accomplish his purposes on Mount Zion and in Jerusalem, he will turn against the king of Assyria and punish him—for he is proud and arrogant. 13He boasts, “By my own powerful arm I have done this.

With my own shrewd wisdom I planned it.
I have broken down the defenses of nations and carried off their treasures.
I have knocked down their kings like a bull.

14I have robbed their nests of riches and gathered up kingdoms as a farmer gathers eggs.
No one can even flap a wing against me or utter a peep of protest.”

15But can the ax boast greater power than the person who uses it?
Is the saw greater than the person who saws?
Can a rod strike unless a hand moves it?
Can a wooden cane walk by itself?

16Therefore, the Lord, the LORD of Heaven’s Armies, will send a plague among Assyria’s proud troops, and a flaming fire will consume its glory.

17The LORD, the Light of Israel, will be a fire; the Holy One will be a flame.

He will devour the thorns and briers with fire, burning up the enemy in a single night.

18The LORD will consume Assyria's glory like a fire consumes a forest in a fruitful land;
it will waste away like sick people in a plague.

19Of all that glorious forest, only a few trees will survive— so few that a child could count them!

HOPE FOR THE LORD'S PEOPLE

20In that day the remnant left in Israel,

the survivors in the house of Jacob, will no longer depend on allies who seek to destroy them.
But they will faithfully trust the LORD,
the Holy One of Israel.

21A remnant will return;*
yes, the remnant of Jacob will return to the Mighty God.

22But though the people of Israel are as numerous as the sand of the seashore, only a remnant of them will return.
The LORD has rightly decided to destroy his people.

23Yes, the Lord, the LORD of Heaven's Armies, has already decided to destroy the entire land.*

24So this is what the Lord, the LORD of Heaven's Armies, says: "O my people in Zion, do not be afraid of the Assyrians when they oppress you with rod and club as the Egyptians did long ago. 25In a little while my anger against you will end, and then my anger will rise up to destroy them." 26The LORD of Heaven's Armies will lash them with his whip, as he did when Gideon triumphed over the Midianites at the rock of Oreb, or when the LORD's staff was raised to drown the Egyptian army in the sea.

27In that day the LORD will end the bondage of his people.
He will break the yoke of slavery and lift it from their shoulders.*

28Look, the Assyrians are now at Aiath.
They are passing through Migron and are storing their equipment at Micmash.

29They are crossing the pass and are camping at Geba.
Fear strikes the town of Ramah.
All the people of Gibeah, the hometown of Saul, are running for their lives.

30Scream in terror,
you people of Gallim!
Shout out a warning to Laishah.
Oh, poor Anathoth!

31There go the people of Madmenah, all fleeing.
The citizens of Gebim are trying to hide.

32The enemy stops at Nob for the rest of that day.
He shakes his fist at beautiful Mount Zion, the mountain of Jerusalem.

33But look! The Lord, the LORD of Heaven's Armies, will chop down the mighty tree of Assyria with great power!
He will cut down the proud.
That lofty tree will be brought down.

34He will cut down the forest trees with an ax.
Lebanon will fall to the Mighty One.*

THE MESSIAH ISAIAH 11:1-10

Isaiah 11

A BRANCH FROM DAVID'S LINE

1Out of the stump of David's family* will grow a shoot— yes, a new Branch bearing fruit from the old root.

2And the Spirit of the LORD will rest on him— the Spirit of wisdom and understanding, the Spirit of counsel and might,

the Spirit of knowledge and the fear of the LORD.

3He will delight in obeying the LORD.
He will not judge by appearance nor make a decision based on hearsay.

4He will give justice to the poor and make fair decisions for the exploited.
The earth will shake at the force of his word, and one breath from his mouth will destroy the wicked.

5He will wear righteousness like a belt and truth like an undergarment.

6In that day the wolf and the lamb will live together; the leopard will lie down with the baby goat.
The calf and the yearling will be safe with the lion, and a little child will lead them all.

7The cow will graze near the bear.
The cub and the calf will lie down together.
The lion will eat hay like a cow.

8The baby will play safely near the hole of a cobra.
Yes, a little child will put its hand in a nest of deadly snakes without harm.

9Nothing will hurt or destroy in all my holy mountain, for as the waters fill the sea, so the earth will be filled with people who know the LORD.

10In that day the heir to David's throne* will be a banner of salvation to all the world.
The nations will rally to him, and the land where he lives will be a glorious place.*

11In that day the Lord will reach out his hand a second time to bring back the remnant of his people— those who remain in Assyria and northern Egypt;

in southern Egypt, Ethiopia,* and Elam; in Babylonia,* Hamath, and all the distant coastlands.

12He will raise a flag among the nations and assemble the exiles of Israel.
He will gather the scattered people of Judah from the ends of the earth.

13Then at last the jealousy between Israel* and Judah will end.
They will not be rivals anymore.

14They will join forces to swoop down on Philistia to the west.
Together they will attack and plunder the nations to the east.
They will occupy the lands of Edom and Moab, and Ammon will obey them.

15The LORD will make a dry path through the gulf of the Red Sea.*
He will wave his hand over the Euphrates River,* sending a mighty wind to divide it into seven streams
so it can easily be crossed on foot.

16He will make a highway for the remnant of his people, the remnant coming from Assyria, just as he did for Israel long ago when they returned from Egypt.

Isaiah 12

SONGS OF PRAISE FOR SALVATION

1In that day you will sing: “I will praise you, O LORD!
You were angry with me, but not any more.
Now you comfort me.

2See, God has come to save me.
I will trust in him and not be afraid.
The LORD GOD is my strength and my song; he has given me victory.”

3With joy you will drink deeply from the fountain of salvation!

4In that wonderful day you will sing: “Thank the LORD! Praise his name!
Tell the nations what he has done.
Let them know how mighty he is!

5Sing to the LORD, for he has done wonderful things.
Make known his praise around the world.

6Let all the people of Jerusalem* shout his praise with joy!
For great is the Holy One of Israel who lives among you.”

Isaiah 13

A MESSAGE ABOUT BABYLON

1Isaiah son of Amoz received this message concerning the destruction of Babylon:

2“Raise a signal flag on a bare hilltop.
Call up an army against Babylon.
Wave your hand to encourage them as they march into the palaces of the high and mighty.

3I, the LORD, have dedicated these soldiers for this task.
Yes, I have called mighty warriors to express my anger, and they will rejoice when I am exalted.”

4Hear the noise on the mountains!
Listen, as the vast armies march!
It is the noise and shouting of many nations.
The LORD of Heaven’s Armies has called this army together.

5They come from distant countries, from beyond the farthest horizons.
They are the LORD’s weapons to carry out his anger.
With them he will destroy the whole land.

6Scream in terror, for the day of the LORD has arrived— the time for the Almighty to destroy.

7Every arm is paralyzed with fear.
Every heart melts,

8and people are terrified.
Pangs of anguish grip them,
like those of a woman in labor.
They look helplessly at one another, their faces aflame with fear.

9For see, the day of the LORD is coming— the terrible day of his fury and fierce anger.
The land will be made desolate, and all the sinners destroyed with it.

10The heavens will be black above them; the stars will give no light.
The sun will be dark when it rises, and the moon will provide no light.

11“I, the LORD, will punish the world for its evil and the wicked for their sin.
I will crush the arrogance of the proud and humble the pride of the mighty.

12I will make people scarcer than gold— more rare than the fine gold of Ophir.

13For I will shake the heavens.
The earth will move from its place when the LORD of Heaven’s Armies displays his wrath in the day of his fierce anger.”

14Everyone in Babylon will run about like a hunted gazelle, like sheep without a shepherd.
They will try to find their own people and flee to their own land.

15Anyone who is captured will be cut down— run through with a sword.

16Their little children will be dashed to death before their eyes.
Their homes will be sacked, and their wives will be raped.

17“Look, I will stir up the Medes against Babylon.
They cannot be tempted by silver or bribed with gold.

18The attacking armies will shoot down the young men with arrows.
They will have no mercy on helpless babies and will show no compassion for children.”

19Babylon, the most glorious of kingdoms, the flower of Chaldean pride, will be devastated like Sodom and Gomorrah when God destroyed them.

20Babylon will never be inhabited again.
It will remain empty for generation after generation.
Nomads will refuse to camp there, and shepherds will not bed down their sheep.

21Desert animals will move into the ruined city, and the houses will be haunted by howling creatures.
Owls will live among the ruins,
and wild goats will go there to dance.

22Hyenas will howl in its fortresses, and jackals will make dens in its luxurious palaces.
Babylon's days are numbered;
its time of destruction will soon arrive.

Isaiah 14

A TAUNT FOR BABYLON'S KING

1But the LORD will have mercy on the descendants of Jacob. He will choose Israel as his special people once again. He will bring them back to settle once again in their own land. And people from many different nations will come and join them there and unite with the people of Israel.* 2The nations of the world will help the people of Israel to return, and those who come to live in the LORD's land will serve them. Those who captured Israel will themselves be captured, and Israel will rule over its enemies.

3In that wonderful day when the LORD gives his people rest from sorrow and fear, from slavery and chains, 4you will taunt the king of Babylon. You will say, "The mighty man has been destroyed.

Yes, your insolence* is ended.

5For the LORD has crushed your wicked power and broken your evil rule.

6You struck the people with endless blows of rage and held the nations in your angry grip with unrelenting tyranny.

7But finally the earth is at rest and quiet.
Now it can sing again!

8Even the trees of the forest— the cypress trees and the cedars of Lebanon—sing out this joyous song:
‘Since you have been cut down,
no one will come now to cut us down!’

9“In the place of the dead* there is excitement over your arrival.
The spirits of world leaders and mighty kings long dead stand up to see you.

10With one voice they all cry out, ‘Now you are as weak as we are!

11Your might and power were buried with you.*
The sound of the harp in your palace has ceased.
Now maggots are your sheet, and worms your blanket.’

12“How you are fallen from heaven, O shining star, son of the morning!
You have been thrown down to the earth, you who destroyed the nations of the world.

13For you said to yourself, ‘I will ascend to heaven and set my throne above God’s stars.
I will preside on the mountain of the gods far away in the north.*

14I will climb to the highest heavens and be like the Most High.’

15Instead, you will be brought down to the place of the dead, down to its lowest depths.

16Everyone there will stare at you and ask, ‘Can this be the one who shook the earth and made the kingdoms of the world tremble?

17Is this the one who destroyed the world and made it into a wasteland?

Is this the king who demolished the world's greatest cities and had no mercy on his prisoners?'

18"The kings of the nations lie in stately glory, each in his own tomb,

19but you will be thrown out of your grave like a worthless branch.
Like a corpse trampled underfoot, you will be dumped into a mass grave with those killed in battle.
You will descend to the pit.

20You will not be given a proper burial, for you have destroyed your nation
and slaughtered your people.
The descendants of such an evil person will never again receive honor.

21Kill this man's children!
Let them die because of their father's sins!
They must not rise and conquer the earth, filling the world with their cities."

22This is what the LORD of Heaven's Armies says: "I, myself, have risen against Babylon!
I will destroy its children and its children's children,"
says the LORD.

23"I will make Babylon a desolate place of owls, filled with swamps and marshes.
I will sweep the land with the broom of destruction.
I, the LORD of Heaven's Armies, have spoken!"

A MESSAGE ABOUT ASSYRIA

24The LORD of Heaven's Armies has sworn this oath:

"It will all happen as I have planned.
It will be as I have decided.

25I will break the Assyrians when they are in Israel; I will trample them on my mountains.

My people will no longer be their slaves nor bow down under their heavy loads.

26I have a plan for the whole earth, a hand of judgment upon all the nations.

27The LORD of Heaven's Armies has spoken— who can change his plans?
When his hand is raised,
who can stop him?"

A MESSAGE ABOUT PHILISTIA

28This message came to me the year King Ahaz died:*

29Do not rejoice, you Philistines, that the rod that struck you is broken— that the king who attacked you is dead.
For from that snake a more poisonous snake will be born, a fiery serpent to destroy you!

30I will feed the poor in my pasture; the needy will lie down in peace.
But as for you, I will wipe you out with famine and destroy the few who remain.

31Wail at the gates! Weep in the cities!
Melt with fear, you Philistines!
A powerful army comes like smoke from the north.
Each soldier rushes forward eager to fight.

32What should we tell the Philistine messengers? Tell them,

"The LORD has built Jerusalem*; its walls will give refuge to his oppressed people."

Isaiah 15

A MESSAGE ABOUT MOAB

1This message came to me concerning Moab:

In one night the town of Ar will be leveled,
and the city of Kir will be destroyed.

2Your people will go to their temple in Dibon to mourn.
They will go to their sacred shrines to weep.
They will wail for the fate of Nebo and Medeba, shaving their heads in sorrow and cutting off their beards.

3They will wear burlap as they wander the streets.
From every home and public square will come the sound of wailing.

4The people of Heshbon and Elealeh will cry out; their voices will be heard as far away as Jahaz!
The bravest warriors of Moab will cry out in utter terror.
They will be helpless with fear.

5My heart weeps for Moab.
Its people flee to Zoar and Eglath-shelishiyah.
Weeping, they climb the road to Luhith.
Their cries of distress can be heard all along the road to Horonaim.

6Even the waters of Nimrim are dried up!
The grassy banks are scorched.
The tender plants are gone;
nothing green remains.

7The people grab their possessions and carry them across the Ravine of Willows.

8A cry of distress echoes through the land of Moab from one end to the other— from Eglaim to Beer-elim.

9The stream near Dibon* runs red with blood, but I am still not finished with Dibon!
Lions will hunt down the survivors—both those who try to escape and those who remain behind.

Isaiah 16

1Send lambs from Sela as tribute to the ruler of the land.
Send them through the desert to the mountain of beautiful Zion.

crossings of the Arnon River.

3“Help us,” they cry.
“Defend us against our enemies.
Protect us from their relentless attack.
Do not betray us now that we have escaped.

4Let our refugees stay among you.
Hide them from our enemies until the terror is past.”
When oppression and destruction have ended and enemy raiders have disappeared,

5then God will establish one of David’s descendants as king.
He will rule with mercy and truth.
He will always do what is just and be eager to do what is right.

6We have heard about proud Moab— about its pride and arrogance and rage.
But all that boasting has disappeared.

7The entire land of Moab weeps.
Yes, everyone in Moab mourns for the cakes of raisins from Kir-hareseth.
They are all gone now.

8The farms of Heshbon are abandoned; the vineyards at Sibmah are deserted.
The rulers of the nations have broken down Moab—
that beautiful grapevine.
Its tendrils spread north as far as the town of Jazer and trailed eastward into the wilderness.

Its shoots reached so far west that they crossed over the Dead Sea.*

9So now I weep for Jazer and the vineyards of Sibmah; my tears will flow for Heshbon and Elealeh.
There are no more shouts of joy over your summer fruits and harvest.

10Gone now is the gladness, gone the joy of harvest.
There will be no singing in the vineyards,
no more happy shouts,
no treading of grapes in the winepresses.
I have ended all their harvest joys.

11My heart's cry for Moab is like a lament on a harp.
I am filled with anguish for Kir-hareseth.*

12The people of Moab will worship at their pagan shrines, but it will do them no good.
They will cry to the gods in their temples,
but no one will be able to save them.

13The LORD has already said these things about Moab in the past.
14But now the LORD says, "Within three years, counting each day,* the glory of Moab will be ended. From its great population, only a feeble few will be left alive."

FACING THE EMPIRE

Isaiah 17

A MESSAGE ABOUT DAMASCUS AND ISRAEL

1This message came to me concerning Damascus:

“Look, the city of Damascus will disappear!
It will become a heap of ruins.

2The towns of Aroer will be deserted.
Flocks will graze in the streets and lie down undisturbed, with no one to chase them away.

3The fortified towns of Israel* will also be destroyed, and the royal power of Damascus will end.
All that remains of Syria* will share the fate of Israel’s departed glory,” declares the LORD of Heaven’s Armies.

4“In that day Israel’s* glory will grow dim; its robust body will waste away.

5The whole land will look like a grainfield after the harvesters have gathered the grain.
It will be desolate, like the fields in the valley of Rephaim after the harvest.

6Only a few of its people will be left, like stray olives left on a tree after the harvest.
Only two or three remain in the highest branches, four or five scattered here and there on the limbs,” declares the LORD, the God of Israel.

7Then at last the people will look to their Creator and turn their eyes to the Holy One of Israel.

8They will no longer look to their idols for help or worship what their own hands have made.
They will never again bow down to their Asherah poles or worship at the pagan shrines they have built.

9Their largest cities will be like a deserted forest, like the land the Hivites and Amorites abandoned*
when the Israelites came here so long ago.

It will be utterly desolate.

10Why? Because you have turned from the God who can save you.
You have forgotten the Rock who can hide you.
So you may plant the finest grapevines and import the most expensive seedlings.

11They may sprout on the day you set them out; yes, they may blossom on the very morning you plant them, but you will never pick any grapes from them.
Your only harvest will be a load of grief and unrelieved pain.

12Listen! The armies of many nations roar like the roaring of the sea.
Hear the thunder of the mighty forces
as they rush forward like thundering waves.

13But though they thunder like breakers on a beach, God will silence them, and they will run away.
They will flee like chaff scattered by the wind,
like a tumbleweed whirling before a storm.

14In the evening Israel waits in terror, but by dawn its enemies are dead.
This is the just reward of those who plunder us, a fitting end for those who destroy us.

Isaiah 18

A MESSAGE ABOUT ETHIOPIA

1Listen, Ethiopia*—land of fluttering sails* that lies at the headwaters of the Nile,

2that sends ambassadors in swift boats down the river.
Go, swift messengers!
Take a message to a tall, smooth-skinned people, who are feared far and wide for their conquests and destruction, and whose land is divided by rivers.

3All you people of the world, everyone who lives on the earth—when I raise my battle flag on the mountain, look!
When I blow the ram's horn, listen!

4For the LORD has told me this: "I will watch quietly from my dwelling place— as quietly as the heat rises on a summer day, or as the morning dew forms during the harvest."

5Even before you begin your attack, while your plans are ripening like grapes, the LORD will cut off your new growth with pruning shears.
He will snip off and discard your spreading branches.

6Your mighty army will be left dead in the fields for the mountain vultures and wild animals.
The vultures will tear at the corpses all summer.
The wild animals will gnaw at the bones all winter.

7At that time the LORD of Heaven's Armies will receive gifts from this land divided by rivers, from this tall, smooth-skinned people, who are feared far and wide for their conquests and destruction.
They will bring the gifts to Jerusalem,*
where the LORD of Heaven's Armies dwells.

Isaiah 19

A MESSAGE ABOUT EGYPT

1This message came to me concerning Egypt: Look! The LORD is advancing against Egypt, riding on a swift cloud.

The idols of Egypt tremble.
The hearts of the Egyptians melt with fear.

2"I will make Egyptian fight against Egyptian— brother against brother, neighbor against neighbor, city against city, province against province.

3The Egyptians will lose heart, and I will confuse their plans.
They will plead with their idols for wisdom and call on spirits, mediums, and those who consult the spirits of the dead.

4I will hand Egypt over to a hard, cruel master.
A fierce king will rule them,”
says the Lord, the LORD of Heaven’s Armies.

5The waters of the Nile will fail to rise and flood the fields.
The riverbed will be parched and dry.

6The canals of the Nile will dry up, and the streams of Egypt will stink with rotting reeds and rushes.

7All the greenery along the riverbank and all the crops along the river will dry up and blow away.

8The fishermen will lament for lack of work.
Those who cast hooks into the Nile will groan, and those who use nets will lose heart.

9There will be no flax for the harvesters, no thread for the weavers.

10They will be in despair, and all the workers will be sick at heart.

11What fools are the officials of Zoan!
Their best counsel to the king of Egypt is stupid and wrong.
Will they still boast to Pharaoh of their wisdom?
Will they dare brag about all their wise ancestors?

12Where are your wise counselors, Pharaoh?
Let them tell you what God plans, what the LORD of Heaven’s Armies is going to do to Egypt.

13The officials of Zoan are fools, and the officials of Memphis* are deluded.
The leaders of the people have led Egypt astray.

14The LORD has sent a spirit of foolishness on them, so all their suggestions are wrong.
They cause Egypt to stagger like a drunk in his vomit.

15There is nothing Egypt can do.
All are helpless— the head and the tail, the noble palm branch and the lowly reed.

16In that day the Egyptians will be as weak as women. They will cower in fear beneath the upraised fist of the LORD of Heaven's Armies. 17Just to speak the name of Israel will terrorize them, for the LORD of Heaven's Armies has laid out his plans against them.

18In that day five of Egypt's cities will follow the LORD of Heaven's Armies. They will even begin to speak Hebrew, the language of Canaan. One of these cities will be Heliopolis, the City of the Sun.*

19In that day there will be an altar to the LORD in the heart of Egypt, and there will be a monument to the LORD at its border. 20It will be a sign and a witness that the LORD of Heaven's Armies is worshiped in the land of Egypt. When the people cry to the LORD for help against those who oppress them, he will send them a savior who will rescue them. 21The LORD will make himself known to the Egyptians. Yes, they will know the LORD and will give their sacrifices and offerings to him. They will make a vow to the LORD and will keep it. 22The LORD will strike Egypt, and then he will bring healing. For the Egyptians will turn to the LORD, and he will listen to their pleas and heal them.

23In that day Egypt and Assyria will be connected by a highway. The Egyptians and Assyrians will move freely between their lands, and they will both worship God. 24In that day Israel will be the third, along with Egypt and Assyria, a blessing in the midst of the earth. 25For the LORD of Heaven's Armies will say, "Blessed be Egypt, my people. Blessed be Assyria, the land I have made. Blessed be Israel, my special possession!"

Isaiah 20

A MESSAGE ABOUT EGYPT AND ETHIOPIA 1IN THE YEAR

WHEN KING SARGON OF ASSYRIA SENT HIS COMMANDER IN CHIEF TO CAPTURE THE PHILISTINE CITY OF ASHDOD,*2THE LORD TOLD ISAIAH SON OF AMOZ, “TAKE OFF THE BURLAP YOU HAVE BEEN WEARING, AND REMOVE YOUR SANDALS.” ISAIAH DID AS HE WAS TOLD AND WALKED AROUND NAKED AND BAREFOOT.

3Then the LORD said, “My servant Isaiah has been walking around naked and barefoot for the last three years. This is a sign—a symbol of the terrible troubles I will bring upon Egypt and Ethiopia.4For the king of Assyria will take away the Egyptians and Ethiopians as prisoners. He will make them walk naked and barefoot, both young and old, their buttocks bared, to the shame of Egypt. 5Then the Philistines will be thrown into panic, for they counted on the power of Ethiopia and boasted of their allies in Egypt! 6They will say, ‘If this can happen to Egypt, what chance do we have? We were counting on Egypt to protect us from the king of Assyria.’”

Isaiah 21

A MESSAGE ABOUT BABYLON

1This message came to me concerning Babylon—the desert by the sea*: Disaster is roaring down on you from the desert, like a whirlwind sweeping in from the Negev.

2I see a terrifying vision: I see the betrayer betraying, the destroyer destroying.
Go ahead, you Elamites and Medes, attack and lay siege.
I will make an end to all the groaning Babylon caused.

3My stomach aches and burns with pain.
Sharp pangs of anguish are upon me, like those of a woman in labor.
I grow faint when I hear what God is planning; I am too afraid to look.

4My mind reels and my heart races.
I longed for evening to come, but now I am terrified of the dark.

5Look! They are preparing a great feast.
They are spreading rugs for people to sit on.
Everyone is eating and drinking.
But quick! Grab your shields and prepare for battle.
You are being attacked!

6Meanwhile, the Lord said to me, “Put a watchman on the city wall.
Let him shout out what he sees.

7He should look for chariots drawn by pairs of horses, and for riders on donkeys and camels.
Let the watchman be fully alert.”

8Then the watchman* called out, “Day after day I have stood on the watchtower, my lord.
Night after night I have remained at my post.

9Now at last—look!
Here comes a man in a chariot with a pair of horses!”
Then the watchman said, “Babylon is fallen, fallen!
All the idols of Babylon lie broken on the ground!”

10O my people, threshed and winnowed, I have told you everything the LORD of Heaven’s Armies has said, everything the God of Israel has told me.

A MESSAGE ABOUT EDOM

11This message came to me concerning Edom*: Someone from Edom* keeps calling to me, “Watchman, how much longer until morning?

When will the night be over?”

12The watchman replies, “Morning is coming, but night will soon return.
If you wish to ask again, then come back and ask.”

A MESSAGE ABOUT ARABIA

13This message came to me concerning Arabia: O caravans from Dedan, hide in the deserts of Arabia.

14O people of Tema, bring water to these thirsty people, food to these weary refugees.

15They have fled from the sword, from the drawn sword, from the bent bow and the terrors of battle.

16The Lord said to me, “Within a year, counting each day,* all the glory of Kedar will come to an end. 17Only a few of its courageous archers will survive. I, the LORD, the God of Israel, have spoken!”

Isaiah 22

A MESSAGE ABOUT JERUSALEM

1This message came to me concerning Jerusalem—the Valley of Vision*: What is happening?

Why is everyone running to the rooftops?

2The whole city is in a terrible uproar.
What do I see in this reveling city?
Bodies are lying everywhere, killed not in battle but by famine and disease.

3All your leaders have fled.
They surrendered without resistance.
The people tried to slip away, but they were captured, too.

4That’s why I said, “Leave me alone to weep; do not try to comfort me.
Let me cry for my people as I watch them being destroyed.”

5Oh, what a day of crushing defeat!

What a day of confusion and terror brought by the Lord, the LORD of Heaven's Armies, upon the Valley of Vision!
The walls of Jerusalem have been broken, and cries of death echo from the mountainsides.

6Elamites are the archers, with their chariots and charioteers.
The men of Kir hold up the shields.

7Chariots fill your beautiful valleys, and charioteers storm your gates.

8Judah's defenses have been stripped away.
You run to the armory* for your weapons.

9You inspect the breaks in the walls of Jerusalem.*
You store up water in the lower pool.

10You survey the houses and tear some down for stone to strengthen the walls.

11Between the city walls, you build a reservoir for water from the old pool.
But you never ask for help from the One who did all this.
You never considered the One who planned this long ago.

12At that time the Lord, the LORD of Heaven's Armies, called you to weep and mourn.
He told you to shave your heads in sorrow for your sins and to wear clothes of burlap to show your remorse.

13But instead, you dance and play; you slaughter cattle and kill sheep.
You feast on meat and drink wine.
You say, "Let's feast and drink, for tomorrow we die!"

14The LORD of Heaven's Armies has revealed this to me: "Till the day you die, you will never be forgiven for this sin." That is the judgment of the Lord, the LORD of Heaven's Armies.

A MESSAGE FOR SHEBNA

15This is what the Lord, the LORD of Heaven's Armies, said to me:
"Confront Shebna, the palace administrator, and give him this message:

16"Who do you think you are, and what are you doing here, building a beautiful tomb for yourself— a monument high up in the rock?

17For the LORD is about to hurl you away, mighty man.
He is going to grab you,

18crumple you into a ball, and toss you away into a distant, barren land.
There you will die, and your glorious chariots will be broken and useless.
You are a disgrace to your master!

19"Yes, I will drive you out of office," says the LORD. "I will pull you down from your high position. 20And then I will call my servant Eliakim son of Hilkiah to replace you. 21I will dress him in your royal robes and will give him your title and your authority. And he will be a father to the people of Jerusalem and Judah. 22I will give him the key to the house of David—the highest position in the royal court. When he opens doors, no one will be able to close them; when he closes doors, no one will be able to open them. 23He will bring honor to his family name, for I will drive him firmly in place like a nail in the wall. 24They will give him great responsibility, and he will bring honor to even the lowliest members of his family.*"

25But the LORD of Heaven's Armies also says: "The time will come when I will pull out the nail that seemed so firm. It will come out and fall to the ground. Everything it supports will fall with it. I, the LORD, have spoken!"

Isaiah 23

A MESSAGE ABOUT TYRE

1This message came to me concerning Tyre: Wail, you trading ships of Tarshish, for the harbor and houses of Tyre are gone!

The rumors you heard in Cyprus* are all true.

2Mourn in silence, you people of the coast and you merchants of Sidon.
Your traders crossed the sea,*

3sailing over deep waters.
They brought you grain from Egypt* and harvests from along the Nile.
You were the marketplace of the world.

4But now you are put to shame, city of Sidon, for Tyre, the fortress of the sea, says,*
“Now I am childless; I have no sons or daughters.”

5When Egypt hears the news about Tyre, there will be great sorrow.

6Send word now to Tarshish!
Wail, you people who live in distant lands!

7Is this silent ruin all that is left of your once joyous city?
What a long history was yours!
Think of all the colonists you sent to distant places.

8Who has brought this disaster on Tyre, that great creator of kingdoms?
Her traders were all princes, her merchants were nobles.

9The LORD of Heaven’s Armies has done it to destroy your pride and bring low all earth’s nobility.

10Come, people of Tarshish, sweep over the land like the flooding

Nile, for Tyre is defenseless.*

11The LORD held out his hand over the sea and shook the kingdoms of the earth.
He has spoken out against Phoenicia,*
ordering that her fortresses be destroyed.

12He says, “Never again will you rejoice, O daughter of Sidon, for you have been crushed.
Even if you flee to Cyprus, you will find no rest.”

13Look at the land of Babylonia*— the people of that land are gone!
The Assyrians have handed Babylon over to the wild animals of the desert.
They have built siege ramps against its walls, torn down its palaces, and turned it to a heap of rubble.

14Wail, you ships of Tarshish, for your harbor is destroyed!

15For seventy years, the length of a king’s life, Tyre will be forgotten. But then the city will come back to life as in the song about the prostitute:

16Take a harp and walk the streets, you forgotten harlot.
Make sweet melody and sing your songs so you will be remembered again.

17Yes, after seventy years the LORD will revive Tyre. But she will be no different than she was before. She will again be a prostitute to all kingdoms around the world. 18But in the end her profits will be given to the LORD. Her wealth will not be hoarded but will provide good food and fine clothing for the LORD’s priests.

Isaiah 24

DESTRUCTION OF THE EARTH

1Look! The LORD is about to destroy the earth and make it a vast wasteland.
He devastates the surface of the earth and scatters the people.

2Priests and laypeople, servants and masters, maids and mistresses, buyers and sellers, lenders and borrowers, bankers and debtors—none will be spared.

3The earth will be completely emptied and looted.
The LORD has spoken!

4The earth mourns and dries up, and the land wastes away and withers.
Even the greatest people on earth waste away.

5The earth suffers for the sins of its people, for they have twisted God's instructions, violated his laws, and broken his everlasting covenant.

6Therefore, a curse consumes the earth.
Its people must pay the price for their sin.
They are destroyed by fire, and only a few are left alive.

7The grapevines waste away, and there is no new wine.
All the merrymakers sigh and mourn.

8The cheerful sound of tambourines is stilled; the happy cries of celebration are heard no more.
The melodious chords of the harp are silent.

9Gone are the joys of wine and song; alcoholic drink turns bitter in the mouth.

10The city writhes in chaos; every home is locked to keep out intruders.

11Mobs gather in the streets, crying out for wine.
Joy has turned to gloom.
Gladness has been banished from the land.

12The city is left in ruins, its gates battered down.

13Throughout the earth the story is the same— only a remnant is left, like the stray olives left on the tree or the few grapes left on the vine after harvest.

14But all who are left shout and sing for joy.
Those in the west praise the LORD's majesty.

15In eastern lands, give glory to the LORD.
In the lands beyond the sea, praise the name of the LORD, the God of Israel.

16We hear songs of praise from the ends of the earth, songs that give glory to the Righteous One!
But my heart is heavy with grief.
Weep for me, for I wither away.
Deceit still prevails, and treachery is everywhere.

17Terror and traps and snares will be your lot, you people of the earth.

18Those who flee in terror will fall into a trap, and those who escape the trap will be caught in a snare.
Destruction falls like rain from the heavens; the foundations of the earth shake.

19The earth has broken up.
It has utterly collapsed; it is violently shaken.

20The earth staggers like a drunk.
It trembles like a tent in a storm.
It falls and will not rise again, for the guilt of its rebellion is very heavy.

21In that day the LORD will punish the gods in the heavens and the proud rulers of the nations on earth.

22They will be rounded up and put in prison.
They will be shut up in prison and will finally be punished.

23Then the glory of the moon will wane, and the brightness of the sun will fade, for the LORD of Heaven's Armies will rule on Mount Zion.

He will rule in great glory in Jerusalem, in the sight of all the leaders of his people.

Isaiah 25

PRAISE FOR JUDGMENT AND SALVATION

1O LORD, I will honor and praise your name, for you are my God.
You do such wonderful things!
You planned them long ago, and now you have accomplished them.

2You turn mighty cities into heaps of ruins.
Cities with strong walls are turned to rubble.
Beautiful palaces in distant lands disappear and will never be rebuilt.

3Therefore, strong nations will declare your glory; ruthless nations will fear you.

4But you are a tower of refuge to the poor, O LORD, a tower of refuge to the needy in distress.
You are a refuge from the storm and a shelter from the heat.
For the oppressive acts of ruthless people are like a storm beating against a wall, 5or like the relentless heat of the desert.

But you silence the roar of foreign nations.
As the shade of a cloud cools relentless heat, so the boastful songs of ruthless people are stilled.

6In Jerusalem,* the LORD of Heaven's Armies will spread a wonderful feast for all the people of the world.
It will be a delicious banquet with clear, well-aged wine and choice meat.

7There he will remove the cloud of gloom, the shadow of death that hangs over the earth.

8He will swallow up death forever!

The Sovereign LORD will wipe away all tears.
He will remove forever all insults and mockery against his land and people.
The LORD has spoken!

9In that day the people will proclaim, “This is our God!
We trusted in him, and he saved us!
This is the LORD, in whom we trusted.
Let us rejoice in the salvation he brings!”

10For the LORD’s hand of blessing will rest on Jerusalem.
But Moab will be crushed.
It will be like straw trampled down and left to rot.

11God will push down Moab’s people as a swimmer pushes down water with his hands.
He will end their pride and all their evil works.

12The high walls of Moab will be demolished.
They will be brought down to the ground, down into the dust.

Isaiah 26

A SONG OF PRAISE TO THE LORD

1In that day, everyone in the land of Judah will sing this song: Our city is strong!

We are surrounded by the walls of God’s salvation.

2Open the gates to all who are righteous; allow the faithful to enter.

3You will keep in perfect peace all who trust in you, all whose thoughts are fixed on you!

4Trust in the LORD always, for the LORD GOD is the eternal Rock.

5He humbles the proud and brings down the arrogant city.
He brings it down to the dust.

6The poor and oppressed trample it underfoot, and the needy walk all over it.

7But for those who are righteous, the way is not steep and rough.
You are a God who does what is right, and you smooth out the path ahead of them.

8LORD, we show our trust in you by obeying your laws; our heart's desire is to glorify your name.

9In the night I search for you; in the morning* I earnestly seek you.
For only when you come to judge the earth will people learn what is right.

10Your kindness to the wicked does not make them do good.
Although others do right, the wicked keep doing wrong and take no notice of the LORD's majesty.

11O LORD, they pay no attention to your upraised fist.
Show them your eagerness to defend your people.
Then they will be ashamed.
Let your fire consume your enemies.

12LORD, you will grant us peace; all we have accomplished is really from you.

13O LORD our God, others have ruled us, but you alone are the one we worship.

14Those we served before are dead and gone.
Their departed spirits will never return!
You attacked them and destroyed them, and they are long forgotten.

15O LORD, you have made our nation great; yes, you have made us great.
You have extended our borders, and we give you the glory!

16LORD, in distress we searched for you.
We prayed beneath the burden of your discipline.

17Just as a pregnant woman writhes and cries out in pain as she gives birth, so were we in your presence, LORD.

18We, too, writhe in agony, but nothing comes of our suffering.
We have not given salvation to the earth, nor brought life into the world.

19But those who die in the LORD will live; their bodies will rise again!
Those who sleep in the earth will rise up and sing for joy!
For your life-giving light will fall like dew on your people in the place of the dead!

RESTORATION FOR ISRAEL

20Go home, my people, and lock your doors!

Hide yourselves for a little while until the LORD's anger has passed.

21Look! The LORD is coming from heaven to punish the people of the earth for their sins.
The earth will no longer hide those who have been killed.
They will be brought out for all to see.

Isaiah 27

1In that day the LORD will take his terrible, swift sword and punish Leviathan,* the swiftly moving serpent, the coiling, writhing serpent. He will kill the dragon of the sea.

2"In that day, sing about the fruitful vineyard.

3I, the LORD, will watch over it, watering it carefully.
Day and night I will watch so no one can harm it.

4My anger will be gone.
If I find briers and thorns growing, I will attack them; I will burn them up—5unless they turn to me for help.

Let them make peace with me; yes, let them make peace with me."

6The time is coming when Jacob's descendants will take root.
Israel will bud and blossom and fill the whole earth with fruit!

7Has the LORD struck Israel as he struck her enemies?
Has he punished her as he punished them?

8No, but he exiled Israel to call her to account.
She was exiled from her land as though blown away in a storm from the east.

9The LORD did this to purge Israel's* wickedness, to take away all her sin.
As a result, all the pagan altars will be crushed to dust.
No Asherah pole or pagan shrine will be left standing.

10The fortified towns will be silent and empty, the houses abandoned, the streets overgrown with weeds.
Calves will graze there, chewing on twigs and branches.

11The people are like the dead branches of a tree, broken off and used for kindling beneath the cooking pots.
Israel is a foolish and stupid nation, for its people have turned away from God.
Therefore, the one who made them will show them no pity or mercy.

12Yet the time will come when the LORD will gather them together like handpicked grain. One by one he will gather them—from the Euphrates River* in the east to the Brook of Egypt in the west. 13In that day the great trumpet will sound. Many who were dying in exile in Assyria and Egypt will return to Jerusalem to worship the LORD on his holy mountain.

Isaiah 28

A MESSAGE ABOUT SAMARIA

1What sorrow awaits the proud city of Samaria— the glorious crown of the drunks of Israel.*

It sits at the head of a fertile valley, but its glorious beauty will fade like a flower.
It is the pride of a people brought down by wine.

2For the Lord will send a mighty army against it.
Like a mighty hailstorm and a torrential rain, they will burst upon it like a surging flood and smash it to the ground.

3The proud city of Samaria— the glorious crown of the drunks of Israel*— will be trampled beneath its enemies' feet.

4It sits at the head of a fertile valley, but its glorious beauty will fade like a flower.
Whoever sees it will snatch it up, as an early fig is quickly picked and eaten.

5Then at last the LORD of Heaven's Armies will himself be Israel's glorious crown.
He will be the pride and joy of the remnant of his people.

6He will give a longing for justice to their judges.
He will give great courage to their warriors who stand at the gates.

7Now, however, Israel is led by drunks who reel with wine and stagger with alcohol.
The priests and prophets stagger with alcohol and lose themselves in wine.
They reel when they see visions and stagger as they render decisions.

8Their tables are covered with vomit; filth is everywhere.

9"Who does the LORD think we are?" they ask.
"Why does he speak to us like this?
Are we little children, just recently weaned?

10He tells us everything over and over— one line at a time, one line at a time, a little here, and a little there!"

11So now God will have to speak to his people through foreign oppressors who speak a strange language!

12God has told his people, “Here is a place of rest; let the weary rest here.
This is a place of quiet rest.”
But they would not listen.

13So the LORD will spell out his message for them again, one line at a time, one line at a time, a little here, and a little there, so that they will stumble and fall.
They will be injured, trapped, and captured.

14Therefore, listen to this message from the LORD, you scoffing rulers in Jerusalem.

15You boast, “We have struck a bargain to cheat death and have made a deal to dodge the grave.*
The coming destruction can never touch us, for we have built a strong refuge made of lies and deception.”

16Therefore, this is what the Sovereign LORD says: “Look! I am placing a foundation stone in Jerusalem,*
a firm and tested stone.
It is a precious cornerstone that is safe to build on.
Whoever believes need never be shaken.*

17I will test you with the measuring line of justice and the plumb line of righteousness.
Since your refuge is made of lies, a hailstorm will knock it down.
Since it is made of deception, a flood will sweep it away.

18I will cancel the bargain you made to cheat death, and I will overturn your deal to dodge the grave.
When the terrible enemy sweeps through, you will be trampled into the ground.

19Again and again that flood will come, morning after morning, day and night, until you are carried away.”

This message will bring terror to your people.

20The bed you have made is too short to lie on.
The blankets are too narrow to cover you.

21The LORD will come as he did against the Philistines at Mount Perazim and against the Amorites at Gibeon.
He will come to do a strange thing; he will come to do an unusual deed:

22For the Lord, the LORD of Heaven's Armies, has plainly said that he is determined to crush the whole land.
So scoff no more, or your punishment will be even greater.

23Listen to me; listen, and pay close attention.

24Does a farmer always plow and never sow?
Is he forever cultivating the soil and never planting?

25Does he not finally plant his seeds— black cumin, cumin, wheat, barley, and emmer wheat— each in its proper way, and each in its proper place?

26The farmer knows just what to do, for God has given him understanding.

27A heavy sledge is never used to thresh black cumin; rather, it is beaten with a light stick.
A threshing wheel is never rolled on cumin; instead, it is beaten lightly with a flail.

28Grain for bread is easily crushed, so he doesn't keep on pounding it.
He threshes it under the wheels of a cart, but he doesn't pulverize it.

29The LORD of Heaven's Armies is a wonderful teacher, and he gives the farmer great wisdom.

Isaiah 29

A MESSAGE ABOUT JERUSALEM

1“What sorrow awaits Ariel,* the City of David.
Year after year you celebrate your feasts.

2Yet I will bring disaster upon you, and there will be much weeping and sorrow.
For Jerusalem will become what her name Ariel means— an altar covered with blood.

3I will be your enemy, surrounding Jerusalem and attacking its walls.
I will build siege towers and destroy it.

4Then deep from the earth you will speak; from low in the dust your words will come.
Your voice will whisper from the ground like a ghost conjured up from the grave.

5“But suddenly, your ruthless enemies will be crushed like the finest of dust.
Your many attackers will be driven away like chaff before the wind.
Suddenly, in an instant,

6I, the LORD of Heaven’s Armies, will act for you with thunder and earthquake and great noise, with whirlwind and storm and consuming fire.

7All the nations fighting against Jerusalem* will vanish like a dream!
Those who are attacking her walls will vanish like a vision in the night.

8A hungry person dreams of eating but wakes up still hungry.
A thirsty person dreams of drinking but is still faint from thirst when morning comes.
So it will be with your enemies, with those who attack Mount Zion.”

9Are you amazed and incredulous?

Don't you believe it?
Then go ahead and be blind.
You are stupid, but not from wine!
You stagger, but not from liquor!

10For the LORD has poured out on you a spirit of deep sleep.
He has closed the eyes of your prophets and visionaries.

11All the future events in this vision are like a sealed book to them.
When you give it to those who can read, they will say, "We can't read it because it is sealed." 12When you give it to those who cannot read, they will say, "We don't know how to read."

13And so the Lord says, "These people say they are mine.
They honor me with their lips, but their hearts are far from me.
And their worship of me is nothing but man-made rules learned by rote.*

14Because of this, I will once again astound these hypocrites with amazing wonders.
The wisdom of the wise will pass away, and the intelligence of the intelligent will disappear."

15What sorrow awaits those who try to hide their plans from the LORD, who do their evil deeds in the dark!
"The LORD can't see us," they say.
"He doesn't know what's going on!"

16How foolish can you be?
He is the Potter, and he is certainly greater than you, the clay!
Should the created thing say of the one who made it, "He didn't make me"?
Does a jar ever say, "The potter who made me is stupid"?

17Soon—and it will not be very long— the forests of Lebanon will become a fertile field, and the fertile field will yield bountiful crops.

18In that day the deaf will hear words read from a book, and the blind will see through the gloom and darkness.

19The humble will be filled with fresh joy from the LORD.
The poor will rejoice in the Holy One of Israel.

20The scoffer will be gone, the arrogant will disappear, and those who plot evil will be killed.

21Those who convict the innocent by their false testimony will disappear.
A similar fate awaits those who use trickery to pervert justice and who tell lies to destroy the innocent.

22That is why the LORD, who redeemed Abraham, says to the people of Israel,*

“My people will no longer be ashamed or turn pale with fear.

23For when they see their many children and all the blessings I have given them, they will recognize the holiness of the Holy One of Jacob.
They will stand in awe of the God of Israel.

24Then the wayward will gain understanding, and complainers will accept instruction.

Isaiah 30

JUDAH’S WORTHLESS TREATY WITH EGYPT

1“What sorrow awaits my rebellious children,”
says the LORD.
“You make plans that are contrary to mine.
You make alliances not directed by my Spirit, thus piling up your sins.

2For without consulting me, you have gone down to Egypt for help.
You have put your trust in Pharaoh’s protection.

You have tried to hide in his shade.

3But by trusting Pharaoh, you will be humiliated, and by depending on him, you will be disgraced.

4For though his power extends to Zoan and his officials have arrived in Hanes,

5all who trust in him will be ashamed.
He will not help you.
Instead, he will disgrace you.”

6This message came to me concerning the animals in the Negev:
The caravan moves slowly across the terrible desert to Egypt—donkeys weighed down with riches and camels loaded with treasure — all to pay for Egypt’s protection.

They travel through the wilderness, a place of lionesses and lions, a place where vipers and poisonous snakes live.
All this, and Egypt will give you nothing in return.

7Egypt’s promises are worthless!
Therefore, I call her Rahab— the Harmless Dragon.*

A WARNING FOR REBELLIOUS JUDAH

8Now go and write down these words.

Write them in a book.
They will stand until the end of time as a witness

9that these people are stubborn rebels who refuse to pay attention to the LORD’s instructions.

10They tell the seers, “Stop seeing visions!”
They tell the prophets, “Don’t tell us what is right.
Tell us nice things.
Tell us lies.

11Forget all this gloom.
Get off your narrow path.

Stop telling us about your ‘Holy One of Israel.’”

12This is the reply of the Holy One of Israel: “Because you despise what I tell you and trust instead in oppression and lies,

13calamity will come upon you suddenly— like a bulging wall that bursts and falls.
In an instant it will collapse and come crashing down.

14You will be smashed like a piece of pottery— shattered so completely that there won’t be a piece big enough to carry coals from a fireplace or a little water from the well.”

15This is what the Sovereign LORD, the Holy One of Israel, says:
“Only in returning to me and resting in me will you be saved.
In quietness and confidence is your strength.
But you would have none of it.

16You said, ‘No, we will get our help from Egypt.
They will give us swift horses for riding into battle.’
But the only swiftness you are going to see is the swiftness of your enemies chasing you!

17One of them will chase a thousand of you.
Five of them will make all of you flee.
You will be left like a lonely flagpole on a hill or a tattered banner on a distant mountaintop.”

BLESSINGS FOR THE LORD’S PEOPLE

18So the LORD must wait for you to come to him so he can show you his love and compassion.

For the LORD is a faithful God.
Blessed are those who wait for his help.

19O people of Zion, who live in Jerusalem, you will weep no more.
He will be gracious if you ask for help.
He will surely respond to the sound of your cries.

20Though the Lord gave you adversity for food and suffering for drink, he will still be with you to teach you.

You will see your teacher with your own eyes.

21Your own ears will hear him.
Right behind you a voice will say, “This is the way you should go,” whether to the right or to the left.

22Then you will destroy all your silver idols and your precious gold images.
You will throw them out like filthy rags, saying to them, “Good riddance!”

23Then the LORD will bless you with rain at planting time. There will be wonderful harvests and plenty of pastureland for your livestock. 24The oxen and donkeys that till the ground will eat good grain, its chaff blown away by the wind. 25In that day, when your enemies are slaughtered and the towers fall, there will be streams of water flowing down every mountain and hill. 26The moon will be as bright as the sun, and the sun will be seven times brighter—like the light of seven days in one! So it will be when the LORD begins to heal his people and cure the wounds he gave them.

27Look! The LORD is coming from far away, burning with anger, surrounded by thick, rising smoke.
His lips are filled with fury; his words consume like fire.

28His hot breath pours out like a flood up to the neck of his enemies.
He will sift out the proud nations for destruction.
He will bridle them and lead them away to ruin.

29But the people of God will sing a song of joy, like the songs at the holy festivals.
You will be filled with joy, as when a flutist leads a group of pilgrims to Jerusalem, the mountain of the LORD— to the Rock of Israel.

30And the LORD will make his majestic voice heard.
He will display the strength of his mighty arm.
It will descend with devouring flames, with cloudbursts, thunderstorms, and huge hailstones.

31At the LORD's command, the Assyrians will be shattered.
He will strike them down with his royal scepter.

32And as the LORD strikes them with his rod of punishment,* his people will celebrate with tambourines and harps.
Lifting his mighty arm, he will fight the Assyrians.

33Topheth—the place of burning— has long been ready for the Assyrian king; the pyre is piled high with wood.
The breath of the LORD, like fire from a volcano, will set it ablaze.

Isaiah 31

THE FUTILITY OF RELYING ON EGYPT

1What sorrow awaits those who look to Egypt for help, trusting their horses, chariots, and charioteers and depending on the strength of human armies instead of looking to the LORD, the Holy
One of Israel.

2In his wisdom, the LORD will send great disaster; he will not change his mind.
He will rise against the wicked and against their helpers.

3For these Egyptians are mere humans, not God!
Their horses are puny flesh, not mighty spirits!
When the LORD raises his fist against them, those who help will stumble, and those being helped will fall.
They will all fall down and die together.

4But this is what the LORD has told me: "When a strong young lion stands growling over a sheep it has killed, it is not frightened by the shouts and noise of a whole crowd of shepherds.

In the same way, the LORD of Heaven's Armies will come down and fight on Mount Zion.

5The LORD of Heaven's Armies will hover over Jerusalem and protect it like a bird protecting its nest.

He will defend and save the city; he will pass over it and rescue it.”

6Though you are such wicked rebels, my people, come and return to the LORD. 7I know the glorious day will come when each of you will throw away the gold idols and silver images your sinful hands have made.

8“The Assyrians will be destroyed, but not by the swords of men.
The sword of God will strike them, and they will panic and flee.
The strong young Assyrians will be taken away as captives.

9Even the strongest will quake with terror, and princes will flee when they see your battle flags,” says the LORD, whose fire burns in Zion, whose flame blazes from Jerusalem.

Isaiah 32

ISRAEL’S ULTIMATE DELIVERANCE

1Look, a righteous king is coming!
And honest princes will rule under him.

2Each one will be like a shelter from the wind and a refuge from the storm, like streams of water in the desert and the shadow of a great rock in a parched land.

3Then everyone who has eyes will be able to see the truth, and everyone who has ears will be able to hear it.

4Even the hotheads will be full of sense and understanding.
Those who stammer will speak out plainly.

5In that day ungodly fools will not be heroes.
Scoundrels will not be respected.

6For fools speak foolishness and make evil plans.
They practice ungodliness and spread false teachings about the
LORD.

They deprive the hungry of food and give no water to the thirsty.

7The smooth tricks of scoundrels are evil.
They plot crooked schemes.
They lie to convict the poor, even when the cause of the poor is just.

8But generous people plan to do what is generous, and they stand firm in their generosity.

9Listen, you women who lie around in ease.
Listen to me, you who are so smug.

10In a short time—just a little more than a year— you careless ones will suddenly begin to care.
For your fruit crops will fail, and the harvest will never take place.

11Tremble, you women of ease; throw off your complacency.
Strip off your pretty clothes, and put on burlap to show your grief.

12Beat your breasts in sorrow for your bountiful farms and your fruitful grapevines.

13For your land will be overgrown with thorns and briers.
Your joyful homes and happy towns will be gone.

14The palace and the city will be deserted, and busy towns will be empty.
Wild donkeys will frolic and flocks will graze in the empty forts* and watchtowers 15until at last the Spirit is poured out on us from heaven.

Then the wilderness will become a fertile field, and the fertile field will yield bountiful crops.

16Justice will rule in the wilderness and righteousness in the fertile field.

17And this righteousness will bring peace.
Yes, it will bring quietness and confidence forever.

18My people will live in safety, quietly at home.
They will be at rest.

19Even if the forest should be destroyed and the city torn down,

20the LORD will greatly bless his people.
Wherever they plant seed, bountiful crops will spring up.
Their cattle and donkeys will graze freely.

Isaiah 33

A MESSAGE ABOUT ASSYRIA

1What sorrow awaits you Assyrians, who have destroyed others* but have never been destroyed yourselves.
You betray others, but you have never been betrayed.
When you are done destroying, you will be destroyed.
When you are done betraying, you will be betrayed.

2But LORD, be merciful to us, for we have waited for you.
Be our strong arm each day and our salvation in times of trouble.

3The enemy runs at the sound of your voice.
When you stand up, the nations flee!

4Just as caterpillars and locusts strip the fields and vines, so the fallen army of Assyria will be stripped!

5Though the LORD is very great and lives in heaven, he will make Jerusalem* his home of justice and righteousness.

6In that day he will be your sure foundation, providing a rich store of salvation, wisdom, and knowledge.
The fear of the LORD will be your treasure.

7But now your brave warriors weep in public.
Your ambassadors of peace cry in bitter disappointment.

8Your roads are deserted; no one travels them anymore.

The Assyrians have broken their peace treaty and care nothing for the promises they made before witnesses.*
They have no respect for anyone.

9The land of Israel wilts in mourning.
Lebanon withers with shame.
The plain of Sharon is now a wilderness.
Bashan and Carmel have been plundered.

10But the LORD says: “Now I will stand up.
Now I will show my power and might.

11You Assyrians produce nothing but dry grass and stubble.
Your own breath will turn to fire and consume you.

12Your people will be burned up completely, like thornbushes cut down and tossed in a fire.

13Listen to what I have done, you nations far away!
And you that are near, acknowledge my might!”

14The sinners in Jerusalem shake with fear.
Terror seizes the godless.
“Who can live with this devouring fire?” they cry.
“Who can survive this all-consuming fire?”

15Those who are honest and fair, who refuse to profit by fraud, who stay far away from bribes, who refuse to listen to those who plot murder, who shut their eyes to all enticement to do wrong—16these are the ones who will dwell on high.

The rocks of the mountains will be their fortress.
Food will be supplied to them, and they will have water in abundance.

17Your eyes will see the king in all his splendor, and you will see a land that stretches into the distance.

18You will think back to this time of terror, asking, “Where are the Assyrian officers who counted our towers?
Where are the bookkeepers who recorded the plunder taken from our fallen city?”

19You will no longer see these fierce, violent people with their strange, unknown language.

20Instead, you will see Zion as a place of holy festivals.
You will see Jerusalem, a city quiet and secure.
It will be like a tent whose ropes are taut and whose stakes are firmly fixed.

21The LORD will be our Mighty One.
He will be like a wide river of protection that no enemy can cross, that no enemy ship can sail upon.

22For the LORD is our judge, our lawgiver, and our king.
He will care for us and save us.

23The enemies' sails hang loose on broken masts with useless tackle.
Their treasure will be divided by the people of God.
Even the lame will take their share!

24The people of Israel will no longer say, "We are sick and helpless," for the LORD will forgive their sins.

Isaiah 34

A MESSAGE FOR THE NATIONS

1Come here and listen, O nations of the earth.
Let the world and everything in it hear my words.

2For the LORD is enraged against the nations.
His fury is against all their armies.
He will completely destroy* them, dooming them to slaughter.

3Their dead will be left unburied, and the stench of rotting bodies will fill the land.
The mountains will flow with their blood.

4The heavens above will melt away and disappear like a rolled-up scroll.
The stars will fall from the sky like withered leaves from a grapevine, or shriveled figs from a fig tree.

5And when my sword has finished its work in the heavens, it will fall upon Edom, the nation I have marked for destruction.

6The sword of the LORD is drenched with blood and covered with fat— with the blood of lambs and goats, with the fat of rams prepared for sacrifice.
Yes, the LORD will offer a sacrifice in the city of Bozrah.
He will make a mighty slaughter in Edom.

7Even men as strong as wild oxen will die— the young men alongside the veterans.
The land will be soaked with blood and the soil enriched with fat.

8For it is the day of the LORD's revenge, the year when Edom will be paid back for all it did to Israel.*

9The streams of Edom will be filled with burning pitch, and the ground will be covered with fire.

10This judgment on Edom will never end; the smoke of its burning will rise forever.
The land will lie deserted from generation to generation.
No one will live there anymore.

11It will be haunted by the desert owl and the screech owl, the great owl and the raven.*
For God will measure that land carefully; he will measure it for chaos and destruction.

12It will be called the Land of Nothing, and all its nobles will soon be gone.*

13Thorns will overrun its palaces; nettles and thistles will grow in its forts.
The ruins will become a haunt for jackals and a home for owls.

14Desert animals will mingle there with hyenas, their howls filling the night.
Wild goats will bleat at one another among the ruins, and night creatures* will come there to rest.

15There the owl will make her nest and lay her eggs.
She will hatch her young and cover them with her wings.
And the buzzards will come, each one with its mate.

16Search the book of the LORD, and see what he will do.
Not one of these birds and animals will be missing, and none will lack a mate, for the LORD has promised this.
His Spirit will make it all come true.

17He has surveyed and divided the land and deeded it over to those creatures.
They will possess it forever, from generation to generation.

Isaiah 35

HOPE FOR RESTORATION

1Even the wilderness and desert will be glad in those days.
The wasteland will rejoice and blossom with spring crocuses.

2Yes, there will be an abundance of flowers and singing and joy!
The deserts will become as green as the mountains of Lebanon, as lovely as Mount Carmel or the plain of Sharon.
There the LORD will display his glory, the splendor of our God.

3With this news, strengthen those who have tired hands, and encourage those who have weak knees.

4Say to those with fearful hearts, “Be strong, and do not fear, for your God is coming to destroy your enemies.
He is coming to save you.”

5And when he comes, he will open the eyes of the blind and unplug the ears of the deaf.

6The lame will leap like a deer, and those who cannot speak will sing for joy!

Springs will gush forth in the wilderness, and streams will water the wasteland.

7The parched ground will become a pool, and springs of water will satisfy the thirsty land.
Marsh grass and reeds and rushes will flourish where desert jackals once lived.

8And a great road will go through that once deserted land.
It will be named the Highway of Holiness.
Evil-minded people will never travel on it.
It will be only for those who walk in God's ways; fools will never walk there.

9Lions will not lurk along its course, nor any other ferocious beasts.
There will be no other dangers.
Only the redeemed will walk on it.

10Those who have been ransomed by the LORD will return.
They will enter Jerusalem* singing, crowned with everlasting joy.
Sorrow and mourning will disappear, and they will be filled with joy and gladness.

ANGELS ISAIAH 36–37

ASSYRIA INVADES JUDAH

After the Assyrians defeated Damascus and Israel, Judah was next on their march south to Egypt. The army marched to Jerusalem and offered terms of peace that would force Judah to become subjects. King Hezekiah had a choice: Would he surrender, or would he trust in God's protection?

Isa 36–37

ASSYRIA INVADES JUDAH

Isaiah 36

ASSYRIA INVADES JUDAH

1In the fourteenth year of King Hezekiah's reign,* King Sennacherib of Assyria came to attack the fortified towns of Judah and conquered them. 2Then the king of Assyria sent his chief of staff* from Lachish with a huge army to confront King Hezekiah in Jerusalem. The Assyrians took up a position beside the aqueduct that feeds water into the upper pool, near the road leading to the field where cloth is washed.*

3These are the officials who went out to meet with them: Eliakim son of Hilkiah, the palace administrator; Shebna the court secretary; and Joah son of Asaph, the royal historian.

SENNACHERIB THREATENS JERUSALEM

4Then the Assyrian king's chief of staff told them to give this message to Hezekiah:

"This is what the great king of Assyria says: What are you trusting in that makes you so confident? 5Do you think* that mere words can substitute for military skill and strength? Who are you counting on, that you have rebelled against me? 6On Egypt? If you lean on Egypt, it will be like a reed that splinters beneath your weight and pierces your hand. Pharaoh, the king of Egypt, is completely unreliable!

7"But perhaps you will say to me, 'We are trusting in the LORD our God!' But isn't he the one who was insulted by Hezekiah? Didn't Hezekiah tear down his shrines and altars and make everyone in Judah and Jerusalem worship only at the altar here in Jerusalem?

8"I'll tell you what! Strike a bargain with my master, the king of Assyria. I will give you 2,000 horses if you can find that many men to ride on them! 9With your tiny army, how can you think of challenging even the weakest contingent of my master's troops, even with the help of Egypt's chariots and charioteers? 10What's more, do you think we have invaded your land without the LORD's direction? The LORD himself told us, 'Attack this land and destroy it!'"

11Then Eliakim, Shebna, and Joah said to the Assyrian chief of staff, "Please speak to us in Aramaic, for we understand it well. Don't speak in Hebrew,* for the people on the wall will hear."

12But Sennacherib's chief of staff replied, "Do you think my master sent this message only to you and your master? He wants all the people to hear it, for when we put this city under siege, they will suffer along with you. They will be so hungry and thirsty that they will eat their own dung and drink their own urine."

13Then the chief of staff stood and shouted in Hebrew to the people on the wall, "Listen to this message from the great king of Assyria! 14This is what the king says: Don't let Hezekiah deceive you. He will never be able to rescue you. 15Don't let him fool you into trusting in the LORD by saying, 'The LORD will surely rescue us. This city will never fall into the hands of the Assyrian king!'

16"Don't listen to Hezekiah! These are the terms the king of Assyria is offering: Make peace with me—open the gates and come out. Then each of you can continue eating from your own grapevine and fig tree and drinking from your own well. 17Then I will arrange to take you to another land like this one—a land of grain and new wine, bread and vineyards.

18"Don't let Hezekiah mislead you by saying, 'The LORD will rescue us!' Have the gods of any other nations ever saved their people from the king of Assyria? 19What happened to the gods of Hamath and Arpad? And what about the gods of Sepharvaim? Did any god rescue Samaria from my power? 20What god of any nation has ever been able to save its people from my power? So what makes you think that the LORD can rescue Jerusalem from me?"

21But the people were silent and did not utter a word because Hezekiah had commanded them, “Do not answer him.”

22Then Eliakim son of Hilkiah, the palace administrator; Shebna the court secretary; and Joah son of Asaph, the royal historian, went back to Hezekiah. They tore their clothes in despair, and they went in to see the king and told him what the Assyrian chief of staff had said.

Isaiah 37

HEZEKIAH SEEKS THE LORD’S HELP

1When King Hezekiah heard their report, he tore his clothes and put on burlap and went into the Temple of the LORD. 2And he sent Eliakim the palace administrator, Shebna the court secretary, and the leading priests, all dressed in burlap, to the prophet Isaiah son of Amoz. 3They told him, “This is what King Hezekiah says: Today is a day of trouble, insults, and disgrace. It is like when a child is ready to be born, but the mother has no strength to deliver the baby. 4But perhaps the LORD your God has heard the Assyrian chief of staff,* sent by the king to defy the living God, and will punish him for his words. Oh, pray for those of us who are left!”

5After King Hezekiah’s officials delivered the king’s message to Isaiah, 6the prophet replied, “Say to your master, ‘This is what the LORD says: Do not be disturbed by this blasphemous speech against me from the Assyrian king’s messengers. 7Listen! I myself will move against him,* and the king will receive a message that he is needed at home. So he will return to his land, where I will have him killed with a sword.’”

8Meanwhile, the Assyrian chief of staff left Jerusalem and went to consult the king of Assyria, who had left Lachish and was attacking Libnah.

9Soon afterward King Sennacherib received word that King
Tirhakah of Ethiopia* was leading an army to fight against him.
Before leaving to meet the attack, he sent messengers back to Hezekiah in Jerusalem with this message:

10"This message is for King Hezekiah of Judah. Don't let your God, in whom you trust, deceive you with promises that Jerusalem will not be captured by the king of Assyria. 11You know perfectly well what the kings of Assyria have done wherever they have gone. They have completely destroyed everyone who stood in their way! Why should you be any different? 12Have the gods of other nations rescued them—such nations as Gozan, Haran, Rezeph, and the people of Eden who were in Tel-assar? My predecessors destroyed them all! 13What happened to the king of Hamath and the king of Arpad? What happened to the kings of Sepharvaim, Hena, and Ivvah?"

14After Hezekiah received the letter from the messengers and read it, he went up to the LORD's Temple and spread it out before the LORD. 15And Hezekiah prayed this prayer before the LORD: 16"O LORD of Heaven's Armies, God of Israel, you are enthroned between the mighty cherubim! You alone are God of all the kingdoms of the earth. You alone created the heavens and the earth.
17Bend down, O LORD, and listen! Open your eyes, O LORD, and see! Listen to Sennacherib's words of defiance against the living God.

18"It is true, LORD, that the kings of Assyria have destroyed all these nations. 19And they have thrown the gods of these nations into the fire and burned them. But of course the Assyrians could destroy them! They were not gods at all—only idols of wood and stone shaped by human hands. 20Now, O LORD our God, rescue us from his power; then all the kingdoms of the earth will know that you alone, O LORD, are God.*"

ISAIAH PREDICTS JUDAH'S DELIVERANCE

21Then Isaiah son of Amoz sent this message to Hezekiah: “This is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says: Because you prayed about King Sennacherib of Assyria, 22the LORD has spoken this word against him: “The virgin daughter of Zion despises you and laughs at you.

The daughter of Jerusalem shakes her head in derision as you flee.

23“Whom have you been defying and ridiculing?
Against whom did you raise your voice?
At whom did you look with such haughty eyes?
It was the Holy One of Israel!

24By your messengers you have defied the Lord.
You have said, ‘With my many chariots
I have conquered the highest mountains—
yes, the remotest peaks of Lebanon.
I have cut down its tallest cedars and its finest cypress trees.
I have reached its farthest heights and explored its deepest forests.

25I have dug wells in many foreign lands* and refreshed myself with their water.
With the sole of my foot,
I stopped up all the rivers of Egypt!’

26“But have you not heard?
I decided this long ago.
Long ago I planned it,
and now I am making it happen.
I planned for you to crush fortified cities into heaps of rubble.

27That is why their people have so little power and are so frightened and confused.
They are as weak as grass, as easily trampled as tender green shoots.

They are like grass sprouting on a housetop, scorched* before it can grow lush and tall.

28"But I know you well— where you stay and when you come and go.
I know the way you have raged against me.

29And because of your raging against me and your arrogance, which I have heard for myself,
I will put my hook in your nose and my bit in your mouth.
I will make you return by the same road on which you came."

30Then Isaiah said to Hezekiah, "Here is the proof that what I say is true: "This year you will eat only what grows up by itself, and next year you will eat what springs up from that.

But in the third year you will plant crops and harvest them;
you will tend vineyards and eat their fruit.

31And you who are left in Judah, who have escaped the ravages of the siege, will put roots down in your own soil and grow up and flourish.

32For a remnant of my people will spread out from Jerusalem, a group of survivors from Mount Zion.
The passionate commitment of the LORD of Heaven's Armies will make this happen!

33"And this is what the LORD says about the king of Assyria: "'His armies will not enter Jerusalem.

They will not even shoot an arrow at it.
They will not march outside its gates with their shields nor build banks of earth against its walls.

34The king will return to his own country by the same road on which he came.
He will not enter this city,'

says the LORD.

35‘For my own honor and for the sake of my servant David, I will defend this city and protect it.’”

36That night the angel of the LORD went out to the Assyrian camp and killed 185,000 Assyrian soldiers. When the surviving Assyrians* woke up the next morning, they found corpses everywhere. 37Then King Sennacherib of Assyria broke camp and returned to his own land. He went home to his capital of Nineveh and stayed there.

38One day while he was worshiping in the temple of his god Nisroch, his sons Adrammelech and Sharezer killed him with their swords. They then escaped to the land of Ararat, and another son, Esarhaddon, became the next king of Assyria.

Isaiah 38

HEZEKIAH'S SICKNESS AND RECOVERY

1About that time Hezekiah became deathly ill, and the prophet Isaiah son of Amoz went to visit him. He gave the king this message: "This is what the LORD says: 'Set your affairs in order, for you are going to die. You will not recover from this illness.'"

2When Hezekiah heard this, he turned his face to the wall and prayed to the LORD, 3"Remember, O LORD, how I have always been faithful to you and have served you single-mindedly, always doing what pleases you." Then he broke down and wept bitterly.

4Then this message came to Isaiah from the LORD: 5"Go back to Hezekiah and tell him, 'This is what the LORD, the God of your ancestor David, says: I have heard your prayer and seen your tears.
I will add fifteen years to your life, 6and I will rescue you and this city from the king of Assyria. Yes, I will defend this city.

7"'And this is the sign from the LORD to prove that he will do as he promised: 8I will cause the sun's shadow to move ten steps backward on the sundial* of Ahaz!'" So the shadow on the sundial moved backward ten steps.

HEZEKIAH'S POEM OF PRAISE

9When King Hezekiah was well again, he wrote this poem:

10I said, "In the prime of my life, must I now enter the place of the dead?*
Am I to be robbed of the rest of my years?"

11I said, "Never again will I see the LORD GOD while still in the land of the living.
Never again will I see my friends or be with those who live in this world.

12My life has been blown away like a shepherd's tent in a storm.
It has been cut short,
as when a weaver cuts cloth from a loom.
Suddenly, my life was over.

13I waited patiently all night, but I was torn apart as though by lions.
Suddenly, my life was over.

14Delirious, I chattered like a swallow or a crane, and then I moaned like a mourning dove.
My eyes grew tired of looking to heaven for help.
I am in trouble, Lord. Help me!"

15But what could I say?
For he himself sent this sickness.
Now I will walk humbly throughout my years because of this anguish I have felt.

16Lord, your discipline is good, for it leads to life and health.
You restore my health and allow me to live!

17Yes, this anguish was good for me, for you have rescued me from death and forgiven all my sins.

18For the dead* cannot praise you; they cannot raise their voices in praise.
Those who go down to the grave can no longer hope in your faithfulness.

19Only the living can praise you as I do today.
Each generation tells of your faithfulness to the next.

20Think of it—the LORD is ready to heal me!
I will sing his praises with instruments every day of my life in the Temple of the LORD.

21Isaiah had said to Hezekiah's servants, "Make an ointment from figs and spread it over the boil, and Hezekiah will recover."

22And Hezekiah had asked, "What sign will prove that I will go to the Temple of the LORD?"

Isaiah 39

ENVOYS FROM BABYLON

1Soon after this, Merodach-baladan son of Baladan, king of Babylon, sent Hezekiah his best wishes and a gift. He had heard that Hezekiah had been very sick and that he had recovered. 2Hezekiah was delighted with the Babylonian envoys and showed them everything in his treasure-houses—the silver, the gold, the spices, and the aromatic oils. He also took them to see his armory and showed them everything in his royal treasuries! There was nothing in his palace or kingdom that Hezekiah did not show them.

3Then Isaiah the prophet went to King Hezekiah and asked him,

“What did those men want? Where were they from?”

Hezekiah replied, “They came from the distant land of Babylon.”

4“What did they see in your palace?” asked Isaiah.

“They saw everything,” Hezekiah replied. “I showed them everything I own—all my royal treasuries.”

5Then Isaiah said to Hezekiah, “Listen to this message from the LORD of Heaven’s Armies: 6‘The time is coming when everything in your palace—all the treasures stored up by your ancestors until now—will be carried off to Babylon. Nothing will be left,’ says the LORD. 7‘Some of your very own sons will be taken away into exile. They will become eunuchs who will serve in the palace of Babylon’s king.’”

8Then Hezekiah said to Isaiah, “This message you have given me from the LORD is good.” For the king was thinking, “At least there will be peace and security during my lifetime.”

Isaiah 40

COMFORT FOR GOD'S PEOPLE

1"Comfort, comfort my people," says your God.

2"Speak tenderly to Jerusalem.
Tell her that her sad days are gone and her sins are pardoned.
Yes, the LORD has punished her twice over for all her sins."

3Listen! It's the voice of someone shouting, "Clear the way through the wilderness for the LORD!
Make a straight highway through the wasteland for our God!

4Fill in the valleys, and level the mountains and hills.
Straighten the curves,
and smooth out the rough places.

5Then the glory of the LORD will be revealed, and all people will see it together.

The LORD has spoken!”*

6A voice said, “Shout!”
I asked, “What should I shout?” “Shout that people are like the grass.
Their beauty fades as quickly as the flowers in a field.

7The grass withers and the flowers fade beneath the breath of the LORD.
And so it is with people.

8The grass withers and the flowers fade, but the word of our God stands forever.”

9O Zion, messenger of good news, shout from the mountaintops!
Shout it louder, O Jerusalem.*
Shout, and do not be afraid.
Tell the towns of Judah,
“Your God is coming!”

10Yes, the Sovereign LORD is coming in power.
He will rule with a powerful arm.
See, he brings his reward with him as he comes.

11He will feed his flock like a shepherd.
He will carry the lambs in his arms, holding them close to his heart.
He will gently lead the mother sheep with their young.

THE LORD HAS NO EQUAL

12Who else has held the oceans in his hand?

Who has measured off the heavens with his fingers?
Who else knows the weight of the earth or has weighed the mountains and hills on a scale?

13 Who is able to advise the Spirit of the LORD?*
Who knows enough to give him advice or teach him?

14 Has the LORD ever needed anyone's advice?
Does he need instruction about what is good?
Did someone teach him what is right or show him the path of justice?

15 No, for all the nations of the world are but a drop in the bucket.
They are nothing more than dust on the scales.
He picks up the whole earth as though it were a grain of sand.

16 All the wood in Lebanon's forests and all Lebanon's animals would not be enough to make a burnt offering worthy of our God.

17 The nations of the world are worth nothing to him.
In his eyes they count for less than nothing—mere emptiness and froth.

18 To whom can you compare God?
What image can you find to resemble him?

19 Can he be compared to an idol formed in a mold, overlaid with gold, and decorated with silver chains?

20 Or if people are too poor for that, they might at least choose wood that won't decay and a skilled craftsman to carve an image that won't fall down!

21 Haven't you heard? Don't you understand?
Are you deaf to the words of God—
the words he gave before the world began?
Are you so ignorant?

22 God sits above the circle of the earth.
The people below seem like grasshoppers to him!
He spreads out the heavens like a curtain and makes his tent from them.

23He judges the great people of the world and brings them all to nothing.

24They hardly get started, barely taking root, when he blows on them and they wither.
The wind carries them off like chaff.

25“To whom will you compare me?
Who is my equal?” asks the Holy One.

26Look up into the heavens.
Who created all the stars?
He brings them out like an army, one after another, calling each by its name.
Because of his great power and incomparable strength, not a single one is missing.

27O Jacob, how can you say the LORD does not see your troubles?
O Israel, how can you say God ignores your rights?

28Have you never heard?
Have you never understood?
The LORD is the everlasting God,
the Creator of all the earth.
He never grows weak or weary.
No one can measure the depths of his understanding.

29He gives power to the weak and strength to the powerless.

30Even youths will become weak and tired, and young men will fall in exhaustion.

31But those who trust in the LORD will find new strength.
They will soar high on wings like eagles.
They will run and not grow weary.
They will walk and not faint.

Isaiah 41

GOD'S HELP FOR ISRAEL

1"Listen in silence before me, you lands beyond the sea.
Bring your strongest arguments.
Come now and speak.
The court is ready for your case.

2"Who has stirred up this king from the east, rightly calling him to God's service?
Who gives this man victory over many nations and permits him to trample their kings underfoot?
With his sword, he reduces armies to dust.
With his bow, he scatters them like chaff before the wind.

3He chases them away and goes on safely, though he is walking over unfamiliar ground.

4Who has done such mighty deeds, summoning each new generation from the beginning of time?
It is I, the LORD, the First and the Last.
I alone am he."

5The lands beyond the sea watch in fear.
Remote lands tremble and mobilize for war.

6The idol makers encourage one another, saying to each other, "Be strong!"

7The carver encourages the goldsmith, and the molder helps at the anvil.

“Good,” they say. “It’s coming along fine.”
Carefully they join the parts together, then fasten the thing in place so it won’t fall over.

DON’T FEAR ISAIAH 41:8-16

8“But as for you, Israel my servant, Jacob my chosen one, descended from Abraham my friend,

9I have called you back from the ends of the earth, saying, ‘You are my servant.’
For I have chosen you and will not throw you away.

10Don’t be afraid, for I am with you.
Don’t be discouraged, for I am your God.
I will strengthen you and help you.
I will hold you up with my victorious right hand.

11“See, all your angry enemies lie there, confused and humiliated.
Anyone who opposes you will die and come to nothing.

12You will look in vain for those who tried to conquer you.
Those who attack you will come to nothing.

13For I hold you by your right hand— I, the LORD your God.
And I say to you,

‘Don’t be afraid. I am here to help you.

14Though you are a lowly worm, O Jacob, don’t be afraid, people of Israel, for I will help you.
I am the LORD, your Redeemer.
I am the Holy One of Israel.’

15You will be a new threshing instrument with many sharp teeth.
You will tear your enemies apart, making chaff of mountains.

16You will toss them into the air, and the wind will blow them all away;
a whirlwind will scatter them.
Then you will rejoice in the LORD.
You will glory in the Holy One of Israel.

17“When the poor and needy search for water and there is none, and their tongues are parched from thirst, then I, the LORD, will answer them.
I, the God of Israel, will never abandon them.

18I will open up rivers for them on the high plateaus.
I will give them fountains of water in the valleys.
I will fill the desert with pools of water.
Rivers fed by springs will flow across the parched ground.

19I will plant trees in the barren desert— cedar, acacia, myrtle, olive, cypress, fir, and pine.

20I am doing this so all who see this miracle will understand what it means— that it is the LORD who has done this, the Holy One of Israel who created it.

21“Present the case for your idols,”
says the LORD.
“Let them show what they can do,” says the King of Israel.*

22“Let them try to tell us what happened long ago so that we may consider the evidence.

Or let them tell us what the future holds,
so we can know what's going to happen.

23Yes, tell us what will occur in the days ahead.
Then we will know you are gods.
In fact, do anything—good or bad!
Do something that will amaze and frighten us.

24But no! You are less than nothing and can do nothing at all.
Those who choose you pollute themselves.

25"But I have stirred up a leader who will approach from the north.
From the east he will call on my name.
I will give him victory over kings and princes.
He will trample them as a potter treads on clay.

26"Who told you from the beginning that this would happen?
Who predicted this,
making you admit that he was right?
No one said a word!

27I was the first to tell Zion, 'Look! Help is on the way!'*
I will send Jerusalem a messenger with good news.

28Not one of your idols told you this.
Not one gave any answer when I asked.

29See, they are all foolish, worthless things.
All your idols are as empty as the wind.

Isaiah 42

THE LORD'S CHOSEN SERVANT

1"Look at my servant, whom I strengthen.
He is my chosen one, who pleases me.
I have put my Spirit upon him.
He will bring justice to the nations.

2He will not shout or raise his voice in public.

3He will not crush the weakest reed or put out a flickering candle.
He will bring justice to all who have been wronged.

4He will not falter or lose heart until justice prevails throughout the earth.
Even distant lands beyond the sea will wait for his instruction.*”

5God, the LORD, created the heavens and stretched them out.
He created the earth and everything in it.
He gives breath to everyone, life to everyone who walks the earth.
And it is he who says,

6“I, the LORD, have called you to demonstrate my righteousness.
I will take you by the hand and guard you, and I will give you to my people, Israel,
as a symbol of my covenant with them.
And you will be a light to guide the nations.

7You will open the eyes of the blind.
You will free the captives from prison, releasing those who sit in dark dungeons.

8“I am the LORD; that is my name!
I will not give my glory to anyone else,
nor share my praise with carved idols.

9Everything I prophesied has come true, and now I will prophesy again.
I will tell you the future before it happens.”

A SONG OF PRAISE TO THE LORD

10Sing a new song to the LORD!

Sing his praises from the ends of the earth!
Sing, all you who sail the seas,
all you who live in distant coastlands.

11Join in the chorus, you desert towns; let the villages of Kedar rejoice!
Let the people of Sela sing for joy;
shout praises from the mountaintops!

12Let the whole world glorify the LORD; let it sing his praise.

13The LORD will march forth like a mighty hero; he will come out like a warrior, full of fury.
He will shout his battle cry and crush all his enemies.

14He will say, “I have long been silent; yes, I have restrained myself.
But now, like a woman in labor,
I will cry and groan and pant.

15I will level the mountains and hills and blight all their greenery.
I will turn the rivers into dry land and will dry up all the pools.

16I will lead blind Israel down a new path, guiding them along an unfamiliar way.
I will brighten the darkness before them and smooth out the road ahead of them.
Yes, I will indeed do these things;
I will not forsake them.

17But those who trust in idols, who say, ‘You are our gods,’ will be turned away in shame.

ISRAEL’S FAILURE TO LISTEN AND SEE

18“Listen, you who are deaf!

Look and see, you blind!

19Who is as blind as my own people, my servant?
Who is as deaf as my messenger?
Who is as blind as my chosen people,
the servant of the LORD?

20You see and recognize what is right but refuse to act on it.
You hear with your ears,
but you don't really listen."

21Because he is righteous, the LORD has exalted his glorious law.

22But his own people have been robbed and plundered, enslaved, imprisoned, and trapped.
They are fair game for anyone and have no one to protect them, no one to take them back home.

23Who will hear these lessons from the past and see the ruin that awaits you in the future?

24Who allowed Israel to be robbed and hurt?
It was the LORD, against whom we sinned, for the people would not walk in his path,
nor would they obey his law.

25Therefore, he poured out his fury on them and destroyed them in battle.
They were enveloped in flames,
but they still refused to understand.
They were consumed by fire,
but they did not learn their lesson.

Isaiah 43

THE SAVIOR OF ISRAEL

1But now, O Jacob, listen to the LORD who created you.
O Israel, the one who formed you says,
"Do not be afraid, for I have ransomed you.
I have called you by name; you are mine.

2When you go through deep waters, I will be with you.
When you go through rivers of difficulty,
you will not drown.
When you walk through the fire of oppression,

you will not be burned up;
the flames will not consume you.

3For I am the LORD, your God, the Holy One of Israel, your Savior.
I gave Egypt as a ransom for your freedom;
I gave Ethiopia* and Seba in your place.

4Others were given in exchange for you.
I traded their lives for yours because you are precious to me.
You are honored, and I love you.

5“Do not be afraid, for I am with you.
I will gather you and your children from east and west.

6I will say to the north and south, ‘Bring my sons and daughters back to Israel from the distant corners of the earth.

7Bring all who claim me as their God, for I have made them for my glory.
It was I who created them.’”

8Bring out the people who have eyes but are blind, who have ears but are deaf.

9Gather the nations together!
Assemble the peoples of the world!
Which of their idols has ever foretold such things?
Which can predict what will happen tomorrow?
Where are the witnesses of such predictions?
Who can verify that they spoke the truth?

10“But you are my witnesses, O Israel!” says the LORD.
“You are my servant.
You have been chosen to know me, believe in me,
and understand that I alone am God.
There is no other God—
there never has been, and there never will be.

11I, yes I, am the LORD, and there is no other Savior.

12First I predicted your rescue, then I saved you and proclaimed it to the world.
No foreign god has ever done this.
You are witnesses that I am the only God,”
says the LORD.

13“From eternity to eternity I am God.
No one can snatch anyone out of my hand.
No one can undo what I have done.”

THE LORD’S PROMISE OF VICTORY

14This is what the LORD says—your Redeemer, the Holy One of Israel: “For your sakes I will send an army against Babylon, forcing the Babylonians* to flee in those ships they are so proud of.

15I am the LORD, your Holy One, Israel’s Creator and King.

16I am the LORD, who opened a way through the waters, making a dry path through the sea.

17I called forth the mighty army of Egypt with all its chariots and horses.
I drew them beneath the waves, and they drowned, their lives snuffed out like a smoldering candlewick.

18“But forget all that— it is nothing compared to what I am going to do.

19For I am about to do something new.
See, I have already begun! Do you not see it?
I will make a pathway through the wilderness.
I will create rivers in the dry wasteland.

20The wild animals in the fields will thank me, the jackals and owls, too, for giving them water in the desert.
Yes, I will make rivers in the dry wasteland

so my chosen people can be refreshed.

21I have made Israel for myself, and they will someday honor me before the whole world.

22“But, dear family of Jacob, you refuse to ask for my help.
You have grown tired of me, O Israel!

23You have not brought me sheep or goats for burnt offerings.
You have not honored me with sacrifices, though I have not burdened and wearied you with requests for grain offerings and frankincense.

24You have not brought me fragrant calamus or pleased me with the fat from sacrifices.
Instead, you have burdened me with your sins and wearied me with your faults.

25“I—yes, I alone—will blot out your sins for my own sake and will never think of them again.

26Let us review the situation together, and you can present your case to prove your innocence.

27From the very beginning, your first ancestor sinned against me; all your leaders broke my laws.

28That is why I have disgraced your priests; I have decreed complete destruction* for Jacob and shame for Israel.

Isaiah 44

1“But now, listen to me, Jacob my servant, Israel my chosen one.

2The LORD who made you and helps you says: Do not be afraid, O
Jacob, my servant,
O dear Israel,* my chosen one.

3For I will pour out water to quench your thirst and to irrigate your parched fields.

And I will pour out my Spirit on your descendants, and my blessing on your children.

4They will thrive like watered grass, like willows on a riverbank.

5Some will proudly claim, ‘I belong to the LORD.’
Others will say, ‘I am a descendant of Jacob.’
Some will write the LORD’s name on their hands and will take the name of Israel as their own.”

THE FOOLISHNESS OF IDOLS

6This is what the LORD says—Israel’s King and Redeemer, the LORD of Heaven’s Armies: “I am the First and the Last;

there is no other God.

7Who is like me?
Let him step forward and prove to you his power.
Let him do as I have done since ancient times when I established a people and explained its future.

8Do not tremble; do not be afraid.
Did I not proclaim my purposes for you long ago?
You are my witnesses—is there any other God?
No! There is no other Rock—not one!”

9How foolish are those who manufacture idols.
These prized objects are really worthless.
The people who worship idols don’t know this,
so they are all put to shame.

10Who but a fool would make his own god— an idol that cannot help him one bit?

11All who worship idols will be disgraced along with all these craftsmen—mere humans— who claim they can make a god.
They may all stand together,
but they will stand in terror and shame.

12The blacksmith stands at his forge to make a sharp tool, pounding and shaping it with all his might.

His work makes him hungry and weak.
It makes him thirsty and faint.

13Then the wood-carver measures a block of wood and draws a pattern on it.
He works with chisel and plane and carves it into a human figure.
He gives it human beauty and puts it in a little shrine.

14He cuts down cedars; he selects the cypress and the oak;
he plants the pine in the forest to be nourished by the rain.

15Then he uses part of the wood to make a fire.
With it he warms himself and bakes his bread.
Then—yes, it's true—he takes the rest of it and makes himself a god to worship!
He makes an idol and bows down in front of it!

16He burns part of the tree to roast his meat and to keep himself warm.
He says, "Ah, that fire feels good."

17Then he takes what's left and makes his god: a carved idol!
He falls down in front of it, worshiping and praying to it.
"Rescue me!" he says.
"You are my god!"

18Such stupidity and ignorance!
Their eyes are closed, and they cannot see.
Their minds are shut, and they cannot think.

19The person who made the idol never stops to reflect, "Why, it's just a block of wood!
I burned half of it for heat and used it to bake my bread and roast my meat.
How can the rest of it be a god?

Should I bow down to worship a piece of wood?”

20The poor, deluded fool feeds on ashes.
He trusts something that can’t help him at all.
Yet he cannot bring himself to ask,
“Is this idol that I’m holding in my hand a lie?”

RESTORATION FOR JERUSALEM

21“Pay attention, O Jacob, for you are my servant, O Israel.

I, the LORD, made you,
and I will not forget you.

22I have swept away your sins like a cloud.
I have scattered your offenses like the morning mist.
Oh, return to me,
for I have paid the price to set you free.”

23Sing, O heavens, for the LORD has done this wondrous thing.
Shout for joy, O depths of the earth!
Break into song,
O mountains and forests and every tree!
For the LORD has redeemed Jacob and is glorified in Israel.

24This is what the LORD says— your Redeemer and Creator:
“I am the LORD, who made all things.
I alone stretched out the heavens.
Who was with me
when I made the earth?

25I expose the false prophets as liars and make fools of fortune-tellers.
I cause the wise to give bad advice, thus proving them to be fools.

26But I carry out the predictions of my prophets!
By them I say to Jerusalem, ‘People will live here again,’ and to the towns of Judah, ‘You will be rebuilt;

I will restore all your ruins!’

27When I speak to the rivers and say, ‘Dry up!’
they will be dry.

28When I say of Cyrus, ‘He is my shepherd,’ he will certainly do as I say.
He will command, ‘Rebuild Jerusalem’;
he will say, ‘Restore the Temple.’”

Isaiah 45

CYRUS, THE LORD’S CHOSEN ONE

1This is what the LORD says to Cyrus, his anointed one, whose right hand he will empower.
Before him, mighty kings will be paralyzed with fear.
Their fortress gates will be opened,
never to shut again.

2This is what the LORD says: “I will go before you, Cyrus, and level the mountains.*
I will smash down gates of bronze and cut through bars of iron.

3And I will give you treasures hidden in the darkness— secret riches.
I will do this so you may know that I am the LORD, the God of Israel, the one who calls you by name.

4“And why have I called you for this work?
Why did I call you by name when you did not know me?
It is for the sake of Jacob my servant,
Israel my chosen one.

5I am the LORD; there is no other God.
I have equipped you for battle, though you don’t even know me,

6so all the world from east to west will know there is no other God.

I am the LORD, and there is no other.

7I create the light and make the darkness.
I send good times and bad times.
I, the LORD, am the one who does these things.

8“Open up, O heavens, and pour out your righteousness.
Let the earth open wide so salvation and righteousness can sprout up together.
I, the LORD, created them.

9“What sorrow awaits those who argue with their Creator.
Does a clay pot argue with its maker?
Does the clay dispute with the one who shapes it, saying,
‘Stop, you’re doing it wrong!’
Does the pot exclaim, ‘How clumsy can you be?’

10How terrible it would be if a newborn baby said to its father, ‘Why was I born?’
or if it said to its mother, ‘Why did you make me this way?’”

11This is what the LORD says— the Holy One of Israel and your Creator:
“Do you question what I do for my children?
Do you give me orders about the work of my hands?

12I am the one who made the earth and created people to live on it.
With my hands I stretched out the heavens.
All the stars are at my command.

13I will raise up Cyrus to fulfill my righteous purpose, and I will guide his actions.
He will restore my city and free my captive people—without seeking a reward!
I, the LORD of Heaven’s Armies, have spoken!”

FUTURE CONVERSION OF GENTILES

14This is what the LORD says:

“You will rule the Egyptians, the Ethiopians,* and the Sabeans.
They will come to you with all their merchandise,
and it will all be yours.
They will follow you as prisoners in chains.
They will fall to their knees in front of you and say, ‘God is with you, and he is the only God.
There is no other.’”

15Truly, O God of Israel, our Savior, you work in mysterious ways.

16All craftsmen who make idols will be humiliated.
They will all be disgraced together.

17But the LORD will save the people of Israel with eternal salvation.
Throughout everlasting ages,
they will never again be humiliated and disgraced.

18For the LORD is God, and he created the heavens and earth and put everything in place.
He made the world to be lived in,
not to be a place of empty chaos.
“I am the LORD,” he says,
“and there is no other.

19I publicly proclaim bold promises.
I do not whisper obscurities in some dark corner.
I would not have told the people of Israel* to seek me if I could not be found.
I, the LORD, speak only what is true and declare only what is right.

20“Gather together and come, you fugitives from surrounding nations.
What fools they are who carry around their wooden idols and pray to gods that cannot save!

21Consult together, argue your case.
Get together and decide what to say.
Who made these things known so long ago?
What idol ever told you they would happen?
Was it not I, the LORD?
For there is no other God but me, a righteous God and Savior.
There is none but me.

22Let all the world look to me for salvation!
For I am God; there is no other.

23I have sworn by my own name; I have spoken the truth, and I will never go back on my word:
Every knee will bend to me,
and every tongue will declare allegiance to me.*”

24The people will declare, “The LORD is the source of all my righteousness and strength.”
And all who were angry with him will come to him and be ashamed.

25In the LORD all the generations of Israel will be justified, and in him they will boast.

Isaiah 46

BABYLON’S FALSE GODS

1Bel and Nebo, the gods of Babylon, bow as they are lowered to the ground.
They are being hauled away on ox carts.
The poor beasts stagger under the weight.

2Both the idols and their owners are bowed down.
The gods cannot protect the people, and the people cannot protect the gods.
They go off into captivity together.

3“Listen to me, descendants of Jacob, all you who remain in Israel.
I have cared for you since you were born.
Yes, I carried you before you were born.

4I will be your God throughout your lifetime— until your hair is white with age.
I made you, and I will care for you.
I will carry you along and save you.

5“To whom will you compare me?
Who is my equal?

6Some people pour out their silver and gold and hire a craftsman to make a god from it.
Then they bow down and worship it!

7They carry it around on their shoulders, and when they set it down, it stays there.
It can’t even move!
And when someone prays to it, there is no answer.
It can’t rescue anyone from trouble.

8“Do not forget this! Keep it in mind!
Remember this, you guilty ones.

9Remember the things I have done in the past.
For I alone am God!
I am God, and there is none like me.

10Only I can tell you the future before it even happens.
Everything I plan will come to pass, for I do whatever I wish.

11I will call a swift bird of prey from the east— a leader from a distant land to come and do my bidding.
I have said what I would do, and I will do it.

12“Listen to me, you stubborn people who are so far from doing right.

13For I am ready to set things right, not in the distant future, but right now!
I am ready to save Jerusalem* and show my glory to Israel.

Isaiah 47

PREDICTION OF BABYLON'S FALL

1"Come down, virgin daughter of Babylon, and sit in the dust.
For your days of sitting on a throne have ended.
O daughter of Babylonia,* never again will you be the lovely princess, tender and delicate.

2Take heavy millstones and grind flour.
Remove your veil, and strip off your robe.
Expose yourself to public view.*

3You will be naked and burdened with shame.
I will take vengeance against you without pity."

4Our Redeemer, whose name is the LORD of Heaven's Armies, is the Holy One of Israel.

5"O beautiful Babylon, sit now in darkness and silence.
Never again will you be known as the queen of kingdoms.

6For I was angry with my chosen people and punished them by letting them fall into your hands.
But you, Babylon, showed them no mercy.
You oppressed even the elderly.

7You said, 'I will reign forever as queen of the world!'
You did not reflect on your actions or think about their consequences.

8"Listen to this, you pleasure-loving kingdom, living at ease and feeling secure.
You say, 'I am the only one, and there is no other.
I will never be a widow or lose my children.'

9Well, both these things will come upon you in a moment:
widowhood and the loss of your children.
Yes, these calamities will come upon you, despite all your witchcraft and magic.

10“You felt secure in your wickedness.
‘No one sees me,’ you said.
But your ‘wisdom’ and ‘knowledge’ have led you astray, and you said, ‘I am the only one, and there is no other.’

11So disaster will overtake you, and you won’t be able to charm it away.
Calamity will fall upon you, and you won’t be able to buy your way out.
A catastrophe will strike you suddenly,
one for which you are not prepared.

12“Now use your magical charms!
Use the spells you have worked at all these years!
Maybe they will do you some good.
Maybe they can make someone afraid of you.

13All the advice you receive has made you tired.
Where are all your astrologers,
those stargazers who make predictions each month?
Let them stand up and save you from what the future holds.

14But they are like straw burning in a fire; they cannot save themselves from the flame.
You will get no help from them at all;
their hearth is no place to sit for warmth.

15And all your friends, those with whom you’ve done business since childhood, will go their own ways,
turning a deaf ear to your cries.

Isaiah 48

GOD'S STUBBORN PEOPLE

1"Listen to me, O family of Jacob, you who are called by the name of Israel and born into the family of Judah.
Listen, you who take oaths in the name of the LORD and call on the God of Israel.
You don't keep your promises,

2even though you call yourself the holy city and talk about depending on the God of Israel, whose name is the LORD of Heaven's Armies.

3Long ago I told you what was going to happen.
Then suddenly I took action, and all my predictions came true.

4For I know how stubborn and obstinate you are.
Your necks are as unbending as iron.
Your heads are as hard as bronze.

5That is why I told you what would happen; I told you beforehand what I was going to do.
Then you could never say, 'My idols did it.
My wooden image and metal god commanded it to happen!'

6You have heard my predictions and seen them fulfilled, but you refuse to admit it.
Now I will tell you new things, secrets you have not yet heard.

7They are brand new, not things from the past.
So you cannot say, 'We knew that all the time!'

8"Yes, I will tell you of things that are entirely new, things you never heard of before.
For I know so well what traitors you are.
You have been rebels from birth.

9Yet for my own sake and for the honor of my name, I will hold back my anger and not wipe you out.

10I have refined you, but not as silver is refined.
Rather, I have refined you in the furnace of suffering.

11I will rescue you for my sake— yes, for my own sake!
I will not let my reputation be tarnished, and I will not share my glory with idols!

FREEDOM FROM BABYLON

12"Listen to me, O family of Jacob,

Israel my chosen one!
I alone am God,
the First and the Last.

13It was my hand that laid the foundations of the earth, my right hand that spread out the heavens above.
When I call out the stars,
they all appear in order."

14Have any of your idols ever told you this?
Come, all of you, and listen:
The LORD has chosen Cyrus as his ally.
He will use him to put an end to the empire of Babylon and to destroy the Babylonian* armies.

15"I have said it: I am calling Cyrus!
I will send him on this errand and will help him succeed.

16Come closer, and listen to this.
From the beginning I have told you plainly what would happen."
And now the Sovereign LORD and his Spirit have sent me with this message.

17This is what the LORD says— your Redeemer, the Holy One of Israel:
"I am the LORD your God,
who teaches you what is good for you and leads you along the paths you should follow.

18Oh, that you had listened to my commands!

Then you would have had peace flowing like a gentle river and righteousness rolling over you like waves in the sea.

19Your descendants would have been like the sands along the seashore— too many to count!
There would have been no need for your destruction, or for cutting off your family name.”

20Yet even now, be free from your captivity!
Leave Babylon and the Babylonians.*
Sing out this message!
Shout it to the ends of the earth!
The LORD has redeemed his servants,
the people of Israel.*

21They were not thirsty when he led them through the desert.
He divided the rock,
and water gushed out for them to drink.

22“But there is no peace for the wicked,”
says the LORD.

Isaiah 49

THE LORD’S SERVANT COMMISSIONED

1Listen to me, all you in distant lands!
Pay attention, you who are far away!
The LORD called me before my birth;
from within the womb he called me by name.

2He made my words of judgment as sharp as a sword.
He has hidden me in the shadow of his hand.
I am like a sharp arrow in his quiver.

3He said to me, “You are my servant, Israel, and you will bring me glory.”

4I replied, “But my work seems so useless!

I have spent my strength for nothing and to no purpose.
Yet I leave it all in the LORD's hand; I will trust God for my reward."

5And now the LORD speaks— the one who formed me in my mother's womb to be his servant, who commissioned me to bring Israel back to him.
The LORD has honored me, and my God has given me strength.

6He says, "You will do more than restore the people of Israel to me.
I will make you a light to the Gentiles, and you will bring my salvation to the ends of the earth."

7The LORD, the Redeemer and Holy One of Israel, says to the one who is despised and rejected by the nations, to the one who is the servant of rulers:
"Kings will stand at attention when you pass by.
Princes will also bow low because of the LORD, the faithful one, the Holy One of Israel, who has chosen you."

SUFFERING ISAIAH 49:8-13

PROMISES OF ISRAEL'S RESTORATION

8This is what the LORD says:

“At just the right time, I will respond to you.*
On the day of salvation I will help you.
I will protect you and give you to the people as my covenant with them.
Through you I will reestablish the land of Israel and assign it to its own people again.

9I will say to the prisoners, ‘Come out in freedom,’ and to those in darkness, ‘Come into the light.’
They will be my sheep, grazing in green pastures and on hills that were previously bare.

10They will neither hunger nor thirst.
The searing sun will not reach them anymore.
For the LORD in his mercy will lead them; he will lead them beside cool waters.

11And I will make my mountains into level paths for them.
The highways will be raised above the valleys.

12See, my people will return from far away, from lands to the north and west, and from as far south as Egypt.*”

13Sing for joy, O heavens!
Rejoice, O earth!
Burst into song, O mountains!
For the LORD has comforted his people and will have compassion on them in their suffering.

14Yet Jerusalem* says, “The LORD has deserted us; the Lord has forgotten us.”

15“Never! Can a mother forget her nursing child?
Can she feel no love for the child she has borne?
But even if that were possible,
I would not forget you!

16See, I have written your name on the palms of my hands.

Always in my mind is a picture of Jerusalem's walls in ruins.

17Soon your descendants will come back, and all who are trying to destroy you will go away.

18Look around you and see, for all your children will come back to
you.
As surely as I live," says the LORD,
"they will be like jewels or bridal ornaments for you to display.

19"Even the most desolate parts of your abandoned land will soon be crowded with your people.
Your enemies who enslaved you will be far away.

20The generations born in exile will return and say, 'We need more room! It's crowded here!'

21Then you will think to yourself, 'Who has given me all these descendants?
For most of my children were killed, and the rest were carried away into exile.
I was left here all alone.
Where did all these people come from?
Who bore these children?
Who raised them for me?'"

22This is what the Sovereign LORD says: "See, I will give a signal to the godless nations.
They will carry your little sons back to you in their arms;
they will bring your daughters on their shoulders.

23Kings and queens will serve you and care for all your needs.
They will bow to the earth before you and lick the dust from your feet.
Then you will know that I am the LORD.
Those who trust in me will never be put to shame."

24Who can snatch the plunder of war from the hands of a warrior?

Who can demand that a tyrant* let his captives go?

25But the LORD says, “The captives of warriors will be released, and the plunder of tyrants will be retrieved.
For I will fight those who fight you, and I will save your children.

26I will feed your enemies with their own flesh.
They will be drunk with rivers of their own blood.
All the world will know that I, the LORD, am your Savior and your Redeemer, the Mighty One of Israel.*”

Isaiah 50

1This is what the LORD says:

“Was your mother sent away because I divorced her?
Did I sell you as slaves to my creditors?
No, you were sold because of your sins.
And your mother, too, was taken because of your sins.

2Why was no one there when I came?
Why didn’t anyone answer when I called?
Is it because I have no power to rescue?
No, that is not the reason!
For I can speak to the sea and make it dry up!
I can turn rivers into deserts covered with dying fish.

3I dress the skies in darkness, covering them with clothes of mourning.”

DON'T FEAR ISAIAH 50:4–11

THE LORD'S OBEDIENT SERVANT

4The Sovereign LORD has given me his words of wisdom, so that I know how to comfort the weary.

Morning by morning he wakens me and opens my understanding to his will.

5The Sovereign LORD has spoken to me, and I have listened.
I have not rebelled or turned away.

6I offered my back to those who beat me and my cheeks to those who pulled out my beard.
I did not hide my face from mockery and spitting.

7Because the Sovereign LORD helps me, I will not be disgraced.
Therefore, I have set my face like a stone, determined to do his will.
And I know that I will not be put to shame.

8He who gives me justice is near.
Who will dare to bring charges against me now?
Where are my accusers?
Let them appear!

9See, the Sovereign LORD is on my side!
Who will declare me guilty?

All my enemies will be destroyed like old clothes that have been eaten by moths!

10Who among you fears the LORD and obeys his servant?
If you are walking in darkness, without a ray of light, trust in the LORD
and rely on your God.

11But watch out, you who live in your own light and warm yourselves by your own fires.
This is the reward you will receive from me:
You will soon fall down in great torment.

Isaiah 51

A CALL TO TRUST THE LORD

1“Listen to me, all who hope for deliverance— all who seek the
LORD!
Consider the rock from which you were cut,
the quarry from which you were mined.

2Yes, think about Abraham, your ancestor, and Sarah, who gave birth to your nation.
Abraham was only one man when I called him.
But when I blessed him, he became a great nation.”

3The LORD will comfort Israel* again and have pity on her ruins.
Her desert will blossom like Eden, her barren wilderness like the garden of the LORD.
Joy and gladness will be found there.
Songs of thanksgiving will fill the air.

4“Listen to me, my people.
Hear me, Israel,
for my law will be proclaimed,
and my justice will become a light to the nations.

5My mercy and justice are coming soon.
My salvation is on the way.
My strong arm will bring justice to the nations.
All distant lands will look to me and wait in hope for my powerful arm.

6Look up to the skies above, and gaze down on the earth below.
For the skies will disappear like smoke, and the earth will wear out like a piece of clothing.
The people of the earth will die like flies,
but my salvation lasts forever.
My righteous rule will never end!

7“Listen to me, you who know right from wrong, you who cherish my law in your hearts.
Do not be afraid of people’s scorn, nor fear their insults.

8For the moth will devour them as it devours clothing.
The worm will eat at them as it eats wool.
But my righteousness will last forever.
My salvation will continue from generation to generation.”

9Wake up, wake up, O LORD! Clothe yourself with strength!
Flex your mighty right arm!
Rouse yourself as in the days of old when you slew Egypt, the dragon of the Nile.*

10Are you not the same today, the one who dried up the sea, making a path of escape through the depths so that your people could cross over?

11Those who have been ransomed by the LORD will return.
They will enter Jerusalem* singing, crowned with everlasting joy.
Sorrow and mourning will disappear,
and they will be filled with joy and gladness.

12“I, yes I, am the one who comforts you.
So why are you afraid of mere humans, who wither like the grass and disappear?

13Yet you have forgotten the LORD, your Creator, the one who stretched out the sky like a canopy and laid the foundations of the earth.
Will you remain in constant dread of human oppressors?
Will you continue to fear the anger of your enemies?
Where is their fury and anger now?
It is gone!

14Soon all you captives will be released!
Imprisonment, starvation, and death will not be your fate!

15For I am the LORD your God, who stirs up the sea, causing its waves to roar.
My name is the LORD of Heaven's Armies.

16And I have put my words in your mouth and hidden you safely in my hand.
I stretched out* the sky like a canopy and laid the foundations of the earth.
I am the one who says to Israel,
'You are my people!'"

17Wake up, wake up, O Jerusalem!
You have drunk the cup of the LORD's fury.
You have drunk the cup of terror, tipping out its last drops.

18Not one of your children is left alive to take your hand and guide
you.

19These two calamities have fallen on you: desolation and destruction, famine and war.
And who is left to sympathize with you?
Who is left to comfort you?*

20For your children have fainted and lie in the streets, helpless as antelopes caught in a net.

The LORD has poured out his fury;
God has rebuked them.

21But now listen to this, you afflicted ones who sit in a drunken stupor, though not from drinking wine.

22This is what the Sovereign LORD, your God and Defender, says:
“See, I have taken the terrible cup from your hands.
You will drink no more of my fury.

23Instead, I will hand that cup to your tormentors, those who said, ‘We will trample you into the dust and walk on your backs.’”

THE PROPHETS

Isaiah 52

DELIVERANCE FOR JERUSALEM

1Wake up, wake up, O Zion!
Clothe yourself with strength.
Put on your beautiful clothes, O holy city of Jerusalem, for unclean and godless people will enter your gates no longer.

2Rise from the dust, O Jerusalem.
Sit in a place of honor.
Remove the chains of slavery from your neck,
O captive daughter of Zion.

3For this is what the LORD says: “When I sold you into exile,
I received no payment.
Now I can redeem you without having to pay for you.”

4This is what the Sovereign LORD says: “Long ago my people chose to live in Egypt. Now they are oppressed by Assyria. 5What is this?” asks the LORD. “Why are my people enslaved again? Those who rule them shout in exultation.* My name is blasphemed all day long.*6But I will reveal my name to my people, and they will come to know its power. Then at last they will recognize that I am the one who speaks to them.”

7How beautiful on the mountains are the feet of the messenger who brings good news, the good news of peace and salvation,
the news that the God of Israel* reigns!

8The watchmen shout and sing with joy, for before their very eyes they see the LORD returning to Jerusalem.*

9Let the ruins of Jerusalem break into joyful song, for the LORD has comforted his people.
He has redeemed Jerusalem.

10The LORD has demonstrated his holy power before the eyes of all the nations.
All the ends of the earth will see the victory of our God.

11Get out! Get out and leave your captivity, where everything you touch is unclean.
Get out of there and purify yourselves,
you who carry home the sacred objects of the LORD.

12You will not leave in a hurry, running for your lives.
For the LORD will go ahead of you;
yes, the God of Israel will protect you from behind.

EASTER ISAIAH 52:13–53:12

THE LORD'S SUFFERING SERVANT

13See, my servant will prosper;

he will be highly exalted.

14But many were amazed when they saw him.*
His face was so disfigured he seemed hardly human, and from his appearance, one would scarcely know he was a man.

15And he will startle* many nations.
Kings will stand speechless in his presence.
For they will see what they had not been told;
they will understand what they had not heard about.*

Isaiah 53

1Who has believed our message?
To whom has the LORD revealed his powerful arm?

2My servant grew up in the LORD's presence like a tender green shoot, like a root in dry ground.

There was nothing beautiful or majestic about his appearance, nothing to attract us to him.

3He was despised and rejected— a man of sorrows, acquainted with deepest grief.
We turned our backs on him and looked the other way.
He was despised, and we did not care.

4Yet it was our weaknesses he carried; it was our sorrows* that weighed him down.
And we thought his troubles were a punishment from God,
a punishment for his own sins!

5But he was pierced for our rebellion, crushed for our sins.
He was beaten so we could be whole.
He was whipped so we could be healed.

6All of us, like sheep, have strayed away.
We have left God's paths to follow our own.
Yet the LORD laid on him
the sins of us all.

7He was oppressed and treated harshly, yet he never said a word.
He was led like a lamb to the slaughter.
And as a sheep is silent before the shearers,
he did not open his mouth.

8Unjustly condemned, he was led away.*
No one cared that he died without descendants, that his life was cut short in midstream.*
But he was struck down for the rebellion of my people.

9He had done no wrong and had never deceived anyone.

But he was buried like a criminal;
he was put in a rich man's grave.

10But it was the LORD's good plan to crush him and cause him grief.
Yet when his life is made an offering for sin,
he will have many descendants.
He will enjoy a long life, and the LORD's good plan will prosper in his hands.

11When he sees all that is accomplished by his anguish, he will be satisfied.
And because of his experience, my righteous servant will make it possible for many to be counted righteous, for he will bear all their sins.

12I will give him the honors of a victorious soldier, because he exposed himself to death.
He was counted among the rebels.
He bore the sins of many and interceded for rebels.

Isaiah 54

FUTURE GLORY FOR JERUSALEM

1"Sing, O childless woman, you who have never given birth!
Break into loud and joyful song, O Jerusalem, you who have never been in labor.
For the desolate woman now has more children than the woman who lives with her husband,"
says the LORD.

2“Enlarge your house; build an addition.
Spread out your home, and spare no expense!

3For you will soon be bursting at the seams.
Your descendants will occupy other nations and resettle the ruined cities.

4“Fear not; you will no longer live in shame.
Don’t be afraid; there is no more disgrace for you.
You will no longer remember the shame of your youth and the sorrows of widowhood.

5For your Creator will be your husband; the LORD of Heaven’s Armies is his name!
He is your Redeemer, the Holy One of Israel,
the God of all the earth.

6For the LORD has called you back from your grief— as though you were a young wife abandoned by her husband,”
says your God.

7“For a brief moment I abandoned you, but with great compassion I will take you back.

8In a burst of anger I turned my face away for a little while.
But with everlasting love I will have compassion on you,” says the LORD, your Redeemer.

9“Just as I swore in the time of Noah that I would never again let a flood cover the earth, so now I swear
that I will never again be angry and punish you.

10For the mountains may move and the hills disappear, but even then my faithful love for you will remain.
My covenant of blessing will never be broken,” says the LORD, who has mercy on you.

11“O storm-battered city, troubled and desolate!
I will rebuild you with precious jewels and make your foundations from lapis lazuli.

12I will make your towers of sparkling rubies, your gates of shining gems, and your walls of precious stones.

13I will teach all your children, and they will enjoy great peace.

14You will be secure under a government that is just and fair.
Your enemies will stay far away.
You will live in peace,
and terror will not come near.

15If any nation comes to fight you, it is not because I sent them.
Whoever attacks you will go down in defeat.

16“I have created the blacksmith who fans the coals beneath the forge and makes the weapons of destruction.
And I have created the armies that destroy.

17But in that coming day no weapon turned against you will succeed.
You will silence every voice raised up to accuse you.
These benefits are enjoyed by the servants of the LORD; their vindication will come from me.
I, the LORD, have spoken!

Isaiah 55

INVITATION TO THE LORD'S SALVATION

1"Is anyone thirsty?
Come and drink—
even if you have no money!
Come, take your choice of wine or milk—
it's all free!

2Why spend your money on food that does not give you strength?
Why pay for food that does you no good?
Listen to me, and you will eat what is good.
You will enjoy the finest food.

3"Come to me with your ears wide open.
Listen, and you will find life.
I will make an everlasting covenant with you.
I will give you all the unfailing love I promised to David.

4See how I used him to display my power among the peoples.
I made him a leader among the nations.

5You also will command nations you do not know, and peoples unknown to you will come running to obey, because I, the LORD your God,
the Holy One of Israel, have made you glorious."

6Seek the LORD while you can find him.
Call on him now while he is near.

7Let the wicked change their ways and banish the very thought of doing wrong.
Let them turn to the LORD that he may have mercy on them.
Yes, turn to our God, for he will forgive generously.

8"My thoughts are nothing like your thoughts," says the LORD.
"And my ways are far beyond anything you could imagine.

9For just as the heavens are higher than the earth, so my ways are higher than your ways and my thoughts higher than your thoughts.

10“The rain and snow come down from the heavens and stay on the ground to water the earth.
They cause the grain to grow, producing seed for the farmer and bread for the hungry.

11It is the same with my word.
I send it out, and it always produces fruit.
It will accomplish all I want it to,
and it will prosper everywhere I send it.

12You will live in joy and peace.
The mountains and hills will burst into song, and the trees of the field will clap their hands!

13Where once there were thorns, cypress trees will grow.
Where nettles grew, myrtles will sprout up.
These events will bring great honor to the LORD’s name; they will be an everlasting sign of his power and love.”

Isaiah 56

BLESSINGS FOR ALL NATIONS

1This is what the LORD says:

“Be just and fair to all.
Do what is right and good,
for I am coming soon to rescue you and to display my righteousness among you.

2Blessed are all those who are careful to do this.
Blessed are those who honor my Sabbath days of rest and keep themselves from doing wrong.

3“Don’t let foreigners who commit themselves to the LORD say, ‘The LORD will never let me be part of his people.’
And don’t let the eunuchs say,
‘I’m a dried-up tree with no children and no future.’

4For this is what the LORD says: I will bless those eunuchs who keep my Sabbath days holy and who choose to do what pleases me and commit their lives to me.

5I will give them—within the walls of my house— a memorial and a name
far greater than sons and daughters could give.
For the name I give them is an everlasting one.
It will never disappear!

6“I will also bless the foreigners who commit themselves to the LORD, who serve him and love his name, who worship him and do not desecrate the Sabbath day of rest, and who hold fast to my covenant.

7I will bring them to my holy mountain of Jerusalem and will fill them with joy in my house of prayer.
I will accept their burnt offerings and sacrifices, because my Temple will be called a house of prayer for all nations.

8For the Sovereign LORD, who brings back the outcasts of Israel, says:
I will bring others, too,
besides my people Israel.”

SINFUL LEADERS CONDEMNED

9Come, wild animals of the field!

Come, wild animals of the forest!

Come and devour my people!

10For the leaders of my people— the LORD's watchmen, his shepherds—are blind and ignorant.
They are like silent watchdogs that give no warning when danger comes.
They love to lie around, sleeping and dreaming.

11Like greedy dogs, they are never satisfied.
They are ignorant shepherds, all following their own path and intent on personal gain.

12"Come," they say, "let's get some wine and have a party.
Let's all get drunk.
Then tomorrow we'll do it again and have an even bigger party!"

Isaiah 57

1Good people pass away; the godly often die before their time.
But no one seems to care or wonder why.
No one seems to understand that God is protecting them from the evil to come.

2For those who follow godly paths will rest in peace when they die.

IDOLATROUS WORSHIP CONDEMNED

3"But you—come here, you witches' children, you offspring of adulterers and prostitutes!

4Whom do you mock,
making faces and sticking out your tongues?
You children of sinners and liars!

5You worship your idols with great passion beneath the oaks and under every green tree.
You sacrifice your children down in the valleys, among the jagged rocks in the cliffs.

6Your gods are the smooth stones in the valleys.
You worship them with liquid offerings and grain offerings.
They, not I, are your inheritance.
Do you think all this makes me happy?

7You have committed adultery on every high mountain.
There you have worshiped idols and have been unfaithful to me.

8You have put pagan symbols on your doorposts and behind your doors.
You have left me
and climbed into bed with these detestable gods.
You have committed yourselves to them.
You love to look at their naked bodies.

9You have gone to Molech* with olive oil and many perfumes, sending your agents far and wide,
even to the world of the dead.*

10You grew weary in your search, but you never gave up.
Desire gave you renewed strength, and you did not grow weary.

11"Are you afraid of these idols?
Do they terrify you?
Is that why you have lied to me and forgotten me and my words?
Is it because of my long silence that you no longer fear me?

12Now I will expose your so-called good deeds.
None of them will help you.

13Let's see if your idols can save you when you cry to them for help.
Why, a puff of wind can knock them down!
If you just breathe on them, they fall over!

But whoever trusts in me will inherit the land and possess my holy mountain.”

GOD FORGIVES THE REPENTANT

14God says, “Rebuild the road!

Clear away the rocks and stones so my people can return from captivity.”

15The high and lofty one who lives in eternity, the Holy One, says this:
“I live in the high and holy place with those whose spirits are contrite and humble.
I restore the crushed spirit of the humble and revive the courage of those with repentant hearts.

16For I will not fight against you forever; I will not always be angry.
If I were, all people would pass away—all the souls I have made.

17I was angry,
so I punished these greedy people.
I withdrew from them,
but they kept going on their own stubborn way.

18I have seen what they do, but I will heal them anyway!
I will lead them.
I will comfort those who mourn,

19bringing words of praise to their lips.
May they have abundant peace, both near and far,” says the LORD, who heals them.

20“But those who still reject me are like the restless sea, which is never still but continually churns up mud and dirt.

21There is no peace for the wicked,” says my God.

Isaiah 58

TRUE AND FALSE WORSHIP

1“Shout with the voice of a trumpet blast.
Shout aloud! Don’t be timid.
Tell my people Israel* of their sins!

2Yet they act so pious!
They come to the Temple every day and seem delighted to learn all about me.
They act like a righteous nation that would never abandon the laws of its God.
They ask me to take action on their behalf, pretending they want to be near me.

3‘We have fasted before you!’ they say.
‘Why aren’t you impressed?
We have been very hard on ourselves, and you don’t even notice it!’
“I will tell you why!” I respond.
“It’s because you are fasting to please yourselves.
Even while you fast,
you keep oppressing your workers.

4What good is fasting when you keep on fighting and quarreling?
This kind of fasting will never get you anywhere with me.

5You humble yourselves by going through the motions of penance, bowing your heads
like reeds bending in the wind.
You dress in burlap and cover yourselves with ashes.
Is this what you call fasting?
Do you really think this will please the LORD?

6“No, this is the kind of fasting I want: Free those who are wrongly imprisoned; lighten the burden of those who work for you.

Let the oppressed go free,
and remove the chains that bind people.

7Share your food with the hungry, and give shelter to the homeless.
Give clothes to those who need them,
and do not hide from relatives who need your help.

8“Then your salvation will come like the dawn, and your wounds will quickly heal.
Your godliness will lead you forward, and the glory of the LORD will protect you from behind.

9Then when you call, the LORD will answer.
‘Yes, I am here,’ he will quickly reply.
“Remove the heavy yoke of oppression.
Stop pointing your finger and spreading vicious rumors!

10Feed the hungry, and help those in trouble.
Then your light will shine out from the darkness, and the darkness around you will be as bright as noon.

11The LORD will guide you continually, giving you water when you are dry
and restoring your strength.
You will be like a well-watered garden, like an ever-flowing spring.

12Some of you will rebuild the deserted ruins of your cities.
Then you will be known as a rebuilder of walls and a restorer of homes.

13“Keep the Sabbath day holy.
Don’t pursue your own interests on that day, but enjoy the Sabbath and speak of it with delight as the LORD’s holy day.
Honor the Sabbath in everything you do on that day,
and don’t follow your own desires or talk idly.

14Then the LORD will be your delight.
I will give you great honor and satisfy you with the inheritance I promised to your ancestor

Jacob.
I, the LORD, have spoken!”

Isaiah 59

WARNINGS AGAINST SIN

1Listen! The LORD’s arm is not too weak to save you, nor is his ear too deaf to hear you call.

2It’s your sins that have cut you off from God.
Because of your sins, he has turned away and will not listen anymore.

3Your hands are the hands of murderers, and your fingers are filthy with sin.
Your lips are full of lies,
and your mouth spews corruption.

4No one cares about being fair and honest.
The people’s lawsuits are based on lies.
They conceive evil deeds and then give birth to sin.

5They hatch deadly snakes and weave spiders’ webs.
Whoever eats their eggs will die;
whoever cracks them will hatch a viper.

6Their webs can’t be made into clothing, and nothing they do is productive.
All their activity is filled with sin, and violence is their trademark.

7Their feet run to do evil, and they rush to commit murder.
They think only about sinning.
Misery and destruction always follow them.

8They don’t know where to find peace or what it means to be just and good.

They have mapped out crooked roads,
and no one who follows them knows a moment's peace.

9So there is no justice among us, and we know nothing about right living.
We look for light but find only darkness.
We look for bright skies but walk in gloom.

10We grope like the blind along a wall, feeling our way like people without eyes.
Even at brightest noontime,
we stumble as though it were dark.
Among the living,
we are like the dead.

11We growl like hungry bears; we moan like mournful doves.
We look for justice, but it never comes.
We look for rescue, but it is far away from us.

12For our sins are piled up before God and testify against us.
Yes, we know what sinners we are.

13We know we have rebelled and have denied the LORD.
We have turned our backs on our God.
We know how unfair and oppressive we have been, carefully planning our deceitful lies.

14Our courts oppose the righteous, and justice is nowhere to be found.
Truth stumbles in the streets, and honesty has been outlawed.

15Yes, truth is gone, and anyone who renounces evil is attacked.
The LORD looked and was displeased to find there was no justice.

16He was amazed to see that no one intervened to help the oppressed.
So he himself stepped in to save them with his strong arm, and his justice sustained him.

17He put on righteousness as his body armor and placed the helmet of salvation on his head.
He clothed himself with a robe of vengeance and wrapped himself in a cloak of divine passion.

18He will repay his enemies for their evil deeds.
His fury will fall on his foes.
He will pay them back even to the ends of the earth.

19In the west, people will respect the name of the LORD; in the east, they will glorify him.
For he will come like a raging flood tide driven by the breath of the LORD.*

20"The Redeemer will come to Jerusalem to buy back those in Israel who have turned from their sins,"*
says the LORD.

21"And this is my covenant with them," says the LORD. "My Spirit will not leave them, and neither will these words I have given you. They will be on your lips and on the lips of your children and your children's children forever. I, the LORD, have spoken!

Isaiah 60

FUTURE GLORY FOR JERUSALEM

1"Arise, Jerusalem! Let your light shine for all to see.
For the glory of the LORD rises to shine on you.

2Darkness as black as night covers all the nations of the earth, but the glory of the LORD rises and appears over you.

3All nations will come to your light; mighty kings will come to see your radiance.

4"Look and see, for everyone is coming home!

Your sons are coming from distant lands;
your little daughters will be carried home.

5Your eyes will shine, and your heart will thrill with joy, for merchants from around the world will come to you.
They will bring you the wealth of many lands.

6Vast caravans of camels will converge on you, the camels of Midian and Ephah.
The people of Sheba will bring gold and frankincense and will come worshiping the LORD.

7The flocks of Kedar will be given to you, and the rams of Nebaioth will be brought for my altars.
I will accept their offerings, and I will make my Temple glorious.

8"And what do I see flying like clouds to Israel, like doves to their nests?

9They are ships from the ends of the earth, from lands that trust in
me,
led by the great ships of Tarshish.
They are bringing the people of Israel home from far away, carrying their silver and gold.
They will honor the LORD your God,
the Holy One of Israel,
for he has filled you with splendor.

10"Foreigners will come to rebuild your towns, and their kings will serve you.
For though I have destroyed you in my anger,
I will now have mercy on you through my grace.

11Your gates will stay open day and night to receive the wealth of many lands.
The kings of the world will be led as captives in a victory procession.

12For the nations that refuse to serve you will be destroyed.

13“The glory of Lebanon will be yours— the forests of cypress, fir, and pine—to beautify my sanctuary.
My Temple will be glorious!

14The descendants of your tormentors will come and bow before you.
Those who despised you will kiss your feet.
They will call you the City of the LORD, and Zion of the Holy One of Israel.

15“Though you were once despised and hated, with no one traveling through you,
I will make you beautiful forever,
a joy to all generations.

16Powerful kings and mighty nations will satisfy your every need, as though you were a child nursing at the breast of a queen.
You will know at last that I, the LORD, am your Savior and your Redeemer,
the Mighty One of Israel.*

17I will exchange your bronze for gold, your iron for silver, your wood for bronze,
and your stones for iron.
I will make peace your leader and righteousness your ruler.

18Violence will disappear from your land; the desolation and destruction of war will end.
Salvation will surround you like city walls, and praise will be on the lips of all who enter there.

19“No longer will you need the sun to shine by day, nor the moon to give its light by night, for the LORD your God will be your everlasting light, and your God will be your glory.

20 Your sun will never set; your moon will not go down.
For the LORD will be your everlasting light.
Your days of mourning will come to an end.

21 All your people will be righteous.
They will possess their land forever, for I will plant them there with my own hands in order to bring myself glory.

22 The smallest family will become a thousand people, and the tiniest group will become a mighty nation.
At the right time, I, the LORD, will make it happen."

Isaiah 61

GOOD NEWS FOR THE OPPRESSED

1 The Spirit of the Sovereign LORD is upon me, for the LORD has anointed me to bring good news to the poor.
He has sent me to comfort the brokenhearted and to proclaim that captives will be released and prisoners will be freed.*

2He has sent me to tell those who mourn that the time of the LORD's favor has come,* and with it, the day of God's anger against their enemies.

3To all who mourn in Israel,*
he will give a crown of beauty for ashes,
a joyous blessing instead of mourning, festive praise instead of despair.
In their righteousness, they will be like great oaks that the LORD has planted for his own glory.

4They will rebuild the ancient ruins, repairing cities destroyed long ago.
They will revive them,
though they have been deserted for many generations.

5Foreigners will be your servants.
They will feed your flocks and plow your fields and tend your vineyards.

6You will be called priests of the LORD, ministers of our God.
You will feed on the treasures of the nations and boast in their riches.

7Instead of shame and dishonor, you will enjoy a double share of honor.
You will possess a double portion of prosperity in your land, and everlasting joy will be yours.

8"For I, the LORD, love justice.
I hate robbery and wrongdoing.
I will faithfully reward my people for their suffering and make an everlasting covenant with them.

9Their descendants will be recognized and honored among the nations.
Everyone will realize that they are a people the LORD has blessed."

10I am overwhelmed with joy in the LORD my God!
For he has dressed me with the clothing of salvation and draped me in a robe of righteousness.
I am like a bridegroom dressed for his wedding or a bride with her jewels.

11The Sovereign LORD will show his justice to the nations of the world.
Everyone will praise him!
His righteousness will be like a garden in early spring, with plants springing up everywhere.

Isaiah 62

ISAIAH'S PRAYER FOR JERUSALEM

1Because I love Zion, I will not keep still.
Because my heart yearns for Jerusalem,
I cannot remain silent.
I will not stop praying for her until her righteousness shines like the dawn, and her salvation blazes like a burning torch.

2The nations will see your righteousness.
World leaders will be blinded by your glory.
And you will be given a new name
by the LORD's own mouth.

3The LORD will hold you in his hand for all to see— a splendid crown in the hand of God.

4Never again will you be called "The Forsaken City"*

or “The Desolate Land.”*
Your new name will be “The City of God’s Delight”* and “The Bride of God,”* for the LORD delights in you and will claim you as his bride.

5Your children will commit themselves to you, O Jerusalem, just as a young man commits himself to his bride.
Then God will rejoice over you as a bridegroom rejoices over his bride.

6O Jerusalem, I have posted watchmen on your walls; they will pray day and night, continually.
Take no rest, all you who pray to the LORD.

7Give the LORD no rest until he completes his work, until he makes Jerusalem the pride of the earth.

8The LORD has sworn to Jerusalem by his own strength: “I will never again hand you over to your enemies.
Never again will foreign warriors come and take away your grain and new wine.

9You raised the grain, and you will eat it, praising the LORD.
Within the courtyards of the Temple, you yourselves will drink the wine you have pressed.”

10Go out through the gates!
Prepare the highway for my people to return!
Smooth out the road; pull out the boulders;
raise a flag for all the nations to see.

11The LORD has sent this message to every land: “Tell the people of Israel,*
‘Look, your Savior is coming.
See, he brings his reward with him as he comes.’”

12They will be called “The Holy People” and “The People Redeemed by the LORD.”
And Jerusalem will be known as “The Desirable Place” and “The City No Longer Forsaken.”

Isaiah 63

JUDGMENT AGAINST THE LORD'S ENEMIES

1Who is this who comes from Edom, from the city of Bozrah, with his clothing stained red?
Who is this in royal robes, marching in his great strength?
"It is I, the LORD, announcing your salvation!
It is I, the LORD, who has the power to save!"

2Why are your clothes so red, as if you have been treading out grapes?

3"I have been treading the winepress alone; no one was there to help me.
In my anger I have trampled my enemies as if they were grapes.
In my fury I have trampled my foes.
Their blood has stained my clothes.

4For the time has come for me to avenge my people, to ransom them from their oppressors.

5I was amazed to see that no one intervened to help the oppressed.
So I myself stepped in to save them with my strong arm, and my wrath sustained me.

6I crushed the nations in my anger and made them stagger and fall to the ground, spilling their blood upon the earth."

PRAISE FOR DELIVERANCE

7I will tell of the LORD's unfailing love.

I will praise the LORD for all he has done.
I will rejoice in his great goodness to Israel, which he has granted according to his mercy and love.

8He said, “They are my very own people.
Surely they will not betray me again.”
And he became their Savior.

9In all their suffering he also suffered, and he personally* rescued them.
In his love and mercy he redeemed them.
He lifted them up and carried them through all the years.

10But they rebelled against him and grieved his Holy Spirit.
So he became their enemy and fought against them.

11Then they remembered those days of old when Moses led his people out of Egypt.
They cried out, “Where is the one who brought Israel through the sea, with Moses as their shepherd?
Where is the one who sent his Holy Spirit to be among his people?

12Where is the one whose power was displayed when Moses lifted up his hand— the one who divided the sea before them, making himself famous forever?

13Where is the one who led them through the bottom of the sea?
They were like fine stallions racing through the desert, never stumbling.

14As with cattle going down into a peaceful valley, the Spirit of the LORD gave them rest.
You led your people, LORD, and gained a magnificent reputation.”

PRAYER FOR MERCY AND PARDON

15LORD, look down from heaven;

look from your holy, glorious home, and see us.

Where is the passion and the might you used to show on our behalf?
Where are your mercy and compassion now?

16Surely you are still our Father!
Even if Abraham and Jacob* would disown us, LORD, you would still be our Father.
You are our Redeemer from ages past.

17LORD, why have you allowed us to turn from your path?
Why have you given us stubborn hearts so we no longer fear you?
Return and help us, for we are your servants,
the tribes that are your special possession.

18How briefly your holy people possessed your holy place, and now our enemies have destroyed it.

19Sometimes it seems as though we never belonged to you, as though we had never been known as your people.

Isaiah 64

1*Oh, that you would burst from the heavens and come down!

How the mountains would quake in your presence!

2*As fire causes wood to burn and water to boil, your coming would make the nations tremble.
Then your enemies would learn the reason for your fame!

3When you came down long ago, you did awesome deeds beyond our highest expectations.
And oh, how the mountains quaked!

4For since the world began, no ear has heard and no eye has seen a God like you, who works for those who wait for him!

5You welcome those who gladly do good, who follow godly ways.
But you have been very angry with us,
for we are not godly.
We are constant sinners;
how can people like us be saved?

6We are all infected and impure with sin.
When we display our righteous deeds,
they are nothing but filthy rags.
Like autumn leaves, we wither and fall,
and our sins sweep us away like the wind.

7Yet no one calls on your name or pleads with you for mercy.
Therefore, you have turned away from us and turned us over* to our sins.

8And yet, O LORD, you are our Father.
We are the clay, and you are the potter.
We all are formed by your hand.

9Don't be so angry with us, LORD.
Please don't remember our sins forever.

Look at us, we pray,
and see that we are all your people.

10Your holy cities are destroyed.
Zion is a wilderness;
yes, Jerusalem is a desolate ruin.

11The holy and beautiful Temple where our ancestors praised you has been burned down, and all the things of beauty are destroyed.

12After all this, LORD, must you still refuse to help us?
Will you continue to be silent and punish us?

Isaiah 65

JUDGMENT AND FINAL SALVATION

1The LORD says,

"I was ready to respond, but no one asked for help.
I was ready to be found, but no one was looking for me.
I said, 'Here I am, here I am!'
to a nation that did not call on my name.*

2All day long I opened my arms to a rebellious people.*
But they follow their own evil paths and their own crooked schemes.

3All day long they insult me to my face by worshiping idols in their sacred gardens.
They burn incense on pagan altars.

4At night they go out among the graves, worshiping the dead.
They eat the flesh of pigs and make stews with other forbidden foods.

5Yet they say to each other, ‘Don’t come too close or you will defile me!
I am holier than you!’
These people are a stench in my nostrils, an acrid smell that never goes away.

6“Look, my decree is written out* in front of me: I will not stand silent;
I will repay them in full!
Yes, I will repay them—

7both for their own sins and for those of their ancestors,”
says the LORD.
“For they also burned incense on the mountains and insulted me on the hills.
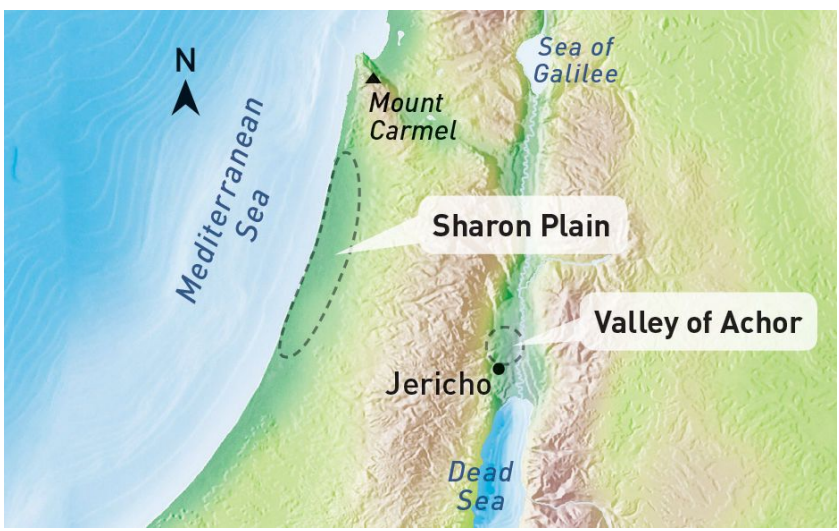
I will pay them back in full!



SHARON AND ACHOR

8“But I will not destroy them all,”

says the LORD.
“For just as good grapes are found among a cluster of bad ones (and someone will say, ‘Don’t throw them all away—some of those grapes are good!’), so I will not destroy all Israel.
For I still have true servants there.

9I will preserve a remnant of the people of Israel* and of Judah to possess my land.
Those I choose will inherit it, and my servants will live there.

10The plain of Sharon will again be filled with flocks for my people who have searched for me, and the valley of Achor will be a place to pasture herds.

11“But because the rest of you have forsaken the LORD and have forgotten his Temple, and because you have prepared feasts to honor the god of Fate and have offered mixed wine to the god of Destiny,

12now I will ‘destine’ you for the sword.
All of you will bow down before the executioner.
For when I called, you did not answer.
When I spoke, you did not listen.
You deliberately sinned—before my very eyes—and chose to do what you know I despise.”

13Therefore, this is what the Sovereign LORD says: “My servants will eat, but you will starve.
My servants will drink,
but you will be thirsty.
My servants will rejoice,
but you will be sad and ashamed.

14My servants will sing for joy, but you will cry in sorrow and despair.

15Your name will be a curse word among my people, for the Sovereign LORD will destroy you and will call his true servants by another name.

16All who invoke a blessing or take an oath will do so by the God of truth.
For I will put aside my anger and forget the evil of earlier days.

THE FUTURE ISAIAH 65:17-25

17"Look! I am creating new heavens and a new earth, and no one will even think about the old ones anymore.

18Be glad; rejoice forever in my creation!
And look! I will create Jerusalem as a place of happiness.
Her people will be a source of joy.

19I will rejoice over Jerusalem and delight in my people.
And the sound of weeping and crying will be heard in it no more.

20"No longer will babies die when only a few days old.
No longer will adults die before they have lived a full life.
No longer will people be considered old at one hundred!
Only the cursed will die that young!

21In those days people will live in the houses they build and eat the fruit of their own vineyards.

22Unlike the past, invaders will not take their houses and confiscate their vineyards.
For my people will live as long as trees, and my chosen ones will have time to enjoy their hard-won gains.

23They will not work in vain, and their children will not be doomed to misfortune.
For they are people blessed by the LORD, and their children, too, will be blessed.

24I will answer them before they even call to me.
While they are still talking about their needs,
I will go ahead and answer their prayers!

25The wolf and the lamb will feed together.
The lion will eat hay like a cow.
But the snakes will eat dust.
In those days no one will be hurt or destroyed on my holy mountain.
I, the LORD, have spoken!”

Isaiah 66

1This is what the LORD says:

“Heaven is my throne,
and the earth is my footstool.
Could you build me a temple as good as that?
Could you build me such a resting place?

2My hands have made both heaven and earth; they and everything in them are mine.*

I, the LORD, have spoken!
“I will bless those who have humble and contrite hearts, who tremble at my word.

3But those who choose their own ways— delighting in their detestable sins—will not have their offerings accepted.
When such people sacrifice a bull, it is no more acceptable than a human sacrifice.
When they sacrifice a lamb,
it’s as though they had sacrificed a dog!
When they bring an offering of grain,
they might as well offer the blood of a pig.
When they burn frankincense, it’s as if they had blessed an idol.

4I will send them great trouble— all the things they feared.
For when I called, they did not answer.
When I spoke, they did not listen.
They deliberately sinned before my very eyes and chose to do what they know I despise.”

5Hear this message from the LORD, all you who tremble at his words:
“Your own people hate you and throw you out for being loyal to my name.
‘Let the LORD be honored!’ they scoff.
‘Be joyful in him!’
But they will be put to shame.

6What is all the commotion in the city?
What is that terrible noise from the Temple?
It is the voice of the LORD taking vengeance against his enemies.

7“Before the birth pains even begin, Jerusalem gives birth to a son.

8Who has ever seen anything as strange as this?
Who ever heard of such a thing?
Has a nation ever been born in a single day?

Has a country ever come forth in a mere moment?
But by the time Jerusalem's* birth pains begin, her children will be born.

9Would I ever bring this nation to the point of birth and then not deliver it?" asks the LORD.
"No! I would never keep this nation from being born,"
says your God.

10"Rejoice with Jerusalem!
Be glad with her, all you who love her and all you who mourn for her.

11Drink deeply of her glory even as an infant drinks at its mother's comforting breasts."

12This is what the LORD says: "I will give Jerusalem a river of peace and prosperity.
The wealth of the nations will flow to her.
Her children will be nursed at her breasts, carried in her arms, and held on her lap.

13I will comfort you there in Jerusalem as a mother comforts her child."

14When you see these things, your heart will rejoice.
You will flourish like the grass!
Everyone will see the LORD's hand of blessing on his servants— and his anger against his enemies.

15See, the LORD is coming with fire, and his swift chariots roar like a whirlwind.
He will bring punishment with the fury of his anger and the flaming fire of his hot rebuke.

16The LORD will punish the world by fire and by his sword.
He will judge the earth,
and many will be killed by him.

17"Those who 'consecrate' and 'purify' themselves in a sacred garden with its idol in the center—feasting on pork and rats and other detestable meats—will come to a terrible end," says the LORD.

18"I can see what they are doing, and I know what they are thinking. So I will gather all nations and peoples together, and they will see my glory. 19I will perform a sign among them. And I will send those who survive to be messengers to the nations—to Tarshish, to the Libyans* and Lydians* (who are famous as archers), to Tubal and Greece,* and to all the lands beyond the sea that have not heard of my fame or seen my glory. There they will declare my glory to the nations. 20They will bring the remnant of your people back from every nation. They will bring them to my holy mountain in Jerusalem as an offering to the LORD. They will ride on horses, in chariots and wagons, and on mules and camels," says the LORD. 21"And I will appoint some of them to be my priests and Levites. I, the LORD, have spoken!

22"As surely as my new heavens and earth will remain, so will you always be my people, with a name that will never disappear,"
says the LORD.

23"All humanity will come to worship me from week to week and from month to month.

24And as they go out, they will see the dead bodies of those who have rebelled against me.
For the worms that devour them will never die, and the fire that burns them will never go out.
All who pass by will view them with utter horror."

WELCOME TO

JEREMIAH

Jeremiah's ministry spans the final forty years of the kingdom of Judah. As God's spokesman, Jeremiah lives in Jerusalem and is appalled by the sinfulness of the people and their leaders. Through words and prophetic actions, he warns them that God will punish them if they do not change their ways. Although Jeremiah faithfully follows God's instructions, his message does not lead the people to repentance and revival. The people scorn Jeremiah and persecute him instead. Because they do not repent, Jeremiah sees God's judgment fall on Judah. The Babylonians invade the land three times, dragging people off to Babylon, and eventually loot and burn Jerusalem and its Temple.

But Jeremiah also provides notes of hope for God's people: a promise that the exile will not be permanent (25:1-14) and that God's people will be restored through a new covenant (chapters 30–31).

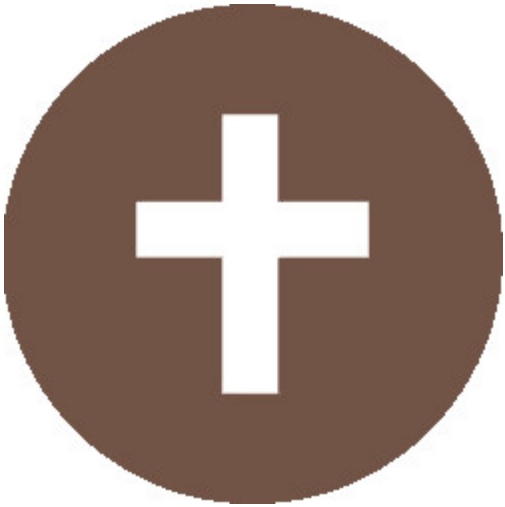
ON THE FLYOVER ROUTE: The single reading on this route describes the fall of the great city of Jerusalem at the hands of the Babylonian Empire. Your next stop is at Jeremiah 52:1.

4 STOPS

ON THE DIRECT ROUTE: Your four readings will cover both a bit of Judah's history and also the life of Jeremiah, a great prophet in Jerusalem. Your next stop is at Jeremiah 18:1.

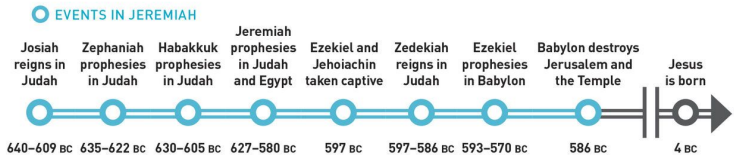
15 STOPS

ON THE SCENIC ROUTE: Your journey through the book of Jeremiah will provide great insight into the life and times of this prophet. You'll read historical accounts and prophetic words, expressions of sadness and promises of a future hope. Your next stop is at Jeremiah 1:1.



FINDING JESUS IN JEREMIAH

Jesus' ministry and purpose are clearly evident in Jeremiah's description of a "new covenant" that God will make with his people (31:31). Jeremiah looked ahead to Jesus as "a righteous descendant from King David's line" who would fulfill all God's requirements (33:15). This covenant was established and fulfilled by Jesus. The broken covenant between God and his people that Jeremiah spoke about has been restored, renewed, and improved by Christ.
The likeness of Jesus is also revealed in the character of Jeremiah. Like Jesus, Jeremiah was rejected by his people; he never gave up trying to bring them back to God; he brought them good news and hope; and he cried over Jerusalem, knowing of its coming destruction.



Jeremiah 1

1These are the words of Jeremiah son of Hilkiah, one of the priests from the town of Anathoth in the land of Benjamin. 2The LORD first gave messages to Jeremiah during the thirteenth year of the reign of Josiah son of Amon, king of Judah.3The LORD's messages continued throughout the reign of King Jehoiakim, Josiah's son, until the eleventh year of the reign of King Zedekiah, another of Josiah's sons. In August of that eleventh year the people of Jerusalem were taken away as captives.

JEREMIAH'S CALL AND FIRST VISIONS

4The LORD gave me this message:

5“I knew you before I formed you in your mother’s womb.
Before you were born I set you apart and appointed you as my prophet to the nations.”

6“O Sovereign LORD,” I said, “I can’t speak for you! I’m too young!”

7The LORD replied, “Don’t say, ‘I’m too young,’ for you must go wherever I send you and say whatever I tell you. 8And don’t be afraid of the people, for I will be with you and will protect you. I, the LORD, have spoken!” 9Then the LORD reached out and touched my mouth and said, “Look, I have put my words in your mouth!

10Today I appoint you to stand up against nations and kingdoms.
Some you must uproot and tear down, destroy and overthrow.
Others you must build up and plant.”

11Then the LORD said to me, “Look, Jeremiah! What do you see?”

And I replied, “I see a branch from an almond tree.”

12And the LORD said, “That’s right, and it means that I am watching,* and I will certainly carry out all my plans.”

13Then the LORD spoke to me again and asked, “What do you see now?”

And I replied, “I see a pot of boiling water, spilling from the north.”

14“Yes,” the LORD said, “for terror from the north will boil out on the people of this land. 15Listen! I am calling the armies of the kingdoms of the north to come to Jerusalem. I, the LORD, have spoken!

“They will set their thrones at the gates of the city.
They will attack its walls and all the other towns of Judah.

16I will pronounce judgment on my people for all their evil— for deserting me and burning incense to other gods.
Yes, they worship idols made with their own hands!

17“Get up and prepare for action.
Go out and tell them everything I tell you to say.
Do not be afraid of them, or I will make you look foolish in front of them.

18For see, today I have made you strong like a fortified city that cannot be captured, like an iron pillar or a bronze wall.
You will stand against the whole land— the kings, officials, priests, and people of Judah.

19They will fight you, but they will fail.
For I am with you, and I will take care of you.
I, the LORD, have spoken!”

Jeremiah 2

THE LORD’S CASE AGAINST HIS PEOPLE

1The LORD gave me another message. He said, 2“Go and shout this message to Jerusalem. This is what the LORD says: “I remember how eager you were to please me as a young bride long ago, how you loved me and followed me even through the barren wilderness.

3In those days Israel was holy to the LORD, the first of his children.*

All who harmed his people were declared guilty, and disaster fell on them.
I, the LORD, have spoken!”

4Listen to the word of the LORD, people of Jacob—all you families of Israel! 5This is what the LORD says: “What did your ancestors find wrong with me that led them to stray so far from me?

They worshiped worthless idols, only to become worthless themselves.

6They did not ask, ‘Where is the LORD who brought us safely out of Egypt and led us through the barren wilderness— a land of deserts and pits, a land of drought and death, where no one lives or even travels?’

7“And when I brought you into a fruitful land to enjoy its bounty and goodness, you defiled my land and corrupted the possession I had promised you.

8The priests did not ask, ‘Where is the LORD?’
Those who taught my word ignored me, the rulers turned against me, and the prophets spoke in the name of Baal, wasting their time on worthless idols.

9Therefore, I will bring my case against you,”
says the LORD.
“I will even bring charges against your children’s children in the years to come.

10“Go west and look in the land of Cyprus*; go east and search through the land of Kedar.
Has anyone ever heard of anything as strange as this?

11Has any nation ever traded its gods for new ones, even though they are not gods at all?
Yet my people have exchanged their glorious God* for worthless idols!

12The heavens are shocked at such a thing and shrink back in horror and dismay,”
says the LORD.

13“For my people have done two evil things: They have abandoned me— the fountain of living water.
And they have dug for themselves cracked cisterns that can hold no water at all!

THE RESULTS OF ISRAEL’S SIN

14“Why has Israel become a slave?

Why has he been carried away as plunder?

15Strong lions have roared against him, and the land has been destroyed.
The towns are now in ruins, and no one lives in them anymore.

16Egyptians, marching from their cities of Memphis* and Tahpanhes, have destroyed Israel’s glory and power.

17And you have brought this upon yourselves by rebelling against the LORD your God, even though he was leading you on the way!

18“What have you gained by your alliances with Egypt and your covenants with Assyria?
What good to you are the streams of the Nile* or the waters of the Euphrates River?*

19Your wickedness will bring its own punishment.
Your turning from me will shame you.
You will see what an evil, bitter thing it is to abandon the LORD your God and not to fear him.
I, the Lord, the LORD of Heaven’s Armies, have spoken!

20“Long ago I broke the yoke that oppressed you and tore away the chains of your slavery, but still you said, ‘I will not serve you.’
On every hill and under every green tree, you have prostituted yourselves by bowing down to idols.

21But I was the one who planted you, choosing a vine of the purest stock—the very best.
How did you grow into this corrupt wild vine?

22No amount of soap or lye can make you clean.
I still see the stain of your guilt.
I, the Sovereign LORD, have spoken!

ISRAEL, AN UNFAITHFUL WIFE

23"You say, 'That's not true!

I haven't worshiped the images of Baal!'
But how can you say that?
Go and look in any valley in the land!
Face the awful sins you have done.
You are like a restless female camel desperately searching for a mate.

24You are like a wild donkey, sniffing the wind at mating time.
Who can restrain her lust?
Those who desire her don't need to search, for she goes running to them!

25When will you stop running?
When will you stop panting after other gods?
But you say, 'Save your breath.
I'm in love with these foreign gods, and I can't stop loving them now!'

26"Israel is like a thief who feels shame only when he gets caught.
They, their kings, officials, priests, and prophets— all are alike in this.

27To an image carved from a piece of wood they say, 'You are my father.'
To an idol chiseled from a block of stone they say, 'You are my mother.'
They turn their backs on me, but in times of trouble they cry out to me, 'Come and save us!'

28But why not call on these gods you have made?
When trouble comes, let them save you if they can!
For you have as many gods as there are towns in Judah.

29Why do you accuse me of doing wrong?
You are the ones who have rebelled,”
says the LORD.

30“I have punished your children, but they did not respond to my discipline.
You yourselves have killed your prophets as a lion kills its prey.

31“O my people, listen to the words of the LORD!
Have I been like a desert to Israel?
Have I been to them a land of darkness?
Why then do my people say, ‘At last we are free from God!
We don’t need him anymore!’

32Does a young woman forget her jewelry, or a bride her wedding dress?
Yet for years on end my people have forgotten me.

33“How you plot and scheme to win your lovers.
Even an experienced prostitute could learn from you!

34Your clothing is stained with the blood of the innocent and the poor, though you didn’t catch them breaking into your houses!

35And yet you say, ‘I have done nothing wrong.
Surely God isn’t angry with me!’
But now I will punish you severely because you claim you have not sinned.

36First here, then there— you flit from one ally to another asking for help.
But your new friends in Egypt will let you down, just as Assyria did before.

37In despair, you will be led into exile with your hands on your heads, for the LORD has rejected the nations you trust.
They will not help you at all.

Jeremiah 3

1"If a man divorces a woman and she goes and marries someone else, he will not take her back again, for that would surely corrupt the land.
But you have prostituted yourself with many lovers, so why are you trying to come back to me?"
says the LORD.

2"Look at the shrines on every hilltop.
Is there any place you have not been defiled by your adultery with other gods?
You sit like a prostitute beside the road waiting for a customer.
You sit alone like a nomad in the desert.
You have polluted the land with your prostitution and your wickedness.

3That's why even the spring rains have failed.
For you are a brazen prostitute and completely shameless.

4Yet you say to me, 'Father, you have been my guide since my youth.

5Surely you won't be angry forever!
Surely you can forget about it!'
So you talk, but you keep on doing all the evil you can."

JUDAH FOLLOWS ISRAEL'S EXAMPLE

6During the reign of King Josiah, the LORD said to me, "Have you seen what fickle Israel has done? Like a wife who commits adultery, Israel has worshiped other gods on every hill and under every green tree. 7I thought, 'After she has done all this, she will return to me.'
But she did not return, and her faithless sister Judah saw this. 8She saw* that I divorced faithless Israel because of her adultery. But that treacherous sister Judah had no fear, and now she, too, has left me and given herself to prostitution. 9Israel treated it all so lightly—she thought nothing of committing adultery by worshiping idols made of wood and stone. So now the land has been polluted. 10But despite all this, her faithless sister Judah has never sincerely returned to me. She has only pretended to be sorry. I, the LORD, have spoken!”

HOPE FOR WAYWARD ISRAEL

11Then the LORD said to me, “Even faithless Israel is less guilty than treacherous Judah! 12Therefore, go and give this message to Israel.*
This is what the LORD says: “O Israel, my faithless people, come home to me again, for I am merciful.

I will not be angry with you forever.

13Only acknowledge your guilt.
Admit that you rebelled against the LORD your God and committed adultery against him by worshiping idols under every green tree.
Confess that you refused to listen to my voice.
I, the LORD, have spoken!

14“Return home, you wayward children,” says the LORD, “for I am your master.
I will bring you back to the land of Israel*— one from this town and two from that family— from wherever you are scattered.

15And I will give you shepherds after my own heart, who will guide you with knowledge and understanding.

16“And when your land is once more filled with people,” says the LORD, “you will no longer wish for ‘the good old days’ when you possessed the Ark of the LORD’s Covenant. You will not miss those days or even remember them, and there will be no need to rebuild the Ark. 17In that day Jerusalem will be known as ‘The Throne of the LORD.’ All nations will come there to honor the LORD. They will no longer stubbornly follow their own evil desires. 18In those days the people of Judah and Israel will return together from exile in the north. They will return to the land I gave your ancestors as an inheritance forever.

19“I thought to myself, ‘I would love to treat you as my own children!’

I wanted nothing more than to give you this beautiful land— the finest possession in the world.
I looked forward to your calling me ‘Father,’ and I wanted you never to turn from me.

20But you have been unfaithful to me, you people of Israel!
You have been like a faithless wife who leaves her husband.
I, the LORD, have spoken.”

21Voices are heard high on the windswept mountains, the weeping and pleading of Israel’s people.
For they have chosen crooked paths and have forgotten the LORD their God.

22“My wayward children,” says the LORD, “come back to me, and I will heal your wayward hearts.”
“Yes, we’re coming,” the people reply, “for you are the LORD our God.

23Our worship of idols on the hills and our religious orgies on the mountains are a delusion.
Only in the LORD our God will Israel ever find salvation.

24From childhood we have watched as everything our ancestors worked for— their flocks and herds, their sons and daughters— was squandered on a delusion.

25Let us now lie down in shame and cover ourselves with dishonor, for we and our ancestors have sinned against the LORD our God.
From our childhood to this day we have never obeyed him.”

Jeremiah 4

1“O Israel,” says the LORD, “if you wanted to return to me, you could.
You could throw away your detestable idols and stray away no more.

2Then when you swear by my name, saying, ‘As surely as the LORD lives,’ you could do so with truth, justice, and righteousness.

Then you would be a blessing to the nations of the world, and all people would come and praise my name."

COMING JUDGMENT AGAINST JUDAH

3This is what the LORD says to the people of Judah and Jerusalem:
"Plow up the hard ground of your hearts!

Do not waste your good seed among thorns.

4O people of Judah and Jerusalem, surrender your pride and power.
Change your hearts before the LORD,* or my anger will burn like an unquenchable fire because of all your sins.

5"Shout to Judah, and broadcast to Jerusalem!
Tell them to sound the alarm throughout the land: 'Run for your lives!
Flee to the fortified cities!'

6Raise a signal flag as a warning for Jerusalem*: 'Flee now! Do not delay!'
For I am bringing terrible destruction upon you from the north."

7A lion stalks from its den, a destroyer of nations.
It has left its lair and is headed your way.
It's going to devastate your land!
Your towns will lie in ruins, with no one living in them anymore.

8So put on clothes of mourning and weep with broken hearts, for the fierce anger of the LORD is still upon us.

9"In that day," says the LORD, "the king and the officials will tremble in fear.
The priests will be struck with horror, and the prophets will be appalled."

10Then I said, "O Sovereign LORD, the people have been deceived by what you said, for you promised peace for Jerusalem.

But the sword is held at their throats!”

11The time is coming when the LORD will say to the people of Jerusalem, “My dear people, a burning wind is blowing in from the desert, and it’s not a gentle breeze useful for winnowing grain.

12It is a roaring blast sent by me!
Now I will pronounce your destruction!”

13Our enemy rushes down on us like storm clouds!
His chariots are like whirlwinds.
His horses are swifter than eagles.
How terrible it will be, for we are doomed!

14O Jerusalem, cleanse your heart that you may be saved.
How long will you harbor your evil thoughts?

15Your destruction has been announced from Dan and the hill country of Ephraim.

16“Warn the surrounding nations and announce this to Jerusalem:
The enemy is coming from a distant land, raising a battle cry against the towns of Judah.

17They surround Jerusalem like watchmen around a field, for my people have rebelled against me,”
says the LORD.

18“Your own actions have brought this upon you.
This punishment is bitter, piercing you to the heart!”

JEREMIAH WEEPS FOR HIS PEOPLE

19My heart, my heart—I writhe in pain!

My heart pounds within me! I cannot be still.
For I have heard the blast of enemy trumpets and the roar of their battle cries.

20Waves of destruction roll over the land, until it lies in complete desolation.

Suddenly my tents are destroyed; in a moment my shelters are crushed.

21How long must I see the battle flags and hear the trumpets of war?

22"My people are foolish and do not know me," says the LORD.
"They are stupid children who have no understanding.
They are clever enough at doing wrong, but they have no idea how to do right!"

JEREMIAH'S VISION OF COMING DISASTER

23I looked at the earth, and it was empty and formless.

I looked at the heavens, and there was no light.

24I looked at the mountains and hills, and they trembled and shook.

25I looked, and all the people were gone.
All the birds of the sky had flown away.

26I looked, and the fertile fields had become a wilderness.
The towns lay in ruins, crushed by the LORD's fierce anger.

27This is what the LORD says: "The whole land will be ruined, but I will not destroy it completely.

28The earth will mourn and the heavens will be draped in black because of my decree against my people.
I have made up my mind and will not change it."

29At the noise of charioteers and archers, the people flee in terror.
They hide in the bushes and run for the mountains.
All the towns have been abandoned— not a person remains!

30What are you doing, you who have been plundered?
Why do you dress up in beautiful clothing and put on gold jewelry?
Why do you brighten your eyes with mascara?
Your primping will do you no good!
The allies who were your lovers despise you and seek to kill you.

31I hear a cry, like that of a woman in labor, the groans of a woman giving birth to her first child.
It is beautiful Jerusalem*
gasping for breath and crying out, “Help! I’m being murdered!”

Jeremiah 5

THE SINS OF JUDAH

1“Run up and down every street in Jerusalem,” says the LORD.
“Look high and low; search throughout the city!
If you can find even one just and honest person, I will not destroy the city.

2But even when they are under oath, saying, ‘As surely as the LORD lives,’
they are still telling lies!”

3LORD, you are searching for honesty.
You struck your people, but they paid no attention.
You crushed them, but they refused to be corrected.
They are determined, with faces set like stone; they have refused to repent.

4Then I said, “But what can we expect from the poor?
They are ignorant.
They don’t know the ways of the LORD.
They don’t understand God’s laws.

5So I will go and speak to their leaders.
Surely they know the ways of the LORD and understand God’s laws.”
But the leaders, too, as one man, had thrown off God’s yoke and broken his chains.

6So now a lion from the forest will attack them; a wolf from the desert will pounce on them.
A leopard will lurk near their towns, tearing apart any who dare to venture out.
For their rebellion is great, and their sins are many.

7“How can I pardon you?
For even your children have turned from me.
They have sworn by gods that are not gods at all!
I fed my people until they were full.
But they thanked me by committing adultery and lining up at the brothels.

8They are well-fed, lusty stallions, each neighing for his neighbor’s wife.

9Should I not punish them for this?” says the LORD.
“Should I not avenge myself against such a nation?

10“Go down the rows of the vineyards and destroy the grapevines, leaving a scattered few alive.
Strip the branches from the vines, for these people do not belong to the LORD.

11The people of Israel and Judah are full of treachery against me,” says the LORD.

12“They have lied about the LORD and said, ‘He won’t bother us!
No disasters will come upon us.
There will be no war or famine.

13God’s prophets are all windbags who don’t really speak for him.
Let their predictions of disaster fall on themselves!’”

14Therefore, this is what the LORD God of Heaven’s Armies says:
“Because the people are talking like this, my messages will flame out of your mouth and burn the people like kindling wood.

15O Israel, I will bring a distant nation against you,”
says the LORD.
“It is a mighty nation, an ancient nation, a people whose language you do not know, whose speech you cannot understand.

16Their weapons are deadly; their warriors are mighty.

17They will devour the food of your harvest; they will devour your sons and daughters.

They will devour your flocks and herds; they will devour your grapes and figs.
And they will destroy your fortified towns, which you think are so safe.

18“Yet even in those days I will not blot you out completely,” says the LORD. 19“And when your people ask, ‘Why did the LORD our God do all this to us?’ you must reply, ‘You rejected him and gave yourselves to foreign gods in your own land. Now you will serve foreigners in a land that is not your own.’

A WARNING FOR GOD’S PEOPLE

20“Make this announcement to Israel,*

and say this to Judah:

21Listen, you foolish and senseless people, with eyes that do not see and ears that do not hear.

22Have you no respect for me?
Why don’t you tremble in my presence?
I, the LORD, define the ocean’s sandy shoreline as an everlasting boundary that the waters cannot cross.
The waves may toss and roar, but they can never pass the boundaries I set.

23But my people have stubborn and rebellious hearts.
They have turned away and abandoned me.

24They do not say from the heart, ‘Let us live in awe of the LORD our God, for he gives us rain each spring and fall, assuring us of a harvest when the time is right.’

25Your wickedness has deprived you of these wonderful blessings.
Your sin has robbed you of all these good things.

26“Among my people are wicked men who lie in wait for victims like a hunter hiding in a blind.

They continually set traps to catch people.

27Like a cage filled with birds, their homes are filled with evil plots.
And now they are great and rich.

28They are fat and sleek, and there is no limit to their wicked deeds.
They refuse to provide justice to orphans and deny the rights of the poor.

29Should I not punish them for this?" says the LORD.
"Should I not avenge myself against such a nation?

30A horrible and shocking thing has happened in this land—

31the prophets give false prophecies, and the priests rule with an iron hand.
Worse yet, my people like it that way!
But what will you do when the end comes?

Jeremiah 6

JERUSALEM'S LAST WARNING

1"Run for your lives, you people of Benjamin!
Get out of Jerusalem!
Sound the alarm in Tekoa!
Send up a signal at Beth-hakkerem!
A powerful army is coming from the north, coming with disaster and destruction.

2O Jerusalem,* you are my beautiful and delicate daughter— but I will destroy you!

3Enemies will surround you, like shepherds camped around the city.
Each chooses a place for his troops to devour.

4They shout, 'Prepare for battle!
Attack at noon!'
'No, it's too late; the day is fading, and the evening shadows are falling.'

5‘Well then, let’s attack at night and destroy her palaces!’”

6This is what the LORD of Heaven’s Armies says: “Cut down the trees for battering rams.
Build siege ramps against the walls of Jerusalem.
This is the city to be punished, for she is wicked through and through.

7She spouts evil like a fountain.
Her streets echo with the sounds of violence and destruction.
I always see her sickness and sores.

8Listen to this warning, Jerusalem, or I will turn from you in disgust.
Listen, or I will turn you into a heap of ruins, a land where no one lives.”

9This is what the LORD of Heaven’s Armies says: “Even the few who remain in Israel will be picked over again, as when a harvester checks each vine a second time to pick the grapes that were missed.”

JUDAH’S CONSTANT REBELLION

10To whom can I give warning?

Who will listen when I speak?
Their ears are closed, and they cannot hear.
They scorn the word of the LORD.
They don’t want to listen at all.

11So now I am filled with the LORD’s fury.
Yes, I am tired of holding it in!
“I will pour out my fury on children playing in the streets and on gatherings of young men, on husbands and wives and on those who are old and gray.

12Their homes will be turned over to their enemies, as will their fields and their wives.
For I will raise my powerful fist against the people of this land,” says the LORD.

13“From the least to the greatest, their lives are ruled by greed.
From prophets to priests, they are all frauds.

14They offer superficial treatments for my people’s mortal wound.
They give assurances of peace when there is no peace.

15Are they ashamed of their disgusting actions?
Not at all—they don’t even know how to blush!
Therefore, they will lie among the slaughtered.
They will be brought down when I punish them,”
says the LORD.

JUDAH REJECTS THE LORD’S WAY

16This is what the LORD says: “Stop at the crossroads and look around.

Ask for the old, godly way, and walk in it.
Travel its path, and you will find rest for your souls.
But you reply, ‘No, that’s not the road we want!’

17I posted watchmen over you who said, ‘Listen for the sound of the alarm.’
But you replied, ‘No! We won’t pay attention!’

18“Therefore, listen to this, all you nations.
Take note of my people’s situation.

19Listen, all the earth!
I will bring disaster on my people.
It is the fruit of their own schemes, because they refuse to listen to me.
They have rejected my word.

20There’s no use offering me sweet frankincense from Sheba.
Keep your fragrant calamus imported from distant lands!
I will not accept your burnt offerings.
Your sacrifices have no pleasing aroma for me.”

21Therefore, this is what the LORD says: “I will put obstacles in my people’s path.

Fathers and sons will both fall over them.
Neighbors and friends will die together.”

AN INVASION FROM THE NORTH

22This is what the LORD says: “Look! A great army coming from the north!

A great nation is rising against you from far-off lands.

23They are armed with bows and spears.
They are cruel and show no mercy.
They sound like a roaring sea as they ride forward on horses.
They are coming in battle formation, planning to destroy you, beautiful Jerusalem.*”

24We have heard reports about the enemy, and we wring our hands in fright.
Pangs of anguish have gripped us, like those of a woman in labor.

25Don’t go out to the fields!
Don’t travel on the roads!
The enemy’s sword is everywhere and terrorizes us at every turn!

26Oh, my people, dress yourselves in burlap and sit among the ashes.
Mourn and weep bitterly, as for the loss of an only son.
For suddenly the destroying armies will be upon you!

27“Jeremiah, I have made you a tester of metals,* that you may determine the quality of my people.

28They are the worst kind of rebel, full of slander.
They are as hard as bronze and iron, and they lead others into corruption.

29The bellows fiercely fan the flames to burn out the corruption.
But it does not purify them, for the wickedness remains.

30I will label them ‘Rejected Silver,’ for I, the LORD, am discarding them."

Jeremiah 7

JEREMIAH SPEAKS AT THE TEMPLE

1The LORD gave another message to Jeremiah. He said, 2"Go to the entrance of the LORD's Temple, and give this message to the people: 'O Judah, listen to this message from the LORD! Listen to it, all of you who worship here! 3This is what the LORD of Heaven's Armies, the God of Israel, says: "'Even now, if you quit your evil ways, I will let you stay in your own land. 4But don't be fooled by those who promise you safety simply because the LORD's Temple is here. They chant, "The LORD's Temple is here! The LORD's Temple is here!" 5But I will be merciful only if you stop your evil thoughts and deeds and start treating each other with justice; 6only if you stop exploiting foreigners, orphans, and widows; only if you stop your murdering; and only if you stop harming yourselves by worshiping idols. 7Then I will let you stay in this land that I gave to your ancestors to keep forever.

8"'Don't be fooled into thinking that you will never suffer because the Temple is here. It's a lie! 9Do you really think you can steal, murder, commit adultery, lie, and burn incense to Baal and all those other new gods of yours, 10and then come here and stand before me in my Temple and chant, “We are safe!”—only to go right back to all those evils again? 11Don’t you yourselves admit that this Temple, which bears my name, has become a den of thieves? Surely I see all the evil going on there. I, the LORD, have spoken!

12“‘Go now to the place at Shiloh where I once put the Tabernacle that bore my name. See what I did there because of all the wickedness of my people, the Israelites. 13While you were doing these wicked things, says the LORD, I spoke to you about it repeatedly, but you would not listen. I called out to you, but you refused to answer. 14So just as I destroyed Shiloh, I will now destroy this Temple that bears my name, this Temple that you trust in for help, this place that I gave to you and your ancestors. 15And I will send you out of my sight into exile, just as I did your relatives, the people of Israel.*’

JUDAH’S PERSISTENT IDOLATRY

16“Pray no more for these people, Jeremiah. Do not weep or pray for them, and don’t beg me to help them, for I will not listen to you. 17Don’t you see what they are doing throughout the towns of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem? 18No wonder I am so angry! Watch how the children gather wood and the fathers build sacrificial fires. See how the women knead dough and make cakes to offer to the Queen of Heaven. And they pour out liquid offerings to their other idol gods! 19Am I the one they are hurting?” asks the LORD. “Most of all, they hurt themselves, to their own shame.”

20So this is what the Sovereign LORD says: “I will pour out my terrible fury on this place. Its people, animals, trees, and crops will be consumed by the unquenchable fire of my anger.”

21This is what the LORD of Heaven’s Armies, the God of Israel, says: “Take your burnt offerings and your other sacrifices and eat them yourselves! 22When I led your ancestors out of Egypt, it was not burnt offerings and sacrifices I wanted from them. 23This is what I told them: ‘Obey me, and I will be your God, and you will be my people. Do everything as I say, and all will be well!’

24“But my people would not listen to me. They kept doing whatever they wanted, following the stubborn desires of their evil hearts. They went backward instead of forward. 25From the day your ancestors left Egypt until now, I have continued to send my servants, the prophets—day in and day out. 26But my people have not listened to me or even tried to hear. They have been stubborn and sinful—even worse than their ancestors.

27“Tell them all this, but do not expect them to listen. Shout out your warnings, but do not expect them to respond. 28Say to them, ‘This is the nation whose people will not obey the LORD their God and who refuse to be taught. Truth has vanished from among them; it is no longer heard on their lips. 29Shave your head in mourning, and weep alone on the mountains. For the LORD has rejected and forsaken this generation that has provoked his fury.’

THE VALLEY OF BEN-HINNOM

THE VALLEY OF SLAUGHTER

30“The people of Judah have sinned before my very eyes,” says the LORD. “They have set up their abominable idols right in the Temple that bears my name, defiling it. 31They have built pagan shrines at Topheth, the garbage dump in the valley of Ben-Hinnom, and there they burn their sons and daughters in the fire. I have never commanded such a horrible deed; it never even crossed my mind to command such a thing! 32So beware, for the time is coming,” says the LORD, “when that garbage dump will no longer be called Topheth or the valley of Ben-Hinnom, but the Valley of Slaughter.

They will bury the bodies in Topheth until there is no more room for them. 33The bodies of my people will be food for the vultures and wild animals, and no one will be left to scare them away. 34I will put an end to the happy singing and laughter in the streets of Jerusalem. The joyful voices of bridegrooms and brides will no longer be heard in the towns of Judah. The land will lie in complete desolation.

Jeremiah 8

1"In that day," says the LORD, "the enemy will break open the graves of the kings and officials of Judah, and the graves of the priests, prophets, and common people of Jerusalem. 2They will spread out their bones on the ground before the sun, moon, and stars—the gods my people have loved, served, and worshiped. Their bones will not be gathered up again or buried but will be scattered on the ground like manure. 3And the people of this evil nation who survive will wish to die rather than live where I will send them. I, the LORD of Heaven's Armies, have spoken!

DECEPTION BY FALSE PROPHETS

4"Jeremiah, say to the people, 'This is what the LORD says: "'When people fall down, don't they get up again?

When they discover they're on the wrong road, don't they turn back?

5Then why do these people stay on their self-destructive path?
Why do the people of Jerusalem refuse to turn back?
They cling tightly to their lies and will not turn around.

6I listen to their conversations and don't hear a word of truth.
Is anyone sorry for doing wrong?
Does anyone say, "What a terrible thing I have done"?
No! All are running down the path of sin as swiftly as a horse galloping into battle!

7Even the stork that flies across the sky knows the time of her migration, as do the turtledove, the swallow, and the crane.*
They all return at the proper time each year.
But not my people!
They do not know the LORD's laws.

8"'How can you say, "We are wise because we have the word of the LORD,"
when your teachers have twisted it by writing lies?

9These wise teachers will fall into the trap of their own foolishness, for they have rejected the word of the LORD.
Are they so wise after all?

10I will give their wives to others and their farms to strangers.
From the least to the greatest, their lives are ruled by greed.
Yes, even my prophets and priests are like that.
They are all frauds.

11They offer superficial treatments for my people's mortal wound.
They give assurances of peace when there is no peace.

12Are they ashamed of these disgusting actions?
Not at all—they don't even know how to blush!
Therefore, they will lie among the slaughtered.
They will be brought down when I punish them, says the LORD.

13I will surely consume them.
There will be no more harvests of figs and grapes.
Their fruit trees will all die.
Whatever I gave them will soon be gone.
I, the LORD, have spoken!'

14"Then the people will say, 'Why should we wait here to die?

Come, let's go to the fortified towns and die there.
For the LORD our God has decreed our destruction and has given us a cup of poison to drink because we sinned against the LORD.

15We hoped for peace, but no peace came.
We hoped for a time of healing, but found only terror.'

16"The snorting of the enemies' warhorses can be heard all the way from the land of Dan in the north!
The neighing of their stallions makes the whole land tremble.
They are coming to devour the land and everything in it— cities and people alike.

17I will send these enemy troops among you like poisonous snakes you cannot charm.
They will bite you, and you will die.
I, the LORD, have spoken!"

JEREMIAH WEEPS FOR SINFUL JUDAH

18My grief is beyond healing; my heart is broken.

19Listen to the weeping of my people; it can be heard all across the land.
"Has the LORD abandoned Jerusalem?* " the people ask.
"Is her King no longer there?"
"Oh, why have they provoked my anger with their carved idols and their worthless foreign gods?" says the LORD.

20"The harvest is finished, and the summer is gone," the people cry,
"yet we are not saved!"

21I hurt with the hurt of my people.
I mourn and am overcome with grief.

22Is there no medicine in Gilead?
Is there no physician there?
Why is there no healing for the wounds of my people?

Jeremiah 9

1*If only my head were a pool of water and my eyes a fountain of tears, I would weep day and night for all my people who have been slaughtered.

2*Oh, that I could go away and forget my people and live in a travelers' shack in the desert.
For they are all adulterers— a pack of treacherous liars.

JUDGMENT FOR DISOBEDIENCE

3"My people bend their tongues like bows to shoot out lies.

They refuse to stand up for the truth.
They only go from bad to worse.
They do not know me,"
says the LORD.

4"Beware of your neighbor!
Don't even trust your brother!
For brother takes advantage of brother, and friend slanders friend.

5They all fool and defraud each other; no one tells the truth.
With practiced tongues they tell lies; they wear themselves out with all their sinning.

6They pile lie upon lie and utterly refuse to acknowledge me,"
says the LORD.

7Therefore, this is what the LORD of Heaven's Armies says: "See, I will melt them down in a crucible and test them like metal.
What else can I do with my people?*

8For their tongues shoot lies like poisoned arrows.
They speak friendly words to their neighbors while scheming in their heart to kill them.

9Should I not punish them for this?" says the LORD.
"Should I not avenge myself against such a nation?"

10I will weep for the mountains and wail for the wilderness pastures.
For they are desolate and empty of life; the lowing of cattle is heard no more; the birds and wild animals have all fled.

11"I will make Jerusalem into a heap of ruins," says the LORD.
"It will be a place haunted by jackals.
The towns of Judah will be ghost towns, with no one living in them."

12Who is wise enough to understand all this? Who has been instructed by the LORD and can explain it to others? Why has the land been so ruined that no one dares to travel through it?

13The LORD replies, "This has happened because my people have abandoned my instructions; they have refused to obey what I said. 14Instead, they have stubbornly followed their own desires and worshiped the images of Baal, as their ancestors taught them. 15So now, this is what the LORD of Heaven's Armies, the God of Israel, says: Look! I will feed them with bitterness and give them poison to drink. 16I will scatter them around the world, in places they and their ancestors never heard of, and even there I will chase them with the sword until I have destroyed them completely."

WEEPING IN JERUSALEM

17This is what the LORD of Heaven's Armies says: "Consider all this, and call for the mourners.

Send for the women who mourn at funerals.

18Quick! Begin your weeping!
Let the tears flow from your eyes.

19Hear the people of Jerusalem* crying in despair, 'We are ruined!
We are completely humiliated!
We must leave our land, because our homes have been torn down.'"

20Listen, you women, to the words of the LORD; open your ears to what he has to say.

Teach your daughters to wail; teach one another how to lament.

21For death has crept in through our windows and has entered our mansions.
It has killed off the flower of our youth: Children no longer play in the streets, and young men no longer gather in the squares.

22This is what the LORD says: “Bodies will be scattered across the fields like clumps of manure, like bundles of grain after the harvest. No one will be left to bury them.”

23This is what the LORD says: “Don’t let the wise boast in their wisdom, or the powerful boast in their power, or the rich boast in their riches.

24But those who wish to boast should boast in this alone: that they truly know me and understand that I am the LORD who demonstrates unfailing love and who brings justice and righteousness to the earth, and that I delight in these things.
I, the LORD, have spoken!

25“A time is coming,” says the LORD, “when I will punish all those who are circumcised in body but not in spirit—26the Egyptians, Edomites, Ammonites, Moabites, the people who live in the desert in remote places,* and yes, even the people of Judah. And like all these pagan nations, the people of Israel also have uncircumcised hearts.”

Jeremiah 10

IDOLATRY BRINGS DESTRUCTION

1Hear the word that the LORD speaks to you, O Israel! 2This is what the LORD says: “Do not act like the other nations, who try to read their future in the stars.

Do not be afraid of their predictions, even though other nations are terrified by them.

3Their ways are futile and foolish.
They cut down a tree, and a craftsman carves an idol.

4They decorate it with gold and silver and then fasten it securely with hammer and nails so it won't fall over.

5Their gods are like helpless scarecrows in a cucumber field!
They cannot speak, and they need to be carried because they cannot walk.
Do not be afraid of such gods, for they can neither harm you nor do you any good."

6LORD, there is no one like you!
For you are great, and your name is full of power.

7Who would not fear you, O King of nations?
That title belongs to you alone!
Among all the wise people of the earth and in all the kingdoms of the world, there is no one like you.

TARSHISH

8People who worship idols are stupid and foolish.
The things they worship are made of wood!

9They bring beaten sheets of silver from Tarshish and gold from Uphaz, and they give these materials to skillful craftsmen who make their idols.
Then they dress these gods in royal blue and purple robes made by expert tailors.

10But the LORD is the only true God.
He is the living God and the everlasting King!
The whole earth trembles at his anger.
The nations cannot stand up to his wrath.

11Say this to those who worship other gods: “Your so-called gods, who did not make the heavens and earth, will vanish from the earth and from under the heavens.”*

12But the LORD made the earth by his power, and he preserves it by his wisdom.
With his own understanding he stretched out the heavens.

13When he speaks in the thunder, the heavens roar with rain.
He causes the clouds to rise over the earth.
He sends the lightning with the rain and releases the wind from his storehouses.

14The whole human race is foolish and has no knowledge!
The craftsmen are disgraced by the idols they make, for their carefully shaped works are a fraud.
These idols have no breath or power.

15Idols are worthless; they are ridiculous lies!
On the day of reckoning they will all be destroyed.

16But the God of Israel* is no idol!
He is the Creator of everything that exists, including Israel, his own special possession.
The LORD of Heaven’s Armies is his name!

THE COMING DESTRUCTION

17Pack your bags and prepare to leave; the siege is about to begin.

18For this is what the LORD says: “Suddenly, I will fling out all you who live in this land.
I will pour great troubles upon you, and at last you will feel my anger.”

19My wound is severe, and my grief is great.
My sickness is incurable, but I must bear it.

20My home is gone, and no one is left to help me rebuild it.
My children have been taken away, and I will never see them again.

21The shepherds of my people have lost their senses.
They no longer seek wisdom from the LORD.
Therefore, they fail completely, and their flocks are scattered.

22Listen! Hear the terrifying roar of great armies as they roll down from the north.
The towns of Judah will be destroyed and become a haunt for jackals.

PRAYERS JEREMIAH 10:23-25

JEREMIAH'S PRAYER

23I know, LORD, that our lives are not our own.

We are not able to plan our own course.

24So correct me, LORD, but please be gentle.
Do not correct me in anger, for I would die.

25Pour out your wrath on the nations that refuse to acknowledge you— on the peoples that do not call upon your name.
For they have devoured your people Israel*; they have devoured and consumed them, making the land a desolate wilderness.

Jeremiah 11

JUDAH'S BROKEN COVENANT

1The LORD gave another message to Jeremiah. He said, 2"Remind the people of Judah and Jerusalem about the terms of my covenant with them. 3Say to them, 'This is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says: Cursed is anyone who does not obey the terms of my covenant! 4For I said to your ancestors when I brought them out of the iron-smelting furnace of Egypt, "If you obey me and do whatever I command you, then you will be my people, and I will be your God." 5I said this so I could keep my promise to your ancestors to give you a land flowing with milk and honey—the land you live in today.'"

Then I replied, "Amen, LORD! May it be so."

6Then the LORD said, "Broadcast this message in the streets of Jerusalem. Go from town to town throughout the land and say,
'Remember the ancient covenant, and do everything it requires. 7For
I solemnly warned your ancestors when I brought them out of Egypt, "Obey me!" I have repeated this warning over and over to this day, 8but your ancestors did not listen or even pay attention.
Instead, they stubbornly followed their own evil desires. And because they refused to obey, I brought upon them all the curses described in this covenant.'"

9Again the LORD spoke to me and said, "I have discovered a conspiracy against me among the people of Judah and Jerusalem.
10They have returned to the sins of their ancestors. They have refused to listen to me and are worshiping other gods. Israel and Judah have both broken the covenant I made with their ancestors.
11Therefore, this is what the LORD says: I am going to bring calamity upon them, and they will not escape. Though they beg for mercy, I will not listen to their cries. 12Then the people of Judah and Jerusalem will pray to their idols and burn incense before them. But the idols will not save them when disaster strikes! 13Look now, people of Judah; you have as many gods as you have towns.
You have as many altars of shame—altars for burning incense to your god Baal—as there are streets in Jerusalem.

14“Pray no more for these people, Jeremiah. Do not weep or pray for them, for I will not listen to them when they cry out to me in distress.

15“What right do my beloved people have to come to my Temple, when they have done so many immoral things?
Can their vows and sacrifices prevent their destruction?
They actually rejoice in doing evil!

16I, the LORD, once called them a thriving olive tree, beautiful to see and full of good fruit.
But now I have sent the fury of their enemies to burn them with fire, leaving them charred and broken.

17“I, the LORD of Heaven’s Armies, who planted this olive tree, have ordered it destroyed. For the people of Israel and Judah have done evil, arousing my anger by burning incense to Baal.”

A PLOT AGAINST JEREMIAH

18Then the LORD told me about the plots my enemies were making against me. 19I was like a lamb being led to the slaughter. I had no idea that they were planning to kill me! “Let’s destroy this man and all his words,” they said. “Let’s cut him down, so his name will be forgotten forever.”

20O LORD of Heaven’s Armies, you make righteous judgments, and you examine the deepest thoughts and secrets.
Let me see your vengeance against them, for I have committed my cause to you.

21This is what the LORD says about the men of Anathoth who wanted me dead. They had said, “We will kill you if you do not stop prophesying in the LORD’s name.” 22So this is what the LORD of Heaven’s Armies says about them: “I will punish them! Their young men will die in battle, and their boys and girls will starve to death.

23Not one of these plotters from Anathoth will survive, for I will bring disaster upon them when their time of punishment comes.”

Jeremiah 12

JEREMIAH QUESTIONS THE LORD’S JUSTICE

1LORD, you always give me justice when I bring a case before you.
So let me bring you this complaint: Why are the wicked so prosperous?
Why are evil people so happy?

2You have planted them, and they have taken root and prospered.
Your name is on their lips, but you are far from their hearts.

3But as for me, LORD, you know my heart.
You see me and test my thoughts.
Drag these people away like sheep to be butchered!
Set them aside to be slaughtered!

4How long must this land mourn?
Even the grass in the fields has withered.
The wild animals and birds have disappeared because of the evil in the land.
For the people have said, “The LORD doesn’t see what’s ahead for us!”

THE LORD’S REPLY TO JEREMIAH

5“If racing against mere men makes you tired, how will you race against horses?

If you stumble and fall on open ground, what will you do in the thickets near the Jordan?

6Even your brothers, members of your own family, have turned against you.
They plot and raise complaints against you.
Do not trust them, no matter how pleasantly they speak.

7“I have abandoned my people, my special possession.
I have surrendered my dearest ones to their enemies.

8My chosen people have roared at me like a lion of the forest, so I have treated them with contempt.

9My chosen people act like speckled vultures,*
but they themselves are surrounded by vultures.
Bring on the wild animals to pick their corpses clean!

10“Many rulers have ravaged my vineyard, trampling down the vines and turning all its beauty into a barren wilderness.

11They have made it an empty wasteland; I hear its mournful cry.
The whole land is desolate, and no one even cares.

12On all the bare hilltops, destroying armies can be seen.
The sword of the LORD devours people from one end of the nation to the other.
No one will escape!

13My people have planted wheat but are harvesting thorns.
They have worn themselves out, but it has done them no good.
They will harvest a crop of shame because of the fierce anger of the

A MESSAGE FOR ISRAEL’S NEIGHBORS

14Now this is what the LORD says: “I will uproot from their land all the evil nations reaching out for the possession I gave my people Israel. And I will uproot Judah from among them. 15But afterward I will return and have compassion on all of them. I will bring them home to their own lands again, each nation to its own possession.
16And if these nations truly learn the ways of my people, and if they learn to swear by my name, saying, ‘As surely as the LORD lives’ (just as they taught my people to swear by the name of Baal), then they will be given a place among my people. 17But any nation who refuses to obey me will be uprooted and destroyed. I, the LORD, have spoken!”

Jeremiah 13

JEREMIAH'S LINEN LOINCLOTH

1This is what the LORD said to me: "Go and buy a linen loincloth and put it on, but do not wash it." 2So I bought the loincloth as the LORD directed me, and I put it on.

3Then the LORD gave me another message: 4"Take the linen loincloth you are wearing, and go to the Euphrates River.* Hide it there in a hole in the rocks." 5So I went and hid it by the Euphrates as the LORD had instructed me.

6A long time afterward the LORD said to me, "Go back to the Euphrates and get the loincloth I told you to hide there." 7So I went to the Euphrates and dug it out of the hole where I had hidden it.
But now it was rotting and falling apart. The loincloth was good for nothing.

8Then I received this message from the LORD: 9"This is what the LORD says: This shows how I will rot away the pride of Judah and Jerusalem. 10These wicked people refuse to listen to me. They stubbornly follow their own desires and worship other gods.
Therefore, they will become like this loincloth—good for nothing!
11As a loincloth clings to a man's waist, so I created Judah and Israel to cling to me, says the LORD. They were to be my people, my pride, my glory—an honor to my name. But they would not listen to me.

12"So tell them, 'This is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says: May all your jars be filled with wine.' And they will reply, 'Of course!
Jars are made to be filled with wine!'

13"Then tell them, 'No, this is what the LORD means: I will fill everyone in this land with drunkenness—from the king sitting on David's throne to the priests and the prophets, right down to the common people of Jerusalem. 14I will smash them against each other, even parents against children, says the LORD. I will not let my pity or mercy or compassion keep me from destroying them.'"

A WARNING AGAINST PRIDE

15Listen and pay attention!

Do not be arrogant, for the LORD has spoken.

16Give glory to the LORD your God before it is too late.
Acknowledge him before he brings darkness upon you, causing you to stumble and fall on the darkening mountains.
For then, when you look for light, you will find only terrible darkness and gloom.

17And if you still refuse to listen, I will weep alone because of your pride.
My eyes will overflow with tears, because the LORD's flock will be led away into exile.

18Say to the king and his mother, "Come down from your thrones and sit in the dust, for your glorious crowns will soon be snatched from your heads."

19The towns of the Negev will close their gates, and no one will be able to open them.
The people of Judah will be taken away as captives.
All will be carried into exile.

20Open up your eyes and see the armies marching down from the north!
Where is your flock— your beautiful flock— that he gave you to care for?

21What will you say when the LORD takes the allies you have cultivated and appoints them as your rulers?
Pangs of anguish will grip you, like those of a woman in labor!

22You may ask yourself, "Why is all this happening to me?"

It is because of your many sins!
That is why you have been stripped and raped by invading armies.

23Can an Ethiopian* change the color of his skin?
Can a leopard take away its spots?
Neither can you start doing good, for you have always done evil.

24"I will scatter you like chaff that is blown away by the desert winds.

25This is your allotment, the portion I have assigned to you," says the LORD, "for you have forgotten me, putting your trust in false gods.

26I myself will strip you and expose you to shame.

27I have seen your adultery and lust, and your disgusting idol worship out in the fields and on the hills.
What sorrow awaits you, Jerusalem!
How long before you are pure?"

Jeremiah 14

JUDAH'S TERRIBLE DROUGHT

1This message came to Jeremiah from the LORD, explaining why he was holding back the rain:

2"Judah wilts; commerce at the city gates grinds to a halt.
All the people sit on the ground in mourning, and a great cry rises from Jerusalem.

3The nobles send servants to get water, but all the wells are dry.
The servants return with empty pitchers, confused and desperate, covering their heads in grief.

4The ground is parched and cracked for lack of rain.
The farmers are deeply troubled; they, too, cover their heads.

5Even the doe abandons her newborn fawn because there is no grass in the field.

6The wild donkeys stand on the bare hills panting like thirsty jackals.
They strain their eyes looking for grass, but there is none to be found."

7The people say, "Our wickedness has caught up with us, LORD, but help us for the sake of your own reputation.
We have turned away from you and sinned against you again and again.

8O Hope of Israel, our Savior in times of trouble, why are you like a stranger to us?
Why are you like a traveler passing through the land, stopping only for the night?

9Are you also confused?
Is our champion helpless to save us?
You are right here among us, LORD.
We are known as your people.
Please don't abandon us now!"

10So this is what the LORD says to his people: "You love to wander far from me and do not restrain yourselves.
Therefore, I will no longer accept you as my people.
Now I will remember all your wickedness and will punish you for your sins."

THE LORD FORBIDS JEREMIAH TO INTERCEDE

11Then the LORD said to me, "Do not pray for these people anymore. 12When they fast, I will pay no attention. When they present their burnt offerings and grain offerings to me, I will not accept them. Instead, I will devour them with war, famine, and disease."

13Then I said, "O Sovereign LORD, their prophets are telling them, 'All is well—no war or famine will come. The LORD will surely send you peace.’”

14Then the LORD said, “These prophets are telling lies in my name.
I did not send them or tell them to speak. I did not give them any messages. They prophesy of visions and revelations they have never seen or heard. They speak foolishness made up in their own lying hearts. 15Therefore, this is what the LORD says: I will punish these lying prophets, for they have spoken in my name even though I never sent them. They say that no war or famine will come, but they themselves will die by war and famine! 16As for the people to whom they prophesy—their bodies will be thrown out into the streets of Jerusalem, victims of famine and war. There will be no one left to bury them. Husbands, wives, sons, and daughters—all will be gone. For I will pour out their own wickedness on them.
17Now, Jeremiah, say this to them: “Night and day my eyes overflow with tears.

I cannot stop weeping, for my virgin daughter—my precious people — has been struck down and lies mortally wounded.

18If I go out into the fields, I see the bodies of people slaughtered by the enemy.
If I walk the city streets, I see people who have died of starvation.
The prophets and priests continue with their work, but they don’t know what they’re doing.”

A PRAYER FOR HEALING

19LORD, have you completely rejected Judah?

Do you really hate Jerusalem?*
Why have you wounded us past all hope of healing?
We hoped for peace, but no peace came.
We hoped for a time of healing, but found only terror.

20LORD, we confess our wickedness and that of our ancestors, too.
We all have sinned against you.

21For the sake of your reputation, LORD, do not abandon us.

Do not disgrace your own glorious throne.
Please remember us, and do not break your covenant with us.

22Can any of the worthless foreign gods send us rain?
Does it fall from the sky by itself?
No, you are the one, O LORD our God!
Only you can do such things.
So we will wait for you to help us.

Jeremiah 15

JUDAH'S INEVITABLE DOOM

1Then the LORD said to me, "Even if Moses and Samuel stood before me pleading for these people, I wouldn't help them. Away with them! Get them out of my sight! 2And if they say to you, 'But where can we go?' tell them, 'This is what the LORD says: "'Those who are destined for death, to death; those who are destined for war, to war; those who are destined for famine, to famine; those who are destined for captivity, to captivity.'

3"I will send four kinds of destroyers against them," says the LORD. "I will send the sword to kill, the dogs to drag away, the vultures to devour, and the wild animals to finish up what is left. 4Because of the wicked things Manasseh son of Hezekiah, king of Judah, did in Jerusalem, I will make my people an object of horror to all the kingdoms of the earth.

5"Who will feel sorry for you, Jerusalem?
Who will weep for you?
Who will even bother to ask how you are?

6You have abandoned me and turned your back on me,"
says the LORD.
"Therefore, I will raise my fist to destroy you.
I am tired of always giving you another chance.

7I will winnow you like grain at the gates of your cities and take away the children you hold dear.

I will destroy my own people, because they refuse to change their evil ways.

8There will be more widows than the grains of sand on the seashore.
At noontime I will bring a destroyer against the mothers of young men.
I will cause anguish and terror to come upon them suddenly.

9The mother of seven grows faint and gasps for breath; her sun has gone down while it is still day.
She sits childless now, disgraced and humiliated.
And I will hand over those who are left to be killed by the enemy.
I, the LORD, have spoken!”

JEREMIAH’S COMPLAINT

10Then I said, “What sorrow is mine, my mother.

Oh, that I had died at birth!
I am hated everywhere I go.
I am neither a lender who threatens to foreclose nor a borrower who refuses to pay— yet they all curse me.”

11The LORD replied, “I will take care of you, Jeremiah.

Your enemies will ask you to plead on their behalf in times of trouble and distress.

12Can a man break a bar of iron from the north, or a bar of bronze?

13At no cost to them, I will hand over your wealth and treasures as plunder to your enemies, for sin runs rampant in your land.

14I will tell your enemies to take you as captives to a foreign land.
For my anger blazes like a fire that will burn forever.*”

15Then I said, “LORD, you know what’s happening to me.

Please step in and help me. Punish my persecutors!
Please give me time; don’t let me die young.

It’s for your sake that I am suffering.

16When I discovered your words, I devoured them.
They are my joy and my heart’s delight, for I bear your name, O LORD God of Heaven’s Armies.

17I never joined the people in their merry feasts.
I sat alone because your hand was on me.
I was filled with indignation at their sins.

18Why then does my suffering continue?
Why is my wound so incurable?
Your help seems as uncertain as a seasonal brook, like a spring that has gone dry.”

19This is how the LORD responds: “If you return to me, I will restore you so you can continue to serve me.

If you speak good words rather than worthless ones, you will be my spokesman.
You must influence them; do not let them influence you!

20They will fight against you like an attacking army, but I will make you as secure as a fortified wall of bronze.
They will not conquer you, for I am with you to protect and rescue you.
I, the LORD, have spoken!

21Yes, I will certainly keep you safe from these wicked men.
I will rescue you from their cruel hands.”

Jeremiah 16

JEREMIAH FORBIDDEN TO MARRY

1The LORD gave me another message. He said, 2“Do not get married or have children in this place. 3For this is what the LORD says about the children born here in this city and about their mothers and fathers: 4They will die from terrible diseases. No one will mourn for them or bury them, and they will lie scattered on the ground like manure. They will die from war and famine, and their bodies will be food for the vultures and wild animals.”

JUDAH’S COMING PUNISHMENT

5This is what the LORD says: “Do not go to funerals to mourn and show sympathy for these people, for I have removed my protection and peace from them. I have taken away my unfailing love and my mercy. 6Both the great and the lowly will die in this land. No one will bury them or mourn for them. Their friends will not cut themselves in sorrow or shave their heads in sadness. 7No one will offer a meal to comfort those who mourn for the dead—not even at the death of a mother or father. No one will send a cup of wine to console them.

8“And do not go to their feasts and parties. Do not eat and drink with them at all. 9For this is what the LORD of Heaven’s Armies, the God of Israel, says: In your own lifetime, before your very eyes, I will put an end to the happy singing and laughter in this land. The joyful voices of bridegrooms and brides will no longer be heard.

10“When you tell the people all these things, they will ask, ‘Why has the LORD decreed such terrible things against us? What have we done to deserve such treatment? What is our sin against the LORD our God?’

11“Then you will give them the LORD’s reply: ‘It is because your ancestors were unfaithful to me. They worshiped other gods and served them. They abandoned me and did not obey my word. 12And you are even worse than your ancestors! You stubbornly follow your own evil desires and refuse to listen to me. 13So I will throw you out of this land and send you into a foreign land where you and your ancestors have never been. There you can worship idols day and night—and I will grant you no favors!’

HOPE DESPITE THE DISASTER

14“But the time is coming,” says the LORD, “when people who are taking an oath will no longer say, ‘As surely as the LORD lives, who rescued the people of Israel from the land of Egypt.’ 15Instead, they will say, ‘As surely as the LORD lives, who brought the people of Israel back to their own land from the land of the north and from all the countries to which he had exiled them.’ For I will bring them back to this land that I gave their ancestors.

16“But now I am sending for many fishermen who will catch them,” says the LORD. “I am sending for hunters who will hunt them down in the mountains, hills, and caves. 17I am watching them closely, and I see every sin. They cannot hope to hide from me. 18I will double their punishment for all their sins, because they have defiled my land with lifeless images of their detestable gods and have filled my territory with their evil deeds.”

JEREMIAH'S PRAYER OF CONFIDENCE

19LORD, you are my strength and fortress, my refuge in the day of trouble!

Nations from around the world will come to you and say, "Our ancestors left us a foolish heritage, for they worshiped worthless idols.

20Can people make their own gods?
These are not real gods at all!"

21The LORD says, "Now I will show them my power; now I will show them my might.
At last they will know and understand that I am the LORD.

Jeremiah 17

JUDAH'S SIN AND PUNISHMENT

1"The sin of Judah is inscribed with an iron chisel— engraved with a diamond point on their stony hearts and on the corners of their altars.

2Even their children go to worship at their pagan altars and Asherah poles, beneath every green tree and on every high hill.

3So I will hand over my holy mountain— along with all your wealth and treasures and your pagan shrines— as plunder to your enemies, for sin runs rampant in your land.

4The wonderful possession I have reserved for you will slip from your hands.

I will tell your enemies to take you as captives to a foreign land.
For my anger blazes like a fire that will burn forever."

WISDOM FROM THE LORD

5This is what the LORD says: "Cursed are those who put their trust in mere humans, who rely on human strength and turn their hearts away from the LORD.

6They are like stunted shrubs in the desert, with no hope for the future.
They will live in the barren wilderness, in an uninhabited salty land.

7"But blessed are those who trust in the LORD and have made the LORD their hope and confidence.

8They are like trees planted along a riverbank, with roots that reach deep into the water.
Such trees are not bothered by the heat or worried by long months of drought.
Their leaves stay green, and they never stop producing fruit.

9"The human heart is the most deceitful of all things, and desperately wicked.
Who really knows how bad it is?

10But I, the LORD, search all hearts and examine secret motives.
I give all people their due rewards, according to what their actions deserve."

JEREMIAH'S TRUST IN THE LORD

11Like a partridge that hatches eggs she has not laid, so are those who get their wealth by unjust means.

At midlife they will lose their riches; in the end, they will become poor old fools.

12But we worship at your throne— eternal, high, and glorious!

13O LORD, the hope of Israel, all who turn away from you will be disgraced.
They will be buried in the dust of the earth, for they have abandoned the LORD, the fountain of living water.

14O LORD, if you heal me, I will be truly healed; if you save me, I will be truly saved.
My praises are for you alone!

15People scoff at me and say, “What is this ‘message from the LORD’ you talk about?
Why don’t your predictions come true?”

16LORD, I have not abandoned my job as a shepherd for your people.
I have not urged you to send disaster.
You have heard everything I’ve said.

17LORD, don’t terrorize me!
You alone are my hope in the day of disaster.

18Bring shame and dismay on all who persecute me, but don’t let me experience shame and dismay.
Bring a day of terror on them.
Yes, bring double destruction upon them!

OBSERVING THE SABBATH

19This is what the LORD said to me: “Go and stand in the gates of Jerusalem, first in the gate where the king goes in and out, and then in each of the other gates. 20Say to all the people, ‘Listen to this message from the LORD, you kings of Judah and all you people of Judah and everyone living in Jerusalem. 21This is what the LORD says: Listen to my warning! Stop carrying on your trade at Jerusalem’s gates on the Sabbath day. 22Do not do your work on the Sabbath, but make it a holy day. I gave this command to your ancestors, 23but they did not listen or obey. They stubbornly refused to pay attention or accept my discipline.

24“‘But if you obey me, says the LORD, and do not carry on your trade at the gates or work on the Sabbath day, and if you keep it holy, 25then kings and their officials will go in and out of these gates forever. There will always be a descendant of David sitting on the throne here in Jerusalem. Kings and their officials will always ride in and out among the people of Judah in chariots and on horses, and this city will remain forever. 26And from all around Jerusalem, from the towns of Judah and Benjamin, from the western foothills* and the hill country and the Negev, the people will come with their burnt offerings and sacrifices. They will bring their grain offerings, frankincense, and thanksgiving offerings to the LORD's Temple.

27"'But if you do not listen to me and refuse to keep the Sabbath holy, and if on the Sabbath day you bring loads of merchandise through the gates of Jerusalem just as on other days, then I will set fire to these gates. The fire will spread to the palaces, and no one will be able to put out the roaring flames.'"

Jeremiah 18

THE POTTER AND THE CLAY

1The LORD gave another message to Jeremiah. He said, 2“Go down to the potter’s shop, and I will speak to you there.” 3So I did as he told me and found the potter working at his wheel. 4But the jar he was making did not turn out as he had hoped, so he crushed it into a lump of clay again and started over.

5Then the LORD gave me this message: 6“O Israel, can I not do to you as this potter has done to his clay? As the clay is in the potter’s hand, so are you in my hand. 7If I announce that a certain nation or kingdom is to be uprooted, torn down, and destroyed, 8but then that nation renounces its evil ways, I will not destroy it as I had planned.
9And if I announce that I will plant and build up a certain nation or kingdom, 10but then that nation turns to evil and refuses to obey me, I will not bless it as I said I would.

11“Therefore, Jeremiah, go and warn all Judah and Jerusalem. Say to them, ‘This is what the LORD says: I am planning disaster for you instead of good. So turn from your evil ways, each of you, and do what is right.’”

12But the people replied, “Don’t waste your breath. We will continue to live as we want to, stubbornly following our own evil desires.”

13So this is what the LORD says: “Has anyone ever heard of such a thing, even among the pagan nations?

My virgin daughter Israel has done something terrible!

14Does the snow ever disappear from the mountaintops of Lebanon?
Do the cold streams flowing from those distant mountains ever run dry?

15But my people are not so reliable, for they have deserted me; they burn incense to worthless idols.
They have stumbled off the ancient highways and walk in muddy paths.

16Therefore, their land will become desolate, a monument to their stupidity.
All who pass by will be astonished and will shake their heads in amazement.

17I will scatter my people before their enemies as the east wind scatters dust.
And in all their trouble I will turn my back on them and refuse to notice their distress.”

A PLOT AGAINST JEREMIAH

18Then the people said, “Come on, let’s plot a way to stop Jeremiah.
We have plenty of priests and wise men and prophets. We don’t need him to teach the word and give us advice and prophecies. Let’s spread rumors about him and ignore what he says.”

19LORD, hear me and help me!
Listen to what my enemies are saying.

20Should they repay evil for good?
They have dug a pit to kill me, though I pleaded for them and tried to protect them from your anger.

21So let their children starve!
Let them die by the sword!
Let their wives become childless widows.
Let their old men die in a plague, and let their young men be killed in battle!

22Let screaming be heard from their homes as warriors come suddenly upon them.
For they have dug a pit for me and have hidden traps along my path.

23LORD, you know all about their murderous plots against me.
Don’t forgive their crimes and blot out their sins.
Let them die before you.
Deal with them in your anger.

Jeremiah 19

JEREMIAH’S SHATTERED JAR

1This is what the LORD said to me: “Go and buy a clay jar. Then ask some of the leaders of the people and of the priests to follow you.
2Go out through the Gate of Broken Pots to the garbage dump in the valley of Ben-Hinnom, and give them this message. 3Say to them, ‘Listen to this message from the LORD, you kings of Judah and citizens of Jerusalem! This is what the LORD of Heaven’s Armies, the God of Israel, says: I will bring a terrible disaster on this place, and the ears of those who hear about it will ring!

4“‘For Israel has forsaken me and turned this valley into a place of wickedness. The people burn incense to foreign gods—idols never before acknowledged by this generation, by their ancestors, or by the kings of Judah. And they have filled this place with the blood of innocent children. 5They have built pagan shrines to Baal, and there they burn their sons as sacrifices to Baal. I have never commanded such a horrible deed; it never even crossed my mind to command such a thing! 6So beware, for the time is coming, says the LORD, when this garbage dump will no longer be called Topheth or the valley of Ben-Hinnom, but the Valley of Slaughter.

7“‘For I will upset the careful plans of Judah and Jerusalem. I will allow the people to be slaughtered by invading armies, and I will leave their dead bodies as food for the vultures and wild animals. 8I will reduce Jerusalem to ruins, making it a monument to their stupidity. All who pass by will be astonished and will gasp at the destruction they see there. 9I will see to it that your enemies lay siege to the city until all the food is gone. Then those trapped inside will eat their own sons and daughters and friends. They will be driven to utter despair.’

10“As these men watch you, Jeremiah, smash the jar you brought.
11Then say to them, ‘This is what the LORD of Heaven’s Armies says: As this jar lies shattered, so I will shatter the people of Judah and Jerusalem beyond all hope of repair. They will bury the bodies here in Topheth, the garbage dump, until there is no more room for them. 12This is what I will do to this place and its people, says the LORD. I will cause this city to become defiled like Topheth. 13Yes, all the houses in Jerusalem, including the palace of Judah’s kings, will become like Topheth—all the houses where you burned incense on the rooftops to your star gods, and where liquid offerings were poured out to your idols.'"

14Then Jeremiah returned from Topheth, the garbage dump where he had delivered this message, and he stopped in front of the Temple of the LORD. He said to the people there, 15"This is what the LORD of Heaven's Armies, the God of Israel, says: 'I will bring disaster upon this city and its surrounding towns as I promised, because you have stubbornly refused to listen to me.'"

Jeremiah 20

JEREMIAH AND PASHHUR

1Now Pashhur son of Immer, the priest in charge of the Temple of the LORD, heard what Jeremiah was prophesying. 2So he arrested Jeremiah the prophet and had him whipped and put in stocks at the Benjamin Gate of the LORD's Temple.

3The next day, when Pashhur finally released him, Jeremiah said, "Pashhur, the LORD has changed your name. From now on you are to be called 'The Man Who Lives in Terror.'* 4For this is what the LORD says: 'I will send terror upon you and all your friends, and you will watch as they are slaughtered by the swords of the enemy. I will hand the people of Judah over to the king of Babylon. He will take them captive to Babylon or run them through with the sword. 5And I will let your enemies plunder Jerusalem. All the famed treasures of the city—the precious jewels and gold and silver of your kings—will be carried off to Babylon. 6As for you, Pashhur, you and all your household will go as captives to Babylon. There you will die and be buried, you and all your friends to whom you prophesied that everything would be all right.'"

JEREMIAH'S COMPLAINT

7O LORD, you misled me, and I allowed myself to be misled.

You are stronger than I am, and you overpowered me.
Now I am mocked every day; everyone laughs at me.

8When I speak, the words burst out.
“Violence and destruction!” I shout.
So these messages from the LORD have made me a household joke.

9But if I say I’ll never mention the LORD or speak in his name, his word burns in my heart like a fire.
It’s like a fire in my bones!
I am worn out trying to hold it in!
I can’t do it!

10I have heard the many rumors about me.
They call me “The Man Who Lives in Terror.”
They threaten, “If you say anything, we will report it.”
Even my old friends are watching me, waiting for a fatal slip.
“He will trap himself,” they say, “and then we will get our revenge on him.”

11But the LORD stands beside me like a great warrior.
Before him my persecutors will stumble.
They cannot defeat me.
They will fail and be thoroughly humiliated.
Their dishonor will never be forgotten.

12O LORD of Heaven’s Armies, you test those who are righteous, and you examine the deepest thoughts and secrets.
Let me see your vengeance against them, for I have committed my cause to you.

13Sing to the LORD!
Praise the LORD!
For though I was poor and needy, he rescued me from my oppressors.

14Yet I curse the day I was born!
May no one celebrate the day of my birth.

15I curse the messenger who told my father, “Good news—you have a son!”

16Let him be destroyed like the cities of old that the LORD overthrew without mercy.
Terrify him all day long with battle shouts,

17because he did not kill me at birth.
Oh, that I had died in my mother’s womb, that her body had been my grave!

18Why was I ever born?
My entire life has been filled with trouble, sorrow, and shame.

Jeremiah 21

NO DELIVERANCE FROM BABYLON

1The LORD spoke through Jeremiah when King Zedekiah sent Pashhur son of Malkijah and Zephaniah son of Maaseiah, the priest, to speak with him. They begged Jeremiah, 2“Please speak to the LORD for us and ask him to help us. King Nebuchadnezzar* of Babylon is attacking Judah. Perhaps the LORD will be gracious and do a mighty miracle as he has done in the past. Perhaps he will force Nebuchadnezzar to withdraw his armies."

3Jeremiah replied, "Go back to King Zedekiah and tell him, 4'This is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says: I will make your weapons useless against the king of Babylon and the Babylonians* who are outside your walls attacking you. In fact, I will bring your enemies right into the heart of this city. 5I myself will fight against you with a strong hand and a powerful arm, for I am very angry. You have made me furious! 6I will send a terrible plague upon this city, and both people and animals will die. 7And after all that, says the LORD, I will hand over King Zedekiah, his staff, and everyone else in the city who survives the disease, war, and famine. I will hand them over to King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon and to their other enemies. He will slaughter them and show them no mercy, pity, or compassion.'

8"Tell all the people, 'This is what the LORD says: Take your choice of life or death! 9Everyone who stays in Jerusalem will die from war, famine, or disease, but those who go out and surrender to the Babylonians will live. Their reward will be life! 10For I have decided to bring disaster and not good upon this city, says the LORD. It will be handed over to the king of Babylon, and he will reduce it to ashes.'

JUDGMENT ON JUDAH'S KINGS

11"Say to the royal family of Judah, 'Listen to this message from the LORD! 12This is what the LORD says to the dynasty of David: "'Give justice each morning to the people you judge!

Help those who have been robbed; rescue them from their oppressors.
Otherwise, my anger will burn like an unquenchable fire because of all your sins.

13I will personally fight against the people in Jerusalem, that mighty fortress— the people who boast, "No one can touch us here.
No one can break in here."

14And I myself will punish you for your sinfulness, says the LORD.
I will light a fire in your forests that will burn up everything around
you.’”

Jeremiah 22

A MESSAGE FOR JUDAH’S KINGS

1This is what the LORD said to me: “Go over and speak directly to the king of Judah. Say to him, 2‘Listen to this message from the LORD, you king of Judah, sitting on David’s throne. Let your attendants and your people listen, too. 3This is what the LORD says:
Be fair-minded and just. Do what is right! Help those who have been robbed; rescue them from their oppressors. Quit your evil deeds! Do not mistreat foreigners, orphans, and widows. Stop murdering the innocent! 4If you obey me, there will always be a descendant of David sitting on the throne here in Jerusalem. The king will ride through the palace gates in chariots and on horses, with his parade of attendants and subjects. 5But if you refuse to pay attention to this warning, I swear by my own name, says the LORD, that this palace will become a pile of rubble.’”

A MESSAGE ABOUT THE PALACE

6Now this is what the LORD says concerning Judah’s royal palace:
“I love you as much as fruitful Gilead and the green forests of Lebanon.

But I will turn you into a desert, with no one living within your walls.

7I will call for wreckers, who will bring out their tools to dismantle

you.
They will tear out all your fine cedar beams and throw them on the fire.

8“People from many nations will pass by the ruins of this city and say to one another, ‘Why did the LORD destroy such a great city?’
9And the answer will be, ‘Because they violated their covenant with the LORD their God by worshiping other gods.’”

A MESSAGE ABOUT JEHOAHAZ

10Do not weep for the dead king or mourn his loss.

Instead, weep for the captive king being led away!
For he will never return to see his native land again.

11For this is what the LORD says about Jehoahaz,* who succeeded his father, King Josiah, and was taken away as a captive: “He will never return. 12He will die in a distant land and will never again see his own country.”

A MESSAGE ABOUT JEHOIAKIM

13And the LORD says, “What sorrow awaits Jehoiakim,* who builds his palace with forced labor.*

He builds injustice into its walls, for he makes his neighbors work for nothing.
He does not pay them for their labor.

14He says, ‘I will build a magnificent palace with huge rooms and many windows.
I will panel it throughout with fragrant cedar and paint it a lovely red.’

15But a beautiful cedar palace does not make a great king!
Your father, Josiah, also had plenty to eat and drink.
But he was just and right in all his dealings.

That is why God blessed him.

16He gave justice and help to the poor and needy, and everything went well for him.
Isn't that what it means to know me?"
says the LORD.

17"But you! You have eyes only for greed and dishonesty!
You murder the innocent, oppress the poor, and reign ruthlessly."

18Therefore, this is what the LORD says about Jehoiakim, son of King Josiah: "The people will not mourn for him, crying to one another, 'Alas, my brother! Alas, my sister!'

His subjects will not mourn for him, crying, 'Alas, our master is dead! Alas, his splendor is gone!'

19He will be buried like a dead donkey— dragged out of Jerusalem and dumped outside the gates!

20Weep for your allies in Lebanon.
Shout for them in Bashan.
Search for them in the regions east of the river.*
See, they are all destroyed.
Not one is left to help you.

21I warned you when you were prosperous, but you replied, 'Don't bother me.'
You have been that way since childhood— you simply will not obey me!

22And now the wind will blow away your allies.
All your friends will be taken away as captives.
Surely then you will see your wickedness and be ashamed.

23It may be nice to live in a beautiful palace paneled with wood from the cedars of Lebanon, but soon you will groan with pangs of anguish— anguish like that of a woman in labor.

A MESSAGE FOR JEHOIACHIN

24"As surely as I live," says the LORD, "I will abandon you, Jehoiachin* son of Jehoiakim, king of Judah. Even if you were the signet ring on my right hand, I would pull you off. 25I will hand you over to those who seek to kill you, those you so desperately fear—to King Nebuchadnezzar* of Babylon and the mighty Babylonian* army. 26I will expel you and your mother from this land, and you will die in a foreign country, not in your native land. 27You will never again return to the land you yearn for.

28"Why is this man Jehoiachin like a discarded, broken jar?
Why are he and his children to be exiled to a foreign land?

29O earth, earth, earth!
Listen to this message from the LORD!

30This is what the LORD says: 'Let the record show that this man Jehoiachin was childless.
He is a failure, for none of his children will succeed him on the throne of David to rule over Judah.'

Jeremiah 23

THE RIGHTEOUS DESCENDANT

1"What sorrow awaits the leaders of my people—the shepherds of my sheep—for they have destroyed and scattered the very ones they were expected to care for," says the LORD.

2Therefore, this is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says to these shepherds: "Instead of caring for my flock and leading them to safety, you have deserted them and driven them to destruction.
Now I will pour out judgment on you for the evil you have done to them. 3But I will gather together the remnant of my flock from the countries where I have driven them. I will bring them back to their own sheepfold, and they will be fruitful and increase in number.
4Then I will appoint responsible shepherds who will care for them, and they will never be afraid again. Not a single one will be lost or missing. I, the LORD, have spoken!

5“For the time is coming,” says the LORD, “when I will raise up a righteous descendant* from King David’s line.
He will be a King who rules with wisdom.
He will do what is just and right throughout the land.

6And this will be his name: ‘The LORD Is Our Righteousness.’*
In that day Judah will be saved, and Israel will live in safety.

7“In that day,” says the LORD, “when people are taking an oath, they will no longer say, ‘As surely as the LORD lives, who rescued the people of Israel from the land of Egypt.’ 8Instead, they will say, ‘As surely as the LORD lives, who brought the people of Israel back to their own land from the land of the north and from all the countries to which he had exiled them.’ Then they will live in their own land.”

JUDGMENT ON FALSE PROPHETS

9My heart is broken because of the false prophets, and my bones tremble.

I stagger like a drunkard, like someone overcome by wine, because of the holy words the LORD has spoken against them.

10For the land is full of adultery, and it lies under a curse.
The land itself is in mourning— its wilderness pastures are dried up.
For they all do evil and abuse what power they have.

11“Even the priests and prophets are ungodly, wicked men.
I have seen their despicable acts right here in my own Temple,”
says the LORD.

12“Therefore, the paths they take will become slippery.
They will be chased through the dark, and there they will fall.
For I will bring disaster upon them at the time fixed for their punishment.

I, the LORD, have spoken!

13“I saw that the prophets of Samaria were terribly evil, for they prophesied in the name of Baal and led my people of Israel into sin.

14But now I see that the prophets of Jerusalem are even worse!
They commit adultery and love dishonesty.
They encourage those who are doing evil so that no one turns away from their sins.
These prophets are as wicked as the people of Sodom and Gomorrah once were.”

15Therefore, this is what the LORD of Heaven’s Armies says concerning the prophets: “I will feed them with bitterness and give them poison to drink.

For it is because of Jerusalem’s prophets that wickedness has filled this land.”

16This is what the LORD of Heaven’s Armies says to his people: “Do not listen to these prophets when they prophesy to you, filling you with futile hopes.

They are making up everything they say.
They do not speak for the LORD!

17They keep saying to those who despise my word, ‘Don’t worry!
The LORD says you will have peace!’
And to those who stubbornly follow their own desires, they say, ‘No harm will come your way!’

18“Have any of these prophets been in the LORD’s presence to hear what he is really saying?
Has even one of them cared enough to listen?

19Look! The LORD’s anger bursts out like a storm, a whirlwind that swirls down on the heads of the wicked.

20The anger of the LORD will not diminish until it has finished all he has planned.
In the days to come you will understand all this very clearly.

21“I have not sent these prophets, yet they run around claiming to speak for me.
I have given them no message, yet they go on prophesying.

22If they had stood before me and listened to me, they would have spoken my words, and they would have turned my people from their evil ways and deeds.

23Am I a God who is only close at hand?” says the LORD.
“No, I am far away at the same time.

24Can anyone hide from me in a secret place?
Am I not everywhere in all the heavens and earth?”
says the LORD.

25“I have heard these prophets say, ‘Listen to the dream I had from God last night.’ And then they proceed to tell lies in my name.
26How long will this go on? If they are prophets, they are prophets of deceit, inventing everything they say. 27By telling these false dreams, they are trying to get my people to forget me, just as their ancestors did by worshiping the idols of Baal.

28“Let these false prophets tell their dreams, but let my true messengers faithfully proclaim my every word.
There is a difference between straw and grain!

29Does not my word burn like fire?”
says the LORD.
“Is it not like a mighty hammer that smashes a rock to pieces?

30“Therefore,” says the LORD, “I am against these prophets who steal messages from each other and claim they are from me. 31I am against these smooth-tongued prophets who say, ‘This prophecy is from the LORD!’ 32I am against these false prophets. Their imaginary dreams are flagrant lies that lead my people into sin. I did not send or appoint them, and they have no message at all for my people. I, the LORD, have spoken!

FALSE PROPHECIES AND FALSE PROPHETS

33“Suppose one of the people or one of the prophets or priests asks you, ‘What prophecy has the LORD burdened you with now?’ You must reply, ‘You are the burden!* The LORD says he will abandon you!’

34“If any prophet, priest, or anyone else says, ‘I have a prophecy from the LORD,’ I will punish that person along with his entire family. 35You should keep asking each other, ‘What is the LORD’s answer?’ or ‘What is the LORD saying?’ 36But stop using this phrase, ‘prophecy from the LORD.’ For people are using it to give authority to their own ideas, turning upside down the words of our God, the living God, the LORD of Heaven’s Armies.

37“This is what you should say to the prophets: ‘What is the LORD’s answer?’ or ‘What is the LORD saying?’ 38But suppose they respond, ‘This is a prophecy from the LORD!’ Then you should say, ‘This is what the LORD says: Because you have used this phrase, “prophecy from the LORD,” even though I warned you not to use it, 39I will forget you completely.* I will expel you from my presence, along with this city that I gave to you and your ancestors. 40And I will make you an object of ridicule, and your name will be infamous throughout the ages.’”

Jeremiah 24

GOOD AND BAD FIGS

1After King Nebuchadnezzar* of Babylon exiled Jehoiachin* son of Jehoiakim, king of Judah, to Babylon along with the officials of Judah and all the craftsmen and artisans, the LORD gave me this vision. I saw two baskets of figs placed in front of the LORD's Temple in Jerusalem. 2One basket was filled with fresh, ripe figs, while the other was filled with bad figs that were too rotten to eat.

3Then the LORD said to me, "What do you see, Jeremiah?"

I replied, "Figs, some very good and some very bad, too rotten to eat."

4Then the LORD gave me this message: 5"This is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says: The good figs represent the exiles I sent from Judah to the land of the Babylonians.*6I will watch over and care for them, and I will bring them back here again. I will build them up and not tear them down. I will plant them and not uproot them.
7I will give them hearts that recognize me as the LORD. They will be my people, and I will be their God, for they will return to me wholeheartedly.

8“But the bad figs,” the LORD said, “represent King Zedekiah of Judah, his officials, all the people left in Jerusalem, and those who live in Egypt. I will treat them like bad figs, too rotten to eat. 9I will make them an object of horror and a symbol of evil to every nation on earth. They will be disgraced and mocked, taunted and cursed, wherever I scatter them. 10And I will send war, famine, and disease until they have vanished from the land of Israel, which I gave to them and their ancestors.”

Jeremiah 25

SEVENTY YEARS OF CAPTIVITY

1This message for all the people of Judah came to Jeremiah from the LORD during the fourth year of Jehoiakim's reign over Judah.*
This was the year when King Nebuchadnezzar* of Babylon began his reign.

2Jeremiah the prophet said to all the people in Judah and Jerusalem, 3"For the past twenty-three years—from the thirteenth year of the reign of Josiah son of Amon,* king of Judah, until now—the LORD has been giving me his messages. I have faithfully passed them on to you, but you have not listened.

4"Again and again the LORD has sent you his servants, the prophets, but you have not listened or even paid attention. 5Each time the message was this: 'Turn from the evil road you are traveling and from the evil things you are doing. Only then will I let you live in this land that the LORD gave to you and your ancestors forever. 6Do not provoke my anger by worshiping idols you made with your own hands. Then I will not harm you.'

7"But you would not listen to me," says the LORD. "You made me furious by worshiping idols you made with your own hands, bringing on yourselves all the disasters you now suffer. 8And now the LORD of Heaven's Armies says: Because you have not listened to me, 9I will gather together all the armies of the north under King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon, whom I have appointed as my deputy.
I will bring them all against this land and its people and against the surrounding nations. I will completely destroy* you and make you an object of horror and contempt and a ruin forever. 10I will take away your happy singing and laughter. The joyful voices of bridegrooms and brides will no longer be heard. Your millstones will fall silent, and the lights in your homes will go out. 11This entire land will become a desolate wasteland. Israel and her neighboring lands will serve the king of Babylon for seventy years.

12"Then, after the seventy years of captivity are over, I will punish the king of Babylon and his people for their sins," says the LORD. "I will make the country of the Babylonians* a wasteland forever. 13I will bring upon them all the terrors I have promised in this book—all the penalties announced by Jeremiah against the nations. 14Many nations and great kings will enslave the Babylonians, just as they enslaved my people. I will punish them in proportion to the suffering they cause my people."

THE CUP OF THE LORD'S ANGER

15This is what the LORD, the God of Israel, said to me: "Take from my hand this cup filled to the brim with my anger, and make all the nations to whom I send you drink from it. 16When they drink from it, they will stagger, crazed by the warfare I will send against them."

17So I took the cup of anger from the LORD and made all the nations drink from it—every nation to which the LORD sent me. 18I went to Jerusalem and the other towns of Judah, and their kings and officials drank from the cup. From that day until this, they have been a desolate ruin, an object of horror, contempt, and cursing. 19I gave the cup to Pharaoh, king of Egypt, his attendants, his officials, and all his people, 20along with all the foreigners living in that land. I also gave it to all the kings of the land of Uz and the kings of the Philistine cities of Ashkelon, Gaza, Ekron, and what remains of Ashdod. 21Then I gave the cup to the nations of Edom, Moab, and Ammon, 22and the kings of Tyre and Sidon, and the kings of the regions across the sea. 23I gave it to Dedan, Tema, and Buz, and to the people who live in distant places.24I gave it to the kings of Arabia, the kings of the nomadic tribes of the desert, 25and to the kings of Zimri, Elam, and Media. 26And I gave it to the kings of the northern countries, far and near, one after the other—all the kingdoms of the world. And finally, the king of Babylon himself drank from the cup of the LORD's anger.

27Then the LORD said to me, "Now tell them, 'This is what the LORD of Heaven's Armies, the God of Israel, says: Drink from this cup of my anger. Get drunk and vomit; fall to rise no more, for I am sending terrible wars against you.' 28And if they refuse to accept the cup, tell them, ‘The LORD of Heaven’s Armies says: You have no choice but to drink from it. 29I have begun to punish Jerusalem, the city that bears my name. Now should I let you go unpunished? No, you will not escape disaster. I will call for war against all the nations of the earth. I, the LORD of Heaven’s Armies, have spoken!’

30“Now prophesy all these things, and say to them, “‘The LORD will roar against his own land from his holy dwelling in heaven.

He will shout like those who tread grapes; he will shout against everyone on earth.

31His cry of judgment will reach the ends of the earth, for the LORD will bring his case against all the nations.
He will judge all the people of the earth, slaughtering the wicked with the sword.
I, the LORD, have spoken!’”

32This is what the LORD of Heaven’s Armies says: “Look! Disaster will fall upon nation after nation!
A great whirlwind of fury is rising from the most distant corners of the earth!”

33In that day those the LORD has slaughtered will fill the earth from one end to the other. No one will mourn for them or gather up their bodies to bury them. They will be scattered on the ground like manure.

34Weep and moan, you evil shepherds!
Roll in the dust, you leaders of the flock!
The time of your slaughter has arrived; you will fall and shatter like a fragile vase.

35You will find no place to hide; there will be no way to escape.

36Listen to the frantic cries of the shepherds.
The leaders of the flock are wailing in despair, for the LORD is ruining their pastures.

37Peaceful meadows will be turned into a wasteland by the LORD’s fierce anger.

38He has left his den like a strong lion seeking its prey, and their land will be made desolate by the sword* of the enemy and the LORD's fierce anger.

Jeremiah 26

JEREMIAH'S ESCAPE FROM DEATH

1This message came to Jeremiah from the LORD early in the reign of Jehoiakim son of Josiah,* king of Judah. 2"This is what the LORD says: Stand in the courtyard in front of the Temple of the LORD, and make an announcement to the people who have come there to worship from all over Judah. Give them my entire message; include every word. 3Perhaps they will listen and turn from their evil ways.

Then I will change my mind about the disaster I am ready to pour out on them because of their sins.

SHILOH

4"Say to them, 'This is what the LORD says: If you will not listen to me and obey my word I have given you, 5and if you will not listen to my servants, the prophets—for I sent them again and again to warn you, but you would not listen to them—6then I will destroy this Temple as I destroyed Shiloh, the place where the Tabernacle was located. And I will make Jerusalem an object of cursing in every nation on earth.'"

7The priests, the prophets, and all the people listened to Jeremiah as he spoke in front of the LORD's Temple. 8But when Jeremiah had finished his message, saying everything the LORD had told him to say, the priests and prophets and all the people at the Temple mobbed him. "Kill him!" they shouted. 9"What right do you have to prophesy in the LORD's name that this Temple will be destroyed like Shiloh? What do you mean, saying that Jerusalem will be destroyed and left with no inhabitants?" And all the people threatened him as he stood in front of the Temple.

12Then Jeremiah spoke to the officials and the people in his own defense. "The LORD sent me to prophesy against this Temple and this city," he said. "The LORD gave me every word that I have spoken. 13But if you stop your sinning and begin to obey the LORD your God, he will change his mind about this disaster that he has announced against you. 14As for me, I am in your hands—do with me as you think best. 15But if you kill me, rest assured that you will be killing an innocent man! The responsibility for such a deed will lie on you, on this city, and on every person living in it. For it is absolutely true that the LORD sent me to speak every word you have heard."

16Then the officials and the people said to the priests and prophets, "This man does not deserve the death sentence, for he has spoken to us in the name of the LORD our God."

17Then some of the wise old men stood and spoke to all the people assembled there. 18They said, “Remember when Micah of Moresheth prophesied during the reign of King Hezekiah of Judah. He told the people of Judah, ‘This is what the LORD of Heaven’s Armies says: Mount Zion will be plowed like an open field; Jerusalem will be reduced to ruins!

A thicket will grow on the heights where the Temple now stands.’*

19But did King Hezekiah and the people kill him for saying this? No, they turned from their sins and worshiped the LORD. They begged him for mercy. Then the LORD changed his mind about the terrible disaster he had pronounced against them. So we are about to do ourselves great harm.”

KIRIATH-JEARIM

20At this time Uriah son of Shemaiah from Kiriath-jearim was also prophesying for the LORD. And he predicted the same terrible disaster against the city and nation as Jeremiah did. 21When King Jehoiakim and the army officers and officials heard what he was saying, the king sent someone to kill him. But Uriah heard about the plan and escaped in fear to Egypt. 22Then King Jehoiakim sent Elnathan son of Acbor to Egypt along with several other men to capture Uriah. 23They took him prisoner and brought him back to King Jehoiakim. The king then killed Uriah with a sword and had him buried in an unmarked grave.

24Nevertheless, Ahikam son of Shaphan stood up for Jeremiah and persuaded the court not to turn him over to the mob to be killed.

Jeremiah 27

JEREMIAH WEARS AN OX YOKE

1This message came to Jeremiah from the LORD early in the reign of Zedekiah* son of Josiah, king of Judah.

2This is what the LORD said to me: “Make a yoke, and fasten it on your neck with leather straps. 3Then send messages to the kings of Edom, Moab, Ammon, Tyre, and Sidon through their ambassadors who have come to see King Zedekiah in Jerusalem. 4Give them this message for their masters: ‘This is what the LORD of Heaven’s Armies, the God of Israel, says: 5With my great strength and powerful arm I made the earth and all its people and every animal.
I can give these things of mine to anyone I choose. 6Now I will give your countries to King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon, who is my servant. I have put everything, even the wild animals, under his control. 7All the nations will serve him, his son, and his grandson until his time is up. Then many nations and great kings will conquer and rule over Babylon. 8So you must submit to Babylon’s king and serve him; put your neck under Babylon’s yoke! I will punish any nation that refuses to be his slave, says the LORD. I will send war, famine, and disease upon that nation until Babylon has conquered it.

9“‘Do not listen to your false prophets, fortune-tellers, interpreters of dreams, mediums, and sorcerers who say, “The king of Babylon will not conquer you.” 10They are all liars, and their lies will lead to your being driven out of your land. I will drive you out and send you far away to die. 11But the people of any nation that submits to the king of Babylon will be allowed to stay in their own country to farm the land as usual. I, the LORD, have spoken!’” 12Then I repeated this same message to King Zedekiah of Judah. “If you want to live, submit to the yoke of the king of Babylon and his people. 13Why do you insist on dying—you and your people? Why should you choose war, famine, and disease, which the LORD will bring against every nation that refuses to submit to Babylon’s king?

14Do not listen to the false prophets who keep telling you, ‘The king of Babylon will not conquer you.’ They are liars. 15This is what the LORD says: ‘I have not sent these prophets! They are telling you lies in my name, so I will drive you from this land. You will all die—you and all these prophets, too.’”

16Then I spoke to the priests and the people and said, “This is what the LORD says: ‘Do not listen to your prophets who claim that soon the gold articles taken from my Temple will be returned from Babylon. It is all a lie! 17Do not listen to them. Surrender to the king of Babylon, and you will live. Why should this whole city be destroyed? 18If they really are prophets and speak the LORD’s messages, let them pray to the LORD of Heaven’s Armies. Let them pray that the articles remaining in the LORD’s Temple and in the king’s palace and in the palaces of Jerusalem will not be carried away to Babylon!’

19“For the LORD of Heaven’s Armies has spoken about the pillars in front of the Temple, the great bronze basin called the Sea, the water carts, and all the other ceremonial articles. 20King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon left them here when he exiled Jehoiachin* son of Jehoiakim, king of Judah, to Babylon, along with all the other nobles of Judah and Jerusalem. 21Yes, this is what the LORD of Heaven’s Armies, the God of Israel, says about the precious things still in the Temple, in the palace of Judah’s king, and in Jerusalem:
22‘They will all be carried away to Babylon and will stay there until I send for them,’ says the LORD. ‘Then I will bring them back to Jerusalem again.’”

JEREMIAH CONDEMNS HANANIAH

1One day in late summer* of that same year—the fourth year of the reign of Zedekiah, king of Judah—Hananiah son of Azzur, a prophet from Gibeon, addressed me publicly in the Temple while all the priests and people listened. He said, 2"This is what the LORD of Heaven's Armies, the God of Israel, says: 'I will remove the yoke of the king of Babylon from your necks. 3Within two years I will bring back all the Temple treasures that King Nebuchadnezzar carried off to Babylon. 4And I will bring back Jehoiachin* son of Jehoiakim, king of Judah, and all the other captives that were taken to Babylon. I will surely break the yoke that the king of Babylon has put on your necks. I, the LORD, have spoken!'"

5Jeremiah responded to Hananiah as they stood in front of all the priests and people at the Temple. 6He said, "Amen! May your prophecies come true! I hope the LORD does everything you say. I hope he does bring back from Babylon the treasures of this Temple and all the captives. 7But listen now to the solemn words I speak to you in the presence of all these people. 8The ancient prophets who preceded you and me spoke against many nations, always warning of war, disaster, and disease. 9So a prophet who predicts peace must show he is right. Only when his predictions come true can we know that he is really from the LORD."

10Then Hananiah the prophet took the yoke off Jeremiah's neck and broke it in pieces. 11And Hananiah said again to the crowd that had gathered, "This is what the LORD says: 'Just as this yoke has been broken, within two years I will break the yoke of oppression from all the nations now subject to King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon.'" With that, Jeremiah left the Temple area.

12Soon after this confrontation with Hananiah, the LORD gave this message to Jeremiah: 13"Go and tell Hananiah, 'This is what the LORD says: You have broken a wooden yoke, but you have replaced it with a yoke of iron. 14The LORD of Heaven's Armies, the God of Israel, says: I have put a yoke of iron on the necks of all these nations, forcing them into slavery under King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon. I have put everything, even the wild animals, under his control.’”

15Then Jeremiah the prophet said to Hananiah, “Listen, Hananiah! The LORD has not sent you, but the people believe your lies. 16Therefore, this is what the LORD says: ‘You must die. Your life will end this very year because you have rebelled against the LORD.’”

17Two months later* the prophet Hananiah died.

Jeremiah 29

A LETTER TO THE EXILES

1Jeremiah wrote a letter from Jerusalem to the elders, priests, prophets, and all the people who had been exiled to Babylon by King Nebuchadnezzar. 2This was after King Jehoiachin,* the queen mother, the court officials, the other officials of Judah, and all the craftsmen and artisans had been deported from Jerusalem. 3He sent the letter with Elasah son of Shaphan and Gemariah son of Hilkiah when they went to Babylon as King Zedekiah’s ambassadors to Nebuchadnezzar. This is what Jeremiah’s letter said:

4This is what the LORD of Heaven’s Armies, the God of Israel, says to all the captives he has exiled to Babylon from Jerusalem: 5“Build homes, and plan to stay. Plant gardens, and eat the food they produce. 6Marry and have children. Then find spouses for them so that you may have many grandchildren. Multiply! Do not dwindle away! 7And work for the peace and prosperity of the city where I sent you into exile. Pray to the LORD for it, for its welfare will determine your welfare.”

8This is what the LORD of Heaven’s Armies, the God of Israel, says: “Do not let your prophets and fortune-tellers who are with you in the land of Babylon trick you. Do not listen to their dreams, 9because they are telling you lies in my name. I have not sent them," says the LORD.

10This is what the LORD says: "You will be in Babylon for seventy years. But then I will come and do for you all the good things I have promised, and I will bring you home again. 11For I know the plans I have for you," says the LORD. "They are plans for good and not for disaster, to give you a future and a hope. 12In those days when you pray, I will listen. 13If you look for me wholeheartedly, you will find me. 14I will be found by you," says the LORD. "I will end your captivity and restore your fortunes. I will gather you out of the nations where I sent you and will bring you home again to your own land."

15You claim that the LORD has raised up prophets for you in Babylon. 16But this is what the LORD says about the king who sits on David's throne and all those still living here in Jerusalem—your relatives who were not exiled to Babylon. 17This is what the LORD of Heaven's Armies says: "I will send war, famine, and disease upon them and make them like bad figs, too rotten to eat. 18Yes, I will pursue them with war, famine, and disease, and I will scatter them around the world. In every nation where I send them, I will make them an object of damnation, horror, contempt, and mockery. 19For they refuse to listen to me, though I have spoken to them repeatedly through the prophets I sent. And you who are in exile have not listened either," says the LORD.

20Therefore, listen to this message from the LORD, all you captives there in Babylon. 21This is what the LORD of Heaven's Armies, the God of Israel, says about your prophets—Ahab son of Kolaiah and Zedekiah son of Maaseiah—who are telling you lies in my name: "I will turn them over to Nebuchadnezzar* for execution before your eyes. 22Their terrible fate will become proverbial, so that the Judean exiles will curse someone by saying, 'May the LORD make you like Zedekiah and Ahab, whom the king of Babylon burned alive!' 23For these men have done terrible things among my people. They have committed adultery with their neighbors' wives and have lied in my name, saying things I did not command. I am a witness to this. I,
the LORD, have spoken."

A MESSAGE FOR SHEMAIAH

24The LORD sent this message to Shemaiah the Nehelamite in Babylon: 25"This is what the LORD of Heaven's Armies, the God of Israel, says: You wrote a letter on your own authority to Zephaniah son of Maaseiah, the priest, and you sent copies to the other priests and people in Jerusalem. You wrote to Zephaniah, 26"The LORD has appointed you to replace Jehoiada as the priest in charge of the house of the LORD. You are responsible to put into stocks and neck irons any crazy man who claims to be a prophet.

27So why have you done nothing to stop Jeremiah from Anathoth, who pretends to be a prophet among you? 28Jeremiah sent a letter here to Babylon, predicting that our captivity will be a long one. He said, 'Build homes, and plan to stay. Plant gardens, and eat the food they produce.'"

29But when Zephaniah the priest received Shemaiah's letter, he took it to Jeremiah and read it to him. 30Then the LORD gave this message to Jeremiah: 31"Send an open letter to all the exiles in Babylon. Tell them, 'This is what the LORD says concerning Shemaiah the Nehelamite: Since he has prophesied to you when I did not send him and has tricked you into believing his lies, 32I will punish him and his family. None of his descendants will see the good things I will do for my people, for he has incited you to rebel against me. I, the LORD, have spoken!'"

Jeremiah 30

PROMISES OF DELIVERANCE

1The LORD gave another message to Jeremiah. He said, 2"This is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says: Write down for the record everything I have said to you, Jeremiah. 3For the time is coming when I will restore the fortunes of my people of Israel and Judah. I will bring them home to this land that I gave to their ancestors, and they will possess it again. I, the LORD, have spoken!"

4This is the message the LORD gave concerning Israel and Judah.
5This is what the LORD says: “I hear cries of fear; there is terror and no peace.

6Now let me ask you a question: Do men give birth to babies?
Then why do they stand there, ashen-faced, hands pressed against their sides like a woman in labor?

7In all history there has never been such a time of terror.
It will be a time of trouble for my people Israel.*
Yet in the end they will be saved!

8For in that day,” says the LORD of Heaven’s Armies, “I will break the yoke from their necks and snap their chains.
Foreigners will no longer be their masters.

9For my people will serve the LORD their God and their king descended from David— the king I will raise up for them.

10“So do not be afraid, Jacob, my servant; do not be dismayed, Israel,”
says the LORD.
“For I will bring you home again from distant lands, and your children will return from their exile.
Israel will return to a life of peace and quiet, and no one will terrorize them.

11For I am with you and will save you,”
says the LORD.
“I will completely destroy the nations where I have scattered you,
but I will not completely destroy you.
I will discipline you, but with justice; I cannot let you go unpunished.”

12This is what the LORD says: “Your injury is incurable— a terrible wound.

13There is no one to help you or to bind up your injury.

No medicine can heal you.

14All your lovers—your allies—have left you and do not care about you anymore.
I have wounded you cruelly, as though I were your enemy.
For your sins are many, and your guilt is great.

15Why do you protest your punishment— this wound that has no cure?
I have had to punish you because your sins are many and your guilt is great.

16“But all who devour you will be devoured, and all your enemies will be sent into exile.
All who plunder you will be plundered, and all who attack you will be attacked.

17I will give you back your health and heal your wounds,” says the LORD.
“For you are called an outcast— ‘Jerusalem* for whom no one cares.’”

18This is what the LORD says: “When I bring Israel home again from captivity and restore their fortunes, Jerusalem will be rebuilt on its ruins, and the palace reconstructed as before.

19There will be joy and songs of thanksgiving, and I will multiply my people, not diminish them; I will honor them, not despise them.

20Their children will prosper as they did long ago.
I will establish them as a nation before me, and I will punish anyone who hurts them.

21They will have their own ruler again, and he will come from their own people.
I will invite him to approach me,” says the LORD, “for who would dare to come unless invited?

22You will be my people, and I will be your God.”

23Look! The LORD’s anger bursts out like a storm, a driving wind that swirls down on the heads of the wicked.

24The fierce anger of the LORD will not diminish until it has finished all he has planned.
In the days to come you will understand all this.

Jeremiah 31

HOPE FOR RESTORATION

1"In that day," says the LORD, "I will be the God of all the families of Israel, and they will be my people. 2This is what the LORD says:
"Those who survive the coming destruction will find blessings even in the barren land, for I will give rest to the people of Israel."

3Long ago the LORD said to Israel: "I have loved you, my people, with an everlasting love.
With unfailing love I have drawn you to myself.

4I will rebuild you, my virgin Israel.
You will again be happy and dance merrily with your tambourines.

5Again you will plant your vineyards on the mountains of Samaria and eat from your own gardens there.

6The day will come when watchmen will shout from the hill country of Ephraim, ‘Come, let us go up to Jerusalem* to worship the LORD our God.’”

7Now this is what the LORD says: “Sing with joy for Israel.*
Shout for the greatest of nations!
Shout out with praise and joy: ‘Save your people, O LORD, the remnant of Israel!’

8For I will bring them from the north and from the distant corners of the earth.
I will not forget the blind and lame, the expectant mothers and women in labor.
A great company will return!

9Tears of joy will stream down their faces, and I will lead them home with great care.
They will walk beside quiet streams and on smooth paths where they will not stumble.
For I am Israel’s father, and Ephraim is my oldest child.

10“Listen to this message from the LORD, you nations of the world; proclaim it in distant coastlands: The LORD, who scattered his people, will gather them and watch over them as a shepherd does his flock.

11For the LORD has redeemed Israel from those too strong for them.

12They will come home and sing songs of joy on the heights of Jerusalem.
They will be radiant because of the LORD’s good gifts— the abundant crops of grain, new wine, and olive oil, and the healthy flocks and herds.
Their life will be like a watered garden, and all their sorrows will be gone.

13The young women will dance for joy, and the men—old and young—will join in the celebration.

I will turn their mourning into joy.
I will comfort them and exchange their sorrow for rejoicing.

14The priests will enjoy abundance, and my people will feast on my good gifts.
I, the LORD, have spoken!”

RACHEL’S SADNESS TURNS TO JOY

15This is what the LORD says: “A cry is heard in Ramah— deep anguish and bitter weeping.

Rachel weeps for her children, refusing to be comforted— for her children are gone.”

16But now this is what the LORD says: “Do not weep any longer, for I will reward you,” says the LORD.
“Your children will come back to you from the distant land of the enemy.

17There is hope for your future,” says the LORD.
“Your children will come again to their own land.

18I have heard Israel* saying, ‘You disciplined me severely, like a calf that needs training for the yoke.
Turn me again to you and restore me, for you alone are the LORD my God.

19I turned away from God, but then I was sorry.
I kicked myself for my stupidity!
I was thoroughly ashamed of all I did in my younger days.’

20“Is not Israel still my son, my darling child?” says the LORD.
“I often have to punish him, but I still love him.
That’s why I long for him and surely will have mercy on him.

21Set up road signs; put up guideposts.
Mark well the path by which you came.

Come back again, my virgin Israel; return to your towns here.

22How long will you wander, my wayward daughter?
For the LORD will cause something new to happen— Israel will embrace her God.*”

23This is what the LORD of Heaven’s Armies, the God of Israel, says: “When I bring them back from captivity, the people of Judah and its towns will again say, ‘The LORD bless you, O righteous home, O holy mountain!’ 24Townspeople and farmers and shepherds alike will live together in peace and happiness. 25For I have given rest to the weary and joy to the sorrowing.”

26At this, I woke up and looked around. My sleep had been very sweet.

27“The day is coming,” says the LORD, “when I will greatly increase the human population and the number of animals here in Israel and Judah. 28In the past I deliberately uprooted and tore down this nation. I overthrew it, destroyed it, and brought disaster upon it. But in the future I will just as deliberately plant it and build it up. I, the LORD, have spoken!

29“The people will no longer quote this proverb: ‘The parents have eaten sour grapes, but their children’s mouths pucker at the taste.’

30All people will die for their own sins—those who eat the sour grapes will be the ones whose mouths will pucker.

31“The day is coming,” says the LORD, “when I will make a new covenant with the people of Israel and Judah. 32This covenant will not be like the one I made with their ancestors when I took them by the hand and brought them out of the land of Egypt. They broke that covenant, though I loved them as a husband loves his wife,” says the LORD.

33“But this is the new covenant I will make with the people of Israel after those days,” says the LORD. “I will put my instructions deep within them, and I will write them on their hearts. I will be their God, and they will be my people. 34And they will not need to teach their neighbors, nor will they need to teach their relatives, saying, ‘You should know the LORD.’ For everyone, from the least to the greatest, will know me already,” says the LORD. “And I will forgive their wickedness, and I will never again remember their sins.”

35It is the LORD who provides the sun to light the day and the moon and stars to light the night, and who stirs the sea into roaring waves.
His name is the LORD of Heaven’s Armies, and this is what he says:

36“I am as likely to reject my people Israel as I am to abolish the laws of nature!”

37This is what the LORD says: “Just as the heavens cannot be measured and the foundations of the earth cannot be explored, so I will not consider casting them away for the evil they have done.
I, the LORD, have spoken!

JERUSALEM’S SURROUNDINGS

38“The day is coming,” says the LORD, “when all Jerusalem will be rebuilt for me, from the Tower of Hananel to the Corner Gate. 39A measuring line will be stretched out over the hill of Gareb and across to Goah. 40And the entire area—including the graveyard and ash dump in the valley, and all the fields out to the Kidron Valley on the east as far as the Horse Gate—will be holy to the LORD. The city will never again be captured or destroyed.”

Jeremiah 32

JEREMIAH'S LAND PURCHASE

1The following message came to Jeremiah from the LORD in the tenth year of the reign of Zedekiah,* king of Judah. This was also the eighteenth year of the reign of King Nebuchadnezzar.2Jerusalem was then under siege from the Babylonian army, and Jeremiah was imprisoned in the courtyard of the guard in the royal palace. 3King Zedekiah had put him there, asking why he kept giving this prophecy: "This is what the LORD says: 'I am about to hand this city over to the king of Babylon, and he will take it. 4King Zedekiah will be captured by the Babylonians and taken to meet the king of Babylon face to face. 5He will take Zedekiah to Babylon, and I will deal with him there,' says the LORD. ‘If you fight against the Babylonians, you will never succeed.’”

ANATHOTH

6At that time the LORD sent me a message. He said, 7“Your cousin Hanamel son of Shallum will come and say to you, ‘Buy my field at Anathoth. By law you have the right to buy it before it is offered to anyone else.’”

8Then, just as the LORD had said he would, my cousin Hanamel came and visited me in the prison. He said, “Please buy my field at Anathoth in the land of Benjamin. By law you have the right to buy it before it is offered to anyone else, so buy it for yourself.” Then I knew that the message I had heard was from the LORD.

9So I bought the field at Anathoth, paying Hanamel seventeen pieces* of silver for it. 10I signed and sealed the deed of purchase before witnesses, weighed out the silver, and paid him. 11Then I took the sealed deed and an unsealed copy of the deed, which contained the terms and conditions of the purchase, 12and I handed them to Baruch son of Neriah and grandson of Mahseiah. I did all this in the presence of my cousin Hanamel, the witnesses who had signed the deed, and all the men of Judah who were there in the courtyard of the guardhouse.

13Then I said to Baruch as they all listened, 14"This is what the LORD of Heaven's Armies, the God of Israel, says: 'Take both this sealed deed and the unsealed copy, and put them into a pottery jar to preserve them for a long time.' 15For this is what the LORD of Heaven's Armies, the God of Israel, says: 'Someday people will again own property here in this land and will buy and sell houses and vineyards and fields.'"

JEREMIAH'S PRAYER

16Then after I had given the papers to Baruch, I prayed to the LORD:

17"O Sovereign LORD! You made the heavens and earth by your strong hand and powerful arm. Nothing is too hard for you! 18You show unfailing love to thousands, but you also bring the consequences of one generation's sin upon the next. You are the great and powerful God, the LORD of Heaven's Armies. 19You have all wisdom and do great and mighty miracles. You see the conduct of all people, and you give them what they deserve. 20You performed miraculous signs and wonders in the land of Egypt—things still remembered to this day! And you have continued to do great miracles in Israel and all around the world. You have made your name famous to this day.

21"You brought Israel out of Egypt with mighty signs and wonders, with a strong hand and powerful arm, and with overwhelming terror. 22You gave the people of Israel this land that you had promised their ancestors long before—a land flowing with milk and honey. 23Our ancestors came and conquered it and lived in it, but they refused to obey you or follow your word. They have not done anything you commanded. That is why you have sent this terrible disaster upon them.

24"See how the siege ramps have been built against the city walls! Through war, famine, and disease, the city will be handed over to the Babylonians, who will conquer it. Everything has happened just as you said. 25And yet, O Sovereign LORD, you have told me to buy the field—paying good money for it before these witnesses—even though the city will soon be handed over to the Babylonians."

A PREDICTION OF JERUSALEM'S FALL

26Then this message came to Jeremiah from the LORD: 27"I am the LORD, the God of all the peoples of the world. Is anything too hard for me? 28Therefore, this is what the LORD says: I will hand this city over to the Babylonians and to Nebuchadnezzar, king of Babylon, and he will capture it. 29The Babylonians outside the walls will come in and set fire to the city. They will burn down all these houses where the people provoked my anger by burning incense to Baal on the rooftops and by pouring out liquid offerings to other gods. 30Israel and Judah have done nothing but wrong since their earliest days. They have infuriated me with all their evil deeds," says the LORD. 31"From the time this city was built until now, it has done nothing but anger me, so I am determined to get rid of it.

THE PAGAN SHRINES AT TOPHETH

32"The sins of Israel and Judah—the sins of the people of Jerusalem, the kings, the officials, the priests, and the prophets—have stirred up my anger. 33My people have turned their backs on me and have refused to return. Even though I diligently taught them, they would not receive instruction or obey. 34They have set up their abominable idols right in my own Temple, defiling it. 35They have built pagan shrines to Baal in the valley of Ben-Hinnom, and there they sacrifice their sons and daughters to Molech. I have never commanded such a horrible deed; it never even crossed my mind to command such a thing. What an incredible evil, causing Judah to sin so greatly!

A PROMISE OF RESTORATION

36"Now I want to say something more about this city. You have been saying, 'It will fall to the king of Babylon through war, famine, and disease.' But this is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says: 37I will certainly bring my people back again from all the countries where I will scatter them in my fury. I will bring them back to this very city and let them live in peace and safety. 38They will be my people, and I will be their God. 39And I will give them one heart and one purpose: to worship me forever, for their own good and for the good of all their descendants. 40And I will make an everlasting covenant with them: I will never stop doing good for them. I will put a desire in their hearts to worship me, and they will never leave me. 41I will find joy doing good for them and will faithfully and wholeheartedly replant them in this land.

42"This is what the LORD says: Just as I have brought all these calamities on them, so I will do all the good I have promised them.
43Fields will again be bought and sold in this land about which you now say, 'It has been ravaged by the Babylonians, a desolate land where people and animals have all disappeared.' 44Yes, fields will once again be bought and sold—deeds signed and sealed and witnessed—in the land of Benjamin and here in Jerusalem, in the towns of Judah and in the hill country, in the foothills of Judah* and in the Negev, too. For someday I will restore prosperity to them. I, the LORD, have spoken!"

ISRAEL'S PROPHETS

Jeremiah 33

PROMISES OF PEACE AND PROSPERITY

1While Jeremiah was still confined in the courtyard of the guard, the LORD gave him this second message: 2"This is what the LORD says—the LORD who made the earth, who formed and established it, whose name is the LORD: 3Ask me and I will tell you remarkable secrets you do not know about things to come. 4For this is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says: You have torn down the houses of this city and even the king's palace to get materials to strengthen the walls against the siege ramps and swords of the enemy. 5You expect to fight the Babylonians,* but the men of this city are already as good as dead, for I have determined to destroy them in my terrible anger. I have abandoned them because of all their wickedness.

6"Nevertheless, the time will come when I will heal Jerusalem's wounds and give it prosperity and true peace. 7I will restore the fortunes of Judah and Israel and rebuild their towns. 8I will cleanse them of their sins against me and forgive all their sins of rebellion.

9Then this city will bring me joy, glory, and honor before all the nations of the earth! The people of the world will see all the good I do for my people, and they will tremble with awe at the peace and prosperity I provide for them.

10"This is what the LORD says: You have said, 'This is a desolate land where people and animals have all disappeared.' Yet in the empty streets of Jerusalem and Judah's other towns, there will be heard once more 11the sounds of joy and laughter. The joyful voices of bridegrooms and brides will be heard again, along with the joyous songs of people bringing thanksgiving offerings to the LORD.
They will sing, 'Give thanks to the LORD of Heaven's Armies, for the LORD is good.

His faithful love endures forever!'

For I will restore the prosperity of this land to what it was in the past, says the LORD.

12"This is what the LORD of Heaven's Armies says: This land—though it is now desolate and has no people and animals—will once more have pastures where shepherds can lead their flocks. 13Once again shepherds will count their flocks in the towns of the hill country, the foothills of Judah,* the Negev, the land of Benjamin, the vicinity of Jerusalem, and all the towns of Judah. I, the LORD,
have spoken!

THE MESSIAH JEREMIAH 33:14-18

14“The day will come, says the LORD, when I will do for Israel and Judah all the good things I have promised them.

15“In those days and at that time I will raise up a righteous descendant* from King David’s line.
He will do what is just and right throughout the land.

16In that day Judah will be saved, and Jerusalem will live in safety.
And this will be its name: ‘The LORD Is Our Righteousness.’*

17For this is what the LORD says: David will have a descendant sitting on the throne of Israel forever. 18And there will always be Levitical priests to offer burnt offerings and grain offerings and sacrifices to me.”

19Then this message came to Jeremiah from the LORD: 20“This is what the LORD says: If you can break my covenant with the day and the night so that one does not follow the other, 21only then will my covenant with my servant David be broken. Only then will he no longer have a descendant to reign on his throne. The same is true for my covenant with the Levitical priests who minister before me. 22And as the stars of the sky cannot be counted and the sand on the seashore cannot be measured, so I will multiply the descendants of my servant David and the Levites who minister before me.”

23The LORD gave another message to Jeremiah. He said, 24“Have you noticed what people are saying?—‘The LORD chose Judah and Israel and then abandoned them!’ They are sneering and saying that Israel is not worthy to be counted as a nation. 25But this is what the LORD says: I would no more reject my people than I would change my laws that govern night and day, earth and sky. 26I will never abandon the descendants of Jacob or David, my servant, or change the plan that David’s descendants will rule the descendants of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. Instead, I will restore them to their land and have mercy on them.”

Jeremiah 34

A WARNING FOR ZEDEKIAH

1King Nebuchadnezzar* of Babylon came with all the armies from the kingdoms he ruled, and he fought against Jerusalem and the towns of Judah. At that time this message came to Jeremiah from the LORD: 2“Go to King Zedekiah of Judah, and tell him, ‘This is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says: I am about to hand this city over to the king of Babylon, and he will burn it down. 3You will not escape his grasp but will be captured and taken to meet the king of Babylon face to face. Then you will be exiled to Babylon.

4"'But listen to this promise from the LORD, O Zedekiah, king of Judah. This is what the LORD says: You will not be killed in war 5but will die peacefully. People will burn incense in your memory, just as they did for your ancestors, the kings who preceded you.
They will mourn for you, crying, "Alas, our master is dead!" This I have decreed, says the LORD.'"

6So Jeremiah the prophet delivered the message to King Zedekiah of Judah. 7At this time the Babylonian army was besieging Jerusalem, Lachish, and Azekah—the only fortified cities of Judah not yet captured.

FREEDOM FOR HEBREW SLAVES

8This message came to Jeremiah from the LORD after King Zedekiah made a covenant with the people, proclaiming freedom for the slaves. 9He had ordered all the people to free their Hebrew slaves—both men and women. No one was to keep a fellow Judean in bondage. 10The officials and all the people had obeyed the king's command, 11but later they changed their minds. They took back the men and women they had freed, forcing them to be slaves again.

12So the LORD gave them this message through Jeremiah: 13"This is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says: I made a covenant with your ancestors long ago when I rescued them from their slavery in Egypt. 14I told them that every Hebrew slave must be freed after serving six years. But your ancestors paid no attention to me.
15Recently you repented and did what was right, following my command. You freed your slaves and made a solemn covenant with me in the Temple that bears my name. 16But now you have shrugged off your oath and defiled my name by taking back the men and women you had freed, forcing them to be slaves once again.

17"Therefore, this is what the LORD says: Since you have not obeyed me by setting your countrymen free, I will set you free to be destroyed by war, disease, and famine. You will be an object of horror to all the nations of the earth. 18Because you have broken the terms of our covenant, I will cut you apart just as you cut apart the calf when you walked between its halves to solemnize your vows. 19Yes, I will cut you apart, whether you are officials of Judah or Jerusalem, court officials, priests, or common people—for you have broken your oath. 20I will give you to your enemies, and they will kill you. Your bodies will be food for the vultures and wild animals.

21"I will hand over King Zedekiah of Judah and his officials to the army of the king of Babylon. And although they have left Jerusalem for a while, 22I will call the Babylonian armies back again. They will fight against this city and will capture it and burn it down. I will see to it that all the towns of Judah are destroyed, with no one living there."

Jeremiah 35

THE FAITHFUL RECABITES

1This is the message the LORD gave Jeremiah when Jehoiakim son of Josiah was king of Judah: 2"Go to the settlement where the families of the Recabites live, and invite them to the LORD's Temple. Take them into one of the inner rooms, and offer them some wine."

3So I went to see Jaazaniah son of Jeremiah and grandson of Habazziniah and all his brothers and sons—representing all the Recabite families. 4I took them to the Temple, and we went into the room assigned to the sons of Hanan son of Igdaliah, a man of God. This room was located next to the one used by the Temple officials, directly above the room of Maaseiah son of Shallum, the Temple gatekeeper.

5I set cups and jugs of wine before them and invited them to have a drink, 6but they refused. “No,” they said, “we don’t drink wine, because our ancestor Jehonadab* son of Recab gave us this command: ‘You and your descendants must never drink wine. 7And do not build houses or plant crops or vineyards, but always live in tents. If you follow these commands, you will live long, good lives in the land.’ 8So we have obeyed him in all these things. We have never had a drink of wine to this day, nor have our wives, our sons, or our daughters. 9We haven’t built houses or owned vineyards or farms or planted crops. 10We have lived in tents and have fully obeyed all the commands of Jehonadab, our ancestor. 11But when King Nebuchadnezzar* of Babylon attacked this country, we were afraid of the Babylonian and Syrian* armies. So we decided to move to Jerusalem. That is why we are here.”

12Then the LORD gave this message to Jeremiah: 13“This is what the LORD of Heaven’s Armies, the God of Israel, says: Go and say to the people in Judah and Jerusalem, ‘Come and learn a lesson about how to obey me. 14The Recabites do not drink wine to this day because their ancestor Jehonadab told them not to. But I have spoken to you again and again, and you refuse to obey me. 15Time after time I sent you prophets, who told you, “Turn from your wicked ways, and start doing things right. Stop worshiping other gods so that you might live in peace here in the land I have given to you and your ancestors.” But you would not listen to me or obey me. 16The descendants of Jehonadab son of Recab have obeyed their ancestor completely, but you have refused to listen to me.’

17“Therefore, this is what the LORD God of Heaven’s Armies, the God of Israel, says: ‘Because you refuse to listen or answer when I call, I will send upon Judah and Jerusalem all the disasters I have threatened.’”

18Then Jeremiah turned to the Recabites and said, “This is what the LORD of Heaven's Armies, the God of Israel, says: 'You have obeyed your ancestor Jehonadab in every respect, following all his instructions.' 19Therefore, this is what the LORD of Heaven's Armies, the God of Israel, says: 'Jehonadab son of Recab will always have descendants who serve me.'"

Jeremiah 36

BARUCH READS THE LORD'S MESSAGES

1During the fourth year that Jehoiakim son of Josiah was king in Judah,* the LORD gave this message to Jeremiah: 2“Get a scroll, and write down all my messages against Israel, Judah, and the other nations. Begin with the first message back in the days of Josiah, and write down every message, right up to the present time. 3Perhaps the people of Judah will repent when they hear again all the terrible things I have planned for them. Then I will be able to forgive their sins and wrongdoings.”

4So Jeremiah sent for Baruch son of Neriah, and as Jeremiah dictated all the prophecies that the LORD had given him, Baruch wrote them on a scroll. 5Then Jeremiah said to Baruch, “I am a prisoner here and unable to go to the Temple. 6So you go to the Temple on the next day of fasting, and read the messages from the LORD that I have had you write on this scroll. Read them so the people who are there from all over Judah will hear them. 7Perhaps even yet they will turn from their evil ways and ask the LORD’s forgiveness before it is too late. For the LORD has threatened them with his terrible anger.”

8Baruch did as Jeremiah told him and read these messages from the LORD to the people at the Temple. 9He did this on a day of sacred fasting held in late autumn,* during the fifth year of the reign of Jehoiakim son of Josiah. People from all over Judah had come to Jerusalem to attend the services at the Temple on that day. 10Baruch read Jeremiah’s words on the scroll to all the people. He stood in front of the Temple room of Gemariah, son of Shaphan the secretary. This room was just off the upper courtyard of the Temple, near the New Gate entrance.

11When Micaiah son of Gemariah and grandson of Shaphan heard the messages from the LORD, 12he went down to the secretary’s room in the palace where the administrative officials were meeting.
Elishama the secretary was there, along with Delaiah son of Shemaiah, Elnathan son of Acbor, Gemariah son of Shaphan, Zedekiah son of Hananiah, and all the other officials. 13When Micaiah told them about the messages Baruch was reading to the people, 14the officials sent Jehudi son of Nethaniah, grandson of Shelemiah and great-grandson of Cushi, to ask Baruch to come and read the messages to them, too. So Baruch took the scroll and went to them. 15"Sit down and read the scroll to us," the officials said, and Baruch did as they requested.

16When they heard all the messages, they looked at one another in alarm. "We must tell the king what we have heard," they said to Baruch. 17"But first, tell us how you got these messages. Did they come directly from Jeremiah?"

18So Baruch explained, "Jeremiah dictated them, and I wrote them down in ink, word for word, on this scroll."

19"You and Jeremiah should both hide," the officials told Baruch. "Don't tell anyone where you are!" 20Then the officials left the scroll for safekeeping in the room of Elishama the secretary and went to tell the king what had happened.

KING JEHOIAKIM BURNS THE SCROLL

21The king sent Jehudi to get the scroll. Jehudi brought it from Elishama's room and read it to the king as all his officials stood by. 22It was late autumn, and the king was in a winterized part of the palace, sitting in front of a fire to keep warm. 23Each time Jehudi finished reading three or four columns, the king took a knife and cut off that section of the scroll. He then threw it into the fire, section by section, until the whole scroll was burned up. 24Neither the king nor his attendants showed any signs of fear or repentance at what they heard. 25Even when Elnathan, Delaiah, and Gemariah begged the king not to burn the scroll, he wouldn't listen.

26Then the king commanded his son Jerahmeel, Seraiah son of Azriel, and Shelemiah son of Abdeel to arrest Baruch and Jeremiah. But the LORD had hidden them.

JEREMIAH REWRITES THE SCROLL

27After the king had burned the scroll on which Baruch had written Jeremiah's words, the LORD gave Jeremiah another message. He said, 28"Get another scroll, and write everything again just as you did on the scroll King Jehoiakim burned. 29Then say to the king,
'This is what the LORD says: You burned the scroll because it said the king of Babylon would destroy this land and empty it of people and animals. 30Now this is what the LORD says about King Jehoiakim of Judah: He will have no heirs to sit on the throne of David. His dead body will be thrown out to lie unburied—exposed to the heat of the day and the frost of the night. 31I will punish him and his family and his attendants for their sins. I will pour out on them and on all the people of Jerusalem and Judah all the disasters
I promised, for they would not listen to my warnings.'"

32So Jeremiah took another scroll and dictated again to his secretary, Baruch. He wrote everything that had been on the scroll King Jehoiakim had burned in the fire. Only this time he added much more!

Jeremiah 37

ZEDEKIAH CALLS FOR JEREMIAH

1Zedekiah son of Josiah succeeded Jehoiachin* son of Jehoiakim as the king of Judah. He was appointed by King Nebuchadnezzar* of Babylon. 2But neither King Zedekiah nor his attendants nor the people who were left in the land listened to what the LORD said through Jeremiah.

3Nevertheless, King Zedekiah sent Jehucal son of Shelemiah, and Zephaniah the priest, son of Maaseiah, to ask Jeremiah, “Please pray to the LORD our God for us.” 4Jeremiah had not yet been imprisoned, so he could come and go among the people as he pleased.

5At this time the army of Pharaoh Hophra* of Egypt appeared at the southern border of Judah. When the Babylonian* army heard about it, they withdrew from their siege of Jerusalem.

6Then the LORD gave this message to Jeremiah: 7"This is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says: The king of Judah sent you to ask me what is going to happen. Tell him, 'Pharaoh's army is about to return to Egypt, though he came here to help you. 8Then the Babylonians* will come back and capture this city and burn it to the ground.'

9"This is what the LORD says: Do not fool yourselves into thinking that the Babylonians are gone for good. They aren't! 10Even if you were to destroy the entire Babylonian army, leaving only a handful of wounded survivors, they would still stagger from their tents and burn this city to the ground!"

JEREMIAH IS IMPRISONED

11When the Babylonian army left Jerusalem because of Pharaoh's approaching army, 12Jeremiah started to leave the city on his way to the territory of Benjamin, to claim his share of the property among his relatives there.*13But as he was walking through the Benjamin Gate, a sentry arrested him and said, "You are defecting to the Babylonians!" The sentry making the arrest was Irijah son of Shelemiah, grandson of Hananiah.

14“That’s not true!” Jeremiah protested. “I had no intention of doing any such thing.” But Irijah wouldn’t listen, and he took Jeremiah before the officials. 15They were furious with Jeremiah and had him flogged and imprisoned in the house of Jonathan the secretary.
Jonathan’s house had been converted into a prison. 16Jeremiah was put into a dungeon cell, where he remained for many days.

17Later King Zedekiah secretly requested that Jeremiah come to the palace, where the king asked him, “Do you have any messages from the LORD?”

“Yes, I do!” said Jeremiah. “You will be defeated by the king of Babylon.”

18Then Jeremiah asked the king, “What crime have I committed?
What have I done against you, your attendants, or the people that I should be imprisoned like this? 19Where are your prophets now who told you the king of Babylon would not attack you or this land?
20Listen, my lord the king, I beg you. Don’t send me back to the dungeon in the house of Jonathan the secretary, for I will die
there.”

21So King Zedekiah commanded that Jeremiah not be returned to the dungeon. Instead, he was imprisoned in the courtyard of the guard in the royal palace. The king also commanded that Jeremiah be given a loaf of fresh bread every day as long as there was any left in the city. So Jeremiah was put in the palace prison.

Jeremiah 38

JEREMIAH IN A CISTERN

1Now Shephatiah son of Mattan, Gedaliah son of Pashhur, Jehucal* son of Shelemiah, and Pashhur son of Malkijah heard what Jeremiah had been telling the people. He had been saying, 2“This is what the LORD says: ‘Everyone who stays in Jerusalem will die from war, famine, or disease, but those who surrender to the Babylonians* will live. Their reward will be life. They will live!’

3The LORD also says: ‘The city of Jerusalem will certainly be handed over to the army of the king of Babylon, who will capture
it.’”

4So these officials went to the king and said, “Sir, this man must die! That kind of talk will undermine the morale of the few fighting men we have left, as well as that of all the people. This man is a traitor!”

5King Zedekiah agreed. “All right,” he said. “Do as you like. I can’t stop you.”

6So the officials took Jeremiah from his cell and lowered him by ropes into an empty cistern in the prison yard. It belonged to Malkijah, a member of the royal family. There was no water in the cistern, but there was a thick layer of mud at the bottom, and Jeremiah sank down into it.

7But Ebed-melech the Ethiopian,* an important court official, heard that Jeremiah was in the cistern. At that time the king was holding court at the Benjamin Gate, 8so Ebed-melech rushed from the palace to speak with him. 9“My lord the king,” he said, “these men have done a very evil thing in putting Jeremiah the prophet into the cistern. He will soon die of hunger, for almost all the bread in the city is gone.”

10So the king told Ebed-melech, “Take thirty of my men with you, and pull Jeremiah out of the cistern before he dies.”

11So Ebed-melech took the men with him and went to a room in the palace beneath the treasury, where he found some old rags and discarded clothing. He carried these to the cistern and lowered them to Jeremiah on a rope. 12Ebed-melech called down to Jeremiah, “Put these rags under your armpits to protect you from the ropes." Then when Jeremiah was ready, 13they pulled him out. So Jeremiah was returned to the courtyard of the guard—the palace prison—where he remained.

ZEDEKIAH QUESTIONS JEREMIAH

14One day King Zedekiah sent for Jeremiah and had him brought to the third entrance of the LORD's Temple. "I want to ask you something," the king said. "And don't try to hide the truth."

15Jeremiah said, "If I tell you the truth, you will kill me. And if I give you advice, you won't listen to me anyway."

16So King Zedekiah secretly promised him, "As surely as the LORD our Creator lives, I will not kill you or hand you over to the men who want you dead."

17Then Jeremiah said to Zedekiah, "This is what the LORD God of Heaven's Armies, the God of Israel, says: 'If you surrender to the Babylonian officers, you and your family will live, and the city will not be burned down. 18But if you refuse to surrender, you will not escape! This city will be handed over to the Babylonians, and they will burn it to the ground.'"

19"But I am afraid to surrender," the king said, "for the Babylonians may hand me over to the Judeans who have defected to them. And who knows what they will do to me!"

20Jeremiah replied, "You won't be handed over to them if you choose to obey the LORD. Your life will be spared, and all will go well for you. 21But if you refuse to surrender, this is what the LORD has revealed to me: 22All the women left in your palace will be brought out and given to the officers of the Babylonian army. Then the women will taunt you, saying, ‘What fine friends you have!

They have betrayed and misled you.
When your feet sank in the mud, they left you to your fate!’

23All your wives and children will be led out to the Babylonians, and you will not escape. You will be seized by the king of Babylon, and this city will be burned down.”

24Then Zedekiah said to Jeremiah, “Don’t tell anyone you told me this, or you will die! 25My officials may hear that I spoke to you, and they may say, ‘Tell us what you and the king were talking about. If you don’t tell us, we will kill you.’ 26If this happens, just tell them you begged me not to send you back to Jonathan’s dungeon, for fear you would die there.”

27Sure enough, it wasn’t long before the king’s officials came to Jeremiah and asked him why the king had called for him. But Jeremiah followed the king’s instructions, and they left without finding out the truth. No one had overheard the conversation between Jeremiah and the king. 28And Jeremiah remained a prisoner in the courtyard of the guard until the day Jerusalem was captured.

Jeremiah 39

THE FALL OF JERUSALEM

1In January* of the ninth year of King Zedekiah's reign, King Nebuchadnezzar* of Babylon came with his entire army to besiege Jerusalem. 2Two and a half years later, on July 18* in the eleventh year of Zedekiah's reign, a section of the city wall was broken down. 3All the officers of the Babylonian army came in and sat in triumph at the Middle Gate: Nergal-sharezer of Samgar, and Nebosarsekim,* a chief officer, and Nergal-sharezer, the king's adviser, and all the other officers of the king of Babylon.

4When King Zedekiah of Judah and all the soldiers saw that the Babylonians had broken into the city, they fled. They waited for nightfall and then slipped through the gate between the two walls behind the king's garden and headed toward the Jordan Valley.*

5But the Babylonian* troops chased them and overtook Zedekiah on the plains of Jericho. They captured him and took him to King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon, who was at Riblah in the land of Hamath. There the king of Babylon pronounced judgment upon Zedekiah. 6The king of Babylon made Zedekiah watch as he slaughtered his sons at Riblah. The king of Babylon also slaughtered all the nobles of Judah. 7Then he gouged out Zedekiah's eyes and bound him in bronze chains to lead him away to Babylon.

8Meanwhile, the Babylonians burned Jerusalem, including the royal palace and the houses of the people, and they tore down the walls of the city. 9Then Nebuzaradan, the captain of the guard, took as exiles to Babylon the rest of the people who remained in the city, those who had defected to him, and everyone else who remained.
10But Nebuzaradan allowed some of the poorest people to stay behind in the land of Judah, and he assigned them to care for the vineyards and fields.

JEREMIAH REMAINS IN JUDAH

11King Nebuchadnezzar had told Nebuzaradan, the captain of the guard, to find Jeremiah. 12"See that he isn't hurt," he said. "Look after him well, and give him anything he wants." 13So Nebuzaradan, the captain of the guard; Nebushazban, a chief officer; Nergal-sharezer, the king's adviser; and the other officers of Babylon's king 14sent messengers to bring Jeremiah out of the prison. They put him under the care of Gedaliah son of Ahikam and grandson of Shaphan, who took him back to his home. So Jeremiah stayed in Judah among his own people.

15The LORD had given the following message to Jeremiah while he was still in prison: 16"Say to Ebed-melech the Ethiopian,* 'This is what the LORD of Heaven's Armies, the God of Israel, says: I will do to this city everything I have threatened. I will send disaster, not prosperity. You will see its destruction, 17but I will rescue you from those you fear so much. 18Because you trusted me, I will give you your life as a reward. I will rescue you and keep you safe. I, the LORD, have spoken!'"

Jeremiah 40

1The LORD gave a message to Jeremiah after Nebuzaradan, the captain of the guard, had released him at Ramah. He had found Jeremiah bound in chains among all the other captives of Jerusalem and Judah who were being sent to exile in Babylon.

2The captain of the guard called for Jeremiah and said, "The LORD your God has brought this disaster on this land, 3just as he said he would. For these people have sinned against the LORD and disobeyed him. That is why it happened. 4But I am going to take off your chains and let you go. If you want to come with me to Babylon, you are welcome. I will see that you are well cared for.
But if you don't want to come, you may stay here. The whole land is before you—go wherever you like. 5If you decide to stay, then return to Gedaliah son of Ahikam and grandson of Shaphan. He has been appointed governor of Judah by the king of Babylon. Stay there with the people he rules. But it's up to you; go wherever you like.”

Then Nebuzaradan, the captain of the guard, gave Jeremiah some food and money and let him go. 6So Jeremiah returned to Gedaliah son of Ahikam at Mizpah, and he lived in Judah with the few who were still left in the land.

GEDALIAH GOVERNS IN JUDAH

9Gedaliah vowed to them that the Babylonians* meant them no harm. “Don’t be afraid to serve them. Live in the land and serve the king of Babylon, and all will go well for you,” he promised. 10“As for me, I will stay at Mizpah to represent you before the Babylonians who come to meet with us. Settle in the towns you have taken, and live off the land. Harvest the grapes and summer fruits and olives, and store them away.”

11When the Judeans in Moab, Ammon, Edom, and the other nearby countries heard that the king of Babylon had left a few people in Judah and that Gedaliah was the governor, 12they began to return to Judah from the places to which they had fled. They stopped at Mizpah to meet with Gedaliah and then went into the Judean countryside to gather a great harvest of grapes and other crops.

A PLOT AGAINST GEDALIAH

13Soon after this, Johanan son of Kareah and the other guerrilla leaders came to Gedaliah at Mizpah. 14They said to him, “Did you know that Baalis, king of Ammon, has sent Ishmael son of Nethaniah to assassinate you?" But Gedaliah refused to believe them.

15Later Johanan had a private conference with Gedaliah and volunteered to kill Ishmael secretly. "Why should we let him come and murder you?" Johanan asked. "What will happen then to the Judeans who have returned? Why should the few of us who are still left be scattered and lost?"

16But Gedaliah said to Johanan, "I forbid you to do any such thing, for you are lying about Ishmael."

Jeremiah 41

THE MURDER OF GEDALIAH

1But in midautumn of that year,* Ishmael son of Nethaniah and grandson of Elishama, who was a member of the royal family and had been one of the king's high officials, went to Mizpah with ten men to meet Gedaliah. While they were eating together, 2Ishmael and his ten men suddenly jumped up, drew their swords, and killed Gedaliah, whom the king of Babylon had appointed governor. 3Ishmael also killed all the Judeans and the Babylonian* soldiers who were with Gedaliah at Mizpah.

4The next day, before anyone had heard about Gedaliah's murder, 5eighty men arrived from Shechem, Shiloh, and Samaria to worship at the Temple of the LORD. They had shaved off their beards, torn their clothes, and cut themselves, and had brought along grain offerings and frankincense. 6Ishmael left Mizpah to meet them, weeping as he went. When he reached them, he said, "Oh, come and see what has happened to Gedaliah!"

7But as soon as they were all inside the town, Ishmael and his men killed all but ten of them and threw their bodies into a cistern. 8The

other ten had talked Ishmael into letting them go by promising to bring him their stores of wheat, barley, olive oil, and honey that they had hidden away. 9The cistern where Ishmael dumped the bodies of the men he murdered was the large one* dug by King Asa when he fortified Mizpah to protect himself against King Baasha of Israel. Ishmael son of Nethaniah filled it with corpses.

10Then Ishmael made captives of the king's daughters and the other people who had been left under Gedaliah's care in Mizpah by Nebuzaradan, the captain of the guard. Taking them with him, he started back toward the land of Ammon.

11But when Johanan son of Kareah and the other guerrilla leaders heard about Ishmael's crimes, 12they took all their men and set out to stop him. They caught up with him at the large pool near Gibeon. 13The people Ishmael had captured shouted for joy when they saw Johanan and the other guerrilla leaders. 14And all the captives from Mizpah escaped and began to help Johanan. 15Meanwhile, Ishmael and eight of his men escaped from Johanan into the land of Ammon.

16Then Johanan son of Kareah and the other guerrilla leaders took all the people they had rescued in Gibeon—the soldiers, women, children, and court officials* whom Ishmael had captured after he killed Gedaliah. 17They took them all to the village of Geruth-kimham near Bethlehem, where they prepared to leave for Egypt. 18They were afraid of what the Babylonians* would do when they heard that Ishmael had killed Gedaliah, the governor appointed by the Babylonian king.

Jeremiah 42

WARNING TO STAY IN JUDAH

1Then all the guerrilla leaders, including Johanan son of Kareah and Jezaniah* son of Hoshaiah, and all the people, from the least to the greatest, approached 2Jeremiah the prophet. They said, "Please pray to the LORD your God for us. As you can see, we are only a tiny remnant compared to what we were before. 3Pray that the LORD your God will show us what to do and where to go."

4"All right," Jeremiah replied. "I will pray to the LORD your God, as you have asked, and I will tell you everything he says. I will hide nothing from you."

5Then they said to Jeremiah, "May the LORD your God be a faithful witness against us if we refuse to obey whatever he tells us to do!
6Whether we like it or not, we will obey the LORD our God to whom we are sending you with our plea. For if we obey him, everything will turn out well for us."

7Ten days later the LORD gave his reply to Jeremiah. 8So he called for Johanan son of Kareah and the other guerrilla leaders, and for all the people, from the least to the greatest. 9He said to them, "You sent me to the LORD, the God of Israel, with your request, and this is his reply: 10'Stay here in this land. If you do, I will build you up and not tear you down; I will plant you and not uproot you. For I am sorry about all the punishment I have had to bring upon you.
11Do not fear the king of Babylon anymore,' says the LORD. 'For I am with you and will save you and rescue you from his power. 12I will be merciful to you by making him kind, so he will let you stay here in your land.'

13"But if you refuse to obey the LORD your God, and if you say, 'We will not stay here; 14instead, we will go to Egypt where we will be free from war, the call to arms, and hunger,' 15then hear the LORD's message to the remnant of Judah. This is what the LORD of Heaven's Armies, the God of Israel, says: 'If you are determined to go to Egypt and live there, 16the very war and famine you fear will catch up to you, and you will die there. 17That is the fate awaiting every one of you who insists on going to live in Egypt. Yes, you will die from war, famine, and disease. None of you will escape the disaster I will bring upon you there.'

18“This is what the LORD of Heaven’s Armies, the God of Israel, says: ‘Just as my anger and fury have been poured out on the people of Jerusalem, so they will be poured out on you when you enter Egypt. You will be an object of damnation, horror, cursing, and mockery. And you will never see your homeland again.’

19“Listen, you remnant of Judah. The LORD has told you: ‘Do not go to Egypt!’ Don’t forget this warning I have given you today. 20For you were not being honest when you sent me to pray to the LORD your God for you. You said, ‘Just tell us what the LORD our God says, and we will do it!’ 21And today I have told you exactly what he said, but you will not obey the LORD your God any better now than you have in the past. 22So you can be sure that you will die from war, famine, and disease in Egypt, where you insist on going.”

Jeremiah 43

JEREMIAH TAKEN TO EGYPT

1When Jeremiah had finished giving this message from the LORD their God to all the people, 2Azariah son of Hoshaiah and Johanan son of Kareah and all the other proud men said to Jeremiah, “You lie! The LORD our God hasn’t forbidden us to go to Egypt! 3Baruch son of Neriah has convinced you to say this, because he wants us to stay here and be killed by the Babylonians* or be carried off into exile.”

4So Johanan and the other guerrilla leaders and all the people refused to obey the LORD’s command to stay in Judah. 5Johanan and the other leaders took with them all the people who had returned from the nearby countries to which they had fled. 6In the crowd were men, women, and children, the king’s daughters, and all those whom Nebuzaradan, the captain of the guard, had left with Gedaliah. The prophet Jeremiah and Baruch were also included. 7The people refused to obey the voice of the LORD and went to Egypt, going as far as the city of Tahpanhes.

8Then at Tahpanhes, the LORD gave another message to Jeremiah.
He said, 9“While the people of Judah are watching, take some large rocks and bury them under the pavement stones at the entrance of Pharaoh’s palace here in Tahpanhes. 10Then say to the people of Judah, ‘This is what the LORD of Heaven’s Armies, the God of Israel, says: I will certainly bring my servant Nebuchadnezzar,* king of Babylon, here to Egypt. I will set his throne over these stones that I have hidden. He will spread his royal canopy over them.
11And when he comes, he will destroy the land of Egypt. He will bring death to those destined for death, captivity to those destined for captivity, and war to those destined for war. 12He will set fire to the temples of Egypt’s gods; he will burn the temples and carry the idols away as plunder. He will pick clean the land of Egypt as a shepherd picks fleas from his cloak. And he himself will leave unharmed. 13He will break down the sacred pillars standing in the temple of the sun* in Egypt, and he will burn down the temples of Egypt’s gods.’”

Jeremiah 44

JUDGMENT FOR IDOLATRY

1This is the message Jeremiah received concerning the Judeans living in northern Egypt in the cities of Migdol, Tahpanhes, and Memphis,* and in southern Egypt* as well: 2“This is what the LORD of Heaven’s Armies, the God of Israel, says: You saw the calamity I brought on Jerusalem and all the towns of Judah. They now lie deserted and in ruins. 3They provoked my anger with all their wickedness. They burned incense and worshiped other gods—gods that neither they nor you nor any of your ancestors had ever even known.

4“Again and again I sent my servants, the prophets, to plead with them, ‘Don’t do these horrible things that I hate so much.’ 5But my people would not listen or turn back from their wicked ways. They kept on burning incense to these gods. 6And so my fury boiled over and fell like fire on the towns of Judah and into the streets of Jerusalem, and they are still a desolate ruin today.

7“And now the LORD God of Heaven’s Armies, the God of Israel, asks you: Why are you destroying yourselves? For not one of you will survive—not a man, woman, or child among you who has come here from Judah, not even the babies in your arms. 8Why provoke my anger by burning incense to the idols you have made here in Egypt? You will only destroy yourselves and make yourselves an object of cursing and mockery for all the nations of the earth. 9Have you forgotten the sins of your ancestors, the sins of the kings and queens of Judah, and the sins you and your wives committed in Judah and Jerusalem? 10To this very hour you have shown no remorse or reverence. No one has chosen to follow my word and the decrees I gave to you and your ancestors before you.

11“Therefore, this is what the LORD of Heaven’s Armies, the God of Israel, says: I am determined to destroy every one of you! 12I will take this remnant of Judah—those who were determined to come here and live in Egypt—and I will consume them. They will fall here in Egypt, killed by war and famine. All will die, from the least to the greatest. They will be an object of damnation, horror, cursing, and mockery. 13I will punish them in Egypt just as I punished them in Jerusalem, by war, famine, and disease. 14Of that remnant who fled to Egypt, hoping someday to return to Judah, there will be no survivors. Even though they long to return home, only a handful will do so.”

15Then all the women present and all the men who knew that their wives had burned incense to idols—a great crowd of all the Judeans living in northern Egypt and southern Egypt*—answered Jeremiah, 16“We will not listen to your messages from the LORD! 17We will do whatever we want. We will burn incense and pour out liquid offerings to the Queen of Heaven just as much as we like—just as we, and our ancestors, and our kings and officials have always done in the towns of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem. For in those days we had plenty to eat, and we were well off and had no troubles! 18But ever since we quit burning incense to the Queen of Heaven and stopped worshiping her with liquid offerings, we have been in great trouble and have been dying from war and famine.”

19“Besides,” the women added, “do you suppose that we were burning incense and pouring out liquid offerings to the Queen of Heaven, and making cakes marked with her image, without our husbands knowing it and helping us? Of course not!”

20Then Jeremiah said to all of them, men and women alike, who had given him that answer, 21“Do you think the LORD did not know that you and your ancestors, your kings and officials, and all the people were burning incense to idols in the towns of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem? 22It was because the LORD could no longer bear all the disgusting things you were doing that he made your land an object of cursing—a desolate ruin without inhabitants—as it is today. 23All these terrible things happened to you because you have burned incense to idols and sinned against the LORD. You have refused to obey him and have not followed his instructions, his decrees, and his laws.”

24Then Jeremiah said to them all, including the women, “Listen to this message from the LORD, all you citizens of Judah who live in Egypt. 25This is what the LORD of Heaven’s Armies, the God of Israel, says: ‘You and your wives have said, “We will keep our promises to burn incense and pour out liquid offerings to the Queen of Heaven,” and you have proved by your actions that you meant it.
So go ahead and carry out your promises and vows to her!’

26“But listen to this message from the LORD, all you Judeans now living in Egypt: ‘I have sworn by my great name,’ says the LORD, ‘that my name will no longer be spoken by any of the Judeans in the land of Egypt. None of you may invoke my name or use this oath: “As surely as the Sovereign LORD lives.” 27For I will watch over you to bring you disaster and not good. Everyone from Judah who is now living in Egypt will suffer war and famine until all of you are dead. 28Only a small number will escape death and return to Judah from Egypt. Then all those who came to Egypt will find out whose words are true—mine or theirs!

29"'And this is the proof I give you,' says the LORD, 'that all I have threatened will happen to you and that I will punish you here.'
30This is what the LORD says: 'I will turn Pharaoh Hophra, king of Egypt, over to his enemies who want to kill him, just as I turned King Zedekiah of Judah over to King Nebuchadnezzar* of Babylon.'"

Jeremiah 45

A MESSAGE FOR BARUCH

1The prophet Jeremiah gave a message to Baruch son of Neriah in the fourth year of the reign of Jehoiakim son of Josiah,* after Baruch had written down everything Jeremiah had dictated to him.
He said, 2"This is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says to you, Baruch: 3You have said, 'I am overwhelmed with trouble! Haven't I had enough pain already? And now the LORD has added more! I am worn out from sighing and can find no rest.'

4"Baruch, this is what the LORD says: 'I will destroy this nation that I built. I will uproot what I planted. 5Are you seeking great things for yourself? Don't do it! I will bring great disaster upon all these people; but I will give you your life as a reward wherever you go. I,
the LORD, have spoken!'"

Jeremiah 46

MESSAGES FOR THE NATIONS

1The following messages were given to Jeremiah the prophet from the LORD concerning foreign nations.

MESSAGES ABOUT EGYPT

2This message concerning Egypt was given in the fourth year of the reign of Jehoiakim son of Josiah, the king of Judah, on the occasion of the battle of Carchemish* when Pharaoh Neco, king of Egypt, and his army were defeated beside the Euphrates River by King Nebuchadnezzar* of Babylon.

3“Prepare your shields, and advance into battle!

4Harness the horses, and mount the stallions.
Take your positions.
Put on your helmets.
Sharpen your spears, and prepare your armor.

5But what do I see?
The Egyptian army flees in terror.
The bravest of its fighting men run without a backward glance.
They are terrorized at every turn,”
says the LORD.

6“The swiftest runners cannot flee; the mightiest warriors cannot escape.
By the Euphrates River to the north, they stumble and fall.

7“Who is this, rising like the Nile at floodtime, overflowing all the land?

8It is the Egyptian army, overflowing all the land, boasting that it will cover the earth like a flood, destroying cities and their people.

9Charge, you horses and chariots; attack, you mighty warriors of Egypt!
Come, all you allies from Ethiopia, Libya, and Lydia* who are skilled with the shield and bow!

10For this is the day of the Lord, the LORD of Heaven’s Armies, a day of vengeance on his enemies.
The sword will devour until it is satisfied, yes, until it is drunk with your blood!
The Lord, the LORD of Heaven’s Armies, will receive a sacrifice today in the north country beside the Euphrates River.

11“Go up to Gilead to get medicine, O virgin daughter of Egypt!

But your many treatments will bring you no healing.

12The nations have heard of your shame.
The earth is filled with your cries of despair.
Your mightiest warriors will run into each other and fall down together."

13Then the LORD gave the prophet Jeremiah this message about King Nebuchadnezzar's plans to attack Egypt.

14"Shout it out in Egypt!
Publish it in the cities of Migdol, Memphis,* and Tahpanhes!
Mobilize for battle, for the sword will devour everyone around you.

15Why have your warriors fallen?
They cannot stand, for the LORD has knocked them down.

16They stumble and fall over each other and say among themselves,
'Come, let's go back to our people, to the land of our birth.
Let's get away from the sword of the enemy!'

17There they will say, 'Pharaoh, the king of Egypt, is a loudmouth who missed his opportunity!'

18"As surely as I live," says the King, whose name is the LORD of Heaven's Armies, "one is coming against Egypt who is as tall as Mount Tabor, or as Mount Carmel by the sea!

19Pack up! Get ready to leave for exile, you citizens of Egypt!
The city of Memphis will be destroyed, without a single inhabitant.

20Egypt is as sleek as a beautiful heifer, but a horsefly from the north is on its way!

21Egypt's mercenaries have become like fattened calves.
They, too, will turn and run, for it is a day of great disaster for Egypt, a time of great punishment.

22Egypt flees, silent as a serpent gliding away.
The invading army marches in; they come against her with axes like woodsmen.

23They will cut down her people like trees," says the LORD, "for they are more numerous than locusts.

24Egypt will be humiliated; she will be handed over to people from the north."

25The LORD of Heaven's Armies, the God of Israel, says: "I will punish Amon, the god of Thebes,* and all the other gods of Egypt. I will punish its rulers and Pharaoh, too, and all who trust in him. 26I will hand them over to those who want them killed—to King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon and his army. But afterward the land will recover from the ravages of war. I, the LORD, have spoken!

27"But do not be afraid, Jacob, my servant; do not be dismayed,
Israel.
For I will bring you home again from distant lands, and your children will return from their exile.
Israel* will return to a life of peace and quiet, and no one will terrorize them.

28Do not be afraid, Jacob, my servant, for I am with you," says the LORD.
"I will completely destroy the nations to which I have exiled you,
but I will not completely destroy you.
I will discipline you, but with justice; I cannot let you go unpunished."

Jeremiah 47

A MESSAGE ABOUT PHILISTIA

1This is the LORD's message to the prophet Jeremiah concerning the Philistines of Gaza, before it was captured by the Egyptian army.
2This is what the LORD says: "A flood is coming from the north to overflow the land.

It will destroy the land and everything in it— cities and people alike.
People will scream in terror, and everyone in the land will wail.

3Hear the clatter of stallions' hooves and the rumble of wheels as the chariots rush by.
Terrified fathers run madly, without a backward glance at their helpless children.

4"The time has come for the Philistines to be destroyed, along with their allies from Tyre and Sidon.
Yes, the LORD is destroying the remnant of the Philistines, those colonists from the island of Crete.*

5Gaza will be humiliated, its head shaved bald; Ashkelon will lie silent.
You remnant from the Mediterranean coast,*
how long will you cut yourselves in mourning?

6"Now, O sword of the LORD, when will you be at rest again?
Go back into your sheath; rest and be still.

7"But how can it be still when the LORD has sent it on a mission?
For the city of Ashkelon and the people living along the sea must be destroyed."

Jeremiah 48

A MESSAGE ABOUT MOAB

1This message was given concerning Moab. This is what the LORD of Heaven's Armies, the God of Israel, says: "What sorrow awaits the city of Nebo; it will soon lie in ruins.

The city of Kiriathaim will be humiliated and captured; the fortress will be humiliated and broken down.

2No one will ever brag about Moab again, for in Heshbon there is a plot to destroy her.

‘Come,’ they say, ‘we will cut her off from being a nation.’
The town of Madmen,* too, will be silenced; the sword will follow you there.

3Listen to the cries from Horonaim, cries of devastation and great destruction.

4All Moab is destroyed.
Her little ones will cry out.*

5Her refugees weep bitterly, climbing the slope to Luhith.
They cry out in terror, descending the slope to Horonaim.

6Flee for your lives!
Hide* in the wilderness!

7Because you have trusted in your wealth and skill, you will be taken captive.
Your god Chemosh, with his priests and officials, will be hauled off to distant lands!

8“All the towns will be destroyed, and no one will escape— either on the plateaus or in the valleys, for the LORD has spoken.

9Oh, that Moab had wings so she could fly away,* for her towns will be left empty, with no one living in them.

10Cursed are those who refuse to do the LORD’s work, who hold back their swords from shedding blood!

11“From his earliest history, Moab has lived in peace, never going into exile.
He is like wine that has been allowed to settle.
He has not been poured from flask to flask, and he is now fragrant and smooth.

12But the time is coming soon,” says the LORD, “when I will send men to pour him from his jar.

They will pour him out, then shatter the jar!

13At last Moab will be ashamed of his idol Chemosh, as the people of Israel were ashamed of their gold calf at Bethel.*

14“You used to boast, ‘We are heroes, mighty men of war.’

15But now Moab and his towns will be destroyed.
His most promising youth are doomed to slaughter,” says the King, whose name is the LORD of Heaven’s Armies.

16“Destruction is coming fast for Moab; calamity threatens ominously.

17You friends of Moab, weep for him and cry!
See how the strong scepter is broken, how the beautiful staff is shattered!

18“Come down from your glory and sit in the dust, you people of Dibon, for those who destroy Moab will shatter Dibon, too.
They will tear down all your towers.

19You people of Aroer, stand beside the road and watch.
Shout to those who flee from Moab, ‘What has happened there?’

20“And the reply comes back, ‘Moab lies in ruins, disgraced; weep and wail!
Tell it by the banks of the Arnon River: Moab has been destroyed!’

21Judgment has been poured out on the towns of the plateau— on Holon and Jahaz* and Mephaath,

22on Dibon and Nebo and Beth-diblathaim,

23on Kiriathaim and Beth-gamul and Beth-meon,

24on Kerioth and Bozrah— all the towns of Moab, far and near.

25“The strength of Moab has ended.
His arm has been broken,” says the LORD.

26“Let him stagger and fall like a drunkard, for he has rebelled against the LORD.
Moab will wallow in his own vomit, ridiculed by all.

27Did you not ridicule the people of Israel?
Were they caught in the company of thieves that you should despise them as you do?

28“You people of Moab, flee from your towns and live in the caves.
Hide like doves that nest in the clefts of the rocks.

29We have all heard of the pride of Moab, for his pride is very great.
We know of his lofty pride, his arrogance, and his haughty heart.

30I know about his insolence,” says the LORD, “but his boasts are empty— as empty as his deeds.

31So now I wail for Moab; yes, I will mourn for Moab.
My heart is broken for the men of Kir-hareseth.*

32“You people of Sibmah, rich in vineyards, I will weep for you even more than I did for Jazer.
Your spreading vines once reached as far as the Dead Sea,*
but the destroyer has stripped you bare!
He has harvested your grapes and summer fruits.

33Joy and gladness are gone from fruitful Moab.
The presses yield no wine.
No one treads the grapes with shouts of joy.
There is shouting, yes, but not of joy.

34“Instead, their awful cries of terror can be heard from Heshbon clear across to Elealeh and Jahaz; from Zoar all the way to Horonaim and Eglath-shelishiyah. Even the waters of Nimrim are dried up now.

35“I will put an end to Moab,” says the LORD, “for the people offer sacrifices at the pagan shrines and burn incense to their false gods.
36My heart moans like a flute for Moab and Kir-hareseth, for all their wealth has disappeared. 37The people shave their heads and beards in mourning. They slash their hands and put on clothes made of burlap. 38There is crying and sorrow in every Moabite home and on every street. For I have smashed Moab like an old, unwanted jar. 39How it is shattered! Hear the wailing! See the shame of Moab! It has become an object of ridicule, an example of ruin to all its neighbors."

40This is what the LORD says: "Look! The enemy swoops down like an eagle, spreading his wings over Moab.

41Its cities will fall, and its strongholds will be seized.
Even the mightiest warriors will be in anguish like a woman in labor.

42Moab will no longer be a nation, for it has boasted against the
LORD.

43"Terror and traps and snares will be your lot, O Moab," says the LORD.

44"Those who flee in terror will fall into a trap, and those who escape the trap will step into a snare.
I will see to it that you do not get away, for the time of your judgment has come,"
says the LORD.

45"The people flee as far as Heshbon but are unable to go on.
For a fire comes from Heshbon, King Sihon's ancient home, to devour the entire land with all its rebellious people.

46"What sorrow awaits you, O people of Moab!
The people of the god Chemosh are destroyed!
Your sons and your daughters have been taken away as captives.

47But I will restore the fortunes of Moab in days to come.
I, the LORD, have spoken!"

This is the end of Jeremiah's prophecy concerning Moab.

Jeremiah 49

A MESSAGE ABOUT AMMON

1This message was given concerning the Ammonites. This is what the LORD says: “Are there no descendants of Israel to inherit the land of Gad?

Why are you, who worship Molech,* living in its towns?

2In the days to come,” says the LORD, “I will sound the battle cry against your city of Rabbah.
It will become a desolate heap of ruins, and the neighboring towns will be burned.
Then Israel will take back the land you took from her,” says the
LORD.

3“Cry out, O Heshbon, for the town of Ai is destroyed.
Weep, O people of Rabbah!
Put on your clothes of mourning.
Weep and wail, hiding in the hedges, for your god Molech, with his priests and officials, will be hauled off to distant lands.

4You are proud of your fertile valleys, but they will soon be ruined.
You trusted in your wealth, you rebellious daughter, and thought no one could ever harm you.

5But look! I will bring terror upon you,”
says the Lord, the LORD of Heaven’s Armies.
“Your neighbors will chase you from your land, and no one will help your exiles as they flee.

6But I will restore the fortunes of the Ammonites in days to come.
I, the LORD, have spoken.”

MESSAGES ABOUT EDOM

7This message was given concerning Edom. This is what the LORD of Heaven’s Armies says: “Is there no wisdom in Teman?

Is no one left to give wise counsel?

8Turn and flee!
Hide in deep caves, you people of Dedan!
For when I bring disaster on Edom,*
I will punish you, too!

9Those who harvest grapes always leave a few for the poor.
If thieves came at night, they would not take everything.

10But I will strip bare the land of Edom, and there will be no place left to hide.
Its children, its brothers, and its neighbors will all be destroyed, and Edom itself will be no more.

11But I will protect the orphans who remain among you.
Your widows, too, can depend on me for help."

12And this is what the LORD says: "If the innocent must suffer, how much more must you! You will not go unpunished! You must drink this cup of judgment! 13For I have sworn by my own name," says the LORD, "that Bozrah will become an object of horror and a heap of ruins; it will be mocked and cursed. All its towns and villages will be desolate forever."

14I have heard a message from the LORD that an ambassador was sent to the nations to say, "Form a coalition against Edom, and prepare for battle!"

15The LORD says to Edom, "I will cut you down to size among the nations.
You will be despised by all.

16You have been deceived by the fear you inspire in others and by your own pride.
You live in a rock fortress and control the mountain heights.
But even if you make your nest among the peaks with the eagles, I will bring you crashing down,"

says the LORD.

17“Edom will be an object of horror.
All who pass by will be appalled and will gasp at the destruction they see there.

18It will be like the destruction of Sodom and Gomorrah and their neighboring towns,” says the LORD.
“No one will live there; no one will inhabit it.

19I will come like a lion from the thickets of the Jordan, leaping on the sheep in the pasture.
I will chase Edom from its land, and I will appoint the leader of my choice.
For who is like me, and who can challenge me?
What ruler can oppose my will?”

20Listen to the LORD’s plans against Edom and the people of Teman.
Even the little children will be dragged off like sheep, and their homes will be destroyed.

21The earth will shake with the noise of Edom’s fall, and its cry of despair will be heard all the way to the Red Sea.*

22Look! The enemy swoops down like an eagle, spreading his wings over Bozrah.
Even the mightiest warriors will be in anguish like a woman in labor.

A MESSAGE ABOUT DAMASCUS

23This message was given concerning Damascus. This is what the LORD says: “The towns of Hamath and Arpad are struck with fear, for they have heard the news of their destruction.

Their hearts are troubled like a wild sea in a raging storm.

24Damascus has become feeble, and all her people turn to flee.
Fear, anguish, and pain have gripped her as they grip a woman in labor.

25That famous city, a city of joy, will be forsaken!

26Her young men will fall in the streets and die.
Her soldiers will all be killed,”
says the LORD of Heaven’s Armies.

27“And I will set fire to the walls of Damascus that will burn up the palaces of Ben-hadad.”

A MESSAGE ABOUT KEDAR AND HAZOR

28This message was given concerning Kedar and the kingdoms of Hazor, which were attacked by King Nebuchadnezzar* of Babylon.
This is what the LORD says: “Advance against Kedar!

Destroy the warriors from the East!

29Their flocks and tents will be captured, and their household goods and camels will be taken away.
Everywhere shouts of panic will be heard: ‘We are terrorized at every turn!’

30Run for your lives,” says the LORD.
“Hide yourselves in deep caves, you people of Hazor, for King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon has plotted against you and is preparing to destroy you.

31“Go up and attack that complacent nation,”
says the LORD.
“Its people live alone in the desert without walls or gates.

32Their camels and other livestock will all be yours.
I will scatter to the winds these people who live in remote places.*
I will bring calamity upon them from every direction,” says the LORD.

33“Hazor will be inhabited by jackals, and it will be desolate forever.
No one will live there; no one will inhabit it.”

A MESSAGE ABOUT ELAM

34This message concerning Elam came to the prophet Jeremiah from the LORD at the beginning of the reign of King Zedekiah of Judah.
35This is what the LORD of Heaven's Armies says: "I will destroy the archers of Elam— the best of their forces.

36I will bring enemies from all directions, and I will scatter the people of Elam to the four winds.
They will be exiled to countries around the world.

37I myself will go with Elam's enemies to shatter it.
In my fierce anger, I will bring great disaster upon the people of Elam," says the LORD.
"Their enemies will chase them with the sword until I have destroyed them completely.

38I will set my throne in Elam," says the LORD, "and I will destroy its king and officials.

39But I will restore the fortunes of Elam in days to come.
I, the LORD, have spoken!"

FORGIVENESS JEREMIAH 50:1-20

Jeremiah 50

A MESSAGE ABOUT BABYLON

1The LORD gave Jeremiah the prophet this message concerning Babylon and the land of the Babylonians.*2This is what the LORD says: “Tell the whole world, and keep nothing back.

Raise a signal flag to tell everyone that Babylon will fall!
Her images and idols* will be shattered.
Her gods Bel and Marduk will be utterly disgraced.

3For a nation will attack her from the north and bring such destruction that no one will live there again.
Everything will be gone; both people and animals will flee.

HOPE FOR ISRAEL AND JUDAH

4“In those coming days,” says the LORD, “the people of Israel will return home together with the people of Judah.

They will come weeping and seeking the LORD their God.

5They will ask the way to Jerusalem* and will start back home again.
They will bind themselves to the LORD with an eternal covenant that will never be forgotten.

6“My people have been lost sheep.
Their shepherds have led them astray and turned them loose in the mountains.
They have lost their way and can’t remember how to get back to the sheepfold.

7All who found them devoured them.
Their enemies said, ‘We did nothing wrong in attacking them, for they sinned against the LORD, their true place of rest, and the hope of their ancestors.’

8“But now, flee from Babylon!
Leave the land of the Babylonians.
Like male goats at the head of the flock, lead my people home

again.

9For I am raising up an army of great nations from the north.
They will join forces to attack Babylon, and she will be captured.
The enemies' arrows will go straight to the mark; they will not miss!

10Babylonia* will be looted until the attackers are glutted with loot.
I, the LORD, have spoken!

BABYLON'S SURE FALL

11"You rejoice and are glad, you who plundered my chosen people.

You frisk about like a calf in a meadow and neigh like a stallion.

12But your homeland* will be overwhelmed with shame and disgrace.
You will become the least of nations— a wilderness, a dry and desolate land.

13Because of the LORD's anger, Babylon will become a deserted wasteland.
All who pass by will be horrified and will gasp at the destruction they see there.

14"Yes, prepare to attack Babylon, all you surrounding nations.
Let your archers shoot at her; spare no arrows.
For she has sinned against the LORD.

15Shout war cries against her from every side.
Look! She surrenders!
Her walls have fallen.
It is the LORD's vengeance, so take vengeance on her.
Do to her as she has done to others!

16Take from Babylon all those who plant crops; send all the harvesters away.
Because of the sword of the enemy, everyone will run away and rush back to their own lands.

HOPE FOR GOD'S PEOPLE

17"The Israelites are like sheep that have been scattered by lions.

First the king of Assyria ate them up.
Then King Nebuchadnezzar* of Babylon cracked their bones."

18Therefore, this is what the LORD of Heaven's Armies, the God of Israel, says: "Now I will punish the king of Babylon and his land, just as I punished the king of Assyria.

19And I will bring Israel home again to its own land, to feed in the fields of Carmel and Bashan, and to be satisfied once more in the hill country of Ephraim and Gilead.

20In those days," says the LORD, "no sin will be found in Israel or in Judah, for I will forgive the remnant I preserve.

THE LORD'S JUDGMENT ON BABYLON

21"Go up, my warriors, against the land of Merathaim and against the people of Pekod.

Pursue, kill, and completely destroy* them, as I have commanded you," says the LORD.

22"Let the battle cry be heard in the land, a shout of great destruction.

23Babylon, the mightiest hammer in all the earth, lies broken and shattered.
Babylon is desolate among the nations!

24Listen, Babylon, for I have set a trap for you.
You are caught, for you have fought against the LORD.

25The LORD has opened his armory and brought out weapons to vent his fury.
The terror that falls upon the Babylonians will be the work of the Sovereign LORD of Heaven's Armies.

26Yes, come against her from distant lands.
Break open her granaries.
Crush her walls and houses into heaps of rubble.
Destroy her completely, and leave nothing!

27Destroy even her young bulls— it will be terrible for them, too!
Slaughter them all!
For Babylon's day of reckoning has come.

28Listen to the people who have escaped from Babylon, as they tell in Jerusalem how the LORD our God has taken vengeance against those who destroyed his Temple.

29"Send out a call for archers to come to Babylon.
Surround the city so none can escape.
Do to her as she has done to others, for she has defied the LORD, the Holy One of Israel.

30Her young men will fall in the streets and die.
Her soldiers will all be killed,"
says the LORD.

31"See, I am your enemy, you arrogant people," says the Lord, the LORD of Heaven's Armies.
"Your day of reckoning has arrived— the day when I will punish you.

32O land of arrogance, you will stumble and fall, and no one will raise you up.
For I will light a fire in the cities of Babylon that will burn up everything around them."

33This is what the LORD of Heaven's Armies says: "The people of Israel and Judah have been wronged.
Their captors hold them and refuse to let them go.

34But the one who redeems them is strong.
His name is the LORD of Heaven's Armies.
He will defend them and give them rest again in Israel.

But for the people of Babylon there will be no rest!

35“The sword of destruction will strike the Babylonians,”
says the LORD.
“It will strike the people of Babylon— her officials and wise men, too.

36The sword will strike her wise counselors, and they will become fools.
The sword will strike her mightiest warriors, and panic will seize them.

37The sword will strike her horses and chariots and her allies from other lands, and they will all become like women.
The sword will strike her treasures, and they all will be plundered.

38A drought* will strike her water supply, causing it to dry up.
And why? Because the whole land is filled with idols, and the people are madly in love with them.

39“Soon Babylon will be inhabited by desert animals and hyenas.
It will be a home for owls.
Never again will people live there; it will lie desolate forever.

40I will destroy it as I* destroyed Sodom and Gomorrah and their neighboring towns,” says the LORD.
“No one will live there; no one will inhabit it.

41“Look! A great army is coming from the north.
A great nation and many kings are rising against you from far-off lands.

42They are armed with bows and spears.
They are cruel and show no mercy.
As they ride forward on horses, they sound like a roaring sea.
They are coming in battle formation, planning to destroy you, Babylon.

43The king of Babylon has heard reports about the enemy, and he is weak with fright.

Pangs of anguish have gripped him, like those of a woman in labor.

44“I will come like a lion from the thickets of the Jordan, leaping on the sheep in the pasture.
I will chase Babylon from its land, and I will appoint the leader of my choice.
For who is like me, and who can challenge me?
What ruler can oppose my will?”

45Listen to the LORD’s plans against Babylon and the land of the Babylonians.
Even the little children will be dragged off like sheep, and their homes will be destroyed.

46The earth will shake with the shout, “Babylon has been taken!”
and its cry of despair will be heard around the world.

Jeremiah 51

1This is what the LORD says: “I will stir up a destroyer against Babylon and the people of Babylonia.*

2Foreigners will come and winnow her, blowing her away as chaff.
They will come from every side to rise against her in her day of trouble.

3Don’t let the archers put on their armor or draw their bows.
Don’t spare even her best soldiers!
Let her army be completely destroyed.*

4They will fall dead in the land of the Babylonians,* slashed to death in her streets.

5For the LORD of Heaven’s Armies has not abandoned Israel and Judah.
He is still their God, even though their land was filled with sin against the Holy One of Israel.”

6Flee from Babylon! Save yourselves!
Don't get trapped in her punishment!
It is the LORD's time for vengeance; he will repay her in full.

7Babylon has been a gold cup in the LORD's hands, a cup that made the whole earth drunk.
The nations drank Babylon's wine, and it drove them all mad.

8But suddenly Babylon, too, has fallen.
Weep for her.
Give her medicine.
Perhaps she can yet be healed.

9We would have helped her if we could, but nothing can save her now.
Let her go; abandon her.
Return now to your own land.
For her punishment reaches to the heavens; it is so great it cannot be measured.

10The LORD has vindicated us.
Come, let us announce in Jerusalem* everything the LORD our God has done.

11Sharpen the arrows!
Lift up the shields!*
For the LORD has inspired the kings of the Medes to march against Babylon and destroy her.
This is his vengeance against those who desecrated his Temple.

12Raise the battle flag against Babylon!
Reinforce the guard and station the watchmen.
Prepare an ambush, for the LORD will fulfill all his plans against Babylon.

13You are a city by a great river, a great center of commerce, but your end has come.
The thread of your life is cut.

14The LORD of Heaven's Armies has taken this vow and has sworn to it by his own name: "Your cities will be filled with enemies, like fields swarming with locusts, and they will shout in triumph over
you."

A HYMN OF PRAISE TO THE LORD

15The LORD made the earth by his power, and he preserves it by his wisdom.

With his own understanding he stretched out the heavens.

16When he speaks in the thunder, the heavens roar with rain.
He causes the clouds to rise over the earth.
He sends the lightning with the rain and releases the wind from his storehouses.

17The whole human race is foolish and has no knowledge!
The craftsmen are disgraced by the idols they make, for their carefully shaped works are a fraud.
These idols have no breath or power.

18Idols are worthless; they are ridiculous lies!
On the day of reckoning they will all be destroyed.

19But the God of Israel* is no idol!
He is the Creator of everything that exists, including his people, his own special possession.
The LORD of Heaven's Armies is his name!

BABYLON'S GREAT PUNISHMENT

20"You* are my battle-ax and sword,"

says the LORD.
"With you I will shatter nations and destroy many kingdoms.

21With you I will shatter armies— destroying the horse and rider, the chariot and charioteer.

22With you I will shatter men and women, old people and children, young men and young women.

23With you I will shatter shepherds and flocks, farmers and oxen, captains and officers.

24“I will repay Babylon and the people of Babylonia* for all the wrong they have done to my people in Jerusalem,” says
the LORD.

25“Look, O mighty mountain, destroyer of the earth!
I am your enemy,” says the LORD.
“I will raise my fist against you, to knock you down from the heights.
When I am finished, you will be nothing but a heap of burnt rubble.

26You will be desolate forever.
Even your stones will never again be used for building.
You will be completely wiped out,”
says the LORD.

27Raise a signal flag to the nations.
Sound the battle cry!
Mobilize them all against Babylon.
Prepare them to fight against her!
Bring out the armies of Ararat, Minni, and Ashkenaz.
Appoint a commander, and bring a multitude of horses like swarming locusts!

28Bring against her the armies of the nations— led by the kings of the Medes and all their captains and officers.

29The earth trembles and writhes in pain, for everything the LORD has planned against Babylon stands unchanged.
Babylon will be left desolate without a single inhabitant.

30Her mightiest warriors no longer fight.
They stay in their barracks, their courage gone.
They have become like women.
The invaders have burned the houses and broken down the city gates.

31The news is passed from one runner to the next as the messengers hurry to tell the king that his city has been captured.

32All the escape routes are blocked.
The marshes have been set aflame, and the army is in a panic.

33This is what the LORD of Heaven's Armies, the God of Israel, says:
"Babylon is like wheat on a threshing floor, about to be trampled.
In just a little while her harvest will begin."

34"King Nebuchadnezzar* of Babylon has eaten and crushed us and drained us of strength.
He has swallowed us like a great monster and filled his belly with our riches.
He has thrown us out of our own country.

35Make Babylon suffer as she made us suffer," say the people of Zion.
"Make the people of Babylonia pay for spilling our blood," says Jerusalem.

THE LORD'S VENGEANCE ON BABYLON

36This is what the LORD says to Jerusalem: "I will be your lawyer to plead your case, and I will avenge you.

I will dry up her river, as well as her springs,

37and Babylon will become a heap of ruins, haunted by jackals.
She will be an object of horror and contempt, a place where no one lives.

38Her people will roar together like strong lions.
They will growl like lion cubs.

39And while they lie inflamed with all their wine, I will prepare a different kind of feast for them.
I will make them drink until they fall asleep, and they will never wake up again,"

says the LORD.

40“I will bring them down like lambs to the slaughter, like rams and goats to be sacrificed.

41“How Babylon* is fallen— great Babylon, praised throughout the earth!
Now she has become an object of horror among the nations.

42The sea has risen over Babylon; she is covered by its crashing waves.

43Her cities now lie in ruins; she is a dry wasteland where no one lives or even passes by.

44And I will punish Bel, the god of Babylon, and make him vomit up all he has eaten.
The nations will no longer come and worship him.
The wall of Babylon has fallen!

A MESSAGE FOR THE EXILES

45“Come out, my people, flee from Babylon.

Save yourselves! Run from the LORD’s fierce anger.

46But do not panic; don’t be afraid when you hear the first rumor of approaching forces.
For rumors will keep coming year by year.
Violence will erupt in the land as the leaders fight against each other.

47For the time is surely coming when I will punish this great city and all her idols.
Her whole land will be disgraced, and her dead will lie in the streets.

48Then the heavens and earth will rejoice, for out of the north will come destroying armies against Babylon,” says the LORD.

49“Just as Babylon killed the people of Israel and others throughout the world, so must her people be killed.

50Get out, all you who have escaped the sword!
Do not stand and watch—flee while you can!
Remember the LORD, though you are in a far-off land, and think about your home in Jerusalem."

51"We are ashamed," the people say.
"We are insulted and disgraced because the LORD's Temple has been defiled by foreigners."

52"Yes," says the LORD, "but the time is coming when I will destroy Babylon's idols.
The groans of her wounded people will be heard throughout the land.

53Though Babylon reaches as high as the heavens and makes her fortifications incredibly strong, I will still send enemies to plunder her.
I, the LORD, have spoken!

BABYLON'S COMPLETE DESTRUCTION

54"Listen! Hear the cry of Babylon, the sound of great destruction from the land of the Babylonians.

55For the LORD is destroying Babylon.
He will silence her loud voice.
Waves of enemies pound against her; the noise of battle rings through the city.

56Destroying armies come against Babylon.
Her mighty men are captured, and their weapons break in their hands.
For the LORD is a God who gives just punishment; he always repays in full.

57I will make her officials and wise men drunk, along with her captains, officers, and warriors.
They will fall asleep and never wake up again!"
says the King, whose name is the LORD of Heaven's Armies.

58This is what the LORD of Heaven's Armies says: "The thick walls of Babylon will be leveled to the ground, and her massive gates will be burned.
The builders from many lands have worked in vain, for their work will be destroyed by fire!"

JEREMIAH'S MESSAGE SENT TO BABYLON

59The prophet Jeremiah gave this message to Seraiah son of Neriah and grandson of Mahseiah, a staff officer, when Seraiah went to Babylon with King Zedekiah of Judah. This was during the fourth year of Zedekiah's reign.*60Jeremiah had recorded on a scroll all the terrible disasters that would soon come upon Babylon—all the words written here. 61He said to Seraiah, "When you get to Babylon, read aloud everything on this scroll. 62Then say, 'LORD, you have said that you will destroy Babylon so that neither people nor animals will remain here. She will lie empty and abandoned forever.' 63When you have finished reading the scroll, tie it to a stone and throw it into the Euphrates River. 64Then say, 'In this same way Babylon and her people will sink, never again to rise, because of the disasters I will bring upon her.'"

This is the end of Jeremiah's messages.

Jeremiah 52

THE FALL OF JERUSALEM

1Zedekiah was twenty-one years old when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem eleven years. His mother was Hamutal, the daughter of Jeremiah from Libnah. 2But Zedekiah did what was evil in the LORD's sight, just as Jehoiakim had done. 3These things happened because of the LORD's anger against the people of Jerusalem and Judah, until he finally banished them from his presence and sent them into exile.

Zedekiah rebelled against the king of Babylon. 4So on January 15,* during the ninth year of Zedekiah's reign, King Nebuchadnezzar* of Babylon led his entire army against Jerusalem. They surrounded the city and built siege ramps against its walls. 5Jerusalem was kept under siege until the eleventh year of King Zedekiah's reign.

6By July 18 in the eleventh year of Zedekiah's reign,* the famine in the city had become very severe, and the last of the food was entirely gone. 7Then a section of the city wall was broken down, and all the soldiers fled. Since the city was surrounded by the Babylonians,* they waited for nightfall. Then they slipped through the gate between the two walls behind the king's garden and headed toward the Jordan Valley.*

8But the Babylonian troops chased King Zedekiah and overtook him on the plains of Jericho, for his men had all deserted him and scattered. 9They captured the king and took him to the king of Babylon at Riblah in the land of Hamath. There the king of Babylon pronounced judgment upon Zedekiah. 10The king of Babylon made Zedekiah watch as he slaughtered his sons. He also slaughtered all the officials of Judah at Riblah. 11Then he gouged out Zedekiah's eyes and bound him in bronze chains, and the king of Babylon led him away to Babylon. Zedekiah remained there in prison until the day of his death.

THE TEMPLE DESTROYED

12On August 17 of that year,* which was the nineteenth year of King Nebuchadnezzar's reign, Nebuzaradan, the captain of the guard and an official of the Babylonian king, arrived in Jerusalem. 13He burned down the Temple of the LORD, the royal palace, and all the houses of Jerusalem. He destroyed all the important buildings* in the city. 14Then he supervised the entire Babylonian* army as they tore down the walls of Jerusalem on every side. 15Then Nebuzaradan, the captain of the guard, took as exiles some of the poorest of the people, the rest of the people who remained in the city, the defectors who had declared their allegiance to the king of Babylon, and the rest of the craftsmen. 16But Nebuzaradan allowed some of the poorest people to stay behind to care for the vineyards and fields.

17The Babylonians broke up the bronze pillars in front of the LORD's Temple, the bronze water carts, and the great bronze basin called the Sea, and they carried all the bronze away to Babylon. 18They also took all the ash buckets, shovels, lamp snuffers, basins, dishes, and all the other bronze articles used for making sacrifices at the Temple. 19The captain of the guard also took the small bowls, incense burners, basins, pots, lampstands, ladles, bowls used for liquid offerings, and all the other articles made of pure gold or silver.

20The weight of the bronze from the two pillars, the Sea with the twelve bronze oxen beneath it, and the water carts was too great to be measured. These things had been made for the LORD's Temple in the days of King Solomon. 21Each of the pillars was 27 feet tall and 18 feet in circumference.* They were hollow, with walls 3 inches thick.*22The bronze capital on top of each pillar was 7*1/2* feet* high and was decorated with a network of bronze pomegranates all the way around. 23There were 96 pomegranates on the sides, and a total of 100 pomegranates on the network around the top.

24Nebuzaradan, the captain of the guard, took with him as prisoners Seraiah the high priest, Zephaniah the priest of the second rank, and the three chief gatekeepers. 25And from among the people still hiding in the city, he took an officer who had been in charge of the Judean army; seven of the king's personal advisers; the army commander's chief secretary, who was in charge of recruitment; and sixty other citizens. 26Nebuzaradan, the captain of the guard, took them all to the king of Babylon at Riblah. 27And there at Riblah, in the land of Hamath, the king of Babylon had them all put to death. So the people of Judah were sent into exile from their land.

28The number of captives taken to Babylon in the seventh year of Nebuchadnezzar's reign* was 3,023. 29Then in Nebuchadnezzar's eighteenth year* he took 832 more. 30In Nebuchadnezzar's twenty-third year* he sent Nebuzaradan, the captain of the guard, who took 745 more—a total of 4,600 captives in all.

HOPE FOR ISRAEL'S ROYAL LINE

31In the thirty-seventh year of the exile of King Jehoiachin of Judah, Evil-merodach ascended to the Babylonian throne. He was kind to* Jehoiachin and released him from prison on March 31 of that year.*32He spoke kindly to Jehoiachin and gave him a higher place than all the other exiled kings in Babylon. 33He supplied Jehoiachin with new clothes to replace his prison garb and allowed him to dine in the king's presence for the rest of his life. 34So the Babylonian king gave him a regular food allowance as long as he lived. This continued until the day of his death.

WELCOME TO

LAMENTATIONS

Lamentations is a series of poems that reveals the deep sorrow Jeremiah feels over Jerusalem's destruction and the exile of God's people. The loss is acute, not just because the city was home but because Jerusalem represented the kingdom of God's chosen people. It was the center of worship, a sacred place that housed not only the royal family but the Temple—the very house of God. The destruction of Jerusalem is the destruction of a heritage, a tradition, God's own people—all appear to be lost forever.

Jeremiah spares little detail in this grim picture of the devastating consequences of sin and rebellion against God. But he does not leave his readers without hope. Jeremiah gives the mourning Israelites—and us—a reassuring message (3:19-23): In our greatest sorrow and grief, in the depths of despair, we find hope if we look to God. He is our Savior and our hope for now and the future.

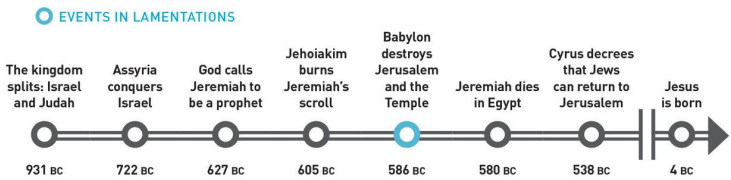
FINDING JESUS IN LAMENTATIONS

Jeremiah's tears over the destruction of Jerusalem foreshadowed Jesus' own sorrow for the city. Jesus loved Jerusalem, and he longed to see its people made holy and righteous. Lamentations also gives us glimpses of hope in the midst of despair. Jesus is our source of hope, and his great love and compassion for us will never fail. He has saved us from the final consequences of our sin, and he will not let grief consume us; rather, he provides us with salvation.



Lamentations 1 *

SORROW IN JERUSALEM

1Jerusalem, once so full of people, is now deserted.
She who was once great among the nations now sits alone like a widow.
Once the queen of all the earth,
she is now a slave.

2She sobs through the night; tears stream down her cheeks.
Among all her lovers,
there is no one left to comfort her.
All her friends have betrayed her and become her enemies.

3Judah has been led away into captivity, oppressed with cruel slavery.
She lives among foreign nations and has no place of rest.
Her enemies have chased her down, and she has nowhere to turn.

4The roads to Jerusalem* are in mourning, for crowds no longer come to celebrate the festivals.
The city gates are silent,
her priests groan,
her young women are crying—
how bitter is her fate!

5Her oppressors have become her masters, and her enemies prosper, for the LORD has punished Jerusalem for her many sins.
Her children have been captured and taken away to distant lands.

6All the majesty of beautiful Jerusalem* has been stripped away.
Her princes are like starving deer searching for pasture.
They are too weak to run from the pursuing enemy.

7In the midst of her sadness and wandering, Jerusalem remembers her ancient splendor.
But now she has fallen to her enemy, and there is no one to help her.
Her enemy struck her down and laughed as she fell.

8Jerusalem has sinned greatly, so she has been tossed away like a filthy rag.
All who once honored her now despise her,
for they have seen her stripped naked and humiliated.
All she can do is groan and hide her face.

9She defiled herself with immorality and gave no thought to her future.
Now she lies in the gutter with no one to lift her out.
“LORD, see my misery,” she cries.
“The enemy has triumphed.”

10The enemy has plundered her completely, taking every precious thing she owns.
She has seen foreigners violate her sacred Temple,
the place the LORD had forbidden them to enter.

11Her people groan as they search for bread.
They have sold their treasures for food to stay alive.
“O LORD, look,” she mourns,
“and see how I am despised.

12“Does it mean nothing to you, all you who pass by?
Look around and see if there is any suffering like mine, which the LORD brought on me when he erupted in fierce anger.

13“He has sent fire from heaven that burns in my bones.
He has placed a trap in my path and turned me back.
He has left me devastated, racked with sickness all day long.

14“He wove my sins into ropes to hitch me to a yoke of captivity.
The Lord sapped my strength and turned me over to my enemies; I am helpless in their hands.

15“The Lord has treated my mighty men with contempt.
At his command a great army has come to crush my young warriors.
The Lord has trampled his beloved city* like grapes are trampled in a winepress.

16“For all these things I weep; tears flow down my cheeks.
No one is here to comfort me;
any who might encourage me are far away.
My children have no future,
for the enemy has conquered us.”

17Jerusalem reaches out for help, but no one comforts her.
Regarding his people Israel,*
the LORD has said,
“Let their neighbors be their enemies!
Let them be thrown away like a filthy rag!”

18“The LORD is right,” Jerusalem says, “for I rebelled against him.
Listen, people everywhere;
look upon my anguish and despair, for my sons and daughters have been taken captive to distant lands.

19“I begged my allies for help, but they betrayed me.
My priests and leaders starved to death in the city, even as they searched for food to save their lives.

20“LORD, see my anguish!
My heart is broken and my soul despairs, for I have rebelled against you.
In the streets the sword kills, and at home there is only death.

21“Others heard my groans, but no one turned to comfort me.
When my enemies heard about my troubles,
they were happy to see what you had done.
Oh, bring the day you promised,
when they will suffer as I have suffered.

22“Look at all their evil deeds, LORD.
Punish them,
as you have punished me
for all my sins.
My groans are many,
and I am sick at heart.”

JERUSALEM

Lamentations 2

GOD'S ANGER AT SIN

1The Lord in his anger has cast a dark shadow over beautiful Jerusalem.*
The fairest of Israel's cities lies in the dust, thrown down from the heights of heaven.
In his day of great anger,
the Lord has shown no mercy even to his Temple.*

2Without mercy the Lord has destroyed every home in Israel.*
In his anger he has broken down the fortress walls of beautiful Jerusalem.*
He has brought them to the ground, dishonoring the kingdom and its rulers.

3All the strength of Israel vanishes beneath his fierce anger.
The Lord has withdrawn his protection as the enemy attacks.
He consumes the whole land of Israel like a raging fire.

4He bends his bow against his people, as though he were their enemy.
His strength is used against them to kill their finest youth.
His fury is poured out like fire on beautiful Jerusalem.*

5Yes, the Lord has vanquished Israel like an enemy.
He has destroyed her palaces and demolished her fortresses.
He has brought unending sorrow and tears upon beautiful Jerusalem.

6He has broken down his Temple as though it were merely a garden shelter.
The LORD has blotted out all memory of the holy festivals and Sabbath days.
Kings and priests fall together before his fierce anger.

7The Lord has rejected his own altar; he despises his own sanctuary.
He has given Jerusalem's palaces to her enemies.
They shout in the LORD's Temple
as though it were a day of celebration.

8The LORD was determined to destroy the walls of beautiful Jerusalem.
He made careful plans for their destruction,
then did what he had planned.
Therefore, the ramparts and walls have fallen down before him.

9Jerusalem's gates have sunk into the ground.
He has smashed their locks and bars.
Her kings and princes have been exiled to distant lands;
her law has ceased to exist.
Her prophets receive no more visions from the LORD.

10The leaders of beautiful Jerusalem sit on the ground in silence.
They are clothed in burlap and throw dust on their heads.
The young women of Jerusalem hang their heads in shame.

11I have cried until the tears no longer come; my heart is broken.
My spirit is poured out in agony
as I see the desperate plight of my people.
Little children and tiny babies are fainting and dying in the streets.

12They cry out to their mothers, “We need food and drink!”
Their lives ebb away in the streets like the life of a warrior wounded in battle.
They gasp for life
as they collapse in their mothers’ arms.

13What can I say about you?
Who has ever seen such sorrow?
O daughter of Jerusalem,
to what can I compare your anguish?
O virgin daughter of Zion,
how can I comfort you?
For your wound is as deep as the sea.
Who can heal you?

14Your prophets have said so many foolish things, false to the core.
They did not save you from exile
by pointing out your sins.
Instead, they painted false pictures, filling you with false hope.

15All who pass by jeer at you.
They scoff and insult beautiful Jerusalem,* saying, “Is this the city called ‘Most Beautiful in All the World’ and ‘Joy of All the Earth’?”

16All your enemies mock you.
They scoff and snarl and say,
“We have destroyed her at last!
We have long waited for this day,
and it is finally here!”

17But it is the LORD who did just as he planned.
He has fulfilled the promises of disaster he made long ago.

He has destroyed Jerusalem without mercy.
He has caused her enemies to gloat over her and has given them power over her.

18Cry aloud* before the Lord, O walls of beautiful Jerusalem!
Let your tears flow like a river day and night.
Give yourselves no rest;
give your eyes no relief.

19Rise during the night and cry out.
Pour out your hearts like water to the Lord.
Lift up your hands to him in prayer, pleading for your children, for in every street
they are faint with hunger.

20"O LORD, think about this!
Should you treat your own people this way?
Should mothers eat their own children,
those they once bounced on their knees?
Should priests and prophets be killed within the Lord's Temple?

21"See them lying in the streets— young and old, boys and girls,
killed by the swords of the enemy.
You have killed them in your anger, slaughtering them without mercy.

22"You have invited terrors from all around, as though you were calling them to a day of feasting.
In the day of the LORD's anger, no one has escaped or survived.
The enemy has killed all the children whom I carried and raised."

Lamentations 3

HOPE IN THE LORD'S FAITHFULNESS

1I am the one who has seen the afflictions that come from the rod of the LORD's anger.

2He has led me into darkness, shutting out all light.

3He has turned his hand against me again and again, all day long.

4He has made my skin and flesh grow old.
He has broken my bones.

5He has besieged and surrounded me with anguish and distress.

6He has buried me in a dark place, like those long dead.

7He has walled me in, and I cannot escape.
He has bound me in heavy chains.

8And though I cry and shout, he has shut out my prayers.

9He has blocked my way with a high stone wall; he has made my road crooked.

10He has hidden like a bear or a lion, waiting to attack me.

11He has dragged me off the path and torn me in pieces, leaving me helpless and devastated.

12He has drawn his bow and made me the target for his arrows.

13He shot his arrows deep into my heart.

14My own people laugh at me.
All day long they sing their mocking songs.

15He has filled me with bitterness and given me a bitter cup of sorrow to drink.

16He has made me chew on gravel.
He has rolled me in the dust.

17Peace has been stripped away, and I have forgotten what prosperity is.

18I cry out, “My splendor is gone!
Everything I had hoped for from the LORD is lost!”

19The thought of my suffering and homelessness is bitter beyond words.*

20I will never forget this awful time, as I grieve over my loss.

21Yet I still dare to hope when I remember this:

22The faithful love of the LORD never ends!*
His mercies never cease.

23Great is his faithfulness; his mercies begin afresh each morning.

24I say to myself, “The LORD is my inheritance; therefore, I will hope in him!”

25The LORD is good to those who depend on him, to those who search for him.

26So it is good to wait quietly for salvation from the LORD.

27And it is good for people to submit at an early age to the yoke of his discipline:

28Let them sit alone in silence beneath the LORD’s demands.

29Let them lie face down in the dust, for there may be hope at last.

30Let them turn the other cheek to those who strike them and accept the insults of their enemies.

31For no one is abandoned by the Lord forever.

32Though he brings grief, he also shows compassion because of the greatness of his unfailing love.

33For he does not enjoy hurting people or causing them sorrow.

34If people crush underfoot all the prisoners of the land,

35if they deprive others of their rights in defiance of the Most High,

36if they twist justice in the courts— doesn't the Lord see all these things?

37Who can command things to happen without the Lord's permission?

38Does not the Most High send both calamity and good?

39Then why should we, mere humans, complain when we are punished for our sins?

40Instead, let us test and examine our ways.
Let us turn back to the LORD.

41Let us lift our hearts and hands to God in heaven and say,

42"We have sinned and rebelled, and you have not forgiven us.

43"You have engulfed us with your anger, chased us down, and slaughtered us without mercy.

44You have hidden yourself in a cloud so our prayers cannot reach you.

45You have discarded us as refuse and garbage among the nations.

46"All our enemies have spoken out against us.

47We are filled with fear, for we are trapped, devastated, and ruined."

48Tears stream from my eyes because of the destruction of my people!

49My tears flow endlessly; they will not stop

50until the LORD looks down from heaven and sees.

51My heart is breaking over the fate of all the women of Jerusalem.

52My enemies, whom I have never harmed, hunted me down like a bird.

53They threw me into a pit and dropped stones on me.

54The water rose over my head, and I cried out, “This is the end!”

55But I called on your name, LORD, from deep within the pit.

56You heard me when I cried, “Listen to my pleading!
Hear my cry for help!”

57Yes, you came when I called; you told me, “Do not fear.”

58Lord, you are my lawyer! Plead my case!
For you have redeemed my life.

59You have seen the wrong they have done to me, LORD.
Be my judge, and prove me right.

60You have seen the vengeful plots my enemies have laid against me.

61LORD, you have heard the vile names they call me.
You know all about the plans they have made.

62My enemies whisper and mutter as they plot against me all day long.

63Look at them! Whether they sit or stand, I am the object of their mocking songs.

64Pay them back, LORD, for all the evil they have done.

65Give them hard and stubborn hearts, and then let your curse fall on them!

66Chase them down in your anger, destroying them beneath the LORD’s heavens.

Lamentations 4

GOD'S ANGER SATISFIED

1How the gold has lost its luster!
Even the finest gold has become dull.
The sacred gemstones lie scattered in the streets!

2See how the precious children of Jerusalem,* worth their weight in fine gold, are now treated like pots of clay made by a common potter.

3Even the jackals feed their young, but not my people Israel.
They ignore their children's cries, like ostriches in the desert.

4The parched tongues of their little ones stick to the roofs of their mouths in thirst.
The children cry for bread, but no one has any to give them.

5The people who once ate the richest foods now beg in the streets for anything they can get.
Those who once wore the finest clothes now search the garbage dumps for food.

THE CITY OF SODOM

6The guilt* of my people is greater than that of Sodom, where utter disaster struck in a moment and no hand offered help.

7Our princes once glowed with health— brighter than snow, whiter than milk.

Their faces were as ruddy as rubies, their appearance like fine jewels.*

8But now their faces are blacker than soot.
No one recognizes them in the streets.
Their skin sticks to their bones;
it is as dry and hard as wood.

9Those killed by the sword are better off than those who die of hunger.
Starving, they waste away for lack of food from the fields.

10Tenderhearted women have cooked their own children.
They have eaten them to survive the siege.

11But now the anger of the LORD is satisfied.
His fierce anger has been poured out.
He started a fire in Jerusalem* that burned the city to its foundations.

12Not a king in all the earth— no one in all the world—would have believed that an enemy could march through the gates of Jerusalem.

13Yet it happened because of the sins of her prophets and the sins of her priests, who defiled the city
by shedding innocent blood.

14They wandered blindly through the streets, so defiled by blood that no one dared touch them.

15“Get away!” the people shouted at them.
“You’re defiled! Don’t touch us!”
So they fled to distant lands and wandered among foreign nations, but none would let them stay.

16The LORD himself has scattered them, and he no longer helps them.
People show no respect for the priests and no longer honor the leaders.

17We looked in vain for our allies to come and save us, but we were looking to nations that could not help us.

18We couldn't go into the streets without danger to our lives.
Our end was near; our days were numbered.
We were doomed!

19Our enemies were swifter than eagles in flight.
If we fled to the mountains, they found us.
If we hid in the wilderness,
they were waiting for us there.

20Our king—the LORD's anointed, the very life of our nation— was caught in their snares.
We had thought that his shadow would protect us against any nation on earth!

EDOM

21Are you rejoicing in the land of Uz, O people of Edom?
But you, too, must drink from the cup of the LORD's anger.
You, too, will be stripped naked in your drunkenness.

22O beautiful Jerusalem,* your punishment will end; you will soon return from exile.
But Edom, your punishment is just beginning;
soon your many sins will be exposed.

Lamentations 5

PRAYER FOR RESTORATION

1 LORD, remember what has happened to us.
See how we have been disgraced!

2 Our inheritance has been turned over to strangers, our homes to foreigners.

3 We are orphaned and fatherless.
Our mothers are widowed.

4 We have to pay for water to drink, and even firewood is expensive.

5 Those who pursue us are at our heels; we are exhausted but are given no rest.

6 We submitted to Egypt and Assyria to get enough food to survive.

7 Our ancestors sinned, but they have died— and we are suffering the punishment they deserved!

8 Slaves have now become our masters; there is no one left to rescue us.

9We hunt for food at the risk of our lives, for violence rules the countryside.

10The famine has blackened our skin as though baked in an oven.

11Our enemies rape the women in Jerusalem* and the young girls in all the towns of Judah.

12Our princes are being hanged by their thumbs, and our elders are treated with contempt.

13Young men are led away to work at millstones, and boys stagger under heavy loads of wood.

14The elders no longer sit in the city gates; the young men no longer dance and sing.

15Joy has left our hearts; our dancing has turned to mourning.

16The garlands have* fallen from our heads.
Weep for us because we have sinned.

17Our hearts are sick and weary, and our eyes grow dim with tears.

18For Jerusalem* is empty and desolate, a place haunted by jackals.

19But LORD, you remain the same forever!
Your throne continues from generation to generation.

20Why do you continue to forget us?
Why have you abandoned us for so long?

21Restore us, O LORD, and bring us back to you again!
Give us back the joys we once had!

22Or have you utterly rejected us?
Are you angry with us still?

WELCOME TO

EZEKIEL

Ezekiel is a young priest who is deported to Babylon after the second Babylonian invasion of Judah. While living in exile with the other Jewish captives, Ezekiel is called by God to be a prophet to God's people in exile. He sees visions and receives messages from God, announcing the coming judgment on the remaining people in Jerusalem. The exiled Jews, however, didn't want to hear his doomsday messages; they wanted to hear that things would get better.

After Jerusalem is destroyed, as God warned, Ezekiel changes his message to one of comfort and hope for the future. In his visions, Ezekiel sees strange and wonderful things that give the Jews the hope of returning home to their land and having God's glory return to a restored Temple.

ON THE FLYOVER ROUTE: Your reading in Ezekiel is the famous vision of a valley of dry bones coming to life. Your next stop will be at Ezekiel 37:1.

2 STOPS

ON THE DIRECT ROUTE: The stops on your route through Ezekiel will include two of the prophet's great visions, which reveal God's glory and give hope to the exiled Jews in Babylon. Your next stop will be at Ezekiel 1:1.

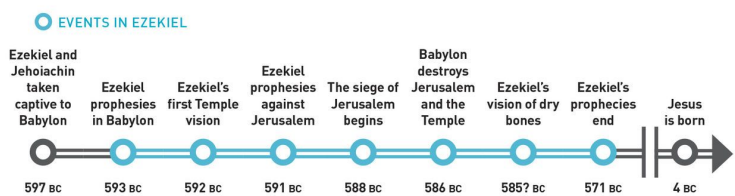
7 STOPS

ON THE SCENIC ROUTE: Although you will cover only a portion of all that this prophet has to say, your route through this book will give you a good overview of the striking visions Ezekiel shares with the Jewish exiles. Your next stop will be at Ezekiel 1:1.

FINDING JESUS IN EZEKIEL

Jesus can be seen in several prophetic images concerning the future restoration of God's people. Ezekiel's picture of David as the coming shepherd who will care for the people of God (34:23-24) is a clear reference to Jesus, the Good Shepherd. The power of Jesus' resurrection is evident in Ezekiel's prophetic vision of the valley of dry bones that come back to life (37:1-14). Ezekiel also speaks of two pieces of wood that represent Israel and Judah, God's splintered people (37:15-28). God promised to put these "splinters" back together as a unified nation. This nation would be ruled by David, would obey God fully, and would live in peace with God forever. These prophecies all find their fulfillment in Jesus and the salvation he brings.



THE JEWS IN EXILE

Ezekiel 1

A VISION OF LIVING BEINGS

1On July 31* of my thirtieth year,* while I was with the Judean exiles beside the Kebar River in Babylon, the heavens were opened and I saw visions of God. 2This happened during the fifth year of King Jehoiachin's captivity. 3(The LORD gave this message to Ezekiel son of Buzi, a priest, beside the Kebar River in the land of the Babylonians,* and he felt the hand of the LORD take hold of
him.)

4As I looked, I saw a great storm coming from the north, driving before it a huge cloud that flashed with lightning and shone with brilliant light. There was fire inside the cloud, and in the middle of the fire glowed something like gleaming amber.*5From the center of the cloud came four living beings that looked human, 6except that each had four faces and four wings. 7Their legs were straight, and their feet had hooves like those of a calf and shone like burnished bronze. 8Under each of their four wings I could see human hands.
So each of the four beings had four faces and four wings. 9The wings of each living being touched the wings of the beings beside it.
Each one moved straight forward in any direction without turning around.

10Each had a human face in the front, the face of a lion on the right side, the face of an ox on the left side, and the face of an eagle at the back. 11Each had two pairs of outstretched wings—one pair stretched out to touch the wings of the living beings on either side of it, and the other pair covered its body. 12They went in whatever direction the spirit chose, and they moved straight forward in any direction without turning around.

13The living beings looked like bright coals of fire or brilliant torches, and lightning seemed to flash back and forth among them.
14And the living beings darted to and fro like flashes of lightning.

15As I looked at these beings, I saw four wheels touching the ground beside them, one wheel belonging to each. 16The wheels sparkled as if made of beryl. All four wheels looked alike and were made the same; each wheel had a second wheel turning crosswise within it.

17The beings could move in any of the four directions they faced, without turning as they moved. 18The rims of the four wheels were tall and frightening, and they were covered with eyes all around.

19When the living beings moved, the wheels moved with them.
When they flew upward, the wheels went up, too. 20The spirit of the living beings was in the wheels. So wherever the spirit went, the wheels and the living beings also went. 21When the beings moved, the wheels moved. When the beings stopped, the wheels stopped.
When the beings flew upward, the wheels rose up, for the spirit of the living beings was in the wheels.

22Spread out above them was a surface like the sky, glittering like crystal. 23Beneath this surface the wings of each living being stretched out to touch the others' wings, and each had two wings covering its body. 24As they flew, their wings sounded to me like waves crashing against the shore or like the voice of the Almighty* or like the shouting of a mighty army. When they stopped, they let down their wings. 25As they stood with wings lowered, a voice spoke from beyond the crystal surface above them.

26Above this surface was something that looked like a throne made of blue lapis lazuli. And on this throne high above was a figure whose appearance resembled a man. 27From what appeared to be his waist up, he looked like gleaming amber, flickering like a fire.
And from his waist down, he looked like a burning flame, shining with splendor. 28All around him was a glowing halo, like a rainbow shining in the clouds on a rainy day. This is what the glory of the LORD looked like to me. When I saw it, I fell face down on the ground, and I heard someone's voice speaking to me.

HOLY SPIRIT EZEKIEL 2–3

Ezekiel 2

EZEKIEL'S CALL AND COMMISSION

1"Stand up, son of man," said the voice. "I want to speak with you."
2The Spirit came into me as he spoke, and he set me on my feet. I listened carefully to his words. 3"Son of man," he said, "I am sending you to the nation of Israel, a rebellious nation that has rebelled against me. They and their ancestors have been rebelling against me to this very day. 4They are a stubborn and hard-hearted people. But I am sending you to say to them, 'This is what the Sovereign LORD says!' 5And whether they listen or refuse to listen—for remember, they are rebels—at least they will know they have had a prophet among them.

6"Son of man, do not fear them or their words. Don't be afraid even though their threats surround you like nettles and briers and stinging scorpions. Do not be dismayed by their dark scowls, even though they are rebels. 7You must give them my messages whether they listen or not. But they won't listen, for they are completely rebellious! 8Son of man, listen to what I say to you. Do not join them in their rebellion. Open your mouth, and eat what I give you."

9Then I looked and saw a hand reaching out to me. It held a scroll, 10which he unrolled. And I saw that both sides were covered with funeral songs, words of sorrow, and pronouncements of doom.

Ezekiel 3

1The voice said to me, "Son of man, eat what I am giving you—eat this scroll! Then go and give its message to the people of Israel." 2So I opened my mouth, and he fed me the scroll. 3"Fill your stomach with this," he said. And when I ate it, it tasted as sweet as honey in my mouth.

4Then he said, "Son of man, go to the people of Israel and give them my messages. 5I am not sending you to a foreign people whose language you cannot understand. 6No, I am not sending you to people with strange and difficult speech. If I did, they would listen!
7But the people of Israel won't listen to you any more than they listen to me! For the whole lot of them are hard-hearted and stubborn. 8But look, I have made you as obstinate and hard-hearted as they are. 9I have made your forehead as hard as the hardest rock!
So don't be afraid of them or fear their angry looks, even though they are rebels."

10Then he added, “Son of man, let all my words sink deep into your own heart first. Listen to them carefully for yourself. 11Then go to your people in exile and say to them, ‘This is what the Sovereign LORD says!’ Do this whether they listen to you or not.”

12Then the Spirit lifted me up, and I heard a loud rumbling sound behind me. (May the glory of the LORD be praised in his place!)*13It was the sound of the wings of the living beings as they brushed against each other and the rumbling of their wheels beneath them.

14The Spirit lifted me up and took me away. I went in bitterness and turmoil, but the LORD’s hold on me was strong. 15Then I came to the colony of Judean exiles in Tel-abib, beside the Kebar River. I was overwhelmed and sat among them for seven days.

A WATCHMAN FOR ISRAEL

16After seven days the LORD gave me a message. He said, 17“Son of man, I have appointed you as a watchman for Israel. Whenever you receive a message from me, warn people immediately. 18If I warn the wicked, saying, ‘You are under the penalty of death,’ but you fail to deliver the warning, they will die in their sins. And I will hold you responsible for their deaths. 19If you warn them and they refuse to repent and keep on sinning, they will die in their sins. But you will have saved yourself because you obeyed me.

20“If righteous people turn away from their righteous behavior and ignore the obstacles I put in their way, they will die. And if you do not warn them, they will die in their sins. None of their righteous acts will be remembered, and I will hold you responsible for their deaths. 21But if you warn righteous people not to sin and they listen to you and do not sin, they will live, and you will have saved yourself, too.”

22Then the LORD took hold of me and said, “Get up and go out into the valley, and I will speak to you there.” 23So I got up and went, and there I saw the glory of the LORD, just as I had seen in my first vision by the Kebar River. And I fell face down on the ground.

24Then the Spirit came into me and set me on my feet. He spoke to me and said, “Go to your house and shut yourself in. 25There, son of man, you will be tied with ropes so you cannot go out among the people. 26And I will make your tongue stick to the roof of your mouth so that you will be speechless and unable to rebuke them, for they are rebels. 27But when I give you a message, I will loosen your tongue and let you speak. Then you will say to them, ‘This is what the Sovereign LORD says!’ Those who choose to listen will listen, but those who refuse will refuse, for they are rebels.

Ezekiel 4

A SIGN OF THE COMING SIEGE

1“And now, son of man, take a large clay brick and set it down in front of you. Then draw a map of the city of Jerusalem on it. 2Show the city under siege. Build a wall around it so no one can escape. Set up the enemy camp, and surround the city with siege ramps and battering rams. 3Then take an iron griddle and place it between you and the city. Turn toward the city and demonstrate how harsh the siege will be against Jerusalem. This will be a warning to the people of Israel.

4“Now lie on your left side and place the sins of Israel on yourself. You are to bear their sins for the number of days you lie there on your side. 5I am requiring you to bear Israel’s sins for 390 days—one day for each year of their sin. 6After that, turn over and lie on your right side for 40 days—one day for each year of Judah’s sin.

7“Meanwhile, keep staring at the siege of Jerusalem. Lie there with your arm bared and prophesy her destruction. 8I will tie you up with ropes so you won’t be able to turn from side to side until the days of your siege have been completed.

9“Now go and get some wheat, barley, beans, lentils, millet, and emmer wheat, and mix them together in a storage jar. Use them to make bread for yourself during the 390 days you will be lying on your side. 10Ration this out to yourself, eight ounces* of food for each day, and eat it at set times. 11Then measure out a jar* of water for each day, and drink it at set times. 12Prepare and eat this food as you would barley cakes. While all the people are watching, bake it over a fire using dried human dung as fuel and then eat the bread.” 13Then the LORD said, “This is how Israel will eat defiled bread in the Gentile lands to which I will banish them!”

14Then I said, “O Sovereign LORD, must I be defiled by using human dung? For I have never been defiled before. From the time I was a child until now I have never eaten any animal that died of sickness or was killed by other animals. I have never eaten any meat forbidden by the law.”

15“All right,” the LORD said. “You may bake your bread with cow dung instead of human dung.” 16Then he told me, “Son of man, I will make food very scarce in Jerusalem. It will be weighed out with great care and eaten fearfully. The water will be rationed out drop by drop, and the people will drink it with dismay. 17Lacking food and water, people will look at one another in terror, and they will waste away under their punishment.

Ezekiel 5

A SIGN OF THE COMING JUDGMENT

1“Son of man, take a sharp sword and use it as a razor to shave your head and beard. Use a scale to weigh the hair into three equal parts.
2Place a third of it at the center of your map of Jerusalem. After acting out the siege, burn it there. Scatter another third across your map and chop it with a sword. Scatter the last third to the wind, for I will scatter my people with the sword. 3Keep just a bit of the hair and tie it up in your robe. 4Then take some of these hairs out and throw them into the fire, burning them up. A fire will then spread from this remnant and destroy all of Israel.

5“This is what the Sovereign LORD says: This is an illustration of what will happen to Jerusalem. I placed her at the center of the nations, 6but she has rebelled against my regulations and decrees and has been even more wicked than the surrounding nations. She has refused to obey the regulations and decrees I gave her to follow.

7“Therefore, this is what the Sovereign LORD says: You people have behaved worse than your neighbors and have refused to obey my decrees and regulations. You have not even lived up to the standards of the nations around you. 8Therefore, I myself, the Sovereign LORD, am now your enemy. I will punish you publicly while all the nations watch. 9Because of your detestable idols, I will punish you like I have never punished anyone before or ever will again. 10Parents will eat their own children, and children will eat their parents. I will punish you and scatter to the winds the few who survive.

11“As surely as I live, says the Sovereign LORD, I will cut you off completely. I will show you no pity at all because you have defiled my Temple with your vile images and detestable sins. 12A third of your people will die in the city from disease and famine. A third of them will be slaughtered by the enemy outside the city walls. And I will scatter a third to the winds, chasing them with my sword.

13Then at last my anger will be spent, and I will be satisfied. And when my fury against them has subsided, all Israel will know that I, the LORD, have spoken to them in my jealous anger.

14“So I will turn you into a ruin, a mockery in the eyes of the surrounding nations and to all who pass by. 15You will become an object of mockery and taunting and horror. You will be a warning to all the nations around you. They will see what happens when the LORD punishes a nation in anger and rebukes it, says the LORD.

16“I will shower you with the deadly arrows of famine to destroy you. The famine will become more and more severe until every crumb of food is gone. 17And along with the famine, wild animals will attack you and rob you of your children. Disease and war will stalk your land, and I will bring the sword of the enemy against you. I, the LORD, have spoken!”

Ezekiel 6

JUDGMENT AGAINST ISRAEL’S MOUNTAINS

1Again a message came to me from the LORD: 2“Son of man, turn and face the mountains of Israel and prophesy against them.
3Proclaim this message from the Sovereign LORD against the mountains of Israel. This is what the Sovereign LORD says to the mountains and hills and to the ravines and valleys: I am about to bring war upon you, and I will smash your pagan shrines. 4All your altars will be demolished, and your places of worship will be destroyed. I will kill your people in front of your idols.*5I will lay your corpses in front of your idols and scatter your bones around your altars. 6Wherever you live there will be desolation, and I will destroy your pagan shrines. Your altars will be demolished, your idols will be smashed, your places of worship will be torn down, and all the religious objects you have made will be destroyed. 7The place will be littered with corpses, and you will know that I alone am the LORD.

8"But I will let a few of my people escape destruction, and they will be scattered among the nations of the world. 9Then when they are exiled among the nations, they will remember me. They will recognize how hurt I am by their unfaithful hearts and lustful eyes that long for their idols. Then at last they will hate themselves for all their detestable sins. 10They will know that I alone am the LORD and that I was serious when I said I would bring this calamity on them.

11"This is what the Sovereign LORD says: Clap your hands in horror, and stamp your feet. Cry out because of all the detestable sins the people of Israel have committed. Now they are going to die from war and famine and disease. 12Disease will strike down those who are far away in exile. War will destroy those who are nearby. And anyone who survives will be killed by famine. So at last I will spend my fury on them. 13They will know that I am the LORD when their dead lie scattered among their idols and altars on every hill and mountain and under every green tree and every great shade tree—the places where they offered sacrifices to their idols. 14I will crush them and make their cities desolate from the wilderness in the south to Riblah* in the north. Then they will know that I am the LORD."

Ezekiel 7

THE COMING OF THE END

1Then this message came to me from the LORD: 2"Son of man, this is what the Sovereign LORD says to Israel: “The end is here!

Wherever you look— east, west, north, or south— your land is finished.

3No hope remains, for I will unleash my anger against you.
I will call you to account for all your detestable sins.

4I will turn my eyes away and show no pity.
I will repay you for all your detestable sins.
Then you will know that I am the LORD.

5“This is what the Sovereign LORD says: Disaster after disaster is coming your way!

6The end has come.
It has finally arrived.
Your final doom is waiting!

7O people of Israel, the day of your destruction is dawning.
The time has come; the day of trouble is near.
Shouts of anguish will be heard on the mountains, not shouts of joy.

8Soon I will pour out my fury on you and unleash my anger against you.
I will call you to account for all your detestable sins.

9I will turn my eyes away and show no pity.
I will repay you for all your detestable sins.
Then you will know that it is I, the LORD, who is striking the blow.

10“The day of judgment is here; your destruction awaits!
The people’s wickedness and pride have blossomed to full flower.

11Their violence has grown into a rod that will beat them for their wickedness.
None of these proud and wicked people will survive.
All their wealth and prestige will be swept away.

12Yes, the time has come; the day is here!
Buyers should not rejoice over bargains, nor sellers grieve over losses, for all of them will fall under my terrible anger.

13Even if the merchants survive, they will never return to their business.
For what God has said applies to everyone— it will not be changed!
Not one person whose life is twisted by sin will ever recover.

THE DESOLATION OF ISRAEL

14"The trumpet calls Israel's army to mobilize, but no one listens, for my fury is against them all.

15There is war outside the city and disease and famine within.
Those outside the city walls will be killed by enemy swords.
Those inside the city will die of famine and disease.

16The survivors who escape to the mountains will moan like doves, weeping for their sins.

17Their hands will hang limp, their knees will be weak as water.

18They will dress themselves in burlap; horror and shame will cover them.
They will shave their heads in sorrow and remorse.

19"They will throw their money in the streets, tossing it out like worthless trash.
Their silver and gold won't save them on that day of the LORD's anger.
It will neither satisfy nor feed them, for their greed can only trip them up.

20They were proud of their beautiful jewelry and used it to make detestable idols and vile images.
Therefore, I will make all their wealth disgusting to them.

21I will give it as plunder to foreigners, to the most wicked of nations, and they will defile it.

22I will turn my eyes from them as these robbers invade and defile my treasured land.

23"Prepare chains for my people, for the land is bloodied by terrible crimes.

Jerusalem is filled with violence.

24I will bring the most ruthless of nations to occupy their homes.
I will break down their proud fortresses and defile their sanctuaries.

25Terror and trembling will overcome my people.
They will look for peace but not find it.

26Calamity will follow calamity; rumor will follow rumor.
They will look in vain for a vision from the prophets.
They will receive no teaching from the priests and no counsel from the leaders.

27The king and the prince will stand helpless, weeping in despair, and the people's hands will tremble with fear.
I will bring on them the evil they have done to others, and they will receive the punishment they so richly deserve.
Then they will know that I am the LORD."

VISIONS EZEKIEL 8–9

Ezekiel 8

IDOLATRY IN THE TEMPLE

1Then on September 17,* during the sixth year of King Jehoiachin's captivity, while the leaders of Judah were in my home, the Sovereign LORD took hold of me. 2I saw a figure that appeared to be a man.* From what appeared to be his waist down, he looked like a burning flame. From the waist up he looked like gleaming amber.*3He reached out what seemed to be a hand and took me by the hair. Then the Spirit lifted me up into the sky and transported me to Jerusalem in a vision from God. I was taken to the north gate of the inner courtyard of the Temple, where there is a large idol that has made the LORD very jealous. 4Suddenly, the glory of the God of Israel was there, just as I had seen it before in the valley.

5Then the LORD said to me, “Son of man, look toward the north.” So I looked, and there to the north, beside the entrance to the gate near the altar, stood the idol that had made the LORD so jealous.

6“Son of man,” he said, “do you see what they are doing? Do you see the detestable sins the people of Israel are committing to drive me from my Temple? But come, and you will see even more detestable sins than these!” 7Then he brought me to the door of the Temple courtyard, where I could see a hole in the wall. 8He said to me, “Now, son of man, dig into the wall.” So I dug into the wall and found a hidden doorway.

9“Go in,” he said, “and see the wicked and detestable sins they are committing in there!” 10So I went in and saw the walls covered with engravings of all kinds of crawling animals and detestable creatures. I also saw the various idols* worshiped by the people of Israel. 11Seventy leaders of Israel were standing there with Jaazaniah son of Shaphan in the center. Each of them held an incense burner, from which a cloud of incense rose above their heads.

12Then the LORD said to me, “Son of man, have you seen what the leaders of Israel are doing with their idols in dark rooms? They are saying, ‘The LORD doesn’t see us; he has deserted our land!’” 13Then the LORD added, “Come, and I will show you even more detestable sins than these!”

14He brought me to the north gate of the LORD’s Temple, and some women were sitting there, weeping for the god Tammuz. 15“Have you seen this?" he asked. "But I will show you even more detestable sins than these!"

16Then he brought me into the inner courtyard of the LORD's Temple. At the entrance to the sanctuary, between the entry room and the bronze altar, there were about twenty-five men with their backs to the sanctuary of the LORD. They were facing east, bowing low to the ground, worshiping the sun!

17"Have you seen this, son of man?" he asked. "Is it nothing to the people of Judah that they commit these detestable sins, leading the whole nation into violence, thumbing their noses at me, and provoking my anger? 18Therefore, I will respond in fury. I will neither pity nor spare them. And though they cry for mercy, I will not listen."

Ezekiel 9

THE SLAUGHTER OF IDOLATERS

1Then the LORD thundered, "Bring on the men appointed to punish the city! Tell them to bring their weapons with them!" 2Six men soon appeared from the upper gate that faces north, each carrying a deadly weapon in his hand. With them was a man dressed in linen, who carried a writer's case at his side. They all went into the Temple courtyard and stood beside the bronze altar.

3Then the glory of the God of Israel rose up from between the cherubim, where it had rested, and moved to the entrance of the Temple. And the LORD called to the man dressed in linen who was carrying the writer's case. 4He said to him, "Walk through the streets of Jerusalem and put a mark on the foreheads of all who weep and sigh because of the detestable sins being committed in their city."

5Then I heard the LORD say to the other men, "Follow him through the city and kill everyone whose forehead is not marked. Show no mercy; have no pity! 6Kill them all—old and young, girls and women and little children. But do not touch anyone with the mark. Begin right here at the Temple." So they began by killing the seventy leaders.

7"Defile the Temple!" the LORD commanded. "Fill its courtyards with corpses. Go!" So they went and began killing throughout the city.

8While they were out killing, I was all alone. I fell face down on the ground and cried out, "O Sovereign LORD! Will your fury against Jerusalem wipe out everyone left in Israel?"

9Then he said to me, "The sins of the people of Israel and Judah are very, very great. The entire land is full of murder; the city is filled with injustice. They are saying, 'The LORD doesn't see it! The LORD has abandoned the land!' 10So I will not spare them or have any pity on them. I will fully repay them for all they have done."

11Then the man in linen clothing, who carried the writer's case, reported back and said, "I have done as you commanded."

Ezekiel 10

THE LORD'S GLORY LEAVES THE TEMPLE

1In my vision I saw what appeared to be a throne of blue lapis lazuli above the crystal surface over the heads of the cherubim. 2Then the LORD spoke to the man in linen clothing and said, "Go between the whirling wheels beneath the cherubim, and take a handful of burning coals and scatter them over the city." He did this as I watched.

3The cherubim were standing at the south end of the Temple when the man went in, and the cloud of glory filled the inner courtyard.
4Then the glory of the LORD rose up from above the cherubim and went over to the entrance of the Temple. The Temple was filled with this cloud of glory, and the courtyard glowed brightly with the glory of the LORD. 5The moving wings of the cherubim sounded like the voice of God Almighty* and could be heard even in the outer courtyard.

6The LORD said to the man in linen clothing, "Go between the cherubim and take some burning coals from between the wheels."
So the man went in and stood beside one of the wheels. 7Then one of the cherubim reached out his hand and took some live coals from the fire burning among them. He put the coals into the hands of the man in linen clothing, and the man took them and went out. 8(All the cherubim had what looked like human hands under their wings.)

9I looked, and each of the four cherubim had a wheel beside him, and the wheels sparkled like beryl. 10All four wheels looked alike and were made the same; each wheel had a second wheel turning crosswise within it. 11The cherubim could move in any of the four directions they faced, without turning as they moved. They went straight in the direction they faced, never turning aside. 12Both the cherubim and the wheels were covered with eyes. The cherubim had eyes all over their bodies, including their hands, their backs, and their wings. 13I heard someone refer to the wheels as “the whirling wheels.” 14Each of the four cherubim had four faces: the first was the face of an ox,* the second was a human face, the third was the face of a lion, and the fourth was the face of an eagle.

15Then the cherubim rose upward. These were the same living beings I had seen beside the Kebar River. 16When the cherubim moved, the wheels moved with them. When they lifted their wings to fly, the wheels stayed beside them. 17When the cherubim stopped, the wheels stopped. When they flew upward, the wheels rose up, for the spirit of the living beings was in the wheels.

18Then the glory of the LORD moved out from the entrance of the Temple and hovered above the cherubim. 19And as I watched, the cherubim flew with their wheels to the east gate of the LORD’s Temple. And the glory of the God of Israel hovered above them.

20These were the same living beings I had seen beneath the God of Israel when I was by the Kebar River. I knew they were cherubim, 21for each had four faces and four wings and what looked like human hands under their wings. 22And their faces were just like the faces of the beings I had seen at the Kebar, and they traveled straight ahead, just as the others had.

Ezekiel 11

JUDGMENT ON ISRAEL’S LEADERS

1Then the Spirit lifted me and brought me to the east gateway of the LORD's Temple, where I saw twenty-five prominent men of the city. Among them were Jaazaniah son of Azzur and Pelatiah son of Benaiah, who were leaders among the people.

2The Spirit said to me, "Son of man, these are the men who are planning evil and giving wicked counsel in this city. 3They say to the people, 'Is it not a good time to build houses? This city is like an iron pot. We are safe inside it like meat in a pot.*' 4Therefore, son of man, prophesy against them loudly and clearly."

5Then the Spirit of the LORD came upon me, and he told me to say,
"This is what the LORD says to the people of Israel: I know what you are saying, for I know every thought that comes into your minds. 6You have murdered many in this city and filled its streets with the dead.

7"Therefore, this is what the Sovereign LORD says: This city is an iron pot all right, but the pieces of meat are the victims of your injustice. As for you, I will soon drag you from this pot. 8I will bring on you the sword of war you so greatly fear, says the Sovereign LORD. 9I will drive you out of Jerusalem and hand you over to foreigners, who will carry out my judgments against you. 10You will be slaughtered all the way to the borders of Israel. I will execute judgment on you, and you will know that I am the LORD. 11No, this city will not be an iron pot for you, and you will not be like meat safe inside it. I will judge you even to the borders of Israel, 12and you will know that I am the LORD. For you have refused to obey my decrees and regulations; instead, you have copied the standards of the nations around you."

13While I was still prophesying, Pelatiah son of Benaiah suddenly died. Then I fell face down on the ground and cried out, "O Sovereign LORD, are you going to kill everyone in Israel?"

HOPE FOR EXILED ISRAEL

14Then this message came to me from the LORD: 15“Son of man, the people still left in Jerusalem are talking about you and your relatives and all the people of Israel who are in exile. They are saying, ‘Those people are far away from the LORD, so now he has given their land to us!’

16“Therefore, tell the exiles, ‘This is what the Sovereign LORD says: Although I have scattered you in the countries of the world, I will be a sanctuary to you during your time in exile. 17I, the Sovereign LORD, will gather you back from the nations where you have been scattered, and I will give you the land of Israel once again.’

18“When the people return to their homeland, they will remove every trace of their vile images and detestable idols. 19And I will give them singleness of heart and put a new spirit within them. I will take away their stony, stubborn heart and give them a tender, responsive heart,*20so they will obey my decrees and regulations. Then they will truly be my people, and I will be their God. 21But as for those who long for vile images and detestable idols, I will repay them fully for their sins. I, the Sovereign LORD, have spoken!”

THE LORD’S GLORY LEAVES JERUSALEM

22Then the cherubim lifted their wings and rose into the air with their wheels beside them, and the glory of the God of Israel hovered above them. 23Then the glory of the LORD went up from the city and stopped above the mountain to the east.

24Afterward the Spirit of God carried me back again to Babylonia,* to the people in exile there. And so ended the vision of my visit to Jerusalem. 25And I told the exiles everything the LORD had shown me.

Ezekiel 12

SIGNS OF THE COMING EXILE

1Again a message came to me from the LORD: 2“Son of man, you live among rebels who have eyes but refuse to see. They have ears but refuse to hear. For they are a rebellious people.

3“So now, son of man, pretend you are being sent into exile. Pack the few items an exile could carry, and leave your home to go somewhere else. Do this right in front of the people so they can see you. For perhaps they will pay attention to this, even though they are such rebels. 4Bring your baggage outside during the day so they can watch you. Then in the evening, as they are watching, leave your house as captives do when they begin a long march to distant lands. 5Dig a hole through the wall while they are watching and go out through it. 6As they watch, lift your pack to your shoulders and walk away into the night. Cover your face so you cannot see the land you are leaving. For I have made you a sign for the people of Israel.”

7So I did as I was told. In broad daylight I brought my pack outside, filled with the things I might carry into exile. Then in the evening while the people looked on, I dug through the wall with my hands and went out into the night with my pack on my shoulder.

8The next morning this message came to me from the LORD: 9"Son of man, these rebels, the people of Israel, have asked you what all this means. 10Say to them, 'This is what the Sovereign LORD says: These actions contain a message for King Zedekiah in Jerusalem* and for all the people of Israel.' 11Explain that your actions are a sign to show what will soon happen to them, for they will be driven into exile as captives.

12"Even Zedekiah will leave Jerusalem at night through a hole in the wall, taking only what he can carry with him. He will cover his face, and his eyes will not see the land he is leaving. 13Then I will throw my net over him and capture him in my snare. I will bring him to Babylon, the land of the Babylonians,* though he will never see it, and he will die there. 14I will scatter his servants and warriors to the four winds and send the sword after them. 15And when I scatter them among the nations, they will know that I am the LORD. 16But I will spare a few of them from death by war, famine, or disease, so they can confess all their detestable sins to their captors. Then they will know that I am the LORD."

17Then this message came to me from the LORD: 18"Son of man, tremble as you eat your food. Shake with fear as you drink your water. 19Tell the people, 'This is what the Sovereign LORD says concerning those living in Israel and Jerusalem: They will eat their food with trembling and sip their water in despair, for their land will be stripped bare because of their violence. 20The cities will be destroyed and the farmland made desolate. Then you will know that I am the LORD.'"

A NEW PROVERB FOR ISRAEL

21Again a message came to me from the LORD: 22"Son of man, you've heard that proverb they quote in Israel: 'Time passes, and prophecies come to nothing.’ 23Tell the people, ‘This is what the Sovereign LORD says: I will put an end to this proverb, and you will soon stop quoting it.’ Now give them this new proverb to replace the old one: ‘The time has come for every prophecy to be fulfilled!’

24“There will be no more false visions and flattering predictions in Israel. 25For I am the LORD! If I say it, it will happen. There will be no more delays, you rebels of Israel. I will fulfill my threat of destruction in your own lifetime. I, the Sovereign LORD, have spoken!”

26Then this message came to me from the LORD: 27“Son of man, the people of Israel are saying, ‘He’s talking about the distant future.
His visions won’t come true for a long, long time.’ 28Therefore, tell them, ‘This is what the Sovereign LORD says: No more delay! I will now do everything I have threatened. I, the Sovereign LORD, have spoken!’”

Ezekiel 13

JUDGMENT AGAINST FALSE PROPHETS

1Then this message came to me from the LORD: 2“Son of man, prophesy against the false prophets of Israel who are inventing their own prophecies. Say to them, ‘Listen to the word of the LORD. 3This is what the Sovereign LORD says: What sorrow awaits the false prophets who are following their own imaginations and have seen nothing at all!’

4“O people of Israel, these prophets of yours are like jackals digging in the ruins. 5They have done nothing to repair the breaks in the walls around the nation. They have not helped it to stand firm in battle on the day of the LORD. 6Instead, they have told lies and made false predictions. They say, ‘This message is from the LORD,’ even though the LORD never sent them. And yet they expect him to fulfill their prophecies! 7Can your visions be anything but false if you claim, ‘This message is from the LORD,’ when I have not even spoken to you?

8“Therefore, this is what the Sovereign LORD says: Because what you say is false and your visions are a lie, I will stand against you, says the Sovereign LORD. 9I will raise my fist against all the prophets who see false visions and make lying predictions, and they will be banished from the community of Israel. I will blot their names from Israel’s record books, and they will never again set foot in their own land. Then you will know that I am the Sovereign
LORD.

10“This will happen because these evil prophets deceive my people by saying, ‘All is peaceful’ when there is no peace at all! It’s as if the people have built a flimsy wall, and these prophets are trying to reinforce it by covering it with whitewash! 11Tell these whitewashers that their wall will soon fall down. A heavy rainstorm will undermine it; great hailstones and mighty winds will knock it down. 12And when the wall falls, the people will cry out, ‘What happened to your whitewash?’

13“Therefore, this is what the Sovereign LORD says: I will sweep away your whitewashed wall with a storm of indignation, with a great flood of anger, and with hailstones of fury. 14I will break down your wall right to its foundation, and when it falls, it will crush you.
Then you will know that I am the LORD. 15At last my anger against the wall and those who covered it with whitewash will be satisfied.
Then I will say to you: ‘The wall and those who whitewashed it are both gone. 16They were lying prophets who claimed peace would come to Jerusalem when there was no peace. I, the Sovereign LORD, have spoken!’

JUDGMENT AGAINST FALSE WOMEN PROPHETS

17"Now, son of man, speak out against the women who prophesy from their own imaginations. 18This is what the Sovereign LORD says: What sorrow awaits you women who are ensnaring the souls of my people, young and old alike. You tie magic charms on their wrists and furnish them with magic veils. Do you think you can trap others without bringing destruction on yourselves? 19You bring shame on me among my people for a few handfuls of barley or a piece of bread. By lying to my people who love to listen to lies, you kill those who should not die, and you promise life to those who should not live.

20"This is what the Sovereign LORD says: I am against all your magic charms, which you use to ensnare my people like birds. I will tear them from your arms, setting my people free like birds set free from a cage. 21I will tear off the magic veils and save my people from your grasp. They will no longer be your victims. Then you will know that I am the LORD. 22You have discouraged the righteous with your lies, but I didn't want them to be sad. And you have encouraged the wicked by promising them life, even though they continue in their sins. 23Because of all this, you will no longer talk of seeing visions that you never saw, nor will you make predictions.
For I will rescue my people from your grasp. Then you will know that I am the LORD."

Ezekiel 14

THE IDOLATRY OF ISRAEL'S LEADERS

1Then some of the leaders of Israel visited me, and while they were sitting with me, 2this message came to me from the LORD: 3"Son of man, these leaders have set up idols* in their hearts. They have embraced things that will make them fall into sin. Why should I listen to their requests? 4Tell them, 'This is what the Sovereign LORD says: The people of Israel have set up idols in their hearts and fallen into sin, and then they go to a prophet asking for a message.

So I, the LORD, will give them the kind of answer their great idolatry deserves. 5I will do this to capture the minds and hearts of all my people who have turned from me to worship their detestable idols.'

6"Therefore, tell the people of Israel, 'This is what the Sovereign LORD says: Repent and turn away from your idols, and stop all your detestable sins. 7I, the LORD, will answer all those, both Israelites and foreigners, who reject me and set up idols in their hearts and so fall into sin, and who then come to a prophet asking for my advice.
8I will turn against such people and make a terrible example of them, eliminating them from among my people. Then you will know that I am the LORD.

9"'And if a prophet is deceived into giving a message, it is because I, the LORD, have deceived that prophet. I will lift my fist against such prophets and cut them off from the community of Israel.
10False prophets and those who seek their guidance will all be punished for their sins. 11In this way, the people of Israel will learn not to stray from me, polluting themselves with sin. They will be my people, and I will be their God. I, the Sovereign LORD, have spoken!'"

THE CERTAINTY OF THE LORD'S JUDGMENT

12Then this message came to me from the LORD: 13"Son of man, suppose the people of a country were to sin against me, and I lifted my fist to crush them, cutting off their food supply and sending a famine to destroy both people and animals. 14Even if Noah, Daniel, and Job were there, their righteousness would save no one but themselves, says the Sovereign LORD.

15"Or suppose I were to send wild animals to invade the country, kill the people, and make the land too desolate and dangerous to pass through. 16As surely as I live, says the Sovereign LORD, even if those three men were there, they wouldn't be able to save their own sons or daughters. They alone would be saved, but the land would be made desolate.

17“Or suppose I were to bring war against the land, and I sent enemy armies to destroy both people and animals. 18As surely as I live, says the Sovereign LORD, even if those three men were there, they wouldn’t be able to save their own sons or daughters. They alone would be saved.

19“Or suppose I were to pour out my fury by sending an epidemic into the land, and the disease killed people and animals alike. 20As surely as I live, says the Sovereign LORD, even if Noah, Daniel, and Job were there, they wouldn’t be able to save their own sons or daughters. They alone would be saved by their righteousness.

21“Now this is what the Sovereign LORD says: How terrible it will be when all four of these dreadful punishments fall upon Jerusalem —war, famine, wild animals, and disease—destroying all her people and animals. 22Yet there will be survivors, and they will come here to join you as exiles in Babylon. You will see with your own eyes how wicked they are, and then you will feel better about what I have done to Jerusalem. 23When you meet them and see their behavior, you will understand that these things are not being done to Israel without cause. I, the Sovereign LORD, have spoken!”

Ezekiel 15

JERUSALEM—A USELESS VINE

1Then this message came to me from the LORD: 2“Son of man, how does a grapevine compare to a tree? Is a vine’s wood as useful as the wood of a tree? 3Can its wood be used for making things, like pegs to hang up pots and pans? 4No, it can only be used for fuel, and even as fuel, it burns too quickly. 5Vines are useless both before and after being put into the fire!

6“And this is what the Sovereign LORD says: The people of Jerusalem are like grapevines growing among the trees of the forest. Since they are useless, I have thrown them on the fire to be burned. 7And I will see to it that if they escape from one fire, they will fall into another. When I turn against them, you will know that I am the LORD. 8And I will make the land desolate because my people have been unfaithful to me. I, the Sovereign LORD, have spoken!”

Ezekiel 16

JERUSALEM—AN UNFAITHFUL WIFE

1Then another message came to me from the LORD: 2“Son of man, confront Jerusalem with her detestable sins. 3Give her this message from the Sovereign LORD: You are nothing but a Canaanite! Your father was an Amorite and your mother a Hittite. 4On the day you were born, no one cared about you. Your umbilical cord was not cut, and you were never washed, rubbed with salt, and wrapped in cloth. 5No one had the slightest interest in you; no one pitied you or cared for you. On the day you were born, you were unwanted, dumped in a field and left to die.

6“But I came by and saw you there, helplessly kicking about in your own blood. As you lay there, I said, ‘Live!’ 7And I helped you to thrive like a plant in the field. You grew up and became a beautiful jewel. Your breasts became full, and your body hair grew, but you were still naked. 8And when I passed by again, I saw that you were old enough for love. So I wrapped my cloak around you to cover your nakedness and declared my marriage vows. I made a covenant with you, says the Sovereign LORD, and you became mine.

9“Then I bathed you and washed off your blood, and I rubbed fragrant oils into your skin. 10I gave you expensive clothing of fine linen and silk, beautifully embroidered, and sandals made of fine goatskin leather. 11I gave you lovely jewelry, bracelets, beautiful necklaces, 12a ring for your nose, earrings for your ears, and a lovely crown for your head. 13And so you were adorned with gold and silver. Your clothes were made of fine linen and costly fabric and were beautifully embroidered. You ate the finest foods—choice flour, honey, and olive oil—and became more beautiful than ever. You looked like a queen, and so you were! 14Your fame soon spread throughout the world because of your beauty. I dressed you in my splendor and perfected your beauty, says the Sovereign LORD.

15"But you thought your fame and beauty were your own. So you gave yourself as a prostitute to every man who came along. Your beauty was theirs for the asking. 16You used the lovely things I gave you to make shrines for idols, where you played the prostitute. Unbelievable! How could such a thing ever happen? 17You took the very jewels and gold and silver ornaments I had given you and made statues of men and worshiped them. This is adultery against me! 18You used the beautifully embroidered clothes I gave you to dress your idols. Then you used my special oil and my incense to worship them. 19Imagine it! You set before them as a sacrifice the choice flour, olive oil, and honey I had given you, says the Sovereign LORD.

20"Then you took your sons and daughters—the children you had borne to me—and sacrificed them to your gods. Was your prostitution not enough? 21Must you also slaughter my children by sacrificing them to idols? 22In all your years of adultery and detestable sin, you have not once remembered the days long ago when you lay naked in a field, kicking about in your own blood.

23"What sorrow awaits you, says the Sovereign LORD. In addition to all your other wickedness, 24you built a pagan shrine and put altars to idols in every town square. 25On every street corner you defiled your beauty, offering your body to every passerby in an endless stream of prostitution. 26Then you added lustful Egypt to your lovers, provoking my anger with your increasing promiscuity. 27That is why I struck you with my fist and reduced your boundaries. I handed you over to your enemies, the Philistines, and even they were shocked by your lewd conduct. 28You have prostituted yourself with the Assyrians, too. It seems you can never find enough new lovers! And after your prostitution there, you still were not satisfied. 29You added to your lovers by embracing Babylonia,* the land of merchants, but you still weren't satisfied.

30"What a sick heart you have, says the Sovereign LORD, to do such things as these, acting like a shameless prostitute. 31You build your pagan shrines on every street corner and your altars to idols in every square. In fact, you have been worse than a prostitute, so eager for sin that you have not even demanded payment. 32Yes, you are an adulterous wife who takes in strangers instead of her own husband. 33Prostitutes charge for their services—but not you! You give gifts to your lovers, bribing them to come and have sex with you. 34So you are the opposite of other prostitutes. You pay your lovers instead of their paying you!

JUDGMENT ON JERUSALEM'S PROSTITUTION

35"Therefore, you prostitute, listen to this message from the LORD! 36This is what the Sovereign LORD says: Because you have poured out your lust and exposed yourself in prostitution to all your lovers, and because you have worshiped detestable idols,* and because you have slaughtered your children as sacrifices to your gods, 37this is what I am going to do. I will gather together all your allies—the lovers with whom you have sinned, both those you loved and those you hated—and I will strip you naked in front of them so they can stare at you. 38I will punish you for your murder and adultery. I will cover you with blood in my jealous fury. 39Then I will give you to these many nations who are your lovers, and they will destroy you. They will knock down your pagan shrines and the altars to your idols. They will strip you and take your beautiful jewels, leaving you stark naked. 40They will band together in a mob to stone you and cut you up with swords. 41They will burn your homes and punish you in front of many women. I will stop your prostitution and end your payments to your many lovers.

42"Then at last my fury against you will be spent, and my jealous anger will subside. I will be calm and will not be angry with you anymore. 43But first, because you have not remembered your youth but have angered me by doing all these evil things, I will fully repay you for all of your sins, says the Sovereign LORD. For you have added lewd acts to all your detestable sins. 44Everyone who makes up proverbs will say of you, ‘Like mother, like daughter.’ 45For your mother loathed her husband and her children, and so do you. And you are exactly like your sisters, for they despised their husbands and their children. Truly your mother was a Hittite and your father an Amorite.

46“Your older sister was Samaria, who lived with her daughters in the north. Your younger sister was Sodom, who lived with her daughters in the south. 47But you have not merely sinned as they did. You quickly surpassed them in corruption. 48As surely as I live, says the Sovereign LORD, Sodom and her daughters were never as wicked as you and your daughters. 49Sodom’s sins were pride, gluttony, and laziness, while the poor and needy suffered outside her door. 50She was proud and committed detestable sins, so I wiped her out, as you have seen.*

51“Even Samaria did not commit half your sins. You have done far more detestable things than your sisters ever did. They seem righteous compared to you. 52Shame on you! Your sins are so terrible that you make your sisters seem righteous, even virtuous.

53“But someday I will restore the fortunes of Sodom and Samaria, and I will restore you, too. 54Then you will be truly ashamed of everything you have done, for your sins make them feel good in comparison. 55Yes, your sisters, Sodom and Samaria, and all their people will be restored, and at that time you also will be restored. 56In your proud days you held Sodom in contempt. 57But now your greater wickedness has been exposed to all the world, and you are the one who is scorned—by Edom* and all her neighbors and by Philistia. 58This is your punishment for all your lewdness and detestable sins, says the LORD.

59“Now this is what the Sovereign LORD says: I will give you what you deserve, for you have taken your solemn vows lightly by breaking your covenant. 60Yet I will remember the covenant I made with you when you were young, and I will establish an everlasting covenant with you. 61Then you will remember with shame all the evil you have done. I will make your sisters, Samaria and Sodom, to be your daughters, even though they are not part of our covenant. 62And I will reaffirm my covenant with you, and you will know that I am the LORD. 63You will remember your sins and cover your mouth in silent shame when I forgive you of all that you have done. I, the Sovereign LORD, have spoken!”

Ezekiel 17

A STORY OF TWO EAGLES

1Then this message came to me from the LORD: 2“Son of man, give this riddle, and tell this story to the people of Israel. 3Give them this message from the Sovereign LORD: “A great eagle with broad wings and long feathers, covered with many-colored plumage, came to Lebanon.

He seized the top of a cedar tree

4and plucked off its highest branch.
He carried it away to a city filled with merchants.
He planted it in a city of traders.

5He also took a seedling from the land and planted it in fertile soil.
He placed it beside a broad river, where it could grow like a willow tree.

6It took root there and grew into a low, spreading vine.
Its branches turned up toward the eagle, and its roots grew down into the ground.
It produced strong branches and put out shoots.

7But then another great eagle came with broad wings and full plumage.
So the vine now sent its roots and branches toward him for water,

8even though it was already planted in good soil and had plenty of water so it could grow into a splendid vine and produce rich leaves and luscious fruit.

9“So now the Sovereign LORD asks: Will this vine grow and prosper?
No! I will pull it up, roots and all!
I will cut off its fruit and let its leaves wither and die.
I will pull it up easily without a strong arm or a large army.

10But when the vine is transplanted, will it thrive?
No, it will wither away when the east wind blows against it.
It will die in the same good soil where it had grown so well.”

THE RIDDLE EXPLAINED

11Then this message came to me from the LORD: 12“Say to these rebels of Israel: Don’t you understand the meaning of this riddle of the eagles? The king of Babylon came to Jerusalem, took away her king and princes, and brought them to Babylon. 13He made a treaty with a member of the royal family and forced him to take an oath of loyalty. He also exiled Israel’s most influential leaders, 14so Israel would not become strong again and revolt. Only by keeping her treaty with Babylon could Israel survive.

15“Nevertheless, this man of Israel’s royal family rebelled against Babylon, sending ambassadors to Egypt to request a great army and many horses. Can Israel break her sworn treaties like that and get away with it? 16No! For as surely as I live, says the Sovereign LORD, the king of Israel will die in Babylon, the land of the king who put him in power and whose treaty he disregarded and broke.
17Pharaoh and all his mighty army will fail to help Israel when the king of Babylon lays siege to Jerusalem again and destroys many lives. 18For the king of Israel disregarded his treaty and broke it after swearing to obey; therefore, he will not escape.

19“So this is what the Sovereign LORD says: As surely as I live, I will punish him for breaking my covenant and disregarding the solemn oath he made in my name. 20I will throw my net over him and capture him in my snare. I will bring him to Babylon and put him on trial for this treason against me. 21And all his best warriors* will be killed in battle, and those who survive will be scattered to the four winds. Then you will know that I, the LORD, have spoken.

22“This is what the Sovereign LORD says: I will take a branch from the top of a tall cedar, and I will plant it on the top of Israel’s highest mountain. 23It will become a majestic cedar, sending forth its branches and producing seed. Birds of every sort will nest in it, finding shelter in the shade of its branches. 24And all the trees will know that it is I, the LORD, who cuts the tall tree down and makes the short tree grow tall. It is I who makes the green tree wither and gives the dead tree new life. I, the LORD, have spoken, and I will do what I said!”

Ezekiel 18

THE JUSTICE OF A RIGHTEOUS GOD

1Then another message came to me from the LORD: 2“Why do you quote this proverb concerning the land of Israel: ‘The parents have eaten sour grapes, but their children’s mouths pucker at the taste’? 3As surely as I live, says the Sovereign LORD, you will not quote this proverb anymore in Israel. 4For all people are mine to judge—both parents and children alike. And this is my rule: The person who sins is the one who will die.

5“Suppose a certain man is righteous and does what is just and right. 6He does not feast in the mountains before Israel’s idols* or worship them. He does not commit adultery or have intercourse with a woman during her menstrual period. 7He is a merciful creditor, not keeping the items given as security by poor debtors. He does not rob the poor but instead gives food to the hungry and provides clothes for the needy. 8He grants loans without interest, stays away from injustice, is honest and fair when judging others, 9and faithfully obeys my decrees and regulations. Anyone who does these things is just and will surely live, says the Sovereign LORD.

10“But suppose that man has a son who grows up to be a robber or murderer and refuses to do what is right. 11And that son does all the evil things his father would never do—he worships idols on the mountains, commits adultery, 12oppresses the poor and helpless, steals from debtors by refusing to let them redeem their security, worships idols, commits detestable sins, 13and lends money at excessive interest. Should such a sinful person live? No! He must die and must take full blame.

14"But suppose that sinful son, in turn, has a son who sees his father's wickedness and decides against that kind of life. 15This son refuses to worship idols on the mountains and does not commit adultery. 16He does not exploit the poor, but instead is fair to debtors and does not rob them. He gives food to the hungry and provides clothes for the needy. 17He helps the poor,* does not lend money at interest, and obeys all my regulations and decrees. Such a person will not die because of his father's sins; he will surely live.
18But the father will die for his many sins—for being cruel, robbing people, and doing what was clearly wrong among his people.

19"'What?' you ask. 'Doesn't the child pay for the parent's sins?' No!
For if the child does what is just and right and keeps my decrees, that child will surely live. 20The person who sins is the one who will die. The child will not be punished for the parent's sins, and the parent will not be punished for the child's sins. Righteous people will be rewarded for their own righteous behavior, and wicked people will be punished for their own wickedness. 21But if wicked people turn away from all their sins and begin to obey my decrees and do what is just and right, they will surely live and not die. 22All their past sins will be forgotten, and they will live because of the righteous things they have done.

23"Do you think that I like to see wicked people die? says the Sovereign LORD. Of course not! I want them to turn from their wicked ways and live. 24However, if righteous people turn from their righteous behavior and start doing sinful things and act like other sinners, should they be allowed to live? No, of course not! All their righteous acts will be forgotten, and they will die for their sins.

25“Yet you say, ‘The Lord isn’t doing what’s right!’ Listen to me, O people of Israel. Am I the one not doing what’s right, or is it you?
26When righteous people turn from their righteous behavior and start doing sinful things, they will die for it. Yes, they will die because of their sinful deeds. 27And if wicked people turn from their wickedness, obey the law, and do what is just and right, they will save their lives. 28They will live because they thought it over and decided to turn from their sins. Such people will not die. 29And yet the people of Israel keep saying, ‘The Lord isn’t doing what’s right!’
O people of Israel, it is you who are not doing what’s right, not I.

30“Therefore, I will judge each of you, O people of Israel, according to your actions, says the Sovereign LORD. Repent, and turn from your sins. Don’t let them destroy you! 31Put all your rebellion behind you, and find yourselves a new heart and a new spirit. For why should you die, O people of Israel? 32I don’t want you to die, says the Sovereign LORD. Turn back and live!

Ezekiel 19

A FUNERAL SONG FOR ISRAEL’S KINGS

1“Sing this funeral song for the princes of Israel:

2“What is your mother?
A lioness among lions!
She lay down among the young lions and reared her cubs.

3She raised one of her cubs to become a strong young lion.
He learned to hunt and devour prey, and he became a man-eater.

4Then the nations heard about him, and he was trapped in their pit.
They led him away with hooks to the land of Egypt.

5“When the lioness saw that her hopes for him were gone, she took another of her cubs and taught him to be a strong young lion.

6He prowled among the other lions and stood out among them in his strength.
He learned to hunt and devour prey, and he, too, became a man-eater.

7He demolished fortresses* and destroyed their towns and cities.
Their farms were desolated, and their crops were destroyed.
The land and its people trembled in fear when they heard him roar.

8Then the armies of the nations attacked him, surrounding him from every direction.
They threw a net over him and captured him in their pit.

9With hooks, they dragged him into a cage and brought him before the king of Babylon.
They held him in captivity, so his voice could never again be heard on the mountains of Israel.

10"Your mother was like a vine planted by the water's edge.
It had lush, green foliage because of the abundant water.

11Its branches became strong— strong enough to be a ruler's scepter.
It grew very tall, towering above all others.
It stood out because of its height and its many lush branches.

12But the vine was uprooted in fury and thrown down to the ground.
The desert wind dried up its fruit and tore off its strong branches, so that it withered and was destroyed by fire.

13Now the vine is transplanted to the wilderness, where the ground is hard and dry.

14A fire has burst out from its branches and devoured its fruit.
Its remaining limbs are not strong enough to be a ruler's scepter.

"This is a funeral song, and it will be used in a funeral."

Ezekiel 20

THE REBELLION OF ISRAEL

1On August 14,* during the seventh year of King Jehoiachin's captivity, some of the leaders of Israel came to request a message from the LORD. They sat down in front of me to wait for his reply.
2Then this message came to me from the LORD: 3"Son of man, tell the leaders of Israel, 'This is what the Sovereign LORD says: How dare you come to ask me for a message? As surely as I live, says the Sovereign LORD, I will tell you nothing!'

4"Son of man, bring charges against them and condemn them. Make them realize how detestable the sins of their ancestors really were.
5Give them this message from the Sovereign LORD: When I chose Israel—when I revealed myself to the descendants of Jacob in Egypt
—I took a solemn oath that I, the LORD, would be their God. 6I took a solemn oath that day that I would bring them out of Egypt to a land I had discovered and explored for them—a good land, a land flowing with milk and honey, the best of all lands anywhere. 7Then
I said to them, 'Each of you, get rid of the vile images you are so obsessed with. Do not defile yourselves with the idols* of Egypt, for
I am the LORD your God.'

8"But they rebelled against me and would not listen. They did not get rid of the vile images they were obsessed with, or forsake the idols of Egypt. Then I threatened to pour out my fury on them to satisfy my anger while they were still in Egypt. 9But I didn't do it, for I acted to protect the honor of my name. I would not allow shame to be brought on my name among the surrounding nations who saw me reveal myself by bringing the Israelites out of Egypt.
10So I brought them out of Egypt and led them into the wilderness.
11There I gave them my decrees and regulations so they could find life by keeping them. 12And I gave them my Sabbath days of rest as a sign between them and me. It was to remind them that I am the LORD, who had set them apart to be holy.

13“But the people of Israel rebelled against me, and they refused to obey my decrees there in the wilderness. They wouldn’t obey my regulations even though obedience would have given them life.
They also violated my Sabbath days. So I threatened to pour out my fury on them, and I made plans to utterly consume them in the wilderness. 14But again I held back in order to protect the honor of my name before the nations who had seen my power in bringing Israel out of Egypt. 15But I took a solemn oath against them in the wilderness. I swore I would not bring them into the land I had given them, a land flowing with milk and honey, the most beautiful place on earth. 16For they had rejected my regulations, refused to follow my decrees, and violated my Sabbath days. Their hearts were given to their idols. 17Nevertheless, I took pity on them and held back from destroying them in the wilderness.

18“Then I warned their children not to follow in their parents’ footsteps, defiling themselves with their idols. 19‘I am the LORD your God,’ I told them. ‘Follow my decrees, pay attention to my regulations, 20and keep my Sabbath days holy, for they are a sign to remind you that I am the LORD your God.’

21“But their children, too, rebelled against me. They refused to keep my decrees and follow my regulations, even though obedience would have given them life. And they also violated my Sabbath days. So again I threatened to pour out my fury on them in the wilderness. 22Nevertheless, I withdrew my judgment against them to protect the honor of my name before the nations that had seen my power in bringing them out of Egypt. 23But I took a solemn oath against them in the wilderness. I swore I would scatter them among all the nations 24because they did not obey my regulations. They scorned my decrees by violating my Sabbath days and longing for the idols of their ancestors. 25I gave them over to worthless decrees and regulations that would not lead to life. 26I let them pollute themselves* with the very gifts I had given them, and I allowed them to give their firstborn children as offerings to their gods—so I might devastate them and remind them that I alone am the LORD.

JUDGMENT AND RESTORATION

27“Therefore, son of man, give the people of Israel this message from the Sovereign LORD: Your ancestors continued to blaspheme and betray me, 28for when I brought them into the land I had promised them, they offered sacrifices on every high hill and under every green tree they saw! They roused my fury as they offered up sacrifices to their gods. They brought their perfumes and incense and poured out their liquid offerings to them. 29I said to them, ‘What is this high place where you are going?’ (This kind of pagan shrine has been called Bamah—‘high place’—ever since.)

FACING GOD EZEKIEL 20:30-44

30“Therefore, give the people of Israel this message from the Sovereign LORD: Do you plan to pollute yourselves just as your ancestors did? Do you intend to keep prostituting yourselves by worshiping vile images? 31For when you offer gifts to them and give your little children to be burned as sacrifices,* you continue to pollute yourselves with idols to this day. Should I allow you to ask for a message from me, O people of Israel? As surely as I live, says the Sovereign LORD, I will tell you nothing.

32“You say, ‘We want to be like the nations all around us, who serve idols of wood and stone.’ But what you have in mind will never happen. 33As surely as I live, says the Sovereign LORD, I will rule over you with an iron fist in great anger and with awesome power.
34And in anger I will reach out with my strong hand and powerful arm, and I will bring you back* from the lands where you are scattered. 35I will bring you into the wilderness of the nations, and there I will judge you face to face. 36I will judge you there just as I did your ancestors in the wilderness after bringing them out of Egypt, says the Sovereign LORD. 37I will examine you carefully and hold you to the terms of the covenant. 38I will purge you of all those who rebel and revolt against me. I will bring them out of the countries where they are in exile, but they will never enter the land of Israel. Then you will know that I am the LORD.

39"As for you, O people of Israel, this is what the Sovereign LORD says: Go right ahead and worship your idols, but sooner or later you will obey me and will stop bringing shame on my holy name by worshiping idols. 40For on my holy mountain, the great mountain of Israel, says the Sovereign LORD, the people of Israel will someday worship me, and I will accept them. There I will require that you bring me all your offerings and choice gifts and sacrifices. 41When I bring you home from exile, you will be like a pleasing sacrifice to me. And I will display my holiness through you as all the nations watch. 42Then when I have brought you home to the land I promised with a solemn oath to give to your ancestors, you will know that I am the LORD. 43You will look back on all the ways you defiled yourselves and will hate yourselves because of the evil you have done. 44You will know that I am the LORD, O people of Israel, when I have honored my name by treating you mercifully in spite of your wickedness. I, the Sovereign LORD, have spoken!"

JUDGMENT AGAINST THE NEGEV

45*Then this message came to me from the LORD: 46"Son of man, turn and face the south* and speak out against it; prophesy against the brushlands of the Negev. 47Tell the southern wilderness, 'This is what the Sovereign LORD says: Hear the word of the LORD! I will set you on fire, and every tree, both green and dry, will be burned.
The terrible flames will not be quenched and will scorch everything from south to north. 48And everyone in the world will see that I, the LORD, have set this fire. It will not be put out.'"

49Then I said, “O Sovereign LORD, they are saying of me, ‘He only talks in riddles!’”

Ezekiel 21

THE LORD’S SWORD OF JUDGMENT

1*Then this message came to me from the LORD: 2“Son of man, turn and face Jerusalem and prophesy against Israel and her sanctuaries. 3Tell her, ‘This is what the LORD says: I am your enemy, O Israel, and I am about to unsheath my sword to destroy your people—the righteous and the wicked alike. 4Yes, I will cut off both the righteous and the wicked! I will draw my sword against everyone in the land from south to north. 5Everyone in the world will know that I am the LORD. My sword is in my hand, and it will not return to its sheath until its work is finished.’

6“Son of man, groan before the people! Groan before them with bitter anguish and a broken heart. 7When they ask why you are groaning, tell them, ‘I groan because of the terrifying news I have heard. When it comes true, the boldest heart will melt with fear; all strength will disappear. Every spirit will faint; strong knees will become as weak as water. And the Sovereign LORD says: It is coming! It’s on its way!’”

8Then the LORD said to me, 9“Son of man, give the people this message from the Lord: “A sword, a sword is being sharpened and polished.

10It is sharpened for terrible slaughter and polished to flash like lightning!
Now will you laugh?
Those far stronger than you have fallen beneath its power!*

11Yes, the sword is now being sharpened and polished; it is being prepared for the executioner.

12“Son of man, cry out and wail; pound your thighs in anguish, for that sword will slaughter my people and their leaders— everyone will die!

13It will put them all to the test.
What chance do they have?*
says the Sovereign LORD.

14“Son of man, prophesy to them and clap your hands.
Then take the sword and brandish it twice, even three times, to symbolize the great massacre, the great massacre facing them on every side.

15Let their hearts melt with terror, for the sword glitters at every gate.
It flashes like lightning and is polished for slaughter!

16O sword, slash to the right, then slash to the left, wherever you will, wherever you want.

17I, too, will clap my hands, and I will satisfy my fury.
I, the LORD, have spoken!”

OMENS FOR BABYLON’S KING

18Then this message came to me from the LORD: 19“Son of man, make a map and trace two routes on it for the sword of Babylon’s king to follow. Put a signpost on the road that comes out of Babylon where the road forks into two—20one road going to Ammon and its capital, Rabbah, and the other to Judah and fortified Jerusalem.
21The king of Babylon now stands at the fork, uncertain whether to attack Jerusalem or Rabbah. He calls his magicians to look for omens. They cast lots by shaking arrows from the quiver. They inspect the livers of animal sacrifices. 22The omen in his right hand says, ‘Jerusalem!’ With battering rams his soldiers will go against the gates, shouting for the kill. They will put up siege towers and build ramps against the walls. 23The people of Jerusalem will think it is a false omen, because of their treaty with the Babylonians. But the king of Babylon will remind the people of their rebellion. Then he will attack and capture them.

24“Therefore, this is what the Sovereign LORD says: Again and again you remind me of your sin and your guilt. You don’t even try to hide it! In everything you do, your sins are obvious for all to see.
So now the time of your punishment has come!

25“O you corrupt and wicked prince of Israel, your final day of reckoning is here! 26This is what the Sovereign LORD says: “Take off your jeweled crown, for the old order changes.

Now the lowly will be exalted, and the mighty will be brought down.

27Destruction! Destruction!
I will surely destroy the kingdom.
And it will not be restored until the one appears who has the right to judge it.
Then I will hand it over to him.

A MESSAGE FOR THE AMMONITES

28“And now, son of man, prophesy concerning the Ammonites and their mockery. Give them this message from the Sovereign LORD:
“A sword, a sword is drawn for your slaughter.

It is polished to destroy, flashing like lightning!

29Your prophets have given false visions, and your fortune-tellers have told lies.
The sword will fall on the necks of the wicked for whom the day of final reckoning has come.

30“Now return the sword to its sheath, for in your own country, the land of your birth, I will pass judgment upon you.

31I will pour out my fury on you and blow on you with the fire of my anger.
I will hand you over to cruel men who are skilled in destruction.

32You will be fuel for the fire, and your blood will be spilled in your own land.

You will be utterly wiped out, your memory lost to history, for I, the LORD, have spoken!”

Ezekiel 22

THE SINS OF JERUSALEM

1Now this message came to me from the LORD: 2“Son of man, are you ready to judge Jerusalem? Are you ready to judge this city of murderers? Publicly denounce her detestable sins, 3and give her this message from the Sovereign LORD: O city of murderers, doomed and damned—city of idols,* filthy and foul—4you are guilty because of the blood you have shed. You are defiled because of the idols you have made. Your day of destruction has come! You have reached the end of your years. I will make you an object of mockery throughout the world. 5O infamous city, filled with confusion, you will be mocked by people far and near.

6“Every leader in Israel who lives within your walls is bent on murder. 7Fathers and mothers are treated with contempt. Foreigners are forced to pay for protection. Orphans and widows are wronged and oppressed among you. 8You despise my holy things and violate my Sabbath days of rest. 9People accuse others falsely and send them to their death. You are filled with idol worshipers and people who do obscene things. 10Men sleep with their fathers’ wives and force themselves on women who are menstruating. 11Within your walls live men who commit adultery with their neighbors’ wives, who defile their daughters-in-law, or who rape their own sisters. 12There are hired murderers, loan racketeers, and extortioners everywhere. They never even think of me and my commands, says the Sovereign LORD.

13“But now I clap my hands in indignation over your dishonest gain and bloodshed. 14How strong and courageous will you be in my day of reckoning? I, the LORD, have spoken, and I will do what I said. 15I will scatter you among the nations and purge you of your wickedness. 16And when I have been dishonored among the nations because of you,* you will know that I am the LORD.”

THE LORD'S REFINING FURNACE

17Then this message came to me from the LORD: 18"Son of man, the people of Israel are the worthless slag that remains after silver is smelted. They are the dross that is left over—a useless mixture of copper, tin, iron, and lead. 19So tell them, 'This is what the Sovereign LORD says: Because you are all worthless slag, I will bring you to my crucible in Jerusalem. 20Just as silver, copper, iron, lead, and tin are melted down in a furnace, I will melt you down in the heat of my fury. 21I will gather you together and blow the fire of my anger upon you, 22and you will melt like silver in fierce heat.
Then you will know that I, the LORD, have poured out my fury on
you.'"

THE SINS OF ISRAEL'S LEADERS

23Again a message came to me from the LORD: 24"Son of man, give the people of Israel this message: In the day of my indignation, you will be like a polluted land, a land without rain. 25Your princes* plot conspiracies just as lions stalk their prey. They devour innocent people, seizing treasures and extorting wealth. They make many widows in the land. 26Your priests have violated my instructions and defiled my holy things. They make no distinction between what is holy and what is not. And they do not teach my people the difference between what is ceremonially clean and unclean. They disregard my Sabbath days so that I am dishonored among them.
27Your leaders are like wolves who tear apart their victims. They actually destroy people's lives for money! 28And your prophets cover up for them by announcing false visions and making lying predictions. They say, 'My message is from the Sovereign LORD,' when the LORD hasn't spoken a single word to them. 29Even common people oppress the poor, rob the needy, and deprive foreigners of justice.

30"I looked for someone who might rebuild the wall of righteousness that guards the land. I searched for someone to stand in the gap in the wall so I wouldn't have to destroy the land, but I found no one. 31So now I will pour out my fury on them, consuming them with the fire of my anger. I will heap on their heads the full penalty for all their sins. I, the Sovereign LORD, have spoken!”

Ezekiel 23

THE ADULTERY OF TWO SISTERS

1This message came to me from the LORD: 2“Son of man, once there were two sisters who were daughters of the same mother. 3They became prostitutes in Egypt. Even as young girls, they allowed men to fondle their breasts. 4The older girl was named Oholah, and her sister was Oholibah. I married them, and they bore me sons and daughters. I am speaking of Samaria and Jerusalem, for Oholah is Samaria and Oholibah is Jerusalem.

5“Then Oholah lusted after other lovers instead of me, and she gave her love to the Assyrian officers. 6They were all attractive young men, captains and commanders dressed in handsome blue, charioteers driving their horses. 7And so she prostituted herself with the most desirable men of Assyria, worshiping their idols* and defiling herself. 8For when she left Egypt, she did not leave her spirit of prostitution behind. She was still as lewd as in her youth, when the Egyptians slept with her, fondled her breasts, and used her as a prostitute.

9“And so I handed her over to her Assyrian lovers, whom she desired so much. 10They stripped her, took away her children as their slaves, and then killed her. After she received her punishment, her reputation was known to every woman in the land.

11“Yet even though Oholibah saw what had happened to Oholah, her sister, she followed right in her footsteps. And she was even more depraved, abandoning herself to her lust and prostitution. 12She fawned over all the Assyrian officers—those captains and commanders in handsome uniforms, those charioteers driving their horses—all of them attractive young men. 13I saw the way she was going, defiling herself just like her older sister.

14“Then she carried her prostitution even further. She fell in love with pictures that were painted on a wall—pictures of Babylonian* military officers, outfitted in striking red uniforms. 15Handsome belts encircled their waists, and flowing turbans crowned their heads. They were dressed like chariot officers from the land of Babylonia.*16When she saw these paintings, she longed to give herself to them, so she sent messengers to Babylonia to invite them to come to her. 17So they came and committed adultery with her, defiling her in the bed of love. After being defiled, however, she rejected them in disgust.

18“In the same way, I became disgusted with Oholibah and rejected her, just as I had rejected her sister, because she flaunted herself before them and gave herself to satisfy their lusts. 19Yet she turned to even greater prostitution, remembering her youth when she was a prostitute in Egypt. 20She lusted after lovers with genitals as large as a donkey’s and emissions like those of a horse. 21And so, Oholibah, you relived your former days as a young girl in Egypt, when you first allowed your breasts to be fondled.

THE LORD’S JUDGMENT OF OHOLIBAH

22“Therefore, Oholibah, this is what the Sovereign LORD says: I will send your lovers against you from every direction—those very nations from which you turned away in disgust. 23For the Babylonians will come with all the Chaldeans from Pekod and Shoa and Koa. And all the Assyrians will come with them—handsome young captains, commanders, chariot officers, and other high-ranking officers, all riding their horses. 24They will all come against you from the north* with chariots, wagons, and a great army prepared for attack. They will take up positions on every side, surrounding you with men armed with shields and helmets. And I will hand you over to them for punishment so they can do with you as they please. 25I will turn my jealous anger against you, and they will deal harshly with you. They will cut off your nose and ears, and any survivors will then be slaughtered by the sword. Your children will be taken away as captives, and everything that is left will be burned. 26They will strip you of your beautiful clothes and jewels. 27In this way, I will put a stop to the lewdness and prostitution you brought from Egypt. You will never again cast longing eyes on those things or fondly remember your time in Egypt.

28“For this is what the Sovereign LORD says: I will surely hand you over to your enemies, to those you loathe, those you rejected. 29They will treat you with hatred and rob you of all you own, leaving you stark naked. The shame of your prostitution will be exposed to all the world. 30You brought all this on yourself by prostituting yourself to other nations, defiling yourself with all their idols. 31Because you have followed in your sister’s footsteps, I will force you to drink the same cup of terror she drank.

32“Yes, this is what the Sovereign LORD says: “You will drink from your sister’s cup of terror, a cup that is large and deep.

It is filled to the brim with scorn and derision.

33Drunkenness and anguish will fill you, for your cup is filled to the brim with distress and desolation, the same cup your sister Samaria drank.

34You will drain that cup of terror to the very bottom.
Then you will smash it to pieces and beat your breast in anguish.
I, the Sovereign LORD, have spoken!

35“And because you have forgotten me and turned your back on me, this is what the Sovereign LORD says: You must bear the consequences of all your lewdness and prostitution.”

THE LORD’S JUDGMENT ON BOTH SISTERS

36The LORD said to me, “Son of man, you must accuse Oholah and Oholibah of all their detestable sins. 37They have committed both adultery and murder—adultery by worshiping idols and murder by burning as sacrifices the children they bore to me. 38Furthermore, they have defiled my Temple and violated my Sabbath day! 39On the very day that they sacrificed their children to their idols, they boldly came into my Temple to worship! They came in and defiled my house.

40“You sisters sent messengers to distant lands to get men. Then when they arrived, you bathed yourselves, painted your eyelids, and put on your finest jewels for them. 41You sat with them on a beautifully embroidered couch and put my incense and my special oil on a table that was spread before you. 42From your room came the sound of many men carousing. They were lustful men and drunkards* from the wilderness, who put bracelets on your wrists and beautiful crowns on your heads. 43Then I said, ‘If they really want to have sex with old worn-out prostitutes like these, let them!’ 44And that is what they did. They had sex with Oholah and Oholibah, these shameless prostitutes. 45But righteous people will judge these sister cities for what they really are—adulterers and murderers.

46“Now this is what the Sovereign LORD says: Bring an army against them and hand them over to be terrorized and plundered. 47For their enemies will stone them and kill them with swords. They will butcher their sons and daughters and burn their homes. 48In this way, I will put an end to lewdness and idolatry in the land, and my judgment will be a warning to all women not to follow your wicked example. 49You will be fully repaid for all your prostitution —your worship of idols. Yes, you will suffer the full penalty. Then you will know that I am the Sovereign LORD.”

Ezekiel 24

THE SIGN OF THE COOKING POT

1On January 15,* during the ninth year of King Jehoiachin’s captivity, this message came to me from the LORD: 2“Son of man, write down today’s date, because on this very day the king of Babylon is beginning his attack against Jerusalem. 3Then give these rebels an illustration with this message from the Sovereign LORD: “Put a pot on the fire, and pour in some water.

4Fill it with choice pieces of meat— the rump and the shoulder and all the most tender cuts.

5Use only the best sheep from the flock, and heap fuel on the fire beneath the pot.
Bring the pot to a boil, and cook the bones along with the meat.

6“Now this is what the Sovereign LORD says: What sorrow awaits
Jerusalem, the city of murderers!
She is a cooking pot whose corruption can’t be cleaned out.
Take the meat out in random order, for no piece is better than another.

7For the blood of her murders is splashed on the rocks.
It isn’t even spilled on the ground, where the dust could cover it!

8So I will splash her blood on a rock for all to see, an expression of my anger and vengeance against her.

9“This is what the Sovereign LORD says: What sorrow awaits
Jerusalem, the city of murderers!
I myself will pile up the fuel beneath her.

10Yes, heap on the wood!
Let the fire roar to make the pot boil.
Cook the meat with many spices, and afterward burn the bones.

11Now set the empty pot on the coals.
Heat it red hot!
Burn away the filth and corruption.

12But it’s hopeless; the corruption can’t be cleaned out.
So throw it into the fire.

13Your impurity is your lewdness and the corruption of your idolatry.
I tried to cleanse you, but you refused.
So now you will remain in your filth until my fury against you has been satisfied.

14"I, the LORD, have spoken! The time has come, and I won't hold back. I will not change my mind, and I will have no pity on you. You will be judged on the basis of all your wicked actions, says the Sovereign LORD."

THE DEATH OF EZEKIEL'S WIFE

15Then this message came to me from the LORD: 16"Son of man, with one blow I will take away your dearest treasure. Yet you must not show any sorrow at her death. Do not weep; let there be no tears. 17Groan silently, but let there be no wailing at her grave. Do not uncover your head or take off your sandals. Do not perform the usual rituals of mourning or accept any food brought to you by consoling friends."

18So I proclaimed this to the people the next morning, and in the evening my wife died. The next morning I did everything I had been told to do. 19Then the people asked, "What does all this mean? What are you trying to tell us?"

20So I said to them, "A message came to me from the LORD, 21and I was told to give this message to the people of Israel. This is what the Sovereign LORD says: I will defile my Temple, the source of your security and pride, the place your heart delights in. Your sons and daughters whom you left behind in Judea will be slaughtered by the sword. 22Then you will do as Ezekiel has done. You will not mourn in public or console yourselves by eating the food brought by friends. 23Your heads will remain covered, and your sandals will not be taken off. You will not mourn or weep, but you will waste away because of your sins. You will groan among yourselves for all the evil you have done. 24Ezekiel is an example for you; you will do just as he has done. And when that time comes, you will know that I am the Sovereign LORD."

25Then the LORD said to me, "Son of man, on the day I take away their stronghold—their joy and glory, their heart's desire, their dearest treasure—I will also take away their sons and daughters.

26And on that day a survivor from Jerusalem will come to you in Babylon and tell you what has happened. 27And when he arrives, your voice will suddenly return so you can talk to him, and you will be a symbol for these people. Then they will know that I am the LORD."

Ezekiel 25

A MESSAGE FOR AMMON

1Then this message came to me from the LORD: 2"Son of man, turn and face the land of Ammon and prophesy against its people. 3Give the Ammonites this message from the Sovereign LORD: Hear the word of the Sovereign LORD! Because you cheered when my Temple was defiled, mocked Israel in her desolation, and laughed at Judah as she went away into exile, 4I will allow nomads from the eastern deserts to overrun your country. They will set up their camps among you and pitch their tents on your land. They will harvest all your fruit and drink the milk from your livestock. 5And I will turn the city of Rabbah into a pasture for camels, and all the land of the Ammonites into a resting place for sheep and goats.
Then you will know that I am the LORD.

6"This is what the Sovereign LORD says: Because you clapped and danced and cheered with glee at the destruction of my people, 7I will raise my fist of judgment against you. I will give you as plunder to many nations. I will cut you off from being a nation and destroy you completely. Then you will know that I am the LORD.

A MESSAGE FOR MOAB

8"This is what the Sovereign LORD says: Because the people of Moab* have said that Judah is just like all the other nations, 9I will open up their eastern flank and wipe out their glorious frontier towns—Beth-jeshimoth, Baal-meon, and Kiriathaim. 10And I will hand Moab over to nomads from the eastern deserts, just as I handed over Ammon. Yes, the Ammonites will no longer be counted among the nations. 11In the same way, I will bring my judgment down on the Moabites. Then they will know that I am the LORD.

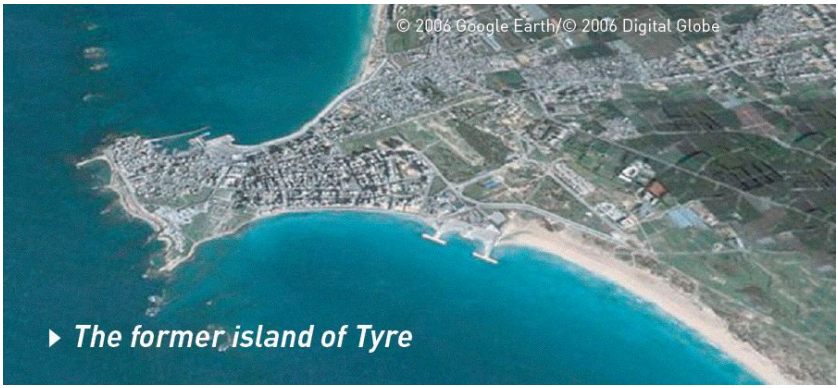
A MESSAGE FOR EDOM

12"This is what the Sovereign LORD says: The people of Edom have sinned greatly by avenging themselves against the people of Judah. 13Therefore, says the Sovereign LORD, I will raise my fist of judgment against Edom. I will wipe out its people and animals with the sword. I will make a wasteland of everything from Teman to Dedan. 14I will accomplish this by the hand of my people of Israel. They will carry out my vengeance with anger, and Edom will know that this vengeance is from me. I, the Sovereign LORD, have spoken!

A MESSAGE FOR PHILISTIA

15"This is what the Sovereign LORD says: The people of Philistia have acted against Judah out of bitter revenge and long-standing contempt. 16Therefore, this is what the Sovereign LORD says: I will raise my fist of judgment against the land of the Philistines. I will wipe out the Kerethites and utterly destroy the people who live by the sea. 17I will execute terrible vengeance against them to punish them for what they have done. And when I have inflicted my revenge, they will know that I am the LORD."



TYRE

Ezekiel 26

A MESSAGE FOR TYRE

1On February 3, during the twelfth year of King Jehoiachin's captivity,* this message came to me from the LORD: 2"Son of man, Tyre has rejoiced over the fall of Jerusalem, saying, 'Ha! She who was the gateway to the rich trade routes to the east has been broken, and I am the heir! Because she has been made desolate, I will become wealthy!'

3"Therefore, this is what the Sovereign LORD says: I am your enemy, O Tyre, and I will bring many nations against you, like the waves of the sea crashing against your shoreline. 4They will destroy the walls of Tyre and tear down its towers. I will scrape away its soil and make it a bare rock! 5It will be just a rock in the sea, a place for fishermen to spread their nets, for I have spoken, says the Sovereign LORD. Tyre will become the prey of many nations, 6and its mainland villages will be destroyed by the sword. Then they will know that I am the LORD.

7"This is what the Sovereign LORD says: From the north I will bring

King Nebuchadnezzar* of Babylon against Tyre. He is king of kings and brings his horses, chariots, charioteers, and great army. 8First he will destroy your mainland villages. Then he will attack you by building a siege wall, constructing a ramp, and raising a roof of shields against you. 9He will pound your walls with battering rams and demolish your towers with sledgehammers. 10The hooves of his horses will choke the city with dust, and the noise of the charioteers and chariot wheels will shake your walls as they storm through your broken gates. 11His horsemen will trample through every street in the city. They will butcher your people, and your strong pillars will topple.

12"They will plunder all your riches and merchandise and break down your walls. They will destroy your lovely homes and dump your stones and timbers and even your dust into the sea. 13I will stop the music of your songs. No more will the sound of harps be heard among your people. 14I will make your island a bare rock, a place for fishermen to spread their nets. You will never be rebuilt, for I, the LORD, have spoken. Yes, the Sovereign LORD has spoken!

THE EFFECT OF TYRE'S DESTRUCTION

15"This is what the Sovereign LORD says to Tyre: The whole coastline will tremble at the sound of your fall, as the screams of the wounded echo in the continuing slaughter. 16All the seaport rulers will step down from their thrones and take off their royal robes and beautiful clothing. They will sit on the ground trembling with horror at your destruction. 17Then they will wail for you, singing this funeral song: "O famous island city, once ruler of the sea, how you have been destroyed!

Your people, with their naval power, once spread fear around the world.

18Now the coastlands tremble at your fall.
The islands are dismayed as you disappear.

19"This is what the Sovereign LORD says: I will make Tyre an uninhabited ruin, like many others. I will bury you beneath the terrible waves of enemy attack. Great seas will swallow you. 20I will send you to the pit to join those who descended there long ago. Your city will lie in ruins, buried beneath the earth, like those in the pit who have entered the world of the dead. You will have no place of respect here in the land of the living. 21I will bring you to a terrible end, and you will exist no more. You will be looked for, but you will never again be found. I, the Sovereign LORD, have spoken!”

Ezekiel 27

THE END OF TYRE’S GLORY

1Then this message came to me from the LORD: 2“Son of man, sing a funeral song for Tyre, 3that mighty gateway to the sea, the trading center of the world. Give Tyre this message from the Sovereign LORD: “You boasted, O Tyre, ‘My beauty is perfect!’

4You extended your boundaries into the sea.
Your builders made your beauty perfect.

5You were like a great ship built of the finest cypress from Senir.*
They took a cedar from Lebanon to make a mast for you.

6They carved your oars from the oaks of Bashan.
Your deck of pine from the coasts of Cyprus* was inlaid with ivory.

7Your sails were made of Egypt’s finest linen, and they flew as a banner above you.
You stood beneath blue and purple awnings made bright with dyes from the coasts of Elishah.

8Your oarsmen came from Sidon and Arvad; your helmsmen were skilled men from Tyre itself.

9Wise old craftsmen from Gebal did the caulking.

Ships from every land came with goods to barter for your trade.

10“Men from distant Persia, Lydia, and Libya* served in your great army. They hung their shields and helmets on your walls, giving you great honor. 11Men from Arvad and Helech stood on your walls.
Your towers were manned by men from Gammad. Their shields hung on your walls, completing your beauty.

12“Tarshish sent merchants to buy your wares in exchange for silver, iron, tin, and lead. 13Merchants from Greece,* Tubal, and Meshech brought slaves and articles of bronze to trade with you.

14“From Beth-togarmah came riding horses, chariot horses, and mules, all in exchange for your goods. 15Merchants came to you from Dedan.* Numerous coastlands were your captive markets; they brought payment in ivory tusks and ebony wood.

16“Syria* sent merchants to buy your rich variety of goods. They traded turquoise, purple dyes, embroidery, fine linen, and jewelry of coral and rubies. 17Judah and Israel traded for your wares, offering wheat from Minnith, figs,* honey, olive oil, and balm.

18“Damascus sent merchants to buy your rich variety of goods, bringing wine from Helbon and white wool from Zahar. 19Greeks from Uzal* came to trade for your merchandise. Wrought iron, cassia, and fragrant calamus were bartered for your wares.

20“Dedan sent merchants to trade their expensive saddle blankets with you. 21The Arabians and the princes of Kedar sent merchants to trade lambs and rams and male goats in exchange for your goods.
22The merchants of Sheba and Raamah came with all kinds of spices, jewels, and gold in exchange for your wares.

23“Haran, Canneh, Eden, Sheba, Asshur, and Kilmad came with their merchandise, too. 24They brought choice fabrics to trade—blue cloth, embroidery, and multicolored carpets rolled up and bound with cords. 25The ships of Tarshish were your ocean caravans. Your island warehouse was filled to the brim!

THE DESTRUCTION OF TYRE

26“But look! Your oarsmen have taken you into stormy seas!

A mighty eastern gale has wrecked you in the heart of the sea!

27Everything is lost— your riches and wares, your sailors and pilots, your ship builders, merchants, and warriors.
On the day of your ruin, everyone on board sinks into the depths of the sea.

28Your cities by the sea tremble as your pilots cry out in terror.

29All the oarsmen abandon their ships; the sailors and pilots stand on the shore.

30They cry aloud over you and weep bitterly.
They throw dust on their heads and roll in ashes.

31They shave their heads in grief for you and dress themselves in burlap.
They weep for you with bitter anguish and deep mourning.

32As they wail and mourn over you, they sing this sad funeral song:
‘Was there ever such a city as Tyre, now silent at the bottom of the sea?

33The merchandise you traded satisfied the desires of many nations.
Kings at the ends of the earth were enriched by your trade.

34Now you are a wrecked ship, broken at the bottom of the sea.
All your merchandise and crew have gone down with you.

35All who live along the coastlands are appalled at your terrible fate.

Their kings are filled with horror and look on with twisted faces.

36The merchants among the nations shake their heads at the sight of you,* for you have come to a horrible end and will exist no more.’”

Ezekiel 28

A MESSAGE FOR TYRE’S KING

1Then this message came to me from the LORD: 2“Son of man, give the prince of Tyre this message from the Sovereign LORD: “In your great pride you claim, ‘I am a god!

I sit on a divine throne in the heart of the sea.’
But you are only a man and not a god, though you boast that you are a god.

3You regard yourself as wiser than Daniel and think no secret is hidden from you.

4With your wisdom and understanding you have amassed great wealth— gold and silver for your treasuries.

5Yes, your wisdom has made you very rich, and your riches have made you very proud.

6“Therefore, this is what the Sovereign LORD says: Because you think you are as wise as a god, 7I will now bring against you a foreign army, the terror of the nations.

They will draw their swords against your marvelous wisdom and defile your splendor!

8They will bring you down to the pit, and you will die in the heart of the sea, pierced with many wounds.

9Will you then boast, ‘I am a god!’
to those who kill you?

To them you will be no god but merely a man!

10You will die like an outcast*
at the hands of foreigners.
I, the Sovereign LORD, have spoken!”

11Then this further message came to me from the LORD: 12“Son of man, sing this funeral song for the king of Tyre. Give him this message from the Sovereign LORD: “You were the model of perfection, full of wisdom and exquisite in beauty.

13You were in Eden, the garden of God.
Your clothing was adorned with every precious stone*— red carnelian, pale-green peridot, white moonstone, blue-green beryl, onyx, green jasper, blue lapis lazuli, turquoise, and emerald— all beautifully crafted for you and set in the finest gold.
They were given to you on the day you were created.

14I ordained and anointed you as the mighty angelic guardian.*
You had access to the holy mountain of God and walked among the stones of fire.

15“You were blameless in all you did from the day you were created until the day evil was found in you.

16Your rich commerce led you to violence, and you sinned.
So I banished you in disgrace from the mountain of God.
I expelled you, O mighty guardian, from your place among the stones of fire.

17Your heart was filled with pride because of all your beauty.
Your wisdom was corrupted by your love of splendor.
So I threw you to the ground and exposed you to the curious gaze of kings.

18You defiled your sanctuaries with your many sins and your dishonest trade.

So I brought fire out from within you, and it consumed you.
I reduced you to ashes on the ground in the sight of all who were watching.

19All who knew you are appalled at your fate.
You have come to a terrible end, and you will exist no more.”

A MESSAGE FOR SIDON

20Then another message came to me from the LORD: 21“Son of man, turn and face the city of Sidon and prophesy against it. 22Give the people of Sidon this message from the Sovereign LORD: “I am your enemy, O Sidon, and I will reveal my glory by what I do to you.

When I bring judgment against you and reveal my holiness among you, everyone watching will know that I am the LORD.

23I will send a plague against you, and blood will be spilled in your streets.
The attack will come from every direction, and your people will lie slaughtered within your walls.
Then everyone will know that I am the LORD.

24No longer will Israel’s scornful neighbors prick and tear at her like briers and thorns.
For then they will know that I am the Sovereign LORD.

RESTORATION FOR ISRAEL

25“This is what the Sovereign LORD says: The people of Israel will again live in their own land, the land I gave my servant Jacob. For I will gather them from the distant lands where I have scattered them. I will reveal to the nations of the world my holiness among my people. 26They will live safely in Israel and build homes and plant vineyards. And when I punish the neighboring nations that treated them with contempt, they will know that I am the LORD their God.”

A MESSAGE FOR EGYPT

1On January 7,* during the tenth year of King Jehoiachin's captivity, this message came to me from the LORD: 2"Son of man, turn and face Egypt and prophesy against Pharaoh the king and all the people of Egypt. 3Give them this message from the Sovereign LORD: "I am your enemy, O Pharaoh, king of Egypt— you great monster, lurking in the streams of the Nile.

For you have said, 'The Nile River is mine; I made it for myself.'

4I will put hooks in your jaws and drag you out on the land with fish sticking to your scales.

5I will leave you and all your fish stranded in the wilderness to die.
You will lie unburied on the open ground, for I have given you as food to the wild animals and birds.

6All the people of Egypt will know that I am the LORD, for to Israel you were just a staff made of reeds.

7When Israel leaned on you, you splintered and broke and stabbed her in the armpit.
When she put her weight on you, you collapsed, and her legs gave way.

8"Therefore, this is what the Sovereign LORD says: I will bring an army against you, O Egypt, and destroy both people and animals.
9The land of Egypt will become a desolate wasteland, and the Egyptians will know that I am the LORD.

"Because you said, 'The Nile River is mine; I made it,' 10I am now the enemy of both you and your river. I will make the land of Egypt a totally desolate wasteland, from Migdol to Aswan, as far south as the border of Ethiopia.*11For forty years not a soul will pass that way, neither people nor animals. It will be completely uninhabited.
12I will make Egypt desolate, and it will be surrounded by other desolate nations. Its cities will be empty and desolate for forty years, surrounded by other ruined cities. I will scatter the Egyptians to distant lands.

13“But this is what the Sovereign LORD also says: At the end of the forty years I will bring the Egyptians home again from the nations to which they have been scattered. 14I will restore the prosperity of Egypt and bring its people back to the land of Pathros in southern Egypt from which they came. But Egypt will remain an unimportant, minor kingdom. 15It will be the lowliest of all the nations, never again great enough to rise above its neighbors.

16“Then Israel will no longer be tempted to trust in Egypt for help.
Egypt’s shattered condition will remind Israel of how sinful she was to trust Egypt in earlier days. Then Israel will know that I am the Sovereign LORD.”

NEBUCHADNEZZAR TO CONQUER EGYPT

17On April 26, the first day of the new year,* during the twenty-seventh year of King Jehoiachin’s captivity, this message came to me from the LORD: 18“Son of man, the army of King Nebuchadnezzar* of Babylon fought so hard against Tyre that the warriors’ heads were rubbed bare and their shoulders were raw and blistered. Yet Nebuchadnezzar and his army won no plunder to compensate them for all their work. 19Therefore, this is what the Sovereign LORD says: I will give the land of Egypt to Nebuchadnezzar, king of Babylon. He will carry off its wealth, plundering everything it has so he can pay his army. 20Yes, I have given him the land of Egypt as a reward for his work, says the Sovereign LORD, because he was working for me when he destroyed Tyre.

21“And the day will come when I will cause the ancient glory of Israel to revive,* and then, Ezekiel, your words will be respected.
Then they will know that I am the LORD.”

Ezekiel 30

A SAD DAY FOR EGYPT

1This is another message that came to me from the LORD: 2“Son of man, prophesy and give this message from the Sovereign LORD:
“Weep and wail for that day,

3for the terrible day is almost here— the day of the LORD!
It is a day of clouds and gloom, a day of despair for the nations.

4A sword will come against Egypt, and those who are slaughtered will cover the ground.
Its wealth will be carried away and its foundations destroyed.
The land of Ethiopia* will be ravished.

5Ethiopia, Libya, Lydia, all Arabia,* and all their other allies will be destroyed in that war.

6“For this is what the LORD says: All of Egypt’s allies will fall, and the pride of her power will end.
From Migdol to Aswan*
they will be slaughtered by the sword, says the Sovereign LORD.

7Egypt will be desolate, surrounded by desolate nations, and its cities will be in ruins, surrounded by other ruined cities.

8And the people of Egypt will know that I am the LORD when I have set Egypt on fire and destroyed all their allies.

9At that time I will send swift messengers in ships to terrify the complacent Ethiopians.
Great panic will come upon them on that day of Egypt’s certain destruction.
Watch for it!
It is sure to come!

10“For this is what the Sovereign LORD says: By the power of King Nebuchadnezzar* of Babylon, I will destroy the hordes of Egypt.

11He and his armies—the most ruthless of all— will be sent to demolish the land.
They will make war against Egypt until slaughtered Egyptians cover the ground.

12I will dry up the Nile River and sell the land to wicked men.
I will destroy the land of Egypt and everything in it by the hands of foreigners.
I, the LORD, have spoken!

13"This is what the Sovereign LORD says: I will smash the idols* of Egypt and the images at Memphis.*
There will be no rulers left in Egypt; terror will sweep the land.

14I will destroy southern Egypt,* set fire to Zoan, and bring judgment against Thebes.*

15I will pour out my fury on Pelusium,* the strongest fortress of Egypt, and I will stamp out the hordes of Thebes.

16Yes, I will set fire to all Egypt!
Pelusium will be racked with pain; Thebes will be torn apart;
Memphis will live in constant terror.

17The young men of Heliopolis and Bubastis* will die in battle, and the women* will be taken away as slaves.

18When I come to break the proud strength of Egypt, it will be a dark day for Tahpanhes, too.
A dark cloud will cover Tahpanhes, and its daughters will be led away as captives.

19And so I will greatly punish Egypt, and they will know that I am the LORD."

THE BROKEN ARMS OF PHARAOH

20On April 29,* during the eleventh year of King Jehoiachin's captivity, this message came to me from the LORD: 21"Son of man, I have broken the arm of Pharaoh, the king of Egypt. His arm has not been put in a cast so that it may heal. Neither has it been bound up with a splint to make it strong enough to hold a sword. 22Therefore, this is what the Sovereign LORD says: I am the enemy of Pharaoh, the king of Egypt! I will break both of his arms—the good arm along with the broken one—and I will make his sword clatter to the ground. 23I will scatter the Egyptians to many lands throughout the world. 24I will strengthen the arms of Babylon's king and put my sword in his hand. But I will break the arms of Pharaoh, king of Egypt, and he will lie there mortally wounded, groaning in pain. 25I will strengthen the arms of the king of Babylon, while the arms of Pharaoh fall useless to his sides. And when I put my sword in the hand of Babylon's king and he brings it against the land of Egypt, Egypt will know that I am the LORD. 26I will scatter the Egyptians among the nations, dispersing them throughout the earth. Then they will know that I am the LORD."

Ezekiel 31

EGYPT COMPARED TO FALLEN ASSYRIA

1On June 21,* during the eleventh year of King Jehoiachin's captivity, this message came to me from the LORD: 2"Son of man, give this message to Pharaoh, king of Egypt, and all his hordes: "To whom would you compare your greatness?

3You are like mighty Assyria, which was once like a cedar of Lebanon, with beautiful branches that cast deep forest shade and with its top high among the clouds.

4Deep springs watered it and helped it to grow tall and luxuriant.
The water flowed around it like a river, streaming to all the trees nearby.

5This great tree towered high, higher than all the other trees around it.
It prospered and grew long thick branches because of all the water at its roots.

6The birds nested in its branches, and in its shade all the wild animals gave birth.
All the great nations of the world lived in its shadow.

7It was strong and beautiful, with wide-spreading branches, for its roots went deep into abundant water.

8No other cedar in the garden of God could rival it.
No cypress had branches to equal it; no plane tree had boughs to compare.
No tree in the garden of God came close to it in beauty.

9Because I made this tree so beautiful, and gave it such magnificent foliage, it was the envy of all the other trees of Eden, the garden of God.

10"Therefore, this is what the Sovereign LORD says: Because Egypt* became proud and arrogant, and because it set itself so high above the others, with its top reaching to the clouds, 11I will hand it over to a mighty nation that will destroy it as its wickedness deserves. I have already discarded it. 12A foreign army—the terror of the nations—has cut it down and left it fallen on the ground. Its branches are scattered across the mountains and valleys and ravines of the land. All those who lived in its shadow have gone away and left it lying there.

13"The birds roost on its fallen trunk, and the wild animals lie among its branches.

14Let the tree of no other nation proudly exult in its own prosperity, though it be higher than the clouds and it be watered from the depths.
For all are doomed to die, to go down to the depths of the earth.
They will land in the pit along with everyone else on earth.

15“This is what the Sovereign LORD says: When Assyria went down to the grave,* I made the deep springs mourn. I stopped its rivers and dried up its abundant water. I clothed Lebanon in black and caused the trees of the field to wilt. 16I made the nations shake with fear at the sound of its fall, for I sent it down to the grave with all the others who descend to the pit. And all the other proud trees of Eden, the most beautiful and the best of Lebanon, the ones whose roots went deep into the water, took comfort to find it there with them in the depths of the earth. 17Its allies, too, were all destroyed and had passed away. They had gone down to the grave—all those nations that had lived in its shade.

18“O Egypt, to which of the trees of Eden will you compare your strength and glory? You, too, will be brought down to the depths with all these other nations. You will lie there among the outcasts* who have died by the sword. This will be the fate of Pharaoh and all his hordes. I, the Sovereign LORD, have spoken!”

Ezekiel 32

A WARNING FOR PHARAOH

1On March 3,* during the twelfth year of King Jehoiachin’s captivity, this message came to me from the LORD: 2“Son of man, mourn for Pharaoh, king of Egypt, and give him this message: “You think of yourself as a strong young lion among the nations, but you are really just a sea monster, heaving around in your own rivers, stirring up mud with your feet.

3Therefore, this is what the Sovereign LORD says: I will send many people to catch you in my net and haul you out of the water.

4I will leave you stranded on the land to die.
All the birds of the heavens will land on you, and the wild animals of the whole earth will gorge themselves on you.

5I will scatter your flesh on the hills and fill the valleys with your bones.

6I will drench the earth with your gushing blood all the way to the mountains, filling the ravines to the brim.

7When I blot you out, I will veil the heavens and darken the stars.
I will cover the sun with a cloud, and the moon will not give you its light.

8I will darken the bright stars overhead and cover your land in darkness.
I, the Sovereign LORD, have spoken!

9“I will disturb many hearts when I bring news of your downfall to distant nations you have never seen. 10Yes, I will shock many lands, and their kings will be terrified at your fate. They will shudder in fear for their lives as I brandish my sword before them on the day of your fall. 11For this is what the Sovereign LORD says: “The sword of the king of Babylon will come against you.

12I will destroy your hordes with the swords of mighty warriors—the terror of the nations.
They will shatter the pride of Egypt, and all its hordes will be destroyed.

13I will destroy all your flocks and herds that graze beside the streams.
Never again will people or animals muddy those waters with their feet.

14Then I will let the waters of Egypt become calm again, and they will flow as smoothly as olive oil, says the Sovereign LORD.

15And when I destroy Egypt and strip you of everything you own and strike down all your people, then you will know that I am the LORD.

16Yes, this is the funeral song they will sing for Egypt.
Let all the nations mourn.

Let them mourn for Egypt and its hordes.
I, the Sovereign LORD, have spoken!”

EGYPT FALLS INTO THE PIT

17On March 17,* during the twelfth year, another message came to me from the LORD: 18“Son of man, weep for the hordes of Egypt and for the other mighty nations.* For I will send them down to the world below in company with those who descend to the pit. 19Say to them, ‘O Egypt, are you lovelier than the other nations?

No! So go down to the pit and lie there among the outcasts.*’

20The Egyptians will fall with the many who have died by the sword, for the sword is drawn against them. Egypt and its hordes will be dragged away to their judgment. 21Down in the grave* mighty leaders will mockingly welcome Egypt and its allies, saying, ‘They have come down; they lie among the outcasts, hordes slaughtered by the sword.’

22“Assyria lies there surrounded by the graves of its army, those who were slaughtered by the sword. 23Their graves are in the depths of the pit, and they are surrounded by their allies. They struck terror in the hearts of people everywhere, but now they have been slaughtered by the sword.

24“Elam lies there surrounded by the graves of all its hordes, those who were slaughtered by the sword. They struck terror in the hearts of people everywhere, but now they have descended as outcasts to the world below. Now they lie in the pit and share the shame of those who have gone before them. 25They have a resting place among the slaughtered, surrounded by the graves of all their hordes. Yes, they terrorized the nations while they lived, but now they lie in shame with others in the pit, all of them outcasts, slaughtered by the sword.

26“Meshech and Tubal are there, surrounded by the graves of all their hordes. They once struck terror in the hearts of people everywhere. But now they are outcasts, all slaughtered by the sword. 27They are not buried in honor like their fallen heroes, who went down to the grave* with their weapons—their shields covering their bodies* and their swords beneath their heads. Their guilt rests upon them because they brought terror to everyone while they were still alive.

28“You too, Egypt, will lie crushed and broken among the outcasts, all slaughtered by the sword.

29“Edom is there with its kings and princes. Mighty as they were, they also lie among those slaughtered by the sword, with the outcasts who have gone down to the pit.

30“All the princes of the north and the Sidonians are there with others who have died. Once a terror, they have been put to shame. They lie there as outcasts with others who were slaughtered by the sword. They share the shame of all who have descended to the pit.

31“When Pharaoh and his entire army arrive, he will take comfort that he is not alone in having his hordes killed, says the Sovereign LORD. 32Although I have caused his terror to fall upon all the living, Pharaoh and his hordes will lie there among the outcasts who were slaughtered by the sword. I, the Sovereign LORD, have spoken!”

Ezekiel 33

EZEKIEL AS ISRAEL'S WATCHMAN

1Once again a message came to me from the LORD: 2"Son of man, give your people this message: 'When I bring an army against a country, the people of that land choose one of their own to be a watchman. 3When the watchman sees the enemy coming, he sounds the alarm to warn the people. 4Then if those who hear the alarm refuse to take action, it is their own fault if they die. 5They heard the alarm but ignored it, so the responsibility is theirs. If they had listened to the warning, they could have saved their lives. 6But if the watchman sees the enemy coming and doesn't sound the alarm to warn the people, he is responsible for their captivity. They will die in their sins, but I will hold the watchman responsible for their deaths.'

7"Now, son of man, I am making you a watchman for the people of Israel. Therefore, listen to what I say and warn them for me. 8If I announce that some wicked people are sure to die and you fail to tell them to change their ways, then they will die in their sins, and I will hold you responsible for their deaths. 9But if you warn them to repent and they don't repent, they will die in their sins, but you will have saved yourself.

THE WATCHMAN'S MESSAGE

10"Son of man, give the people of Israel this message: You are saying, 'Our sins are heavy upon us; we are wasting away! How can we survive?' 11As surely as I live, says the Sovereign LORD, I take no pleasure in the death of wicked people. I only want them to turn from their wicked ways so they can live. Turn! Turn from your wickedness, O people of Israel! Why should you die?

12"Son of man, give your people this message: The righteous behavior of righteous people will not save them if they turn to sin, nor will the wicked behavior of wicked people destroy them if they repent and turn from their sins. 13When I tell righteous people that they will live, but then they sin, expecting their past righteousness to save them, then none of their righteous acts will be remembered.
I will destroy them for their sins. 14And suppose I tell some wicked people that they will surely die, but then they turn from their sins and do what is just and right. 15For instance, they might give back a debtor's security, return what they have stolen, and obey my life-giving laws, no longer doing what is evil. If they do this, then they will surely live and not die. 16None of their past sins will be brought up again, for they have done what is just and right, and they will surely live.

17"Your people are saying, 'The Lord isn't doing what's right,' but it is they who are not doing what's right. 18For again I say, when righteous people turn away from their righteous behavior and turn to evil, they will die. 19But if wicked people turn from their wickedness and do what is just and right, they will live. 20O people of Israel, you are saying, 'The Lord isn't doing what's right.' But I judge each of you according to your deeds."

EXPLANATION OF JERUSALEM'S FALL

21On January 8,* during the twelfth year of our captivity, a survivor from Jerusalem came to me and said, “The city has fallen!” 22The previous evening the LORD had taken hold of me and given me back my voice. So I was able to speak when this man arrived the next morning.

23Then this message came to me from the LORD: 24“Son of man, the scattered remnants of Israel living among the ruined cities keep saying, ‘Abraham was only one man, yet he gained possession of the entire land. We are many; surely the land has been given to us as a possession.’ 25So tell these people, ‘This is what the Sovereign LORD says: You eat meat with blood in it, you worship idols,* and you murder the innocent. Do you really think the land should be yours? 26Murderers! Idolaters! Adulterers! Should the land belong to you?’

27“Say to them, ‘This is what the Sovereign LORD says: As surely as I live, those living in the ruins will die by the sword. And I will send wild animals to eat those living in the open fields. Those hiding in the forts and caves will die of disease. 28I will completely destroy the land and demolish her pride. Her arrogant power will come to an end. The mountains of Israel will be so desolate that no one will even travel through them. 29When I have completely destroyed the land because of their detestable sins, then they will know that I am the LORD.’

30“Son of man, your people talk about you in their houses and whisper about you at the doors. They say to each other, ‘Come on, let’s go hear the prophet tell us what the LORD is saying!’ 31So my people come pretending to be sincere and sit before you. They listen to your words, but they have no intention of doing what you say. Their mouths are full of lustful words, and their hearts seek only after money. 32You are very entertaining to them, like someone who sings love songs with a beautiful voice or plays fine music on an instrument. They hear what you say, but they don’t act on it! 33But when all these terrible things happen to them—as they certainly will—then they will know a prophet has been among them.”

Ezekiel 34

THE SHEPHERDS OF ISRAEL

1Then this message came to me from the LORD: 2“Son of man, prophesy against the shepherds, the leaders of Israel. Give them this message from the Sovereign LORD: What sorrow awaits you shepherds who feed yourselves instead of your flocks. Shouldn’t shepherds feed their sheep? 3You drink the milk, wear the wool, and butcher the best animals, but you let your flocks starve. 4You have not taken care of the weak. You have not tended the sick or bound up the injured. You have not gone looking for those who have wandered away and are lost. Instead, you have ruled them with harshness and cruelty. 5So my sheep have been scattered without a shepherd, and they are easy prey for any wild animal. 6They have wandered through all the mountains and all the hills, across the face of the earth, yet no one has gone to search for them.

7“Therefore, you shepherds, hear the word of the LORD: 8As surely as I live, says the Sovereign LORD, you abandoned my flock and left them to be attacked by every wild animal. And though you were my shepherds, you didn’t search for my sheep when they were lost. You took care of yourselves and left the sheep to starve. 9Therefore, you shepherds, hear the word of the LORD. 10This is what the Sovereign LORD says: I now consider these shepherds my enemies, and I will hold them responsible for what has happened to my flock. I will take away their right to feed the flock, and I will stop them from feeding themselves. I will rescue my flock from their mouths; the sheep will no longer be their prey.

THE MESSIAH EZEKIEL 34:11-24

THE GOOD SHEPHERD

11“For this is what the Sovereign LORD says: I myself will search and find my sheep. 12I will be like a shepherd looking for his scattered flock. I will find my sheep and rescue them from all the places where they were scattered on that dark and cloudy day. 13I will bring them back home to their own land of Israel from among the peoples and nations. I will feed them on the mountains of Israel and by the rivers and in all the places where people live. 14Yes, I will give them good pastureland on the high hills of Israel. There they will lie down in pleasant places and feed in the lush pastures of the hills. 15I myself will tend my sheep and give them a place to lie down in peace, says the Sovereign LORD. 16I will search for my lost ones who strayed away, and I will bring them safely home again. I will bandage the injured and strengthen the weak. But I will destroy those who are fat and powerful. I will feed them, yes—feed them justice!

17“And as for you, my flock, this is what the Sovereign LORD says to his people: I will judge between one animal of the flock and another, separating the sheep from the goats. 18Isn’t it enough for you to keep the best of the pastures for yourselves? Must you also trample down the rest? Isn’t it enough for you to drink clear water for yourselves? Must you also muddy the rest with your feet? 19Why must my flock eat what you have trampled down and drink water you have fouled?

20“Therefore, this is what the Sovereign LORD says: I will surely judge between the fat sheep and the scrawny sheep. 21For you fat sheep pushed and butted and crowded my sick and hungry flock until you scattered them to distant lands. 22So I will rescue my flock, and they will no longer be abused. I will judge between one animal of the flock and another. 23And I will set over them one shepherd, my servant David. He will feed them and be a shepherd to them. 24And I, the LORD, will be their God, and my servant
David will be a prince among my people. I, the LORD, have spoken!

THE LORD’S COVENANT OF PEACE

25“I will make a covenant of peace with my people and drive away the dangerous animals from the land. Then they will be able to camp safely in the wildest places and sleep in the woods without fear. 26I will bless my people and their homes around my holy hill.
And in the proper season I will send the showers they need. There will be showers of blessing. 27The orchards and fields of my people will yield bumper crops, and everyone will live in safety. When I have broken their chains of slavery and rescued them from those who enslaved them, then they will know that I am the LORD.
28They will no longer be prey for other nations, and wild animals will no longer devour them. They will live in safety, and no one will frighten them.

29“And I will make their land famous for its crops, so my people will never again suffer from famines or the insults of foreign nations.
30In this way, they will know that I, the LORD their God, am with them. And they will know that they, the people of Israel, are my people, says the Sovereign LORD. 31You are my flock, the sheep of my pasture. You are my people, and I am your God. I, the Sovereign LORD, have spoken!”

Ezekiel 35

A MESSAGE FOR EDOM

1Again a message came to me from the LORD: 2“Son of man, turn and face Mount Seir, and prophesy against its people. 3Give them this message from the Sovereign LORD: “I am your enemy, O Mount Seir, and I will raise my fist against you to destroy you completely.

4I will demolish your cities and make you desolate.
Then you will know that I am the LORD.

5“Your eternal hatred for the people of Israel led you to butcher them when they were helpless, when I had already punished them for all their sins. 6As surely as I live, says the Sovereign LORD, since you show no distaste for blood, I will give you a bloodbath of your own. Your turn has come! 7I will make Mount Seir utterly desolate, killing off all who try to escape and any who return. 8I will fill your mountains with the dead. Your hills, your valleys, and your ravines will be filled with people slaughtered by the sword. 9I will make you desolate forever. Your cities will never be rebuilt. Then you will know that I am the LORD.

10“For you said, ‘The lands of Israel and Judah will be ours. We will take possession of them. What do we care that the LORD is there!’
11Therefore, as surely as I live, says the Sovereign LORD, I will pay back your angry deeds with my own. I will punish you for all your acts of anger, envy, and hatred. And I will make myself known to Israel* by what I do to you. 12Then you will know that I, the LORD, have heard every contemptuous word you spoke against the mountains of Israel. For you said, ‘They are desolate; they have been given to us as food to eat!’ 13In saying that, you boasted proudly against me, and I have heard it all!

14“This is what the Sovereign LORD says: The whole world will rejoice when I make you desolate. 15You rejoiced at the desolation of Israel’s territory. Now I will rejoice at yours! You will be wiped out, you people of Mount Seir and all who live in Edom! Then you will know that I am the LORD.

Ezekiel 36

RESTORATION FOR ISRAEL

1“Son of man, prophesy to Israel’s mountains. Give them this message: O mountains of Israel, hear the word of the LORD! 2This is what the Sovereign LORD says: Your enemies have taunted you, saying, ‘Aha! Now the ancient heights belong to us!’ 3Therefore, son of man, give the mountains of Israel this message from the Sovereign LORD: Your enemies have attacked you from all directions, making you the property of many nations and the object of much mocking and slander. 4Therefore, O mountains of Israel, hear the word of the Sovereign LORD. He speaks to the hills and mountains, ravines and valleys, and to ruined wastes and long-deserted cities that have been destroyed and mocked by the surrounding nations. 5This is what the Sovereign LORD says: My jealous anger burns against these nations, especially Edom, because they have shown utter contempt for me by gleefully taking my land for themselves as plunder.

6“Therefore, prophesy to the hills and mountains, the ravines and valleys of Israel. This is what the Sovereign LORD says: I am furious that you have suffered shame before the surrounding nations.
7Therefore, this is what the Sovereign LORD says: I have taken a solemn oath that those nations will soon have their own shame to endure.

8“But the mountains of Israel will produce heavy crops of fruit for my people—for they will be coming home again soon! 9See, I care about you, and I will pay attention to you. Your ground will be plowed and your crops planted. 10I will greatly increase the population of Israel, and the ruined cities will be rebuilt and filled with people. 11I will increase not only the people, but also your animals. O mountains of Israel, I will bring people to live on you once again. I will make you even more prosperous than you were before. Then you will know that I am the LORD. 12I will cause my people to walk on you once again, and you will be their territory.
You will never again rob them of their children.

13“This is what the Sovereign LORD says: The other nations taunt you, saying, ‘Israel is a land that devours its own people and robs them of their children!’ 14But you will never again devour your people or rob them of their children, says the Sovereign LORD. 15I will not let you hear those other nations insult you, and you will no longer be mocked by them. You will not be a land that causes its nation to fall, says the Sovereign LORD.”

16Then this further message came to me from the LORD: 17“Son of man, when the people of Israel were living in their own land, they defiled it by the evil way they lived. To me their conduct was as unclean as a woman’s menstrual cloth. 18They polluted the land with murder and the worship of idols,* so I poured out my fury on them. 19I scattered them to many lands to punish them for the evil way they had lived. 20But when they were scattered among the nations, they brought shame on my holy name. For the nations said, ‘These are the people of the LORD, but he couldn’t keep them safe in his own land!’ 21Then I was concerned for my holy name, on which my people brought shame among the nations.

22“Therefore, give the people of Israel this message from the Sovereign LORD: I am bringing you back, but not because you deserve it. I am doing it to protect my holy name, on which you brought shame while you were scattered among the nations. 23I will show how holy my great name is—the name on which you brought shame among the nations. And when I reveal my holiness through you before their very eyes, says the Sovereign LORD, then the nations will know that I am the LORD. 24For I will gather you up from all the nations and bring you home again to your land.

25“Then I will sprinkle clean water on you, and you will be clean.
Your filth will be washed away, and you will no longer worship idols. 26And I will give you a new heart, and I will put a new spirit in you. I will take out your stony, stubborn heart and give you a tender, responsive heart.*27And I will put my Spirit in you so that you will follow my decrees and be careful to obey my regulations.

28“And you will live in Israel, the land I gave your ancestors long ago. You will be my people, and I will be your God. 29I will cleanse you of your filthy behavior. I will give you good crops of grain, and I will send no more famines on the land. 30I will give you great harvests from your fruit trees and fields, and never again will the surrounding nations be able to scoff at your land for its famines.
31Then you will remember your past sins and despise yourselves for all the detestable things you did. 32But remember, says the Sovereign LORD, I am not doing this because you deserve it. O my people of Israel, you should be utterly ashamed of all you have done!

33“This is what the Sovereign LORD says: When I cleanse you from your sins, I will repopulate your cities, and the ruins will be rebuilt.
34The fields that used to lie empty and desolate in plain view of everyone will again be farmed. 35And when I bring you back, people will say, ‘This former wasteland is now like the Garden of Eden!
The abandoned and ruined cities now have strong walls and are filled with people!’ 36Then the surrounding nations that survive will know that I, the LORD, have rebuilt the ruins and replanted the wasteland. For I, the LORD, have spoken, and I will do what I say.

37“This is what the Sovereign LORD says: I am ready to hear Israel’s prayers and to increase their numbers like a flock. 38They will be as numerous as the sacred flocks that fill Jerusalem’s streets at the time of her festivals. The ruined cities will be crowded with people once more, and everyone will know that I am the LORD.”

Ezekiel 37

A VALLEY OF DRY BONES

1The LORD took hold of me, and I was carried away by the Spirit of the LORD to a valley filled with bones. 2He led me all around among the bones that covered the valley floor. They were scattered everywhere across the ground and were completely dried out. 3Then he asked me, “Son of man, can these bones become living people again?”

“O Sovereign LORD,” I replied, “you alone know the answer to that.”

4Then he said to me, “Speak a prophetic message to these bones and say, ‘Dry bones, listen to the word of the LORD! 5This is what the Sovereign LORD says: Look! I am going to put breath into you and make you live again! 6I will put flesh and muscles on you and cover you with skin. I will put breath into you, and you will come to life.
Then you will know that I am the LORD.’”

7So I spoke this message, just as he told me. Suddenly as I spoke, there was a rattling noise all across the valley. The bones of each body came together and attached themselves as complete skeletons. 8Then as I watched, muscles and flesh formed over the bones. Then skin formed to cover their bodies, but they still had no breath in them.

9Then he said to me, “Speak a prophetic message to the winds, son of man. Speak a prophetic message and say, ‘This is what the Sovereign LORD says: Come, O breath, from the four winds! Breathe into these dead bodies so they may live again.’”

10So I spoke the message as he commanded me, and breath came into their bodies. They all came to life and stood up on their feet—a great army.

11Then he said to me, “Son of man, these bones represent the people of Israel. They are saying, ‘We have become old, dry bones—all hope is gone. Our nation is finished.’ 12Therefore, prophesy to them and say, ‘This is what the Sovereign LORD says: O my people, I will open your graves of exile and cause you to rise again. Then I will bring you back to the land of Israel. 13When this happens, O my people, you will know that I am the LORD. 14I will put my Spirit in you, and you will live again and return home to your own land. Then you will know that I, the LORD, have spoken, and I have done what I said. Yes, the LORD has spoken!’”

REUNION OF ISRAEL AND JUDAH

15Again a message came to me from the LORD: 16“Son of man, take a piece of wood and carve on it these words: ‘This represents Judah and its allied tribes.’ Then take another piece and carve these words on it: ‘This represents Ephraim and the northern tribes of Israel.’*17Now hold them together in your hand as if they were one piece of wood. 18When your people ask you what your actions mean, 19say to them, ‘This is what the Sovereign LORD says: I will take Ephraim and the northern tribes and join them to Judah. I will make them one piece of wood in my hand.’

20“Then hold out the pieces of wood you have inscribed, so the people can see them. 21And give them this message from the Sovereign LORD: I will gather the people of Israel from among the nations. I will bring them home to their own land from the places where they have been scattered. 22I will unify them into one nation on the mountains of Israel. One king will rule them all; no longer will they be divided into two nations or into two kingdoms. 23They will never again pollute themselves with their idols* and vile images and rebellion, for I will save them from their sinful apostasy.* I will cleanse them. Then they will truly be my people, and I will be their God.

24“My servant David will be their king, and they will have only one shepherd. They will obey my regulations and be careful to keep my decrees. 25They will live in the land I gave my servant Jacob, the land where their ancestors lived. They and their children and their grandchildren after them will live there forever, generation after generation. And my servant David will be their prince forever. 26And I will make a covenant of peace with them, an everlasting covenant. I will give them their land and increase their numbers,* and I will put my Temple among them forever. 27I will make my home among them. I will be their God, and they will be my people. 28And when my Temple is among them forever, the nations will know that I am the LORD, who makes Israel holy.”

Ezekiel 38

A MESSAGE FOR GOG

1This is another message that came to me from the LORD: 2“Son of man, turn and face Gog of the land of Magog, the prince who rules over the nations of Meshech and Tubal, and prophesy against him.
3Give him this message from the Sovereign LORD: Gog, I am your enemy! 4I will turn you around and put hooks in your jaws to lead you out with your whole army—your horses and charioteers in full armor and a great horde armed with shields and swords. 5Persia, Ethiopia, and Libya* will join you, too, with all their weapons.
6Gomer and all its armies will also join you, along with the armies of Beth-togarmah from the distant north, and many others.

7“Get ready; be prepared! Keep all the armies around you mobilized, and take command of them. 8A long time from now you will be called into action. In the distant future you will swoop down on the land of Israel, which will be enjoying peace after recovering from war and after its people have returned from many lands to the mountains of Israel. 9You and all your allies—a vast and awesome army—will roll down on them like a storm and cover the land like a cloud.

10“This is what the Sovereign LORD says: At that time evil thoughts will come to your mind, and you will devise a wicked scheme.
11You will say, ‘Israel is an unprotected land filled with unwalled villages! I will march against her and destroy these people who live in such confidence! 12I will go to those formerly desolate cities that are now filled with people who have returned from exile in many nations. I will capture vast amounts of plunder, for the people are rich with livestock and other possessions now. They think the whole world revolves around them!’ 13But Sheba and Dedan and the merchants of Tarshish will ask, ‘Do you really think the armies you have gathered can rob them of silver and gold? Do you think you can drive away their livestock and seize their goods and carry off plunder?’

14“Therefore, son of man, prophesy against Gog. Give him this message from the Sovereign LORD: When my people are living in peace in their land, then you will rouse yourself.*15You will come from your homeland in the distant north with your vast cavalry and your mighty army, 16and you will attack my people Israel, covering their land like a cloud. At that time in the distant future, I will bring you against my land as everyone watches, and my holiness will be displayed by what happens to you, Gog. Then all the nations will know that I am the LORD.

17"This is what the Sovereign LORD asks: Are you the one I was talking about long ago, when I announced through Israel's prophets that in the future I would bring you against my people? 18But this is what the Sovereign LORD says: When Gog invades the land of Israel, my fury will boil over! 19In my jealousy and blazing anger, I promise a mighty shaking in the land of Israel on that day. 20All living things—the fish in the sea, the birds of the sky, the animals of the field, the small animals that scurry along the ground, and all the people on earth—will quake in terror at my presence. Mountains will be thrown down; cliffs will crumble; walls will fall to the earth. 21I will summon the sword against you on all the hills of Israel, says the Sovereign LORD. Your men will turn their swords against each other. 22I will punish you and your armies with disease and bloodshed; I will send torrential rain, hailstones, fire, and burning sulfur! 23In this way, I will show my greatness and holiness, and I will make myself known to all the nations of the world. Then they will know that I am the LORD.

Ezekiel 39

THE SLAUGHTER OF GOG'S HORDES

1"Son of man, prophesy against Gog. Give him this message from the Sovereign LORD: I am your enemy, O Gog, ruler of the nations of Meshech and Tubal. 2I will turn you around and drive you toward the mountains of Israel, bringing you from the distant north. 3I will knock the bow from your left hand and the arrows from your right hand, and I will leave you helpless. 4You and your army and your allies will all die on the mountains. I will feed you to the vultures and wild animals. 5You will fall in the open fields, for I have spoken, says the Sovereign LORD. 6And I will rain down fire on Magog and on all your allies who live safely on the coasts. Then they will know that I am the LORD.

7“In this way, I will make known my holy name among my people of Israel. I will not let anyone bring shame on it. And the nations, too, will know that I am the LORD, the Holy One of Israel. 8That day of judgment will come, says the Sovereign LORD. Everything will happen just as I have declared it.

9“Then the people in the towns of Israel will go out and pick up your small and large shields, bows and arrows, javelins and spears, and they will use them for fuel. There will be enough to last them seven years! 10They won’t need to cut wood from the fields or forests, for these weapons will give them all the fuel they need. They will plunder those who planned to plunder them, and they will rob those who planned to rob them, says the Sovereign LORD.

11“And I will make a vast graveyard for Gog and his hordes in the Valley of the Travelers, east of the Dead Sea.* It will block the way of those who travel there, and they will change the name of the place to the Valley of Gog’s Hordes. 12It will take seven months for the people of Israel to bury the bodies and cleanse the land. 13Everyone in Israel will help, for it will be a glorious victory for Israel when I demonstrate my glory on that day, says the Sovereign LORD.

14“After seven months, teams of men will be appointed to search the land for skeletons to bury, so the land will be made clean again. 15Whenever bones are found, a marker will be set up so the burial crews will take them to be buried in the Valley of Gog’s Hordes. 16(There will be a town there named Hamonah, which means ‘horde.’) And so the land will finally be cleansed.

17“And now, son of man, this is what the Sovereign LORD says: Call all the birds and wild animals. Say to them: Gather together for my great sacrificial feast. Come from far and near to the mountains of Israel, and there eat flesh and drink blood! 18Eat the flesh of mighty men and drink the blood of princes as though they were rams, lambs, goats, and bulls—all fattened animals from Bashan! 19Gorge yourselves with flesh until you are glutted; drink blood until you are drunk. This is the sacrificial feast I have prepared for you. 20Feast at my banquet table—feast on horses and charioteers, on mighty men and all kinds of valiant warriors, says the Sovereign LORD.

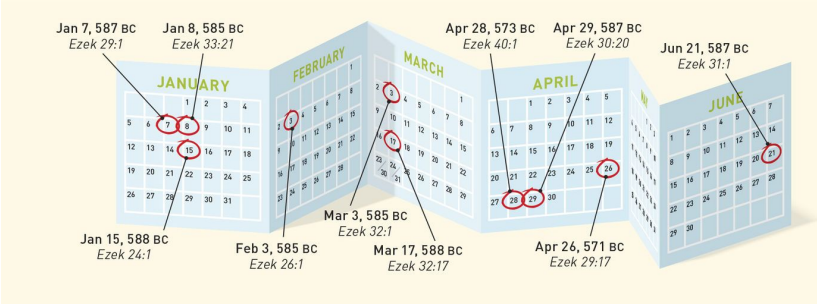
21"In this way, I will demonstrate my glory to the nations. Everyone will see the punishment I have inflicted on them and the power of my fist when I strike. 22And from that time on the people of Israel will know that I am the LORD their God. 23The nations will then know why Israel was sent away to exile—it was punishment for sin, for they were unfaithful to their God. Therefore, I turned away from them and let their enemies destroy them. 24I turned my face away and punished them because of their defilement and their sins.

RESTORATION FOR GOD'S PEOPLE

25"So now, this is what the Sovereign LORD says: I will end the captivity of my people*; I will have mercy on all Israel, for I jealously guard my holy reputation! 26They will accept responsibility for* their past shame and unfaithfulness after they come home to live in peace in their own land, with no one to bother them. 27When I bring them home from the lands of their enemies, I will display my holiness among them for all the nations to see. 28Then my people will know that I am the LORD their God, because I sent them away to exile and brought them home again. I will leave none of my people behind. 29And I will never again turn my face from them, for I will pour out my Spirit upon the people of Israel. I, the Sovereign LORD, have spoken!"

THE FUTURE EZEKIEL 40:1-49



DATING IN EZEKIEL

Ezekiel 40

THE NEW TEMPLE AREA

1On April 28,* during the twenty-fifth year of our captivity—fourteen years after the fall of Jerusalem—the LORD took hold of me. 2In a vision from God he took me to the land of Israel and set me down on a very high mountain. From there I could see toward the south what appeared to be a city. 3As he brought me nearer, I saw a man whose face shone like bronze standing beside a gateway entrance. He was holding in his hand a linen measuring cord and a measuring rod.

4He said to me, “Son of man, watch and listen. Pay close attention to everything I show you. You have been brought here so I can show you many things. Then you will return to the people of Israel and tell them everything you have seen."

THE EAST GATEWAY

5I could see a wall completely surrounding the Temple area. The man took a measuring rod that was 10 1/2 feet* long and measured the wall, and the wall was 10 1/2 feet* thick and 10 1/2 feet high.

6Then he went over to the eastern gateway. He climbed the steps and measured the threshold of the gateway; it was 10 1/2 feet front to back.7There were guard alcoves on each side built into the gateway passage. Each of these alcoves was 10 1/2 feet square, with a distance between them of 8 3/4 feet along the passage wall. The gateway's inner threshold, which led to the entry room at the inner end of the gateway passage, was 10 1/2 feet front to back. 8He also measured the entry room of the gateway.9It was 14 feet across, with supporting columns 3 1/2 feet* thick. This entry room was at the inner end of the gateway structure, facing toward the Temple.

10There were three guard alcoves on each side of the gateway passage. Each had the same measurements, and the dividing walls separating them were also identical. 11The man measured the gateway entrance, which was 17 1/2 feet* wide at the opening and 22 3/4 feet* wide in the gateway passage. 12In front of each of the guard alcoves was a 21-inch* curb. The alcoves themselves were 10 1/2 feet* on each side.

13Then he measured the entire width of the gateway, measuring the distance between the back walls of facing guard alcoves; this distance was 43 3/4 feet.*14He measured the dividing walls all along the inside of the gateway up to the entry room of the gateway; this distance was 105 feet.15The full length of the gateway passage was 87 1/2 feet from one end to the other. 16There were recessed windows that narrowed inward through the walls of the guard alcoves and their dividing walls. There were also windows in the entry room. The surfaces of the dividing walls were decorated with carved palm trees.

THE OUTER COURTYARD

17Then the man brought me through the gateway into the outer courtyard of the Temple. A stone pavement ran along the walls of the courtyard, and thirty rooms were built against the walls, opening onto the pavement. 18This pavement flanked the gates and extended out from the walls into the courtyard the same distance as the gateway entrance. This was the lower pavement. 19Then the man measured across the Temple's outer courtyard between the outer and inner gateways; the distance was 175 feet.*

THE NORTH GATEWAY

20The man measured the gateway on the north just like the one on the east. 21Here, too, there were three guard alcoves on each side, with dividing walls and an entry room. All the measurements matched those of the east gateway. The gateway passage was 87 1/2 feet long and 43 3/4 feet wide between the back walls of facing guard alcoves. 22The windows, the entry room, and the palm tree decorations were identical to those in the east gateway. There were seven steps leading up to the gateway entrance, and the entry room was at the inner end of the gateway passage. 23Here on the north side, just as on the east, there was another gateway leading to the Temple's inner courtyard directly opposite this outer gateway. The distance between the two gateways was 175 feet.

THE SOUTH GATEWAY

24Then the man took me around to the south gateway and measured its various parts, and they were exactly the same as in the others. 25It had windows along the walls as the others did, and there was an entry room where the gateway passage opened into the outer courtyard. And like the others, the gateway passage was 87 1/2 feet long and 43 3/4 feet wide between the back walls of facing guard alcoves. 26This gateway also had a stairway of seven steps leading up to it, and an entry room at the inner end, and palm tree decorations along the dividing walls. 27And here again, directly opposite the outer gateway, was another gateway that led into the inner courtyard. The distance between the two gateways was 175 feet.

GATEWAYS TO THE INNER COURTYARD

28Then the man took me to the south gateway leading into the inner courtyard. He measured it, and it had the same measurements as the other gateways. 29Its guard alcoves, dividing walls, and entry room were the same size as those in the others. It also had windows along its walls and in the entry room. And like the others, the gateway passage was 87 1/2 feet long and 43 3/4 feet wide. 30(The entry rooms of the gateways leading into the inner courtyard were 14 feet* across and 43 3/4 feet wide.) 31The entry room to the south gateway faced into the outer courtyard. It had palm tree decorations on its columns, and there were eight steps leading to its entrance.

32Then he took me to the east gateway leading to the inner courtyard. He measured it, and it had the same measurements as the other gateways. 33Its guard alcoves, dividing walls, and entry room were the same size as those of the others, and there were windows along the walls and in the entry room. The gateway passage measured 87 1/2 feet long and 43 3/4 feet wide. 34Its entry room faced into the outer courtyard. It had palm tree decorations on its columns, and there were eight steps leading to its entrance.

35Then he took me around to the north gateway leading to the inner courtyard. He measured it, and it had the same measurements as the other gateways. 36The guard alcoves, dividing walls, and entry room of this gateway had the same measurements as in the others and the same window arrangements. The gateway passage measured 87 1/2 feet long and 43 3/4 feet wide. 37Its entry room* faced into the outer courtyard, and it had palm tree decorations on the columns. There were eight steps leading to its entrance.

ROOMS FOR PREPARING SACRIFICES

38A door led from the entry room of one of the inner gateways into a side room, where the meat for sacrifices was washed. 39On each side of this entry room were two tables, where the sacrificial animals were slaughtered for the burnt offerings, sin offerings, and guilt offerings. 40Outside the entry room, on each side of the stairs going up to the north entrance, were two more tables. 41So there were eight tables in all—four inside and four outside—where the sacrifices were cut up and prepared. 42There were also four tables of finished stone for preparation of the burnt offerings, each 31 1/2 inches square and 21 inches high.* On these tables were placed the butchering knives and other implements for slaughtering the sacrificial animals. 43There were hooks, each 3 inches* long, fastened all around the foyer walls. The sacrificial meat was laid on the tables.

ROOMS FOR THE PRIESTS

44Inside the inner courtyard were two rooms,* one beside the north gateway, facing south, and the other beside the south* gateway, facing north. 45And the man said to me, “The room beside the north inner gate is for the priests who supervise the Temple maintenance. 46The room beside the south inner gate is for the priests in charge of the altar—the descendants of Zadok—for they alone of all the Levites may approach the LORD to minister to him.”

THE INNER COURTYARD AND TEMPLE

47Then the man measured the inner courtyard, and it was a square, 175 feet wide and 175 feet across. The altar stood in the courtyard in front of the Temple. 48Then he brought me to the entry room of the Temple. He measured the walls on either side of the opening to the entry room, and they were 8 3/4 feet thick. The entrance itself was 24 1/2 feet wide, and the walls on each side of the entrance were an additional 5 1/4 feet long.* 49 The entry room was 35 feet* wide and 21 feet* deep. There were ten steps* leading up to it, with a column on each side.

Ezekiel 41

1 After that, the man brought me into the sanctuary of the Temple. He measured the walls on either side of its doorway,* and they were 10 1/2 feet* thick. 2 The doorway was 17 1/2 feet* wide, and the walls on each side of it were 8 3/4 feet* long. The sanctuary itself was 70 feet long and 35 feet wide.*

3 Then he went beyond the sanctuary into the inner room. He measured the walls on either side of its entrance, and they were 3 1/2 feet* thick. The entrance was 10 1/2 feet wide, and the walls on each side of the entrance were 12 1/4 feet* long. 4 The inner room of the sanctuary was 35 feet* long and 35 feet wide. "This," he told me, "is the Most Holy Place."

5 Then he measured the wall of the Temple, and it was 10 1/2 feet thick. There was a row of rooms along the outside wall; each room was 7 feet* wide. 6 These side rooms were built in three levels, one above the other, with thirty rooms on each level. The supports for these side rooms rested on exterior ledges on the Temple wall; they did not extend into the wall. 7 Each level was wider than the one below it, corresponding to the narrowing of the Temple wall as it rose higher. A stairway led up from the bottom level through the middle level to the top level.

8 I saw that the Temple was built on a terrace, which provided a foundation for the side rooms. This terrace was 10 1/2 feet* high. 9 The outer wall of the Temple's side rooms was 8 3/4 feet thick. This left an open area between these side rooms 10and the row of rooms along the outer wall of the inner courtyard. This open area was 35 feet wide, and it went all the way around the Temple. 11Two doors opened from the side rooms into the terrace yard, which was 8 3/4 feet wide. One door faced north and the other south.

12A large building stood on the west, facing the Temple courtyard.
It was 122 1/2 feet wide and 157 1/2 feet long, and its walls were 8 3/4 feet* thick. 13Then the man measured the Temple, and it was 175 feet* long. The courtyard around the building, including its walls, was an additional 175 feet in length. 14The inner courtyard to the east of the Temple was also 175 feet wide. 15The building to the west, including its two walls, was also 175 feet wide.

The sanctuary, the inner room, and the entry room of the Temple 16were all paneled with wood, as were the frames of the recessed windows. The inner walls of the Temple were paneled with wood above and below the windows. 17The space above the door leading into the inner room, and its walls inside and out, were also paneled.
18All the walls were decorated with carvings of cherubim, each with two faces, and there was a carving of a palm tree between each of the cherubim. 19One face—that of a man—looked toward the palm tree on one side. The other face—that of a young lion—looked toward the palm tree on the other side. The figures were carved all along the inside of the Temple, 20from the floor to the top of the walls, including the outer wall of the sanctuary.

21There were square columns at the entrance to the sanctuary, and the ones at the entrance of the Most Holy Place were similar.
22There was an altar made of wood, 5 1/4 feet high and 3 1/2 feet across.* Its corners, base, and sides were all made of wood. “This,” the man told me, “is the table that stands in the LORD’s presence.”

23Both the sanctuary and the Most Holy Place had double doorways, 24each with two swinging doors. 25The doors leading into the sanctuary were decorated with carved cherubim and palm trees, just as on the walls. And there was a wooden roof at the front of the entry room to the Temple. 26On both sides of the entry room were recessed windows decorated with carved palm trees. The side rooms along the outside wall also had roofs.

Ezekiel 42

ROOMS FOR THE PRIESTS

1Then the man led me out of the Temple courtyard by way of the north gateway. We entered the outer courtyard and came to a group of rooms against the north wall of the inner courtyard. 2This structure, whose entrance opened toward the north, was 175 feet* long and 87*1/2* feet* wide. 3One block of rooms overlooked the 35-foot* width of the inner courtyard. Another block of rooms looked out onto the pavement of the outer courtyard. The two blocks were built three levels high and stood across from each other. 4Between the two blocks of rooms ran a walkway 17*1/2* feet* wide. It extended the entire 175 feet of the complex,* and all the doors faced north. 5Each of the two upper levels of rooms was narrower than the one beneath it because the upper levels had to allow space for walkways in front of them. 6Since there were three levels and they did not have supporting columns as in the courtyards, each of the upper levels was set back from the level beneath it. 7There was an outer wall that separated the rooms from the outer courtyard; it was 87*1/2* feet long. 8This wall added length to the outer block of rooms, which extended for only 87*1/2* feet, while the inner block—the rooms toward the Temple—extended for 175 feet. 9There was an eastern entrance from the outer courtyard to these rooms.

10On the south* side of the Temple there were two blocks of rooms just south of the inner courtyard between the Temple and the outer courtyard. These rooms were arranged just like the rooms on the north. 11There was a walkway between the two blocks of rooms just like the complex on the north side of the Temple. This complex of rooms was the same length and width as the other one, and it had the same entrances and doors. The dimensions of each were identical. 12So there was an entrance in the wall facing the doors of the inner block of rooms, and another on the east at the end of the interior walkway.

13Then the man told me, “These rooms that overlook the Temple from the north and south are holy. Here the priests who offer sacrifices to the LORD will eat the most holy offerings. And because these rooms are holy, they will be used to store the sacred offerings —the grain offerings, sin offerings, and guilt offerings. 14When the priests leave the sanctuary, they must not go directly to the outer courtyard. They must first take off the clothes they wore while ministering, because these clothes are holy. They must put on other clothes before entering the parts of the building complex open to the public.”

15When the man had finished measuring the inside of the Temple area, he led me out through the east gateway to measure the entire perimeter. 16He measured the east side with his measuring rod, and it was 875 feet long.*17Then he measured the north side, and it was also 875 feet. 18The south side was also 875 feet, 19and the west side was also 875 feet. 20So the area was 875 feet on each side with a wall all around it to separate what was holy from what was common.

Ezekiel 43

THE LORD'S GLORY RETURNS

1After this, the man brought me back around to the east gateway.
2Suddenly, the glory of the God of Israel appeared from the east.
The sound of his coming was like the roar of rushing waters, and the whole landscape shone with his glory. 3This vision was just like the others I had seen, first by the Kebar River and then when he came* to destroy Jerusalem. I fell face down on the ground. 4And the glory of the LORD came into the Temple through the east gateway.

5Then the Spirit took me up and brought me into the inner courtyard, and the glory of the LORD filled the Temple. 6And I heard someone speaking to me from within the Temple, while the man who had been measuring stood beside me. 7The LORD said to me, "Son of man, this is the place of my throne and the place where I will rest my feet. I will live here forever among the people of Israel. They and their kings will not defile my holy name any longer by their adulterous worship of other gods or by honoring the relics of their kings who have died.*8They put their idol altars right next to mine with only a wall between them and me. They defiled my holy name by such detestable sin, so I consumed them in my anger.
9Now let them stop worshiping other gods and honoring the relics of their kings, and I will live among them forever.

10"Son of man, describe to the people of Israel the Temple I have shown you, so they will be ashamed of all their sins. Let them study its plan, 11and they will be ashamed* of what they have done.
Describe to them all the specifications of the Temple—including its entrances and exits—and everything else about it. Tell them about its decrees and laws. Write down all these specifications and decrees as they watch so they will be sure to remember and follow them. 12And this is the basic law of the Temple: absolute holiness!
The entire top of the mountain where the Temple is built is holy.
Yes, this is the basic law of the Temple.

THE ALTAR

13“These are the measurements of the altar*: There is a gutter all around the altar 21 inches deep and 21 inches wide,* with a curb 9 inches* wide around its edge. And this is the height* of the altar: 14From the gutter the altar rises 3 1/2 feet* to a lower ledge that surrounds the altar and is 21 inches* wide. From the lower ledge the altar rises 7 feet* to the upper ledge that is also 21 inches wide.
15The top of the altar, the hearth, rises another 7 feet higher, with a horn rising up from each of the four corners. 16The top of the altar is square, measuring 21 feet by 21 feet.17The upper ledge also forms a square, measuring 24 1/2 feet by 24 1/2 feet, with a 21-inch gutter and a 10 1/2-inch curb* all around the edge. There are steps going up the east side of the altar.”

18Then he said to me, “Son of man, this is what the Sovereign LORD says: These will be the regulations for the burning of offerings and the sprinkling of blood when the altar is built. 19At that time, the Levitical priests of the family of Zadok, who minister before me, are to be given a young bull for a sin offering, says the Sovereign LORD. 20You will take some of its blood and smear it on the four horns of the altar, the four corners of the upper ledge, and the curb that runs around that ledge. This will cleanse and make atonement for the altar. 21Then take the young bull for the sin offering and burn it at the appointed place outside the Temple area.

22“On the second day, sacrifice as a sin offering a young male goat that has no physical defects. Then cleanse and make atonement for the altar again, just as you did with the young bull. 23When you have finished the cleansing ceremony, offer another young bull that has no defects and a perfect ram from the flock. 24You are to present them to the LORD, and the priests are to sprinkle salt on them and offer them as a burnt offering to the LORD.

25“Every day for seven days a male goat, a young bull, and a ram from the flock will be sacrificed as a sin offering. None of these animals may have physical defects of any kind. 26Do this each day for seven days to cleanse and make atonement for the altar, thus setting it apart for holy use. 27On the eighth day, and on each day afterward, the priests will sacrifice on the altar the burnt offerings and peace offerings of the people. Then I will accept you. I, the Sovereign LORD, have spoken!”

Ezekiel 44

THE PRINCE, LEVITES, AND PRIESTS

1Then the man brought me back to the east gateway in the outer wall of the Temple area, but it was closed. 2And the LORD said to me, “This gate must remain closed; it will never again be opened. No one will ever open it and pass through, for the LORD, the God of Israel, has entered here. Therefore, it must always remain shut. 3Only the prince himself may sit inside this gateway to feast in the LORD’s presence. But he may come and go only through the entry room of the gateway.”

4Then the man brought me through the north gateway to the front of the Temple. I looked and saw that the glory of the LORD filled the Temple of the LORD, and I fell face down on the ground.

5And the LORD said to me, “Son of man, take careful notice. Use your eyes and ears, and listen to everything I tell you about the regulations concerning the LORD’s Temple. Take careful note of the procedures for using the Temple’s entrances and exits. 6And give these rebels, the people of Israel, this message from the Sovereign LORD: O people of Israel, enough of your detestable sins! 7You have brought uncircumcised foreigners into my sanctuary—people who have no heart for God. In this way, you defiled my Temple even as you offered me my food, the fat and blood of sacrifices. In addition to all your other detestable sins, you have broken my covenant. 8Instead of safeguarding my sacred rituals, you have hired foreigners to take charge of my sanctuary.

9"So this is what the Sovereign LORD says: No foreigners, including those who live among the people of Israel, will enter my sanctuary if they have not been circumcised and have not surrendered themselves to the LORD. 10And the men of the tribe of Levi who abandoned me when Israel strayed away from me to worship idols* must bear the consequences of their unfaithfulness. 11They may still be Temple guards and gatekeepers, and they may slaughter the animals brought for burnt offerings and be present to help the people. 12But they encouraged my people to worship idols, causing Israel to fall into deep sin. So I have taken a solemn oath that they must bear the consequences for their sins, says the Sovereign LORD. 13They may not approach me to minister as priests. They may not touch any of my holy things or the holy offerings, for they must bear the shame of all the detestable sins they have committed. 14They are to serve as the Temple caretakers, taking charge of the maintenance work and performing general duties.

15"However, the Levitical priests of the family of Zadok continued to minister faithfully in the Temple when Israel abandoned me for idols. These men will serve as my ministers. They will stand in my presence and offer the fat and blood of the sacrifices, says the Sovereign LORD. 16They alone will enter my sanctuary and approach my table to serve me. They will fulfill all my requirements.

17"When they enter the gateway to the inner courtyard, they must wear only linen clothing. They must wear no wool while on duty in the inner courtyard or in the Temple itself. 18They must wear linen turbans and linen undergarments. They must not wear anything that would cause them to perspire. 19When they return to the outer courtyard where the people are, they must take off the clothes they wear while ministering to me. They must leave them in the sacred rooms and put on other clothes so they do not endanger anyone by transmitting holiness to them through this clothing.

20“They must neither shave their heads nor let their hair grow too long. Instead, they must trim it regularly. 21The priests must not drink wine before entering the inner courtyard. 22They may choose their wives only from among the virgins of Israel or the widows of the priests. They may not marry other widows or divorced women. 23They will teach my people the difference between what is holy and what is common, what is ceremonially clean and unclean.

24“They will serve as judges to resolve any disagreements among my people. Their decisions must be based on my regulations. And the priests themselves must obey my instructions and decrees at all the sacred festivals, and see to it that the Sabbaths are set apart as holy days.

25“A priest must not defile himself by being in the presence of a dead person unless it is his father, mother, child, brother, or unmarried sister. In such cases it is permitted. 26Even then, he can return to his Temple duties only after being ceremonially cleansed and then waiting for seven days. 27The first day he returns to work and enters the inner courtyard and the sanctuary, he must offer a sin offering for himself, says the Sovereign LORD.

28“The priests will not have any property or possession of land, for I alone am their special possession. 29Their food will come from the gifts and sacrifices brought to the Temple by the people—the grain offerings, the sin offerings, and the guilt offerings. Whatever anyone sets apart* for the LORD will belong to the priests. 30The first of the ripe fruits and all the gifts brought to the LORD will go to the priests. The first batch of dough must also be given to the priests so the LORD will bless your homes. 31The priests may not eat meat from any bird or animal that dies a natural death or that dies after being attacked by another animal.

DIVISION OF THE LAND

1“When you divide the land among the tribes of Israel, you must set aside a section for the LORD as his holy portion. This piece of land will be 8 1/3 miles long and 6 2/3 miles wide.* The entire area will be holy. 2A section of this land, measuring 875 feet by 875 feet,* will be set aside for the Temple. An additional strip of land 87 1/2 feet* wide is to be left empty all around it. 3Within the larger sacred area, measure out a portion of land 8 1/3 miles long and 3 1/3 miles wide.*
Within it the sanctuary of the Most Holy Place will be located. 4This area will be holy, set aside for the priests who minister to the LORD in the sanctuary. They will use it for their homes, and my Temple will be located within it. 5The strip of sacred land next to it, also 8 1/3 miles long and 3 1/3 miles wide, will be a living area for the Levites who work at the Temple. It will be their possession and a place for their towns.*

6“Adjacent to the larger sacred area will be a section of land 8 1/3 miles long and 1 2/3 miles wide.* This will be set aside for a city where anyone in Israel can live.

7“Two special sections of land will be set apart for the prince. One section will share a border with the east side of the sacred lands and city, and the second section will share a border on the west side. Then the far eastern and western borders of the prince’s lands will line up with the eastern and western boundaries of the tribal areas. 8These sections of land will be the prince’s allotment. Then my princes will no longer oppress and rob my people; they will assign the rest of the land to the people, giving an allotment to each tribe.

RULES FOR THE PRINCES

9“For this is what the Sovereign LORD says: Enough, you princes of Israel! Stop your violence and oppression and do what is just and right. Quit robbing and cheating my people out of their land. Stop expelling them from their homes, says the Sovereign LORD. 10Use only honest weights and scales and honest measures, both dry and liquid.11The homer will be your standard unit for measuring volume. The ephah and the bath* will each measure one-tenth of a homer. 12The standard unit for weight will be the silver shekel.* One shekel will consist of twenty gerahs, and sixty shekels will be equal to one mina.*

SPECIAL OFFERINGS AND CELEBRATIONS

13"You must give this tax to the prince: one bushel of wheat or barley for every 60* you harvest, 14one percent of your olive oil,15and one sheep or goat for every 200 in your flocks in Israel. These will be the grain offerings, burnt offerings, and peace offerings that will make atonement for the people who bring them, says the Sovereign LORD. 16All the people of Israel must join in bringing these offerings to the prince. 17The prince will be required to provide offerings that are given at the religious festivals, the new moon celebrations, the Sabbath days, and all other similar occasions. He will provide the sin offerings, burnt offerings, grain offerings, liquid offerings, and peace offerings to purify the people of Israel, making them right with the LORD.

18"This is what the Sovereign LORD says: In early spring, on the first day of each new year,* sacrifice a young bull with no defects to purify the Temple. 19The priest will take blood from this sin offering and put it on the doorposts of the Temple, the four corners of the upper ledge of the altar, and the gateposts at the entrance to the inner courtyard. 20Do this also on the seventh day of the new year for anyone who has sinned through error or ignorance. In this way, you will purify* the Temple.

21"On the fourteenth day of the first month,* you must celebrate the Passover. This festival will last for seven days. The bread you eat during that time must be made without yeast. 22On the day of Passover the prince will provide a young bull as a sin offering for himself and the people of Israel. 23On each of the seven days of the feast he will prepare a burnt offering to the LORD, consisting of seven young bulls and seven rams without defects. A male goat will also be given each day for a sin offering. 24The prince will provide a basket of flour as a grain offering and a gallon of olive oil* with each young bull and ram.

25"During the seven days of the Festival of Shelters, which occurs every year in early autumn,* the prince will provide these same sacrifices for the sin offering, the burnt offering, and the grain offering, along with the required olive oil.

Ezekiel 46

1"This is what the Sovereign LORD says: The east gateway of the inner courtyard will be closed during the six workdays each week, but it will be open on Sabbath days and the days of new moon celebrations. 2The prince will enter the entry room of the gateway from the outside. Then he will stand by the gatepost while the priest offers his burnt offering and peace offering. He will bow down in worship inside the gateway passage and then go back out the way he came. The gateway will not be closed until evening. 3The common people will bow down and worship the LORD in front of this gateway on Sabbath days and the days of new moon celebrations.

4"Each Sabbath day the prince will present to the LORD a burnt offering of six lambs and one ram, all with no defects. 5He will present a grain offering of a basket of choice flour to go with the ram and whatever amount of flour he chooses to go with each lamb, and he is to offer one gallon of olive oil* for each basket of flour. 6At the new moon celebrations, he will bring one young bull, six lambs, and one ram, all with no defects. 7With the young bull he must bring a basket of choice flour for a grain offering. With the ram he must bring another basket of flour. And with each lamb he is to bring whatever amount of flour he chooses to give. With each basket of flour he must offer one gallon of olive oil.

8“The prince must enter the gateway through the entry room, and he must leave the same way. 9But when the people come in through the north gateway to worship the LORD during the religious festivals, they must leave by the south gateway. And those who entered through the south gateway must leave by the north gateway. They must never leave by the same gateway they came in, but must always use the opposite gateway. 10The prince will enter and leave with the people on these occasions.

11“So at the special feasts and sacred festivals, the grain offering will be a basket of choice flour with each young bull, another basket of flour with each ram, and as much flour as the worshiper chooses to give with each lamb. Give one gallon of olive oil with each basket of flour. 12When the prince offers a voluntary burnt offering or peace offering to the LORD, the east gateway to the inner courtyard will be opened for him, and he will offer his sacrifices as he does on Sabbath days. Then he will leave, and the gateway will be shut behind him.

13“Each morning you must sacrifice a one-year-old lamb with no defects as a burnt offering to the LORD. 14With the lamb, a grain offering must also be given to the LORD—about three quarts of flour with a third of a gallon of olive oil* to moisten the choice flour. This will be a permanent law for you. 15The lamb, the grain offering, and the olive oil must be given as a daily sacrifice every morning without fail.

16“This is what the Sovereign LORD says: If the prince gives a gift of land to one of his sons as his inheritance, it will belong to him and his descendants forever. 17But if the prince gives a gift of land from his inheritance to one of his servants, the servant may keep it only until the Year of Jubilee, which comes every fiftieth year.* At that time the land will return to the prince. But when the prince gives gifts to his sons, those gifts will be permanent. 18And the prince may never take anyone's property by force. If he gives property to his sons, it must be from his own land, for I do not want any of my people unjustly evicted from their property."

THE TEMPLE KITCHENS

19In my vision, the man brought me through the entrance beside the gateway and led me to the sacred rooms assigned to the priests, which faced toward the north. He showed me a place at the extreme west end of these rooms. 20He explained, "This is where the priests will cook the meat from the guilt offerings and sin offerings and bake the flour from the grain offerings into bread. They will do it here to avoid carrying the sacrifices through the outer courtyard and endangering the people by transmitting holiness to them."

21Then he brought me back to the outer courtyard and led me to each of its four corners. In each corner I saw an enclosure. 22Each of these enclosures was 70 feet long and 52*1/2* feet wide,* surrounded by walls. 23Along the inside of these walls was a ledge of stone with fireplaces under the ledge all the way around. 24The man said to me, "These are the kitchens to be used by the Temple assistants to boil the sacrifices offered by the people."

Ezekiel 47

THE RIVER OF HEALING

1In my vision, the man brought me back to the entrance of the Temple. There I saw a stream flowing east from beneath the door of the Temple and passing to the right of the altar on its south side. 2The man brought me outside the wall through the north gateway and led me around to the eastern entrance. There I could see the water flowing out through the south side of the east gateway.

3Measuring as he went, he took me along the stream for 1,750 feet*

and then led me across. The water was up to my ankles. 4He measured off another 1,750 feet and led me across again. This time the water was up to my knees. After another 1,750 feet, it was up to my waist. 5Then he measured another 1,750 feet, and the river was too deep to walk across. It was deep enough to swim in, but too deep to walk through.

6He asked me, “Have you been watching, son of man?” Then he led me back along the riverbank. 7When I returned, I was surprised by the sight of many trees growing on both sides of the river. 8Then he said to me, “This river flows east through the desert into the valley of the Dead Sea.* The waters of this stream will make the salty waters of the Dead Sea fresh and pure. 9There will be swarms of living things wherever the water of this river flows.* Fish will abound in the Dead Sea, for its waters will become fresh. Life will flourish wherever this water flows. 10Fishermen will stand along the shores of the Dead Sea. All the way from En-gedi to En-eglaim, the shores will be covered with nets drying in the sun. Fish of every kind will fill the Dead Sea, just as they fill the Mediterranean.*11But the marshes and swamps will not be purified; they will still be salty. 12Fruit trees of all kinds will grow along both sides of the river. The leaves of these trees will never turn brown and fall, and there will always be fruit on their branches. There will be a new crop every month, for they are watered by the river flowing from the Temple. The fruit will be for food and the leaves for healing.”

BOUNDARIES FOR THE LAND

13This is what the Sovereign LORD says: “Divide the land in this way for the twelve tribes of Israel: The descendants of Joseph will be given two shares of land.*14Otherwise each tribe will receive an equal share. I took a solemn oath and swore that I would give this land to your ancestors, and it will now come to you as your possession.

15“These are the boundaries of the land: The northern border will run from the Mediterranean toward Hethlon, then on through Lebo-hamath to Zedad; 16then it will run to Berothah and Sibraim,* which are on the border between Damascus and Hamath, and finally to Hazer-hatticon, on the border of Hauran. 17So the northern border will run from the Mediterranean to Hazar-enan, on the border between Hamath to the north and Damascus to the south.

18"The eastern border starts at a point between Hauran and Damascus and runs south along the Jordan River between Israel and Gilead, past the Dead Sea* and as far south as Tamar.* This will be the eastern border.

19"The southern border will go west from Tamar to the waters of Meribah at Kadesh* and then follow the course of the Brook of Egypt to the Mediterranean. This will be the southern border.

20"On the west side, the Mediterranean itself will be your border from the southern border to the point where the northern border begins, opposite Lebo-hamath.

21"Divide the land within these boundaries among the tribes of Israel. 22Distribute the land as an allotment for yourselves and for the foreigners who have joined you and are raising their families among you. They will be like native-born Israelites to you and will receive an allotment among the tribes. 23These foreigners are to be given land within the territory of the tribe with whom they now live. I, the Sovereign LORD, have spoken!

Ezekiel 48

DIVISION OF THE LAND

1"Here is the list of the tribes of Israel and the territory each is to receive. The territory of Dan is in the extreme north. Its boundary line follows the Hethlon road to Lebo-hamath and then runs on to Hazar-enan on the border of Damascus, with Hamath to the north. Dan's territory extends all the way across the land of Israel from east to west.

2“Asher’s territory lies south of Dan’s and also extends from east to west. 3Naphtali’s land lies south of Asher’s, also extending from east to west. 4Then comes Manasseh south of Naphtali, and its territory also extends from east to west. 5South of Manasseh is Ephraim, 6and then Reuben, 7and then Judah, all of whose boundaries extend from east to west.

8“South of Judah is the land set aside for a special purpose. It will be 8 1/3 miles* wide and will extend as far east and west as the tribal territories, with the Temple at the center.

9“The area set aside for the LORD’s Temple will be 8 1/3 miles long and 6 2/3 miles wide.10For the priests there will be a strip of land measuring 8 1/3 miles long by 3 1/3 miles wide, with the LORD’s Temple at the center. 11This area is set aside for the ordained priests, the descendants of Zadok who served me faithfully and did not go astray with the people of Israel and the rest of the Levites.
12It will be their special portion when the land is distributed, the most sacred land of all. Next to the priests’ territory will lie the land where the other Levites will live.

13“The land allotted to the Levites will be the same size and shape as that belonging to the priests—8 1/3 miles long and 3 1/3 miles wide. Together these portions of land will measure 8 1/3 miles long by 6 2/3 miles wide.*14None of this special land may ever be sold or traded or used by others, for it belongs to the LORD; it is set apart as holy.

15“An additional strip of land 8 1/3 miles long by 1 2/3 miles wide,* south of the sacred Temple area, will be allotted for public use—homes, pasturelands, and common lands, with a city at the center.
16The city will measure 1 1/2 miles* on each side—north, south, east, and west. 17Open lands will surround the city for 150 yards* in every direction. 18Outside the city there will be a farming area that stretches 3*1/3* miles to the east and 3*1/3* miles to the west* along the border of the sacred area. This farmland will produce food for the people working in the city. 19Those who come from the various tribes to work in the city may farm it. 20This entire area—including the sacred lands and the city—is a square that measures 8*1/3* miles* on each side.

21"The areas that remain, to the east and to the west of the sacred lands and the city, will belong to the prince. Each of these areas will be 8*1/3* miles wide, extending in opposite directions to the eastern and western borders of Israel, with the sacred lands and the sanctuary of the Temple in the center. 22So the prince's land will include everything between the territories allotted to Judah and Benjamin, except for the areas set aside for the sacred lands and the city.

23"These are the territories allotted to the rest of the tribes. Benjamin's territory lies just south of the prince's lands, and it extends across the entire land of Israel from east to west. 24South of Benjamin's territory lies that of Simeon, also extending across the land from east to west. 25Next is the territory of Issachar with the same eastern and western boundaries.

26"Then comes the territory of Zebulun, which also extends across the land from east to west. 27The territory of Gad is just south of Zebulun with the same borders to the east and west. 28The southern border of Gad runs from Tamar to the waters of Meribah at Kadesh* and then follows the Brook of Egypt to the Mediterranean.*

29"These are the allotments that will be set aside for each tribe's exclusive possession. I, the Sovereign LORD, have spoken!

THE GATES OF THE CITY

30"These will be the exits to the city: On the north wall, which is

1 1/2 miles long, 31 there will be three gates, each one named after a tribe of Israel. The first will be named for Reuben, the second for Judah, and the third for Levi. 32 On the east wall, also 1 1/2 miles long, the gates will be named for Joseph, Benjamin, and Dan. 33 The south wall, also 1 1/2 miles long, will have gates named for Simeon, Issachar, and Zebulun. 34 And on the west wall, also 1 1/2 miles long, the gates will be named for Gad, Asher, and Naphtali.

35 "The distance around the entire city will be 6 miles.* And from that day the name of the city will be 'The LORD Is There.'*"

WELCOME TO

DANIEL

The Jews are living in captivity. Daniel and his friends, some of the most promising young men of Judah, are in the first group of captives hauled off to Babylon. They remain obedient to God in spite of the pagan influences of their foreign surroundings. Their discipline is noticed by the royal court, and soon Daniel becomes a prominent leader, serving several kings and even surviving the transition from Babylonian to Persian rule with his position intact. He has several visions from God about the future and the coming Messiah who will establish an eternal kingdom.

The stories of this book span over eighty years of Daniel's lifetime. He is a young man when he first arrives in Babylon; he is an old man when he faces the lions for remaining true to God. God is with Daniel, actively guiding and protecting him in every stage of his life. Daniel is not where he wants to be, but he is faithful to God despite his circumstances.

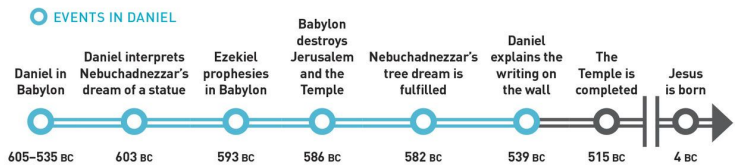
FINDING JESUS IN DANIEL

Daniel's vision of the "son of man coming with the clouds of heaven" who had "authority, honor, and sovereignty over all the nations" (7:13, 14) was a vision of Jesus. Daniel also proclaimed that this Messiah would come after a specific period of time following rebuilding of Jerusalem.
You will catch glimpses of Jesus in the fourth figure who appears in the blazing furnace (3:25) and in the Anointed One who rules in Jerusalem (9:25). Jesus' great mission is also hinted at in Daniel's explanation of Nebuchadnezzar's dream about a stone that would shatter the nations of the world (2:34, 44).



EXCAVATING BABYLON

Daniel 1

DANIEL IN NEBUCHADNEZZAR'S COURT

1During the third year of King Jehoiakim's reign in Judah,* King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon came to Jerusalem and besieged it.
2The Lord gave him victory over King Jehoiakim of Judah and permitted him to take some of the sacred objects from the Temple of God. So Nebuchadnezzar took them back to the land of Babylonia* and placed them in the treasure-house of his god.

THE CITY OF BABYLON

3Then the king ordered Ashpenaz, his chief of staff, to bring to the palace some of the young men of Judah's royal family and other noble families, who had been brought to Babylon as captives.
4"Select only strong, healthy, and good-looking young men," he said. "Make sure they are well versed in every branch of learning, are gifted with knowledge and good judgment, and are suited to serve in the royal palace. Train these young men in the language and literature of Babylon.*" 5The king assigned them a daily ration of food and wine from his own kitchens. They were to be trained for three years, and then they would enter the royal service.

6Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah were four of the young men chosen, all from the tribe of Judah. 7The chief of staff renamed them with these Babylonian names: Daniel was called Belteshazzar.

Hananiah was called Shadrach.
Mishael was called Meshach.
Azariah was called Abednego.

8But Daniel was determined not to defile himself by eating the food and wine given to them by the king. He asked the chief of staff for permission not to eat these unacceptable foods. 9Now God had given the chief of staff both respect and affection for Daniel. 10But he responded, "I am afraid of my lord the king, who has ordered that you eat this food and wine. If you become pale and thin compared to the other youths your age, I am afraid the king will have me beheaded."

11Daniel spoke with the attendant who had been appointed by the chief of staff to look after Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah. 12"Please test us for ten days on a diet of vegetables and water," Daniel said. 13"At the end of the ten days, see how we look compared to the other young men who are eating the king's food. Then make your decision in light of what you see." 14The attendant agreed to Daniel's suggestion and tested them for ten days.

15At the end of the ten days, Daniel and his three friends looked healthier and better nourished than the young men who had been eating the food assigned by the king. 16So after that, the attendant fed them only vegetables instead of the food and wine provided for the others.

17God gave these four young men an unusual aptitude for understanding every aspect of literature and wisdom. And God gave Daniel the special ability to interpret the meanings of visions and dreams.

18When the training period ordered by the king was completed, the chief of staff brought all the young men to King Nebuchadnezzar. 19The king talked with them, and no one impressed him as much as Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah. So they entered the royal service. 20Whenever the king consulted them in any matter requiring wisdom and balanced judgment, he found them ten times more capable than any of the magicians and enchanters in his entire kingdom.

21Daniel remained in the royal service until the first year of the reign of King Cyrus.*

Daniel 2

NEBUCHADNEZZAR'S DREAM

1One night during the second year of his reign,* Nebuchadnezzar had such disturbing dreams that he couldn't sleep. 2He called in his magicians, enchanters, sorcerers, and astrologers,* and he demanded that they tell him what he had dreamed. As they stood before the king, 3he said, "I have had a dream that deeply troubles me, and I must know what it means."

4Then the astrologers answered the king in Aramaic,* "Long live the king! Tell us the dream, and we will tell you what it means."

5But the king said to the astrologers, "I am serious about this. If you don't tell me what my dream was and what it means, you will be torn limb from limb, and your houses will be turned into heaps of rubble! 6But if you tell me what I dreamed and what the dream means, I will give you many wonderful gifts and honors. Just tell me the dream and what it means!"

7They said again, “Please, Your Majesty. Tell us the dream, and we will tell you what it means.”

8The king replied, “I know what you are doing! You’re stalling for time because you know I am serious when I say, 9‘If you don’t tell me the dream, you are doomed.’ So you have conspired to tell me lies, hoping I will change my mind. But tell me the dream, and then I’ll know that you can tell me what it means.”

10The astrologers replied to the king, “No one on earth can tell the king his dream! And no king, however great and powerful, has ever asked such a thing of any magician, enchanter, or astrologer! 11The king’s demand is impossible. No one except the gods can tell you your dream, and they do not live here among people.”

12The king was furious when he heard this, and he ordered that all the wise men of Babylon be executed. 13And because of the king’s decree, men were sent to find and kill Daniel and his friends.

17Then Daniel went home and told his friends Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah what had happened. 18He urged them to ask the God of heaven to show them his mercy by telling them the secret, so they would not be executed along with the other wise men of Babylon. 19That night the secret was revealed to Daniel in a vision. Then Daniel praised the God of heaven. 20He said, “Praise the name of God forever and ever, for he has all wisdom and power.

21He controls the course of world events; he removes kings and sets up other kings.

He gives wisdom to the wise and knowledge to the scholars.

22He reveals deep and mysterious things and knows what lies hidden in darkness, though he is surrounded by light.

23I thank and praise you, God of my ancestors, for you have given me wisdom and strength.
You have told me what we asked of you and revealed to us what the king demanded."

DANIEL INTERPRETS THE DREAM

24Then Daniel went in to see Arioch, whom the king had ordered to execute the wise men of Babylon. Daniel said to him, "Don't kill the wise men. Take me to the king, and I will tell him the meaning of his dream."

25Arioch quickly took Daniel to the king and said, "I have found one of the captives from Judah who will tell the king the meaning of his dream!"

26The king said to Daniel (also known as Belteshazzar), "Is this true? Can you tell me what my dream was and what it means?"

27Daniel replied, "There are no wise men, enchanters, magicians, or fortune-tellers who can reveal the king's secret. 28But there is a God in heaven who reveals secrets, and he has shown King Nebuchadnezzar what will happen in the future. Now I will tell you your dream and the visions you saw as you lay on your bed.

29"While Your Majesty was sleeping, you dreamed about coming events. He who reveals secrets has shown you what is going to happen. 30And it is not because I am wiser than anyone else that I know the secret of your dream, but because God wants you to understand what was in your heart.

31"In your vision, Your Majesty, you saw standing before you a huge, shining statue of a man. It was a frightening sight. 32The head of the statue was made of fine gold. Its chest and arms were silver, its belly and thighs were bronze, 33its legs were iron, and its feet were a combination of iron and baked clay. 34As you watched, a rock was cut from a mountain,* but not by human hands. It struck the feet of iron and clay, smashing them to bits. 35The whole statue was crushed into small pieces of iron, clay, bronze, silver, and gold. Then the wind blew them away without a trace, like chaff on a threshing floor. But the rock that knocked the statue down became a great mountain that covered the whole earth.

36"That was the dream. Now we will tell the king what it means. 37Your Majesty, you are the greatest of kings. The God of heaven has given you sovereignty, power, strength, and honor. 38He has made you the ruler over all the inhabited world and has put even the wild animals and birds under your control. You are the head of gold.

39"But after your kingdom comes to an end, another kingdom, inferior to yours, will rise to take your place. After that kingdom has fallen, yet a third kingdom, represented by bronze, will rise to rule the world. 40Following that kingdom, there will be a fourth one, as strong as iron. That kingdom will smash and crush all previous empires, just as iron smashes and crushes everything it strikes. 41The feet and toes you saw were a combination of iron and baked clay, showing that this kingdom will be divided. Like iron mixed with clay, it will have some of the strength of iron. 42But while some parts of it will be as strong as iron, other parts will be as weak as clay. 43This mixture of iron and clay also shows that these kingdoms will try to strengthen themselves by forming alliances with each other through intermarriage. But they will not hold together, just as iron and clay do not mix.

44"During the reigns of those kings, the God of heaven will set up a kingdom that will never be destroyed or conquered. It will crush all these kingdoms into nothingness, and it will stand forever. 45That is the meaning of the rock cut from the mountain, though not by human hands, that crushed to pieces the statue of iron, bronze, clay, silver, and gold. The great God was showing the king what will happen in the future. The dream is true, and its meaning is certain."

NEBUCHADNEZZAR REWARDS DANIEL

46Then King Nebuchadnezzar threw himself down before Daniel and worshiped him, and he commanded his people to offer sacrifices and burn sweet incense before him. 47The king said to Daniel, "Truly, your God is the greatest of gods, the Lord over kings, a revealer of mysteries, for you have been able to reveal this secret."

48Then the king appointed Daniel to a high position and gave him many valuable gifts. He made Daniel ruler over the whole province of Babylon, as well as chief over all his wise men. 49At Daniel's request, the king appointed Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego to be in charge of all the affairs of the province of Babylon, while Daniel remained in the king's court.

THE PLAIN OF DURA

Daniel 3

NEBUCHADNEZZAR'S GOLD STATUE

1 King Nebuchadnezzar made a gold statue ninety feet tall and nine feet wide* and set it up on the plain of Dura in the province of Babylon. 2 Then he sent messages to the high officers, officials, governors, advisers, treasurers, judges, magistrates, and all the provincial officials to come to the dedication of the statue he had set up. 3 So all these officials* came and stood before the statue King Nebuchadnezzar had set up.

4 Then a herald shouted out, "People of all races and nations and languages, listen to the king's command! 5 When you hear the sound of the horn, flute, zither, lyre, harp, pipes, and other musical instruments,* bow to the ground to worship King Nebuchadnezzar's gold statue. 6 Anyone who refuses to obey will immediately be thrown into a blazing furnace.”

7So at the sound of the musical instruments,* all the people, whatever their race or nation or language, bowed to the ground and worshiped the gold statue that King Nebuchadnezzar had set up.

8But some of the astrologers* went to the king and informed on the Jews. 9They said to King Nebuchadnezzar, “Long live the king!
10You issued a decree requiring all the people to bow down and worship the gold statue when they hear the sound of the horn, flute, zither, lyre, harp, pipes, and other musical instruments. 11That decree also states that those who refuse to obey must be thrown into a blazing furnace. 12But there are some Jews—Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego—whom you have put in charge of the province of Babylon. They pay no attention to you, Your Majesty.
They refuse to serve your gods and do not worship the gold statue you have set up.”

13Then Nebuchadnezzar flew into a rage and ordered that Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego be brought before him. When they were brought in, 14Nebuchadnezzar said to them, “Is it true, Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, that you refuse to serve my gods or to worship the gold statue I have set up? 15I will give you one more chance to bow down and worship the statue I have made when you hear the sound of the musical instruments.* But if you refuse, you will be thrown immediately into the blazing furnace. And then what god will be able to rescue you from my power?”

16Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego replied, “O Nebuchadnezzar, we do not need to defend ourselves before you. 17If we are thrown into the blazing furnace, the God whom we serve is able to save us.
He will rescue us from your power, Your Majesty. 18But even if he doesn’t, we want to make it clear to you, Your Majesty, that we will never serve your gods or worship the gold statue you have set up.”

THE BLAZING FURNACE

19Nebuchadnezzar was so furious with Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego that his face became distorted with rage. He commanded that the furnace be heated seven times hotter than usual. 20Then he ordered some of the strongest men of his army to bind Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego and throw them into the blazing furnace.
21So they tied them up and threw them into the furnace, fully dressed in their pants, turbans, robes, and other garments. 22And because the king, in his anger, had demanded such a hot fire in the furnace, the flames killed the soldiers as they threw the three men in. 23So Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, securely tied, fell into the roaring flames.

24But suddenly, Nebuchadnezzar jumped up in amazement and exclaimed to his advisers, "Didn't we tie up three men and throw them into the furnace?"

"Yes, Your Majesty, we certainly did," they replied.

25"Look!" Nebuchadnezzar shouted. "I see four men, unbound, walking around in the fire unharmed! And the fourth looks like a god*!"

26Then Nebuchadnezzar came as close as he could to the door of the flaming furnace and shouted: "Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, servants of the Most High God, come out! Come here!"

So Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego stepped out of the fire.
27Then the high officers, officials, governors, and advisers crowded around them and saw that the fire had not touched them. Not a hair on their heads was singed, and their clothing was not scorched.
They didn't even smell of smoke!

28Then Nebuchadnezzar said, "Praise to the God of Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego! He sent his angel to rescue his servants who trusted in him. They defied the king's command and were willing to die rather than serve or worship any god except their own God. 29Therefore, I make this decree: If any people, whatever their race or nation or language, speak a word against the God of Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, they will be torn limb from limb, and their houses will be turned into heaps of rubble. There is no other god who can rescue like this!”

30Then the king promoted Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego to even higher positions in the province of Babylon.

Daniel 4

NEBUCHADNEZZAR’S DREAM ABOUT A TREE

1*King Nebuchadnezzar sent this message to the people of every race and nation and language throughout the world:

“Peace and prosperity to you!

2“I want you all to know about the miraculous signs and wonders the Most High God has performed for me.

3How great are his signs, how powerful his wonders!
His kingdom will last forever, his rule through all generations.

4* “I, Nebuchadnezzar, was living in my palace in comfort and prosperity. 5But one night I had a dream that frightened me; I saw visions that terrified me as I lay in my bed. 6So I issued an order calling in all the wise men of Babylon, so they could tell me what my dream meant. 7When all the magicians, enchanters, astrologers,* and fortune-tellers came in, I told them the dream, but they could not tell me what it meant. 8At last Daniel came in before me, and I told him the dream. (He was named Belteshazzar after my god, and the spirit of the holy gods is in him.)

9“I said to him, ‘Belteshazzar, chief of the magicians, I know that the spirit of the holy gods is in you and that no mystery is too great for you to solve. Now tell me what my dream means.

10“‘While I was lying in my bed, this is what I dreamed. I saw a large tree in the middle of the earth. 11The tree grew very tall and strong, reaching high into the heavens for all the world to see. 12It had fresh green leaves, and it was loaded with fruit for all to eat.
Wild animals lived in its shade, and birds nested in its branches. All the world was fed from this tree.

13“‘Then as I lay there dreaming, I saw a messenger,* a holy one, coming down from heaven. 14The messenger shouted, “Cut down the tree and lop off its branches!
Shake off its leaves and scatter its fruit!
Chase the wild animals from its shade and the birds from its branches.

15But leave the stump and the roots in the ground, bound with a band of iron and bronze and surrounded by tender grass.

Now let him be drenched with the dew of heaven, and let him live with the wild animals among the plants of the field.

16For seven periods of time, let him have the mind of a wild animal instead of the mind of a human.

17For this has been decreed by the messengers*; it is commanded by the holy ones, so that everyone may know that the Most High rules over the kingdoms of the world.
He gives them to anyone he chooses— even to the lowliest of
people."

18"'Belteshazzar, that was the dream that I, King Nebuchadnezzar, had. Now tell me what it means, for none of the wise men of my kingdom can do so. But you can tell me because the spirit of the holy gods is in you.'

DANIEL EXPLAINS THE DREAM

19"Upon hearing this, Daniel (also known as Belteshazzar) was overcome for a time, frightened by the meaning of the dream. Then the king said to him, 'Belteshazzar, don't be alarmed by the dream and what it means.'
"Belteshazzar replied, 'I wish the events foreshadowed in this dream would happen to your enemies, my lord, and not to you! 20The tree you saw was growing very tall and strong, reaching high into the heavens for all the world to see. 21It had fresh green leaves and was loaded with fruit for all to eat. Wild animals lived in its shade, and birds nested in its branches. 22That tree, Your Majesty, is you. For you have grown strong and great; your greatness reaches up to heaven, and your rule to the ends of the earth.

23"'Then you saw a messenger, a holy one, coming down from heaven and saying, "Cut down the tree and destroy it. But leave the stump and the roots in the ground, bound with a band of iron and bronze and surrounded by tender grass. Let him be drenched with the dew of heaven. Let him live with the animals of the field for seven periods of time."

24“‘This is what the dream means, Your Majesty, and what the Most High has declared will happen to my lord the king. 25You will be driven from human society, and you will live in the fields with the wild animals. You will eat grass like a cow, and you will be drenched with the dew of heaven. Seven periods of time will pass while you live this way, until you learn that the Most High rules over the kingdoms of the world and gives them to anyone he chooses. 26But the stump and roots of the tree were left in the ground. This means that you will receive your kingdom back again when you have learned that heaven rules.

27“‘King Nebuchadnezzar, please accept my advice. Stop sinning and do what is right. Break from your wicked past and be merciful to the poor. Perhaps then you will continue to prosper.’

THE DREAM’S FULFILLMENT

28“But all these things did happen to King Nebuchadnezzar.
29Twelve months later he was taking a walk on the flat roof of the royal palace in Babylon. 30As he looked out across the city, he said, ‘Look at this great city of Babylon! By my own mighty power, I have built this beautiful city as my royal residence to display my majestic splendor.’

31“While these words were still in his mouth, a voice called down from heaven, ‘O King Nebuchadnezzar, this message is for you! You are no longer ruler of this kingdom. 32You will be driven from human society. You will live in the fields with the wild animals, and you will eat grass like a cow. Seven periods of time will pass while you live this way, until you learn that the Most High rules over the kingdoms of the world and gives them to anyone he chooses.’

33“That same hour the judgment was fulfilled, and Nebuchadnezzar was driven from human society. He ate grass like a cow, and he was drenched with the dew of heaven. He lived this way until his hair was as long as eagles’ feathers and his nails were like birds’ claws.

NEBUCHADNEZZAR PRAISES GOD

34“After this time had passed, I, Nebuchadnezzar, looked up to heaven. My sanity returned, and I praised and worshiped the Most High and honored the one who lives forever.

His rule is everlasting, and his kingdom is eternal.

35All the people of the earth are nothing compared to him.
He does as he pleases among the angels of heaven and among the people of the earth.
No one can stop him or say to him, 'What do you mean by doing these things?'

36"When my sanity returned to me, so did my honor and glory and kingdom. My advisers and nobles sought me out, and I was restored as head of my kingdom, with even greater honor than before.

37"Now I, Nebuchadnezzar, praise and glorify and honor the King of heaven. All his acts are just and true, and he is able to humble the proud."

BELSHAZZAR'S FEAST

Daniel 5

THE WRITING ON THE WALL

1Many years later King Belshazzar gave a great feast for 1,000 of his nobles, and he drank wine with them. 2While Belshazzar was drinking the wine, he gave orders to bring in the gold and silver cups that his predecessor,* Nebuchadnezzar, had taken from the Temple in Jerusalem. He wanted to drink from them with his nobles, his wives, and his concubines. 3So they brought these gold cups taken from the Temple, the house of God in Jerusalem, and the king and his nobles, his wives, and his concubines drank from them.
4While they drank from them they praised their idols made of gold, silver, bronze, iron, wood, and stone.

5Suddenly, they saw the fingers of a human hand writing on the plaster wall of the king's palace, near the lampstand. The king himself saw the hand as it wrote, 6and his face turned pale with fright. His knees knocked together in fear and his legs gave way beneath him.

7The king shouted for the enchanters, astrologers,* and fortune-tellers to be brought before him. He said to these wise men of Babylon, "Whoever can read this writing and tell me what it means will be dressed in purple robes of royal honor and will have a gold chain placed around his neck. He will become the third highest ruler in the kingdom!"

8But when all the king's wise men had come in, none of them could read the writing or tell him what it meant. 9So the king grew even more alarmed, and his face turned pale. His nobles, too, were shaken.

10But when the queen mother heard what was happening, she hurried to the banquet hall. She said to Belshazzar, “Long live the king! Don’t be so pale and frightened. 11There is a man in your kingdom who has within him the spirit of the holy gods. During Nebuchadnezzar’s reign, this man was found to have insight, understanding, and wisdom like that of the gods. Your predecessor, the king—your predecessor King Nebuchadnezzar—made him chief over all the magicians, enchanters, astrologers, and fortune-tellers of Babylon. 12This man Daniel, whom the king named Belteshazzar, has exceptional ability and is filled with divine knowledge and understanding. He can interpret dreams, explain riddles, and solve difficult problems. Call for Daniel, and he will tell you what the writing means.”

DANIEL EXPLAINS THE WRITING

13So Daniel was brought in before the king. The king asked him, “Are you Daniel, one of the exiles brought from Judah by my predecessor, King Nebuchadnezzar? 14I have heard that you have the spirit of the gods within you and that you are filled with insight, understanding, and wisdom. 15My wise men and enchanters have tried to read the words on the wall and tell me their meaning, but they cannot do it. 16I am told that you can give interpretations and solve difficult problems. If you can read these words and tell me their meaning, you will be clothed in purple robes of royal honor, and you will have a gold chain placed around your neck. You will become the third highest ruler in the kingdom.”

17Daniel answered the king, “Keep your gifts or give them to someone else, but I will tell you what the writing means. 18Your Majesty, the Most High God gave sovereignty, majesty, glory, and honor to your predecessor, Nebuchadnezzar. 19He made him so great that people of all races and nations and languages trembled before him in fear. He killed those he wanted to kill and spared those he wanted to spare. He honored those he wanted to honor and disgraced those he wanted to disgrace. 20But when his heart and mind were puffed up with arrogance, he was brought down from his royal throne and stripped of his glory. 21He was driven from human society. He was given the mind of a wild animal, and he lived among the wild donkeys. He ate grass like a cow, and he was drenched with the dew of heaven, until he learned that the Most High God rules over the kingdoms of the world and appoints anyone he desires to rule over them.

22"You are his successor,* O Belshazzar, and you knew all this, yet you have not humbled yourself. 23For you have proudly defied the Lord of heaven and have had these cups from his Temple brought before you. You and your nobles and your wives and concubines have been drinking wine from them while praising gods of silver, gold, bronze, iron, wood, and stone—gods that neither see nor hear nor know anything at all. But you have not honored the God who gives you the breath of life and controls your destiny! 24So God has sent this hand to write this message.

25"This is the message that was written: MENE, MENE, TEKEL, and PARSIN. 26This is what these words mean: Mene means 'numbered'—God has numbered the days of your reign and has brought it to an end.

27*Tekel* means 'weighed'—you have been weighed on the balances and have not measured up.

28*Parsin means 'divided'—your kingdom has been divided and given to the Medes and Persians."

29Then at Belshazzar's command, Daniel was dressed in purple robes, a gold chain was hung around his neck, and he was proclaimed the third highest ruler in the kingdom.

30That very night Belshazzar, the Babylonian* king, was killed.*

31 *And Darius the Mede took over the kingdom at the age of sixty-two.

ANGELS DANIEL 6:1-28

Daniel 6

DANIEL IN THE LIONS' DEN

1*Darius the Mede decided to divide the kingdom into 120 provinces, and he appointed a high officer to rule over each province. 2The king also chose Daniel and two others as administrators to supervise the high officers and protect the king's interests. 3Daniel soon proved himself more capable than all the other administrators and high officers. Because of Daniel's great ability, the king made plans to place him over the entire empire.

4Then the other administrators and high officers began searching for some fault in the way Daniel was handling government affairs, but they couldn't find anything to criticize or condemn. He was faithful, always responsible, and completely trustworthy. 5So they concluded, "Our only chance of finding grounds for accusing Daniel will be in connection with the rules of his religion."

6So the administrators and high officers went to the king and said, "Long live King Darius! 7We are all in agreement—we administrators, officials, high officers, advisers, and governors—that the king should make a law that will be strictly enforced. Give orders that for the next thirty days any person who prays to anyone, divine or human—except to you, Your Majesty—will be thrown into the den of lions. 8And now, Your Majesty, issue and sign this law so it cannot be changed, an official law of the Medes and Persians that cannot be revoked." 9So King Darius signed the law.

10But when Daniel learned that the law had been signed, he went home and knelt down as usual in his upstairs room, with its windows open toward Jerusalem. He prayed three times a day, just as he had always done, giving thanks to his God. 11Then the officials went together to Daniel's house and found him praying and asking for God's help. 12So they went straight to the king and reminded him about his law. “Did you not sign a law that for the next thirty days any person who prays to anyone, divine or human—except to you, Your Majesty—will be thrown into the den of lions?”

“Yes,” the king replied, “that decision stands; it is an official law of the Medes and Persians that cannot be revoked.”

13Then they told the king, “That man Daniel, one of the captives from Judah, is ignoring you and your law. He still prays to his God three times a day.”

14Hearing this, the king was deeply troubled, and he tried to think of a way to save Daniel. He spent the rest of the day looking for a way to get Daniel out of this predicament.

15In the evening the men went together to the king and said, “Your Majesty, you know that according to the law of the Medes and the Persians, no law that the king signs can be changed.”

16So at last the king gave orders for Daniel to be arrested and thrown into the den of lions. The king said to him, “May your God, whom you serve so faithfully, rescue you.”

17A stone was brought and placed over the mouth of the den. The king sealed the stone with his own royal seal and the seals of his nobles, so that no one could rescue Daniel. 18Then the king returned to his palace and spent the night fasting. He refused his usual entertainment and couldn’t sleep at all that night.

19Very early the next morning, the king got up and hurried out to the lions’ den. 20When he got there, he called out in anguish, “Daniel, servant of the living God! Was your God, whom you serve so faithfully, able to rescue you from the lions?”

21Daniel answered, “Long live the king! 22My God sent his angel to shut the lions' mouths so that they would not hurt me, for I have been found innocent in his sight. And I have not wronged you, Your Majesty."

23The king was overjoyed and ordered that Daniel be lifted from the den. Not a scratch was found on him, for he had trusted in his God.

24Then the king gave orders to arrest the men who had maliciously accused Daniel. He had them thrown into the lions' den, along with their wives and children. The lions leaped on them and tore them apart before they even hit the floor of the den.

25Then King Darius sent this message to the people of every race and nation and language throughout the world:

"Peace and prosperity to you!

26"I decree that everyone throughout my kingdom should tremble with fear before the God of Daniel.
For he is the living God, and he will endure forever.
His kingdom will never be destroyed, and his rule will never end.

27He rescues and saves his people; he performs miraculous signs and wonders in the heavens and on earth.
He has rescued Daniel from the power of the lions."

28So Daniel prospered during the reign of Darius and the reign of Cyrus the Persian.*

VISIONS DANIEL 7:1-28

Daniel 7

DANIEL'S VISION OF FOUR BEASTS

1Earlier, during the first year of King Belshazzar's reign in Babylon,* Daniel had a dream and saw visions as he lay in his bed. He wrote down the dream, and this is what he saw.

2In my vision that night, I, Daniel, saw a great storm churning the surface of a great sea, with strong winds blowing from every direction. 3Then four huge beasts came up out of the water, each different from the others.

4The first beast was like a lion with eagles' wings. As I watched, its wings were pulled off, and it was left standing with its two hind feet on the ground, like a human being. And it was given a human mind.

5Then I saw a second beast, and it looked like a bear. It was rearing up on one side, and it had three ribs in its mouth between its teeth. And I heard a voice saying to it, "Get up! Devour the flesh of many people!"

6Then the third of these strange beasts appeared, and it looked like a leopard. It had four bird's wings on its back, and it had four heads. Great authority was given to this beast.

7Then in my vision that night, I saw a fourth beast—terrifying, dreadful, and very strong. It devoured and crushed its victims with huge iron teeth and trampled their remains beneath its feet. It was different from any of the other beasts, and it had ten horns.

8As I was looking at the horns, suddenly another small horn appeared among them. Three of the first horns were torn out by the roots to make room for it. This little horn had eyes like human eyes and a mouth that was boasting arrogantly.

9I watched as thrones were put in place and the Ancient One* sat down to judge.
His clothing was as white as snow, his hair like purest wool.
He sat on a fiery throne with wheels of blazing fire,

10and a river of fire was pouring out, flowing from his presence.
Millions of angels ministered to him; many millions stood to attend him.
Then the court began its session, and the books were opened.

11I continued to watch because I could hear the little horn's boastful speech. I kept watching until the fourth beast was killed and its body was destroyed by fire. 12The other three beasts had their authority taken from them, but they were allowed to live a while longer.*

13As my vision continued that night, I saw someone like a son of man* coming with the clouds of heaven. He approached the Ancient One and was led into his presence. 14He was given authority, honor, and sovereignty over all the nations of the world, so that people of every race and nation and language would obey him. His rule is eternal—it will never end. His kingdom will never be destroyed.

THE VISION IS EXPLAINED

15I, Daniel, was troubled by all I had seen, and my visions terrified me. 16So I approached one of those standing beside the throne and asked him what it all meant. He explained it to me like this:
17"These four huge beasts represent four kingdoms that will arise from the earth. 18But in the end, the holy people of the Most High will be given the kingdom, and they will rule forever and ever."

19Then I wanted to know the true meaning of the fourth beast, the one so different from the others and so terrifying. It had devoured and crushed its victims with iron teeth and bronze claws, trampling their remains beneath its feet. 20I also asked about the ten horns on the fourth beast's head and the little horn that came up afterward and destroyed three of the other horns. This horn had seemed greater than the others, and it had human eyes and a mouth that was boasting arrogantly. 21As I watched, this horn was waging war against God's holy people and was defeating them, 22until the Ancient One—the Most High—came and judged in favor of his holy people. Then the time arrived for the holy people to take over the kingdom.

23Then he said to me, "This fourth beast is the fourth world power that will rule the earth. It will be different from all the others. It will devour the whole world, trampling and crushing everything in its path. 24Its ten horns are ten kings who will rule that empire.
Then another king will arise, different from the other ten, who will subdue three of them. 25He will defy the Most High and oppress the holy people of the Most High. He will try to change their sacred festivals and laws, and they will be placed under his control for a time, times, and half a time.

26"But then the court will pass judgment, and all his power will be taken away and completely destroyed. 27Then the sovereignty, power, and greatness of all the kingdoms under heaven will be given to the holy people of the Most High. His kingdom will last forever, and all rulers will serve and obey him."

28That was the end of the vision. I, Daniel, was terrified by my thoughts and my face was pale with fear, but I kept these things to myself.

Daniel 8

DANIEL'S VISION OF A RAM AND GOAT

1*During the third year of King Belshazzar's reign, I, Daniel, saw another vision, following the one that had already appeared to me.
2In this vision I was at the fortress of Susa, in the province of Elam, standing beside the Ulai River.*

3As I looked up, I saw a ram with two long horns standing beside the river.* One of the horns was longer than the other, even though it had grown later than the other one. 4The ram butted everything out of his way to the west, to the north, and to the south, and no one could stand against him or help his victims. He did as he pleased and became very great.

5While I was watching, suddenly a male goat appeared from the west, crossing the land so swiftly that he didn't even touch the ground. This goat, which had one very large horn between its eyes, 6headed toward the two-horned ram that I had seen standing beside the river, rushing at him in a rage. 7The goat charged furiously at the ram and struck him, breaking off both his horns. Now the ram was helpless, and the goat knocked him down and trampled him.
No one could rescue the ram from the goat's power.

8The goat became very powerful. But at the height of his power, his large horn was broken off. In the large horn's place grew four prominent horns pointing in the four directions of the earth. 9Then from one of the prominent horns came a small horn whose power grew very great. It extended toward the south and the east and toward the glorious land of Israel. 10Its power reached to the heavens, where it attacked the heavenly army, throwing some of the heavenly beings and some of the stars to the ground and trampling them. 11It even challenged the Commander of heaven's army by canceling the daily sacrifices offered to him and by destroying his Temple. 12The army of heaven was restrained from responding to this rebellion. So the daily sacrifice was halted, and truth was overthrown. The horn succeeded in everything it did.*

13Then I heard two holy ones talking to each other. One of them asked, "How long will the events of this vision last? How long will the rebellion that causes desecration stop the daily sacrifices? How long will the Temple and heaven's army be trampled on?"

14The other replied, "It will take 2,300 evenings and mornings; then the Temple will be made right again."

GABRIEL EXPLAINS THE VISION

15As I, Daniel, was trying to understand the meaning of this vision, someone who looked like a man stood in front of me. 16And I heard a human voice calling out from the Ulai River, "Gabriel, tell this man the meaning of his vision."

17As Gabriel approached the place where I was standing, I became so terrified that I fell with my face to the ground. "Son of man," he said, "you must understand that the events you have seen in your vision relate to the time of the end."

18While he was speaking, I fainted and lay there with my face to the ground. But Gabriel roused me with a touch and helped me to my feet.

19Then he said, "I am here to tell you what will happen later in the time of wrath. What you have seen pertains to the very end of time. 20The two-horned ram represents the kings of Media and Persia. 21The shaggy male goat represents the king of Greece,* and the large horn between his eyes represents the first king of the Greek

Empire. 22The four prominent horns that replaced the one large horn show that the Greek Empire will break into four kingdoms, but none as great as the first.

23"At the end of their rule, when their sin is at its height, a fierce king, a master of intrigue, will rise to power. 24He will become very strong, but not by his own power. He will cause a shocking amount of destruction and succeed in everything he does. He will destroy powerful leaders and devastate the holy people. 25He will be a master of deception and will become arrogant; he will destroy many without warning. He will even take on the Prince of princes in battle, but he will be broken, though not by human power.

26"This vision about the 2,300 evenings and mornings* is true. But none of these things will happen for a long time, so keep this vision a secret."

27Then I, Daniel, was overcome and lay sick for several days.
Afterward I got up and performed my duties for the king, but I was greatly troubled by the vision and could not understand it.

Daniel 9

DANIEL'S PRAYER FOR HIS PEOPLE

1It was the first year of the reign of Darius the Mede, the son of Ahasuerus, who became king of the Babylonians.*2During the first year of his reign, I, Daniel, learned from reading the word of the LORD, as revealed to Jeremiah the prophet, that Jerusalem must lie desolate for seventy years.*3So I turned to the Lord God and pleaded with him in prayer and fasting. I also wore rough burlap and sprinkled myself with ashes.

4I prayed to the LORD my God and confessed:

“O Lord, you are a great and awesome God! You always fulfill your covenant and keep your promises of unfailing love to those who love you and obey your commands. 5But we have sinned and done wrong. We have rebelled against you and scorned your commands and regulations. 6We have refused to listen to your servants the prophets, who spoke on your authority to our kings and princes and ancestors and to all the people of the land.

7“Lord, you are in the right; but as you see, our faces are covered with shame. This is true of all of us, including the people of Judah and Jerusalem and all Israel, scattered near and far, wherever you have driven us because of our disloyalty to you. 8O LORD, we and our kings, princes, and ancestors are covered with shame because we have sinned against you. 9But the Lord our God is merciful and forgiving, even though we have rebelled against him. 10We have not obeyed the LORD our God, for we have not followed the instructions he gave us through his servants the prophets. 11All Israel has disobeyed your instruction and turned away, refusing to listen to your voice.
“So now the solemn curses and judgments written in the Law of Moses, the servant of God, have been poured down on us because of our sin. 12You have kept your word and done to us and our rulers exactly as you warned. Never has there been such a disaster as happened in Jerusalem. 13Every curse written against us in the Law of Moses has come true. Yet we have refused to seek mercy from the LORD our God by turning from our sins and recognizing his truth. 14Therefore, the LORD has brought upon us the disaster he prepared. The LORD our God was right to do all of these things, for we did not obey him.

15“O Lord our God, you brought lasting honor to your name by rescuing your people from Egypt in a great display of power. But we have sinned and are full of wickedness. 16In view of all your faithful mercies, Lord, please turn your furious anger away from your city Jerusalem, your holy mountain. All the neighboring nations mock Jerusalem and your people because of our sins and the sins of our ancestors.

17“O our God, hear your servant’s prayer! Listen as I plead. For your own sake, Lord, smile again on your desolate sanctuary.

18“O my God, lean down and listen to me. Open your eyes and see our despair. See how your city—the city that bears your name—lies in ruins. We make this plea, not because we deserve help, but because of your mercy.

19“O Lord, hear. O Lord, forgive. O Lord, listen and act! For your own sake, do not delay, O my God, for your people and your city bear your name.”

THE MESSIAH DANIEL 9:20-27

GABRIEL’S MESSAGE ABOUT THE ANOINTED ONE

20I went on praying and confessing my sin and the sin of my people, pleading with the LORD my God for Jerusalem, his holy mountain.
21As I was praying, Gabriel, whom I had seen in the earlier vision, came swiftly to me at the time of the evening sacrifice. 22He explained to me, “Daniel, I have come here to give you insight and understanding. 23The moment you began praying, a command was given. And now I am here to tell you what it was, for you are very precious to God. Listen carefully so that you can understand the meaning of your vision.

24“A period of seventy sets of seven* has been decreed for your people and your holy city to finish their rebellion, to put an end to their sin, to atone for their guilt, to bring in everlasting righteousness, to confirm the prophetic vision, and to anoint the Most Holy Place.25Now listen and understand! Seven sets of seven plus sixty-two sets of seven will pass from the time the command is given to rebuild Jerusalem until a ruler—the Anointed One*— comes. Jerusalem will be rebuilt with streets and strong defenses,* despite the perilous times.

26"After this period of sixty-two sets of seven,* the Anointed One will be killed, appearing to have accomplished nothing, and a ruler will arise whose armies will destroy the city and the Temple. The end will come with a flood, and war and its miseries are decreed from that time to the very end. 27The ruler will make a treaty with the people for a period of one set of seven,* but after half this time, he will put an end to the sacrifices and offerings. And as a climax to all his terrible deeds,* he will set up a sacrilegious object that causes desecration,* until the fate decreed for this defiler is finally poured out on him."

VISIONS DANIEL 10–12

Daniel 10

DANIEL'S VISION OF A MESSENGER

1In the third year of the reign of King Cyrus of Persia,* Daniel (also known as Belteshazzar) had another vision. He understood that the vision concerned events certain to happen in the future—times of war and great hardship.

2When this vision came to me, I, Daniel, had been in mourning for three whole weeks. 3All that time I had eaten no rich food. No meat or wine crossed my lips, and I used no fragrant lotions until those three weeks had passed.

4On April 23,* as I was standing on the bank of the great Tigris River, 5I looked up and saw a man dressed in linen clothing, with a belt of pure gold around his waist. 6His body looked like a precious gem. His face flashed like lightning, and his eyes flamed like torches. His arms and feet shone like polished bronze, and his voice roared like a vast multitude of people.

7Only I, Daniel, saw this vision. The men with me saw nothing, but they were suddenly terrified and ran away to hide. 8So I was left there all alone to see this amazing vision. My strength left me, my face grew deathly pale, and I felt very weak. 9Then I heard the man speak, and when I heard the sound of his voice, I fainted and lay there with my face to the ground.

10Just then a hand touched me and lifted me, still trembling, to my hands and knees. 11And the man said to me, “Daniel, you are very precious to God, so listen carefully to what I have to say to you.
Stand up, for I have been sent to you.” When he said this to me, I stood up, still trembling.

12Then he said, “Don’t be afraid, Daniel. Since the first day you began to pray for understanding and to humble yourself before your God, your request has been heard in heaven. I have come in answer to your prayer. 13But for twenty-one days the spirit prince* of the kingdom of Persia blocked my way. Then Michael, one of the archangels,* came to help me, and I left him there with the spirit prince of the kingdom of Persia.*14Now I am here to explain what will happen to your people in the future, for this vision concerns a time yet to come.”

15While he was speaking to me, I looked down at the ground, unable to say a word. 16Then the one who looked like a man* touched my lips, and I opened my mouth and began to speak. I said to the one standing in front of me, “I am filled with anguish because of the vision I have seen, my lord, and I am very weak. 17How can someone like me, your servant, talk to you, my lord? My strength is gone, and I can hardly breathe.”

18Then the one who looked like a man touched me again, and I felt my strength returning. 19“Don’t be afraid,” he said, “for you are very precious to God. Peace! Be encouraged! Be strong!”

As he spoke these words to me, I suddenly felt stronger and said to him, “Please speak to me, my lord, for you have strengthened me.”

20He replied, “Do you know why I have come? Soon I must return to fight against the spirit prince of the kingdom of Persia, and after that the spirit prince of the kingdom of Greece* will come.
21Meanwhile, I will tell you what is written in the Book of Truth.
(No one helps me against these spirit princes except Michael, your spirit prince.*

11:1I have been standing beside Michael* to support and strengthen him since the first year of the reign of Darius the Mede.)*

SKIP TO 12:1

Daniel 11

KINGS OF THE SOUTH AND NORTH

2"Now then, I will reveal the truth to you. Three more Persian kings will reign, to be succeeded by a fourth, far richer than the others.
He will use his wealth to stir up everyone to fight against the kingdom of Greece.*

3"Then a mighty king will rise to power who will rule with great authority and accomplish everything he sets out to do. 4But at the height of his power, his kingdom will be broken apart and divided into four parts. It will not be ruled by the king's descendants, nor will the kingdom hold the authority it once had. For his empire will be uprooted and given to others.

5"The king of the south will increase in power, but one of his own officials will become more powerful than he and will rule his kingdom with great strength.

6"Some years later an alliance will be formed between the king of the north and the king of the south. The daughter of the king of the south will be given in marriage to the king of the north to secure the alliance, but she will lose her influence over him, and so will her father. She will be abandoned along with her supporters. 7But when one of her relatives* becomes king of the south, he will raise an army and enter the fortress of the king of the north and defeat him. 8When he returns to Egypt, he will carry back their idols with him, along with priceless articles of gold and silver. For some years afterward he will leave the king of the north alone.

9“Later the king of the north will invade the realm of the king of the south but will soon return to his own land. 10However, the sons of the king of the north will assemble a mighty army that will advance like a flood and carry the battle as far as the enemy’s fortress.

11“Then, in a rage, the king of the south will rally against the vast forces assembled by the king of the north and will defeat them. 12After the enemy army is swept away, the king of the south will be filled with pride and will execute many thousands of his enemies. But his success will be short lived.

13“A few years later the king of the north will return with a fully equipped army far greater than before. 14At that time there will be a general uprising against the king of the south. Violent men among your own people will join them in fulfillment of this vision, but they will not succeed. 15Then the king of the north will come and lay siege to a fortified city and capture it. The best troops of the south will not be able to stand in the face of the onslaught.

16“The king of the north will march onward unopposed; none will be able to stop him. He will pause in the glorious land of Israel,* intent on destroying it. 17He will make plans to come with the might of his entire kingdom and will form an alliance with the king of the south. He will give him a daughter in marriage in order to overthrow the kingdom from within, but his plan will fail.

18“After this, he will turn his attention to the coastland and conquer many cities. But a commander from another land will put an end to his insolence and cause him to retreat in shame. 19He will take refuge in his own fortresses but will stumble and fall and be seen no more.

20“His successor will send out a tax collector to maintain the royal splendor. But after a very brief reign, he will die, though not from anger or in battle.

21“The next to come to power will be a despicable man who is not in line for royal succession. He will slip in when least expected and take over the kingdom by flattery and intrigue. 22Before him great armies will be swept away, including a covenant prince. 23With deceitful promises, he will make various alliances. He will become strong despite having only a handful of followers. 24Without warning he will enter the richest areas of the land. Then he will distribute among his followers the plunder and wealth of the rich—something his predecessors had never done. He will plot the overthrow of strongholds, but this will last for only a short while.

25“Then he will stir up his courage and raise a great army against the king of the south. The king of the south will go to battle with a mighty army, but to no avail, for there will be plots against him.
26His own household will cause his downfall. His army will be swept away, and many will be killed. 27Seeking nothing but each other’s harm, these kings will plot against each other at the conference table, attempting to deceive each other. But it will make no difference, for the end will come at the appointed time.

28“The king of the north will then return home with great riches. On the way he will set himself against the people of the holy covenant, doing much damage before continuing his journey.

29“Then at the appointed time he will once again invade the south, but this time the result will be different. 30For warships from western coastlands* will scare him off, and he will withdraw and return home. But he will vent his anger against the people of the holy covenant and reward those who forsake the covenant.

31“His army will take over the Temple fortress, pollute the sanctuary, put a stop to the daily sacrifices, and set up the sacrilegious object that causes desecration.* 32He will flatter and win over those who have violated the covenant. But the people who know their God will be strong and will resist him.

33"Wise leaders will give instruction to many, but these teachers will die by fire and sword, or they will be jailed and robbed.
34During these persecutions, little help will arrive, and many who join them will not be sincere. 35And some of the wise will fall victim to persecution. In this way, they will be refined and cleansed and made pure until the time of the end, for the appointed time is still to come.

36"The king will do as he pleases, exalting himself and claiming to be greater than every god, even blaspheming the God of gods. He will succeed, but only until the time of wrath is completed. For what has been determined will surely take place. 37He will have no respect for the gods of his ancestors, or for the god loved by women, or for any other god, for he will boast that he is greater than them all. 38Instead of these, he will worship the god of fortresses—a god his ancestors never knew—and lavish on him gold, silver, precious stones, and expensive gifts. 39Claiming this foreign god's help, he will attack the strongest fortresses. He will honor those who submit to him, appointing them to positions of authority and dividing the land among them as their reward.*

40"Then at the time of the end, the king of the south will attack the king of the north. The king of the north will storm out with chariots, charioteers, and a vast navy. He will invade various lands and sweep through them like a flood. 41He will enter the glorious land of Israel,* and many nations will fall, but Moab, Edom, and the best part of Ammon will escape. 42He will conquer many countries, and even Egypt will not escape. 43He will gain control over the gold, silver, and treasures of Egypt, and the Libyans and Ethiopians* will be his servants.

44"But then news from the east and the north will alarm him, and he will set out in great anger to destroy and obliterate many. 45He will stop between the glorious holy mountain and the sea and will pitch his royal tents. But while he is there, his time will suddenly run out, and no one will help him.

Daniel 12

THE TIME OF THE END

1"At that time Michael, the archangel* who stands guard over your nation, will arise. Then there will be a time of anguish greater than any since nations first came into existence. But at that time every one of your people whose name is written in the book will be rescued. 2Many of those whose bodies lie dead and buried will rise up, some to everlasting life and some to shame and everlasting disgrace. 3Those who are wise will shine as bright as the sky, and those who lead many to righteousness will shine like the stars forever. 4But you, Daniel, keep this prophecy a secret; seal up the book until the time of the end, when many will rush here and there, and knowledge will increase."

5Then I, Daniel, looked and saw two others standing on opposite banks of the river. 6One of them asked the man dressed in linen, who was now standing above the river, "How long will it be until these shocking events are over?"

7The man dressed in linen, who was standing above the river, raised both his hands toward heaven and took a solemn oath by the One who lives forever, saying, "It will go on for a time, times, and half a time. When the shattering of the holy people has finally come to an end, all these things will have happened."

8I heard what he said, but I did not understand what he meant. So I asked, "How will all this finally end, my lord?"

9But he said, "Go now, Daniel, for what I have said is kept secret and sealed until the time of the end. 10Many will be purified, cleansed, and refined by these trials. But the wicked will continue in their wickedness, and none of them will understand. Only those who are wise will know what it means.

11“From the time the daily sacrifice is stopped and the sacrilegious object that causes desecration* is set up to be worshiped, there will be 1,290 days. 12And blessed are those who wait and remain until the end of the 1,335 days!

13“As for you, go your way until the end. You will rest, and then at the end of the days, you will rise again to receive the inheritance set aside for you.”

WELCOME TO

HOSEA

Hosea lives during the final years of the northern kingdom of Israel. He preaches in Israel until its capital city, Samaria, falls to the Assyrians. Hosea is appalled by the sins of the people and their blatant worship of idols. He warns the people that God will judge them for their sinful ways by sending the Assyrians to destroy their nation.

Hosea's unhappy home life symbolically shows how broken the Israelites' relationship with God is. Just as Hosea's wife leaves home to be a prostitute, so Israel has left the Lord to seek after false gods. And just as Hosea continues to love his wife and finally brings her home again, so God continues to love his people and promises to restore them to his favor as well.

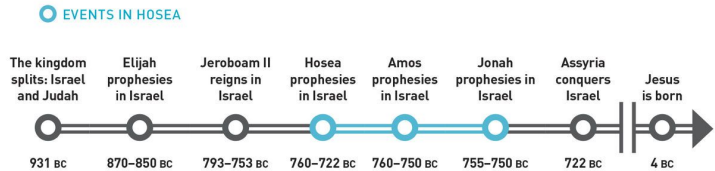
FINDING JESUS IN HOSEA

You will catch a glimpse of Jesus in the loving and faithful prophet Hosea, who continued to love his wife even when she was unfaithful. When Hosea went to buy back his adulterous wife, he paid "fifteen pieces of silver and five bushels of barley and a measure of wine" (3:2). But Jesus paid everything to buy back the people whom God loved. This is what God meant when he told Hosea, "I will show love to those I called 'Not loved'" (2:23). When we sin and turn our backs on him, Jesus finds a way to restore us and renew our relationship with him.



Hosea 1

1The LORD gave this message to Hosea son of Beeri during the years when Uzziah, Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah were kings of Judah, and Jeroboam son of Jehoash* was king of Israel.

HOSEA'S WIFE AND CHILDREN

2When the LORD first began speaking to Israel through Hosea, he said to him, "Go and marry a prostitute,* so that some of her children will be conceived in prostitution. This will illustrate how Israel has acted like a prostitute by turning against the LORD and worshiping other gods.”

3So Hosea married Gomer, the daughter of Diblaim, and she became pregnant and gave Hosea a son. 4And the LORD said, “Name the child Jezreel, for I am about to punish King Jehu’s dynasty to avenge the murders he committed at Jezreel. In fact, I will bring an end to Israel’s independence. 5I will break its military power in the Jezreel Valley.”

6Soon Gomer became pregnant again and gave birth to a daughter. And the LORD said to Hosea, “Name your daughter Lo-ruhamah —‘Not loved’—for I will no longer show love to the people of Israel or forgive them. 7But I will show love to the people of Judah. I will free them from their enemies—not with weapons and armies or horses and charioteers, but by my power as the LORD their God.”

8After Gomer had weaned Lo-ruhamah, she again became pregnant and gave birth to a second son. 9And the LORD said, “Name him Lo-ammi—‘Not my people’—for Israel is not my people, and I am not their God.

10*“Yet the time will come when Israel’s people will be like the sands of the seashore—too many to count! Then, at the place where they were told, ‘You are not my people,’ it will be said, ‘You are children of the living God.’ 11Then the people of Judah and Israel will unite together. They will choose one leader for themselves, and they will return from exile together. What a day that will be—the day of Jezreel*—when God will again plant his people in his land.

2:1*“In that day you will call your brothers Ammi—‘My people.’ And you will call your sisters Ruhamah—‘The ones I love.’*

Hosea 2

CHARGES AGAINST AN UNFAITHFUL WIFE

2“But now bring charges against Israel—your mother— for she is no longer my wife, and I am no longer her husband.
Tell her to remove the prostitute’s makeup from her face and the clothing that exposes her breasts.

3Otherwise, I will strip her as naked as she was on the day she was born.
I will leave her to die of thirst, as in a dry and barren wilderness.

4And I will not love her children, for they were conceived in prostitution.

5Their mother is a shameless prostitute and became pregnant in a shameful way.
She said, ‘I’ll run after other lovers and sell myself to them for food and water, for clothing of wool and linen,
and for olive oil and drinks.’

6“For this reason I will fence her in with thornbushes.
I will block her path with a wall to make her lose her way.

7When she runs after her lovers, she won’t be able to catch them.
She will search for them
but not find them.
Then she will think,

‘I might as well return to my husband, for I was better off with him than I am now.’

8She doesn’t realize it was I who gave her everything she has— the grain, the new wine, the olive oil;
I even gave her silver and gold.
But she gave all my gifts to Baal.

9“But now I will take back the ripened grain and new wine I generously provided each harvest season.
I will take away the wool and linen clothing
I gave her to cover her nakedness.

10I will strip her naked in public, while all her lovers look on.
No one will be able to rescue her from my hands.

11I will put an end to her annual festivals, her new moon celebrations, and her Sabbath days— all her appointed festivals.

12I will destroy her grapevines and fig trees, things she claims her lovers gave her.
I will let them grow into tangled thickets, where only wild animals will eat the fruit.

13I will punish her for all those times when she burned incense to her images of Baal,
when she put on her earrings and jewels and went out to look for her lovers but forgot all about me,”
says the LORD.

THE LORD’S LOVE FOR UNFAITHFUL ISRAEL

14“But then I will win her back once again.

I will lead her into the desert and speak tenderly to her there.

15I will return her vineyards to her and transform the Valley of Trouble* into a gateway of hope.

She will give herself to me there,
as she did long ago when she was young,
when I freed her from her captivity in Egypt.

16When that day comes," says the LORD, "you will call me 'my husband' instead of 'my master.'*

17O Israel, I will wipe the many names of Baal from your lips, and you will never mention them again.

18On that day I will make a covenant with all the wild animals and the birds of the sky and the animals that scurry along the ground so they will not harm you.
I will remove all weapons of war from the land,
all swords and bows,
so you can live unafraid
in peace and safety.

19I will make you my wife forever, showing you righteousness and justice, unfailing love and compassion.

20I will be faithful to you and make you mine, and you will finally know me as the LORD.

21"In that day, I will answer,"
says the LORD.
"I will answer the sky as it pleads for clouds.
And the sky will answer the earth with rain.

22Then the earth will answer the thirsty cries of the grain, the grapevines, and the olive trees.
And they in turn will answer,
'Jezreel'—'God plants!'

23At that time I will plant a crop of Israelites and raise them for myself.

I will show love to those I called ‘Not loved.’*
And to those I called ‘Not my people,’*
I will say, ‘Now you are my people.’
And they will reply, ‘You are our God!’”

Hosea 3

HOSEA’S WIFE IS REDEEMED

1Then the LORD said to me, “Go and love your wife again, even though she* commits adultery with another lover. This will illustrate that the LORD still loves Israel, even though the people have turned to other gods and love to worship them.*”

2So I bought her back for fifteen pieces of silver* and five bushels of barley and a measure of wine.3Then I said to her, “You must live in my house for many days and stop your prostitution. During this time, you will not have sexual relations with anyone, not even with me.”

4This shows that Israel will go a long time without a king or prince, and without sacrifices, sacred pillars, priests,* or even idols! 5But afterward the people will return and devote themselves to the LORD their God and to David’s descendant, their king.* In the last days, they will tremble in awe of the LORD and of his goodness.

Hosea 4

THE LORD'S CASE AGAINST ISRAEL

1 Hear the word of the LORD, O people of Israel!
The LORD has brought charges against you, saying: "There is no faithfulness, no kindness, no knowledge of God in your land.

2 You make vows and break them; you kill and steal and commit adultery.
There is violence everywhere—
one murder after another.

3 That is why your land is in mourning, and everyone is wasting away.
Even the wild animals, the birds of the sky,
and the fish of the sea are disappearing.

4 "Don't point your finger at someone else and try to pass the blame!
My complaint, you priests, is with you.*

5 So you will stumble in broad daylight, and your false prophets will fall with you in the night.
And I will destroy Israel, your mother.

6 My people are being destroyed because they don't know me.
Since you priests refuse to know me,
I refuse to recognize you as my priests.
Since you have forgotten the laws of your God,
I will forget to bless your children.

7 The more priests there are, the more they sin against me.
They have exchanged the glory of God for the shame of idols.*

8 "When the people bring their sin offerings, the priests get fed.
So the priests are glad when the people sin!

9‘And what the priests do, the people also do.’
So now I will punish both priests and people for their wicked deeds.

10They will eat and still be hungry.
They will play the prostitute and gain nothing from it, for they have deserted the LORD

11to worship other gods.
“Wine has robbed my people of their understanding.

12They ask a piece of wood for advice!
They think a stick can tell them the future!
Longing after idols
has made them foolish.
They have played the prostitute,
serving other gods and deserting their God.

13They offer sacrifices to idols on the mountaintops.
They go up into the hills to burn incense in the pleasant shade of oaks, poplars, and terebinth trees.
“That is why your daughters turn to prostitution, and your daughters-in-law commit adultery.

14But why should I punish them for their prostitution and adultery?
For your men are doing the same thing, sinning with whores and shrine prostitutes.
O foolish people! You refuse to understand,
so you will be destroyed.

15“Though you, Israel, are a prostitute, may Judah not be guilty of such things.
Do not join the false worship at Gilgal or Beth-aven,* and do not take oaths there in the LORD’s name.

16Israel is stubborn, like a stubborn heifer.
So should the LORD feed her like a lamb in a lush pasture?

17Leave Israel* alone, because she is married to idolatry.

18When the rulers of Israel finish their drinking, off they go to find some prostitutes.
They love shame more than honor.*

19So a mighty wind will sweep them away.
Their sacrifices to idols will bring them shame.

Hosea 5

THE FAILURE OF ISRAEL'S LEADERS

1"Hear this, you priests.
Pay attention, you leaders of Israel.
Listen, you members of the royal family.
Judgment has been handed down against you.
For you have led the people into a snare by worshiping the idols at Mizpah and Tabor.

2You have dug a deep pit to trap them at Acacia Grove.*
But I will settle with you for what you have done.

3I know what you are like, O Ephraim.
You cannot hide yourself from me, O Israel.
You have left me as a prostitute leaves her husband;
you are utterly defiled.

4Your deeds won't let you return to your God.
You are a prostitute through and through,
and you do not know the LORD.

5"The arrogance of Israel testifies against her; Israel and Ephraim will stumble under their load of guilt.
Judah, too, will fall with them.

6When they come with their flocks and herds to offer sacrifices to the LORD,
they will not find him,

because he has withdrawn from them.

7They have betrayed the honor of the LORD, bearing children that are not his.
Now their false religion will devour them along with their wealth.*

8“Sound the alarm in Gibeah!
Blow the trumpet in Ramah!
Raise the battle cry in Beth-aven*!
Lead on into battle, O warriors of Benjamin!

9One thing is certain, Israel*: On your day of punishment, you will become a heap of rubble.

10“The leaders of Judah have become like thieves.*
So I will pour my anger on them like a waterfall.

11The people of Israel will be crushed and broken by my judgment because they are determined to worship idols.*

12I will destroy Israel as a moth consumes wool.
I will make Judah as weak as rotten wood.

13“When Israel and Judah saw how sick they were, Israel turned to Assyria— to the great king there—but he could neither help nor cure them.

14I will be like a lion to Israel, like a strong young lion to Judah.
I will tear them to pieces!
I will carry them off,
and no one will be left to rescue them.

15Then I will return to my place until they admit their guilt and turn to me.

For as soon as trouble comes, they will earnestly search for me.”

Hosea 6

A CALL TO REPENTANCE

1“Come, let us return to the LORD.
He has torn us to pieces;
now he will heal us.
He has injured us;
now he will bandage our wounds.

2In just a short time he will restore us, so that we may live in his presence.

3Oh, that we might know the LORD!
Let us press on to know him.
He will respond to us as surely as the arrival of dawn or the coming of rains in early spring.”

4“O Israel* and Judah, what should I do with you?” asks the LORD.
“For your love vanishes like the morning mist and disappears like dew in the sunlight.

5I sent my prophets to cut you to pieces— to slaughter you with my words, with judgments as inescapable as light.

6I want you to show love,*
not offer sacrifices.
I want you to know me*
more than I want burnt offerings.

7But like Adam,* you broke my covenant and betrayed my trust.

8“Gilead is a city of sinners, tracked with footprints of blood.

9Priests form bands of robbers, waiting in ambush for their victims.
They murder travelers along the road to Shechem and practice every kind of sin.

10Yes, I have seen something horrible in Ephraim and Israel: My people are defiled by prostituting themselves with other gods!

11"O Judah, a harvest of punishment is also waiting for you, though
I wanted to restore the fortunes of my people.

Hosea 7

ISRAEL'S LOVE FOR WICKEDNESS

1"I want to heal Israel, but its* sins are too great.
Samaria is filled with liars.
Thieves are on the inside and bandits on the outside!

2Its people don't realize that I am watching them.
Their sinful deeds are all around them,
and I see them all.

3"The people entertain the king with their wickedness, and the princes laugh at their lies.

4They are all adulterers, always aflame with lust.
They are like an oven that is kept hot while the baker is kneading the dough.

5On royal holidays, the princes get drunk with wine, carousing with those who mock them.

6Their hearts are like an oven blazing with intrigue.
Their plot smolders* through the night, and in the morning it breaks out like a raging fire.

7Burning like an oven, they consume their leaders.
They kill their kings one after another,
and no one cries to me for help.

8“The people of Israel mingle with godless foreigners, making themselves as worthless as a half-baked cake!

9Worshiping foreign gods has sapped their strength, but they don’t even know it.
Their hair is gray,
but they don’t realize they’re old and weak.

10Their arrogance testifies against them, yet they don’t return to the LORD their God or even try to find him.

11“The people of Israel have become like silly, witless doves, first calling to Egypt, then flying to Assyria for help.

12But as they fly about, I will throw my net over them and bring them down like a bird from the sky.
I will punish them for all the evil they do.*

13“What sorrow awaits those who have deserted me!
Let them die, for they have rebelled against me.
I wanted to redeem them,
but they have told lies about me.

14They do not cry out to me with sincere hearts.
Instead, they sit on their couches and wail.
They cut themselves,* begging foreign gods for grain and new wine, and they turn away from me.

15I trained them and made them strong, yet now they plot evil against me.

16They look everywhere except to the Most High.
They are as useless as a crooked bow.
Their leaders will be killed by their enemies because of their insolence toward me.
Then the people of Egypt will laugh at them.

Hosea 8

ISRAEL HARVESTS THE WHIRLWIND

1“Sound the alarm!
The enemy descends like an eagle on the people of the LORD, for they have broken my covenant and revolted against my law.

2Now Israel pleads with me, ‘Help us, for you are our God!’

3But it is too late.
The people of Israel have rejected what is good,
and now their enemies will chase after them.

4The people have appointed kings without my consent, and princes without my approval.
By making idols for themselves from their silver and gold, they have brought about their own destruction.

5“O Samaria, I reject this calf— this idol you have made.
My fury burns against you.
How long will you be incapable of innocence?

6This calf you worship, O Israel, was crafted by your own hands!
It is not God!
Therefore, it must be smashed to bits.

7“They have planted the wind and will harvest the whirlwind.
The stalks of grain wither and produce nothing to eat.
And even if there is any grain, foreigners will eat it.

8The people of Israel have been swallowed up; they lie among the nations like an old discarded pot.

9Like a wild donkey looking for a mate, they have gone up to Assyria.
The people of Israel* have sold themselves— sold themselves to many lovers.

10But though they have sold themselves to many allies, I will now gather them together for judgment.
Then they will writhe
under the burden of the great king.

11“Israel has built many altars to take away sin, but these very altars became places for sinning!

12Even though I gave them all my laws, they act as if those laws don’t apply to them.

13The people love to offer sacrifices to me, feasting on the meat, but I do not accept their sacrifices.
I will hold my people accountable for their sins,
and I will punish them.
They will return to Egypt.

14Israel has forgotten its Maker and built great palaces, and Judah has fortified its cities.
Therefore, I will send down fire on their cities and will burn up their fortresses.”

Hosea 9

HOSEA ANNOUNCES ISRAEL’S PUNISHMENT

1O people of Israel, do not rejoice as other nations do.
For you have been unfaithful to your God, hiring yourselves out like prostitutes, worshiping other gods on every threshing floor.

2So now your harvests will be too small to feed you.
There will be no grapes for making new wine.

3You may no longer stay here in the LORD’s land.
Instead, you will return to Egypt, and in Assyria you will eat food that is ceremonially unclean.

4There you will make no offerings of wine to the LORD.
None of your sacrifices there will please him.
They will be unclean, like food touched by a person in mourning.
All who present such sacrifices will be defiled.
They may eat this food themselves,
but they may not offer it to the LORD.

5What then will you do on festival days?
How will you observe the LORD's festivals?

6Even if you escape destruction from Assyria, Egypt will conquer you, and Memphis* will bury you.
Nettles will take over your treasures of silver;
thistles will invade your ruined homes.

7The time of Israel's punishment has come; the day of payment is here.
Soon Israel will know this all too well.
Because of your great sin and hostility, you say, "The prophets are crazy and the inspired men are fools!"

8The prophet is a watchman over Israel* for my God, yet traps are laid for him wherever he goes.
He faces hostility even in the house of God.

9The things my people do are as depraved as what they did in Gibeah long ago.
God will not forget.
He will surely punish them for their sins.

10The LORD says, "O Israel, when I first found you, it was like finding fresh grapes in the desert.
When I saw your ancestors, it was like seeing the first ripe figs of the season.
But then they deserted me for Baal-peor, giving themselves to that shameful idol.
Soon they became vile,
as vile as the god they worshiped.

11The glory of Israel will fly away like a bird, for your children will not be born or grow in the womb or even be conceived.

12Even if you do have children who grow up, I will take them from you.
It will be a terrible day when I turn away and leave you alone.

13I have watched Israel become as beautiful as Tyre.
But now Israel will bring out her children for slaughter.”

14O LORD, what should I request for your people?
I will ask for wombs that don’t give birth and breasts that give no milk.

15The LORD says, “All their wickedness began at Gilgal; there I began to hate them.
I will drive them from my land because of their evil actions.
I will love them no more because all their leaders are rebels.

16The people of Israel are struck down.
Their roots are dried up,
and they will bear no more fruit.
And if they give birth,
I will slaughter their beloved children.”

17My God will reject the people of Israel because they will not listen or obey.
They will be wanderers, homeless among the nations.

Hosea 10

THE LORD’S JUDGMENT AGAINST ISRAEL

1How prosperous Israel is— a luxuriant vine loaded with fruit.

But the richer the people get,
the more pagan altars they build.
The more bountiful their harvests,
the more beautiful their sacred pillars.

2The hearts of the people are fickle; they are guilty and must be punished.
The LORD will break down their altars and smash their sacred pillars.

3Then they will say, “We have no king because we didn’t fear the LORD.
But even if we had a king,
what could he do for us anyway?”

4They spout empty words and make covenants they don’t intend to keep.
So injustice springs up among them like poisonous weeds in a farmer’s field.

5The people of Samaria tremble in fear for their calf idol at Beth-aven,* and they mourn for it.
Though its priests rejoice over it, its glory will be stripped away.*

6This idol will be carted away to Assyria, a gift to the great king there.
Ephraim will be ridiculed and Israel will be shamed, because its people have trusted in this idol.

7Samaria and its king will be cut off; they will float away like driftwood on an ocean wave.

8And the pagan shrines of Aven,* the place of Israel’s sin, will crumble.
Thorns and thistles will grow up around their altars.
They will beg the mountains, “Bury us!”
and plead with the hills, “Fall on us!”

9The LORD says, “O Israel, ever since Gibeah, there has been only sin and more sin!
You have made no progress whatsoever.
Was it not right that the wicked men of Gibeah were attacked?

10Now whenever it fits my plan, I will attack you, too.
I will call out the armies of the nations to punish you for your multiplied sins.

11“Israel* is like a trained heifer treading out the grain— an easy job she loves.
But I will put a heavy yoke on her tender neck.
I will force Judah to pull the plow and Israel* to break up the hard ground.

12I said, ‘Plant the good seeds of righteousness, and you will harvest a crop of love.
Plow up the hard ground of your hearts,
for now is the time to seek the LORD, that he may come and shower righteousness upon you.’

13“But you have cultivated wickedness and harvested a thriving crop of sins.
You have eaten the fruit of lies—trusting in your military might, believing that great armies could make your nation safe.

14Now the terrors of war will rise among your people.
All your fortifications will fall,
just as when Shalman destroyed Beth-arbel.
Even mothers and children were dashed to death there.

15You will share that fate, Bethel, because of your great wickedness.
When the day of judgment dawns,
the king of Israel will be completely destroyed.

Hosea 11

THE LORD'S LOVE FOR ISRAEL

1"When Israel was a child, I loved him, and I called my son out of Egypt.

2But the more I called to him, the farther he moved from me,* offering sacrifices to the images of Baal
and burning incense to idols.

3I myself taught Israel* how to walk, leading him along by the hand.
But he doesn't know or even care that it was I who took care of him.

4I led Israel along with my ropes of kindness and love.
I lifted the yoke from his neck,
and I myself stooped to feed him.

5"But since my people refuse to return to me, they will return to Egypt

and will be forced to serve Assyria.

6War will swirl through their cities; their enemies will crash through their gates.
They will destroy them,
trapping them in their own evil plans.

7For my people are determined to desert me.
They call me the Most High,
but they don't truly honor me.

ADMAH AND ZEBOIIM

8"Oh, how can I give you up, Israel?
How can I let you go?
How can I destroy you like Admah or demolish you like Zeboiim?
My heart is torn within me, and my compassion overflows.

9No, I will not unleash my fierce anger.
I will not completely destroy Israel, for I am God and not a mere mortal.
I am the Holy One living among you, and I will not come to destroy.

10For someday the people will follow me.
I, the LORD, will roar like a lion.
And when I roar,
my people will return trembling from the west.

11Like a flock of birds, they will come from Egypt.
Trembling like doves, they will return from Assyria.
And I will bring them home again,"
says the LORD.

CHARGES AGAINST ISRAEL AND JUDAH

12*Israel surrounds me with lies and deceit, but Judah still obeys God and is faithful to the Holy One.*

Hosea 12

1*The people of Israel* feed on the wind; they chase after the east wind all day long.
They pile up lies and violence;
they are making an alliance with Assyria while sending olive oil to buy support from Egypt.

2Now the LORD is bringing charges against Judah.
He is about to punish Jacob* for all his deceitful ways, and pay him back for all he has done.

3Even in the womb,
Jacob struggled with his brother;
when he became a man,
he even fought with God.

4Yes, he wrestled with the angel and won.
He wept and pleaded for a blessing from him.
There at Bethel he met God face to face,
and God spoke to him*—

5the LORD God of Heaven's Armies, the LORD is his name!

6So now, come back to your God.
Act with love and justice, and always depend on him.

7But no, the people are like crafty merchants selling from dishonest scales— they love to cheat.

8Israel boasts, “I am rich!
I’ve made a fortune all by myself!
No one has caught me cheating!
My record is spotless!”

9“But I am the LORD your God, who rescued you from slavery in Egypt.
And I will make you live in tents again,
as you do each year at the Festival of Shelters.*

10I sent my prophets to warn you with many visions and parables.”

11But the people of Gilead are worthless because of their idol worship.
And in Gilgal, too, they sacrifice bulls;
their altars are lined up like the heaps of stone along the edges of a plowed field.

12Jacob fled to the land of Aram, and there he* earned a wife by tending sheep.

13Then by a prophet the LORD brought Jacob’s descendants* out of Egypt; and by that prophet they were protected.

14But the people of Israel have bitterly provoked the LORD, so their Lord will now sentence them to death in payment for their sins.

Hosea 13

THE LORD'S ANGER AGAINST ISRAEL

1When the tribe of Ephraim spoke, the people shook with fear, for that tribe was important in Israel.
But the people of Ephraim sinned by worshiping Baal and thus sealed their destruction.

2Now they continue to sin by making silver idols, images shaped skillfully with human hands.
"Sacrifice to these," they cry,
"and kiss the calf idols!"

3Therefore, they will disappear like the morning mist, like dew in the morning sun,
like chaff blown by the wind,
like smoke from a chimney.

4"I have been the LORD your God ever since I brought you out of Egypt.
You must acknowledge no God but me, for there is no other savior.

5I took care of you in the wilderness, in that dry and thirsty land.

6But when you had eaten and were satisfied, you became proud and forgot me.

7So now I will attack you like a lion, like a leopard that lurks along the road.

8Like a bear whose cubs have been taken away, I will tear out your heart.
I will devour you like a hungry lioness and mangle you like a wild animal.

9"You are about to be destroyed, O Israel— yes, by me, your only helper.

10Now where is* your king?
Let him save you!

Where are all the leaders of the land,
the king and the officials you demanded of me?

11In my anger I gave you kings, and in my fury I took them away.

12“Ephraim’s guilt has been collected, and his sin has been stored up for punishment.

13Pain has come to the people like the pain of childbirth, but they are like a child who resists being born.
The moment of birth has arrived,
but they stay in the womb!

14“Should I ransom them from the grave*?
Should I redeem them from death?
O death, bring on your terrors!
O grave, bring on your plagues!*
For I will not take pity on them.

15Ephraim was the most fruitful of all his brothers, but the east wind—a blast from the LORD— will arise in the desert.
All their flowing springs will run dry, and all their wells will disappear.
Every precious thing they own will be plundered and carried away.

16*The people of Samaria must bear the consequences of their guilt because they rebelled against their God.
They will be killed by an invading army, their little ones dashed to death against the ground, their pregnant women ripped open by swords.”

FORGIVENESS HOSEA 14:1-9

Hosea 14

HEALING FOR THE REPENTANT

1*Return, O Israel, to the LORD your God, for your sins have brought you down.

2Bring your confessions, and return to the LORD.
Say to him,
“Forgive all our sins and graciously receive us, so that we may offer you our praises.*

3Assyria cannot save us, nor can our warhorses.
Never again will we say to the idols we have made,
‘You are our gods.’
No, in you alone
do the orphans find mercy.”

4The LORD says, “Then I will heal you of your faithlessness;
my love will know no bounds,
for my anger will be gone forever.

5I will be to Israel like a refreshing dew from heaven.
Israel will blossom like the lily;
it will send roots deep into the soil like the cedars in Lebanon.

6Its branches will spread out like beautiful olive trees, as fragrant as the cedars of Lebanon.

7My people will again live under my shade.
They will flourish like grain and blossom like grapevines.
They will be as fragrant as the wines of Lebanon.

8“O Israel,* stay away from idols!
I am the one who answers your prayers and cares for you.
I am like a tree that is always green;
all your fruit comes from me.”

9Let those who are wise understand these things.
Let those with discernment listen carefully.
The paths of the LORD are true and right, and righteous people live by walking in them.
But in those paths sinners stumble and fall.

Joel

Introduction 1 2 3

WELCOME TO

JOEL

The book of Joel records a devastating plague of locusts that consumes everything in the land of Judah. Joel, as God’s messenger, recognizes the locusts as God’s punishment on the people for their sinful lives. Just as locusts devour the land, so enemy armies will devour Jerusalem unless the nation repents of its sins. If the people respond, there will be a time of prosperity and a return of God’s favor. But the hope of restoration goes beyond their immediate future to a time when God will pour out his Holy Spirit upon all humanity (2:28-32), a time when the Lord will once again “live in Zion.”

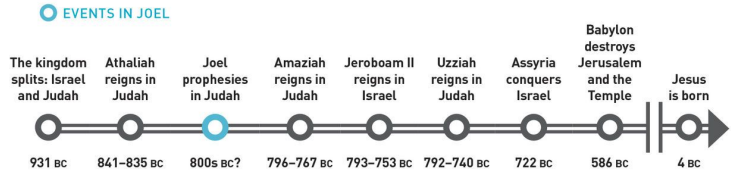
FINDING JESUS IN JOEL

Joel's message was one of judgment and salvation. We often see those two things as mutually exclusive, but that's not the case. Jesus also came with both judgment and salvation. Anyone who rejects Jesus will face judgment, "but everyone who calls on the name of the LORD will be saved" (Joel 2:32; Acts 2:21). One day in the future, Jesus will return to judge the world and set things right, bringing both justice and salvation. Joel called that day "the day of the LORD."



Joel 1

1The LORD gave this message to Joel son of Pethuel.

MOURNING OVER THE LOCUST PLAGUE

2Hear this, you leaders of the people.

Listen, all who live in the land.
In all your history, has anything like this happened before?

3Tell your children about it in the years to come, and let your children tell their children.
Pass the story down from generation to generation.

4After the cutting locusts finished eating the crops, the swarming locusts took what was left!
After them came the hopping locusts, and then the stripping locusts,* too!

5Wake up, you drunkards, and weep!

Wail, all you wine-drinkers!
All the grapes are ruined, and all your sweet wine is gone.

6A vast army of locusts* has invaded my land, a terrible army too numerous to count.
Its teeth are like lions' teeth, its fangs like those of a lioness.

7It has destroyed my grapevines and ruined my fig trees, stripping their bark and destroying it, leaving the branches white and bare.

8Weep like a bride dressed in black, mourning the death of her husband.

9For there is no grain or wine to offer at the Temple of the LORD.
So the priests are in mourning.
The ministers of the LORD are weeping.

10The fields are ruined, the land is stripped bare.
The grain is destroyed,
the grapes have shriveled,
and the olive oil is gone.

11Despair, all you farmers!
Wail, all you vine growers!
Weep, because the wheat and barley—all the crops of the field—are ruined.

12The grapevines have dried up, and the fig trees have withered.
The pomegranate trees, palm trees, and apple trees—
all the fruit trees—have dried up.
And the people's joy has dried up with them.

13Dress yourselves in burlap and weep, you priests!
Wail, you who serve before the altar!
Come, spend the night in burlap,
you ministers of my God.
For there is no grain or wine to offer at the Temple of your God.

14Announce a time of fasting; call the people together for a solemn meeting.
Bring the leaders and all the people of the land into the Temple of the LORD your God, and cry out to him there.

15The day of the LORD is near, the day when destruction comes from the Almighty.
How terrible that day will be!

16Our food disappears before our very eyes.
No joyful celebrations are held in the house of our God.

17The seeds die in the parched ground, and the grain crops fail.
The barns stand empty, and granaries are abandoned.

18How the animals moan with hunger!
The herds of cattle wander about confused, because they have no pasture.
The flocks of sheep and goats bleat in misery.

19LORD, help us!
The fire has consumed the wilderness pastures, and flames have burned up all the trees.

20Even the wild animals cry out to you because the streams have dried up, and fire has consumed the wilderness pastures.

LOCUSTS INVADE LIKE AN ARMY

1Sound the trumpet in Jerusalem*!
Raise the alarm on my holy mountain!
Let everyone tremble in fear because the day of the LORD is upon us.

2It is a day of darkness and gloom, a day of thick clouds and deep blackness.
Suddenly, like dawn spreading across the mountains,
a great and mighty army appears.
Nothing like it has been seen before or will ever be seen again.

3Fire burns in front of them, and flames follow after them.
Ahead of them the land lies as beautiful as the Garden of Eden.
Behind them is nothing but desolation;
not one thing escapes.

4They look like horses; they charge forward like warhorses.*

5Look at them as they leap along the mountaintops.
Listen to the noise they make—like the rumbling of chariots, like the roar of fire sweeping across a field of stubble, or like a mighty army moving into battle.

6Fear grips all the people; every face grows pale with terror.

7The attackers march like warriors and scale city walls like soldiers.
Straight forward they march, never breaking rank.

8They never jostle each other; each moves in exactly the right position.
They break through defenses without missing a step.

9They swarm over the city and run along its walls.
They enter all the houses, climbing like thieves through the windows.

10The earth quakes as they advance, and the heavens tremble.
The sun and moon grow dark,
and the stars no longer shine.

11The LORD is at the head of the column.
He leads them with a shout.
This is his mighty army,
and they follow his orders.
The day of the LORD is an awesome, terrible thing.
Who can possibly survive?

A CALL TO REPENTANCE

12That is why the LORD says,

"Turn to me now, while there is time.
Give me your hearts.
Come with fasting, weeping, and mourning.

13Don't tear your clothing in your grief, but tear your hearts instead."
Return to the LORD your God, for he is merciful and compassionate, slow to get angry and filled with unfailing love.
He is eager to relent and not punish.

14Who knows? Perhaps he will give you a reprieve, sending you a blessing instead of this curse.
Perhaps you will be able to offer grain and wine to the LORD your God as before.

15Blow the ram's horn in Jerusalem!
Announce a time of fasting;
call the people together for a solemn meeting.

16Gather all the people— the elders, the children, and even the babies.
Call the bridegroom from his quarters and the bride from her private room.

17Let the priests, who minister in the LORD's presence, stand and weep between the entry room to the Temple and the altar.
Let them pray, "Spare your people, LORD!
Don't let your special possession become an object of mockery.
Don't let them become a joke for unbelieving foreigners who say,
'Has the God of Israel left them?'"

THE LORD'S PROMISE OF RESTORATION

18Then the LORD will pity his people and jealously guard the honor of his land.

19The LORD will reply, "Look! I am sending you grain and new wine and olive oil, enough to satisfy your needs.
You will no longer be an object of mockery among the surrounding nations.

20I will drive away these armies from the north.
I will send them into the parched wastelands.
Those in the front will be driven into the Dead Sea, and those at the rear into the Mediterranean.*

The stench of their rotting bodies will rise over the land."
Surely the LORD has done great things!

21Don't be afraid, O land.
Be glad now and rejoice,
for the LORD has done great things.

22Don't be afraid, you animals of the field, for the wilderness pastures will soon be green.
The trees will again be filled with fruit;
fig trees and grapevines will be loaded down once more.

23Rejoice, you people of Jerusalem!
Rejoice in the LORD your God!
For the rain he sends demonstrates his faithfulness.
Once more the autumn rains will come,
as well as the rains of spring.

24The threshing floors will again be piled high with grain, and the presses will overflow with new wine and olive oil.

25The LORD says, "I will give you back what you lost to the swarming locusts, the hopping locusts, the stripping locusts, and the cutting locusts.*
It was I who sent this great destroying army against you.

26Once again you will have all the food you want, and you will praise the LORD your God, who does these miracles for you.
Never again will my people be disgraced.

27Then you will know that I am among my people Israel, that I am the LORD your God, and there is no other.
Never again will my people be disgraced.

THE LORD'S PROMISE OF HIS SPIRIT

28*"Then, after doing all those things, I will pour out my Spirit upon all people.

Your sons and daughters will prophesy.
Your old men will dream dreams, and your young men will see visions.

29In those days I will pour out my Spirit even on servants—men and women alike.

30And I will cause wonders in the heavens and on the earth— blood and fire and columns of smoke.

31The sun will become dark, and the moon will turn blood red before that great and terrible* day of the LORD arrives.

32But everyone who calls on the name of the LORD
will be saved,
for some on Mount Zion in Jerusalem will escape,
just as the LORD has said.
These will be among the survivors whom the LORD has called.

THE VALLEY OF JEHOSHAPHAT

Joel 3

JUDGMENT AGAINST ENEMY NATIONS

1*“At the time of those events,” says the LORD, “when I restore the prosperity of Judah and Jerusalem, 2I will gather the armies of the world into the valley of Jehoshaphat.*

There I will judge them for harming my people, my special possession, for scattering my people among the nations, and for dividing up my land.

3They threw dice* to decide which of my people would be their slaves.
They traded boys to obtain prostitutes and sold girls for enough wine to get drunk.

4"What do you have against me, Tyre and Sidon and you cities of Philistia? Are you trying to take revenge on me? If you are, then watch out! I will strike swiftly and pay you back for everything you have done. 5You have taken my silver and gold and all my precious treasures, and have carried them off to your pagan temples. 6You have sold the people of Judah and Jerusalem to the Greeks,* so they could take them far from their homeland.

7"But I will bring them back from all the places to which you sold them, and I will pay you back for everything you have done. 8I will sell your sons and daughters to the people of Judah, and they will sell them to the people of Arabia,* a nation far away. I, the LORD, have spoken!"

9Say to the nations far and wide: "Get ready for war!
Call out your best warriors.
Let all your fighting men advance for the attack.

10Hammer your plowshares into swords and your pruning hooks into spears.
Train even your weaklings to be warriors.

11Come quickly, all you nations everywhere.
Gather together in the valley."
And now, O LORD, call out your warriors!

12"Let the nations be called to arms.
Let them march to the valley of Jehoshaphat.
There I, the LORD, will sit to pronounce judgment on them all.

13Swing the sickle, for the harvest is ripe.*
Come, tread the grapes,
for the winepress is full.
The storage vats are overflowing with the wickedness of these people.”

14Thousands upon thousands are waiting in the valley of decision.
There the day of the LORD will soon arrive.

15The sun and moon will grow dark, and the stars will no longer shine.

16The LORD’s voice will roar from Zion and thunder from Jerusalem, and the heavens and the earth will shake.
But the LORD will be a refuge for his people, a strong fortress for the people of Israel.

BLESSINGS FOR GOD’S PEOPLE

17“Then you will know that I, the LORD your God, live in Zion, my holy mountain.

Jerusalem will be holy forever, and foreign armies will never conquer her again.

18In that day the mountains will drip with sweet wine, and the hills will flow with milk.
Water will fill the streambeds of Judah, and a fountain will burst forth from the LORD’s Temple, watering the arid valley of acacias.*

19But Egypt will become a wasteland and Edom will become a wilderness, because they attacked the people of Judah and killed innocent people in their land.

20“But Judah will be filled with people forever, and Jerusalem will endure through all generations.

21 I will pardon my people's crimes, which I have not yet pardoned; and I, the LORD, will make my home in Jerusalem* with my people."

WELCOME TO

AMOS

God calls Amos to prophesy in Israel during a time of great affluence and prosperity in the northern kingdom. When times are good, no one wants to hear bad news, but Amos points out some of the horrible things going on among God's people: greed, corruption, social injustice, idol worship, moral decline, and pointless religious rituals devoid of true worship. He warns that God's judgment will come if the people don't change their ways. But God includes words of hope in Amos's warning. God will punish his people with exile, but he will also bring them back.

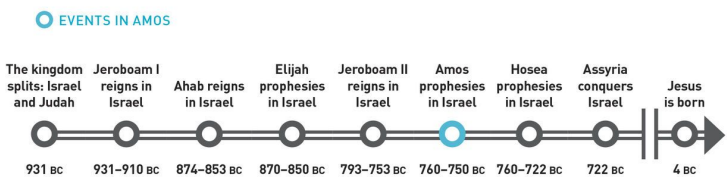
FINDING JESUS IN AMOS

We can see aspects of Jesus in Amos, who was an unlikely prophet, being a lowly shepherd rather than a well-educated priest. Similarly, Jesus came from humble beginnings. He grew up in a small village with poor parents. Jesus, too, rose up to challenge the lifestyle that everyone took for granted—one that perpetuated injustice, corruption, and complacency. He healed people on the Sabbath and told stories that challenged the reigning values of his day. Sometimes even powerful religious leaders were among those whom he challenged. Like Amos, Jesus did not tolerate religious hypocrisy.



Amos 1

1This message was given to Amos, a shepherd from the town of Tekoa in Judah. He received this message in visions two years before the earthquake, when Uzziah was king of Judah and Jeroboam II, the son of Jehoash,* was king of Israel.

2This is what he saw and heard:

"The LORD's voice will roar from Zion and thunder from Jerusalem!
The lush pastures of the shepherds will dry up;
the grass on Mount Carmel will wither and die."

SKIP TO 2:4

GOD'S JUDGMENT ON ISRAEL'S NEIGHBORS

3This is what the LORD says:

"The people of Damascus have sinned again and again,*
and I will not let them go unpunished!
They beat down my people in Gilead as grain is threshed with iron sledges.

4So I will send down fire on King Hazael's palace, and the fortresses of King Ben-hadad will be destroyed.

5I will break down the gates of Damascus and slaughter the people in the valley of Aven.
I will destroy the ruler in Beth-eden, and the people of Aram will go as captives to Kir,"
says the LORD.

6This is what the LORD says:

"The people of Gaza have sinned again and again,
and I will not let them go unpunished!
They sent whole villages into exile, selling them as slaves to Edom.

7So I will send down fire on the walls of Gaza, and all its fortresses will be destroyed.

8I will slaughter the people of Ashdod and destroy the king of Ashkelon.
Then I will turn to attack Ekron, and the few Philistines still left will be killed,"
says the Sovereign LORD.

9This is what the LORD says:

"The people of Tyre have sinned again and again,
and I will not let them go unpunished!
They broke their treaty of brotherhood with Israel, selling whole villages as slaves to Edom.

10So I will send down fire on the walls of Tyre, and all its fortresses will be destroyed."

11This is what the LORD says:

"The people of Edom have sinned again and again,
and I will not let them go unpunished!

They chased down their relatives, the Israelites, with swords, showing them no mercy.
In their rage, they slashed them continually and were unrelenting in their anger.

12So I will send down fire on Teman, and the fortresses of Bozrah will be destroyed."

13This is what the LORD says:

"The people of Ammon have sinned again and again,
and I will not let them go unpunished!
When they attacked Gilead to extend their borders, they ripped open pregnant women with their swords.

14So I will send down fire on the walls of Rabbah, and all its fortresses will be destroyed.
The battle will come upon them with shouts, like a whirlwind in a mighty storm.

15And their king* and his princes will go into exile together,"
says the LORD.

Amos 2

1This is what the LORD says:

"The people of Moab have sinned again and again,*
and I will not let them go unpunished!
They desecrated the bones of Edom's king, burning them to ashes.

2So I will send down fire on the land of Moab, and all the fortresses in Kerioth will be destroyed.
The people will fall in the noise of battle,
as the warriors shout and the ram's horn sounds.

3And I will destroy their king and slaughter all their princes,"
says the LORD.

GOD'S JUDGMENT ON JUDAH AND ISRAEL

4This is what the LORD says:

"The people of Judah have sinned again and again,
and I will not let them go unpunished!
They have rejected the instruction of the LORD, refusing to obey his decrees.
They have been led astray by the same lies that deceived their ancestors.

5So I will send down fire on Judah, and all the fortresses of Jerusalem will be destroyed."

6This is what the LORD says:

"The people of Israel have sinned again and again,
and I will not let them go unpunished!
They sell honorable people for silver and poor people for a pair of sandals.

7They trample helpless people in the dust and shove the oppressed out of the way.
Both father and son sleep with the same woman, corrupting my holy name.

8At their religious festivals, they lounge in clothing their debtors put up as security.
In the house of their gods,*
they drink wine bought with unjust fines.

9"But as my people watched, I destroyed the Amorites, though they were as tall as cedars and as strong as oaks.
I destroyed the fruit on their branches and dug out their roots.

10It was I who rescued you from Egypt and led you through the desert for forty years, so you could possess the land of the Amorites.

11I chose some of your sons to be prophets and others to be Nazirites.
Can you deny this, my people of Israel?”
asks the LORD.

12“But you caused the Nazirites to sin by making them drink wine, and you commanded the prophets, ‘Shut up!’

13“So I will make you groan like a wagon loaded down with sheaves of grain.

14Your fastest runners will not get away.
The strongest among you will become weak.
Even mighty warriors will be unable to save themselves.

15The archers will not stand their ground.
The swiftest runners won’t be fast enough to escape.
Even those riding horses won’t be able to save themselves.

16On that day the most courageous of your fighting men will drop their weapons and run for their lives,”
says the LORD.

Amos 3

1Listen to this message that the LORD has spoken against you, O people of Israel—against the entire family I rescued from Egypt:

2“From among all the families on the earth, I have been intimate with you alone.
That is why I must punish you for all your sins.”

WITNESSES AGAINST GUILTY ISRAEL

3Can two people walk together without agreeing on the direction?

4Does a lion ever roar in a thicket without first finding a victim?
Does a young lion growl in its den without first catching its prey?

5Does a bird ever get caught in a trap that has no bait?
Does a trap spring shut when there’s nothing to catch?

6When the ram’s horn blows a warning, shouldn’t the people be alarmed?
Does disaster come to a city unless the LORD has planned it?

7Indeed, the Sovereign LORD never does anything until he reveals his plans to his servants the prophets.

8The lion has roared— so who isn’t frightened?
The Sovereign LORD has spoken—so who can refuse to proclaim his message?

9Announce this to the leaders of Philistia* and to the great ones of Egypt: “Take your seats now on the hills around Samaria, and witness the chaos and oppression in Israel.”

10“My people have forgotten how to do right,”
says the LORD.
“Their fortresses are filled with wealth taken by theft and violence.

11Therefore,” says the Sovereign LORD, “an enemy is coming!
He will surround them and shatter their defenses.
Then he will plunder all their fortresses.”

12This is what the LORD says:

“A shepherd who tries to rescue a sheep from a lion’s mouth will recover only two legs or a piece of an ear.
So it will be for the Israelites in Samaria lying on luxurious beds, and for the people of Damascus reclining on couches.*

13“Now listen to this, and announce it throughout all Israel,*” says the Lord, the LORD God of Heaven’s Armies.

14“On the very day I punish Israel for its sins, I will destroy the pagan altars at Bethel.
The horns of the altar will be cut off and fall to the ground.

15And I will destroy the beautiful homes of the wealthy— their winter mansions and their summer houses, too—all their palaces filled with ivory,”
says the LORD.

Amos 4

ISRAEL'S FAILURE TO LEARN

1Listen to me, you fat cows* living in Samaria, you women who oppress the poor and crush the needy, and who are always calling to your husbands,
"Bring us another drink!"

2The Sovereign LORD has sworn this by his holiness: "The time will come when you will be led away with hooks in your noses.
Every last one of you will be dragged away like a fish on a hook!

3You will be led out through the ruins of the wall; you will be thrown from your fortresses,*"
says the LORD.

4"Go ahead and offer sacrifices to the idols at Bethel.
Keep on disobeying at Gilgal.
Offer sacrifices each morning,
and bring your tithes every three days.

5Present your bread made with yeast as an offering of thanksgiving.
Then give your extra voluntary offerings so you can brag about it everywhere!
This is the kind of thing you Israelites love to do,"
says the Sovereign LORD.

6"I brought hunger to every city and famine to every town.
But still you would not return to me,"
says the LORD.

7"I kept the rain from falling when your crops needed it the most.
I sent rain on one town
but withheld it from another.
Rain fell on one field,

while another field withered away.

8People staggered from town to town looking for water, but there was never enough.
But still you would not return to me,”
says the LORD.

9“I struck your farms and vineyards with blight and mildew.
Locusts devoured all your fig and olive trees.
But still you would not return to me,”
says the LORD.

10“I sent plagues on you like the plagues I sent on Egypt long ago.
I killed your young men in war and led all your horses away.*
The stench of death filled the air!
But still you would not return to me,”
says the LORD.

11“I destroyed some of your cities, as I destroyed* Sodom and Gomorrah.
Those of you who survived were like charred sticks pulled from a fire.
But still you would not return to me,”
says the LORD.

12“Therefore, I will bring upon you all the disasters I have announced.
Prepare to meet your God in judgment, you people of Israel!”

13For the LORD is the one who shaped the mountains, stirs up the winds, and reveals his thoughts to mankind.
He turns the light of dawn into darkness and treads on the heights of the earth.
The LORD God of Heaven’s Armies is his name!

Amos 5

A CALL TO REPENTANCE

1Listen, you people of Israel! Listen to this funeral song I am singing:

2“The virgin Israel has fallen, never to rise again!
She lies abandoned on the ground, with no one to help her up.”

3The Sovereign LORD says:

“When a city sends a thousand men to battle,
only a hundred will return.
When a town sends a hundred,
only ten will come back alive.”

4Now this is what the LORD says to the family of Israel: “Come back to me and live!

5Don’t worship at the pagan altars at Bethel; don’t go to the shrines at Gilgal or Beersheba.
For the people of Gilgal will be dragged off into exile, and the people of Bethel will be reduced to nothing.”

6Come back to the LORD and live!
Otherwise, he will roar through Israel* like a fire, devouring you completely.

Your gods in Bethel won't be able to quench the flames.

7You twist justice, making it a bitter pill for the oppressed.
You treat the righteous like dirt.

8It is the LORD who created the stars, the Pleiades and Orion.
He turns darkness into morning and day into night.
He draws up water from the oceans
and pours it down as rain on the land.
The LORD is his name!

9With blinding speed and power he destroys the strong, crushing all their defenses.

10How you hate honest judges!
How you despise people who tell the truth!

11You trample the poor, stealing their grain through taxes and unfair rent.
Therefore, though you build beautiful stone houses,
you will never live in them.
Though you plant lush vineyards, you will never drink wine from them.

12For I know the vast number of your sins and the depth of your rebellions.
You oppress good people by taking bribes and deprive the poor of justice in the courts.

13So those who are smart keep their mouths shut, for it is an evil time.

14Do what is good and run from evil so that you may live!
Then the LORD God of Heaven's Armies will be your helper, just as you have claimed.

15Hate evil and love what is good; turn your courts into true halls of justice.

Perhaps even yet the LORD God of Heaven's Armies will have mercy on the remnant of his people.*

16Therefore, this is what the Lord, the LORD God of Heaven's Armies, says: "There will be crying in all the public squares and mourning in every street.

Call for the farmers to weep with you, and summon professional mourners to wail.

17There will be wailing in every vineyard, for I will destroy them all,"
says the LORD.

WARNING OF COMING JUDGMENT

18What sorrow awaits you who say,

"If only the day of the LORD were here!"
You have no idea what you are wishing for.
That day will bring darkness, not light.

19In that day you will be like a man who runs from a lion— only to meet a bear.
Escaping from the bear, he leans his hand against a wall in his house— and he's bitten by a snake.

20Yes, the day of the LORD will be dark and hopeless, without a ray of joy or hope.

21"I hate all your show and pretense— the hypocrisy of your religious festivals and solemn assemblies.

22I will not accept your burnt offerings and grain offerings.
I won't even notice all your choice peace offerings.

23Away with your noisy hymns of praise!
I will not listen to the music of your harps.

24Instead, I want to see a mighty flood of justice, an endless river of righteous living.

25“Was it to me you were bringing sacrifices and offerings during the forty years in the wilderness, Israel? 26No, you served your pagan gods—Sakkuth your king god and Kaiwan your star god—the images you made for yourselves. 27So I will send you into exile, to a land east of Damascus,*” says the LORD, whose name is the God of Heaven’s Armies.

Amos 6

1What sorrow awaits you who lounge in luxury in Jerusalem,* and you who feel secure in Samaria!
You are famous and popular in Israel, and people go to you for help.

2But go over to Calneh and see what happened there.
Then go to the great city of Hamath and down to the Philistine city of Gath.
You are no better than they were,
and look at how they were destroyed.

3You push away every thought of coming disaster, but your actions only bring the day of judgment closer.

4How terrible for you who sprawl on ivory beds and lounge on your couches, eating the meat of tender lambs from the flock and of choice calves fattened in the stall.

5You sing trivial songs to the sound of the harp and fancy yourselves to be great musicians like David.

6You drink wine by the bowlful and perfume yourselves with fragrant lotions.
You care nothing about the ruin of your nation.*

7Therefore, you will be the first to be led away as captives.
Suddenly, all your parties will end.

8The Sovereign LORD has sworn by his own name, and this is what he, the LORD God of Heaven's Armies, says: "I despise the arrogance of Israel,*

and I hate their fortresses.
I will give this city and everything in it to their enemies."

9(If there are ten men left in one house, they will all die. 10And when a relative who is responsible to dispose of the dead* goes into the house to carry out the bodies, he will ask the last survivor, "Is anyone else with you?" When the person begins to swear, "No, by .
. . ," he will interrupt and say, "Stop! Don't even mention the name of the LORD.")

11When the LORD gives the command, homes both great and small will be smashed to pieces.

12Can horses gallop over boulders?
Can oxen be used to plow them?
But that's how foolish you are when you turn justice into poison and the sweet fruit of righteousness into bitterness.

13And you brag about your conquest of Lo-debar.*
You boast, "Didn't we take Karnaim* by our own strength?"

14"O people of Israel, I am about to bring an enemy nation against
you,"
says the LORD God of Heaven's Armies.
"They will oppress you throughout your land—from Lebo-hamath in the north to the Arabah Valley in the south."

Amos 7

A VISION OF LOCUSTS

1The Sovereign LORD showed me a vision. I saw him preparing to send a vast swarm of locusts over the land. This was after the king's share had been harvested from the fields and as the main crop was coming up. 2In my vision the locusts ate every green plant in sight.
Then I said, "O Sovereign LORD, please forgive us or we will not survive, for Israel* is so small."

3So the LORD relented from this plan. "I will not do it," he said.

A VISION OF FIRE

4Then the Sovereign LORD showed me another vision. I saw him preparing to punish his people with a great fire. The fire had burned up the depths of the sea and was devouring the entire land. 5Then I said, "O Sovereign LORD, please stop or we will not survive, for Israel is so small."

6Then the LORD relented from this plan, too. "I will not do that either," said the Sovereign LORD.

A VISION OF A PLUMB LINE

7Then he showed me another vision. I saw the Lord standing beside a wall that had been built using a plumb line. He was using a plumb line to see if it was still straight. 8And the LORD said to me, "Amos, what do you see?"

I answered, "A plumb line."

And the Lord replied, "I will test my people with this plumb line. I will no longer ignore all their sins. 9The pagan shrines of your ancestors* will be ruined, and the temples of Israel will be destroyed; I will bring the dynasty of King Jeroboam to a sudden end."

AMOS AND AMAZIAH

10Then Amaziah, the priest of Bethel, sent a message to Jeroboam, king of Israel: "Amos is hatching a plot against you right here on your very doorstep! What he is saying is intolerable. 11He is saying, 'Jeroboam will soon be killed, and the people of Israel will be sent away into exile.'"

12Then Amaziah sent orders to Amos: “Get out of here, you prophet! Go on back to the land of Judah, and earn your living by prophesying there! 13Don’t bother us with your prophecies here in Bethel. This is the king’s sanctuary and the national place of worship!”

14But Amos replied, “I’m not a professional prophet, and I was never trained to be one.* I’m just a shepherd, and I take care of sycamore-fig trees. 15But the LORD called me away from my flock and told me, ‘Go and prophesy to my people in Israel.’ 16Now then, listen to this message from the LORD: “You say, ‘Don’t prophesy against Israel.

Stop preaching against my people.*’

17But this is what the LORD says: ‘Your wife will become a prostitute in this city, and your sons and daughters will be killed.
Your land will be divided up, and you yourself will die in a foreign land.
And the people of Israel will certainly become captives in exile, far from their homeland.’”

Amos 8

A VISION OF RIPE FRUIT

1Then the Sovereign LORD showed me another vision. In it I saw a basket filled with ripe fruit. 2“What do you see, Amos?” he asked.

I replied, “A basket full of ripe fruit.”

Then the LORD said, “Like this fruit, Israel is ripe for punishment! I will not delay their punishment again. 3In that day the singing in the Temple will turn to wailing. Dead bodies will be scattered everywhere. They will be carried out of the city in silence. I, the Sovereign LORD, have spoken!”

4Listen to this, you who rob the poor and trample down the needy!

5You can’t wait for the Sabbath day to be over and the religious festivals to end
so you can get back to cheating the helpless.
You measure out grain with dishonest measures and cheat the buyer with dishonest scales.*

6And you mix the grain you sell with chaff swept from the floor.
Then you enslave poor people for one piece of silver or a pair of sandals.

7Now the LORD has sworn this oath by his own name, the Pride of Israel*: “I will never forget the wicked things you have done!

8The earth will tremble for your deeds, and everyone will mourn.
The ground will rise like the Nile River at floodtime;
it will heave up, then sink again.

9“In that day,” says the Sovereign LORD, “I will make the sun go down at noon
and darken the earth while it is still day.

10I will turn your celebrations into times of mourning and your singing into weeping.

You will wear funeral clothes and shave your heads to show your sorrow—as if your only son had died.
How very bitter that day will be!

11“The time is surely coming,” says the Sovereign LORD, “when I will send a famine on the land— not a famine of bread or water but of hearing the words of the LORD.

12People will stagger from sea to sea and wander from border to border*
searching for the word of the LORD, but they will not find it.

13Beautiful girls and strong young men will grow faint in that day, thirsting for the LORD’s word.

14And those who swear by the shameful idols of Samaria— who take oaths in the name of the god of Dan and make vows in the name of the god of Beersheba*— they will all fall down, never to rise again.”

Amos 9

A VISION OF GOD AT THE ALTAR

1Then I saw a vision of the Lord standing beside the altar. He said, “Strike the tops of the Temple columns, so that the foundation will shake.

Bring down the roof
on the heads of the people below.
I will kill with the sword those who survive.
No one will escape!

2“Even if they dig down to the place of the dead,*

I will reach down and pull them up.
Even if they climb up into the heavens,
I will bring them down.

3Even if they hide at the very top of Mount Carmel, I will search them out and capture them.
Even if they hide at the bottom of the ocean,
I will send the sea serpent after them to bite them.

4Even if their enemies drive them into exile, I will command the sword to kill them there.
I am determined to bring disaster upon them and not to help them."

5The Lord, the LORD of Heaven's Armies, touches the land and it melts, and all its people mourn.
The ground rises like the Nile River at floodtime, and then it sinks again.

6The LORD's home reaches up to the heavens, while its foundation is on the earth.
He draws up water from the oceans
and pours it down as rain on the land.
The LORD is his name!

7"Are you Israelites more important to me than the Ethiopians?*"
asks the LORD.
"I brought Israel out of Egypt, but I also brought the Philistines from Crete* and led the Arameans out of Kir.

8"I, the Sovereign LORD, am watching this sinful nation of Israel.
I will destroy it from the face of the earth.
But I will never completely destroy the family of Israel,*"
says the LORD.

9"For I will give the command and will shake Israel along with the other nations

as grain is shaken in a sieve, yet not one true kernel will be lost.

10But all the sinners will die by the sword— all those who say, ‘Nothing bad will happen to us.’

A PROMISE OF RESTORATION

11“In that day I will restore the fallen house* of David.

I will repair its damaged walls.
From the ruins I will rebuild it and restore its former glory.

12And Israel will possess what is left of Edom and all the nations I have called to be mine.*”
The LORD has spoken,
and he will do these things.

13“The time will come,” says the LORD, “when the grain and grapes will grow faster than they can be harvested.
Then the terraced vineyards on the hills of Israel will drip with sweet wine!

14I will bring my exiled people of Israel back from distant lands, and they will rebuild their ruined cities and live in them again.
They will plant vineyards and gardens;
they will eat their crops and drink their wine.

15I will firmly plant them there in their own land.
They will never again be uprooted from the land I have given them,” says the LORD your God.

Obadiah

Introduction 1

WELCOME TO

OBADIAH

The book of Obadiah is directed not at Israel, as most Old Testament prophecies are, but at the nation of Edom. The Edomites are descendants of Esau, the brother of Jacob. Jacob and Esau became enemies when Jacob betrayed his brother. Although they eventually reconciled, their descendants—Israel and Edom—would often come into conflict with each other. When Jerusalem is destroyed by Babylon in 586 BC, Edom treacherously plunders the stricken city instead of aiding the people there. Edom's violence against Israel—brother against brother—is sharply condemned by God through his prophet Obadiah. As a God of justice, God will not let the enemies of his beloved nation go unpunished.

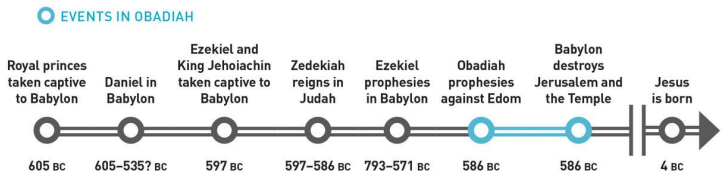
FINDING JESUS IN OBADIAH

We can see Jesus in the prophet Obadiah, who felt the sting of betrayal on behalf of God's people when Edom celebrated and profited from Jerusalem's downfall. Jesus also experienced this sting when Judas handed him over to the religious leaders. Like Judas, Edom would be judged for its betrayal. Obadiah spoke for the Lord, who promised to punish the injustices committed by Edom (1:15).



EDOM

1This is the vision that the Sovereign LORD revealed to Obadiah concerning the land of Edom.

EDOM'S JUDGMENT ANNOUNCED

We have heard a message from the LORD that an ambassador was sent to the nations to say, "Get ready, everyone!

Let's assemble our armies and attack Edom!"

2The LORD says to Edom, "I will cut you down to size among the nations; you will be greatly despised.

3You have been deceived by your own pride because you live in a rock fortress and make your home high in the mountains.
'Who can ever reach us way up here?'

you ask boastfully.

4But even if you soar as high as eagles and build your nest among the stars, I will bring you crashing down,"
says the LORD.

5"If thieves came at night and robbed you (what a disaster awaits
you!),
they would not take everything.
Those who harvest grapes always leave a few for the poor.
But your enemies will wipe you out completely!

6Every nook and cranny of Edom* will be searched and looted.
Every treasure will be found and taken.

7"All your allies will turn against you.
They will help to chase you from your land.
They will promise you peace while plotting to deceive and destroy you.
Your trusted friends will set traps for you, and you won't even know about it.

8At that time not a single wise person will be left in the whole land of Edom,"
says the LORD.
"For on the mountains of Edom
I will destroy everyone who has understanding.

9The mightiest warriors of Teman will be terrified, and everyone on the mountains of Edom will be cut down in the slaughter.

REASONS FOR EDOM'S PUNISHMENT

10"Because of the violence you did to your close relatives in Israel,*

you will be filled with shame and destroyed forever.

11When they were invaded, you stood aloof, refusing to help them.
Foreign invaders carried off their wealth and cast lots to divide up Jerusalem, but you acted like one of Israel's enemies.

12"You should not have gloated when they exiled your relatives to distant lands.
You should not have rejoiced
when the people of Judah suffered such misfortune.
You should not have spoken arrogantly in that terrible time of trouble.

13You should not have plundered the land of Israel when they were suffering such calamity.
You should not have gloated over their destruction when they were suffering such calamity.
You should not have seized their wealth when they were suffering such calamity.

14You should not have stood at the crossroads, killing those who tried to escape.
You should not have captured the survivors and handed them over in their terrible time of trouble.

EDOM DESTROYED, ISRAEL RESTORED

15"The day is near when I, the LORD, will judge all godless nations!

As you have done to Israel,
so it will be done to you.
All your evil deeds will fall back on your own heads.

16Just as you swallowed up my people on my holy mountain, so you and the surrounding nations will swallow the punishment I pour out on you.
Yes, all you nations will drink and stagger and disappear from history.

17“But Jerusalem* will become a refuge for those who escape; it will be a holy place.
And the people of Israel* will come back to reclaim their inheritance.

18The people of Israel will be a raging fire, and Edom a field of dry stubble.
The descendants of Joseph will be a flame roaring across the field, devouring everything.
There will be no survivors in Edom.
I, the LORD, have spoken!

19“Then my people living in the Negev will occupy the mountains of Edom.
Those living in the foothills of Judah* will possess the Philistine plains and take over the fields of Ephraim and Samaria.
And the people of Benjamin will occupy the land of Gilead.

20The exiles of Israel will return to their land and occupy the Phoenician coast as far north as Zarephath.
The captives from Jerusalem exiled in the north* will return home and resettle the towns of the Negev.

21Those who have been rescued* will go up to* Mount Zion in Jerusalem to rule over the mountains of Edom.
And the LORD himself will be king!”

Jonah

Introduction 1 2 3 4

WELCOME TO

JONAH

The book of Jonah contains the famous story of the man who is swallowed by a great fish and lives to tell about it. But the full story is greater than that. It is a story of God's love and compassion for all nations, not just his own people. God's graciousness extends beyond those who love him. He cares for every nation, every human, and every creature.

When God tells Jonah to go to Nineveh and call its people to repent of their sins, Jonah refuses. He doesn't want to give the wicked Assyrians a chance to repent and avoid God's judgment. He attempts to flee from God by ship, but God turns him around in dramatic fashion.

Finally, Jonah obeys God's command and goes to Nineveh to preach. What happens next, though, surprises and angers him.

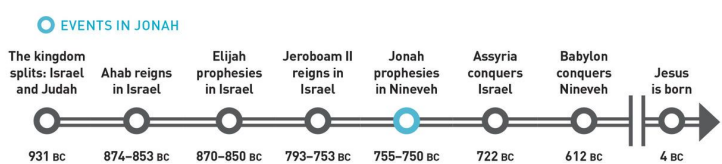
FINDING JESUS IN JONAH

Jesus can be seen in God's love for and readiness to forgive Israel's despised enemies, the Assyrians. Just as God showed compassion to the Ninevites, Jesus showed compassion to people such as the Samaritans, who were hated and avoided by the religious leaders of his day. The Good News—salvation through God's Son—is available to everyone.

In spite of some major differences between Jesus and Jonah, you can still see Jesus in parts of the prophet's life. Both men spent three days buried in death—Jonah (figuratively) in the belly of a fish, Jesus (literally) in a tomb—and when they emerged they preached of new life to those who heard their messages.



Jonah 1

JONAH RUNS FROM THE LORD

1The LORD gave this message to Jonah son of Amittai: 2"Get up and go to the great city of Nineveh. Announce my judgment against it because I have seen how wicked its people are."

JOPPA

TARSHISH

3But Jonah got up and went in the opposite direction to get away from the LORD. He went down to the port of Joppa, where he found a ship leaving for Tarshish. He bought a ticket and went on board, hoping to escape from the LORD by sailing to Tarshish.

4But the LORD hurled a powerful wind over the sea, causing a violent storm that threatened to break the ship apart. 5Fearing for their lives, the desperate sailors shouted to their gods for help and threw the cargo overboard to lighten the ship.

But all this time Jonah was sound asleep down in the hold. 6So the captain went down after him. “How can you sleep at a time like this?” he shouted. “Get up and pray to your god! Maybe he will pay attention to us and spare our lives.”

7Then the crew cast lots to see which of them had offended the gods and caused the terrible storm. When they did this, the lots identified Jonah as the culprit. 8“Why has this awful storm come down on us?” they demanded. “Who are you? What is your line of work? What country are you from? What is your nationality?”

9Jonah answered, “I am a Hebrew, and I worship the LORD, the God of heaven, who made the sea and the land.”

10The sailors were terrified when they heard this, for he had already told them he was running away from the LORD. “Oh, why did you do it?” they groaned. 11And since the storm was getting worse all the time, they asked him, “What should we do to you to stop this storm?”

12“Throw me into the sea,” Jonah said, “and it will become calm again. I know that this terrible storm is all my fault.”

13Instead, the sailors rowed even harder to get the ship to the land.
But the stormy sea was too violent for them, and they couldn’t make it. 14Then they cried out to the LORD, Jonah’s God. “O LORD,” they pleaded, “don’t make us die for this man’s sin. And don’t hold us responsible for his death. O LORD, you have sent this storm upon him for your own good reasons.”

15Then the sailors picked Jonah up and threw him into the raging sea, and the storm stopped at once! 16The sailors were awestruck by the LORD's great power, and they offered him a sacrifice and vowed to serve him.

17*Now the LORD had arranged for a great fish to swallow Jonah.
And Jonah was inside the fish for three days and three nights.

Jonah 2

JONAH'S PRAYER

1*Then Jonah prayed to the LORD his God from inside the fish. 2He said,

"I cried out to the LORD in my great trouble, and he answered me.
I called to you from the land of the dead,*
and LORD, you heard me!

3You threw me into the ocean depths, and I sank down to the heart of the sea.
The mighty waters engulfed me;
I was buried beneath your wild and stormy waves.

4Then I said, 'O LORD, you have driven me from your presence.
Yet I will look once more toward your holy Temple.'

5"I sank beneath the waves, and the waters closed over me.
Seaweed wrapped itself around my head.

6I sank down to the very roots of the mountains.
I was imprisoned in the earth, whose gates lock shut forever.
But you, O LORD my God, snatched me from the jaws of death!

7As my life was slipping away,
I remembered the LORD.
And my earnest prayer went out to you in your holy Temple.

8Those who worship false gods turn their backs on all God's mercies.

9But I will offer sacrifices to you with songs of praise, and I will fulfill all my vows.
For my salvation comes from the LORD alone."

10Then the LORD ordered the fish to spit Jonah out onto the beach.

Jonah 3

JONAH GOES TO NINEVEH

1Then the LORD spoke to Jonah a second time: 2“Get up and go to the great city of Nineveh, and deliver the message I have given you.”

NINEVEH

3This time Jonah obeyed the LORD's command and went to Nineveh, a city so large that it took three days to see it all.*4On the day Jonah entered the city, he shouted to the crowds: "Forty days from now Nineveh will be destroyed!" 5The people of Nineveh believed God's message, and from the greatest to the least, they declared a fast and put on burlap to show their sorrow.

6When the king of Nineveh heard what Jonah was saying, he stepped down from his throne and took off his royal robes. He dressed himself in burlap and sat on a heap of ashes. 7Then the king and his nobles sent this decree throughout the city:

"No one, not even the animals from your herds and flocks, may eat or drink anything at all. 8People and animals alike must wear garments of mourning, and everyone must pray earnestly to God.

They must turn from their evil ways and stop all their violence.
9Who can tell? Perhaps even yet God will change his mind and hold back his fierce anger from destroying us."

10When God saw what they had done and how they had put a stop to their evil ways, he changed his mind and did not carry out the destruction he had threatened.

Jonah 4

JONAH'S ANGER AT THE LORD'S MERCY

1This change of plans greatly upset Jonah, and he became very angry. 2So he complained to the LORD about it: "Didn't I say before I left home that you would do this, LORD? That is why I ran away to Tarshish! I knew that you are a merciful and compassionate God, slow to get angry and filled with unfailing love. You are eager to turn back from destroying people. 3Just kill me now, LORD! I'd rather be dead than alive if what I predicted will not happen."

4The LORD replied, "Is it right for you to be angry about this?"

5Then Jonah went out to the east side of the city and made a shelter to sit under as he waited to see what would happen to the city. 6And the LORD God arranged for a leafy plant to grow there, and soon it spread its broad leaves over Jonah's head, shading him from the sun. This eased his discomfort, and Jonah was very grateful for the plant.

7But God also arranged for a worm! The next morning at dawn the worm ate through the stem of the plant so that it withered away.
8And as the sun grew hot, God arranged for a scorching east wind to blow on Jonah. The sun beat down on his head until he grew faint and wished to die. "Death is certainly better than living like this!"
he exclaimed.

9Then God said to Jonah, “Is it right for you to be angry because the plant died?”

“Yes,” Jonah retorted, “even angry enough to die!”

10Then the LORD said, “You feel sorry about the plant, though you did nothing to put it there. It came quickly and died quickly. 11But Nineveh has more than 120,000 people living in spiritual darkness,* not to mention all the animals. Shouldn’t I feel sorry for such a great city?”

WELCOME TO

MICAH

Micah’s message is simple: God will punish the people for their wickedness. A contemporary of Isaiah, Micah preaches to both Israel and Judah in the 700s BC. He lives in a small town south of Jerusalem called Moresheth, but he directs his messages to the capital cities of Jerusalem and Samaria. He denounces their oppression, pride, greed, corruption, and false godliness. Because of their disobedience, God will hold them responsible for their actions.

But Micah also announces some good news—a wonderful future awaits God’s people. A ruler will come from Bethlehem who will bring peace and hope to the world.

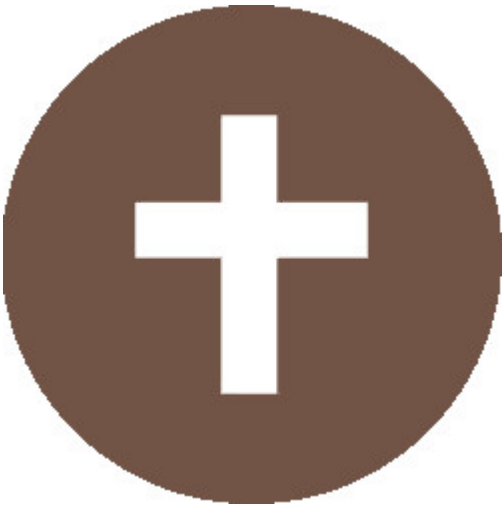
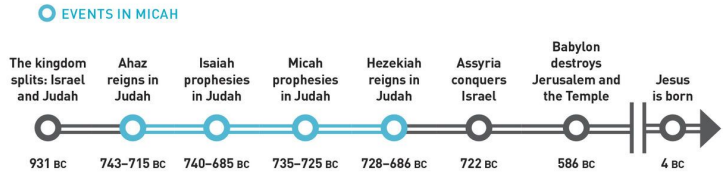
of the progression of Micah's prophecies, which begin with grief over the sins of God's people and end with a message of hope. Your next stop is at Micah 1:1.



FINDING JESUS IN MICAH

Similarities to Jesus can be seen in the prophet Micah, who condemned corrupt leaders who benefited from their positions of power: "You false prophets are leading my people astray!" (Micah 3:1-12). Like Micah, Jesus confronted the religious leaders of his day, calling them children of hell who misled their followers (Matthew 23:15).
Additionally, Micah predicts that a ruler will be born in Bethlehem (Micah 5:2) who would "lead his flock" (5:4) as his ancestor King David had done. He will be held in high esteem throughout the world and will bring peace.



Micah 1

1The LORD gave this message to Micah of Moresheth during the years when Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah were kings of Judah. The visions he saw concerned both Samaria and Jerusalem.

GRIEF OVER SAMARIA AND JERUSALEM

2Attention! Let all the people of the world listen!

Let the earth and everything in it hear.
The Sovereign LORD is making accusations against you; the Lord speaks from his holy Temple.

3Look! The LORD is coming!
He leaves his throne in heaven and tramples the heights of the earth.

4The mountains melt beneath his feet and flow into the valleys like wax in a fire, like water pouring down a hill.

THE FALL OF SAMARIA

5And why is this happening?
Because of the rebellion of Israel*— yes, the sins of the whole nation.
Who is to blame for Israel's rebellion?
Samaria, its capital city!
Where is the center of idolatry in Judah?
In Jerusalem, its capital!

6"So I, the LORD, will make the city of Samaria a heap of ruins.
Her streets will be plowed up for planting vineyards.
I will roll the stones of her walls into the valley below, exposing her foundations.

7All her carved images will be smashed.
All her sacred treasures will be burned.
These things were bought with the money earned by her prostitution, and they will now be carried away to pay prostitutes elsewhere."

8Therefore, I will mourn and lament.
I will walk around barefoot and naked.
I will howl like a jackal and moan like an owl.

9For my people's wound is too deep to heal.
It has reached into Judah,
even to the gates of Jerusalem.

10Don't tell our enemies in Gath*; don't weep at all.
You people in Beth-leaphrah,* roll in the dust to show your despair.

11You people in Shaphir,*
go as captives into exile—naked and ashamed.
The people of Zaanan* dare not come outside their walls.
The people of Beth-ezel* mourn, for their house has no support.

12The people of Maroth* anxiously wait for relief, but only bitterness awaits them as the LORD's judgment reaches even to the gates of Jerusalem.

13Harness your chariot horses and flee, you people of Lachish.*
You were the first city in Judah to follow Israel in her rebellion, and you led Jerusalem* into sin.

14Send farewell gifts to Moresheth-gath*; there is no hope of saving it.
The town of Aczib* has deceived the kings of Israel.

15O people of Mareshah,*
I will bring a conqueror to capture your town.
And the leaders* of Israel will go to Adullam.

16Oh, people of Judah, shave your heads in sorrow, for the children you love will be snatched away.

Make yourselves as bald as a vulture, for your little ones will be exiled to distant lands.

Micah 2

JUDGMENT AGAINST WEALTHY OPPRESSORS

1What sorrow awaits you who lie awake at night, thinking up evil plans.
You rise at dawn and hurry to carry them out, simply because you have the power to do so.

2When you want a piece of land, you find a way to seize it.
When you want someone's house,
you take it by fraud and violence.
You cheat a man of his property, stealing his family's inheritance.

3But this is what the LORD says: "I will reward your evil with evil;
you won't be able to pull your neck out of the noose.
You will no longer walk around proudly, for it will be a terrible time."

4In that day your enemies will make fun of you by singing this song of despair about you:
"We are finished,
completely ruined!
God has confiscated our land,
taking it from us.
He has given our fields to those who betrayed us.*"

5Others will set your boundaries then, and the LORD's people will have no say in how the land is divided.

TRUE AND FALSE PROPHETS

6"Don't say such things,"

the people respond.*
"Don't prophesy like that.
Such disasters will never come our way!"

7Should you talk that way, O family of Israel?*
Will the LORD's Spirit have patience with such behavior?
If you would do what is right,
you would find my words comforting.

8Yet to this very hour my people rise against me like an enemy!
You steal the shirts right off the backs of those who trusted you, making them as ragged as men returning from battle.

9You have evicted women from their pleasant homes and forever stripped their children of all that God would give them.

10Up! Begone!
This is no longer your land and home, for you have filled it with sin and ruined it completely.

11Suppose a prophet full of lies would say to you, "I'll preach to you the joys of wine and alcohol!"
That's just the kind of prophet you would like!

HOPE FOR RESTORATION

12"Someday, O Israel, I will gather you;

I will gather the remnant who are left.
I will bring you together again like sheep in a pen, like a flock in its pasture.

Yes, your land will again be filled with noisy crowds!

13Your leader will break out and lead you out of exile, out through the gates of the enemy cities, back to your own land.
Your king will lead you;
the LORD himself will guide you.”

Micah 3

JUDGMENT AGAINST ISRAEL’S LEADERS

1I said, “Listen, you leaders of Israel!
You are supposed to know right from wrong,

2but you are the very ones who hate good and love evil.
You skin my people alive and tear the flesh from their bones.

3Yes, you eat my people’s flesh, strip off their skin, and break their bones.
You chop them up like meat for the cooking pot.

4Then you beg the LORD for help in times of trouble!
Do you really expect him to answer?
After all the evil you have done,
he won’t even look at you!”

5This is what the LORD says: “You false prophets are leading my people astray!
You promise peace for those who give you food, but you declare war on those who refuse to feed you.

6Now the night will close around you, cutting off all your visions.
Darkness will cover you, putting an end to your predictions.

The sun will set for you prophets, and your day will come to an end.

7Then you seers will be put to shame, and you fortune-tellers will be disgraced.
And you will cover your faces because there is no answer from God.”

8But as for me, I am filled with power— with the Spirit of the LORD.
I am filled with justice and strength to boldly declare Israel’s sin and rebellion.

9Listen to me, you leaders of Israel!
You hate justice and twist all that is right.

10You are building Jerusalem on a foundation of murder and corruption.

11You rulers make decisions based on bribes; you priests teach God’s laws only for a price;
you prophets won’t prophesy unless you are paid.
Yet all of you claim to depend on the LORD.
“No harm can come to us,” you say,
“for the LORD is here among us.”

THE FALL OF JERUSALEM

12Because of you, Mount Zion will be plowed like an open field;
Jerusalem will be reduced to ruins!
A thicket will grow on the heights where the Temple now stands.

Micah 4

THE LORD’S FUTURE REIGN

1In the last days, the mountain of the LORD's house will be the highest of all— the most important place on earth.
It will be raised above the other hills,
and people from all over the world will stream there to worship.

2People from many nations will come and say, "Come, let us go up to the mountain of the LORD, to the house of Jacob's God.
There he will teach us his ways,
and we will walk in his paths."
For the LORD's teaching will go out from Zion; his word will go out from Jerusalem.

3The LORD will mediate between peoples and will settle disputes between strong nations far away.
They will hammer their swords into plowshares
and their spears into pruning hooks.
Nation will no longer fight against nation,
nor train for war anymore.

4Everyone will live in peace and prosperity, enjoying their own grapevines and fig trees, for there will be nothing to fear.
The LORD of Heaven's Armies has made this promise!

5Though the nations around us follow their idols, we will follow the LORD our God forever and ever.

ISRAEL'S RETURN FROM EXILE

6"In that coming day," says the LORD,

"I will gather together those who are lame,
those who have been exiles,
and those whom I have filled with grief.

7Those who are weak will survive as a remnant; those who were exiles will become a strong nation.
Then I, the LORD, will rule from Jerusalem*

as their king forever.”

8As for you, Jerusalem, the citadel of God’s people,* your royal might and power will come back to you again.
The kingship will be restored to my precious Jerusalem.

9But why are you now screaming in terror?
Have you no king to lead you?
Have your wise people all died?
Pain has gripped you like a woman in childbirth.

10Writhe and groan like a woman in labor, you people of Jerusalem,* for now you must leave this city to live in the open country.
You will soon be sent in exile to distant Babylon.
But the LORD will rescue you there;
he will redeem you from the grip of your enemies.

11Now many nations have gathered against you.
“Let her be desecrated,” they say.
“Let us see the destruction of Jerusalem.*”

12But they do not know the LORD’s thoughts or understand his plan.
These nations don’t know that he is gathering them together to be beaten and trampled like sheaves of grain on a threshing floor.

13“Rise up and crush the nations, O Jerusalem!”*
says the LORD.
“For I will give you iron horns and bronze hooves, so you can trample many nations to pieces.
You will present their stolen riches to the LORD, their wealth to the Lord of all the earth.”

Micah 5

1*Mobilize! Marshal your troops!
The enemy is laying siege to Jerusalem.
They will strike Israel’s leader in the face with a rod.

THE MESSIAH MICAH 5:2-5

A RULER FROM BETHLEHEM

2*But you, O Bethlehem Ephrathah, are only a small village among all the people of Judah.

Yet a ruler of Israel, whose origins are in the distant past, will come from you on my behalf.

3The people of Israel will be abandoned to their enemies until the woman in labor gives birth.
Then at last his fellow countrymen will return from exile to their own land.

4And he will stand to lead his flock with the LORD’s strength, in the majesty of the name of the LORD his God.
Then his people will live there undisturbed, for he will be highly honored around the world.

5And he will be the source of peace.
When the Assyrians invade our land and break through our defenses, we will appoint seven rulers to watch over us,
eight princes to lead us.

6They will rule Assyria with drawn swords and enter the gates of the land of Nimrod.
He will rescue us from the Assyrians when they pour over the borders to invade our land.

THE REMNANT PURIFIED

7Then the remnant left in Israel* will take their place among the nations.

They will be like dew sent by the LORD or like rain falling on the grass, which no one can hold back and no one can restrain.

8The remnant left in Israel will take their place among the nations.
They will be like a lion among the animals of the forest, like a strong young lion among flocks of sheep and goats, pouncing and tearing as they go with no rescuer in sight.

9The people of Israel will stand up to their foes, and all their enemies will be wiped out.

10"In that day," says the LORD, "I will slaughter your horses and destroy your chariots.

11I will tear down your walls and demolish your defenses.

12I will put an end to all witchcraft, and there will be no more fortune-tellers.

13I will destroy all your idols and sacred pillars, so you will never again worship the work of your own hands.

14I will abolish your idol shrines with their Asherah poles and destroy your pagan cities.

15I will pour out my vengeance on all the nations that refuse to obey me.”

Micah 6

THE LORD’S CASE AGAINST ISRAEL

1Listen to what the LORD is saying:

“Stand up and state your case against me.
Let the mountains and hills be called to witness your complaints.

2And now, O mountains, listen to the LORD’s complaint!
He has a case against his people.
He will bring charges against Israel.

3“O my people, what have I done to you?
What have I done to make you tired of me?
Answer me!

4For I brought you out of Egypt and redeemed you from slavery.
I sent Moses, Aaron, and Miriam to help you.

5Don’t you remember, my people, how King Balak of Moab tried to have you cursed and how Balaam son of Beor blessed you instead?
And remember your journey from Acacia Grove* to Gilgal, when I, the LORD, did everything I could to teach you about my faithfulness.”

6What can we bring to the LORD?
Should we bring him burnt offerings?
Should we bow before God Most High with offerings of yearling calves?

7Should we offer him thousands of rams and ten thousand rivers of olive oil?
Should we sacrifice our firstborn children to pay for our sins?

8No, O people, the LORD has told you what is good, and this is what he requires of you:
to do what is right, to love mercy, and to walk humbly with your God.

ISRAEL'S GUILT AND PUNISHMENT

9Fear the LORD if you are wise!

His voice calls to everyone in Jerusalem:
"The armies of destruction are coming;
the LORD is sending them.*

10What shall I say about the homes of the wicked filled with treasures gained by cheating?
What about the disgusting practice of measuring out grain with dishonest measures?*

11How can I tolerate your merchants who use dishonest scales and weights?

12The rich among you have become wealthy through extortion and violence.
Your citizens are so used to lying that their tongues can no longer tell the truth.

13"Therefore, I will wound you!
I will bring you to ruin for all your sins.

14You will eat but never have enough.
Your hunger pangs and emptiness will remain.
And though you try to save your money, it will come to nothing in the end.

You will save a little,
but I will give it to those who conquer you.

15You will plant crops but not harvest them.
You will press your olives but not get enough oil to anoint yourselves.
You will trample the grapes but get no juice to make your wine.

16You keep only the laws of evil King Omri; you follow only the example of wicked King Ahab!
Therefore, I will make an example of you, bringing you to complete ruin.
You will be treated with contempt, mocked by all who see you.”

Micah 7

MISERY TURNED TO HOPE

1How miserable I am!
I feel like the fruit picker after the harvest who can find nothing to eat.
Not a cluster of grapes or a single early fig can be found to satisfy my hunger.

2The godly people have all disappeared; not one honest person is left on the earth.
They are all murderers, setting traps even for their own brothers.

3Both their hands are equally skilled at doing evil!
Officials and judges alike demand bribes.
The people with influence get what they want,
and together they scheme to twist justice.

4Even the best of them is like a brier; the most honest is as dangerous as a hedge of thorns.
But your judgment day is coming swiftly now.
Your time of punishment is here, a time of confusion.

5Don’t trust anyone— not your best friend or even your wife!

6For the son despises his father.
The daughter defies her mother.
The daughter-in-law defies her mother-in-law.
Your enemies are right in your own household!

7As for me, I look to the LORD for help.
I wait confidently for God to save me, and my God will certainly hear me.

8Do not gloat over me, my enemies!
For though I fall, I will rise again.
Though I sit in darkness,
the LORD will be my light.

9I will be patient as the LORD punishes me, for I have sinned against him.
But after that, he will take up my case and give me justice for all I have suffered from my enemies.
The LORD will bring me into the light, and I will see his righteousness.

10Then my enemies will see that the LORD is on my side.
They will be ashamed that they taunted me, saying,
“So where is the LORD—that God of yours?”
With my own eyes I will see their downfall;
they will be trampled like mud in the streets.

11In that day, Israel, your cities will be rebuilt, and your borders will be extended.

12People from many lands will come and honor you— from Assyria all the way to the towns of Egypt, from Egypt all the way to the Euphrates River,*
and from distant seas and mountains.

13But the land* will become empty and desolate because of the wickedness of those who live there.

THE LORD'S COMPASSION ON ISRAEL

14O LORD, protect your people with your shepherd's staff; lead your flock, your special possession.

Though they live alone in a thicket on the heights of Mount Carmel,* let them graze in the fertile pastures of Bashan and Gilead as they did long ago.

15"Yes," says the LORD, "I will do mighty miracles for you, like those I did when I rescued you from slavery in Egypt."

16All the nations of the world will stand amazed at what the LORD will do for you.
They will be embarrassed
at their feeble power.
They will cover their mouths in silent awe, deaf to everything around them.

17Like snakes crawling from their holes, they will come out to meet the LORD our God.
They will fear him greatly, trembling in terror at his presence.

18Where is another God like you, who pardons the guilt of the remnant,
overlooking the sins of his special people?
You will not stay angry with your people forever, because you delight in showing unfailing love.

19Once again you will have compassion on us.
You will trample our sins under your feet and throw them into the depths of the ocean!

20You will show us your faithfulness and unfailing love as you promised to our ancestors Abraham and Jacob long ago.

WELCOME TO

NAHUM

Nahum preaches to the kingdom of Judah several decades after the northern kingdom, Israel, is conquered by the Assyrians. His goal is to bring comfort to the people of Judah, who are now being threatened by that same enemy. Nahum assures the people of Judah that God is in control and will save them from destruction. God is going to destroy the city of Nineveh, the capital of the cruel Assyrians, for their idolatry, murder, lies, and injustice. This message comforts the people of Judah, reminding them that God is in control of the nations. The world is subject to his justice.

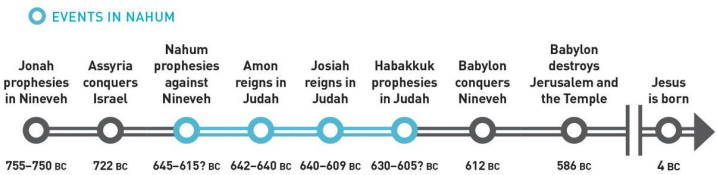
FINDING JESUS IN NAHUM

You will catch a glimpse of Jesus in the prophet Nahum, whose name means “comfort.” Jesus is the great Comforter who is close to us and is our refuge when trouble comes (1:7). Jesus also can be seen in the prophet’s descriptions of God as a powerful warrior who tramples down Nineveh for its sins and brings justice to those it has oppressed. In the book of Revelation, Jesus is described with similar imagery. The God of Nahum is Jesus, the Messiah, King of all kings.



Nahum 1

1This message concerning Nineveh came as a vision to Nahum, who lived in Elkosh.

THE LORD'S ANGER AGAINST NINEVEH

2The LORD is a jealous God, filled with vengeance and rage.

He takes revenge on all who oppose him and continues to rage against his enemies!

3The LORD is slow to get angry, but his power is great, and he never lets the guilty go unpunished.
He displays his power in the whirlwind and the storm.
The billowing clouds are the dust beneath his feet.

4At his command the oceans dry up, and the rivers disappear.
The lush pastures of Bashan and Carmel fade, and the green forests of Lebanon wither.

5In his presence the mountains quake, and the hills melt away;
the earth trembles,
and its people are destroyed.

6Who can stand before his fierce anger?
Who can survive his burning fury?
His rage blazes forth like fire, and the mountains crumble to dust in his presence.

7The LORD is good, a strong refuge when trouble comes.
He is close to those who trust in him.

8But he will sweep away his enemies* in an overwhelming flood.
He will pursue his foes into the darkness of night.

9Why are you scheming against the LORD?
He will destroy you with one blow;
he won't need to strike twice!

10His enemies, tangled like thornbushes and staggering like drunks, will be burned up like dry stubble in a field.

11Who is this wicked counselor of yours who plots evil against the

LORD?

12This is what the LORD says: “Though the Assyrians have many allies, they will be destroyed and disappear.
O my people, I have punished you before, but I will not punish you again.

13Now I will break the yoke of bondage from your neck and tear off the chains of Assyrian oppression.”

14And this is what the LORD says concerning the Assyrians in Nineveh: “You will have no more children to carry on your name.
I will destroy all the idols in the temples of your gods.
I am preparing a grave for you because you are despicable!”

15*Look! A messenger is coming over the mountains with good news!
He is bringing a message of peace.
Celebrate your festivals, O people of Judah, and fulfill all your vows,
for your wicked enemies will never invade your land again.
They will be completely destroyed!

Nahum 2

THE FALL OF NINEVEH

1*Your enemy is coming to crush you, Nineveh.
Man the ramparts! Watch the roads!
Prepare your defenses! Call out your forces!

2Even though the destroyer has destroyed Judah, the LORD will restore its honor.
Israel's vine has been stripped of branches, but he will restore its splendor.

3Shields flash red in the sunlight!
See the scarlet uniforms of the valiant troops!
Watch as their glittering chariots move into position, with a forest of spears waving above them.*

4The chariots race recklessly along the streets and rush wildly through the squares.
They flash like firelight and move as swiftly as lightning.

5The king shouts to his officers; they stumble in their haste, rushing to the walls to set up their defenses.

6The river gates have been torn open!
The palace is about to collapse!

7Nineveh's exile has been decreed, and all the servant girls mourn its capture.
They moan like doves and beat their breasts in sorrow.

8Nineveh is like a leaking water reservoir!
The people are slipping away.
"Stop, stop!" someone shouts, but no one even looks back.

9Loot the silver!
Plunder the gold!
There's no end to Nineveh's treasures—its vast, uncounted wealth.

10Soon the city is plundered, empty, and ruined.
Hearts melt and knees shake.
The people stand aghast, their faces pale and trembling.

11Where now is that great Nineveh, that den filled with young lions?
It was a place where people—like lions and their cubs— walked freely and without fear.

12The lion tore up meat for his cubs and strangled prey for his mate.
He filled his den with prey, his caverns with his plunder.

13“I am your enemy!”
says the LORD of Heaven’s Armies.
“Your chariots will soon go up in smoke.
Your young men* will be killed in battle.
Never again will you plunder conquered nations.
The voices of your proud messengers will be heard no more.”

Nahum 3

THE LORD’S JUDGMENT AGAINST NINEVEH

1What sorrow awaits Nineveh, the city of murder and lies!
She is crammed with wealth and is never without victims.

2Hear the crack of whips, the rumble of wheels!
Horses’ hooves pound,
and chariots clatter wildly.

3See the flashing swords and glittering spears as the charioteers charge past!
There are countless casualties, heaps of bodies—

so many bodies that people stumble over them.

4All this because Nineveh, the beautiful and faithless city, mistress of deadly charms, enticed the nations with her beauty.
She taught them all her magic, enchanting people everywhere.

5“I am your enemy!”
says the LORD of Heaven’s Armies.
“And now I will lift your skirts and show all the earth your nakedness and shame.

6I will cover you with filth and show the world how vile you really are.

7All who see you will shrink back and say, ‘Nineveh lies in ruins.
Where are the mourners?’
Does anyone regret your destruction?”

8Are you any better than the city of Thebes,* situated on the Nile River, surrounded by water?
She was protected by the river on all sides, walled in by water.

9Ethiopia* and the land of Egypt gave unlimited assistance.
The nations of Put and Libya were among her allies.

10Yet Thebes fell, and her people were led away as captives.
Her babies were dashed to death against the stones of the streets.
Soldiers threw dice* to get Egyptian officers as servants.
All their leaders were bound in chains.

11And you, Nineveh, will also stagger like a drunkard.
You will hide for fear of the attacking enemy.

12All your fortresses will fall.
They will be devoured like the ripe figs that fall into the mouths of those who shake the trees.

13Your troops will be as weak and helpless as women.
The gates of your land will be opened wide to the enemy and set on fire and burned.

14Get ready for the siege!
Store up water!
Strengthen the defenses!
Go into the pits to trample clay,
and pack it into molds,
making bricks to repair the walls.

15But the fire will devour you; the sword will cut you down.
The enemy will consume you like locusts, devouring everything they see.
There will be no escape,
even if you multiply like swarming locusts.

16Your merchants have multiplied until they outnumber the stars.
But like a swarm of locusts, they strip the land and fly away.

17Your guards* and officials are also like swarming locusts that crowd together in the hedges on a cold day.
But like locusts that fly away when the sun comes up, all of them will fly away and disappear.

18Your shepherds are asleep, O Assyrian king; your princes lie dead in the dust.
Your people are scattered across the mountains with no one to gather them together.

NINEVEH

19There is no healing for your wound; your injury is fatal.
All who hear of your destruction will clap their hands for joy.
Where can anyone be found who has not suffered from your continual cruelty?

Habakkuk

WELCOME TO

HABAKKUK

God has chosen the people of Judah as his own, but all Habakkuk sees around him in Judah is wickedness and violence. He cries out to God, complaining about this state of affairs, and receives a very unexpected answer. God is intent on punishing the people of Judah for their sins, and he will use the notoriously brutal Babylonians as the instruments of his judgment. This leaves Habakkuk more baffled than before.

Habakkuk receives far more than he asks for in the visions that God gives him in response. For Habakkuk, seeing these new pictures of God gives him the courage to live through dark days with determination and strength. Habakkuk's closing prayer is a beautiful testimony of his renewed faith in God.

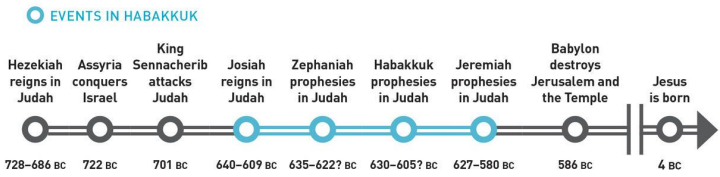
FINDING JESUS IN HABAKKUK

You can see Jesus in God's responding to Habakkuk in a personal and intimate way. When the prophet came to God with a heartfelt cry of anguish over the injustice he saw around him, God answered him by providing a wider perspective. Similarly, Jesus came to earth and dealt directly and personally with humanity. Habakkuk responded to God with praise and joy; we should respond to Jesus in the same way.



Habakkuk 1

1This is the message that the prophet Habakkuk received in a vision.

HABAKKUK'S COMPLAINT

2How long, O LORD, must I call for help?

But you do not listen!
"Violence is everywhere!" I cry,
but you do not come to save.

3Must I forever see these evil deeds?
Why must I watch all this misery?
Wherever I look,
I see destruction and violence.
I am surrounded by people who love to argue and fight.

4The law has become paralyzed, and there is no justice in the courts.
The wicked far outnumber the righteous, so that justice has become perverted.

THE LORD'S REPLY

5The LORD replied,

"Look around at the nations;
look and be amazed!*
For I am doing something in your own day, something you wouldn't believe even if someone told you about it.

6I am raising up the Babylonians,*
a cruel and violent people.
They will march across the world and conquer other lands.

7They are notorious for their cruelty and do whatever they like.

8Their horses are swifter than cheetahs* and fiercer than wolves at dusk.
Their charioteers charge from far away.
Like eagles, they swoop down to devour their prey.

9"On they come, all bent on violence.
Their hordes advance like a desert wind, sweeping captives ahead of them like sand.

10They scoff at kings and princes and scorn all their fortresses.
They simply pile ramps of earth against their walls and capture them!

11They sweep past like the wind and are gone.
But they are deeply guilty, for their own strength is their god."

HABAKKUK'S SECOND COMPLAINT

12O LORD my God, my Holy One, you who are eternal— surely you do not plan to wipe us out?

O LORD, our Rock, you have sent these Babylonians to correct us, to punish us for our many sins.

13But you are pure and cannot stand the sight of evil.
Will you wink at their treachery?
Should you be silent while the wicked swallow up people more righteous than they?

14Are we only fish to be caught and killed?
Are we only sea creatures that have no leader?

15Must we be strung up on their hooks and caught in their nets while they rejoice and celebrate?

16Then they will worship their nets and burn incense in front of them.
"These nets are the gods who have made us rich!"
they will claim.

17Will you let them get away with this forever?
Will they succeed forever in their heartless conquests?

Habakkuk 2

1I will climb up to my watchtower and stand at my guardpost.
There I will wait to see what the LORD says and how he* will answer my complaint.

THE LORD'S SECOND REPLY

2Then the LORD said to me,

"Write my answer plainly on tablets, so that a runner can carry the correct message to others.

3This vision is for a future time.
It describes the end, and it will be fulfilled.
If it seems slow in coming, wait patiently, for it will surely take place.
It will not be delayed.

4"Look at the proud!
They trust in themselves, and their lives are crooked.
But the righteous will live by their faithfulness to God.*

5Wealth* is treacherous, and the arrogant are never at rest.
They open their mouths as wide as the grave,*
and like death, they are never satisfied.
In their greed they have gathered up many nations and swallowed many peoples.

6"But soon their captives will taunt them.
They will mock them, saying,
'What sorrow awaits you thieves!
Now you will get what you deserve!
You've become rich by extortion, but how much longer can this go on?’

7Suddenly, your debtors will take action.
They will turn on you and take all you have,
while you stand trembling and helpless.

8Because you have plundered many nations, now all the survivors will plunder you.
You committed murder throughout the countryside
and filled the towns with violence.

9“What sorrow awaits you who build big houses with money gained dishonestly!
You believe your wealth will buy security, putting your family’s nest beyond the reach of danger.

10But by the murders you committed, you have shamed your name and forfeited your lives.

11The very stones in the walls cry out against you, and the beams in the ceilings echo the complaint.

12“What sorrow awaits you who build cities with money gained through murder and corruption!

13Has not the LORD of Heaven’s Armies promised that the wealth of nations will turn to ashes?
They work so hard,
but all in vain!

14For as the waters fill the sea, the earth will be filled with an awareness of the glory of the LORD.

15“What sorrow awaits you who make your neighbors drunk!
You force your cup on them so you can gloat over their shameful nakedness.

16But soon it will be your turn to be disgraced.
Come, drink and be exposed!*
Drink from the cup of the LORD’s judgment, and all your glory will be turned to shame.

17You cut down the forests of Lebanon.
Now you will be cut down.
You destroyed the wild animals,
so now their terror will be yours.
You committed murder throughout the countryside
and filled the towns with violence.

18“What good is an idol carved by man, or a cast image that deceives you?
How foolish to trust in your own creation—a god that can’t even talk!

19What sorrow awaits you who say to wooden idols, ‘Wake up and save us!’
To speechless stone images you say, ‘Rise up and teach us!’
Can an idol tell you what to do?
They may be overlaid with gold and silver,
but they are lifeless inside.

20But the LORD is in his holy Temple.
Let all the earth be silent before him.”

PRAYERS HABAKKUK 3:1-19

Habakkuk 3

HABAKKUK'S PRAYER

1This prayer was sung by the prophet Habakkuk*:

2I have heard all about you, LORD.
I am filled with awe by your amazing works.
In this time of our deep need, help us again as you did in years gone by.

And in your anger,
remember your mercy.

3I see God moving across the deserts from Edom,* the Holy One coming from Mount Paran.*
His brilliant splendor fills the heavens, and the earth is filled with his praise.

4His coming is as brilliant as the sunrise.
Rays of light flash from his hands,
where his awesome power is hidden.

5Pestilence marches before him; plague follows close behind.

6When he stops, the earth shakes.
When he looks, the nations tremble.
He shatters the everlasting mountains and levels the eternal hills.
He is the Eternal One!*

7I see the people of Cushan in distress, and the nation of Midian trembling in terror.

8Was it in anger, LORD, that you struck the rivers and parted the sea?
Were you displeased with them?
No, you were sending your chariots of salvation!

9You brandished your bow and your quiver of arrows.
You split open the earth with flowing rivers.

10The mountains watched and trembled.
Onward swept the raging waters.
The mighty deep cried out, lifting its hands in submission.

11The sun and moon stood still in the sky as your brilliant arrows flew

and your glittering spear flashed.

12You marched across the land in anger and trampled the nations in your fury.

13You went out to rescue your chosen people, to save your anointed ones.
You crushed the heads of the wicked and stripped their bones from head to toe.

14With his own weapons, you destroyed the chief of those who rushed out like a whirlwind, thinking Israel would be easy prey.

15You trampled the sea with your horses, and the mighty waters piled high.

16I trembled inside when I heard this; my lips quivered with fear.
My legs gave way beneath me,*
and I shook in terror.
I will wait quietly for the coming day when disaster will strike the people who invade us.

17Even though the fig trees have no blossoms, and there are no grapes on the vines;
even though the olive crop fails,
and the fields lie empty and barren;
even though the flocks die in the fields,
and the cattle barns are empty,

18yet I will rejoice in the LORD!
I will be joyful in the God of my salvation!

19The Sovereign LORD is my strength!
He makes me as surefooted as a deer,*
able to tread upon the heights.

(For the choir director: This prayer is to be accompanied by stringed instruments.)

Zephaniah

Introduction 1 2 3

WELCOME TO

ZEPHANIAH

Zephaniah is a prophet to the nation of Judah. He declares that a day of judgment is coming—the Day of the Lord. On this day the Lord will judge all the kingdoms and nations of the world. The prophet declares judgment on Judah's enemies—Philistia, Moab, Ammon, Ethiopia, and Assyria—but he also proclaims a coming judgment against the city of Jerusalem itself. Stirred by Zephaniah's message, King Josiah institutes sweeping reforms, though they don't last.

Zephaniah's message is a stern one, based on the righteous judgment of God; but it also leaves the people with hope and a promise. Some day the Lord will live among his people, and they will be glad and rejoice.

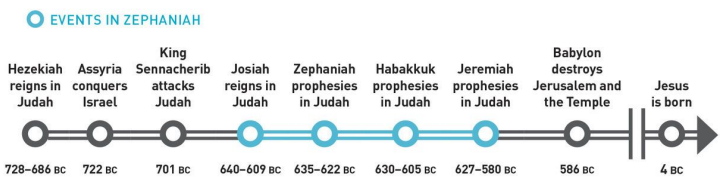
FINDING JESUS IN ZEPHANIAH

Jesus' time on earth was the fulfillment of what Zephaniah had promised, that "the LORD himself . . . will live among you" (3:15). Jesus spent his life and ministry teaching people how to live rightly by loving God and loving others. Love was part of God's plan for bringing justice. Jesus also died so that people could live with God and love him forever.



Zephaniah 1

1The LORD gave this message to Zephaniah when Josiah son of Amon was king of Judah. Zephaniah was the son of Cushi, son of Gedaliah, son of Amariah, son of Hezekiah.

COMING JUDGMENT AGAINST JUDAH

2"I will sweep away everything from the face of the earth," says the LORD.

3"I will sweep away people and animals alike.
I will sweep away the birds of the sky and the fish in the sea.
I will reduce the wicked to heaps of rubble,* and I will wipe humanity from the face of the earth," says the LORD.

4"I will crush Judah and Jerusalem with my fist and destroy every last trace of their Baal worship.
I will put an end to all the idolatrous priests, so that even the memory of them will disappear.

5For they go up to their roofs and bow down to the sun, moon, and stars.
They claim to follow the LORD,
but then they worship Molech,* too.

6And I will destroy those who used to worship me but now no longer do.
They no longer ask for the LORD's guidance or seek my blessings."

7Stand in silence in the presence of the Sovereign LORD, for the awesome day of the LORD's judgment is near.
The LORD has prepared his people for a great slaughter and has chosen their executioners.*

8"On that day of judgment,"
says the LORD,
"I will punish the leaders and princes of Judah and all those following pagan customs.

9Yes, I will punish those who participate in pagan worship ceremonies, and those who fill their masters' houses with violence and deceit.

10"On that day," says the LORD, "a cry of alarm will come from the Fish Gate and echo throughout the New Quarter of the city.*
And a great crash will sound from the hills.

11Wail in sorrow, all you who live in the market area,* for all the merchants and traders will be destroyed.

12"I will search with lanterns in Jerusalem's darkest corners to punish those who sit complacent in their sins.
They think the LORD will do nothing to them, either good or bad.

13So their property will be plundered, their homes will be ransacked.
They will build new homes
but never live in them.
They will plant vineyards
but never drink wine from them.

14"That terrible day of the LORD is near.
Swiftly it comes—a day of bitter tears,
a day when even strong men will cry out.

15It will be a day when the LORD's anger is poured out— a day of terrible distress and anguish, a day of ruin and desolation,
a day of darkness and gloom,
a day of clouds and blackness,

16a day of trumpet calls and battle cries.
Down go the walled cities and the strongest battlements!

17“Because you have sinned against the LORD, I will make you grope around like the blind.
Your blood will be poured into the dust,
and your bodies will lie rotting on the ground.”

18Your silver and gold will not save you on that day of the LORD’s anger.
For the whole land will be devoured by the fire of his jealousy.
He will make a terrifying end of all the people on earth.*

Zephaniah 2

A CALL TO REPENTANCE

1Gather together—yes, gather together, you shameless nation.

2Gather before judgment begins, before your time to repent is blown away like chaff.
Act now, before the fierce fury of the LORD falls and the terrible day of the LORD’s anger begins.

3Seek the LORD, all who are humble, and follow his commands.
Seek to do what is right and to live humbly.
Perhaps even yet the LORD will protect you— protect you from his anger on that day of destruction.

JUDGMENT BEYOND JUDAH

JUDGMENT AGAINST PHILISTIA

4Gaza and Ashkelon will be abandoned,

Ashdod and Ekron torn down.

5And what sorrow awaits you Philistines* who live along the coast and in the land of Canaan, for this judgment is against you, too!
The LORD will destroy you until not one of you is left.

6The Philistine coast will become a wilderness pasture, a place of shepherd camps and enclosures for sheep and goats.

7The remnant of the tribe of Judah will pasture there.
They will rest at night in the abandoned houses in Ashkelon.
For the LORD their God will visit his people in kindness and restore their prosperity again.

JUDGMENT AGAINST MOAB AND AMMON

8“I have heard the taunts of the Moabites and the insults of the Ammonites, mocking my people and invading their borders.

9Now, as surely as I live,” says the LORD of Heaven’s Armies, the God of Israel, “Moab and Ammon will be destroyed— destroyed as completely as Sodom and Gomorrah.
Their land will become a place of stinging nettles, salt pits, and eternal desolation.
The remnant of my people will plunder them and take their land.”

10They will receive the wages of their pride, for they have scoffed at the people of the LORD of Heaven’s Armies.

11The LORD will terrify them as he destroys all the gods in the land. Then nations around the world will worship the LORD, each in their own land.

JUDGMENT AGAINST ETHIOPIA AND ASSYRIA

12“You Ethiopians* will also be slaughtered by my sword,” says the LORD.

13And the LORD will strike the lands of the north with his fist, destroying the land of Assyria.
He will make its great capital, Nineveh, a desolate wasteland, parched like a desert.

14The proud city will become a pasture for flocks and herds, and all sorts of wild animals will settle there.
The desert owl and screech owl will roost on its ruined columns, their calls echoing through the gaping windows.
Rubble will block all the doorways, and the cedar paneling will be exposed to the weather.

15This is the boisterous city, once so secure.
“I am the greatest!” it boasted.
“No other city can compare with me!”
But now, look how it has become an utter ruin,
a haven for wild animals.
Everyone passing by will laugh in derision and shake a defiant fist.

Zephaniah 3

JERUSALEM'S REBELLION AND REDEMPTION

1What sorrow awaits rebellious, polluted Jerusalem, the city of violence and crime!

2No one can tell it anything; it refuses all correction.
It does not trust in the LORD or draw near to its God.

3Its leaders are like roaring lions hunting for their victims.
Its judges are like ravenous wolves at evening time, who by dawn have left no trace of their prey.

4Its prophets are arrogant liars seeking their own gain.
Its priests defile the Temple by disobeying God's instructions.

5But the LORD is still there in the city, and he does no wrong.
Day by day he hands down justice, and he does not fail.
But the wicked know no shame.

6"I have wiped out many nations, devastating their fortress walls and towers.
Their streets are now deserted;
their cities lie in silent ruin.
There are no survivors—
none at all.

7I thought, 'Surely they will have reverence for me now!
Surely they will listen to my warnings.
Then I won't need to strike again, destroying their homes.'
But no, they get up early to continue their evil deeds.

8Therefore, be patient," says the LORD.
"Soon I will stand and accuse these evil nations.
For I have decided to gather the kingdoms of the earth and pour out my fiercest anger and fury on them.
All the earth will be devoured by the fire of my jealousy.

GOD LOVES YOU ZEPHANIAH 3:9-20

9“Then I will purify the speech of all people, so that everyone can worship the LORD together.

10My scattered people who live beyond the rivers of Ethiopia* will come to present their offerings.

11On that day you will no longer need to be ashamed, for you will no longer be rebels against me.
I will remove all proud and arrogant people from among you.
There will be no more haughtiness on my holy mountain.

12Those who are left will be the lowly and humble, for it is they who trust in the name of the LORD.

13The remnant of Israel will do no wrong; they will never tell lies or deceive one another.
They will eat and sleep in safety, and no one will make them afraid.”

14Sing, O daughter of Zion; shout aloud, O Israel!
Be glad and rejoice with all your heart,
O daughter of Jerusalem!

15For the LORD will remove his hand of judgment and will disperse the armies of your enemy.

And the LORD himself, the King of Israel, will live among you!
At last your troubles will be over,
and you will never again fear disaster.

16On that day the announcement to Jerusalem will be, “Cheer up, Zion! Don’t be afraid!

17For the LORD your God is living among you.
He is a mighty savior.
He will take delight in you with gladness.
With his love, he will calm all your fears.*
He will rejoice over you with joyful songs.”

18“I will gather you who mourn for the appointed festivals; you will be disgraced no more.*

19And I will deal severely with all who have oppressed you.
I will save the weak and helpless ones;
I will bring together
those who were chased away.
I will give glory and fame to my former exiles, wherever they have been mocked and shamed.

20On that day I will gather you together and bring you home again.
I will give you a good name, a name of distinction, among all the nations of the earth,
as I restore your fortunes before their very eyes.
I, the LORD, have spoken!”

Haggai

WELCOME TO

HAGGAI

Haggai is sent by God to preach to the people who have returned to Jerusalem with Zerubbabel. Soon after returning to Jerusalem, the people become discouraged and are distracted from their first priority: rebuilding God's Temple. Haggai encourages the restored community to finish the project.

Haggai's messages are directed to the two leaders of the people, Zerubbabel the governor and Jeshua the priest. Through Haggai, God tells the people that they have selfishly forgotten that the house of the Lord is still unfinished while they live in comfort. Haggai's prophecies are designed to speed the work along. His message has the desired effect, and the Temple is completed and rededicated in 516 BC.

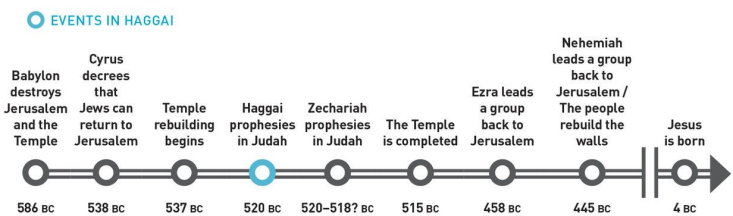
FINDING JESUS IN HAGGAI

This book gives us a glimpse of Jesus in chapter 2, where Haggai assures the Jews that the glory of the Temple will be restored. Jesus himself would be the Temple in a way that the physical building could never duplicate. Jerusalem's Temple was the place where God met with his people. The building's destruction reflected the broken relationship between God and his people. Jesus was the fulfillment of the Temple's purpose: to connect God with humanity. We no longer need a building to meet with God because we have Jesus.



Haggai 1

A CALL TO REBUILD THE TEMPLE

1On August 29* of the second year of King Darius's reign, the LORD gave a message through the prophet Haggai to Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel, governor of Judah, and to Jeshua* son of Jehozadak, the high priest.

2"This is what the LORD of Heaven's Armies says: The people are saying, 'The time has not yet come to rebuild the house of the LORD.'"

3Then the LORD sent this message through the prophet Haggai:
4"Why are you living in luxurious houses while my house lies in ruins? 5This is what the LORD of Heaven's Armies says: Look at what's happening to you! 6You have planted much but harvest little.
You eat but are not satisfied. You drink but are still thirsty. You put on clothes but cannot keep warm. Your wages disappear as though you were putting them in pockets filled with holes!

7“This is what the LORD of Heaven’s Armies says: Look at what’s happening to you! 8Now go up into the hills, bring down timber, and rebuild my house. Then I will take pleasure in it and be honored, says the LORD. 9You hoped for rich harvests, but they were poor. And when you brought your harvest home, I blew it away. Why? Because my house lies in ruins, says the LORD of Heaven’s Armies, while all of you are busy building your own fine houses. 10It’s because of you that the heavens withhold the dew and the earth produces no crops. 11I have called for a drought on your fields and hills—a drought to wither the grain and grapes and olive trees and all your other crops, a drought to starve you and your livestock and to ruin everything you have worked so hard to get.”

OBEDIENCE TO GOD’S CALL

12Then Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel, and Jeshua son of Jehozadak, the high priest, and the whole remnant of God’s people began to obey the message from the LORD their God. When they heard the words of the prophet Haggai, whom the LORD their God had sent, the people feared the LORD. 13Then Haggai, the LORD’s messenger, gave the people this message from the LORD: “I am with you, says
the LORD!”

14So the LORD sparked the enthusiasm of Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel, governor of Judah, and the enthusiasm of Jeshua son of Jehozadak, the high priest, and the enthusiasm of the whole remnant of God’s people. They began to work on the house of their God, the LORD of Heaven’s Armies, 15on September 21* of the second year of King Darius’s reign.

Haggai 2

THE NEW TEMPLE'S DIMINISHED SPLENDOR

1Then on October 17 of that same year,* the LORD sent another message through the prophet Haggai. 2"Say this to Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel, governor of Judah, and to Jeshua* son of Jehozadak, the high priest, and to the remnant of God's people there in the land: 3'Does anyone remember this house—this Temple—in its former splendor? How, in comparison, does it look to you now? It must seem like nothing at all! 4But now the LORD says: Be strong, Zerubbabel. Be strong, Jeshua son of Jehozadak, the high priest. Be strong, all you people still left in the land. And now get to work, for I am with you, says the LORD of Heaven's Armies. 5My Spirit remains among you, just as I promised when you came out of Egypt. So do not be afraid.'

6"For this is what the LORD of Heaven's Armies says: In just a little while I will again shake the heavens and the earth, the oceans and the dry land. 7I will shake all the nations, and the treasures of all the nations will be brought to this Temple. I will fill this place with glory, says the LORD of Heaven's Armies. 8The silver is mine, and the gold is mine, says the LORD of Heaven's Armies. 9The future glory of this Temple will be greater than its past glory, says the LORD of Heaven's Armies. And in this place I will bring peace. I,
the LORD of Heaven's Armies, have spoken!"

BLESSINGS PROMISED FOR OBEDIENCE

10On December 18* of the second year of King Darius's reign, the LORD sent this message to the prophet Haggai: 11"This is what the LORD of Heaven's Armies says. Ask the priests this question about the law: 12'If one of you is carrying some meat from a holy sacrifice in his robes and his robe happens to brush against some bread or stew, wine or olive oil, or any other kind of food, will it also become holy?'"

The priests replied, “No.”

13Then Haggai asked, “If someone becomes ceremonially unclean by touching a dead person and then touches any of these foods, will the food be defiled?”

And the priests answered, “Yes.”

14Then Haggai responded, “That is how it is with this people and this nation, says the LORD. Everything they do and everything they offer is defiled by their sin. 15Look at what was happening to you before you began to lay the foundation of the LORD’s Temple.
16When you hoped for a twenty-bushel crop, you harvested only ten. When you expected to draw fifty gallons from the winepress, you found only twenty. 17I sent blight and mildew and hail to destroy everything you worked so hard to produce. Even so, you refused to return to me, says the LORD.

18“Think about this eighteenth day of December, the day* when the foundation of the LORD’s Temple was laid. Think carefully. 19I am giving you a promise now while the seed is still in the barn.* You have not yet harvested your grain, and your grapevines, fig trees, pomegranates, and olive trees have not yet produced their crops.
But from this day onward I will bless you.”

PROMISES FOR ZERUBBABEL

20On that same day, December 18,* the LORD sent this second message to Haggai: 21“Tell Zerubbabel, the governor of Judah, that I am about to shake the heavens and the earth. 22I will overthrow royal thrones and destroy the power of foreign kingdoms. I will overturn their chariots and riders. The horses will fall, and their riders will kill each other.

23“But when this happens, says the LORD of Heaven’s Armies, I will honor you, Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel, my servant. I will make you like a signet ring on my finger, says the LORD, for I have chosen you. I, the LORD of Heaven's Armies, have spoken!"

WELCOME TO

ZECHARIAH

Like Haggai, Zechariah preaches to the Israelites who have returned to Jerusalem from Babylon with Zerubbabel. Zechariah encourages the people to serve God without fear, rallies them to focus on rebuilding God's Temple, and inspires them to renew their devotion to God through repentance. During a difficult time, he brings hope by reminding the people that God was in control of every event in history.

This book has two parts. It begins with a series of eight visions that depict in highly descriptive language the power of God, God's control over human affairs, the importance of spiritual strength, God's judgment on sin, and the promise of blessings to come. These visions are followed by a series of messages about the judgment to come.

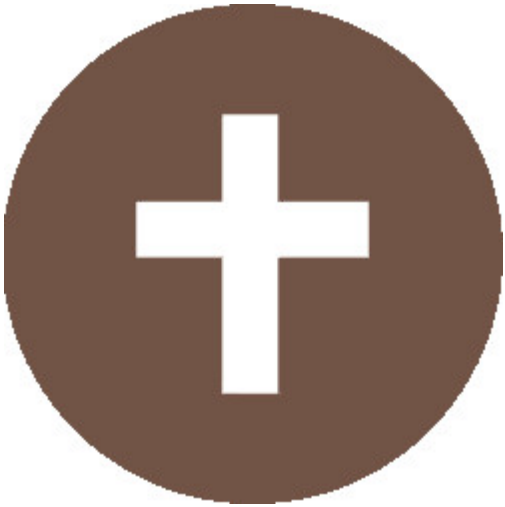
1 STOP

ON THE DIRECT ROUTE: Your reading in Zechariah will show you the first of the prophet's visions, which highlights both God's power over world affairs and his great compassion for his people. Your next stop is at Zechariah 1:1.

3 STOPS

ON THE SCENIC ROUTE: Your route will take you through some passages of Zechariah that highlight God's sovereignty over all creation and foreshadow the blessings to come. Your next stop is at Zechariah 1:1.



FINDING JESUS IN ZECHARIAH

Zechariah said much about the coming Messiah: He would ride into Jerusalem on a donkey and bring peace (9:9), he would be betrayed for thirty pieces of silver (11:12-13), and he would be "pierced" by his own people (12:10). In the end, Jesus will be the triumphant King (14:17).
You will also recognize Jesus in Zechariah's reference to "the Branch" who will "receive royal honor," "rule as king," and "serve as priest" (6:12-13).

Zechariah 1

A CALL TO RETURN TO THE LORD

1 In November* of the second year of King Darius's reign, the LORD gave this message to the prophet Zechariah son of Berekiah and grandson of Iddo:

2 "I, the LORD, was very angry with your ancestors. 3 Therefore, say to the people, ‘This is what the LORD of Heaven’s Armies says:

Return to me, and I will return to you, says the LORD of Heaven’s Armies.’ 4Don’t be like your ancestors who would not listen or pay attention when the earlier prophets said to them, ‘This is what the LORD of Heaven’s Armies says: Turn from your evil ways, and stop all your evil practices.’

5“Where are your ancestors now? They and the prophets are long dead. 6But everything I said through my servants the prophets happened to your ancestors, just as I said. As a result, they repented and said, ‘We have received what we deserved from the LORD of Heaven’s Armies. He has done what he said he would do.’”

A MAN AMONG THE MYRTLE TREES

7Three months later, on February 15,* the LORD sent another message to the prophet Zechariah son of Berekiah and grandson of Iddo.

8In a vision during the night, I saw a man sitting on a red horse that was standing among some myrtle trees in a small valley. Behind him were riders on red, brown, and white horses. 9I asked the angel who was talking with me, “My lord, what do these horses mean?”

“I will show you,” the angel replied.

10The rider standing among the myrtle trees then explained, “They are the ones the LORD has sent out to patrol the earth.”

11Then the other riders reported to the angel of the LORD, who was standing among the myrtle trees, “We have been patrolling the earth, and the whole earth is at peace.”

12Upon hearing this, the angel of the LORD prayed this prayer: “O LORD of Heaven’s Armies, for seventy years now you have been angry with Jerusalem and the towns of Judah. How long until you again show mercy to them?” 13And the LORD spoke kind and comforting words to the angel who talked with me.

14Then the angel said to me, “Shout this message for all to hear: ‘This is what the LORD of Heaven’s Armies says: My love for Jerusalem and Mount Zion is passionate and strong. 15But I am very angry with the other nations that are now enjoying peace and security. I was only a little angry with my people, but the nations inflicted harm on them far beyond my intentions.

16“‘Therefore, this is what the LORD says: I have returned to show mercy to Jerusalem. My Temple will be rebuilt, says the LORD of Heaven’s Armies, and measurements will be taken for the reconstruction of Jerusalem.*’

17“Say this also: ‘This is what the LORD of Heaven’s Armies says: The towns of Israel will again overflow with prosperity, and the LORD will again comfort Zion and choose Jerusalem as his own.’”

FOUR HORNS AND FOUR BLACKSMITHS

18*Then I looked up and saw four animal horns. 19“What are these?” I asked the angel who was talking with me.

He replied, “These horns represent the nations that scattered Judah, Israel, and Jerusalem.”

20Then the LORD showed me four blacksmiths. 21“What are these men coming to do?” I asked.

The angel replied, “These four horns—these nations—scattered and humbled Judah. Now these blacksmiths have come to terrify those nations and throw them down and destroy them.”

Zechariah 2

FUTURE PROSPERITY OF JERUSALEM

1 * When I looked again, I saw a man with a measuring line in his hand. 2 "Where are you going?" I asked.

He replied, "I am going to measure Jerusalem, to see how wide and how long it is."

3 Then the angel who was with me went to meet a second angel who was coming toward him. 4 The other angel said, "Hurry, and say to that young man, 'Jerusalem will someday be so full of people and livestock that there won't be room enough for everyone! Many will live outside the city walls. 5 Then I, myself, will be a protective wall of fire around Jerusalem, says the LORD. And I will be the glory inside the city!'"

THE EXILES ARE CALLED HOME

6 The LORD says, "Come away! Flee from Babylon in the land of the north, for I have scattered you to the four winds. 7 Come away, people of Zion, you who are exiled in Babylon!"

8 After a period of glory, the LORD of Heaven's Armies sent me * against the nations who plundered you. For he said, "Anyone who harms you harms my most precious possession. * 9 I will raise my fist to crush them, and their own slaves will plunder them." Then you will know that the LORD of Heaven's Armies has sent me.

10The LORD says, "Shout and rejoice, O beautiful Jerusalem,* for I am coming to live among you. 11Many nations will join themselves to the LORD on that day, and they, too, will be my people. I will live among you, and you will know that the LORD of Heaven's Armies sent me to you. 12The land of Judah will be the LORD's special possession in the holy land, and he will once again choose Jerusalem to be his own city. 13Be silent before the LORD, all humanity, for he is springing into action from his holy dwelling."

ANGELS ZECHARIAH 3:1-10

Zechariah 3

CLEANSING FOR THE HIGH PRIEST

1Then the angel showed me Jeshua* the high priest standing before the angel of the LORD. The Accuser, Satan,* was there at the angel's right hand, making accusations against Jeshua. 2And the LORD said to Satan, "I, the LORD, reject your accusations, Satan. Yes, the LORD, who has chosen Jerusalem, rebukes you. This man is like a burning stick that has been snatched from the fire."

3Jeshua's clothing was filthy as he stood there before the angel. 4So the angel said to the others standing there, "Take off his filthy clothes.” And turning to Jeshua he said, “See, I have taken away your sins, and now I am giving you these fine new clothes.”

5Then I said, “They should also place a clean turban on his head.” So they put a clean priestly turban on his head and dressed him in new clothes while the angel of the LORD stood by.

6Then the angel of the LORD spoke very solemnly to Jeshua and said, 7“This is what the LORD of Heaven’s Armies says: If you follow my ways and carefully serve me, then you will be given authority over my Temple and its courtyards. I will let you walk among these others standing here.

8“Listen to me, O Jeshua the high priest, and all you other priests. You are symbols of things to come. Soon I am going to bring my servant, the Branch. 9Now look at the jewel I have set before Jeshua, a single stone with seven facets.* I will engrave an inscription on it, says the LORD of Heaven’s Armies, and I will remove the sins of this land in a single day.

10“And on that day, says the LORD of Heaven’s Armies, each of you will invite your neighbor to sit with you peacefully under your own grapevine and fig tree.”

VISIONS ZECHARIAH 4:1-14

Zechariah 4

A LAMPSTAND AND TWO OLIVE TREES

1Then the angel who had been talking with me returned and woke me, as though I had been asleep. 2"What do you see now?" he asked.

I answered, "I see a solid gold lampstand with a bowl of oil on top of it. Around the bowl are seven lamps, each having seven spouts with wicks. 3And I see two olive trees, one on each side of the bowl." 4Then I asked the angel, "What are these, my lord? What do they mean?"

5"Don't you know?" the angel asked.

"No, my lord," I replied.

6Then he said to me, "This is what the LORD says to Zerubbabel: It is not by force nor by strength, but by my Spirit, says the LORD of Heaven's Armies. 7Nothing, not even a mighty mountain, will stand in Zerubbabel's way; it will become a level plain before him! And when Zerubbabel sets the final stone of the Temple in place, the people will shout: 'May God bless it! May God bless it!'*" 8Then another message came to me from the LORD: 9"Zerubbabel is the one who laid the foundation of this Temple, and he will complete it. Then you will know that the LORD of Heaven's Armies has sent me. 10Do not despise these small beginnings, for the LORD rejoices to see the work begin, to see the plumb line in Zerubbabel's hand."

(The seven lamps* represent the eyes of the LORD that search all around the world.)

11Then I asked the angel, "What are these two olive trees on each side of the lampstand, 12and what are the two olive branches that pour out golden oil through two gold tubes?"

13“Don’t you know?” he asked.

“No, my lord,” I replied.

14Then he said to me, “They represent the two anointed ones* who stand in the court of the Lord of all the earth.”

Zechariah 5

A FLYING SCROLL

1I looked up again and saw a scroll flying through the air.

2“What do you see?” the angel asked.

“I see a flying scroll,” I replied. “It appears to be about 30 feet long and 15 feet wide.*”

3Then he said to me, “This scroll contains the curse that is going out over the entire land. One side of the scroll says that those who steal will be banished from the land; the other side says that those who swear falsely will be banished from the land. 4And this is what the LORD of Heaven’s Armies says: I am sending this curse into the house of every thief and into the house of everyone who swears falsely using my name. And my curse will remain in that house and completely destroy it—even its timbers and stones.”

A WOMAN IN A BASKET

5Then the angel who was talking with me came forward and said, “Look up and see what’s coming.”

6“What is it?” I asked.

He replied, “It is a basket for measuring grain,* and it’s filled with the sins* of everyone throughout the land.”

7Then the heavy lead cover was lifted off the basket, and there was a woman sitting inside it. 8The angel said, “The woman’s name is Wickedness,” and he pushed her back into the basket and closed the heavy lid again.

9Then I looked up and saw two women flying toward us, gliding on the wind. They had wings like a stork, and they picked up the basket and flew into the sky.

10“Where are they taking the basket?” I asked the angel.

11He replied, “To the land of Babylonia,* where they will build a temple for the basket. And when the temple is ready, they will set the basket there on its pedestal.”

Zechariah 6

FOUR CHARIOTS

1Then I looked up again and saw four chariots coming from between two bronze mountains. 2The first chariot was pulled by red horses, the second by black horses, 3the third by white horses, and the fourth by powerful dappled-gray horses. 4“And what are these, my lord?” I asked the angel who was talking with me.

5The angel replied, “These are the four spirits* of heaven who stand before the Lord of all the earth. They are going out to do his work. 6The chariot with black horses is going north, the chariot with white horses is going west,* and the chariot with dappled-gray horses is going south."

7The powerful horses were eager to set out to patrol the earth. And the LORD said, "Go and patrol the earth!" So they left at once on their patrol.

8Then the LORD summoned me and said, "Look, those who went north have vented the anger of my Spirit* there in the land of the north."

THE CROWNING OF JESHUA

9Then I received another message from the LORD: 10"Heldai, Tobijah, and Jedaiah will bring gifts of silver and gold from the Jews exiled in Babylon. As soon as they arrive, meet them at the home of Josiah son of Zephaniah. 11Accept their gifts, and make a crown from the silver and gold. Then put the crown on the head of Jeshua* son of Jehozadak, the high priest. 12Tell him, 'This is what the LORD of Heaven's Armies says: Here is the man called the Branch. He will branch out from where he is and build the Temple of the LORD. 13Yes, he will build the Temple of the LORD. Then he will receive royal honor and will rule as king from his throne. He will also serve as priest from his throne,* and there will be perfect harmony between his two roles.'

14"The crown will be a memorial in the Temple of the LORD to honor those who gave it—Heldai,* Tobijah, Jedaiah, and Josiah* son of Zephaniah."

15People will come from distant lands to rebuild the Temple of the LORD. And when this happens, you will know that my messages have been from the LORD of Heaven's Armies. All this will happen if you carefully obey what the LORD your God says.

Zechariah 7

A CALL TO JUSTICE AND MERCY

1On December 7* of the fourth year of King Darius's reign, another message came to Zechariah from the LORD. 2The people of Bethel had sent Sharezer and Regemmelech,* along with their attendants, to seek the LORD's favor. 3They were to ask this question of the prophets and the priests at the Temple of the LORD of Heaven's Armies: "Should we continue to mourn and fast each summer on the anniversary of the Temple's destruction,* as we have done for so many years?"

4The LORD of Heaven's Armies sent me this message in reply: 5"Say to all your people and your priests, 'During these seventy years of exile, when you fasted and mourned in the summer and in early autumn,* was it really for me that you were fasting? 6And even now in your holy festivals, aren't you eating and drinking just to please yourselves? 7Isn't this the same message the LORD proclaimed through the prophets in years past when Jerusalem and the towns of Judah were bustling with people, and the Negev and the foothills of Judah* were well populated?'"

8Then this message came to Zechariah from the LORD: 9"This is what the LORD of Heaven's Armies says: Judge fairly, and show mercy and kindness to one another. 10Do not oppress widows, orphans, foreigners, and the poor. And do not scheme against each other.

11"Your ancestors refused to listen to this message. They stubbornly turned away and put their fingers in their ears to keep from hearing. 12They made their hearts as hard as stone, so they could not hear the instructions or the messages that the LORD of Heaven's Armies had sent them by his Spirit through the earlier prophets.
That is why the LORD of Heaven's Armies was so angry with them.

13“Since they refused to listen when I called to them, I would not listen when they called to me, says the LORD of Heaven’s Armies.
14As with a whirlwind, I scattered them among the distant nations, where they lived as strangers. Their land became so desolate that no one even traveled through it. They turned their pleasant land into a desert.”

Zechariah 8

PROMISED BLESSINGS FOR JERUSALEM

1Then another message came to me from the LORD of Heaven’s Armies: 2“This is what the LORD of Heaven’s Armies says: My love for Mount Zion is passionate and strong; I am consumed with passion for Jerusalem!

3“And now the LORD says: I am returning to Mount Zion, and I will live in Jerusalem. Then Jerusalem will be called the Faithful City; the mountain of the LORD of Heaven’s Armies will be called the Holy Mountain.

4“This is what the LORD of Heaven’s Armies says: Once again old men and women will walk Jerusalem’s streets with their canes and will sit together in the city squares. 5And the streets of the city will be filled with boys and girls at play.

6“This is what the LORD of Heaven’s Armies says: All this may seem impossible to you now, a small remnant of God’s people. But is it impossible for me? says the LORD of Heaven’s Armies.

7“This is what the LORD of Heaven’s Armies says: You can be sure that I will rescue my people from the east and from the west. 8I will bring them home again to live safely in Jerusalem. They will be my people, and I will be faithful and just toward them as their God.

9“This is what the LORD of Heaven’s Armies says: Be strong and finish the task! Ever since the laying of the foundation of the Temple of the LORD of Heaven’s Armies, you have heard what the prophets have been saying about completing the building. 10Before the work on the Temple began, there were no jobs and no money to hire people or animals. No traveler was safe from the enemy, for there were enemies on all sides. I had turned everyone against each other.

11“But now I will not treat the remnant of my people as I treated them before, says the LORD of Heaven’s Armies. 12For I am planting seeds of peace and prosperity among you. The grapevines will be heavy with fruit. The earth will produce its crops, and the heavens will release the dew. Once more I will cause the remnant in Judah and Israel to inherit these blessings. 13Among the other nations, Judah and Israel became symbols of a cursed nation. But no longer!
Now I will rescue you and make you both a symbol and a source of blessing. So don’t be afraid. Be strong, and get on with rebuilding the Temple!

14“For this is what the LORD of Heaven’s Armies says: I was determined to punish you when your ancestors angered me, and I did not change my mind, says the LORD of Heaven’s Armies. 15But now I am determined to bless Jerusalem and the people of Judah.
So don’t be afraid. 16But this is what you must do: Tell the truth to each other. Render verdicts in your courts that are just and that lead to peace. 17Don’t scheme against each other. Stop your love of telling lies that you swear are the truth. I hate all these things, says
the LORD.”

18Here is another message that came to me from the LORD of Heaven’s Armies. 19“This is what the LORD of Heaven’s Armies says:
The traditional fasts and times of mourning you have kept in early summer, midsummer, autumn, and winter* are now ended. They will become festivals of joy and celebration for the people of Judah.
So love truth and peace.

20“This is what the LORD of Heaven’s Armies says: People from nations and cities around the world will travel to Jerusalem. 21The people of one city will say to the people of another, ‘Come with us to Jerusalem to ask the LORD to bless us. Let’s worship the LORD of Heaven’s Armies. I’m determined to go.’ 22Many peoples and powerful nations will come to Jerusalem to seek the LORD of Heaven’s Armies and to ask for his blessing.

23“This is what the LORD of Heaven’s Armies says: In those days ten men from different nations and languages of the world will clutch at the sleeve of one Jew. And they will say, ‘Please let us walk with you, for we have heard that God is with you.’”

Zechariah 9

JUDGMENT AGAINST ISRAEL’S ENEMIES

1This is the message* from the LORD against the land of Aram* and the city of Damascus, for the eyes of humanity, including all the tribes of Israel, are on the LORD.

2Doom is certain for Hamath, near Damascus, and for the cities of Tyre and Sidon, though they are so clever.

3Tyre has built a strong fortress and has made silver and gold as plentiful as dust in the streets!

4But now the Lord will strip away Tyre’s possessions and hurl its fortifications into the sea, and it will be burned to the ground.

5The city of Ashkelon will see Tyre fall and will be filled with fear.
Gaza will shake with terror, as will Ekron, for their hopes will be dashed.
Gaza’s king will be killed, and Ashkelon will be deserted.

6Foreigners will occupy the city of Ashdod.
I will destroy the pride of the Philistines.

7I will grab the bloody meat from their mouths and snatch the detestable sacrifices from their teeth.
Then the surviving Philistines will worship our God and become like a clan in Judah.*
The Philistines of Ekron will join my people, as the ancient Jebusites once did.

8I will guard my Temple and protect it from invading armies.
I am watching closely to ensure that no more foreign oppressors overrun my people's land.

THE MESSIAH ZECHARIAH 9:9-17

ZION'S COMING KING

9 Rejoice, O people of Zion!*

Shout in triumph, O people of Jerusalem!
Look, your king is coming to you.
He is righteous and victorious,*
yet he is humble, riding on a donkey— riding on a donkey's colt.

10 I will remove the battle chariots from Israel* and the warhorses from Jerusalem.
I will destroy all the weapons used in battle, and your king will bring peace to the nations.
His realm will stretch from sea to sea and from the Euphrates River* to the ends of the earth.*

11 Because of the covenant I made with you, sealed with blood, I will free your prisoners from death in a waterless dungeon.

12 Come back to the place of safety, all you prisoners who still have hope!
I promise this very day that I will repay two blessings for each of your troubles.

13 Judah is my bow, and Israel is my arrow.
Jerusalem* is my sword, and like a warrior, I will brandish it against the Greeks.*

14 The LORD will appear above his people; his arrows will fly like lightning!
The Sovereign LORD will sound the ram's horn and attack like a whirlwind from the southern desert.

15 The LORD of Heaven's Armies will protect his people, and they will defeat their enemies by hurling great stones.
They will shout in battle as though drunk with wine.
They will be filled with blood like a bowl, drenched with blood like the corners of the altar.

16On that day the LORD their God will rescue his people, just as a shepherd rescues his sheep.
They will sparkle in his land like jewels in a crown.

17How wonderful and beautiful they will be!
The young men will thrive on abundant grain, and the young women will flourish on new wine.

Zechariah 10

THE LORD WILL RESTORE HIS PEOPLE

1Ask the LORD for rain in the spring, for he makes the storm clouds.
And he will send showers of rain so every field becomes a lush pasture.

2Household gods give worthless advice, fortune-tellers predict only lies, and interpreters of dreams pronounce falsehoods that give no comfort.
So my people are wandering like lost sheep; they are attacked because they have no shepherd.

3"My anger burns against your shepherds, and I will punish these leaders.*
For the LORD of Heaven's Armies has arrived to look after Judah, his flock.
He will make them strong and glorious, like a proud warhorse in battle.

4From Judah will come the cornerstone, the tent peg, the bow for battle, and all the rulers.

5They will be like mighty warriors in battle, trampling their enemies in the mud under their feet.
Since the LORD is with them as they fight, they will overthrow even the enemy's horsemen.

6"I will strengthen Judah and save Israel*; I will restore them because of my compassion.

It will be as though I had never rejected them, for I am the LORD their God, who will hear their cries.

7The people of Israel* will become like mighty warriors, and their hearts will be made happy as if by wine.
Their children, too, will see it and be glad; their hearts will rejoice in the LORD.

8When I whistle to them, they will come running, for I have redeemed them.
From the few who are left, they will grow as numerous as they were before.

9Though I have scattered them like seeds among the nations, they will still remember me in distant lands.
They and their children will survive and return again to Israel.

GILEAD

LEBANON

10I will bring them back from Egypt and gather them from Assyria.
I will resettle them in Gilead and Lebanon until there is no more room for them all.

11They will pass safely through the sea of distress,* for the waves of the sea will be held back, and the waters of the Nile will dry up.
The pride of Assyria will be crushed, and the rule of Egypt will end.

12By my power* I will make my people strong, and by my authority they will go wherever they wish.
I, the LORD, have spoken!”

Zechariah 11

1Open your doors, Lebanon, so that fire may devour your cedar forests.

2Weep, you cypress trees, for all the ruined cedars; the most majestic ones have fallen.
Weep, you oaks of Bashan, for the thick forests have been cut down.

3Listen to the wailing of the shepherds, for their rich pastures are destroyed.
Hear the young lions roaring, for their thickets in the Jordan Valley are ruined.

THE GOOD AND EVIL SHEPHERDS

4This is what the LORD my God says: “Go and care for the flock that is intended for slaughter. 5The buyers slaughter their sheep without remorse. The sellers say, ‘Praise the LORD! Now I’m rich!’ Even the shepherds have no compassion for them. 6Likewise, I will no longer have pity on the people of the land,” says the LORD. “I will let them fall into each other’s hands and into the hands of their king. They will turn the land into a wilderness, and I will not rescue them.”

7So I cared for the flock intended for slaughter—the flock that was oppressed. Then I took two shepherd’s staffs and named one Favor and the other Union. 8I got rid of their three evil shepherds in a single month.

But I became impatient with these sheep, and they hated me, too.
9So I told them, “I won’t be your shepherd any longer. If you die, you die. If you are killed, you are killed. And let those who remain devour each other!”

10Then I took my staff called Favor and cut it in two, showing that I had revoked the covenant I had made with all the nations. 11That was the end of my covenant with them. The suffering flock was watching me, and they knew that the LORD was speaking through my actions.

12And I said to them, “If you like, give me my wages, whatever I am worth; but only if you want to.” So they counted out for my wages thirty pieces of silver.

13And the LORD said to me, “Throw it to the potter*”—this magnificent sum at which they valued me! So I took the thirty coins and threw them to the potter in the Temple of the LORD.

14Then I took my other staff, Union, and cut it in two, showing that the bond of unity between Judah and Israel was broken.

15Then the LORD said to me, “Go again and play the part of a worthless shepherd. 16This illustrates how I will give this nation a shepherd who will not care for those who are dying, nor look after the young, nor heal the injured, nor feed the healthy. Instead, this shepherd will eat the meat of the fattest sheep and tear off their hooves.

17“What sorrow awaits this worthless shepherd who abandons the flock!
The sword will cut his arm and pierce his right eye.
His arm will become useless, and his right eye completely blind.”

Zechariah 12

FUTURE DELIVERANCE FOR JERUSALEM

1This* message concerning the fate of Israel came from the LORD:
“This message is from the LORD, who stretched out the heavens, laid the foundations of the earth, and formed the human spirit. 2I will make Jerusalem like an intoxicating drink that makes the nearby nations stagger when they send their armies to besiege Jerusalem and Judah. 3On that day I will make Jerusalem an immovable rock. All the nations will gather against it to try to move it, but they will only hurt themselves.

4“On that day,” says the LORD, “I will cause every horse to panic and every rider to lose his nerve. I will watch over the people of Judah, but I will blind all the horses of their enemies. 5And the clans of Judah will say to themselves, ‘The people of Jerusalem have found strength in the LORD of Heaven’s Armies, their God.’

6“On that day I will make the clans of Judah like a flame that sets a woodpile ablaze or like a burning torch among sheaves of grain.
They will burn up all the neighboring nations right and left, while the people living in Jerusalem remain secure.

7“The LORD will give victory to the rest of Judah first, before Jerusalem, so that the people of Jerusalem and the royal line of David will not have greater honor than the rest of Judah. 8On that day the LORD will defend the people of Jerusalem; the weakest among them will be as mighty as King David! And the royal descendants will be like God, like the angel of the LORD who goes before them! 9For on that day I will begin to destroy all the nations that come against Jerusalem.

10“Then I will pour out a spirit* of grace and prayer on the family of David and on the people of Jerusalem. They will look on me whom they have pierced and mourn for him as for an only son. They will grieve bitterly for him as for a firstborn son who has died. 11The sorrow and mourning in Jerusalem on that day will be like the great mourning for Hadad-rimmon in the valley of Megiddo.

12“All Israel will mourn, each clan by itself, and with the husbands separate from their wives. The clan of David will mourn alone, as will the clan of Nathan, 13the clan of Levi, and the clan of Shimei. 14Each of the surviving clans from Judah will mourn separately, and with the husbands separate from their wives.

Zechariah 13

A FOUNTAIN OF CLEANSING

1“On that day a fountain will be opened for the dynasty of David and for the people of Jerusalem, a fountain to cleanse them from all their sins and impurity.

2“And on that day,” says the LORD of Heaven’s Armies, “I will erase idol worship throughout the land, so that even the names of the idols will be forgotten. I will remove from the land both the false prophets and the spirit of impurity that came with them. 3If anyone continues to prophesy, his own father and mother will tell him, ‘You must die, for you have prophesied lies in the name of the LORD.’ And as he prophesies, his own father and mother will stab him.

4“On that day people will be ashamed to claim the prophetic gift. No one will pretend to be a prophet by wearing prophet’s clothes. 5He will say, ‘I’m no prophet; I’m a farmer. I began working for a farmer as a boy.’ 6And if someone asks, ‘Then what about those wounds on your chest?*’ he will say, ‘I was wounded at my friends’ house!’

THE SCATTERING OF THE SHEEP

7“Awake, O sword, against my shepherd, the man who is my partner,”

says the LORD of Heaven’s Armies.
“Strike down the shepherd, and the sheep will be scattered, and I will turn against the lambs.

8Two-thirds of the people in the land will be cut off and die,” says
the LORD.
“But one-third will be left in the land.

9I will bring that group through the fire and make them pure.
I will refine them like silver and purify them like gold.
They will call on my name, and I will answer them.
I will say, ‘These are my people,’ and they will say, ‘The LORD is our God.’”

Zechariah 14

THE LORD WILL RULE THE EARTH

1Watch, for the day of the LORD is coming when your possessions will be plundered right in front of you! 2I will gather all the nations to fight against Jerusalem. The city will be taken, the houses looted, and the women raped. Half the population will be taken into captivity, and the rest will be left among the ruins of the city.

3Then the LORD will go out to fight against those nations, as he has fought in times past. 4On that day his feet will stand on the Mount of Olives, east of Jerusalem. And the Mount of Olives will split apart, making a wide valley running from east to west. Half the mountain will move toward the north and half toward the south. 5You will flee through this valley, for it will reach across to Azal.* Yes, you will flee as you did from the earthquake in the days of King Uzziah of Judah. Then the LORD my God will come, and all his holy ones with him.*

6On that day the sources of light will no longer shine,*7yet there will be continuous day! Only the LORD knows how this could happen. There will be no normal day and night, for at evening time it will still be light.

8On that day life-giving waters will flow out from Jerusalem, half toward the Dead Sea and half toward the Mediterranean,* flowing continuously in both summer and winter.

9And the LORD will be king over all the earth. On that day there will be one LORD—his name alone will be worshiped.

10All the land from Geba, north of Judah, to Rimmon, south of Jerusalem, will become one vast plain. But Jerusalem will be raised up in its original place and will be inhabited all the way from the Benjamin Gate over to the site of the old gate, then to the Corner Gate, and from the Tower of Hananel to the king's winepresses. 11And Jerusalem will be filled, safe at last, never again to be cursed and destroyed.

12And the LORD will send a plague on all the nations that fought against Jerusalem. Their people will become like walking corpses, their flesh rotting away. Their eyes will rot in their sockets, and their tongues will rot in their mouths. 13On that day they will be terrified, stricken by the LORD with great panic. They will fight their neighbors hand to hand. 14Judah, too, will be fighting at Jerusalem. The wealth of all the neighboring nations will be captured—great quantities of gold and silver and fine clothing.

15This same plague will strike the horses, mules, camels, donkeys, and all the other animals in the enemy camps.

16In the end, the enemies of Jerusalem who survive the plague will go up to Jerusalem each year to worship the King, the LORD of Heaven's Armies, and to celebrate the Festival of Shelters. 17Any nation in the world that refuses to come to Jerusalem to worship the King, the LORD of Heaven's Armies, will have no rain. 18If the people of Egypt refuse to attend the festival, the LORD will punish* them with the same plague that he sends on the other nations who refuse to go. 19Egypt and the other nations will all be punished if they don't go to celebrate the Festival of Shelters.

20On that day even the harness bells of the horses will be inscribed with these words: HOLY TO THE LORD. And the cooking pots in the Temple of the LORD will be as sacred as the basins used beside the altar. 21In fact, every cooking pot in Jerusalem and Judah will be holy to the LORD of Heaven's Armies. All who come to worship will be free to use any of these pots to boil their sacrifices. And on that day there will no longer be traders* in the Temple of the LORD of Heaven's Armies.

Malachi

WELCOME TO

MALACHI

Malachi ministers around the time when Nehemiah is governor of Jerusalem. God sends Malachi to prophesy when the people's spiritual zeal is dangerously low. While Ezra and Nehemiah undertake some necessary religious and political reforms, Malachi directs the people's attention to their spiritual problems. He points out the corruption of the priests, the neglect of God's Temple, and the people's personal sins. He condemns these sins and calls the people to recommit themselves to the Lord, who has been faithful to them through many generations. He reminds them that a rededication to God's way will provide the people with abundant blessings.

The book of Malachi includes a prophecy concerning the coming Messiah and his forerunner, John the Baptist (called Elijah here). Thus the Old Testament ends, looking forward to what God will do in the future.

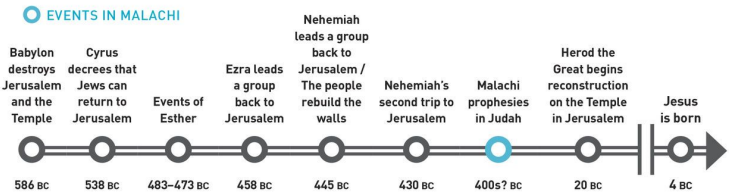
FINDING JESUS IN MALACHI

Malachi proclaimed that the Lord would send a messenger to prepare the way for the Messiah (3:1). He also announced that a prophet would come before the Messiah. This person, recognized by the Gospel writers as John the Baptist, would resemble the great prophet Elijah (4:5). Malachi also stated that Jesus, the "messenger of the covenant," would appear in the Temple.
You will also glimpse Jesus in the statement that calls him the "Sun of Righteousness" who "will rise with healing in his wings" (4:2).



Malachi 1

1This is the message* that the LORD gave to Israel through the prophet Malachi.*

THE LORD'S LOVE FOR ISRAEL

2"I have always loved you," says the LORD.

But you retort, "Really? How have you loved us?"

And the LORD replies, "This is how I showed my love for you: I loved your ancestor Jacob, 3but I rejected his brother, Esau, and devastated his hill country. I turned Esau's inheritance into a desert for jackals."

THE FALL OF EDOM

4Esau's descendants in Edom may say, "We have been shattered, but we will rebuild the ruins."

But the LORD of Heaven's Armies replies, "They may try to rebuild, but I will demolish them again. Their country will be known as 'The Land of Wickedness,' and their people will be called 'The People with Whom the LORD Is Forever Angry.' 5When you see the destruction for yourselves, you will say, 'Truly, the LORD's greatness reaches far beyond Israel's borders!'"

UNWORTHY SACRIFICES

6The LORD of Heaven's Armies says to the priests: "A son honors his father, and a servant respects his master. If I am your father and master, where are the honor and respect I deserve? You have shown contempt for my name!

"But you ask, 'How have we ever shown contempt for your name?'

7"You have shown contempt by offering defiled sacrifices on my altar.

"Then you ask, 'How have we defiled the sacrifices?*'

"You defile them by saying the altar of the LORD deserves no respect. 8When you give blind animals as sacrifices, isn't that wrong? And isn't it wrong to offer animals that are crippled and diseased? Try giving gifts like that to your governor, and see how pleased he is!" says the LORD of Heaven's Armies.

9"Go ahead, beg God to be merciful to you! But when you bring that kind of offering, why should he show you any favor at all?" asks the LORD of Heaven's Armies.

10"How I wish one of you would shut the Temple doors so that these worthless sacrifices could not be offered! I am not pleased with you," says the LORD of Heaven's Armies, "and I will not accept your offerings. 11But my name is honored* by people of other nations from morning till night. All around the world they offer* sweet incense and pure offerings in honor of my name. For my name is great among the nations," says the LORD of Heaven's Armies.

12"But you dishonor my name with your actions. By bringing contemptible food, you are saying it's all right to defile the Lord's table. 13You say, 'It's too hard to serve the LORD,' and you turn up your noses at my commands," says the LORD of Heaven's Armies. "Think of it! Animals that are stolen and crippled and sick are being presented as offerings! Should I accept from you such offerings as these?" asks the LORD.

14"Cursed is the cheat who promises to give a fine ram from his flock but then sacrifices a defective one to the Lord. For I am a great king," says the LORD of Heaven's Armies, "and my name is feared among the nations!

Malachi 2

A WARNING TO THE PRIESTS

1"Listen, you priests—this command is for you! 2Listen to me and make up your minds to honor my name," says the LORD of Heaven's Armies, "or I will bring a terrible curse against you. I will curse even the blessings you receive. Indeed, I have already cursed them, because you have not taken my warning to heart. 3I will punish your descendants and splatter your faces with the manure from your festival sacrifices, and I will throw you on the manure pile. 4Then at last you will know it was I who sent you this warning so that my covenant with the Levites can continue," says the LORD of Heaven's Armies.

5"The purpose of my covenant with the Levites was to bring life and peace, and that is what I gave them. This required reverence from them, and they greatly revered me and stood in awe of my name.
6They passed on to the people the truth of the instructions they received from me. They did not lie or cheat; they walked with me, living good and righteous lives, and they turned many from lives of sin.

7"The words of a priest's lips should preserve knowledge of God, and people should go to him for instruction, for the priest is the messenger of the LORD of Heaven's Armies. 8But you priests have left God's paths. Your instructions have caused many to stumble into sin. You have corrupted the covenant I made with the Levites," says the LORD of Heaven's Armies. 9"So I have made you despised and humiliated in the eyes of all the people. For you have not obeyed me but have shown favoritism in the way you carry out my instructions."

A CALL TO FAITHFULNESS

10Are we not all children of the same Father? Are we not all created by the same God? Then why do we betray each other, violating the covenant of our ancestors?

11Judah has been unfaithful, and a detestable thing has been done in Israel and in Jerusalem. The men of Judah have defiled the LORD's beloved sanctuary by marrying women who worship idols.
12May the LORD cut off from the nation of Israel* every last man who has done this and yet brings an offering to the LORD of Heaven's Armies.

13Here is another thing you do. You cover the LORD's altar with tears, weeping and groaning because he pays no attention to your offerings and doesn't accept them with pleasure. 14You cry out,

"Why doesn't the LORD accept my worship?" I'll tell you why!
Because the LORD witnessed the vows you and your wife made when you were young. But you have been unfaithful to her, though she remained your faithful partner, the wife of your marriage vows.

15Didn't the LORD make you one with your wife? In body and spirit you are his.* And what does he want? Godly children from your union. So guard your heart; remain loyal to the wife of your youth.
16"For I hate divorce!"* says the LORD, the God of Israel. "To divorce your wife is to overwhelm her with cruelty,*" says the LORD of Heaven's Armies. "So guard your heart; do not be unfaithful to your wife."

17You have wearied the LORD with your words.

"How have we wearied him?" you ask.

You have wearied him by saying that all who do evil are good in the LORD's sight, and he is pleased with them. You have wearied him by asking, "Where is the God of justice?"

THE MESSIAH MALACHI 3:1-5

Malachi 3

THE COMING DAY OF JUDGMENT

1"Look! I am sending my messenger, and he will prepare the way before me. Then the Lord you are seeking will suddenly come to his Temple. The messenger of the covenant, whom you look for so eagerly, is surely coming," says the LORD of Heaven's Armies.

2"But who will be able to endure it when he comes? Who will be able to stand and face him when he appears? For he will be like a blazing fire that refines metal, or like a strong soap that bleaches clothes. 3He will sit like a refiner of silver, burning away the dross.
He will purify the Levites, refining them like gold and silver, so that they may once again offer acceptable sacrifices to the LORD. 4Then once more the LORD will accept the offerings brought to him by the people of Judah and Jerusalem, as he did in the past.

5"At that time I will put you on trial. I am eager to witness against all sorcerers and adulterers and liars. I will speak against those who cheat employees of their wages, who oppress widows and orphans, or who deprive the foreigners living among you of justice, for these people do not fear me," says the LORD of Heaven's Armies.

A CALL TO REPENTANCE

6"I am the LORD, and I do not change. That is why you descendants of Jacob are not already destroyed. 7Ever since the days of your ancestors, you have scorned my decrees and failed to obey them.
Now return to me, and I will return to you," says the LORD of Heaven's Armies.

"But you ask, 'How can we return when we have never gone away?'

8"Should people cheat God? Yet you have cheated me!

"But you ask, 'What do you mean? When did we ever cheat you?'

"You have cheated me of the tithes and offerings due to me. 9You are under a curse, for your whole nation has been cheating me.
10Bring all the tithes into the storehouse so there will be enough food in my Temple. If you do," says the LORD of Heaven's Armies,
"I will open the windows of heaven for you. I will pour out a blessing so great you won't have enough room to take it in! Try it!
Put me to the test! 11Your crops will be abundant, for I will guard them from insects and disease.* Your grapes will not fall from the vine before they are ripe," says the LORD of Heaven's Armies.
12"Then all nations will call you blessed, for your land will be such a delight," says the LORD of Heaven's Armies.

13"You have said terrible things about me," says the LORD.

"But you say, 'What do you mean? What have we said against you?'

14"You have said, 'What's the use of serving God? What have we gained by obeying his commands or by trying to show the LORD of Heaven's Armies that we are sorry for our sins? 15From now on we will call the arrogant blessed. For those who do evil get rich, and those who dare God to punish them suffer no harm.'"

THE LORD'S PROMISE OF MERCY

16Then those who feared the LORD spoke with each other, and the LORD listened to what they said. In his presence, a scroll of remembrance was written to record the names of those who feared him and always thought about the honor of his name.

17"They will be my people," says the LORD of Heaven's Armies. "On the day when I act in judgment, they will be my own special treasure. I will spare them as a father spares an obedient child.
18Then you will again see the difference between the righteous and the wicked, between those who serve God and those who do not."

Malachi 4

THE COMING DAY OF JUDGMENT

1*The LORD of Heaven's Armies says, "The day of judgment is coming, burning like a furnace. On that day the arrogant and the wicked will be burned up like straw. They will be consumed—roots, branches, and all.

2"But for you who fear my name, the Sun of Righteousness will rise with healing in his wings.* And you will go free, leaping with joy like calves let out to pasture. 3On the day when I act, you will tread upon the wicked as if they were dust under your feet," says the LORD of Heaven's Armies.

4"Remember to obey the Law of Moses, my servant—all the decrees and regulations that I gave him on Mount Sinai* for all Israel.

5"Look, I am sending you the prophet Elijah before the great and dreadful day of the LORD arrives. 6His preaching will turn the hearts of fathers to their children, and the hearts of children to their fathers. Otherwise I will come and strike the land with a curse."

WELCOME TO

MATTHEW

Matthew is a Jewish tax collector who becomes one of Jesus' followers. He witnesses most of Jesus' public ministry and writes it down so that others can know about Jesus. This book—written for the Jews, by a Jew, about the Jewish Jesus—clearly emphasizes that Jesus was the long-awaited King of the Jews.

Jesus comes to earth to preach the Kingdom of God, and those who enter this Kingdom will inherit eternal life. This is the focus of Matthew's Gospel. His book begins with some detailed stories about Jesus' birth and childhood that are found in no other Gospel, thus providing special insight into Jesus' role as the long-awaited Jewish Messiah. Matthew quotes selected passages from the Old Testament and carefully records Jesus' claims to be the Messiah.

FINDING JESUS IN MATTHEW

In Matthew's Gospel, Jesus is revealed as the Savior whom God had promised in the Old Testament. Matthew records the angel's command to Joseph: "You are to name him Jesus, for he will save his people from their sins" (1:21). Jesus' arrival showed that God keeps his promises. Matthew quotes numerous Old Testament passages to show how Jesus fulfilled each of them. He was born of a virgin in Bethlehem, the city of David (Isaiah 7:14; Micah 5:2). He was a light to all people (Isaiah 9:1-2). He understood and fulfilled the purpose of the law of Moses (Matthew 5–7). He taught by using parables to both obscure and reveal his message (Isaiah 6:9-10). He entered Jerusalem as a humble king riding on a donkey while people praised him (Psalm 118:26; Zechariah 9:9). Using these passages, Matthew shows that Jesus is indeed the Savior that God had promised and Israel had been waiting for.

JESUS' ANCESTRY

Matthew 1

THE ANCESTORS OF JESUS THE MESSIAH

1This is a record of the ancestors of Jesus the Messiah, a descendant of David and of Abraham*:

2Abraham was the father of Isaac.
Isaac was the father of Jacob.
Jacob was the father of Judah and his brothers.

3Judah was the father of Perez and Zerah (whose mother was Tamar).
Perez was the father of Hezron.
Hezron was the father of Ram.*

4Ram was the father of Amminadab.
Amminadab was the father of Nahshon.
Nahshon was the father of Salmon.

5Salmon was the father of Boaz (whose mother was Rahab).
Boaz was the father of Obed (whose mother was Ruth).
Obed was the father of Jesse.

6Jesse was the father of King David.
David was the father of Solomon (whose mother was Bathsheba, the widow of Uriah).

7Solomon was the father of Rehoboam.
Rehoboam was the father of Abijah.
Abijah was the father of Asa.*

8Asa was the father of Jehoshaphat.
Jehoshaphat was the father of Jehoram.*
Jehoram was the father* of Uzziah.

9Uzziah was the father of Jotham.
Jotham was the father of Ahaz.
Ahaz was the father of Hezekiah.

10Hezekiah was the father of Manasseh.
Manasseh was the father of Amon.*
Amon was the father of Josiah.

11Josiah was the father of Jehoiachin* and his brothers (born at the time of the exile to Babylon).

12After the Babylonian exile: Jehoiachin was the father of Shealtiel.
Shealtiel was the father of Zerubbabel.

13Zerubbabel was the father of Abiud.
Abiud was the father of Eliakim.

Eliakim was the father of Azor.

14Azor was the father of Zadok.
Zadok was the father of Akim.
Akim was the father of Eliud.

15Eliud was the father of Eleazar.
Eleazar was the father of Matthan.
Matthan was the father of Jacob.

16Jacob was the father of Joseph, the husband of Mary.
Mary gave birth to Jesus, who is called the Messiah.

17All those listed above include fourteen generations from Abraham to David, fourteen from David to the Babylonian exile, and fourteen from the Babylonian exile to the Messiah.

THE BIRTH OF JESUS THE MESSIAH

18This is how Jesus the Messiah was born. His mother, Mary, was engaged to be married to Joseph. But before the marriage took place, while she was still a virgin, she became pregnant through the power of the Holy Spirit. 19Joseph, her fiancé, was a good man and did not want to disgrace her publicly, so he decided to break the engagement* quietly.

20As he considered this, an angel of the Lord appeared to him in a dream. “Joseph, son of David,” the angel said, “do not be afraid to take Mary as your wife. For the child within her was conceived by the Holy Spirit. 21And she will have a son, and you are to name him Jesus,* for he will save his people from their sins.”

22All of this occurred to fulfill the Lord’s message through his prophet:

23“Look! The virgin will conceive a child!
She will give birth to a son, and they will call him Immanuel,* which means ‘God is with us.’”

24When Joseph woke up, he did as the angel of the Lord commanded and took Mary as his wife. 25But he did not have sexual relations with her until her son was born. And Joseph named him Jesus.

THE WISE MEN

Matthew 2

VISITORS FROM THE EAST

1 Jesus was born in Bethlehem in Judea, during the reign of King Herod. About that time some wise men* from eastern lands arrived in Jerusalem, asking, 2 "Where is the newborn king of the Jews? We saw his star as it rose,* and we have come to worship him."

3 King Herod was deeply disturbed when he heard this, as was everyone in Jerusalem. 4 He called a meeting of the leading priests and teachers of religious law and asked, "Where is the Messiah supposed to be born?"

5 "In Bethlehem in Judea," they said, "for this is what the prophet wrote:

6‘And you, O Bethlehem in the land of Judah, are not least among the ruling cities* of Judah, for a ruler will come from you who will be the shepherd for my people Israel.’*”

7Then Herod called for a private meeting with the wise men, and he learned from them the time when the star first appeared. 8Then he told them, “Go to Bethlehem and search carefully for the child. And when you find him, come back and tell me so that I can go and worship him, too!”

9After this interview the wise men went their way. And the star they had seen in the east guided them to Bethlehem. It went ahead of them and stopped over the place where the child was. 10When they saw the star, they were filled with joy! 11They entered the house and saw the child with his mother, Mary, and they bowed down and worshiped him. Then they opened their treasure chests and gave him gifts of gold, frankincense, and myrrh.

12When it was time to leave, they returned to their own country by another route, for God had warned them in a dream not to return to Herod.

THE ESCAPE TO EGYPT

13After the wise men were gone, an angel of the Lord appeared to Joseph in a dream. “Get up! Flee to Egypt with the child and his mother,” the angel said. “Stay there until I tell you to return, because Herod is going to search for the child to kill him.”

14That night Joseph left for Egypt with the child and Mary, his mother, 15and they stayed there until Herod’s death. This fulfilled what the Lord had spoken through the prophet: “I called my Son out of Egypt.”*

16Herod was furious when he realized that the wise men had outwitted him. He sent soldiers to kill all the boys in and around Bethlehem who were two years old and under, based on the wise men's report of the star's first appearance. 17Herod's brutal action fulfilled what God had spoken through the prophet Jeremiah:

18"A cry was heard in Ramah— weeping and great mourning.
Rachel weeps for her children, refusing to be comforted, for they are dead."*

THE RETURN TO NAZARETH

19When Herod died, an angel of the Lord appeared in a dream to Joseph in Egypt. 20"Get up!" the angel said. "Take the child and his mother back to the land of Israel, because those who were trying to kill the child are dead."

NAZARETH

21So Joseph got up and returned to the land of Israel with Jesus and his mother. 22But when he learned that the new ruler of Judea was Herod's son Archelaus, he was afraid to go there. Then, after being warned in a dream, he left for the region of Galilee. 23So the family went and lived in a town called Nazareth. This fulfilled what the prophets had said: "He will be called a Nazarene."

Matthew 3

JOHN THE BAPTIST PREPARES THE WAY

1In those days John the Baptist came to the Judean wilderness and began preaching. His message was, 2"Repent of your sins and turn to God, for the Kingdom of Heaven is near.*" 3The prophet Isaiah was speaking about John when he said, "He is a voice shouting in the wilderness, 'Prepare the way for the LORD's coming!

Clear the road for him!'"*

4John's clothes were woven from coarse camel hair, and he wore a leather belt around his waist. For food he ate locusts and wild honey. 5People from Jerusalem and from all of Judea and all over the Jordan Valley went out to see and hear John. 6And when they confessed their sins, he baptized them in the Jordan River.

7But when he saw many Pharisees and Sadducees coming to watch him baptize,* he denounced them. "You brood of snakes!" he exclaimed. "Who warned you to flee God's coming wrath? 8Prove by the way you live that you have repented of your sins and turned to

God. 9Don't just say to each other, 'We're safe, for we are descendants of Abraham.' That means nothing, for I tell you, God can create children of Abraham from these very stones. 10Even now the ax of God's judgment is poised, ready to sever the roots of the trees. Yes, every tree that does not produce good fruit will be chopped down and thrown into the fire.

11"I baptize with* water those who repent of their sins and turn to God. But someone is coming soon who is greater than I am—so much greater that I'm not worthy even to be his slave and carry his sandals. He will baptize you with the Holy Spirit and with fire.*12He is ready to separate the chaff from the wheat with his winnowing fork. Then he will clean up the threshing area, gathering the wheat into his barn but burning the chaff with never-ending fire."

BAPTISM IN THE JORDAN RIVER

THE BAPTISM OF JESUS

13Then Jesus went from Galilee to the Jordan River to be baptized by John. 14But John tried to talk him out of it. “I am the one who needs to be baptized by you,” he said, “so why are you coming to me?”

15But Jesus said, “It should be done, for we must carry out all that God requires.*” So John agreed to baptize him.

16After his baptism, as Jesus came up out of the water, the heavens were opened* and he saw the Spirit of God descending like a dove and settling on him. 17And a voice from heaven said, “This is my dearly loved Son, who brings me great joy.”

JESUS' TEMPTATION IN THE WILDERNESS

Matthew 4

THE TEMPTATION OF JESUS

1Then Jesus was led by the Spirit into the wilderness to be tempted there by the devil. 2For forty days and forty nights he fasted and became very hungry.

3During that time the devil* came and said to him, "If you are the Son of God, tell these stones to become loaves of bread."

4But Jesus told him, "No! The Scriptures say, 'People do not live by bread alone, but by every word that comes from the mouth of God.'*"

5Then the devil took him to the holy city, Jerusalem, to the highest point of the Temple, 6and said, “If you are the Son of God, jump off!
For the Scriptures say, ‘He will order his angels to protect you.

And they will hold you up with their hands so you won’t even hurt your foot on a stone.’*”

7Jesus responded, “The Scriptures also say, ‘You must not test the LORD your God.’*”

8Next the devil took him to the peak of a very high mountain and showed him all the kingdoms of the world and their glory. 9“I will give it all to you,” he said, “if you will kneel down and worship
me.”

10“Get out of here, Satan,” Jesus told him. “For the Scriptures say,
‘You must worship the LORD your God and serve only him.’*”

11Then the devil went away, and angels came and took care of Jesus.

JESUS' MINISTRY IN GALILEE

CAPERNAUM AND NAZARETH

THE MINISTRY OF JESUS BEGINS

12When Jesus heard that John had been arrested, he left Judea and returned to Galilee. 13He went first to Nazareth, then left there and moved to Capernaum, beside the Sea of Galilee, in the region of Zebulun and Naphtali. 14This fulfilled what God said through the prophet Isaiah:

15"In the land of Zebulun and of Naphtali, beside the sea, beyond the Jordan River, in Galilee where so many Gentiles live, 16the people who sat in darkness have seen a great light.

And for those who lived in the land where death casts its shadow, a light has shined."*

17From then on Jesus began to preach, "Repent of your sins and turn to God, for the Kingdom of Heaven is near.*"

THE FIRST DISCIPLES

18One day as Jesus was walking along the shore of the Sea of Galilee, he saw two brothers—Simon, also called Peter, and Andrew —throwing a net into the water, for they fished for a living. 19Jesus called out to them, "Come, follow me, and I will show you how to fish for people!" 20And they left their nets at once and followed him.

21A little farther up the shore he saw two other brothers, James and John, sitting in a boat with their father, Zebedee, repairing their nets. And he called them to come, too. 22They immediately followed him, leaving the boat and their father behind.

THE TEN TOWNS

CROWDS FOLLOW JESUS

23Jesus traveled throughout the region of Galilee, teaching in the synagogues and announcing the Good News about the Kingdom.
And he healed every kind of disease and illness. 24News about him spread as far as Syria, and people soon began bringing to him all who were sick. And whatever their sickness or disease, or if they were demon possessed or epileptic or paralyzed—he healed them all. 25Large crowds followed him wherever he went—people from Galilee, the Ten Towns,* Jerusalem, from all over Judea, and from east of the Jordan River.

THE SERMON ON THE MOUNT

Matthew 5

THE SERMON ON THE MOUNT

1One day as he saw the crowds gathering, Jesus went up on the mountainside and sat down. His disciples gathered around him, 2and he began to teach them.

THE BEATITUDES

3"God blesses those who are poor and realize their need for him,* for the Kingdom of Heaven is theirs.

4God blesses those who mourn, for they will be comforted.

5God blesses those who are humble, for they will inherit the whole earth.

6God blesses those who hunger and thirst for justice,* for they will be satisfied.

7God blesses those who are merciful, for they will be shown mercy.

8God blesses those whose hearts are pure, for they will see God.

9God blesses those who work for peace, for they will be called the children of God.

10God blesses those who are persecuted for doing right, for the Kingdom of Heaven is theirs.

11"God blesses you when people mock you and persecute you and lie about you and say all sorts of evil things against you because you are my followers. 12Be happy about it! Be very glad! For a great reward awaits you in heaven. And remember, the ancient prophets were persecuted in the same way.

TEACHING ABOUT SALT AND LIGHT

13"You are the salt of the earth. But what good is salt if it has lost its flavor? Can you make it salty again? It will be thrown out and trampled underfoot as worthless.

14"You are the light of the world—like a city on a hilltop that cannot be hidden. 15No one lights a lamp and then puts it under a basket. Instead, a lamp is placed on a stand, where it gives light to everyone in the house. 16In the same way, let your good deeds shine out for all to see, so that everyone will praise your heavenly Father.

TEACHING ABOUT THE LAW

17"Don't misunderstand why I have come. I did not come to abolish the law of Moses or the writings of the prophets. No, I came to accomplish their purpose. 18I tell you the truth, until heaven and earth disappear, not even the smallest detail of God's law will disappear until its purpose is achieved. 19So if you ignore the least commandment and teach others to do the same, you will be called the least in the Kingdom of Heaven. But anyone who obeys God's laws and teaches them will be called great in the Kingdom of Heaven.

20"But I warn you—unless your righteousness is better than the righteousness of the teachers of religious law and the Pharisees, you will never enter the Kingdom of Heaven!

TEACHING ABOUT ANGER

21"You have heard that our ancestors were told, 'You must not murder. If you commit murder, you are subject to judgment.'* 22But
I say, if you are even angry with someone,* you are subject to judgment! If you call someone an idiot,* you are in danger of being brought before the court. And if you curse someone,* you are in danger of the fires of hell.*

23“So if you are presenting a sacrifice* at the altar in the Temple and you suddenly remember that someone has something against you, 24leave your sacrifice there at the altar. Go and be reconciled to that person. Then come and offer your sacrifice to God.

25“When you are on the way to court with your adversary, settle your differences quickly. Otherwise, your accuser may hand you over to the judge, who will hand you over to an officer, and you will be thrown into prison. 26And if that happens, you surely won’t be free again until you have paid the last penny.*

TEACHING ABOUT ADULTERY

27“You have heard the commandment that says, ‘You must not commit adultery.’* 28But I say, anyone who even looks at a woman with lust has already committed adultery with her in his heart. 29So if your eye—even your good eye*—causes you to lust, gouge it out and throw it away. It is better for you to lose one part of your body than for your whole body to be thrown into hell. 30And if your hand —even your stronger hand*—causes you to sin, cut it off and throw it away. It is better for you to lose one part of your body than for your whole body to be thrown into hell.

TEACHING ABOUT DIVORCE

31"You have heard the law that says, 'A man can divorce his wife by merely giving her a written notice of divorce.'* 32But I say that a man who divorces his wife, unless she has been unfaithful, causes her to commit adultery. And anyone who marries a divorced woman also commits adultery.

TEACHING ABOUT VOWS

33"You have also heard that our ancestors were told, 'You must not break your vows; you must carry out the vows you make to the LORD.'* 34But I say, do not make any vows! Do not say, 'By heaven!'
because heaven is God's throne. 35And do not say, 'By the earth!'
because the earth is his footstool. And do not say, 'By Jerusalem!'
for Jerusalem is the city of the great King. 36Do not even say, 'By my head!' for you can't turn one hair white or black. 37Just say a simple, 'Yes, I will,' or 'No, I won't.' Anything beyond this is from the evil one.

TEACHING ABOUT REVENGE

38"You have heard the law that says the punishment must match the injury: 'An eye for an eye, and a tooth for a tooth.'* 39But I say, do not resist an evil person! If someone slaps you on the right cheek, offer the other cheek also. 40If you are sued in court and your shirt is taken from you, give your coat, too. 41If a soldier demands that you carry his gear for a mile,* carry it two miles. 42Give to those who ask, and don't turn away from those who want to borrow.

TEACHING ABOUT LOVE FOR ENEMIES

43"You have heard the law that says, 'Love your neighbor'* and hate your enemy. 44But I say, love your enemies!* Pray for those who persecute you! 45In that way, you will be acting as true children of your Father in heaven. For he gives his sunlight to both the evil and the good, and he sends rain on the just and the unjust alike. 46If you love only those who love you, what reward is there for that? Even corrupt tax collectors do that much. 47If you are kind only to your friends,* how are you different from anyone else? Even pagans do that. 48But you are to be perfect, even as your Father in heaven is perfect.

Matthew 6

TEACHING ABOUT GIVING TO THE NEEDY

1"Watch out! Don't do your good deeds publicly, to be admired by others, for you will lose the reward from your Father in heaven.
2When you give to someone in need, don't do as the hypocrites do —blowing trumpets in the synagogues and streets to call attention to their acts of charity! I tell you the truth, they have received all the reward they will ever get. 3But when you give to someone in need, don't let your left hand know what your right hand is doing. 4Give your gifts in private, and your Father, who sees everything, will reward you.

PRAYERS MATTHEW 6:5-15

TEACHING ABOUT PRAYER AND FASTING

5"When you pray, don't be like the hypocrites who love to pray publicly on street corners and in the synagogues where everyone can see them. I tell you the truth, that is all the reward they will ever get. 6But when you pray, go away by yourself, shut the door behind you, and pray to your Father in private. Then your Father, who sees everything, will reward you.

7"When you pray, don't babble on and on as people of other religions do. They think their prayers are answered merely by repeating their words again and again. 8Don't be like them, for your Father knows exactly what you need even before you ask him! 9Pray like this: Our Father in heaven, may your name be kept holy.

10May your Kingdom come soon.
May your will be done on earth, as it is in heaven.

11Give us today the food we need,*

12and forgive us our sins, as we have forgiven those who sin against us.

13And don't let us yield to temptation,*
but rescue us from the evil one.*

14"If you forgive those who sin against you, your heavenly Father will forgive you. 15But if you refuse to forgive others, your Father will not forgive your sins.

16"And when you fast, don't make it obvious, as the hypocrites do, for they try to look miserable and disheveled so people will admire them for their fasting. I tell you the truth, that is the only reward they will ever get. 17But when you fast, comb your hair* and wash your face. 18Then no one will notice that you are fasting, except your Father, who knows what you do in private. And your Father, who sees everything, will reward you.

TEACHING ABOUT MONEY AND POSSESSIONS

19"Don't store up treasures here on earth, where moths eat them and rust destroys them, and where thieves break in and steal. 20Store your treasures in heaven, where moths and rust cannot destroy, and thieves do not break in and steal. 21Wherever your treasure is, there the desires of your heart will also be.

22"Your eye is a lamp that provides light for your body. When your eye is good, your whole body is filled with light. 23But when your eye is bad, your whole body is filled with darkness. And if the light you think you have is actually darkness, how deep that darkness is!

24"No one can serve two masters. For you will hate one and love the other; you will be devoted to one and despise the other. You cannot serve both God and money.

25"That is why I tell you not to worry about everyday life—whether you have enough food and drink, or enough clothes to wear. Isn't life more than food, and your body more than clothing? 26Look at the birds. They don't plant or harvest or store food in barns, for your heavenly Father feeds them. And aren't you far more valuable to him than they are? 27Can all your worries add a single moment to your life?

28"And why worry about your clothing? Look at the lilies of the field and how they grow. They don't work or make their clothing, 29yet Solomon in all his glory was not dressed as beautifully as they are. 30And if God cares so wonderfully for wildflowers that are here today and thrown into the fire tomorrow, he will certainly care for you. Why do you have so little faith?

31"So don't worry about these things, saying, 'What will we eat? What will we drink? What will we wear?' 32These things dominate the thoughts of unbelievers, but your heavenly Father already knows all your needs. 33Seek the Kingdom of God* above all else, and live righteously, and he will give you everything you need.

34"So don't worry about tomorrow, for tomorrow will bring its own worries. Today's trouble is enough for today.

Matthew 7

DO NOT JUDGE OTHERS

1 “Do not judge others, and you will not be judged. 2 For you will be treated as you treat others.* The standard you use in judging is the standard by which you will be judged.*

3 “And why worry about a speck in your friend’s eye* when you have a log in your own? 4 How can you think of saying to your friend,* ‘Let me help you get rid of that speck in your eye,’ when you can’t see past the log in your own eye? 5 Hypocrite! First get rid of the log in your own eye; then you will see well enough to deal with the speck in your friend’s eye.

6 “Don’t waste what is holy on people who are unholy.* Don’t throw your pearls to pigs! They will trample the pearls, then turn and attack you.

EFFECTIVE PRAYER

7"Keep on asking, and you will receive what you ask for. Keep on seeking, and you will find. Keep on knocking, and the door will be opened to you. 8For everyone who asks, receives. Everyone who seeks, finds. And to everyone who knocks, the door will be opened.

9"You parents—if your children ask for a loaf of bread, do you give them a stone instead? 10Or if they ask for a fish, do you give them a snake? Of course not! 11So if you sinful people know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will your heavenly Father give good gifts to those who ask him.

THE GOLDEN RULE

12"Do to others whatever you would like them to do to you. This is the essence of all that is taught in the law and the prophets.

THE NARROW GATE

13"You can enter God's Kingdom only through the narrow gate. The highway to hell* is broad, and its gate is wide for the many who choose that way. 14But the gateway to life is very narrow and the road is difficult, and only a few ever find it.

THE TREE AND ITS FRUIT

15"Beware of false prophets who come disguised as harmless sheep but are really vicious wolves. 16You can identify them by their fruit, that is, by the way they act. Can you pick grapes from thornbushes, or figs from thistles? 17A good tree produces good fruit, and a bad tree produces bad fruit. 18A good tree can't produce bad fruit, and a bad tree can't produce good fruit. 19So every tree that does not produce good fruit is chopped down and thrown into the fire. 20Yes, just as you can identify a tree by its fruit, so you can identify people by their actions.

TRUE DISCIPLES

21“Not everyone who calls out to me, ‘Lord! Lord!’ will enter the Kingdom of Heaven. Only those who actually do the will of my Father in heaven will enter. 22On judgment day many will say to me, ‘Lord! Lord! We prophesied in your name and cast out demons in your name and performed many miracles in your name.’ 23But I will reply, ‘I never knew you. Get away from me, you who break God’s laws.’

BUILDING ON A SOLID FOUNDATION

24“Anyone who listens to my teaching and follows it is wise, like a person who builds a house on solid rock. 25Though the rain comes in torrents and the floodwaters rise and the winds beat against that house, it won’t collapse because it is built on bedrock. 26But anyone who hears my teaching and doesn’t obey it is foolish, like a person who builds a house on sand. 27When the rains and floods come and the winds beat against that house, it will collapse with a mighty crash.”

28When Jesus had finished saying these things, the crowds were amazed at his teaching, 29for he taught with real authority—quite unlike their teachers of religious law.

Matthew 8

JESUS HEALS A MAN WITH LEPROSY

1Large crowds followed Jesus as he came down the mountainside.
2Suddenly, a man with leprosy approached him and knelt before him. “Lord,” the man said, “if you are willing, you can heal me and make me clean.”

3Jesus reached out and touched him. “I am willing,” he said. “Be healed!” And instantly the leprosy disappeared. 4Then Jesus said to him, “Don’t tell anyone about this. Instead, go to the priest and let him examine you. Take along the offering required in the law of Moses for those who have been healed of leprosy.* This will be a public testimony that you have been cleansed.”

THE FAITH OF A ROMAN OFFICER

5When Jesus returned to Capernaum, a Roman officer* came and pleaded with him, 6“Lord, my young servant* lies in bed, paralyzed and in terrible pain.”

7Jesus said, “I will come and heal him.”

8But the officer said, “Lord, I am not worthy to have you come into my home. Just say the word from where you are, and my servant will be healed. 9I know this because I am under the authority of my superior officers, and I have authority over my soldiers. I only need to say, ‘Go,’ and they go, or ‘Come,’ and they come. And if I say to my slaves, ‘Do this,’ they do it.”

10When Jesus heard this, he was amazed. Turning to those who were following him, he said, “I tell you the truth, I haven’t seen faith like this in all Israel! 11And I tell you this, that many Gentiles will come from all over the world—from east and west—and sit down with Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob at the feast in the Kingdom of Heaven. 12But many Israelites—those for whom the Kingdom was prepared—will be thrown into outer darkness, where there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.”

13Then Jesus said to the Roman officer, “Go back home. Because you believed, it has happened.” And the young servant was healed that same hour.

JESUS HEALS MANY PEOPLE

14When Jesus arrived at Peter’s house, Peter’s mother-in-law was sick in bed with a high fever. 15But when Jesus touched her hand, the fever left her. Then she got up and prepared a meal for him.

16That evening many demon-possessed people were brought to Jesus. He cast out the evil spirits with a simple command, and he healed all the sick. 17This fulfilled the word of the Lord through the prophet Isaiah, who said, “He took our sicknesses and removed our diseases.”*

THE COST OF FOLLOWING JESUS

18When Jesus saw the crowd around him, he instructed his disciples to cross to the other side of the lake.

19Then one of the teachers of religious law said to him, “Teacher, I will follow you wherever you go.”

20But Jesus replied, “Foxes have dens to live in, and birds have nests, but the Son of Man* has no place even to lay his head.”

21Another of his disciples said, “Lord, first let me return home and bury my father.”

22But Jesus told him, “Follow me now. Let the spiritually dead bury their own dead.*”

JESUS CALMS THE STORM

23Then Jesus got into the boat and started across the lake with his disciples. 24Suddenly, a fierce storm struck the lake, with waves breaking into the boat. But Jesus was sleeping. 25The disciples went and woke him up, shouting, “Lord, save us! We’re going to drown!”

26Jesus responded, “Why are you afraid? You have so little faith!”
Then he got up and rebuked the wind and waves, and suddenly there was a great calm.

27The disciples were amazed. “Who is this man?” they asked. “Even the winds and waves obey him!”

JESUS HEALS TWO DEMON-POSSESSED MEN

28When Jesus arrived on the other side of the lake, in the region of the Gadarenes,* two men who were possessed by demons met him.
They lived in a cemetery and were so violent that no one could go through that area.

29They began screaming at him, “Why are you interfering with us, Son of God? Have you come here to torture us before God’s appointed time?”

30There happened to be a large herd of pigs feeding in the distance.
31So the demons begged, “If you cast us out, send us into that herd of pigs.”

32“All right, go!” Jesus commanded them. So the demons came out of the men and entered the pigs, and the whole herd plunged down the steep hillside into the lake and drowned in the water.

33The herdsmen fled to the nearby town, telling everyone what happened to the demon-possessed men. 34Then the entire town came out to meet Jesus, but they begged him to go away and leave them alone.

FORGIVENESS MATTHEW 9:1-8

Matthew 9

JESUS HEALS A PARALYZED MAN

1Jesus climbed into a boat and went back across the lake to his own town. 2Some people brought to him a paralyzed man on a mat.
Seeing their faith, Jesus said to the paralyzed man, “Be encouraged, my child! Your sins are forgiven.”

3But some of the teachers of religious law said to themselves, “That’s blasphemy! Does he think he’s God?”

4Jesus knew* what they were thinking, so he asked them, “Why do you have such evil thoughts in your hearts? 5Is it easier to say ‘Your sins are forgiven,’ or ‘Stand up and walk’? 6So I will prove to you that the Son of Man* has the authority on earth to forgive sins.” Then Jesus turned to the paralyzed man and said, “Stand up, pick up your mat, and go home!”

7And the man jumped up and went home! 8Fear swept through the crowd as they saw this happen. And they praised God for sending a man with such great authority.*

JESUS CALLS MATTHEW

9As Jesus was walking along, he saw a man named Matthew sitting at his tax collector's booth. "Follow me and be my disciple," Jesus said to him. So Matthew got up and followed him.

10Later, Matthew invited Jesus and his disciples to his home as dinner guests, along with many tax collectors and other disreputable sinners. 11But when the Pharisees saw this, they asked his disciples, "Why does your teacher eat with such scum?*"

12When Jesus heard this, he said, "Healthy people don't need a doctor—sick people do." 13Then he added, "Now go and learn the meaning of this Scripture: 'I want you to show mercy, not offer sacrifices.'* For I have come to call not those who think they are righteous, but those who know they are sinners."

A DISCUSSION ABOUT FASTING

14One day the disciples of John the Baptist came to Jesus and asked him, “Why don’t your disciples fast* like we do and the Pharisees do?”

15Jesus replied, “Do wedding guests mourn while celebrating with the groom? Of course not. But someday the groom will be taken away from them, and then they will fast.

16“Besides, who would patch old clothing with new cloth? For the new patch would shrink and rip away from the old cloth, leaving an even bigger tear than before.

17“And no one puts new wine into old wineskins. For the old skins would burst from the pressure, spilling the wine and ruining the skins. New wine is stored in new wineskins so that both are preserved.”

JESUS HEALS IN RESPONSE TO FAITH

18As Jesus was saying this, the leader of a synagogue came and knelt before him. “My daughter has just died,” he said, “but you can bring her back to life again if you just come and lay your hand on her.”

19So Jesus and his disciples got up and went with him. 20Just then a woman who had suffered for twelve years with constant bleeding came up behind him. She touched the fringe of his robe, 21for she thought, “If I can just touch his robe, I will be healed.”

22Jesus turned around, and when he saw her he said, “Daughter, be encouraged! Your faith has made you well.” And the woman was healed at that moment.

23When Jesus arrived at the official's home, he saw the noisy crowd and heard the funeral music. 24"Get out!" he told them. "The girl isn't dead; she's only asleep." But the crowd laughed at him. 25After the crowd was put outside, however, Jesus went in and took the girl by the hand, and she stood up! 26The report of this miracle swept through the entire countryside.

JESUS HEALS THE BLIND

27After Jesus left the girl's home, two blind men followed along behind him, shouting, "Son of David, have mercy on us!"

28They went right into the house where he was staying, and Jesus asked them, "Do you believe I can make you see?"

"Yes, Lord," they told him, "we do."

29Then he touched their eyes and said, "Because of your faith, it will happen." 30Then their eyes were opened, and they could see!
Jesus sternly warned them, "Don't tell anyone about this." 31But instead, they went out and spread his fame all over the region.

32When they left, a demon-possessed man who couldn't speak was brought to Jesus. 33So Jesus cast out the demon, and then the man began to speak. The crowds were amazed. "Nothing like this has ever happened in Israel!" they exclaimed.

34But the Pharisees said, "He can cast out demons because he is empowered by the prince of demons."

THE NEED FOR WORKERS

35Jesus traveled through all the towns and villages of that area, teaching in the synagogues and announcing the Good News about the Kingdom. And he healed every kind of disease and illness.
36When he saw the crowds, he had compassion on them because they were confused and helpless, like sheep without a shepherd.
37He said to his disciples, “The harvest is great, but the workers are few. 38So pray to the Lord who is in charge of the harvest; ask him to send more workers into his fields.”

Matthew 10

JESUS SENDS OUT THE TWELVE APOSTLES

1Jesus called his twelve disciples together and gave them authority to cast out evil* spirits and to heal every kind of disease and illness.
2Here are the names of the twelve apostles: first, Simon (also called Peter), then Andrew (Peter’s brother),

James (son of Zebedee),
John (James’s brother),

3Philip, Bartholomew,
Thomas,
Matthew (the tax collector),
James (son of Alphaeus), Thaddaeus,*

4Simon (the zealot*), Judas Iscariot (who later betrayed him).

5Jesus sent out the twelve apostles with these instructions: “Don’t go to the Gentiles or the Samaritans, 6but only to the people of Israel—God’s lost sheep. 7Go and announce to them that the Kingdom of Heaven is near.* 8Heal the sick, raise the dead, cure those with leprosy, and cast out demons. Give as freely as you have received!

9“Don’t take any money in your money belts—no gold, silver, or even copper coins. 10Don’t carry a traveler’s bag with a change of clothes and sandals or even a walking stick. Don’t hesitate to accept hospitality, because those who work deserve to be fed.

11“Whenever you enter a city or village, search for a worthy person and stay in his home until you leave town. 12When you enter the home, give it your blessing. 13If it turns out to be a worthy home, let your blessing stand; if it is not, take back the blessing. 14If any household or town refuses to welcome you or listen to your message, shake its dust from your feet as you leave. 15I tell you the truth, the wicked cities of Sodom and Gomorrah will be better off than such a town on the judgment day.

16“Look, I am sending you out as sheep among wolves. So be as shrewd as snakes and harmless as doves. 17But beware! For you will be handed over to the courts and will be flogged with whips in the synagogues. 18You will stand trial before governors and kings because you are my followers. But this will be your opportunity to tell the rulers and other unbelievers about me.* 19When you are arrested, don’t worry about how to respond or what to say. God will give you the right words at the right time. 20For it is not you who will be speaking—it will be the Spirit of your Father speaking through you.

21“A brother will betray his brother to death, a father will betray his own child, and children will rebel against their parents and cause them to be killed. 22And all nations will hate you because you are my followers.* But everyone who endures to the end will be saved.
23When you are persecuted in one town, flee to the next. I tell you the truth, the Son of Man* will return before you have reached all the towns of Israel.

24“Students* are not greater than their teacher, and slaves are not greater than their master. 25Students are to be like their teacher, and slaves are to be like their master. And since I, the master of the household, have been called the prince of demons,* the members of my household will be called by even worse names!

26"But don't be afraid of those who threaten you. For the time is coming when everything that is covered will be revealed, and all that is secret will be made known to all. 27What I tell you now in the darkness, shout abroad when daybreak comes. What I whisper in your ear, shout from the housetops for all to hear!

28"Don't be afraid of those who want to kill your body; they cannot touch your soul. Fear only God, who can destroy both soul and body in hell.* 29What is the price of two sparrows—one copper coin*? But not a single sparrow can fall to the ground without your Father knowing it. 30And the very hairs on your head are all numbered. 31So don't be afraid; you are more valuable to God than a whole flock of sparrows.

32"Everyone who acknowledges me publicly here on earth, I will also acknowledge before my Father in heaven. 33But everyone who denies me here on earth, I will also deny before my Father in heaven.

34"Don't imagine that I came to bring peace to the earth! I came not to bring peace, but a sword.

35'I have come to set a man against his father, a daughter against her mother, and a daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law.

36Your enemies will be right in your own household!'*

37"If you love your father or mother more than you love me, you are not worthy of being mine; or if you love your son or daughter more than me, you are not worthy of being mine. 38If you refuse to take up your cross and follow me, you are not worthy of being mine. 39If you cling to your life, you will lose it; but if you give up your life for me, you will find it.

40"Anyone who receives you receives me, and anyone who receives me receives the Father who sent me. 41If you receive a prophet as one who speaks for God,* you will be given the same reward as a prophet. And if you receive righteous people because of their righteousness, you will be given a reward like theirs. 42And if you give even a cup of cold water to one of the least of my followers, you will surely be rewarded."

Matthew 11

JESUS AND JOHN THE BAPTIST

1When Jesus had finished giving these instructions to his twelve disciples, he went out to teach and preach in towns throughout the region.

2John the Baptist, who was in prison, heard about all the things the Messiah was doing. So he sent his disciples to ask Jesus, 3"Are you the Messiah we've been expecting,* or should we keep looking for someone else?"

4Jesus told them, "Go back to John and tell him what you have heard and seen—5the blind see, the lame walk, the lepers are cured, the deaf hear, the dead are raised to life, and the Good News is being preached to the poor. 6And tell him, 'God blesses those who do not turn away because of me.*'"

7As John's disciples were leaving, Jesus began talking about him to the crowds. "What kind of man did you go into the wilderness to see? Was he a weak reed, swayed by every breath of wind? 8Or were you expecting to see a man dressed in expensive clothes? No, people with expensive clothes live in palaces. 9Were you looking for a prophet? Yes, and he is more than a prophet. 10John is the man to whom the Scriptures refer when they say, ‘Look, I am sending my messenger ahead of you, and he will prepare your way before you.’*

11“I tell you the truth, of all who have ever lived, none is greater than John the Baptist. Yet even the least person in the Kingdom of Heaven is greater than he is! 12And from the time John the Baptist began preaching until now, the Kingdom of Heaven has been forcefully advancing,* and violent people are attacking it. 13For before John came, all the prophets and the law of Moses looked forward to this present time. 14And if you are willing to accept what I say, he is Elijah, the one the prophets said would come.* 15Anyone with ears to hear should listen and understand!

16“To what can I compare this generation? It is like children playing a game in the public square. They complain to their friends,

17‘We played wedding songs, and you didn’t dance, so we played funeral songs, and you didn’t mourn.’

18For John didn’t spend his time eating and drinking, and you say, ‘He’s possessed by a demon.’ 19The Son of Man,* on the other hand, feasts and drinks, and you say, ‘He’s a glutton and a drunkard, and a friend of tax collectors and other sinners!’ But wisdom is shown to be right by its results.”

JUDGMENT FOR THE UNBELIEVERS

20Then Jesus began to denounce the towns where he had done so many of his miracles, because they hadn’t repented of their sins and turned to God. 21“What sorrow awaits you, Korazin and Bethsaida! For if the miracles I did in you had been done in wicked Tyre and Sidon, their people would have repented of their sins long ago, clothing themselves in burlap and throwing ashes on their heads to show their remorse. 22I tell you, Tyre and Sidon will be better off on judgment day than you.

23“And you people of Capernaum, will you be honored in heaven?
No, you will go down to the place of the dead.* For if the miracles I did for you had been done in wicked Sodom, it would still be here today. 24I tell you, even Sodom will be better off on judgment day than you.”

JESUS’ PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING

25At that time Jesus prayed this prayer: “O Father, Lord of heaven and earth, thank you for hiding these things from those who think themselves wise and clever, and for revealing them to the childlike.
26Yes, Father, it pleased you to do it this way!

27“My Father has entrusted everything to me. No one truly knows the Son except the Father, and no one truly knows the Father except the Son and those to whom the Son chooses to reveal him.”

28Then Jesus said, “Come to me, all of you who are weary and carry heavy burdens, and I will give you rest. 29Take my yoke upon you.
Let me teach you, because I am humble and gentle at heart, and you will find rest for your souls. 30For my yoke is easy to bear, and the burden I give you is light.”

Matthew 12

A DISCUSSION ABOUT THE SABBATH

1At about that time Jesus was walking through some grainfields on the Sabbath. His disciples were hungry, so they began breaking off some heads of grain and eating them. 2But some Pharisees saw them do it and protested, “Look, your disciples are breaking the law by harvesting grain on the Sabbath.”

3Jesus said to them, “Haven’t you read in the Scriptures what David did when he and his companions were hungry? 4He went into the house of God, and he and his companions broke the law by eating the sacred loaves of bread that only the priests are allowed to eat. 5And haven't you read in the law of Moses that the priests on duty in the Temple may work on the Sabbath? 6I tell you, there is one here who is even greater than the Temple! 7But you would not have condemned my innocent disciples if you knew the meaning of this Scripture: 'I want you to show mercy, not offer sacrifices.'* 8For the Son of Man* is Lord, even over the Sabbath!"

JESUS HEALS ON THE SABBATH

9Then Jesus went over to their synagogue, 10where he noticed a man with a deformed hand. The Pharisees asked Jesus, "Does the law permit a person to work by healing on the Sabbath?" (They were hoping he would say yes, so they could bring charges against him.)

11And he answered, "If you had a sheep that fell into a well on the Sabbath, wouldn't you work to pull it out? Of course you would. 12And how much more valuable is a person than a sheep! Yes, the law permits a person to do good on the Sabbath."

13Then he said to the man, "Hold out your hand." So the man held out his hand, and it was restored, just like the other one! 14Then the Pharisees called a meeting to plot how to kill Jesus.

JESUS, GOD'S CHOSEN SERVANT

15But Jesus knew what they were planning. So he left that area, and many people followed him. He healed all the sick among them, 16but he warned them not to reveal who he was. 17This fulfilled the prophecy of Isaiah concerning him:

18"Look at my Servant, whom I have chosen.
He is my Beloved, who pleases me.
I will put my Spirit upon him, and he will proclaim justice to the nations.

19He will not fight or shout or raise his voice in public.

20He will not crush the weakest reed or put out a flickering candle.
Finally he will cause justice to be victorious.

21And his name will be the hope of all the world."*

JESUS AND THE PRINCE OF DEMONS

22Then a demon-possessed man, who was blind and couldn't speak, was brought to Jesus. He healed the man so that he could both speak and see. 23The crowd was amazed and asked, "Could it be that Jesus is the Son of David, the Messiah?"

24But when the Pharisees heard about the miracle, they said, "No wonder he can cast out demons. He gets his power from Satan,* the prince of demons."

25Jesus knew their thoughts and replied, "Any kingdom divided by civil war is doomed. A town or family splintered by feuding will fall apart. 26And if Satan is casting out Satan, he is divided and fighting against himself. His own kingdom will not survive. 27And if I am empowered by Satan, what about your own exorcists? They cast out demons, too, so they will condemn you for what you have said.
28But if I am casting out demons by the Spirit of God, then the Kingdom of God has arrived among you. 29For who is powerful enough to enter the house of a strong man like Satan and plunder his goods? Only someone even stronger—someone who could tie him up and then plunder his house.

30"Anyone who isn't with me opposes me, and anyone who isn't working with me is actually working against me.

31"So I tell you, every sin and blasphemy can be forgiven—except blasphemy against the Holy Spirit, which will never be forgiven.

32Anyone who speaks against the Son of Man can be forgiven, but anyone who speaks against the Holy Spirit will never be forgiven, either in this world or in the world to come.

33"A tree is identified by its fruit. If a tree is good, its fruit will be good. If a tree is bad, its fruit will be bad. 34You brood of snakes! How could evil men like you speak what is good and right? For whatever is in your heart determines what you say. 35A good person produces good things from the treasury of a good heart, and an evil person produces evil things from the treasury of an evil heart. 36And I tell you this, you must give an account on judgment day for every idle word you speak. 37The words you say will either acquit you or condemn you."

THE SIGN OF JONAH

38One day some teachers of religious law and Pharisees came to Jesus and said, "Teacher, we want you to show us a miraculous sign to prove your authority."

39But Jesus replied, "Only an evil, adulterous generation would demand a miraculous sign; but the only sign I will give them is the sign of the prophet Jonah. 40For as Jonah was in the belly of the great fish for three days and three nights, so will the Son of Man be in the heart of the earth for three days and three nights.

41"The people of Nineveh will stand up against this generation on judgment day and condemn it, for they repented of their sins at the preaching of Jonah. Now someone greater than Jonah is here—but you refuse to repent. 42The queen of Sheba* will also stand up against this generation on judgment day and condemn it, for she came from a distant land to hear the wisdom of Solomon. Now someone greater than Solomon is here—but you refuse to listen.

43"When an evil* spirit leaves a person, it goes into the desert, seeking rest but finding none. 44Then it says, 'I will return to the person I came from.' So it returns and finds its former home empty, swept, and in order. 45Then the spirit finds seven other spirits more evil than itself, and they all enter the person and live there. And so that person is worse off than before. That will be the experience of this evil generation."

THE TRUE FAMILY OF JESUS

46As Jesus was speaking to the crowd, his mother and brothers stood outside, asking to speak to him. 47Someone told Jesus, "Your mother and your brothers are standing outside, and they want to speak to you."*

48Jesus asked, "Who is my mother? Who are my brothers?" 49Then he pointed to his disciples and said, "Look, these are my mother and brothers. 50Anyone who does the will of my Father in heaven is my brother and sister and mother!"

Matthew 13

PARABLE OF THE FARMER SCATTERING SEED

1Later that same day Jesus left the house and sat beside the lake. 2A large crowd soon gathered around him, so he got into a boat. Then he sat there and taught as the people stood on the shore. 3He told many stories in the form of parables, such as this one: “Listen! A farmer went out to plant some seeds. 4As he scattered them across his field, some seeds fell on a footpath, and the birds came and ate them. 5Other seeds fell on shallow soil with underlying rock. The seeds sprouted quickly because the soil was shallow. 6But the plants soon wilted under the hot sun, and since they didn’t have deep roots, they died. 7Other seeds fell among thorns that grew up and choked out the tender plants. 8Still other seeds fell on fertile soil, and they produced a crop that was thirty, sixty, and even a hundred times as much as had been planted! 9Anyone with ears to hear should listen and understand.”

10His disciples came and asked him, “Why do you use parables when you talk to the people?”

11He replied, “You are permitted to understand the secrets* of the Kingdom of Heaven, but others are not. 12To those who listen to my teaching, more understanding will be given, and they will have an abundance of knowledge. But for those who are not listening, even what little understanding they have will be taken away from them. 13That is why I use these parables, For they look, but they don’t really see.

They hear, but they don’t really listen or understand.

14This fulfills the prophecy of Isaiah that says, ‘When you hear what I say, you will not understand.

When you see what I do, you will not comprehend.

15For the hearts of these people are hardened, and their ears cannot hear, and they have closed their eyes— so their eyes cannot see, and their ears cannot hear, and their hearts cannot understand, and

16"But blessed are your eyes, because they see; and your ears, because they hear. 17I tell you the truth, many prophets and righteous people longed to see what you see, but they didn't see it. And they longed to hear what you hear, but they didn't hear it.

18"Now listen to the explanation of the parable about the farmer planting seeds: 19The seed that fell on the footpath represents those who hear the message about the Kingdom and don't understand it. Then the evil one comes and snatches away the seed that was planted in their hearts. 20The seed on the rocky soil represents those who hear the message and immediately receive it with joy. 21But since they don't have deep roots, they don't last long. They fall away as soon as they have problems or are persecuted for believing God's word. 22The seed that fell among the thorns represents those who hear God's word, but all too quickly the message is crowded out by the worries of this life and the lure of wealth, so no fruit is produced. 23The seed that fell on good soil represents those who truly hear and understand God's word and produce a harvest of thirty, sixty, or even a hundred times as much as had been planted!"

THE FUTURE MATTHEW 13:24-30, 36-43

PARABLE OF THE WHEAT AND WEEDS

24Here is another story Jesus told: “The Kingdom of Heaven is like a farmer who planted good seed in his field. 25But that night as the workers slept, his enemy came and planted weeds among the wheat, then slipped away. 26When the crop began to grow and produce grain, the weeds also grew.

27“The farmer’s workers went to him and said, ‘Sir, the field where you planted that good seed is full of weeds! Where did they come from?’

28“‘An enemy has done this!’ the farmer exclaimed.

“‘Should we pull out the weeds?’ they asked.

29“‘No,’ he replied, ‘you’ll uproot the wheat if you do. 30Let both grow together until the harvest. Then I will tell the harvesters to sort out the weeds, tie them into bundles, and burn them, and to put the wheat in the barn.’”

PARABLE OF THE MUSTARD SEED

31Here is another illustration Jesus used: “The Kingdom of Heaven is like a mustard seed planted in a field. 32It is the smallest of all seeds, but it becomes the largest of garden plants; it grows into a tree, and birds come and make nests in its branches.”

PARABLE OF THE YEAST

33Jesus also used this illustration: “The Kingdom of Heaven is like the yeast a woman used in making bread. Even though she put only a little yeast in three measures of flour, it permeated every part of the dough.”

34Jesus always used stories and illustrations like these when speaking to the crowds. In fact, he never spoke to them without using such parables. 35This fulfilled what God had spoken through the prophet: “I will speak to you in parables.

I will explain things hidden since the creation of the world.*”

PARABLE OF THE WHEAT AND WEEDS EXPLAINED

36Then, leaving the crowds outside, Jesus went into the house. His disciples said, “Please explain to us the story of the weeds in the field.”

40“Just as the weeds are sorted out and burned in the fire, so it will be at the end of the world. 41The Son of Man will send his angels, and they will remove from his Kingdom everything that causes sin and all who do evil. 42And the angels will throw them into the fiery furnace, where there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth. 43Then the righteous will shine like the sun in their Father’s Kingdom. Anyone with ears to hear should listen and understand!

PARABLES OF THE HIDDEN TREASURE AND THE PEARL

44“The Kingdom of Heaven is like a treasure that a man discovered hidden in a field. In his excitement, he hid it again and sold everything he owned to get enough money to buy the field.

45“Again, the Kingdom of Heaven is like a merchant on the lookout for choice pearls. 46When he discovered a pearl of great value, he sold everything he owned and bought it!

PARABLE OF THE FISHING NET

47"Again, the Kingdom of Heaven is like a fishing net that was thrown into the water and caught fish of every kind. 48When the net was full, they dragged it up onto the shore, sat down, and sorted the good fish into crates, but threw the bad ones away. 49That is the way it will be at the end of the world. The angels will come and separate the wicked people from the righteous, 50throwing the wicked into the fiery furnace, where there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth. 51Do you understand all these things?"

"Yes," they said, "we do."

52Then he added, "Every teacher of religious law who becomes a disciple in the Kingdom of Heaven is like a homeowner who brings from his storeroom new gems of truth as well as old."

JESUS REJECTED AT NAZARETH

53When Jesus had finished telling these stories and illustrations, he left that part of the country. 54He returned to Nazareth, his hometown. When he taught there in the synagogue, everyone was amazed and said, "Where does he get this wisdom and the power to do miracles?" 55Then they scoffed, "He's just the carpenter's son, and we know Mary, his mother, and his brothers—James, Joseph,* Simon, and Judas. 56All his sisters live right here among us. Where did he learn all these things?" 57And they were deeply offended and refused to believe in him.

Then Jesus told them, "A prophet is honored everywhere except in his own hometown and among his own family." 58And so he did only a few miracles there because of their unbelief.

Matthew 14

THE DEATH OF JOHN THE BAPTIST

1When Herod Antipas, the ruler of Galilee,* heard about Jesus, 2he said to his advisers, “This must be John the Baptist raised from the dead! That is why he can do such miracles.”

3For Herod had arrested and imprisoned John as a favor to his wife Herodias (the former wife of Herod’s brother Philip). 4John had been telling Herod, “It is against God’s law for you to marry her.” 5Herod wanted to kill John, but he was afraid of a riot, because all the people believed John was a prophet.

6But at a birthday party for Herod, Herodias's daughter performed a dance that greatly pleased him, 7so he promised with a vow to give her anything she wanted. 8At her mother's urging, the girl said, "I want the head of John the Baptist on a tray!" 9Then the king regretted what he had said; but because of the vow he had made in front of his guests, he issued the necessary orders. 10So John was beheaded in the prison, 11and his head was brought on a tray and given to the girl, who took it to her mother. 12Later, John's disciples came for his body and buried it. Then they went and told Jesus what had happened.

THE SEA OF GALILEE

JESUS FEEDS FIVE THOUSAND

13As soon as Jesus heard the news, he left in a boat to a remote area to be alone. But the crowds heard where he was headed and followed on foot from many towns. 14Jesus saw the huge crowd as he stepped from the boat, and he had compassion on them and healed their sick.

15That evening the disciples came to him and said, "This is a remote place, and it's already getting late. Send the crowds away so they can go to the villages and buy food for themselves."

16But Jesus said, "That isn't necessary—you feed them."

17"But we have only five loaves of bread and two fish!" they answered.

18"Bring them here," he said. 19Then he told the people to sit down on the grass. Jesus took the five loaves and two fish, looked up toward heaven, and blessed them. Then, breaking the loaves into pieces, he gave the bread to the disciples, who distributed it to the people. 20They all ate as much as they wanted, and afterward, the disciples picked up twelve baskets of leftovers. 21About 5,000 men were fed that day, in addition to all the women and children!

JESUS WALKS ON WATER

22Immediately after this, Jesus insisted that his disciples get back into the boat and cross to the other side of the lake, while he sent the people home. 23After sending them home, he went up into the hills by himself to pray. Night fell while he was there alone.

24Meanwhile, the disciples were in trouble far away from land, for a strong wind had risen, and they were fighting heavy waves. 25About three o'clock in the morning* Jesus came toward them, walking on the water. 26When the disciples saw him walking on the water, they were terrified. In their fear, they cried out, "It's a ghost!"

27But Jesus spoke to them at once. "Don't be afraid," he said. "Take courage. I am here!*”

28Then Peter called to him, “Lord, if it’s really you, tell me to come to you, walking on the water.”

29“Yes, come,” Jesus said.

So Peter went over the side of the boat and walked on the water toward Jesus. 30But when he saw the strong* wind and the waves, he was terrified and began to sink. “Save me, Lord!” he shouted.

31Jesus immediately reached out and grabbed him. “You have so little faith,” Jesus said. “Why did you doubt me?”

32When they climbed back into the boat, the wind stopped. 33Then the disciples worshiped him. “You really are the Son of God!” they exclaimed.

34After they had crossed the lake, they landed at Gennesaret.
35When the people recognized Jesus, the news of his arrival spread quickly throughout the whole area, and soon people were bringing all their sick to be healed. 36They begged him to let the sick touch at least the fringe of his robe, and all who touched him were healed.

Matthew 15

JESUS TEACHES ABOUT INNER PURITY

1Some Pharisees and teachers of religious law now arrived from Jerusalem to see Jesus. They asked him, 2“Why do your disciples disobey our age-old tradition? For they ignore our tradition of ceremonial hand washing before they eat.”

3Jesus replied, “And why do you, by your traditions, violate the direct commandments of God? 4For instance, God says, ‘Honor your father and mother,’* and ‘Anyone who speaks disrespectfully of father or mother must be put to death.’* 5But you say it is all right for people to say to their parents, ‘Sorry, I can’t help you. For I have vowed to give to God what I would have given to you.’ 6In this way, you say they don’t need to honor their parents.* And so you cancel the word of God for the sake of your own tradition. 7You hypocrites! Isaiah was right when he prophesied about you, for he wrote,

8‘These people honor me with their lips, but their hearts are far from me.

9Their worship is a farce, for they teach man-made ideas as commands from God.’*”

10Then Jesus called to the crowd to come and hear. “Listen,” he said, “and try to understand. 11It’s not what goes into your mouth that defiles you; you are defiled by the words that come out of your mouth.”

12Then the disciples came to him and asked, “Do you realize you offended the Pharisees by what you just said?”

13Jesus replied, “Every plant not planted by my heavenly Father will be uprooted, 14so ignore them. They are blind guides leading the blind, and if one blind person guides another, they will both fall into a ditch.”

15Then Peter said to Jesus, “Explain to us the parable that says people aren't defiled by what they eat."

16"Don't you understand yet?" Jesus asked. 17"Anything you eat passes through the stomach and then goes into the sewer. 18But the words you speak come from the heart—that's what defiles you.
19For from the heart come evil thoughts, murder, adultery, all sexual immorality, theft, lying, and slander. 20These are what defile
you. Eating with unwashed hands will never defile you."

THE FAITH OF A GENTILE WOMAN

21Then Jesus left Galilee and went north to the region of Tyre and Sidon. 22A Gentile* woman who lived there came to him, pleading, "Have mercy on me, O Lord, Son of David! For my daughter is possessed by a demon that torments her severely."

23But Jesus gave her no reply, not even a word. Then his disciples urged him to send her away. "Tell her to go away," they said. "She is bothering us with all her begging."

24Then Jesus said to the woman, "I was sent only to help God's lost sheep—the people of Israel."

25But she came and worshiped him, pleading again, "Lord, help me!"

26Jesus responded, "It isn't right to take food from the children and throw it to the dogs."

27She replied, "That's true, Lord, but even dogs are allowed to eat the scraps that fall beneath their masters' table."

28"Dear woman," Jesus said to her, "your faith is great. Your request is granted." And her daughter was instantly healed.

JESUS HEALS MANY PEOPLE

29Jesus returned to the Sea of Galilee and climbed a hill and sat down. 30A vast crowd brought to him people who were lame, blind, crippled, those who couldn't speak, and many others. They laid them before Jesus, and he healed them all. 31The crowd was amazed! Those who hadn't been able to speak were talking, the crippled were made well, the lame were walking, and the blind could see again! And they praised the God of Israel.

JESUS FEEDS FOUR THOUSAND

32Then Jesus called his disciples and told them, "I feel sorry for these people. They have been here with me for three days, and they have nothing left to eat. I don't want to send them away hungry, or they will faint along the way."

33The disciples replied, "Where would we get enough food here in the wilderness for such a huge crowd?"

34Jesus asked, "How much bread do you have?"

They replied, "Seven loaves, and a few small fish."

35So Jesus told all the people to sit down on the ground. 36Then he took the seven loaves and the fish, thanked God for them, and broke them into pieces. He gave them to the disciples, who distributed the food to the crowd.

37They all ate as much as they wanted. Afterward, the disciples picked up seven large baskets of leftover food. 38There were 4,000 men who were fed that day, in addition to all the women and children. 39Then Jesus sent the people home, and he got into a boat and crossed over to the region of Magadan.

Matthew 16

LEADERS DEMAND A MIRACULOUS SIGN

1One day the Pharisees and Sadducees came to test Jesus, demanding that he show them a miraculous sign from heaven to prove his authority.

2He replied, “You know the saying, ‘Red sky at night means fair weather tomorrow; 3red sky in the morning means foul weather all day.’ You know how to interpret the weather signs in the sky, but you don’t know how to interpret the signs of the times!* 4Only an evil, adulterous generation would demand a miraculous sign, but the only sign I will give them is the sign of the prophet Jonah.*”
Then Jesus left them and went away.

YEAST OF THE PHARISEES AND SADDUCEES

5Later, after they crossed to the other side of the lake, the disciples discovered they had forgotten to bring any bread. 6“Watch out!”
Jesus warned them. “Beware of the yeast of the Pharisees and Sadducees.”

7At this they began to argue with each other because they hadn’t brought any bread. 8Jesus knew what they were saying, so he said, “You have so little faith! Why are you arguing with each other about having no bread? 9Don’t you understand even yet? Don’t you remember the 5,000 I fed with five loaves, and the baskets of leftovers you picked up? 10Or the 4,000 I fed with seven loaves, and the large baskets of leftovers you picked up? 11Why can’t you understand that I’m not talking about bread? So again I say, ‘Beware of the yeast of the Pharisees and Sadducees.’”

12Then at last they understood that he wasn’t speaking about the yeast in bread, but about the deceptive teaching of the Pharisees and Sadducees.

PETER'S DECLARATION ABOUT JESUS

13When Jesus came to the region of Caesarea Philippi, he asked his disciples, "Who do people say that the Son of Man is?"*

14"Well," they replied, "some say John the Baptist, some say Elijah, and others say Jeremiah or one of the other prophets."

15Then he asked them, “But who do you say I am?”

16Simon Peter answered, “You are the Messiah,* the Son of the living God.”

17Jesus replied, “You are blessed, Simon son of John,* because my Father in heaven has revealed this to you. You did not learn this from any human being. 18Now I say to you that you are Peter (which means ‘rock’),* and upon this rock I will build my church, and all the powers of hell* will not conquer it. 19And I will give you the keys of the Kingdom of Heaven. Whatever you forbid* on earth will be forbidden in heaven, and whatever you permit* on earth will be permitted in heaven.”

20Then he sternly warned the disciples not to tell anyone that he was the Messiah.

JESUS PREDICTS HIS DEATH

21From then on Jesus* began to tell his disciples plainly that it was necessary for him to go to Jerusalem, and that he would suffer many terrible things at the hands of the elders, the leading priests, and the teachers of religious law. He would be killed, but on the third day he would be raised from the dead.

22But Peter took him aside and began to reprimand him* for saying such things. “Heaven forbid, Lord,” he said. “This will never happen to you!”

23Jesus turned to Peter and said, “Get away from me, Satan! You are a dangerous trap to me. You are seeing things merely from a human point of view, not from God’s.”

24Then Jesus said to his disciples, “If any of you wants to be my follower, you must turn from your selfish ways, take up your cross, and follow me. 25If you try to hang on to your life, you will lose it.
But if you give up your life for my sake, you will save it. 26And what do you benefit if you gain the whole world but lose your own soul?*
Is anything worth more than your soul? 27For the Son of Man will come with his angels in the glory of his Father and will judge all people according to their deeds. 28And I tell you the truth, some standing here right now will not die before they see the Son of Man coming in his Kingdom.”

THE MOUNT OF TRANSFIGURATION

Matthew 17

THE TRANSFIGURATION

1Six days later Jesus took Peter and the two brothers, James and John, and led them up a high mountain to be alone. 2As the men watched, Jesus' appearance was transformed so that his face shone like the sun, and his clothes became as white as light. 3Suddenly, Moses and Elijah appeared and began talking with Jesus.

4Peter exclaimed, "Lord, it's wonderful for us to be here! If you want, I'll make three shelters as memorials*—one for you, one for Moses, and one for Elijah."

5But even as he spoke, a bright cloud overshadowed them, and a voice from the cloud said, “This is my dearly loved Son, who brings me great joy. Listen to him.” 6The disciples were terrified and fell face down on the ground.

7Then Jesus came over and touched them. “Get up,” he said. “Don’t be afraid.” 8And when they looked up, Moses and Elijah were gone, and they saw only Jesus.

9As they went back down the mountain, Jesus commanded them, “Don’t tell anyone what you have seen until the Son of Man* has been raised from the dead.”

10Then his disciples asked him, “Why do the teachers of religious law insist that Elijah must return before the Messiah comes?*”

11Jesus replied, “Elijah is indeed coming first to get everything ready. 12But I tell you, Elijah has already come, but he wasn’t recognized, and they chose to abuse him. And in the same way they will also make the Son of Man suffer.” 13Then the disciples realized he was talking about John the Baptist.

JESUS HEALS A DEMON-POSSESSED BOY

14At the foot of the mountain, a large crowd was waiting for them. A man came and knelt before Jesus and said, 15“Lord, have mercy on my son. He has seizures and suffers terribly. He often falls into the fire or into the water. 16So I brought him to your disciples, but they couldn't heal him."

17Jesus said, "You faithless and corrupt people! How long must I be with you? How long must I put up with you? Bring the boy here to me." 18Then Jesus rebuked the demon in the boy, and it left him.
From that moment the boy was well.

19Afterward the disciples asked Jesus privately, "Why couldn't we cast out that demon?"

20"You don't have enough faith," Jesus told them. "I tell you the truth, if you had faith even as small as a mustard seed, you could say to this mountain, 'Move from here to there,' and it would move.
Nothing would be impossible.*"

JESUS AGAIN PREDICTS HIS DEATH

22After they gathered again in Galilee, Jesus told them, "The Son of Man is going to be betrayed into the hands of his enemies. 23He will be killed, but on the third day he will be raised from the dead." And the disciples were filled with grief.

PAYMENT OF THE TEMPLE TAX

24On their arrival in Capernaum, the collectors of the Temple tax* came to Peter and asked him, "Doesn't your teacher pay the Temple tax?"

25“Yes, he does,” Peter replied. Then he went into the house.

But before he had a chance to speak, Jesus asked him, “What do you think, Peter?* Do kings tax their own people or the people they have conquered?*”

26“They tax the people they have conquered,” Peter replied.

“Well, then,” Jesus said, “the citizens are free! 27However, we don’t want to offend them, so go down to the lake and throw in a line. Open the mouth of the first fish you catch, and you will find a large silver coin.* Take it and pay the tax for both of us.”

Matthew 18

THE GREATEST IN THE KINGDOM

1About that time the disciples came to Jesus and asked, “Who is greatest in the Kingdom of Heaven?”

2Jesus called a little child to him and put the child among them. 3Then he said, “I tell you the truth, unless you turn from your sins and become like little children, you will never get into the Kingdom of Heaven. 4So anyone who becomes as humble as this little child is the greatest in the Kingdom of Heaven.

5“And anyone who welcomes a little child like this on my behalf* is welcoming me. 6But if you cause one of these little ones who trusts in me to fall into sin, it would be better for you to have a large millstone tied around your neck and be drowned in the depths of the sea.

7“What sorrow awaits the world, because it tempts people to sin.
Temptations are inevitable, but what sorrow awaits the person who does the tempting. 8So if your hand or foot causes you to sin, cut it off and throw it away. It’s better to enter eternal life with only one hand or one foot than to be thrown into eternal fire with both of your hands and feet. 9And if your eye causes you to sin, gouge it out and throw it away. It’s better to enter eternal life with only one eye than to have two eyes and be thrown into the fire of hell.*

10“Beware that you don’t look down on any of these little ones. For I tell you that in heaven their angels are always in the presence of my heavenly Father.*

PARABLE OF THE LOST SHEEP

12“If a man has a hundred sheep and one of them wanders away, what will he do? Won’t he leave the ninety-nine others on the hills and go out to search for the one that is lost? 13And if he finds it, I tell you the truth, he will rejoice over it more than over the ninety-nine that didn’t wander away! 14In the same way, it is not my heavenly Father’s will that even one of these little ones should perish.

CORRECTING ANOTHER BELIEVER

15“If another believer* sins against you,* go privately and point out the offense. If the other person listens and confesses it, you have won that person back. 16But if you are unsuccessful, take one or two others with you and go back again, so that everything you say may be confirmed by two or three witnesses. 17If the person still refuses to listen, take your case to the church. Then if he or she won’t accept the church’s decision, treat that person as a pagan or a corrupt tax collector.

18“I tell you the truth, whatever you forbid* on earth will be forbidden in heaven, and whatever you permit* on earth will be permitted in heaven.

19"I also tell you this: If two of you agree here on earth concerning anything you ask, my Father in heaven will do it for you. 20For where two or three gather together as my followers,* I am there among them."

PARABLE OF THE UNFORGIVING DEBTOR

21Then Peter came to him and asked, "Lord, how often should I forgive someone* who sins against me? Seven times?"

22"No, not seven times," Jesus replied, "but seventy times seven!*

23"Therefore, the Kingdom of Heaven can be compared to a king who decided to bring his accounts up to date with servants who had borrowed money from him. 24In the process, one of his debtors was brought in who owed him millions of dollars.* 25He couldn't pay, so his master ordered that he be sold—along with his wife, his children, and everything he owned—to pay the debt.

26"But the man fell down before his master and begged him, 'Please, be patient with me, and I will pay it all.' 27Then his master was filled with pity for him, and he released him and forgave his debt.

28"But when the man left the king, he went to a fellow servant who owed him a few thousand dollars.* He grabbed him by the throat and demanded instant payment.

29"His fellow servant fell down before him and begged for a little more time. ‘Be patient with me, and I will pay it,’ he pleaded. 30But his creditor wouldn’t wait. He had the man arrested and put in prison until the debt could be paid in full.

31“When some of the other servants saw this, they were very upset. They went to the king and told him everything that had happened. 32Then the king called in the man he had forgiven and said, ‘You evil servant! I forgave you that tremendous debt because you pleaded with me. 33Shouldn’t you have mercy on your fellow servant, just as I had mercy on you?’ 34Then the angry king sent the man to prison to be tortured until he had paid his entire debt.

35“That’s what my heavenly Father will do to you if you refuse to forgive your brothers and sisters* from your heart.”

Matthew 19

DISCUSSION ABOUT DIVORCE AND MARRIAGE

1When Jesus had finished saying these things, he left Galilee and went down to the region of Judea east of the Jordan River. 2Large crowds followed him there, and he healed their sick.

3Some Pharisees came and tried to trap him with this question: “Should a man be allowed to divorce his wife for just any reason?”

4“Haven’t you read the Scriptures?” Jesus replied. “They record that from the beginning ‘God made them male and female.’” 5And he said, “‘This explains why a man leaves his father and mother and is joined to his wife, and the two are united into one.’ 6Since they are no longer two but one, let no one split apart what God has joined together.”

7"Then why did Moses say in the law that a man could give his wife a written notice of divorce and send her away?"* they asked.

8Jesus replied, "Moses permitted divorce only as a concession to your hard hearts, but it was not what God had originally intended.
9And I tell you this, whoever divorces his wife and marries someone else commits adultery—unless his wife has been unfaithful.*"

10Jesus' disciples then said to him, "If this is the case, it is better not to marry!"

11"Not everyone can accept this statement," Jesus said. "Only those whom God helps. 12Some are born as eunuchs, some have been made eunuchs by others, and some choose not to marry* for the sake of the Kingdom of Heaven. Let anyone accept this who can."

JESUS BLESSES THE CHILDREN

13One day some parents brought their children to Jesus so he could lay his hands on them and pray for them. But the disciples scolded the parents for bothering him.

14But Jesus said, "Let the children come to me. Don't stop them! For the Kingdom of Heaven belongs to those who are like these children." 15And he placed his hands on their heads and blessed them before he left.

THE RICH MAN

16Someone came to Jesus with this question: "Teacher,* what good deed must I do to have eternal life?"

17"Why ask me about what is good?" Jesus replied. "There is only One who is good. But to answer your question—if you want to receive eternal life, keep* the commandments."

18"Which ones?" the man asked.

And Jesus replied: "'You must not murder. You must not commit adultery. You must not steal. You must not testify falsely. 19Honor your father and mother. Love your neighbor as yourself.'*"

20"I've obeyed all these commandments," the young man replied. "What else must I do?"

21Jesus told him, "If you want to be perfect, go and sell all your possessions and give the money to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven. Then come, follow me."

22But when the young man heard this, he went away sad, for he had many possessions.

23Then Jesus said to his disciples, "I tell you the truth, it is very hard for a rich person to enter the Kingdom of Heaven. 24I'll say it again—it is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle than for a rich person to enter the Kingdom of God!"

25The disciples were astounded. "Then who in the world can be saved?" they asked.

26Jesus looked at them intently and said, "Humanly speaking, it is impossible. But with God everything is possible."

27Then Peter said to him, "We've given up everything to follow you. What will we get?"

28Jesus replied, “I assure you that when the world is made new* and the Son of Man* sits upon his glorious throne, you who have been my followers will also sit on twelve thrones, judging the twelve tribes of Israel. 29And everyone who has given up houses or brothers or sisters or father or mother or children or property, for my sake, will receive a hundred times as much in return and will inherit eternal life. 30But many who are the greatest now will be least important then, and those who seem least important now will be the greatest then.*

Matthew 20

PARABLE OF THE VINEYARD WORKERS

1“For the Kingdom of Heaven is like the landowner who went out early one morning to hire workers for his vineyard. 2He agreed to pay the normal daily wage* and sent them out to work.

3“At nine o’clock in the morning he was passing through the marketplace and saw some people standing around doing nothing.
4So he hired them, telling them he would pay them whatever was right at the end of the day. 5So they went to work in the vineyard.
At noon and again at three o’clock he did the same thing.

6“At five o’clock that afternoon he was in town again and saw some more people standing around. He asked them, ‘Why haven’t you been working today?’

7“They replied, ‘Because no one hired us.’

“The landowner told them, ‘Then go out and join the others in my vineyard.’

8“That evening he told the foreman to call the workers in and pay them, beginning with the last workers first. 9When those hired at five o’clock were paid, each received a full day’s wage. 10When those hired first came to get their pay, they assumed they would receive more. But they, too, were paid a day's wage. 11When they received their pay, they protested to the owner, 12'Those people worked only one hour, and yet you've paid them just as much as you paid us who worked all day in the scorching heat.'

13"He answered one of them, 'Friend, I haven't been unfair! Didn't you agree to work all day for the usual wage? 14Take your money and go. I wanted to pay this last worker the same as you. 15Is it against the law for me to do what I want with my money? Should you be jealous because I am kind to others?'

16"So those who are last now will be first then, and those who are first will be last."

JESUS AGAIN PREDICTS HIS DEATH

17As Jesus was going up to Jerusalem, he took the twelve disciples aside privately and told them what was going to happen to him. 18"Listen," he said, "we're going up to Jerusalem, where the Son of Man* will be betrayed to the leading priests and the teachers of religious law. They will sentence him to die. 19Then they will hand him over to the Romans* to be mocked, flogged with a whip, and crucified. But on the third day he will be raised from the dead."

JESUS TEACHES ABOUT SERVING OTHERS

20Then the mother of James and John, the sons of Zebedee, came to Jesus with her sons. She knelt respectfully to ask a favor. 21"What is your request?" he asked.

She replied, "In your Kingdom, please let my two sons sit in places of honor next to you, one on your right and the other on your left."

22But Jesus answered by saying to them, "You don't know what you are asking! Are you able to drink from the bitter cup of suffering I am about to drink?"

23Jesus told them, “You will indeed drink from my bitter cup. But I have no right to say who will sit on my right or my left. My Father has prepared those places for the ones he has chosen.”

24When the ten other disciples heard what James and John had asked, they were indignant. 25But Jesus called them together and said, “You know that the rulers in this world lord it over their people, and officials flaunt their authority over those under them. 26But among you it will be different. Whoever wants to be a leader among you must be your servant, 27and whoever wants to be first among you must become your slave. 28For even the Son of Man came not to be served but to serve others and to give his life as a ransom for many.”

JESUS HEALS TWO BLIND MEN

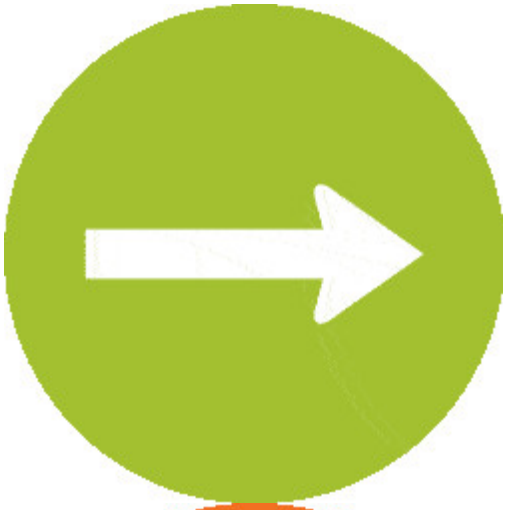
29As Jesus and the disciples left the town of Jericho, a large crowd followed behind. 30Two blind men were sitting beside the road. When they heard that Jesus was coming that way, they began shouting, “Lord, Son of David, have mercy on us!”

31“Be quiet!” the crowd yelled at them.

But they only shouted louder, “Lord, Son of David, have mercy on us!”

32When Jesus heard them, he stopped and called, “What do you want me to do for you?”

33“Lord,” they said, “we want to see!” 34Jesus felt sorry for them and touched their eyes. Instantly they could see! Then they followed him.



EASTER MATTHEW 21:1-11

Matthew 21

JESUS' TRIUMPHANT ENTRY

1As Jesus and the disciples approached Jerusalem, they came to the town of Bethphage on the Mount of Olives. Jesus sent two of them on ahead. 2"Go into the village over there," he said. "As soon as you enter it, you will see a donkey tied there, with its colt beside it.
Untie them and bring them to me. 3If anyone asks what you are doing, just say, 'The Lord needs them,' and he will immediately let you take them."

4This took place to fulfill the prophecy that said,

5"Tell the people of Jerusalem,*
'Look, your King is coming to you.
He is humble, riding on a donkey—riding on a donkey's colt.'"*

6The two disciples did as Jesus commanded. 7They brought the donkey and the colt to him and threw their garments over the colt, and he sat on it.*

8Most of the crowd spread their garments on the road ahead of him, and others cut branches from the trees and spread them on the road. 9Jesus was in the center of the procession, and the people all around him were shouting, "Praise God* for the Son of David!

Blessings on the one who comes in the name of the LORD!
Praise God in highest heaven!"*

10The entire city of Jerusalem was in an uproar as he entered. "Who is this?" they asked.

11And the crowds replied, “It’s Jesus, the prophet from Nazareth in Galilee.”

JESUS CLEARS THE TEMPLE

12Jesus entered the Temple and began to drive out all the people buying and selling animals for sacrifice. He knocked over the tables of the money changers and the chairs of those selling doves. 13He said to them, “The Scriptures declare, ‘My Temple will be called a house of prayer,’ but you have turned it into a den of thieves!”*

14The blind and the lame came to him in the Temple, and he healed them. 15The leading priests and the teachers of religious law saw these wonderful miracles and heard even the children in the Temple shouting, “Praise God for the Son of David.”

But the leaders were indignant. 16They asked Jesus, “Do you hear what these children are saying?”

“Yes,” Jesus replied. “Haven’t you ever read the Scriptures? For they say, ‘You have taught children and infants to give you praise.’*” 17Then he returned to Bethany, where he stayed overnight.

JESUS CURSES THE FIG TREE

18In the morning, as Jesus was returning to Jerusalem, he was hungry, 19and he noticed a fig tree beside the road. He went over to see if there were any figs, but there were only leaves. Then he said to it, “May you never bear fruit again!” And immediately the fig tree withered up.

20The disciples were amazed when they saw this and asked, “How did the fig tree wither so quickly?”

21Then Jesus told them, “I tell you the truth, if you have faith and don’t doubt, you can do things like this and much more. You can even say to this mountain, ‘May you be lifted up and thrown into the sea,’ and it will happen. 22You can pray for anything, and if you have faith, you will receive it.”

THE AUTHORITY OF JESUS CHALLENGED

23When Jesus returned to the Temple and began teaching, the leading priests and elders came up to him. They demanded, “By what authority are you doing all these things? Who gave you the right?”

24“I’ll tell you by what authority I do these things if you answer one question,” Jesus replied. 25“Did John’s authority to baptize come from heaven, or was it merely human?”

They talked it over among themselves. “If we say it was from heaven, he will ask us why we didn’t believe John. 26But if we say it was merely human, we’ll be mobbed because the people believe John was a prophet.” 27So they finally replied, “We don’t know.”

And Jesus responded, “Then I won’t tell you by what authority I do these things.

PARABLE OF THE TWO SONS

28“But what do you think about this? A man with two sons told the older boy, ‘Son, go out and work in the vineyard today.’ 29The son answered, ‘No, I won’t go,’ but later he changed his mind and went anyway. 30Then the father told the other son, ‘You go,’ and he said, ‘Yes, sir, I will.’ But he didn’t go.

31“Which of the two obeyed his father?”

They replied, “The first.”*

Then Jesus explained his meaning: “I tell you the truth, corrupt tax collectors and prostitutes will get into the Kingdom of God before you do. 32For John the Baptist came and showed you the right way to live, but you didn’t believe him, while tax collectors and prostitutes did. And even when you saw this happening, you refused to believe him and repent of your sins.

PARABLE OF THE EVIL FARMERS

33“Now listen to another story. A certain landowner planted a vineyard, built a wall around it, dug a pit for pressing out the grape juice, and built a lookout tower. Then he leased the vineyard to tenant farmers and moved to another country. 34At the time of the grape harvest, he sent his servants to collect his share of the crop. 35But the farmers grabbed his servants, beat one, killed one, and stoned another. 36So the landowner sent a larger group of his servants to collect for him, but the results were the same.

37“Finally, the owner sent his son, thinking, ‘Surely they will respect my son.’

38“But when the tenant farmers saw his son coming, they said to one another, ‘Here comes the heir to this estate. Come on, let’s kill him and get the estate for ourselves!’ 39So they grabbed him, dragged him out of the vineyard, and murdered him.

40“When the owner of the vineyard returns,” Jesus asked, “what do you think he will do to those farmers?”

41The religious leaders replied, “He will put the wicked men to a horrible death and lease the vineyard to others who will give him his share of the crop after each harvest.”

42Then Jesus asked them, “Didn’t you ever read this in the Scriptures?

‘The stone that the builders rejected has now become the cornerstone.
This is the LORD’s doing, and it is wonderful to see.’*

43I tell you, the Kingdom of God will be taken away from you and given to a nation that will produce the proper fruit. 44Anyone who stumbles over that stone will be broken to pieces, and it will crush anyone it falls on.*”

45When the leading priests and Pharisees heard this parable, they realized he was telling the story against them—they were the wicked farmers. 46They wanted to arrest him, but they were afraid of the crowds, who considered Jesus to be a prophet.

Matthew 22

PARABLE OF THE GREAT FEAST

1Jesus also told them other parables. He said, 2“The Kingdom of Heaven can be illustrated by the story of a king who prepared a great wedding feast for his son. 3When the banquet was ready, he sent his servants to notify those who were invited. But they all refused to come!

4“So he sent other servants to tell them, ‘The feast has been prepared. The bulls and fattened cattle have been killed, and everything is ready. Come to the banquet!’ 5But the guests he had invited ignored them and went their own way, one to his farm, another to his business. 6Others seized his messengers and insulted them and killed them.

7“The king was furious, and he sent out his army to destroy the murderers and burn their town. 8And he said to his servants, ‘The wedding feast is ready, and the guests I invited aren’t worthy of the honor. 9Now go out to the street corners and invite everyone you see.' 10So the servants brought in everyone they could find, good and bad alike, and the banquet hall was filled with guests.

11"But when the king came in to meet the guests, he noticed a man who wasn't wearing the proper clothes for a wedding. 12'Friend,' he asked, 'how is it that you are here without wedding clothes?' But the man had no reply. 13Then the king said to his aides, 'Bind his hands and feet and throw him into the outer darkness, where there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.'

14"For many are called, but few are chosen."

TAXES FOR CAESAR

15Then the Pharisees met together to plot how to trap Jesus into saying something for which he could be arrested. 16They sent some of their disciples, along with the supporters of Herod, to meet with him. "Teacher," they said, "we know how honest you are. You teach the way of God truthfully. You are impartial and don't play favorites. 17Now tell us what you think about this: Is it right to pay taxes to Caesar or not?"

18But Jesus knew their evil motives. "You hypocrites!" he said.
"Why are you trying to trap me? 19Here, show me the coin used for the tax." When they handed him a Roman coin,*20he asked, "Whose picture and title are stamped on it?"

21"Caesar's," they replied.

"Well, then," he said, "give to Caesar what belongs to Caesar, and give to God what belongs to God."

22His reply amazed them, and they went away.

DISCUSSION ABOUT RESURRECTION

23That same day Jesus was approached by some Sadducees—religious leaders who say there is no resurrection from the dead.
They posed this question: 24"Teacher, Moses said, 'If a man dies without children, his brother should marry the widow and have a child who will carry on the brother's name.'* 25Well, suppose there were seven brothers. The oldest one married and then died without children, so his brother married the widow. 26But the second brother also died, and the third brother married her. This continued with all seven of them. 27Last of all, the woman also died. 28So tell us, whose wife will she be in the resurrection? For all seven were married to her."

29Jesus replied, "Your mistake is that you don't know the Scriptures, and you don't know the power of God. 30For when the dead rise, they will neither marry nor be given in marriage. In this respect they will be like the angels in heaven.

31"But now, as to whether there will be a resurrection of the dead—haven't you ever read about this in the Scriptures? Long after Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob had died, God said,* 32'I am the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob.'* So he is the God of the living, not the dead."

33When the crowds heard him, they were astounded at his teaching.

THE MOST IMPORTANT COMMANDMENT

34But when the Pharisees heard that he had silenced the Sadducees with his reply, they met together to question him again. 35One of them, an expert in religious law, tried to trap him with this question: 36"Teacher, which is the most important commandment in the law of Moses?"

37Jesus replied, "'You must love the LORD your God with all your heart, all your soul, and all your mind.'* 38This is the first and greatest commandment. 39A second is equally important: ‘Love your neighbor as yourself.’* 40The entire law and all the demands of the prophets are based on these two commandments.”

WHOSE SON IS THE MESSIAH?

41Then, surrounded by the Pharisees, Jesus asked them a question: 42“What do you think about the Messiah? Whose son is he?”

They replied, “He is the son of David.”

43Jesus responded, “Then why does David, speaking under the inspiration of the Spirit, call the Messiah ‘my Lord’? For David said,

44‘The LORD said to my Lord, Sit in the place of honor at my right hand until I humble your enemies beneath your feet.’*

45Since David called the Messiah ‘my Lord,’ how can the Messiah be his son?”

46No one could answer him. And after that, no one dared to ask him any more questions.

Matthew 23

JESUS CRITICIZES THE RELIGIOUS LEADERS

1Then Jesus said to the crowds and to his disciples, 2“The teachers of religious law and the Pharisees are the official interpreters of the law of Moses.* 3So practice and obey whatever they tell you, but don’t follow their example. For they don’t practice what they teach. 4They crush people with unbearable religious demands and never lift a finger to ease the burden.

5“Everything they do is for show. On their arms they wear extra wide prayer boxes with Scripture verses inside, and they wear robes with extra long tassels.* 6And they love to sit at the head table at banquets and in the seats of honor in the synagogues. 7They love to receive respectful greetings as they walk in the marketplaces, and to be called ‘Rabbi.’*

8“Don’t let anyone call you ‘Rabbi,’ for you have only one teacher, and all of you are equal as brothers and sisters.* 9And don’t address anyone here on earth as ‘Father,’ for only God in heaven is your spiritual Father. 10And don’t let anyone call you ‘Teacher,’ for you have only one teacher, the Messiah. 11The greatest among you must be a servant. 12But those who exalt themselves will be humbled, and those who humble themselves will be exalted.

13“What sorrow awaits you teachers of religious law and you Pharisees. Hypocrites! For you shut the door of the Kingdom of Heaven in people’s faces. You won’t go in yourselves, and you don’t let others enter either.*

15“What sorrow awaits you teachers of religious law and you Pharisees. Hypocrites! For you cross land and sea to make one convert, and then you turn that person into twice the child of hell* you yourselves are!

16“Blind guides! What sorrow awaits you! For you say that it means nothing to swear ‘by God’s Temple,’ but that it is binding to swear ‘by the gold in the Temple.’ 17Blind fools! Which is more important —the gold or the Temple that makes the gold sacred? 18And you say that to swear ‘by the altar’ is not binding, but to swear ‘by the gifts on the altar’ is binding. 19How blind! For which is more important—the gift on the altar or the altar that makes the gift sacred? 20When you swear ‘by the altar,’ you are swearing by it and by everything on it. 21And when you swear ‘by the Temple,’ you are swearing by it and by God, who lives in it. 22And when you swear ‘by heaven,’ you are swearing by the throne of God and by God, who sits on the throne.

23“What sorrow awaits you teachers of religious law and you Pharisees. Hypocrites! For you are careful to tithe even the tiniest income from your herb gardens,* but you ignore the more important aspects of the law—justice, mercy, and faith. You should tithe, yes, but do not neglect the more important things. 24Blind guides! You strain your water so you won’t accidentally swallow a gnat, but you swallow a camel!*

25“What sorrow awaits you teachers of religious law and you Pharisees. Hypocrites! For you are so careful to clean the outside of the cup and the dish, but inside you are filthy—full of greed and self-indulgence! 26You blind Pharisee! First wash the inside of the cup and the dish,* and then the outside will become clean, too.

27“What sorrow awaits you teachers of religious law and you Pharisees. Hypocrites! For you are like whitewashed tombs—beautiful on the outside but filled on the inside with dead people’s bones and all sorts of impurity. 28Outwardly you look like righteous people, but inwardly your hearts are filled with hypocrisy and lawlessness.

29“What sorrow awaits you teachers of religious law and you Pharisees. Hypocrites! For you build tombs for the prophets your ancestors killed, and you decorate the monuments of the godly people your ancestors destroyed. 30Then you say, ‘If we had lived in the days of our ancestors, we would never have joined them in killing the prophets.’

31“But in saying that, you testify against yourselves that you are indeed the descendants of those who murdered the prophets. 32Go ahead and finish what your ancestors started. 33Snakes! Sons of vipers! How will you escape the judgment of hell?

34“Therefore, I am sending you prophets and wise men and teachers of religious law. But you will kill some by crucifixion, and you will flog others with whips in your synagogues, chasing them from city to city. 35As a result, you will be held responsible for the murder of all godly people of all time—from the murder of righteous Abel to the murder of Zechariah son of Berekiah, whom you killed in the Temple between the sanctuary and the altar. 36I tell you the truth, this judgment will fall on this very generation.

JESUS GRIEVES OVER JERUSALEM

37“O Jerusalem, Jerusalem, the city that kills the prophets and stones God’s messengers! How often I have wanted to gather your children together as a hen protects her chicks beneath her wings, but you wouldn’t let me. 38And now, look, your house is abandoned and desolate.* 39For I tell you this, you will never see me again until you say, ‘Blessings on the one who comes in the name of the LORD!’*”

Matthew 24

JESUS FORETELLS THE FUTURE

1As Jesus was leaving the Temple grounds, his disciples pointed out to him the various Temple buildings. 2But he responded, “Do you see all these buildings? I tell you the truth, they will be completely demolished. Not one stone will be left on top of another!”

THE OLIVET DISCOURSE

3Later, Jesus sat on the Mount of Olives. His disciples came to him privately and said, “Tell us, when will all this happen? What sign will signal your return and the end of the world?*” 4Jesus told them, “Don’t let anyone mislead you, 5for many will come in my name, claiming, ‘I am the Messiah.’ They will deceive many. 6And you will hear of wars and threats of wars, but don’t panic. Yes, these things must take place, but the end won’t follow immediately. 7Nation will go to war against nation, and kingdom against kingdom. There will be famines and earthquakes in many parts of the world. 8But all this is only the first of the birth pains, with more to come.

9“Then you will be arrested, persecuted, and killed. You will be hated all over the world because you are my followers.* 10And many will turn away from me and betray and hate each other. 11And many false prophets will appear and will deceive many people. 12Sin will be rampant everywhere, and the love of many will grow cold.
13But the one who endures to the end will be saved. 14And the Good News about the Kingdom will be preached throughout the whole world, so that all nations* will hear it; and then the end will come.

15“The day is coming when you will see what Daniel the prophet spoke about—the sacrilegious object that causes desecration* standing in the Holy Place.” (Reader, pay attention!) 16“Then those in Judea must flee to the hills. 17A person out on the deck of a roof must not go down into the house to pack. 18A person out in the field must not return even to get a coat. 19How terrible it will be for pregnant women and for nursing mothers in those days. 20And pray that your flight will not be in winter or on the Sabbath. 21For there will be greater anguish than at any time since the world began. And it will never be so great again. 22In fact, unless that time of calamity is shortened, not a single person will survive. But it will be shortened for the sake of God’s chosen ones.

23“Then if anyone tells you, ‘Look, here is the Messiah,’ or ‘There he is,’ don’t believe it. 24For false messiahs and false prophets will rise up and perform great signs and wonders so as to deceive, if possible, even God’s chosen ones. 25See, I have warned you about this ahead of time.

26“So if someone tells you, ‘Look, the Messiah is out in the desert,’ don’t bother to go and look. Or, ‘Look, he is hiding here,’ don’t believe it! 27For as the lightning flashes in the east and shines to the west, so it will be when the Son of Man* comes. 28Just as the gathering of vultures shows there is a carcass nearby, so these signs indicate that the end is near.*

29“Immediately after the anguish of those days, the sun will be darkened, the moon will give no light, the stars will fall from the sky, and the powers in the heavens will be shaken.*

30And then at last, the sign that the Son of Man is coming will appear in the heavens, and there will be deep mourning among all the peoples of the earth. And they will see the Son of Man coming on the clouds of heaven with power and great glory.* 31And he will send out his angels with the mighty blast of a trumpet, and they will gather his chosen ones from all over the world*—from the farthest ends of the earth and heaven.

32“Now learn a lesson from the fig tree. When its branches bud and its leaves begin to sprout, you know that summer is near. 33In the same way, when you see all these things, you can know his return is very near, right at the door. 34I tell you the truth, this generation* will not pass from the scene until all these things take place.
35Heaven and earth will disappear, but my words will never disappear.

36“However, no one knows the day or hour when these things will happen, not even the angels in heaven or the Son himself.* Only the Father knows.

37"When the Son of Man returns, it will be like it was in Noah's day.
38In those days before the flood, the people were enjoying banquets and parties and weddings right up to the time Noah entered his boat. 39People didn't realize what was going to happen until the flood came and swept them all away. That is the way it will be when the Son of Man comes.

40"Two men will be working together in the field; one will be taken, the other left. 41Two women will be grinding flour at the mill; one will be taken, the other left.

42"So you, too, must keep watch! For you don't know what day your Lord is coming. 43Understand this: If a homeowner knew exactly when a burglar was coming, he would keep watch and not permit his house to be broken into. 44You also must be ready all the time, for the Son of Man will come when least expected.

45"A faithful, sensible servant is one to whom the master can give the responsibility of managing his other household servants and feeding them. 46If the master returns and finds that the servant has done a good job, there will be a reward. 47I tell you the truth, the master will put that servant in charge of all he owns. 48But what if the servant is evil and thinks, 'My master won't be back for a while,' 49and he begins beating the other servants, partying, and getting drunk? 50The master will return unannounced and unexpected, 51and he will cut the servant to pieces and assign him a place with the hypocrites. In that place there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.

Matthew 25

PARABLE OF THE TEN BRIDESMAIDS

1“Then the Kingdom of Heaven will be like ten bridesmaids* who took their lamps and went to meet the bridegroom. 2Five of them were foolish, and five were wise. 3The five who were foolish didn’t take enough olive oil for their lamps, 4but the other five were wise enough to take along extra oil. 5When the bridegroom was delayed, they all became drowsy and fell asleep.

6“At midnight they were roused by the shout, ‘Look, the bridegroom is coming! Come out and meet him!’

7“All the bridesmaids got up and prepared their lamps. 8Then the five foolish ones asked the others, ‘Please give us some of your oil because our lamps are going out.’

9“But the others replied, ‘We don’t have enough for all of us. Go to a shop and buy some for yourselves.’

10“But while they were gone to buy oil, the bridegroom came. Then those who were ready went in with him to the marriage feast, and the door was locked. 11Later, when the other five bridesmaids returned, they stood outside, calling, ‘Lord! Lord! Open the door for us!’

12“But he called back, ‘Believe me, I don’t know you!’

13“So you, too, must keep watch! For you do not know the day or hour of my return.

PARABLE OF THE THREE SERVANTS

14“Again, the Kingdom of Heaven can be illustrated by the story of a man going on a long trip. He called together his servants and entrusted his money to them while he was gone. 15He gave five bags of silver* to one, two bags of silver to another, and one bag of silver to the last—dividing it in proportion to their abilities. He then left on his trip.

16“The servant who received the five bags of silver began to invest the money and earned five more. 17The servant with two bags of silver also went to work and earned two more. 18But the servant who received the one bag of silver dug a hole in the ground and hid the master’s money.

19“After a long time their master returned from his trip and called them to give an account of how they had used his money. 20The servant to whom he had entrusted the five bags of silver came forward with five more and said, ‘Master, you gave me five bags of silver to invest, and I have earned five more.’

21“The master was full of praise. ‘Well done, my good and faithful servant. You have been faithful in handling this small amount, so now I will give you many more responsibilities. Let’s celebrate together!*’

22“The servant who had received the two bags of silver came forward and said, ‘Master, you gave me two bags of silver to invest, and I have earned two more.’

23“The master said, ‘Well done, my good and faithful servant. You have been faithful in handling this small amount, so now I will give you many more responsibilities. Let’s celebrate together!’

24“Then the servant with the one bag of silver came and said, ‘Master, I knew you were a harsh man, harvesting crops you didn’t plant and gathering crops you didn’t cultivate. 25I was afraid I would lose your money, so I hid it in the earth. Look, here is your money back.’

26“But the master replied, ‘You wicked and lazy servant! If you knew I harvested crops I didn’t plant and gathered crops I didn’t cultivate, 27why didn’t you deposit my money in the bank? At least I could have gotten some interest on it.’

28“Then he ordered, ‘Take the money from this servant, and give it to the one with the ten bags of silver. 29To those who use well what they are given, even more will be given, and they will have an abundance. But from those who do nothing, even what little they have will be taken away. 30Now throw this useless servant into outer darkness, where there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.’

THE FINAL JUDGMENT

31 "But when the Son of Man* comes in his glory, and all the angels with him, then he will sit upon his glorious throne. 32 All the nations* will be gathered in his presence, and he will separate the people as a shepherd separates the sheep from the goats. 33 He will place the sheep at his right hand and the goats at his left.

34 "Then the King will say to those on his right, 'Come, you who are blessed by my Father, inherit the Kingdom prepared for you from the creation of the world. 35 For I was hungry, and you fed me. I was thirsty, and you gave me a drink. I was a stranger, and you invited me into your home. 36 I was naked, and you gave me clothing. I was sick, and you cared for me. I was in prison, and you visited me.'

37 "Then these righteous ones will reply, 'Lord, when did we ever see you hungry and feed you? Or thirsty and give you something to drink? 38 Or a stranger and show you hospitality? Or naked and give you clothing? 39 When did we ever see you sick or in prison and visit
you?'

40 "And the King will say, 'I tell you the truth, when you did it to one of the least of these my brothers and sisters,* you were doing it to me!'

41“Then the King will turn to those on the left and say, ‘Away with you, you cursed ones, into the eternal fire prepared for the devil and his demons.* 42For I was hungry, and you didn’t feed me. I was thirsty, and you didn’t give me a drink. 43I was a stranger, and you didn’t invite me into your home. I was naked, and you didn’t give me clothing. I was sick and in prison, and you didn’t visit me.’

44“Then they will reply, ‘Lord, when did we ever see you hungry or thirsty or a stranger or naked or sick or in prison, and not help
you?’

45“And he will answer, ‘I tell you the truth, when you refused to help the least of these my brothers and sisters, you were refusing to help me.’

46“And they will go away into eternal punishment, but the righteous will go into eternal life.”

Matthew 26

THE PLOT TO KILL JESUS

1When Jesus had finished saying all these things, he said to his disciples, 2“As you know, Passover begins in two days, and the Son of Man* will be handed over to be crucified.”

3At that same time the leading priests and elders were meeting at the residence of Caiaphas, the high priest, 4plotting how to capture Jesus secretly and kill him. 5“But not during the Passover celebration,” they agreed, “or the people may riot.”

JESUS ANOINTED AT BETHANY

6Meanwhile, Jesus was in Bethany at the home of Simon, a man who had previously had leprosy. 7While he was eating,* a woman came in with a beautiful alabaster jar of expensive perfume and poured it over his head.

8The disciples were indignant when they saw this. “What a waste!”
they said. 9“It could have been sold for a high price and the money given to the poor.”

10But Jesus, aware of this, replied, “Why criticize this woman for doing such a good thing to me? 11You will always have the poor among you, but you will not always have me. 12She has poured this perfume on me to prepare my body for burial. 13I tell you the truth, wherever the Good News is preached throughout the world, this woman’s deed will be remembered and discussed.”

JUDAS AGREES TO BETRAY JESUS

14Then Judas Iscariot, one of the twelve disciples, went to the leading priests 15and asked, “How much will you pay me to betray Jesus to you?” And they gave him thirty pieces of silver. 16From that time on, Judas began looking for an opportunity to betray Jesus.

EASTER MATTHEW 26:17-35

THE LAST SUPPER

17On the first day of the Festival of Unleavened Bread, the disciples came to Jesus and asked, “Where do you want us to prepare the Passover meal for you?”

18“As you go into the city,” he told them, “you will see a certain man. Tell him, ‘The Teacher says: My time has come, and I will eat the Passover meal with my disciples at your house.’” 19So the disciples did as Jesus told them and prepared the Passover meal

there.

20When it was evening, Jesus sat down at the table* with the Twelve. 21While they were eating, he said, “I tell you the truth, one of you will betray me.”

22Greatly distressed, each one asked in turn, “Am I the one, Lord?”

23He replied, “One of you who has just eaten from this bowl with me will betray me. 24For the Son of Man must die, as the Scriptures declared long ago. But how terrible it will be for the one who betrays him. It would be far better for that man if he had never been born!”

25Judas, the one who would betray him, also asked, “Rabbi, am I the one?”

And Jesus told him, “You have said it.”

26As they were eating, Jesus took some bread and blessed it. Then he broke it in pieces and gave it to the disciples, saying, “Take this and eat it, for this is my body.”

27And he took a cup of wine and gave thanks to God for it. He gave it to them and said, “Each of you drink from it, 28for this is my blood, which confirms the covenant* between God and his people. It is poured out as a sacrifice to forgive the sins of many. 29Mark my words—I will not drink wine again until the day I drink it new with you in my Father’s Kingdom.”

30Then they sang a hymn and went out to the Mount of Olives.

JESUS PREDICTS PETER'S DENIAL

31On the way, Jesus told them, "Tonight all of you will desert me.
For the Scriptures say, 'God will strike* the Shepherd, and the sheep of the flock will be scattered.'

32But after I have been raised from the dead, I will go ahead of you to Galilee and meet you there."

33Peter declared, "Even if everyone else deserts you, I will never desert you."

34Jesus replied, "I tell you the truth, Peter—this very night, before the rooster crows, you will deny three times that you even know me."

35"No!" Peter insisted. "Even if I have to die with you, I will never deny you!" And all the other disciples vowed the same.

JESUS PRAYS IN GETHSEMANE

36Then Jesus went with them to the olive grove called Gethsemane, and he said, "Sit here while I go over there to pray." 37He took Peter and Zebedee's two sons, James and John, and he became anguished and distressed. 38He told them, "My soul is crushed with grief to the point of death. Stay here and keep watch with me."

39He went on a little farther and bowed with his face to the ground, praying, “My Father! If it is possible, let this cup of suffering be taken away from me. Yet I want your will to be done, not mine.”

40Then he returned to the disciples and found them asleep. He said to Peter, “Couldn’t you watch with me even one hour? 41Keep watch and pray, so that you will not give in to temptation. For the spirit is willing, but the body is weak!”

42Then Jesus left them a second time and prayed, “My Father! If this cup cannot be taken away* unless I drink it, your will be done.”
43When he returned to them again, he found them sleeping, for they couldn’t keep their eyes open.

44So he went to pray a third time, saying the same things again.
45Then he came to the disciples and said, “Go ahead and sleep.
Have your rest. But look—the time has come. The Son of Man is betrayed into the hands of sinners. 46Up, let’s be going. Look, my betrayer is here!”

JESUS IS BETRAYED AND ARRESTED

47And even as Jesus said this, Judas, one of the twelve disciples, arrived with a crowd of men armed with swords and clubs. They had been sent by the leading priests and elders of the people. 48The traitor, Judas, had given them a prearranged signal: “You will know which one to arrest when I greet him with a kiss.” 49So Judas came straight to Jesus. “Greetings, Rabbi!” he exclaimed and gave him the kiss.

50Jesus said, “My friend, go ahead and do what you have come for.”

Then the others grabbed Jesus and arrested him. 51But one of the men with Jesus pulled out his sword and struck the high priest’s slave, slashing off his ear.

52“Put away your sword,” Jesus told him. “Those who use the sword will die by the sword. 53Don’t you realize that I could ask my Father for thousands* of angels to protect us, and he would send them instantly? 54But if I did, how would the Scriptures be fulfilled that describe what must happen now?”

55Then Jesus said to the crowd, “Am I some dangerous revolutionary, that you come with swords and clubs to arrest me?
Why didn’t you arrest me in the Temple? I was there teaching every day. 56But this is all happening to fulfill the words of the prophets as recorded in the Scriptures.” At that point, all the disciples deserted him and fled.

JESUS BEFORE THE COUNCIL

57Then the people who had arrested Jesus led him to the home of Caiaphas, the high priest, where the teachers of religious law and the elders had gathered. 58Meanwhile, Peter followed him at a distance and came to the high priest’s courtyard. He went in and sat with the guards and waited to see how it would all end.

59Inside, the leading priests and the entire high council* were trying to find witnesses who would lie about Jesus, so they could put him to death. 60But even though they found many who agreed to give false witness, they could not use anyone’s testimony. Finally, two men came forward 61who declared, “This man said, ‘I am able to destroy the Temple of God and rebuild it in three days.’”

62Then the high priest stood up and said to Jesus, “Well, aren’t you going to answer these charges? What do you have to say for yourself?” 63But Jesus remained silent. Then the high priest said to him, “I demand in the name of the living God—tell us if you are the Messiah, the Son of God.”

64Jesus replied, “You have said it. And in the future you will see the Son of Man seated in the place of power at God’s right hand* and coming on the clouds of heaven.”*

65Then the high priest tore his clothing to show his horror and said, “Blasphemy! Why do we need other witnesses? You have all heard his blasphemy. 66What is your verdict?”

“Guilty!” they shouted. “He deserves to die!”

67Then they began to spit in Jesus’ face and beat him with their fists. And some slapped him, 68jeering, “Prophesy to us, you Messiah! Who hit you that time?”

PETER DENIES JESUS

69Meanwhile, Peter was sitting outside in the courtyard. A servant girl came over and said to him, “You were one of those with Jesus the Galilean.”

70But Peter denied it in front of everyone. “I don’t know what you’re talking about,” he said.

71Later, out by the gate, another servant girl noticed him and said to those standing around, “This man was with Jesus of Nazareth.*”

72Again Peter denied it, this time with an oath. “I don’t even know the man,” he said.

73A little later some of the other bystanders came over to Peter and said, “You must be one of them; we can tell by your Galilean accent.”

74Peter swore, “A curse on me if I’m lying—I don’t know the man!”
And immediately the rooster crowed.

75Suddenly, Jesus’ words flashed through Peter’s mind: “Before the rooster crows, you will deny three times that you even know me.”
And he went away, weeping bitterly.

Matthew 27

JUDAS HANGS HIMSELF

1Very early in the morning the leading priests and the elders of the people met again to lay plans for putting Jesus to death. 2Then they bound him, led him away, and took him to Pilate, the Roman governor.

3When Judas, who had betrayed him, realized that Jesus had been condemned to die, he was filled with remorse. So he took the thirty pieces of silver back to the leading priests and the elders. 4“I have sinned,” he declared, “for I have betrayed an innocent man.”

“What do we care?” they retorted. “That’s your problem.”

5Then Judas threw the silver coins down in the Temple and went out and hanged himself.

6The leading priests picked up the coins. “It wouldn’t be right to put this money in the Temple treasury,” they said, “since it was payment for murder.”*7After some discussion they finally decided to buy the potter’s field, and they made it into a cemetery for foreigners. 8That is why the field is still called the Field of Blood.
9This fulfilled the prophecy of Jeremiah that says, “They took* the thirty pieces of silver— the price at which he was valued by the people of Israel,

10and purchased the potter's field, as the LORD directed.*"

JESUS' TRIAL BEFORE PILATE

11Now Jesus was standing before Pilate, the Roman governor. "Are you the king of the Jews?" the governor asked him.

Jesus replied, "You have said it."

12But when the leading priests and the elders made their accusations against him, Jesus remained silent. 13"Don't you hear all these charges they are bringing against you?" Pilate demanded. 14But Jesus made no response to any of the charges, much to the governor's surprise.

15Now it was the governor's custom each year during the Passover celebration to release one prisoner to the crowd—anyone they wanted. 16This year there was a notorious prisoner, a man named Barabbas.*17As the crowds gathered before Pilate's house that morning, he asked them, "Which one do you want me to release to you—Barabbas, or Jesus who is called the Messiah?" 18(He knew very well that the religious leaders had arrested Jesus out of envy.)

19Just then, as Pilate was sitting on the judgment seat, his wife sent him this message: "Leave that innocent man alone. I suffered through a terrible nightmare about him last night."

20Meanwhile, the leading priests and the elders persuaded the crowd to ask for Barabbas to be released and for Jesus to be put to death. 21So the governor asked again, "Which of these two do you want me to release to you?"

The crowd shouted back, "Barabbas!"

22Pilate responded, "Then what should I do with Jesus who is called the Messiah?"

They shouted back, “Crucify him!”

23“Why?” Pilate demanded. “What crime has he committed?”

But the mob roared even louder, “Crucify him!”

24Pilate saw that he wasn’t getting anywhere and that a riot was developing. So he sent for a bowl of water and washed his hands before the crowd, saying, “I am innocent of this man’s blood. The responsibility is yours!”

25And all the people yelled back, “We will take responsibility for his death—we and our children!”*

26So Pilate released Barabbas to them. He ordered Jesus flogged with a lead-tipped whip, then turned him over to the Roman soldiers to be crucified.

THE SOLDIERS MOCK JESUS

27Some of the governor’s soldiers took Jesus into their headquarters* and called out the entire regiment. 28They stripped him and put a scarlet robe on him. 29They wove thorn branches into a crown and put it on his head, and they placed a reed stick in his right hand as a scepter. Then they knelt before him in mockery and taunted, “Hail! King of the Jews!” 30And they spit on him and grabbed the stick and struck him on the head with it. 31When they were finally tired of mocking him, they took off the robe and put his own clothes on him again. Then they led him away to be crucified.

EASTER MATTHEW 27:32-66

THE CRUCIFIXION

32Along the way, they came across a man named Simon, who was from Cyrene,* and the soldiers forced him to carry Jesus' cross.
33And they went out to a place called Golgotha (which means "Place of the Skull"). 34The soldiers gave Jesus wine mixed with bitter gall, but when he had tasted it, he refused to drink it.

35After they had nailed him to the cross, the soldiers gambled for his clothes by throwing dice.36Then they sat around and kept guard as he hung there. 37A sign was fastened above Jesus' head, announcing the charge against him. It read: "This is Jesus, the King of the Jews." 38Two revolutionaries were crucified with him, one on his right and one on his left.

39The people passing by shouted abuse, shaking their heads in mockery. 40"Look at you now!" they yelled at him. "You said you were going to destroy the Temple and rebuild it in three days. Well then, if you are the Son of God, save yourself and come down from the cross!"

41The leading priests, the teachers of religious law, and the elders also mocked Jesus. 42"He saved others," they scoffed, "but he can't save himself! So he is the King of Israel, is he? Let him come down from the cross right now, and we will believe in him! 43He trusted God, so let God rescue him now if he wants him! For he said, 'I am the Son of God.'" 44Even the revolutionaries who were crucified with him ridiculed him in the same way.

THE DEATH OF JESUS

45At noon, darkness fell across the whole land until three o'clock.
46At about three o'clock, Jesus called out with a loud voice, "Eli, Eli, * lema sabachthani?" which means "My God, my God, why have you abandoned me?"*

47Some of the bystanders misunderstood and thought he was calling for the prophet Elijah. 48One of them ran and filled a sponge with sour wine, holding it up to him on a reed stick so he could drink. 49But the rest said, "Wait! Let's see whether Elijah comes to save him."*

54The Roman officer* and the other soldiers at the crucifixion were terrified by the earthquake and all that had happened. They said, "This man truly was the Son of God!"

55And many women who had come from Galilee with Jesus to care for him were watching from a distance. 56Among them were Mary Magdalene, Mary (the mother of James and Joseph), and the mother of James and John, the sons of Zebedee.

THE BURIAL OF JESUS

57As evening approached, Joseph, a rich man from Arimathea who had become a follower of Jesus, 58went to Pilate and asked for Jesus' body. And Pilate issued an order to release it to him. 59Joseph took the body and wrapped it in a long sheet of clean linen cloth. 60He placed it in his own new tomb, which had been carved out of the rock. Then he rolled a great stone across the entrance and left.

61Both Mary Magdalene and the other Mary were sitting across from the tomb and watching.

THE GUARD AT THE TOMB

62The next day, on the Sabbath,* the leading priests and Pharisees went to see Pilate. 63They told him, “Sir, we remember what that deceiver once said while he was still alive: ‘After three days I will rise from the dead.’ 64So we request that you seal the tomb until the third day. This will prevent his disciples from coming and stealing his body and then telling everyone he was raised from the dead! If that happens, we’ll be worse off than we were at first.”

65Pilate replied, “Take guards and secure it the best you can.” 66So they sealed the tomb and posted guards to protect it.

EASTER MATTHEW 28:1-20

Matthew 28

THE RESURRECTION

1Early on Sunday morning,* as the new day was dawning, Mary Magdalene and the other Mary went out to visit the tomb.

2Suddenly there was a great earthquake! For an angel of the Lord came down from heaven, rolled aside the stone, and sat on it. 3His face shone like lightning, and his clothing was as white as snow.
4The guards shook with fear when they saw him, and they fell into a dead faint.

5Then the angel spoke to the women. “Don’t be afraid!” he said. “I know you are looking for Jesus, who was crucified. 6He isn’t here!
He is risen from the dead, just as he said would happen. Come, see where his body was lying. 7And now, go quickly and tell his disciples that he has risen from the dead, and he is going ahead of you to Galilee. You will see him there. Remember what I have told
you.”

8The women ran quickly from the tomb. They were very frightened but also filled with great joy, and they rushed to give the disciples the angel’s message. 9And as they went, Jesus met them and greeted them. And they ran to him, grasped his feet, and worshiped him.
10Then Jesus said to them, “Don’t be afraid! Go tell my brothers to leave for Galilee, and they will see me there.”

THE REPORT OF THE GUARD

11As the women were on their way, some of the guards went into the city and told the leading priests what had happened. 12A meeting with the elders was called, and they decided to give the soldiers a large bribe. 13They told the soldiers, “You must say, ‘Jesus’ disciples came during the night while we were sleeping, and they stole his body.’ 14If the governor hears about it, we’ll stand up for you so you won’t get in trouble.” 15So the guards accepted the bribe and said what they were told to say. Their story spread widely among the Jews, and they still tell it today.

THE GREAT COMMISSION

16Then the eleven disciples left for Galilee, going to the mountain where Jesus had told them to go. 17When they saw him, they worshiped him—but some of them doubted!

18Jesus came and told his disciples, “I have been given all authority in heaven and on earth. 19Therefore, go and make disciples of all the nations,* baptizing them in the name of the Father and the Son and the Holy Spirit. 20Teach these new disciples to obey all the commands I have given you. And be sure of this: I am with you always, even to the end of the age.”

WELCOME TO

MARK

The Gospel of Mark focuses on Jesus’ activities more than his teachings. Jesus is on the go throughout Mark’s account. All of Jesus’ activities point to one clear characteristic of his: He is a servant to all who need him. This is a central theme of the book. Mark clearly indicates that Jesus is indeed the Son of God. No human could do the miraculous things Jesus does: heal blindness and paralysis, feed thousands, cast out demons, and walk on water.

Mark is the first author to write a Gospel. Since he is not one of Jesus’ twelve disciples, he records the recollections of the apostle Peter. Mark’s account is the shortest of the four Gospels because his writing style is quick and succinct, focusing on the action of the story. Mark writes specifically to Gentiles, or non-Jews. He leaves the words of a Roman army officer ringing in the ears of his Roman readers: “This man truly was the Son of God!” (15:39).

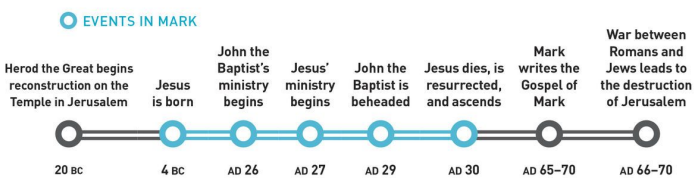
FINDING JESUS IN MARK

Mark boldly opens his Gospel by stating who Jesus is: “This is the Good News about Jesus the Messiah, the Son of God.” Mark skips over Jesus’ early years and starts with Jesus’ ministry and teachings. His action-packed accounts of Jesus’ life focus on what Jesus did. Jesus is revealed as a servant to all people through his words and actions. He displays great power over disease, demons, and disabilities, but he uses this power to help others, not himself. Instead of imitating “the rulers in this world [who] lord it over their people,” Jesus says that he “came not to be served but to serve others and to give his life as a ransom for many” (10:42, 45).



Mark 1

JOHN THE BAPTIST PREPARES THE WAY

1This is the Good News about Jesus the Messiah, the Son of God.* It began 2just as the prophet Isaiah had written: “Look, I am sending my messenger ahead of you, and he will prepare your way.*

3He is a voice shouting in the wilderness, ‘Prepare the way for the LORD’s coming!
Clear the road for him!’*”

4This messenger was John the Baptist. He was in the wilderness and preached that people should be baptized to show that they had repented of their sins and turned to God to be forgiven. 5All of Judea, including all the people of Jerusalem, went out to see and hear John. And when they confessed their sins, he baptized them in the Jordan River. 6His clothes were woven from coarse camel hair, and he wore a leather belt around his waist. For food he ate locusts and wild honey.

7John announced: “Someone is coming soon who is greater than I am—so much greater that I’m not even worthy to stoop down like a slave and untie the straps of his sandals. 8I baptize you with* water, but he will baptize you with the Holy Spirit!”

THE BAPTISM AND TEMPTATION OF JESUS

9One day Jesus came from Nazareth in Galilee, and John baptized him in the Jordan River. 10As Jesus came up out of the water, he saw the heavens splitting apart and the Holy Spirit descending on him* like a dove. 11And a voice from heaven said, “You are my dearly loved Son, and you bring me great joy.”

12The Spirit then compelled Jesus to go into the wilderness, 13where he was tempted by Satan for forty days. He was out among the wild animals, and angels took care of him.

14Later on, after John was arrested, Jesus went into Galilee, where he preached God's Good News.*15"The time promised by God has come at last!" he announced. "The Kingdom of God is near! Repent of your sins and believe the Good News!"

THE FIRST DISCIPLES

16One day as Jesus was walking along the shore of the Sea of Galilee, he saw Simon* and his brother Andrew throwing a net into the water, for they fished for a living. 17Jesus called out to them,
"Come, follow me, and I will show you how to fish for people!"
18And they left their nets at once and followed him.

19A little farther up the shore Jesus saw Zebedee's sons, James and John, in a boat repairing their nets. 20He called them at once, and they also followed him, leaving their father, Zebedee, in the boat with the hired men.

JESUS CASTS OUT AN EVIL SPIRIT

21Jesus and his companions went to the town of Capernaum. When the Sabbath day came, he went into the synagogue and began to teach. 22The people were amazed at his teaching, for he taught with real authority—quite unlike the teachers of religious law.

23Suddenly, a man in the synagogue who was possessed by an evil* spirit began shouting, 24"Why are you interfering with us, Jesus of Nazareth? Have you come to destroy us? I know who you are—the Holy One of God!"

25Jesus cut him short. "Be quiet! Come out of the man," he ordered.

26At that, the evil spirit screamed, threw the man into a convulsion, and then came out of him.

27Amazement gripped the audience, and they began to discuss what had happened. “What sort of new teaching is this?” they asked excitedly. “It has such authority! Even evil spirits obey his orders!”
28The news about Jesus spread quickly throughout the entire region of Galilee.

JESUS HEALS MANY PEOPLE

29After Jesus left the synagogue with James and John, they went to Simon and Andrew’s home. 30Now Simon’s mother-in-law was sick in bed with a high fever. They told Jesus about her right away. 31So he went to her bedside, took her by the hand, and helped her sit up.
Then the fever left her, and she prepared a meal for them.

32That evening after sunset, many sick and demon-possessed people were brought to Jesus. 33The whole town gathered at the door to watch. 34So Jesus healed many people who were sick with various diseases, and he cast out many demons. But because the demons knew who he was, he did not allow them to speak.

JESUS PREACHES IN GALILEE

35Before daybreak the next morning, Jesus got up and went out to an isolated place to pray. 36Later Simon and the others went out to find him. 37When they found him, they said, “Everyone is looking for you.”

38But Jesus replied, “We must go on to other towns as well, and I will preach to them, too. That is why I came.” 39So he traveled throughout the region of Galilee, preaching in the synagogues and casting out demons.

JESUS HEALS A MAN WITH LEPROSY

40A man with leprosy came and knelt in front of Jesus, begging to be healed. “If you are willing, you can heal me and make me clean,” he said.

41Moved with compassion,* Jesus reached out and touched him. “I am willing,” he said. “Be healed!” 42Instantly the leprosy disappeared, and the man was healed. 43Then Jesus sent him on his way with a stern warning: 44“Don’t tell anyone about this. Instead, go to the priest and let him examine you. Take along the offering required in the law of Moses for those who have been healed of leprosy.* This will be a public testimony that you have been cleansed.”

45But the man went and spread the word, proclaiming to everyone what had happened. As a result, large crowds soon surrounded Jesus, and he couldn’t publicly enter a town anywhere. He had to stay out in the secluded places, but people from everywhere kept coming to him.

Mark 2

JESUS HEALS A PARALYZED MAN

1When Jesus returned to Capernaum several days later, the news spread quickly that he was back home. 2Soon the house where he was staying was so packed with visitors that there was no more room, even outside the door. While he was preaching God's word to them, 3four men arrived carrying a paralyzed man on a mat. 4They couldn't bring him to Jesus because of the crowd, so they dug a hole through the roof above his head. Then they lowered the man on his mat, right down in front of Jesus. 5Seeing their faith, Jesus said to the paralyzed man, "My child, your sins are forgiven."

6But some of the teachers of religious law who were sitting there thought to themselves, 7"What is he saying? This is blasphemy!
Only God can forgive sins!"

8Jesus knew immediately what they were thinking, so he asked them, "Why do you question this in your hearts? 9Is it easier to say to the paralyzed man 'Your sins are forgiven,' or 'Stand up, pick up your mat, and walk'? 10So I will prove to you that the Son of Man* has the authority on earth to forgive sins." Then Jesus turned to the paralyzed man and said, 11"Stand up, pick up your mat, and go home!"

12And the man jumped up, grabbed his mat, and walked out through the stunned onlookers. They were all amazed and praised God, exclaiming, "We've never seen anything like this before!"

JESUS CALLS LEVI (MATTHEW)

13Then Jesus went out to the lakeshore again and taught the crowds that were coming to him. 14As he walked along, he saw Levi son of Alphaeus sitting at his tax collector's booth. "Follow me and be my disciple," Jesus said to him. So Levi got up and followed him.

15Later, Levi invited Jesus and his disciples to his home as dinner guests, along with many tax collectors and other disreputable sinners. (There were many people of this kind among Jesus' followers.) 16But when the teachers of religious law who were Pharisees* saw him eating with tax collectors and other sinners, they asked his disciples, "Why does he eat with such scum?*"

17When Jesus heard this, he told them, "Healthy people don't need a doctor—sick people do. I have come to call not those who think they are righteous, but those who know they are sinners."

A DISCUSSION ABOUT FASTING

18Once when John's disciples and the Pharisees were fasting, some people came to Jesus and asked, "Why don't your disciples fast like John's disciples and the Pharisees do?"

19Jesus replied, "Do wedding guests fast while celebrating with the groom? Of course not. They can't fast while the groom is with them.
20But someday the groom will be taken away from them, and then they will fast.

21"Besides, who would patch old clothing with new cloth? For the new patch would shrink and rip away from the old cloth, leaving an even bigger tear than before.

22"And no one puts new wine into old wineskins. For the wine would burst the wineskins, and the wine and the skins would both be lost. New wine calls for new wineskins."

A DISCUSSION ABOUT THE SABBATH

23One Sabbath day as Jesus was walking through some grainfields, his disciples began breaking off heads of grain to eat. 24But the Pharisees said to Jesus, "Look, why are they breaking the law by harvesting grain on the Sabbath?"

25Jesus said to them, "Haven't you ever read in the Scriptures what David did when he and his companions were hungry? 26He went into the house of God (during the days when Abiathar was high priest) and broke the law by eating the sacred loaves of bread that only the priests are allowed to eat. He also gave some to his companions."

27Then Jesus said to them, "The Sabbath was made to meet the needs of people, and not people to meet the requirements of the Sabbath. 28So the Son of Man is Lord, even over the Sabbath!"

JESUS HEALS ON THE SABBATH

1Jesus went into the synagogue again and noticed a man with a deformed hand. 2Since it was the Sabbath, Jesus' enemies watched him closely. If he healed the man's hand, they planned to accuse him of working on the Sabbath.

3Jesus said to the man with the deformed hand, "Come and stand in front of everyone." 4Then he turned to his critics and asked, "Does the law permit good deeds on the Sabbath, or is it a day for doing evil? Is this a day to save life or to destroy it?" But they wouldn't answer him.

5He looked around at them angrily and was deeply saddened by their hard hearts. Then he said to the man, "Hold out your hand."
So the man held out his hand, and it was restored! 6At once the Pharisees went away and met with the supporters of Herod to plot how to kill Jesus.

CROWDS FOLLOW JESUS

7Jesus went out to the lake with his disciples, and a large crowd followed him. They came from all over Galilee, Judea, 8Jerusalem, Idumea, from east of the Jordan River, and even from as far north as Tyre and Sidon. The news about his miracles had spread far and wide, and vast numbers of people came to see him.

9Jesus instructed his disciples to have a boat ready so the crowd would not crush him. 10He had healed many people that day, so all the sick people eagerly pushed forward to touch him. 11And

whenever those possessed by evil* spirits caught sight of him, the spirits would throw them to the ground in front of him shrieking, “You are the Son of God!” 12But Jesus sternly commanded the spirits not to reveal who he was.

JESUS CHOOSES THE TWELVE APOSTLES

13Afterward Jesus went up on a mountain and called out the ones he wanted to go with him. And they came to him. 14Then he appointed twelve of them and called them his apostles.* They were to accompany him, and he would send them out to preach, 15giving them authority to cast out demons. 16These are the twelve he chose:
Simon (whom he named Peter),

17James and John (the sons of Zebedee, but Jesus nicknamed them “Sons of Thunder”*), 18Andrew, Philip,

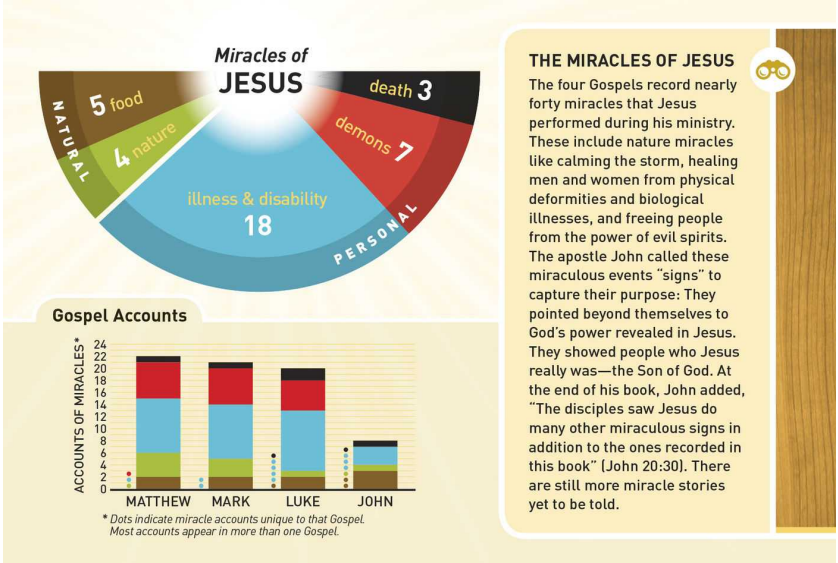
Bartholomew,
Matthew,
Thomas,
James (son of Alphaeus), Thaddaeus,
Simon (the zealot*),

19Judas Iscariot (who later betrayed him).



MIRACLES OF JESUS

JESUS AND THE PRINCE OF DEMONS

20 One time Jesus entered a house, and the crowds began to gather again. Soon he and his disciples couldn't even find time to eat.
21 When his family heard what was happening, they tried to take him away. "He's out of his mind," they said.

22 But the teachers of religious law who had arrived from Jerusalem said, "He's possessed by Satan,* the prince of demons. That's where he gets the power to cast out demons."

23 Jesus called them over and responded with an illustration. "How can Satan cast out Satan?" he asked. 24 "A kingdom divided by civil war will collapse. 25 Similarly, a family splintered by feuding will fall apart. 26 And if Satan is divided and fights against himself, how can he stand? He would never survive. 27 Let me illustrate this further.
Who is powerful enough to enter the house of a strong man like Satan and plunder his goods? Only someone even stronger—someone who could tie him up and then plunder his house.

28“I tell you the truth, all sin and blasphemy can be forgiven, 29but anyone who blasphemes the Holy Spirit will never be forgiven. This is a sin with eternal consequences.” 30He told them this because they were saying, “He’s possessed by an evil spirit.”

THE TRUE FAMILY OF JESUS

31Then Jesus’ mother and brothers came to see him. They stood outside and sent word for him to come out and talk with them.
32There was a crowd sitting around Jesus, and someone said, “Your mother and your brothers* are outside asking for you.”

33Jesus replied, “Who is my mother? Who are my brothers?” 34Then he looked at those around him and said, “Look, these are my mother and brothers. 35Anyone who does God’s will is my brother and sister and mother.”

Mark 4

PARABLE OF THE FARMER SCATTERING SEED

1Once again Jesus began teaching by the lakeshore. A very large crowd soon gathered around him, so he got into a boat. Then he sat in the boat while all the people remained on the shore. 2He taught them by telling many stories in the form of parables, such as this one:

3“Listen! A farmer went out to plant some seed. 4As he scattered it across his field, some of the seed fell on a footpath, and the birds came and ate it. 5Other seed fell on shallow soil with underlying rock. The seed sprouted quickly because the soil was shallow. 6But the plant soon wilted under the hot sun, and since it didn’t have deep roots, it died. 7Other seed fell among thorns that grew up and choked out the tender plants so they produced no grain. 8Still other seeds fell on fertile soil, and they sprouted, grew, and produced a crop that was thirty, sixty, and even a hundred times as much as had been planted!” 9Then he said, “Anyone with ears to hear should listen and understand.”

10Later, when Jesus was alone with the twelve disciples and with the others who were gathered around, they asked him what the parables meant.

11He replied, “You are permitted to understand the secret* of the Kingdom of God. But I use parables for everything I say to outsiders, 12so that the Scriptures might be fulfilled: ‘When they see what I do, they will learn nothing.

When they hear what I say, they will not understand.
Otherwise, they will turn to me and be forgiven.’*”

13Then Jesus said to them, “If you can’t understand the meaning of this parable, how will you understand all the other parables? 14The farmer plants seed by taking God’s word to others. 15The seed that fell on the footpath represents those who hear the message, only to have Satan come at once and take it away. 16The seed on the rocky soil represents those who hear the message and immediately receive it with joy. 17But since they don’t have deep roots, they don’t last long. They fall away as soon as they have problems or are persecuted for believing God's word. 18The seed that fell among the thorns represents others who hear God's word, 19but all too quickly the message is crowded out by the worries of this life, the lure of wealth, and the desire for other things, so no fruit is produced.

20And the seed that fell on good soil represents those who hear and accept God's word and produce a harvest of thirty, sixty, or even a hundred times as much as had been planted!"

PARABLE OF THE LAMP

21Then Jesus asked them, "Would anyone light a lamp and then put it under a basket or under a bed? Of course not! A lamp is placed on a stand, where its light will shine. 22For everything that is hidden will eventually be brought into the open, and every secret will be brought to light. 23Anyone with ears to hear should listen and understand."

24Then he added, "Pay close attention to what you hear. The closer you listen, the more understanding you will be given*—and you will receive even more. 25To those who listen to my teaching, more understanding will be given. But for those who are not listening, even what little understanding they have will be taken away from them."

PARABLE OF THE GROWING SEED

26Jesus also said, "The Kingdom of God is like a farmer who scatters seed on the ground. 27Night and day, while he's asleep or awake, the seed sprouts and grows, but he does not understand how it happens. 28The earth produces the crops on its own. First a leaf blade pushes through, then the heads of wheat are formed, and finally the grain ripens. 29And as soon as the grain is ready, the farmer comes and harvests it with a sickle, for the harvest time has come."

PARABLE OF THE MUSTARD SEED

30 Jesus said, “How can I describe the Kingdom of God? What story should I use to illustrate it? 31 It is like a mustard seed planted in the ground. It is the smallest of all seeds, 32 but it becomes the largest of all garden plants; it grows long branches, and birds can make nests in its shade.”

33 Jesus used many similar stories and illustrations to teach the people as much as they could understand. 34 In fact, in his public ministry he never taught without using parables; but afterward, when he was alone with his disciples, he explained everything to them.

SUNSET ON THE SEA OF GALILEE

JESUS CALMS THE STORM

35As evening came, Jesus said to his disciples, “Let’s cross to the other side of the lake.” 36So they took Jesus in the boat and started out, leaving the crowds behind (although other boats followed).
37But soon a fierce storm came up. High waves were breaking into the boat, and it began to fill with water.

38Jesus was sleeping at the back of the boat with his head on a cushion. The disciples woke him up, shouting, “Teacher, don’t you care that we’re going to drown?”

39When Jesus woke up, he rebuked the wind and said to the waves, “Silence! Be still!” Suddenly the wind stopped, and there was a great calm. 40Then he asked them, “Why are you afraid? Do you still have no faith?”

41The disciples were absolutely terrified. “Who is this man?” they asked each other. “Even the wind and waves obey him!”

THE REGION OF THE GERASENES

Mark 5

JESUS HEALS A DEMON-POSSESSED MAN

1So they arrived at the other side of the lake, in the region of the Gerasenes.2When Jesus climbed out of the boat, a man possessed by an evil spirit came out from a cemetery to meet him. 3This man lived among the burial caves and could no longer be restrained, even with a chain. 4Whenever he was put into chains and shackles —as he often was—he snapped the chains from his wrists and smashed the shackles. No one was strong enough to subdue him.
5Day and night he wandered among the burial caves and in the hills, howling and cutting himself with sharp stones.

6When Jesus was still some distance away, the man saw him, ran to meet him, and bowed low before him. 7With a shriek, he screamed, “Why are you interfering with me, Jesus, Son of the Most High God? In the name of God, I beg you, don’t torture me!” 8For Jesus had already said to the spirit, “Come out of the man, you evil spirit.”

9Then Jesus demanded, “What is your name?”

And he replied, “My name is Legion, because there are many of us inside this man.” 10Then the evil spirits begged him again and again not to send them to some distant place.

11There happened to be a large herd of pigs feeding on the hillside nearby. 12“Send us into those pigs,” the spirits begged. “Let us enter them.”

13So Jesus gave them permission. The evil spirits came out of the man and entered the pigs, and the entire herd of about 2,000 pigs plunged down the steep hillside into the lake and drowned in the water.

14The herdsmen fled to the nearby town and the surrounding countryside, spreading the news as they ran. People rushed out to see what had happened. 15A crowd soon gathered around Jesus, and they saw the man who had been possessed by the legion of demons. He was sitting there fully clothed and perfectly sane, and they were all afraid. 16Then those who had seen what happened told the others about the demon-possessed man and the pigs. 17And the crowd began pleading with Jesus to go away and leave them alone.

18As Jesus was getting into the boat, the man who had been demon possessed begged to go with him. 19But Jesus said, “No, go home to your family, and tell them everything the Lord has done for you and how merciful he has been.” 20So the man started off to visit the Ten Towns* of that region and began to proclaim the great things Jesus had done for him; and everyone was amazed at what he told them.

HEALING MARK 5:21-43

JESUS HEALS IN RESPONSE TO FAITH

21Jesus got into the boat again and went back to the other side of the lake, where a large crowd gathered around him on the shore.
22Then a leader of the local synagogue, whose name was Jairus, arrived. When he saw Jesus, he fell at his feet, 23pleading fervently with him. “My little daughter is dying,” he said. “Please come and lay your hands on her; heal her so she can live.”

24Jesus went with him, and all the people followed, crowding around him. 25A woman in the crowd had suffered for twelve years with constant bleeding. 26She had suffered a great deal from many doctors, and over the years she had spent everything she had to pay them, but she had gotten no better. In fact, she had gotten worse.
27She had heard about Jesus, so she came up behind him through the crowd and touched his robe. 28For she thought to herself, “If I can just touch his robe, I will be healed.” 29Immediately the bleeding stopped, and she could feel in her body that she had been healed of her terrible condition.

30Jesus realized at once that healing power had gone out from him, so he turned around in the crowd and asked, “Who touched my robe?”

31His disciples said to him, “Look at this crowd pressing around you. How can you ask, ‘Who touched me?’”

32But he kept on looking around to see who had done it. 33Then the frightened woman, trembling at the realization of what had happened to her, came and fell to her knees in front of him and told him what she had done. 34And he said to her, “Daughter, your faith has made you well. Go in peace. Your suffering is over.”

35While he was still speaking to her, messengers arrived from the home of Jairus, the leader of the synagogue. They told him, “Your daughter is dead. There's no use troubling the Teacher now."

36But Jesus overheard* them and said to Jairus, "Don't be afraid.
Just have faith."

37Then Jesus stopped the crowd and wouldn't let anyone go with him except Peter, James, and John (the brother of James). 38When they came to the home of the synagogue leader, Jesus saw much commotion and weeping and wailing. 39He went inside and asked,
"Why all this commotion and weeping? The child isn't dead; she's only asleep."

40The crowd laughed at him. But he made them all leave, and he took the girl's father and mother and his three disciples into the room where the girl was lying. 41Holding her hand, he said to her,
"Talitha koum," which means "Little girl, get up!" 42And the girl, who was twelve years old, immediately stood up and walked around! They were overwhelmed and totally amazed. 43Jesus gave them strict orders not to tell anyone what had happened, and then he told them to give her something to eat.

Mark 6

JESUS REJECTED AT NAZARETH

1Jesus left that part of the country and returned with his disciples to Nazareth, his hometown. 2The next Sabbath he began teaching in the synagogue, and many who heard him were amazed. They asked,

“Where did he get all this wisdom and the power to perform such miracles?” 3Then they scoffed, “He’s just a carpenter, the son of Mary* and the brother of James, Joseph,* Judas, and Simon. And his sisters live right here among us.” They were deeply offended and refused to believe in him.

4Then Jesus told them, “A prophet is honored everywhere except in his own hometown and among his relatives and his own family.” 5And because of their unbelief, he couldn’t do any miracles among them except to place his hands on a few sick people and heal them. 6And he was amazed at their unbelief.

JESUS SENDS OUT THE TWELVE DISCIPLES

Then Jesus went from village to village, teaching the people. 7And he called his twelve disciples together and began sending them out two by two, giving them authority to cast out evil* spirits. 8He told them to take nothing for their journey except a walking stick—no food, no traveler’s bag, no money.*9He allowed them to wear sandals but not to take a change of clothes.

10“Wherever you go,” he said, “stay in the same house until you leave town. 11But if any place refuses to welcome you or listen to you, shake its dust from your feet as you leave to show that you have abandoned those people to their fate.”

12So the disciples went out, telling everyone they met to repent of their sins and turn to God. 13And they cast out many demons and healed many sick people, anointing them with olive oil.

THE DEATH OF JOHN THE BAPTIST

14Herod Antipas, the king, soon heard about Jesus, because everyone was talking about him. Some were saying,* “This must be John the Baptist raised from the dead. That is why he can do such miracles.” 15Others said, “He’s the prophet Elijah.” Still others said, “He’s a prophet like the other great prophets of the past.”

16When Herod heard about Jesus, he said, “John, the man I beheaded, has come back from the dead.”

17For Herod had sent soldiers to arrest and imprison John as a favor to Herodias. She had been his brother Philip’s wife, but Herod had married her. 18John had been telling Herod, “It is against God’s law for you to marry your brother’s wife.” 19So Herodias bore a grudge against John and wanted to kill him. But without Herod’s approval she was powerless, 20for Herod respected John; and knowing that he was a good and holy man, he protected him. Herod was greatly disturbed whenever he talked with John, but even so, he liked to listen to him.

21Herodias’s chance finally came on Herod’s birthday. He gave a party for his high government officials, army officers, and the leading citizens of Galilee. 22Then his daughter, also named Herodias,* came in and performed a dance that greatly pleased Herod and his guests. “Ask me for anything you like,” the king said to the girl, “and I will give it to you.” 23He even vowed, “I will give you whatever you ask, up to half my kingdom!”

24She went out and asked her mother, “What should I ask for?”

Her mother told her, “Ask for the head of John the Baptist!”

25So the girl hurried back to the king and told him, “I want the head of John the Baptist, right now, on a tray!”

26Then the king deeply regretted what he had said; but because of the vows he had made in front of his guests, he couldn’t refuse her.
27So he immediately sent an executioner to the prison to cut off John’s head and bring it to him. The soldier beheaded John in the prison, 28brought his head on a tray, and gave it to the girl, who took it to her mother. 29When John’s disciples heard what had happened, they came to get his body and buried it in a tomb.

JESUS FEEDS FIVE THOUSAND

30The apostles returned to Jesus from their ministry tour and told him all they had done and taught. 31Then Jesus said, “Let’s go off by ourselves to a quiet place and rest awhile.” He said this because there were so many people coming and going that Jesus and his apostles didn’t even have time to eat.

32So they left by boat for a quiet place, where they could be alone.
33But many people recognized them and saw them leaving, and people from many towns ran ahead along the shore and got there ahead of them. 34Jesus saw the huge crowd as he stepped from the boat, and he had compassion on them because they were like sheep without a shepherd. So he began teaching them many things.

35Late in the afternoon his disciples came to him and said, “This is a remote place, and it’s already getting late. 36Send the crowds away so they can go to the nearby farms and villages and buy something to eat.”

37But Jesus said, “You feed them.”

“With what?” they asked. “We’d have to work for months to earn enough money* to buy food for all these people!”

38“How much bread do you have?” he asked. “Go and find out.”

They came back and reported, “We have five loaves of bread and two fish.”

39Then Jesus told the disciples to have the people sit down in groups on the green grass. 40So they sat down in groups of fifty or a hundred.

41Jesus took the five loaves and two fish, looked up toward heaven, and blessed them. Then, breaking the loaves into pieces, he kept giving the bread to the disciples so they could distribute it to the people. He also divided the fish for everyone to share. 42They all ate as much as they wanted, 43and afterward, the disciples picked up twelve baskets of leftover bread and fish. 44A total of 5,000 men and their families were fed.*

JESUS WALKS ON WATER

45Immediately after this, Jesus insisted that his disciples get back into the boat and head across the lake to Bethsaida, while he sent the people home. 46After telling everyone good-bye, he went up into the hills by himself to pray.

47Late that night, the disciples were in their boat in the middle of the lake, and Jesus was alone on land. 48He saw that they were in serious trouble, rowing hard and struggling against the wind and waves. About three o'clock in the morning* Jesus came toward them, walking on the water. He intended to go past them, 49but when they saw him walking on the water, they cried out in terror, thinking he was a ghost. 50They were all terrified when they saw him.

But Jesus spoke to them at once. "Don't be afraid," he said. "Take courage! I am here!*" 51Then he climbed into the boat, and the wind stopped. They were totally amazed, 52for they still didn't understand the significance of the miracle of the loaves. Their hearts were too hard to take it in.

53After they had crossed the lake, they landed at Gennesaret. They brought the boat to shore 54and climbed out. The people recognized Jesus at once, 55and they ran throughout the whole area, carrying sick people on mats to wherever they heard he was. 56Wherever he went—in villages, cities, or the countryside—they brought the sick out to the marketplaces. They begged him to let the sick touch at least the fringe of his robe, and all who touched him were healed.

Mark 7

JESUS TEACHES ABOUT INNER PURITY

1One day some Pharisees and teachers of religious law arrived from Jerusalem to see Jesus. 2They noticed that some of his disciples failed to follow the Jewish ritual of hand washing before eating.
3(The Jews, especially the Pharisees, do not eat until they have poured water over their cupped hands,* as required by their ancient traditions. 4Similarly, they don't eat anything from the market until they immerse their hands* in water. This is but one of many traditions they have clung to—such as their ceremonial washing of cups, pitchers, and kettles.*)

5So the Pharisees and teachers of religious law asked him, "Why don't your disciples follow our age-old tradition? They eat without first performing the hand-washing ceremony."

6Jesus replied, "You hypocrites! Isaiah was right when he prophesied about you, for he wrote, 'These people honor me with their lips, but their hearts are far from me.

7Their worship is a farce, for they teach man-made ideas as commands from God.’*

8For you ignore God’s law and substitute your own tradition.”

9Then he said, “You skillfully sidestep God’s law in order to hold on to your own tradition. 10For instance, Moses gave you this law from God: ‘Honor your father and mother,’* and ‘Anyone who speaks disrespectfully of father or mother must be put to death.’* 11But you say it is all right for people to say to their parents, ‘Sorry, I can’t help you. For I have vowed to give to God what I would have given to you.’* 12In this way, you let them disregard their needy parents. 13And so you cancel the word of God in order to hand down your own tradition. And this is only one example among many others.”

14Then Jesus called to the crowd to come and hear. “All of you listen,” he said, “and try to understand. 15It’s not what goes into your body that defiles you; you are defiled by what comes from your heart.*”

17Then Jesus went into a house to get away from the crowd, and his disciples asked him what he meant by the parable he had just used. 18“Don’t you understand either?” he asked. “Can’t you see that the food you put into your body cannot defile you? 19Food doesn’t go into your heart, but only passes through the stomach and then goes into the sewer.” (By saying this, he declared that every kind of food is acceptable in God’s eyes.)

20And then he added, “It is what comes from inside that defiles you. 21For from within, out of a person’s heart, come evil thoughts, sexual immorality, theft, murder, 22adultery, greed, wickedness, deceit, lustful desires, envy, slander, pride, and foolishness. 23All these vile things come from within; they are what defile you.”

THE FAITH OF A GENTILE WOMAN

24Then Jesus left Galilee and went north to the region of Tyre.* He didn't want anyone to know which house he was staying in, but he couldn't keep it a secret. 25Right away a woman who had heard about him came and fell at his feet. Her little girl was possessed by an evil* spirit, 26and she begged him to cast out the demon from her daughter.

Since she was a Gentile, born in Syrian Phoenicia, 27Jesus told her,
"First I should feed the children—my own family, the Jews.* It isn't right to take food from the children and throw it to the dogs."

28She replied, "That's true, Lord, but even the dogs under the table are allowed to eat the scraps from the children's plates."

29"Good answer!" he said. "Now go home, for the demon has left your daughter." 30And when she arrived home, she found her little girl lying quietly in bed, and the demon was gone.

HEALING MARK 7:31-37

TYRE AND SIDON

JESUS HEALS A DEAF MAN

31Jesus left Tyre and went up to Sidon before going back to the Sea of Galilee and the region of the Ten Towns.*32A deaf man with a speech impediment was brought to him, and the people begged Jesus to lay his hands on the man to heal him.

33Jesus led him away from the crowd so they could be alone. He put his fingers into the man's ears. Then, spitting on his own fingers, he touched the man's tongue. 34Looking up to heaven, he sighed and said, "Ephphatha," which means, "Be opened!" 35Instantly the man could hear perfectly, and his tongue was freed so he could speak plainly!

36Jesus told the crowd not to tell anyone, but the more he told them not to, the more they spread the news. 37They were completely amazed and said again and again, "Everything he does is wonderful.
He even makes the deaf to hear and gives speech to those who cannot speak."

Mark 8

JESUS FEEDS FOUR THOUSAND

1About this time another large crowd had gathered, and the people ran out of food again. Jesus called his disciples and told them, 2"I feel sorry for these people. They have been here with me for three days, and they have nothing left to eat. 3If I send them home hungry, they will faint along the way. For some of them have come a long distance."

4His disciples replied, “How are we supposed to find enough food to feed them out here in the wilderness?”

5Jesus asked, “How much bread do you have?”

“Seven loaves,” they replied.

6So Jesus told all the people to sit down on the ground. Then he took the seven loaves, thanked God for them, and broke them into pieces. He gave them to his disciples, who distributed the bread to the crowd. 7A few small fish were found, too, so Jesus also blessed these and told the disciples to distribute them.

8They ate as much as they wanted. Afterward, the disciples picked up seven large baskets of leftover food. 9There were about 4,000 people in the crowd that day, and Jesus sent them home after they had eaten. 10Immediately after this, he got into a boat with his disciples and crossed over to the region of Dalmanutha.

PHARISEES DEMAND A MIRACULOUS SIGN

11When the Pharisees heard that Jesus had arrived, they came and started to argue with him. Testing him, they demanded that he show them a miraculous sign from heaven to prove his authority.

12When he heard this, he sighed deeply in his spirit and said, “Why do these people keep demanding a miraculous sign? I tell you the truth, I will not give this generation any such sign.” 13So he got back into the boat and left them, and he crossed to the other side of the lake.

YEAST OF THE PHARISEES AND HEROD

14But the disciples had forgotten to bring any food. They had only one loaf of bread with them in the boat. 15As they were crossing the lake, Jesus warned them, “Watch out! Beware of the yeast of the Pharisees and of Herod."

16At this they began to argue with each other because they hadn't brought any bread. 17Jesus knew what they were saying, so he said,
"Why are you arguing about having no bread? Don't you know or understand even yet? Are your hearts too hard to take it in? 18'You have eyes—can't you see? You have ears—can't you hear?'* Don't you remember anything at all? 19When I fed the 5,000 with five loaves of bread, how many baskets of leftovers did you pick up afterward?"

"Twelve," they said.

20"And when I fed the 4,000 with seven loaves, how many large baskets of leftovers did you pick up?"

"Seven," they said.

21"Don't you understand yet?" he asked them.

JESUS HEALS A BLIND MAN

22When they arrived at Bethsaida, some people brought a blind man to Jesus, and they begged him to touch the man and heal him.
23Jesus took the blind man by the hand and led him out of the village. Then, spitting on the man's eyes, he laid his hands on him and asked, "Can you see anything now?"

24The man looked around. "Yes," he said, "I see people, but I can't see them very clearly. They look like trees walking around."

25Then Jesus placed his hands on the man's eyes again, and his eyes were opened. His sight was completely restored, and he could see everything clearly. 26Jesus sent him away, saying, "Don't go back into the village on your way home."

CAESAREA PHILIPPI

PETER'S DECLARATION ABOUT JESUS

27 Jesus and his disciples left Galilee and went up to the villages near Caesarea Philippi. As they were walking along, he asked them,
"Who do people say I am?"

28 "Well," they replied, "some say John the Baptist, some say Elijah, and others say you are one of the other prophets."

29 Then he asked them, "But who do you say I am?"

Peter replied, "You are the Messiah.*"

30 But Jesus warned them not to tell anyone about him.

JESUS PREDICTS HIS DEATH

31 Then Jesus began to tell them that the Son of Man* must suffer many terrible things and be rejected by the elders, the leading priests, and the teachers of religious law. He would be killed, but three days later he would rise from the dead. 32 As he talked about this openly with his disciples, Peter took him aside and began to reprimand him for saying such things.*

33 Jesus turned around and looked at his disciples, then reprimanded Peter. "Get away from me, Satan!" he said. "You are seeing things merely from a human point of view, not from God's."

34Then, calling the crowd to join his disciples, he said, “If any of you wants to be my follower, you must turn from your selfish ways, take up your cross, and follow me. 35If you try to hang on to your life, you will lose it. But if you give up your life for my sake and for the sake of the Good News, you will save it. 36And what do you benefit if you gain the whole world but lose your own soul?* 37Is anything worth more than your soul? 38If anyone is ashamed of me and my message in these adulterous and sinful days, the Son of Man will be ashamed of that person when he returns in the glory of his Father with the holy angels.”

Mark 9

1Jesus went on to say, “I tell you the truth, some standing here right now will not die before they see the Kingdom of God arrive in great power!”

MOUNT HERMON

THE TRANSFIGURATION

2Six days later Jesus took Peter, James, and John, and led them up a high mountain to be alone. As the men watched, Jesus' appearance was transformed, 3and his clothes became dazzling white, far whiter than any earthly bleach could ever make them.
4Then Elijah and Moses appeared and began talking with Jesus.

5Peter exclaimed, "Rabbi, it's wonderful for us to be here! Let's make three shelters as memorials*—one for you, one for Moses, and one for Elijah." 6He said this because he didn't really know what else to say, for they were all terrified.

7Then a cloud overshadowed them, and a voice from the cloud said, "This is my dearly loved Son. Listen to him." 8Suddenly, when they looked around, Moses and Elijah were gone, and they saw only Jesus with them.

9As they went back down the mountain, he told them not to tell anyone what they had seen until the Son of Man* had risen from the dead. 10So they kept it to themselves, but they often asked each other what he meant by "rising from the dead."

11Then they asked him, "Why do the teachers of religious law insist that Elijah must return before the Messiah comes?*"

12Jesus responded, "Elijah is indeed coming first to get everything ready. Yet why do the Scriptures say that the Son of Man must suffer greatly and be treated with utter contempt? 13But I tell you, Elijah has already come, and they chose to abuse him, just as the Scriptures predicted."

JESUS HEALS A DEMON-POSSESSED BOY

14When they returned to the other disciples, they saw a large crowd surrounding them, and some teachers of religious law were arguing with them. 15When the crowd saw Jesus, they were overwhelmed with awe, and they ran to greet him.

16"What is all this arguing about?" Jesus asked.

17One of the men in the crowd spoke up and said, "Teacher, I brought my son so you could heal him. He is possessed by an evil spirit that won't let him talk. 18And whenever this spirit seizes him, it throws him violently to the ground. Then he foams at the mouth and grinds his teeth and becomes rigid.* So I asked your disciples to cast out the evil spirit, but they couldn't do it."

19Jesus said to them,*"You faithless people! How long must I be with you? How long must I put up with you? Bring the boy to me."

20So they brought the boy. But when the evil spirit saw Jesus, it threw the child into a violent convulsion, and he fell to the ground, writhing and foaming at the mouth.

21"How long has this been happening?" Jesus asked the boy's father.

He replied, "Since he was a little boy. 22The spirit often throws him into the fire or into water, trying to kill him. Have mercy on us and help us, if you can."

23"What do you mean, 'If I can'?" Jesus asked. "Anything is possible if a person believes."

24The father instantly cried out, "I do believe, but help me overcome my unbelief!"

25When Jesus saw that the crowd of onlookers was growing, he rebuked the evil* spirit. “Listen, you spirit that makes this boy unable to hear and speak,” he said. “I command you to come out of this child and never enter him again!”

26Then the spirit screamed and threw the boy into another violent convulsion and left him. The boy appeared to be dead. A murmur ran through the crowd as people said, “He’s dead.” 27But Jesus took him by the hand and helped him to his feet, and he stood up.

28Afterward, when Jesus was alone in the house with his disciples, they asked him, “Why couldn’t we cast out that evil spirit?”

29Jesus replied, “This kind can be cast out only by prayer.*”

JESUS AGAIN PREDICTS HIS DEATH

30Leaving that region, they traveled through Galilee. Jesus didn’t want anyone to know he was there, 31for he wanted to spend more time with his disciples and teach them. He said to them, “The Son of Man is going to be betrayed into the hands of his enemies. He will be killed, but three days later he will rise from the dead.” 32They didn’t understand what he was saying, however, and they were afraid to ask him what he meant.

THE GREATEST IN THE KINGDOM

33After they arrived at Capernaum and settled in a house, Jesus asked his disciples, “What were you discussing out on the road?” 34But they didn’t answer, because they had been arguing about which of them was the greatest. 35He sat down, called the twelve disciples over to him, and said, “Whoever wants to be first must take last place and be the servant of everyone else.”

36Then he put a little child among them. Taking the child in his arms, he said to them, 37“Anyone who welcomes a little child like this on my behalf* welcomes me, and anyone who welcomes me welcomes not only me but also my Father who sent me.”

USING THE NAME OF JESUS

38John said to Jesus, “Teacher, we saw someone using your name to cast out demons, but we told him to stop because he wasn’t in our group.”

39“Don’t stop him!” Jesus said. “No one who performs a miracle in my name will soon be able to speak evil of me. 40Anyone who is not against us is for us. 41If anyone gives you even a cup of water because you belong to the Messiah, I tell you the truth, that person will surely be rewarded.

42“But if you cause one of these little ones who trusts in me to fall into sin, it would be better for you to be thrown into the sea with a large millstone hung around your neck. 43If your hand causes you to sin, cut it off. It’s better to enter eternal life with only one hand than to go into the unquenchable fires of hell* with two hands.* 45If your foot causes you to sin, cut it off. It’s better to enter eternal life with only one foot than to be thrown into hell with two feet.* 47And if your eye causes you to sin, gouge it out. It’s better to enter the Kingdom of God with only one eye than to have two eyes and be thrown into hell, 48‘where the maggots never die and the fire never goes out.’*

49“For everyone will be tested with fire.* 50Salt is good for seasoning. But if it loses its flavor, how do you make it salty again? You must have the qualities of salt among yourselves and live in peace with each other.”

Mark 10

DISCUSSION ABOUT DIVORCE AND MARRIAGE

1Then Jesus left Capernaum and went down to the region of Judea and into the area east of the Jordan River. Once again crowds gathered around him, and as usual he was teaching them.

2Some Pharisees came and tried to trap him with this question:
"Should a man be allowed to divorce his wife?"

3Jesus answered them with a question: "What did Moses say in the law about divorce?"

4"Well, he permitted it," they replied. "He said a man can give his wife a written notice of divorce and send her away."*

5But Jesus responded, "He wrote this commandment only as a concession to your hard hearts. 6But 'God made them male and female’* from the beginning of creation. 7‘This explains why a man leaves his father and mother and is joined to his wife,* 8and the two are united into one.’* Since they are no longer two but one, 9let no one split apart what God has joined together.”

10Later, when he was alone with his disciples in the house, they brought up the subject again. 11He told them, “Whoever divorces his wife and marries someone else commits adultery against her. 12And if a woman divorces her husband and marries someone else, she commits adultery.”

JESUS BLESSES THE CHILDREN

13One day some parents brought their children to Jesus so he could touch and bless them. But the disciples scolded the parents for bothering him.

14When Jesus saw what was happening, he was angry with his disciples. He said to them, “Let the children come to me. Don’t stop them! For the Kingdom of God belongs to those who are like these children. 15I tell you the truth, anyone who doesn’t receive the Kingdom of God like a child will never enter it.” 16Then he took the children in his arms and placed his hands on their heads and blessed them.

THE RICH MAN

17As Jesus was starting out on his way to Jerusalem, a man came running up to him, knelt down, and asked, “Good Teacher, what must I do to inherit eternal life?”

18“Why do you call me good?” Jesus asked. “Only God is truly good. 19But to answer your question, you know the commandments: ‘You must not murder. You must not commit adultery. You must not steal. You must not testify falsely. You must not cheat anyone. Honor your father and mother.’*”

20“Teacher,” the man replied, “I’ve obeyed all these commandments since I was young.”

21Looking at the man, Jesus felt genuine love for him. “There is still one thing you haven’t done,” he told him. “Go and sell all your possessions and give the money to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven. Then come, follow me.”

22At this the man’s face fell, and he went away sad, for he had many possessions.

23Jesus looked around and said to his disciples, “How hard it is for the rich to enter the Kingdom of God!” 24This amazed them. But Jesus said again, “Dear children, it is very hard* to enter the Kingdom of God. 25In fact, it is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle than for a rich person to enter the Kingdom of God!”

26The disciples were astounded. “Then who in the world can be saved?” they asked.

27Jesus looked at them intently and said, “Humanly speaking, it is impossible. But not with God. Everything is possible with God.”

28Then Peter began to speak up. “We’ve given up everything to follow you,” he said.

29“Yes,” Jesus replied, “and I assure you that everyone who has given up house or brothers or sisters or mother or father or children or property, for my sake and for the Good News, 30will receive now in return a hundred times as many houses, brothers, sisters, mothers, children, and property—along with persecution. And in the world to come that person will have eternal life. 31But many who are the greatest now will be least important then, and those who seem least important now will be the greatest then.*”

JESUS AGAIN PREDICTS HIS DEATH

32They were now on the way up to Jerusalem, and Jesus was walking ahead of them. The disciples were filled with awe, and the people following behind were overwhelmed with fear. Taking the twelve disciples aside, Jesus once more began to describe everything that was about to happen to him. 33“Listen,” he said, “we’re going up to Jerusalem, where the Son of Man* will be betrayed to the leading priests and the teachers of religious law.
They will sentence him to die and hand him over to the Romans.*
34They will mock him, spit on him, flog him with a whip, and kill him, but after three days he will rise again.”

JESUS TEACHES ABOUT SERVING OTHERS

35Then James and John, the sons of Zebedee, came over and spoke to him. “Teacher,” they said, “we want you to do us a favor.”

36“What is your request?” he asked.

37They replied, “When you sit on your glorious throne, we want to sit in places of honor next to you, one on your right and the other on your left.”

38But Jesus said to them, “You don’t know what you are asking! Are you able to drink from the bitter cup of suffering I am about to drink? Are you able to be baptized with the baptism of suffering I must be baptized with?”

Then Jesus told them, “You will indeed drink from my bitter cup and be baptized with my baptism of suffering. 40But I have no right to say who will sit on my right or my left. God has prepared those places for the ones he has chosen.”

41When the ten other disciples heard what James and John had asked, they were indignant. 42So Jesus called them together and said, “You know that the rulers in this world lord it over their people, and officials flaunt their authority over those under them. 43But among you it will be different. Whoever wants to be a leader among you must be your servant, 44and whoever wants to be first among you must be the slave of everyone else. 45For even the Son of Man came not to be served but to serve others and to give his life as a ransom for many.”

JESUS HEALS BLIND BARTIMAEUS

46Then they reached Jericho, and as Jesus and his disciples left town, a large crowd followed him. A blind beggar named Bartimaeus (son of Timaeus) was sitting beside the road. 47When

Bartimaeus heard that Jesus of Nazareth was nearby, he began to shout, “Jesus, Son of David, have mercy on me!”

48“Be quiet!” many of the people yelled at him.

But he only shouted louder, “Son of David, have mercy on me!”

49When Jesus heard him, he stopped and said, “Tell him to come here.”

So they called the blind man. “Cheer up,” they said. “Come on, he’s calling you!” 50Bartimaeus threw aside his coat, jumped up, and came to Jesus.

51“What do you want me to do for you?” Jesus asked.

“My Rabbi,*” the blind man said, “I want to see!”

52And Jesus said to him, “Go, for your faith has healed you.” Instantly the man could see, and he followed Jesus down the road.*

Mark 11

JESUS’ TRIUMPHANT ENTRY

1As Jesus and his disciples approached Jerusalem, they came to the towns of Bethphage and Bethany on the Mount of Olives. Jesus sent two of them on ahead. 2“Go into that village over there,” he told them. “As soon as you enter it, you will see a young donkey tied there that no one has ever ridden. Untie it and bring it here. 3If anyone asks, ‘What are you doing?’ just say, ‘The Lord needs it and will return it soon.’”

4The two disciples left and found the colt standing in the street, tied outside the front door. 5As they were untying it, some bystanders demanded, “What are you doing, untying that colt?” 6They said what Jesus had told them to say, and they were permitted to take it. 7Then they brought the colt to Jesus and threw their garments over it, and he sat on it.

8Many in the crowd spread their garments on the road ahead of him, and others spread leafy branches they had cut in the fields. 9Jesus was in the center of the procession, and the people all around him were shouting, “Praise God!*

Blessings on the one who comes in the name of the LORD!

10Blessings on the coming Kingdom of our ancestor David!
Praise God in highest heaven!”*

11So Jesus came to Jerusalem and went into the Temple. After looking around carefully at everything, he left because it was late in the afternoon. Then he returned to Bethany with the twelve disciples.

JESUS CURSES THE FIG TREE

12The next morning as they were leaving Bethany, Jesus was hungry. 13He noticed a fig tree in full leaf a little way off, so he went over to see if he could find any figs. But there were only leaves because it was too early in the season for fruit. 14Then Jesus said to the tree, “May no one ever eat your fruit again!” And the disciples heard him say it.

JESUS CLEARS THE TEMPLE

15When they arrived back in Jerusalem, Jesus entered the Temple and began to drive out the people buying and selling animals for sacrifices. He knocked over the tables of the money changers and the chairs of those selling doves, 16and he stopped everyone from using the Temple as a marketplace.17He said to them, “The Scriptures declare, ‘My Temple will be called a house of prayer for all nations,’ but you have turned it into a den of thieves.”

18When the leading priests and teachers of religious law heard what Jesus had done, they began planning how to kill him. But they were afraid of him because the people were so amazed at his teaching.

19That evening Jesus and the disciples left* the city.

20The next morning as they passed by the fig tree he had cursed, the disciples noticed it had withered from the roots up. 21Peter remembered what Jesus had said to the tree on the previous day and exclaimed, “Look, Rabbi! The fig tree you cursed has withered and died!”

22Then Jesus said to the disciples, “Have faith in God. 23I tell you the truth, you can say to this mountain, ‘May you be lifted up and thrown into the sea,’ and it will happen. But you must really believe it will happen and have no doubt in your heart. 24I tell you, you can pray for anything, and if you believe that you’ve received it, it will be yours. 25But when you are praying, first forgive anyone you are holding a grudge against, so that your Father in heaven will forgive your sins, too.*”

THE AUTHORITY OF JESUS CHALLENGED

27Again they entered Jerusalem. As Jesus was walking through the Temple area, the leading priests, the teachers of religious law, and the elders came up to him. 28They demanded, “By what authority are you doing all these things? Who gave you the right to do them?”

29“I’ll tell you by what authority I do these things if you answer one question,” Jesus replied. 30“Did John’s authority to baptize come from heaven, or was it merely human? Answer me!”

31They talked it over among themselves. “If we say it was from heaven, he will ask why we didn’t believe John. 32But do we dare say it was merely human?” For they were afraid of what the people would do, because everyone believed that John was a prophet. 33So they finally replied, “We don’t know.”

And Jesus responded, “Then I won’t tell you by what authority I do these things.”

Mark 12

PARABLE OF THE EVIL FARMERS

1Then Jesus began teaching them with stories: “A man planted a vineyard. He built a wall around it, dug a pit for pressing out the grape juice, and built a lookout tower. Then he leased the vineyard to tenant farmers and moved to another country. 2At the time of the grape harvest, he sent one of his servants to collect his share of the crop. 3But the farmers grabbed the servant, beat him up, and sent him back empty-handed. 4The owner then sent another servant, but they insulted him and beat him over the head. 5The next servant he sent was killed. Others he sent were either beaten or killed, 6until there was only one left—his son whom he loved dearly. The owner finally sent him, thinking, ‘Surely they will respect my son.’

7“But the tenant farmers said to one another, ‘Here comes the heir to this estate. Let’s kill him and get the estate for ourselves!’ 8So they grabbed him and murdered him and threw his body out of the vineyard.

9“What do you suppose the owner of the vineyard will do?” Jesus asked. “I’ll tell you—he will come and kill those farmers and lease the vineyard to others. 10Didn't you ever read this in the Scriptures?

'The stone that the builders rejected has now become the cornerstone.

11This is the LORD's doing, and it is wonderful to see.'*"

12The religious leaders* wanted to arrest Jesus because they realized he was telling the story against them—they were the wicked farmers. But they were afraid of the crowd, so they left him and went away.

TAXES FOR CAESAR

13Later the leaders sent some Pharisees and supporters of Herod to trap Jesus into saying something for which he could be arrested. 14"Teacher," they said, "we know how honest you are. You are impartial and don't play favorites. You teach the way of God truthfully. Now tell us—is it right to pay taxes to Caesar or not? 15Should we pay them, or shouldn't we?"

Jesus saw through their hypocrisy and said, "Why are you trying to trap me? Show me a Roman coin,* and I'll tell you." 16When they handed it to him, he asked, "Whose picture and title are stamped on it?"

"Caesar's," they replied.

17"Well, then," Jesus said, "give to Caesar what belongs to Caesar, and give to God what belongs to God."

His reply completely amazed them.

DISCUSSION ABOUT RESURRECTION

18Then Jesus was approached by some Sadducees—religious leaders who say there is no resurrection from the dead. They posed this question: 19"Teacher, Moses gave us a law that if a man dies, leaving a wife without children, his brother should marry the widow and have a child who will carry on the brother's name.*20Well, suppose there were seven brothers. The oldest one married and then died without children. 21So the second brother married the widow, but he also died without children. Then the third brother married her. 22This continued with all seven of them, and still there were no children. Last of all, the woman also died. 23So tell us, whose wife will she be in the resurrection? For all seven were married to her."

24Jesus replied, "Your mistake is that you don't know the Scriptures, and you don't know the power of God. 25For when the dead rise, they will neither marry nor be given in marriage. In this respect they will be like the angels in heaven.

26"But now, as to whether the dead will be raised—haven't you ever read about this in the writings of Moses, in the story of the burning bush? Long after Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob had died, God said to Moses,* 'I am the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob.'* 27So he is the God of the living, not the dead. You have made a serious error."

THE MOST IMPORTANT COMMANDMENT

28One of the teachers of religious law was standing there listening to the debate. He realized that Jesus had answered well, so he asked, "Of all the commandments, which is the most important?"

29Jesus replied, "The most important commandment is this: 'Listen, O Israel! The LORD our God is the one and only LORD. 30And you must love the LORD your God with all your heart, all your soul, all your mind, and all your strength.'* 31The second is equally important: 'Love your neighbor as yourself.'* No other commandment is greater than these."

32The teacher of religious law replied, “Well said, Teacher. You have spoken the truth by saying that there is only one God and no other. 33And I know it is important to love him with all my heart and all my understanding and all my strength, and to love my neighbor as myself. This is more important than to offer all of the burnt offerings and sacrifices required in the law.”

34Realizing how much the man understood, Jesus said to him, “You are not far from the Kingdom of God.” And after that, no one dared to ask him any more questions.

WHOSE SON IS THE MESSIAH?

35Later, as Jesus was teaching the people in the Temple, he asked, “Why do the teachers of religious law claim that the Messiah is the son of David? 36For David himself, speaking under the inspiration of the Holy Spirit, said, ‘The LORD said to my Lord, Sit in the place of honor at my right hand until I humble your enemies beneath your feet.’*

37Since David himself called the Messiah ‘my Lord,’ how can the Messiah be his son?” The large crowd listened to him with great delight.

38Jesus also taught: “Beware of these teachers of religious law! For they like to parade around in flowing robes and receive respectful greetings as they walk in the marketplaces. 39And how they love the seats of honor in the synagogues and the head table at banquets.
40Yet they shamelessly cheat widows out of their property and then pretend to be pious by making long prayers in public. Because of this, they will be more severely punished.”

THE WIDOW’S OFFERING

41Jesus sat down near the collection box in the Temple and watched as the crowds dropped in their money. Many rich people put in large amounts. 42Then a poor widow came and dropped in two small coins.*

43Jesus called his disciples to him and said, “I tell you the truth, this poor widow has given more than all the others who are making contributions. 44For they gave a tiny part of their surplus, but she, poor as she is, has given everything she had to live on.”

Mark 13

JESUS FORETELLS THE FUTURE

1As Jesus was leaving the Temple that day, one of his disciples said, “Teacher, look at these magnificent buildings! Look at the impressive stones in the walls.”

2Jesus replied, “Yes, look at these great buildings. But they will be completely demolished. Not one stone will be left on top of another!”

3Later, Jesus sat on the Mount of Olives across the valley from the Temple. Peter, James, John, and Andrew came to him privately and asked him, 4“Tell us, when will all this happen? What sign will show us that these things are about to be fulfilled?”

5Jesus replied, “Don’t let anyone mislead you, 6for many will come in my name, claiming, ‘I am the Messiah.’* They will deceive many.
7And you will hear of wars and threats of wars, but don’t panic. Yes, these things must take place, but the end won’t follow immediately.
8Nation will go to war against nation, and kingdom against kingdom. There will be earthquakes in many parts of the world, as well as famines. But this is only the first of the birth pains, with more to come.

9“When these things begin to happen, watch out! You will be handed over to the local councils and beaten in the synagogues. You will stand trial before governors and kings because you are my followers. But this will be your opportunity to tell them about me.* 10For the Good News must first be preached to all nations.* 11But when you are arrested and stand trial, don't worry in advance about what to say. Just say what God tells you at that time, for it is not you who will be speaking, but the Holy Spirit.

12"A brother will betray his brother to death, a father will betray his own child, and children will rebel against their parents and cause them to be killed. 13And everyone will hate you because you are my followers.* But the one who endures to the end will be saved.

14"The day is coming when you will see the sacrilegious object that causes desecration* standing where he* should not be." (Reader, pay attention!) "Then those in Judea must flee to the hills. 15A person out on the deck of a roof must not go down into the house to pack. 16A person out in the field must not return even to get a coat. 17How terrible it will be for pregnant women and for nursing mothers in those days. 18And pray that your flight will not be in winter. 19For there will be greater anguish in those days than at any time since God created the world. And it will never be so great again. 20In fact, unless the Lord shortens that time of calamity, not a single person will survive. But for the sake of his chosen ones he has shortened those days.

21"Then if anyone tells you, 'Look, here is the Messiah,' or 'There he is,' don't believe it. 22For false messiahs and false prophets will rise up and perform signs and wonders so as to deceive, if possible, even God's chosen ones. 23Watch out! I have warned you about this ahead of time!

24"At that time, after the anguish of those days, the sun will be darkened, the moon will give no light,

25the stars will fall from the sky, and the powers in the heavens will be shaken.*

26Then everyone will see the Son of Man* coming on the clouds with great power and glory.* 27And he will send out his angels to gather his chosen ones from all over the world*—from the farthest ends of the earth and heaven.

28"Now learn a lesson from the fig tree. When its branches bud and its leaves begin to sprout, you know that summer is near. 29In the same way, when you see all these things taking place, you can know that his return is very near, right at the door. 30I tell you the truth, this generation* will not pass from the scene before all these things take place. 31Heaven and earth will disappear, but my words will never disappear.

32"However, no one knows the day or hour when these things will happen, not even the angels in heaven or the Son himself. Only the Father knows. 33And since you don't know when that time will come, be on guard! Stay alert*!

34"The coming of the Son of Man can be illustrated by the story of a man going on a long trip. When he left home, he gave each of his slaves instructions about the work they were to do, and he told the gatekeeper to watch for his return. 35You, too, must keep watch! For you don't know when the master of the household will return—in the evening, at midnight, before dawn, or at daybreak. 36Don't let him find you sleeping when he arrives without warning. 37I say to you what I say to everyone: Watch for him!"

Mark 14

JESUS ANOINTED AT BETHANY

1It was now two days before Passover and the Festival of Unleavened Bread. The leading priests and the teachers of religious law were still looking for an opportunity to capture Jesus secretly and kill him. 2“But not during the Passover celebration,” they agreed, “or the people may riot.”

3Meanwhile, Jesus was in Bethany at the home of Simon, a man who had previously had leprosy. While he was eating,* a woman came in with a beautiful alabaster jar of expensive perfume made from essence of nard. She broke open the jar and poured the perfume over his head.

4Some of those at the table were indignant. “Why waste such expensive perfume?” they asked. 5“It could have been sold for a year’s wages* and the money given to the poor!” So they scolded her harshly.

6But Jesus replied, “Leave her alone. Why criticize her for doing such a good thing to me? 7You will always have the poor among you, and you can help them whenever you want to. But you will not always have me. 8She has done what she could and has anointed my body for burial ahead of time. 9I tell you the truth, wherever the Good News is preached throughout the world, this woman’s deed will be remembered and discussed.”

JUDAS AGREES TO BETRAY JESUS

10Then Judas Iscariot, one of the twelve disciples, went to the leading priests to arrange to betray Jesus to them. 11They were delighted when they heard why he had come, and they promised to give him money. So he began looking for an opportunity to betray Jesus.

PASSOVERS THROUGHOUT THE BIBLE

THE LAST SUPPER

12On the first day of the Festival of Unleavened Bread, when the Passover lamb is sacrificed, Jesus' disciples asked him, "Where do you want us to go to prepare the Passover meal for you?"

13So Jesus sent two of them into Jerusalem with these instructions:
"As you go into the city, a man carrying a pitcher of water will meet you. Follow him. 14At the house he enters, say to the owner,
'The Teacher asks: Where is the guest room where I can eat the Passover meal with my disciples?' 15He will take you upstairs to a large room that is already set up. That is where you should prepare our meal." 16So the two disciples went into the city and found everything just as Jesus had said, and they prepared the Passover meal there.

17In the evening Jesus arrived with the Twelve. 18As they were at the table* eating, Jesus said, "I tell you the truth, one of you eating with me here will betray me."

19Greatly distressed, each one asked in turn, "Am I the one?"

20He replied, "It is one of you twelve who is eating from this bowl with me. 21For the Son of Man* must die, as the Scriptures declared long ago. But how terrible it will be for the one who betrays him. It would be far better for that man if he had never been born!"

22As they were eating, Jesus took some bread and blessed it. Then he broke it in pieces and gave it to the disciples, saying, "Take it, for this is my body."

23And he took a cup of wine and gave thanks to God for it. He gave it to them, and they all drank from it. 24And he said to them, "This is my blood, which confirms the covenant* between God and his people. It is poured out as a sacrifice for many. 25I tell you the truth, I will not drink wine again until the day I drink it new in the Kingdom of God.”

THE MOUNT OF OLIVES

26Then they sang a hymn and went out to the Mount of Olives.

JESUS PREDICTS PETER'S DENIAL

27On the way, Jesus told them, "All of you will desert me. For the Scriptures say, 'God will strike* the Shepherd, and the sheep will be scattered.'

28But after I am raised from the dead, I will go ahead of you to Galilee and meet you there."

29Peter said to him, "Even if everyone else deserts you, I never will."

30Jesus replied, "I tell you the truth, Peter—this very night, before the rooster crows twice, you will deny three times that you even know me."

31"No!" Peter declared emphatically. "Even if I have to die with you, I will never deny you!" And all the others vowed the same.

EASTER MARK 14:32-42

JESUS PRAYS IN GETHSEMANE

32They went to the olive grove called Gethsemane, and Jesus said, "Sit here while I go and pray." 33He took Peter, James, and John with him, and he became deeply troubled and distressed. 34He told them, "My soul is crushed with grief to the point of death. Stay here and keep watch with me."

35He went on a little farther and fell to the ground. He prayed that, if it were possible, the awful hour awaiting him might pass him by.
36"Abba, Father,"* he cried out, "everything is possible for you.
Please take this cup of suffering away from me. Yet I want your will to be done, not mine."

37Then he returned and found the disciples asleep. He said to Peter, "Simon, are you asleep? Couldn't you watch with me even one hour? 38Keep watch and pray, so that you will not give in to temptation. For the spirit is willing, but the body is weak."

39Then Jesus left them again and prayed the same prayer as before.
40When he returned to them again, he found them sleeping, for they couldn't keep their eyes open. And they didn't know what to say.

41When he returned to them the third time, he said, "Go ahead and sleep. Have your rest. But no—the time has come. The Son of Man is betrayed into the hands of sinners. 42Up, let's be going. Look, my betrayer is here!"

JESUS IS BETRAYED AND ARRESTED

43And immediately, even as Jesus said this, Judas, one of the twelve disciples, arrived with a crowd of men armed with swords and clubs. They had been sent by the leading priests, the teachers of religious law, and the elders. 44The traitor, Judas, had given them a prearranged signal: "You will know which one to arrest when I greet him with a kiss. Then you can take him away under guard." 45As soon as they arrived, Judas walked up to Jesus. "Rabbi!" he exclaimed, and gave him the kiss.

46Then the others grabbed Jesus and arrested him. 47But one of the men with Jesus pulled out his sword and struck the high priest's slave, slashing off his ear.

48Jesus asked them, "Am I some dangerous revolutionary, that you come with swords and clubs to arrest me? 49Why didn't you arrest me in the Temple? I was there among you teaching every day. But these things are happening to fulfill what the Scriptures say about me."

50Then all his disciples deserted him and ran away. 51One young man following behind was clothed only in a long linen shirt. When the mob tried to grab him, 52he slipped out of his shirt and ran away naked.

THE HOME OF THE HIGH PRIEST

JESUS BEFORE THE COUNCIL

53They took Jesus to the high priest's home where the leading priests, the elders, and the teachers of religious law had gathered.
54Meanwhile, Peter followed him at a distance and went right into the high priest's courtyard. There he sat with the guards, warming himself by the fire.

55Inside, the leading priests and the entire high council* were trying to find evidence against Jesus, so they could put him to death. But they couldn't find any. 56Many false witnesses spoke against him, but they contradicted each other. 57Finally, some men stood up and gave this false testimony: 58"We heard him say, 'I will destroy this Temple made with human hands, and in three days I will build another, made without human hands.'" 59But even then they didn't get their stories straight!

60Then the high priest stood up before the others and asked Jesus, "Well, aren't you going to answer these charges? What do you have to say for yourself?" 61But Jesus was silent and made no reply. Then the high priest asked him, "Are you the Messiah, the Son of the Blessed One?"

62Jesus said, "I AM.* And you will see the Son of Man seated in the place of power at God's right hand* and coming on the clouds of heaven.*"

63Then the high priest tore his clothing to show his horror and said,
"Why do we need other witnesses? 64You have all heard his blasphemy. What is your verdict?"

“Guilty!” they all cried. “He deserves to die!”

65Then some of them began to spit at him, and they blindfolded him and beat him with their fists. “Prophesy to us,” they jeered. And the guards slapped him as they took him away.

PETER DENIES JESUS

66Meanwhile, Peter was in the courtyard below. One of the servant girls who worked for the high priest came by 67and noticed Peter warming himself at the fire. She looked at him closely and said, “You were one of those with Jesus of Nazareth.*”

68But Peter denied it. “I don’t know what you’re talking about,” he said, and he went out into the entryway. Just then, a rooster crowed.*

69When the servant girl saw him standing there, she began telling the others, “This man is definitely one of them!” 70But Peter denied it again.

A little later some of the other bystanders confronted Peter and said, “You must be one of them, because you are a Galilean.”

71Peter swore, “A curse on me if I’m lying—I don’t know this man you’re talking about!” 72And immediately the rooster crowed the second time.

Suddenly, Jesus’ words flashed through Peter’s mind: “Before the rooster crows twice, you will deny three times that you even know me.” And he broke down and wept.

Mark 15

JESUS' TRIAL BEFORE PILATE

1Very early in the morning the leading priests, the elders, and the teachers of religious law—the entire high council*—met to discuss their next step. They bound Jesus, led him away, and took him to Pilate, the Roman governor.

2Pilate asked Jesus, "Are you the king of the Jews?"

Jesus replied, "You have said it."

3Then the leading priests kept accusing him of many crimes, 4and Pilate asked him, "Aren't you going to answer them? What about all these charges they are bringing against you?" 5But Jesus said nothing, much to Pilate's surprise.

6Now it was the governor's custom each year during the Passover celebration to release one prisoner—anyone the people requested.
7One of the prisoners at that time was Barabbas, a revolutionary who had committed murder in an uprising. 8The crowd went to Pilate and asked him to release a prisoner as usual.

9"Would you like me to release to you this 'King of the Jews'?" Pilate asked. 10(For he realized by now that the leading priests had arrested Jesus out of envy.) 11But at this point the leading priests stirred up the crowd to demand the release of Barabbas instead of Jesus. 12Pilate asked them, "Then what should I do with this man you call the king of the Jews?"

13They shouted back, "Crucify him!"

14"Why?" Pilate demanded. "What crime has he committed?"

But the mob roared even louder, "Crucify him!"

15So to pacify the crowd, Pilate released Barabbas to them. He ordered Jesus flogged with a lead-tipped whip, then turned him over to the Roman soldiers to be crucified.

THE SOLDIERS MOCK JESUS

16The soldiers took Jesus into the courtyard of the governor's headquarters (called the Praetorium) and called out the entire regiment. 17They dressed him in a purple robe, and they wove thorn branches into a crown and put it on his head. 18Then they saluted him and taunted, "Hail! King of the Jews!" 19And they struck him on the head with a reed stick, spit on him, and dropped to their knees in mock worship. 20When they were finally tired of mocking him, they took off the purple robe and put his own clothes on him again. Then they led him away to be crucified.

GOLGOTHA

THE CRUCIFIXION

21A passerby named Simon, who was from Cyrene,* was coming in from the countryside just then, and the soldiers forced him to carry Jesus' cross. (Simon was the father of Alexander and Rufus.) 22And they brought Jesus to a place called Golgotha (which means "Place of the Skull"). 23They offered him wine drugged with myrrh, but he refused it.

24Then the soldiers nailed him to the cross. They divided his clothes and threw dice* to decide who would get each piece. 25It was nine o'clock in the morning when they crucified him. 26A sign announced the charge against him. It read, "The King of the Jews." 27Two revolutionaries* were crucified with him, one on his right and one on his left.*

29The people passing by shouted abuse, shaking their heads in mockery. "Ha! Look at you now!" they yelled at him. "You said you were going to destroy the Temple and rebuild it in three days.
30Well then, save yourself and come down from the cross!"

31The leading priests and teachers of religious law also mocked Jesus. "He saved others," they scoffed, "but he can't save himself!
32Let this Messiah, this King of Israel, come down from the cross so we can see it and believe him!" Even the men who were crucified with Jesus ridiculed him.

THE DEATH OF JESUS

33At noon, darkness fell across the whole land until three o'clock.
34Then at three o'clock Jesus called out with a loud voice, "Eloi, Eloi, lema sabachthani?" which means "My God, my God, why have you abandoned me?”*

35Some of the bystanders misunderstood and thought he was calling for the prophet Elijah. 36One of them ran and filled a sponge with sour wine, holding it up to him on a reed stick so he could drink.
“Wait!” he said. “Let’s see whether Elijah comes to take him down!”

37Then Jesus uttered another loud cry and breathed his last. 38And the curtain in the sanctuary of the Temple was torn in two, from top to bottom.

39When the Roman officer* who stood facing him* saw how he had died, he exclaimed, “This man truly was the Son of God!”

40Some women were there, watching from a distance, including Mary Magdalene, Mary (the mother of James the younger and of Joseph*), and Salome. 41They had been followers of Jesus and had cared for him while he was in Galilee. Many other women who had come with him to Jerusalem were also there.

ANCIENT BURIAL PRACTICES

THE BURIAL OF JESUS

42This all happened on Friday, the day of preparation,* the day before the Sabbath. As evening approached, 43Joseph of Arimathea took a risk and went to Pilate and asked for Jesus’ body. (Joseph was an honored member of the high council, and he was waiting for the Kingdom of God to come.) 44Pilate couldn’t believe that Jesus was already dead, so he called for the Roman officer and asked if he had died yet. 45The officer confirmed that Jesus was dead, so Pilate told Joseph he could have the body. 46Joseph bought a long sheet of linen cloth. Then he took Jesus' body down from the cross, wrapped it in the cloth, and laid it in a tomb that had been carved out of the rock. Then he rolled a stone in front of the entrance. 47Mary Magdalene and Mary the mother of Joseph saw where Jesus' body was laid.

Mark 16

THE RESURRECTION

1Saturday evening, when the Sabbath ended, Mary Magdalene, Mary the mother of James, and Salome went out and purchased burial spices so they could anoint Jesus' body. 2Very early on Sunday morning,* just at sunrise, they went to the tomb. 3On the way they were asking each other, "Who will roll away the stone for us from the entrance to the tomb?" 4But as they arrived, they looked up and saw that the stone, which was very large, had already been rolled aside.

5When they entered the tomb, they saw a young man clothed in a white robe sitting on the right side. The women were shocked, 6but the angel said, “Don’t be alarmed. You are looking for Jesus of Nazareth,* who was crucified. He isn’t here! He is risen from the dead! Look, this is where they laid his body. 7Now go and tell his disciples, including Peter, that Jesus is going ahead of you to Galilee. You will see him there, just as he told you before he died.”

8The women fled from the tomb, trembling and bewildered, and they said nothing to anyone because they were too frightened.*

[The most ancient manuscripts of Mark conclude with verse 16:8. Later manuscripts add one or both of the following endings.]

[Shorter Ending of Mark]

Then they briefly reported all this to Peter and his companions. Afterward Jesus himself sent them out from east to west with the sacred and unfailing message of salvation that gives eternal life. Amen.

[Longer Ending of Mark]

9After Jesus rose from the dead early on Sunday morning, the first person who saw him was Mary Magdalene, the woman from whom he had cast out seven demons. 10She went to the disciples, who were grieving and weeping, and told them what had happened. 11But when she told them that Jesus was alive and she had seen him, they didn’t believe her.

12Afterward he appeared in a different form to two of his followers who were walking from Jerusalem into the country. 13They rushed back to tell the others, but no one believed them.

14Still later he appeared to the eleven disciples as they were eating together. He rebuked them for their stubborn unbelief because they refused to believe those who had seen him after he had been raised from the dead.*

15And then he told them, “Go into all the world and preach the Good News to everyone. 16Anyone who believes and is baptized will be saved. But anyone who refuses to believe will be condemned. 17These miraculous signs will accompany those who believe: They will cast out demons in my name, and they will speak in new languages.* 18They will be able to handle snakes with safety, and if they drink anything poisonous, it won’t hurt them. They will be able to place their hands on the sick, and they will be healed.”

19When the Lord Jesus had finished talking with them, he was taken up into heaven and sat down in the place of honor at God’s right hand. 20And the disciples went everywhere and preached, and the Lord worked through them, confirming what they said by many miraculous signs.

WELCOME TO

LUKE

An early Gentile convert, Luke, also writes about Jesus’ life and ministry. He has listened to everything eyewitnesses remember about Jesus and has compiled it all into this “careful account.” As a physician, Luke writes with care and sensitivity. He emphasizes Jesus’ compassion toward women, the outcasts of society, the sick, and the poor. He presents his historical account in chronological order, starting with the details of Jesus’ ancestry, birth, and early life; then moving on to the beginning of Jesus' ministry. He portrays Jesus as the ideal and perfect human.

Luke records the most parables of all the Gospel writers, including the stories of the good Samaritan (10:29-37), the lost coin (15:8-10), and the lost son (15:11-32).

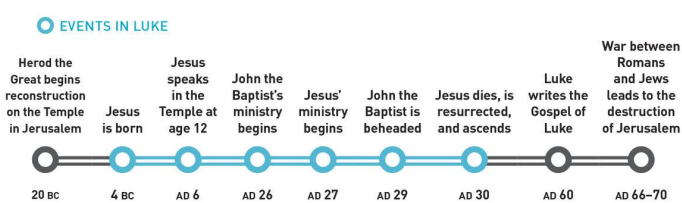
FINDING JESUS IN LUKE

In Luke's Gospel, Jesus is revealed as fully human. Jesus was born in a miraculous yet humble way (chapter 2). He faced temptation (chapter 4). He enjoyed meals with friends, even with people who were considered sinful and unholy by those in power (7:34). Jesus endured suffering, experienced sorrow, and tasted death just like every human. Luke shows us that we can reach out to Jesus, who will sympathize with us. When a woman reached out to touch Jesus for healing, Jesus responded with compassion and mercy. He showed us what God intended for humanity—to love and serve both God and our neighbors.



Luke 1

INTRODUCTION

1Many people have set out to write accounts about the events that have been fulfilled among us. 2They used the eyewitness reports circulating among us from the early disciples.*3Having carefully investigated everything from the beginning, I also have decided to write a careful account for you, most honorable Theophilus, 4so you can be certain of the truth of everything you were taught.

THE BIRTH OF JOHN THE BAPTIST FORETOLD

5When Herod was king of Judea, there was a Jewish priest named Zechariah. He was a member of the priestly order of Abijah, and his wife, Elizabeth, was also from the priestly line of Aaron. 6Zechariah and Elizabeth were righteous in God's eyes, careful to obey all of the Lord's commandments and regulations. 7They had no children because Elizabeth was unable to conceive, and they were both very old.

8One day Zechariah was serving God in the Temple, for his order was on duty that week. 9As was the custom of the priests, he was chosen by lot to enter the sanctuary of the Lord and burn incense.
10While the incense was being burned, a great crowd stood outside, praying.

11While Zechariah was in the sanctuary, an angel of the Lord appeared to him, standing to the right of the incense altar.
12Zechariah was shaken and overwhelmed with fear when he saw him. 13But the angel said, “Don’t be afraid, Zechariah! God has heard your prayer. Your wife, Elizabeth, will give you a son, and you are to name him John. 14You will have great joy and gladness, and many will rejoice at his birth, 15for he will be great in the eyes of the Lord. He must never touch wine or other alcoholic drinks. He will be filled with the Holy Spirit, even before his birth.16And he will turn many Israelites to the Lord their God. 17He will be a man with the spirit and power of Elijah. He will prepare the people for the coming of the Lord. He will turn the hearts of the fathers to their children, and he will cause those who are rebellious to accept the wisdom of the godly.”

18Zechariah said to the angel, “How can I be sure this will happen?
I’m an old man now, and my wife is also well along in years.”

19Then the angel said, “I am Gabriel! I stand in the very presence of God. It was he who sent me to bring you this good news! 20But now, since you didn’t believe what I said, you will be silent and unable to speak until the child is born. For my words will certainly be fulfilled at the proper time.”

21Meanwhile, the people were waiting for Zechariah to come out of the sanctuary, wondering why he was taking so long. 22When he finally did come out, he couldn’t speak to them. Then they realized from his gestures and his silence that he must have seen a vision in the sanctuary.

23When Zechariah's week of service in the Temple was over, he returned home. 24Soon afterward his wife, Elizabeth, became pregnant and went into seclusion for five months. 25"How kind the Lord is!" she exclaimed. "He has taken away my disgrace of having no children."

THE MESSIAH LUKE 1:26-56

THE BIRTH OF JESUS FORETOLD

26In the sixth month of Elizabeth's pregnancy, God sent the angel Gabriel to Nazareth, a village in Galilee, 27to a virgin named Mary. She was engaged to be married to a man named Joseph, a descendant of King David. 28Gabriel appeared to her and said, "Greetings, favored woman! The Lord is with you!*"

29Confused and disturbed, Mary tried to think what the angel could mean. 30"Don't be afraid, Mary," the angel told her, "for you have found favor with God! 31You will conceive and give birth to a son, and you will name him Jesus. 32He will be very great and will be called the Son of the Most High. The Lord God will give him the throne of his ancestor David. 33And he will reign over Israel* forever; his Kingdom will never end!"

34Mary asked the angel, "But how can this happen? I am a virgin."

35The angel replied, “The Holy Spirit will come upon you, and the power of the Most High will overshadow you. So the baby to be born will be holy, and he will be called the Son of God. 36What’s more, your relative Elizabeth has become pregnant in her old age!
People used to say she was barren, but she has conceived a son and is now in her sixth month. 37For the word of God will never fail.*” 38Mary responded, “I am the Lord’s servant. May everything you have said about me come true.” And then the angel left her.

MARY VISITS ELIZABETH

39A few days later Mary hurried to the hill country of Judea, to the town 40where Zechariah lived. She entered the house and greeted Elizabeth. 41At the sound of Mary’s greeting, Elizabeth’s child leaped within her, and Elizabeth was filled with the Holy Spirit.

42Elizabeth gave a glad cry and exclaimed to Mary, “God has blessed you above all women, and your child is blessed. 43Why am I so honored, that the mother of my Lord should visit me? 44When I heard your greeting, the baby in my womb jumped for joy. 45You are blessed because you believed that the Lord would do what he said.”

SONGS LUKE 1:46-55

THE MAGNIFICAT: MARY'S SONG OF PRAISE

46Mary responded, "Oh, how my soul praises the Lord.

47How my spirit rejoices in God my Savior!

48For he took notice of his lowly servant girl, and from now on all generations will call me blessed.

49For the Mighty One is holy, and he has done great things for me.

50He shows mercy from generation to generation to all who fear him.

51His mighty arm has done tremendous things!
He has scattered the proud and haughty ones.

52He has brought down princes from their thrones and exalted the humble.

53He has filled the hungry with good things and sent the rich away with empty hands.

54He has helped his servant Israel and remembered to be merciful.

55For he made this promise to our ancestors, to Abraham and his children forever."

56Mary stayed with Elizabeth about three months and then went back to her own home.

SONGS LUKE 1:57-80

THE BIRTH OF JOHN THE BAPTIST

57When it was time for Elizabeth's baby to be born, she gave birth to a son. 58And when her neighbors and relatives heard that the Lord had been very merciful to her, everyone rejoiced with her.

59When the baby was eight days old, they all came for the circumcision ceremony. They wanted to name him Zechariah, after his father. 60But Elizabeth said, “No! His name is John!”

61“What?” they exclaimed. “There is no one in all your family by that name.” 62So they used gestures to ask the baby’s father what he wanted to name him. 63He motioned for a writing tablet, and to everyone’s surprise he wrote, “His name is John.” 64Instantly Zechariah could speak again, and he began praising God.

65Awe fell upon the whole neighborhood, and the news of what had happened spread throughout the Judean hills. 66Everyone who heard about it reflected on these events and asked, “What will this child turn out to be?” For the hand of the Lord was surely upon him in a special way.

ZECHARIAH’S PROPHECY

67Then his father, Zechariah, was filled with the Holy Spirit and gave this prophecy:

68“Praise the Lord, the God of Israel, because he has visited and redeemed his people.

69He has sent us a mighty Savior* from the royal line of his servant David,

70just as he promised through his holy prophets long ago.

71Now we will be saved from our enemies and from all who hate us.

72He has been merciful to our ancestors by remembering his sacred covenant—

73the covenant he swore with an oath to our ancestor Abraham.

74We have been rescued from our enemies so we can serve God without fear,

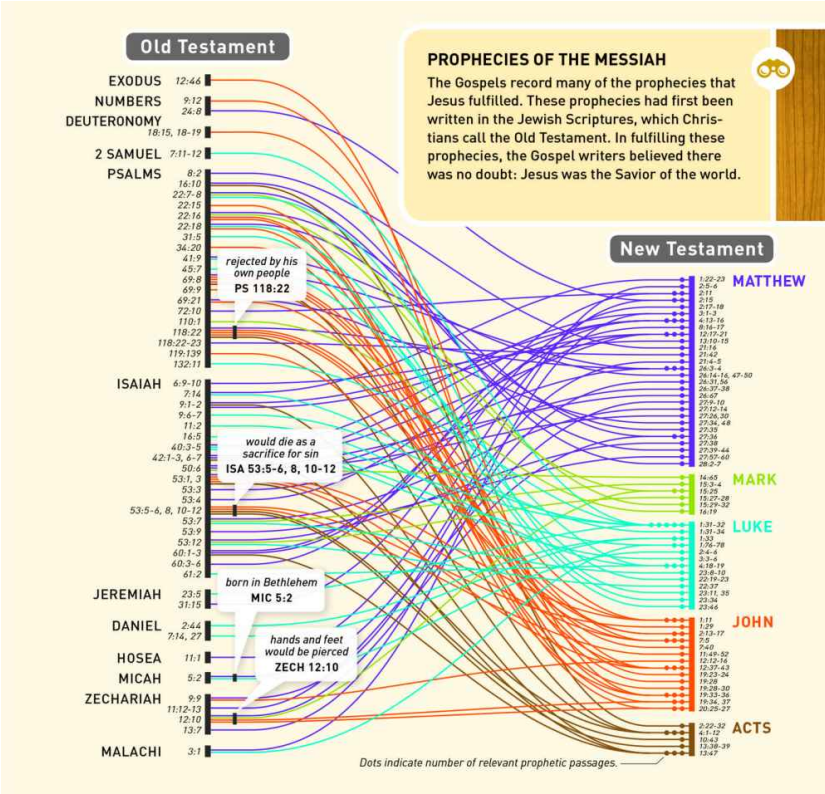
75in holiness and righteousness for as long as we live.



PROPHECIES OF THE MESSIAH

76“And you, my little son, will be called the prophet of the Most High, because you will prepare the way for the Lord.

77You will tell his people how to find salvation through forgiveness of their sins.

78Because of God’s tender mercy, the morning light from heaven is about to break upon us,*

79to give light to those who sit in darkness and in the shadow of death, and to guide us to the path of peace.”

80John grew up and became strong in spirit. And he lived in the wilderness until he began his public ministry to Israel.

MARY AND JOSEPH'S JOURNEY TO BETHLEHEM

Luke 2

THE BIRTH OF JESUS

1At that time the Roman emperor, Augustus, decreed that a census should be taken throughout the Roman Empire. 2(This was the first census taken when Quirinius was governor of Syria.) 3All returned to their own ancestral towns to register for this census. 4And because Joseph was a descendant of King David, he had to go to Bethlehem in Judea, David's ancient home. He traveled there from the village of Nazareth in Galilee. 5He took with him Mary, his fiancée, who was now obviously pregnant.

6And while they were there, the time came for her baby to be born.
7She gave birth to her first child, a son. She wrapped him snugly in strips of cloth and laid him in a manger, because there was no lodging available for them.

THE SHEPHERDS AND ANGELS

8That night there were shepherds staying in the fields nearby, guarding their flocks of sheep. 9Suddenly, an angel of the Lord appeared among them, and the radiance of the Lord's glory surrounded them. They were terrified, 10but the angel reassured them. "Don't be afraid!" he said. "I bring you good news that will bring great joy to all people. 11The Savior—yes, the Messiah, the Lord—has been born today in Bethlehem, the city of David! 12And you will recognize him by this sign: You will find a baby wrapped snugly in strips of cloth, lying in a manger."

13Suddenly, the angel was joined by a vast host of others—the armies of heaven—praising God and saying,

14"Glory to God in highest heaven, and peace on earth to those with whom God is pleased."

15When the angels had returned to heaven, the shepherds said to each other, "Let's go to Bethlehem! Let's see this thing that has happened, which the Lord has told us about."

16They hurried to the village and found Mary and Joseph. And there was the baby, lying in the manger. 17After seeing him, the shepherds told everyone what had happened and what the angel had said to them about this child. 18All who heard the shepherds' story were astonished, 19but Mary kept all these things in her heart and thought about them often. 20The shepherds went back to their flocks, glorifying and praising God for all they had heard and seen. It was just as the angel had told them.

JESUS IS PRESENTED IN THE TEMPLE

21Eight days later, when the baby was circumcised, he was named Jesus, the name given him by the angel even before he was conceived.

22Then it was time for their purification offering, as required by the law of Moses after the birth of a child; so his parents took him to Jerusalem to present him to the Lord. 23The law of the Lord says, "If a woman's first child is a boy, he must be dedicated to the LORD."* 24So they offered the sacrifice required in the law of the Lord—"either a pair of turtledoves or two young pigeons."*

SONGS LUKE 2:25-35

THE PROPHECY OF SIMEON

25At that time there was a man in Jerusalem named Simeon. He was righteous and devout and was eagerly waiting for the Messiah to come and rescue Israel. The Holy Spirit was upon him 26and had revealed to him that he would not die until he had seen the Lord's Messiah. 27That day the Spirit led him to the Temple. So when Mary and Joseph came to present the baby Jesus to the Lord as the law required, 28Simeon was there. He took the child in his arms and praised God, saying, 29"Sovereign Lord, now let your servant die in peace, as you have promised.

30I have seen your salvation,

31which you have prepared for all people.

32He is a light to reveal God to the nations, and he is the glory of your people Israel!"

33Jesus' parents were amazed at what was being said about him. 34Then Simeon blessed them, and he said to Mary, the baby's mother, "This child is destined to cause many in Israel to fall, but he will be a joy to many others. He has been sent as a sign from God, but many will oppose him. 35As a result, the deepest thoughts of many hearts will be revealed. And a sword will pierce your very soul."

THE PROPHECY OF ANNA

36Anna, a prophet, was also there in the Temple. She was the daughter of Phanuel from the tribe of Asher, and she was very old. Her husband died when they had been married only seven years. 37Then she lived as a widow to the age of eighty-four.* She never left the Temple but stayed there day and night, worshiping God with fasting and prayer. 38She came along just as Simeon was talking with Mary and Joseph, and she began praising God. She talked about the child to everyone who had been waiting expectantly for God to rescue Jerusalem.

39When Jesus' parents had fulfilled all the requirements of the law of the Lord, they returned home to Nazareth in Galilee. 40There the child grew up healthy and strong. He was filled with wisdom, and God's favor was on him.

JESUS SPEAKS WITH THE TEACHERS

41Every year Jesus' parents went to Jerusalem for the Passover festival. 42When Jesus was twelve years old, they attended the festival as usual. 43After the celebration was over, they started home to Nazareth, but Jesus stayed behind in Jerusalem. His parents didn't miss him at first, 44because they assumed he was among the other travelers. But when he didn't show up that evening, they started looking for him among their relatives and friends.

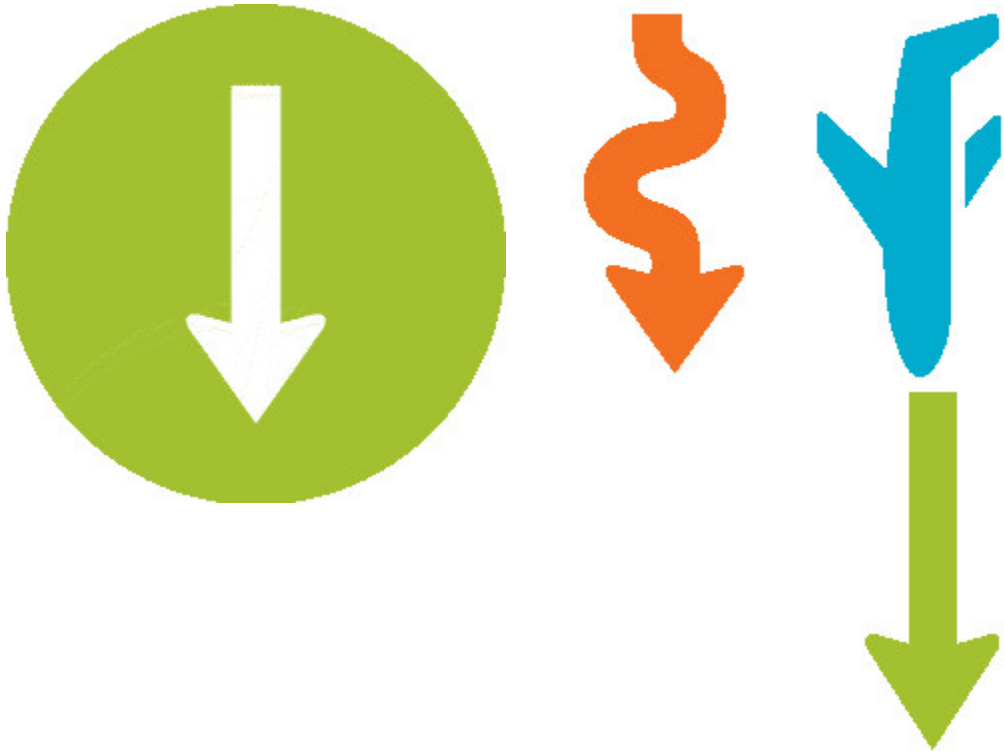
45When they couldn't find him, they went back to Jerusalem to search for him there. 46Three days later they finally discovered him in the Temple, sitting among the religious teachers, listening to them and asking questions. 47All who heard him were amazed at his understanding and his answers.

48His parents didn't know what to think. "Son," his mother said to him, "why have you done this to us? Your father and I have been frantic, searching for you everywhere."

49"But why did you need to search?" he asked. "Didn't you know that I must be in my Father's house?"* 50But they didn't understand what he meant.

51Then he returned to Nazareth with them and was obedient to them. And his mother stored all these things in her heart.

52Jesus grew in wisdom and in stature and in favor with God and all the people.



THE JUDEAN WILDERNESS

Luke 3

JOHN THE BAPTIST PREPARES THE WAY

1It was now the fifteenth year of the reign of Tiberius, the Roman emperor. Pontius Pilate was governor over Judea; Herod Antipas was ruler* over Galilee; his brother Philip was ruler* over Iturea and Traconitis; Lysanias was ruler over Abilene. 2Annas and Caiaphas were the high priests. At this time a message from God came to John son of Zechariah, who was living in the wilderness. 3Then John went from place to place on both sides of the Jordan River, preaching that people should be baptized to show that they had repented of their sins and turned to God to be forgiven. 4Isaiah had spoken of John when he said, “He is a voice shouting in the wilderness, ‘Prepare the way for the LORD’s coming!

Clear the road for him!

5The valleys will be filled, and the mountains and hills made level.
The curves will be straightened, and the rough places made smooth.

6And then all people will see the salvation sent from God.'"*

7When the crowds came to John for baptism, he said, "You brood of snakes! Who warned you to flee God's coming wrath? 8Prove by the way you live that you have repented of your sins and turned to God. Don't just say to each other, 'We're safe, for we are descendants of Abraham.' That means nothing, for I tell you, God can create children of Abraham from these very stones. 9Even now the ax of God's judgment is poised, ready to sever the roots of the trees. Yes, every tree that does not produce good fruit will be chopped down and thrown into the fire."

10The crowds asked, "What should we do?"

11John replied, "If you have two shirts, give one to the poor. If you have food, share it with those who are hungry."

12Even corrupt tax collectors came to be baptized and asked, "Teacher, what should we do?"

13He replied, "Collect no more taxes than the government requires."

14"What should we do?" asked some soldiers.

John replied, "Don't extort money or make false accusations. And be content with your pay."

15Everyone was expecting the Messiah to come soon, and they were eager to know whether John might be the Messiah. 16John answered their questions by saying, "I baptize you with* water; but someone is coming soon who is greater than I am—so much greater that I'm not even worthy to be his slave and untie the straps of his sandals. He will baptize you with the Holy Spirit and with fire.*17He is ready to separate the chaff from the wheat with his winnowing fork. Then he will clean up the threshing area, gathering the wheat into his barn but burning the chaff with never-ending fire.” 18John used many such warnings as he announced the Good News to the people.

19John also publicly criticized Herod Antipas, the ruler of Galilee,* for marrying Herodias, his brother’s wife, and for many other wrongs he had done. 20So Herod put John in prison, adding this sin to his many others.

THE BAPTISM OF JESUS

21One day when the crowds were being baptized, Jesus himself was baptized. As he was praying, the heavens opened, 22and the Holy Spirit, in bodily form, descended on him like a dove. And a voice from heaven said, “You are my dearly loved Son, and you bring me great joy.*”

DEMONS LUKE 4:1-13

Luke 4

THE TEMPTATION OF JESUS

1Then Jesus, full of the Holy Spirit, returned from the Jordan River.
He was led by the Spirit in the wilderness,*2where he was tempted by the devil for forty days. Jesus ate nothing all that time and became very hungry.

3Then the devil said to him, “If you are the Son of God, tell this stone to become a loaf of bread.”

4But Jesus told him, “No! The Scriptures say, ‘People do not live by bread alone.’*”

5Then the devil took him up and revealed to him all the kingdoms of the world in a moment of time. 6“I will give you the glory of these kingdoms and authority over them,” the devil said, “because they are mine to give to anyone I please. 7I will give it all to you if you will worship me.”

8Jesus replied, “The Scriptures say, ‘You must worship the LORD your God and serve only him.’*”

9Then the devil took him to Jerusalem, to the highest point of the Temple, and said, “If you are the Son of God, jump off! 10For the Scriptures say, ‘He will order his angels to protect and guard you.

11And they will hold you up with their hands so you won’t even hurt your foot on a stone.’*”

12Jesus responded, “The Scriptures also say, ‘You must not test the LORD your God.’*”

13When the devil had finished tempting Jesus, he left him until the next opportunity came.

JESUS REJECTED AT NAZARETH

14Then Jesus returned to Galilee, filled with the Holy Spirit’s power. Reports about him spread quickly through the whole region. 15He taught regularly in their synagogues and was praised by everyone.

16When he came to the village of Nazareth, his boyhood home, he went as usual to the synagogue on the Sabbath and stood up to read the Scriptures. 17The scroll of Isaiah the prophet was handed to him. He unrolled the scroll and found the place where this was written:

18“The Spirit of the LORD is upon me, for he has anointed me to bring Good News to the poor.
He has sent me to proclaim that captives will be released, that the blind will see, that the oppressed will be set free,

19and that the time of the LORD's favor has come.*"

20He rolled up the scroll, handed it back to the attendant, and sat down. All eyes in the synagogue looked at him intently. 21Then he began to speak to them. "The Scripture you've just heard has been fulfilled this very day!"

22Everyone spoke well of him and was amazed by the gracious words that came from his lips. "How can this be?" they asked. "Isn't this Joseph's son?"

23Then he said, "You will undoubtedly quote me this proverb: 'Physician, heal yourself'—meaning, 'Do miracles here in your hometown like those you did in Capernaum.' 24But I tell you the truth, no prophet is accepted in his own hometown.

25"Certainly there were many needy widows in Israel in Elijah's time, when the heavens were closed for three and a half years, and a severe famine devastated the land. 26Yet Elijah was not sent to any of them. He was sent instead to a foreigner—a widow of Zarephath in the land of Sidon. 27And there were many lepers in Israel in the time of the prophet Elisha, but the only one healed was Naaman, a Syrian."

28When they heard this, the people in the synagogue were furious. 29Jumping up, they mobbed him and forced him to the edge of the hill on which the town was built. They intended to push him over the cliff, 30but he passed right through the crowd and went on his way.

JESUS CASTS OUT A DEMON

31Then Jesus went to Capernaum, a town in Galilee, and taught there in the synagogue every Sabbath day. 32There, too, the people were amazed at his teaching, for he spoke with authority.

33Once when he was in the synagogue, a man possessed by a demon —an evil* spirit—began shouting at Jesus, 34"Go away! Why are you interfering with us, Jesus of Nazareth? Have you come to destroy us? I know who you are—the Holy One of God!"

35Jesus cut him short. "Be quiet! Come out of the man," he ordered.
At that, the demon threw the man to the floor as the crowd watched; then it came out of him without hurting him further.

36Amazed, the people exclaimed, "What authority and power this man's words possess! Even evil spirits obey him, and they flee at his command!" 37The news about Jesus spread through every village in the entire region.

JESUS HEALS MANY PEOPLE

38After leaving the synagogue that day, Jesus went to Simon's home, where he found Simon's mother-in-law very sick with a high fever. "Please heal her," everyone begged. 39Standing at her bedside, he rebuked the fever, and it left her. And she got up at once and prepared a meal for them.

40As the sun went down that evening, people throughout the village brought sick family members to Jesus. No matter what their diseases were, the touch of his hand healed every one. 41Many were possessed by demons; and the demons came out at his command, shouting, "You are the Son of God!" But because they knew he was the Messiah, he rebuked them and refused to let them speak.

JESUS CONTINUES TO PREACH

42Early the next morning Jesus went out to an isolated place. The crowds searched everywhere for him, and when they finally found him, they begged him not to leave them. 43But he replied, "I must preach the Good News of the Kingdom of God in other towns, too, because that is why I was sent.” 44So he continued to travel around, preaching in synagogues throughout Judea.*

Luke 5

THE FIRST DISCIPLES

1One day as Jesus was preaching on the shore of the Sea of Galilee,* great crowds pressed in on him to listen to the word of God. 2He noticed two empty boats at the water's edge, for the fishermen had left them and were washing their nets. 3Stepping into one of the boats, Jesus asked Simon,* its owner, to push it out into the water. So he sat in the boat and taught the crowds from there.

4When he had finished speaking, he said to Simon, "Now go out where it is deeper, and let down your nets to catch some fish."

5"Master," Simon replied, "we worked hard all last night and didn't catch a thing. But if you say so, I'll let the nets down again." 6And this time their nets were so full of fish they began to tear! 7A shout for help brought their partners in the other boat, and soon both boats were filled with fish and on the verge of sinking.

8When Simon Peter realized what had happened, he fell to his knees before Jesus and said, "Oh, Lord, please leave me—I'm too much of a sinner to be around you." 9For he was awestruck by the number of fish they had caught, as were the others with him. 10His partners, James and John, the sons of Zebedee, were also amazed.

Jesus replied to Simon, "Don't be afraid! From now on you'll be fishing for people!" 11And as soon as they landed, they left everything and followed Jesus.

SKIP TO 5:27

JESUS HEALS A MAN WITH LEPROSY

12In one of the villages, Jesus met a man with an advanced case of leprosy. When the man saw Jesus, he bowed with his face to the ground, begging to be healed. "Lord," he said, "if you are willing, you can heal me and make me clean."

13Jesus reached out and touched him. "I am willing," he said. "Be healed!" And instantly the leprosy disappeared. 14Then Jesus instructed him not to tell anyone what had happened. He said, "Go to the priest and let him examine you. Take along the offering required in the law of Moses for those who have been healed of leprosy.* This will be a public testimony that you have been cleansed."

15But despite Jesus' instructions, the report of his power spread even faster, and vast crowds came to hear him preach and to be healed of their diseases. 16But Jesus often withdrew to the wilderness for prayer.

JESUS HEALS A PARALYZED MAN

17One day while Jesus was teaching, some Pharisees and teachers of religious law were sitting nearby. (It seemed that these men showed up from every village in all Galilee and Judea, as well as from Jerusalem.) And the Lord's healing power was strongly with Jesus.

18Some men came carrying a paralyzed man on a sleeping mat. They tried to take him inside to Jesus, 19but they couldn't reach him because of the crowd. So they went up to the roof and took off some tiles. Then they lowered the sick man on his mat down into the crowd, right in front of Jesus. 20Seeing their faith, Jesus said to the man, "Young man, your sins are forgiven."

21But the Pharisees and teachers of religious law said to themselves, "Who does he think he is? That's blasphemy! Only God can forgive sins!"

22Jesus knew what they were thinking, so he asked them, "Why do you question this in your hearts? 23Is it easier to say 'Your sins are forgiven,' or 'Stand up and walk'? 24So I will prove to you that the Son of Man* has the authority on earth to forgive sins." Then Jesus turned to the paralyzed man and said, "Stand up, pick up your mat, and go home!"

25And immediately, as everyone watched, the man jumped up, picked up his mat, and went home praising God. 26Everyone was gripped with great wonder and awe, and they praised God, exclaiming, “We have seen amazing things today!”

JESUS CALLS LEVI (MATTHEW)

27Later, as Jesus left the town, he saw a tax collector named Levi sitting at his tax collector’s booth. “Follow me and be my disciple,” Jesus said to him. 28So Levi got up, left everything, and followed him.

29Later, Levi held a banquet in his home with Jesus as the guest of honor. Many of Levi’s fellow tax collectors and other guests also ate with them. 30But the Pharisees and their teachers of religious law complained bitterly to Jesus’ disciples, “Why do you eat and drink with such scum?*”

31Jesus answered them, “Healthy people don’t need a doctor—sick people do. 32I have come to call not those who think they are righteous, but those who know they are sinners and need to repent.”

A DISCUSSION ABOUT FASTING

33One day some people said to Jesus, “John the Baptist’s disciples fast and pray regularly, and so do the disciples of the Pharisees. Why are your disciples always eating and drinking?”

34Jesus responded, “Do wedding guests fast while celebrating with the groom? Of course not. 35But someday the groom will be taken away from them, and then they will fast."

36Then Jesus gave them this illustration: "No one tears a piece of cloth from a new garment and uses it to patch an old garment. For then the new garment would be ruined, and the new patch wouldn't even match the old garment.

37"And no one puts new wine into old wineskins. For the new wine would burst the wineskins, spilling the wine and ruining the skins. 38New wine must be stored in new wineskins. 39But no one who drinks the old wine seems to want the new wine. 'The old is just fine,' they say."

Luke 6

A DISCUSSION ABOUT THE SABBATH

1One Sabbath day as Jesus was walking through some grainfields, his disciples broke off heads of grain, rubbed off the husks in their hands, and ate the grain. 2But some Pharisees said, "Why are you breaking the law by harvesting grain on the Sabbath?"

3Jesus replied, "Haven't you read in the Scriptures what David did when he and his companions were hungry? 4He went into the house of God and broke the law by eating the sacred loaves of bread that only the priests can eat. He also gave some to his companions." 5And Jesus added, "The Son of Man* is Lord, even over the Sabbath."

JESUS HEALS ON THE SABBATH

6On another Sabbath day, a man with a deformed right hand was in the synagogue while Jesus was teaching. 7The teachers of religious law and the Pharisees watched Jesus closely. If he healed the man's hand, they planned to accuse him of working on the Sabbath.

8But Jesus knew their thoughts. He said to the man with the deformed hand, “Come and stand in front of everyone.” So the man came forward. 9Then Jesus said to his critics, “I have a question for you. Does the law permit good deeds on the Sabbath, or is it a day for doing evil? Is this a day to save life or to destroy it?”

10He looked around at them one by one and then said to the man, “Hold out your hand.” So the man held out his hand, and it was restored! 11At this, the enemies of Jesus were wild with rage and began to discuss what to do with him.

JESUS CHOOSES THE TWELVE APOSTLES

12One day soon afterward Jesus went up on a mountain to pray, and he prayed to God all night. 13At daybreak he called together all of his disciples and chose twelve of them to be apostles. Here are their names:

14Simon (whom he named Peter), Andrew (Peter’s brother), James, John, Philip, Bartholomew, 15Matthew, Thomas, James (son of Alphaeus), Simon (who was called the zealot), 16Judas (son of James), Judas Iscariot (who later betrayed him).

CROWDS FOLLOW JESUS

17When they came down from the mountain, the disciples stood with Jesus on a large, level area, surrounded by many of his followers and by the crowds. There were people from all over Judea and from Jerusalem and from as far north as the seacoasts of Tyre and Sidon. 18They had come to hear him and to be healed of their diseases; and those troubled by evil* spirits were healed. 19Everyone tried to touch him, because healing power went out from him, and he healed everyone.

THE BEATITUDES

20Then Jesus turned to his disciples and said, “God blesses you who are poor, for the Kingdom of God is yours.

21God blesses you who are hungry now, for you will be satisfied.
God blesses you who weep now, for in due time you will laugh.

22What blessings await you when people hate you and exclude you and mock you and curse you as evil because you follow the Son of Man. 23When that happens, be happy! Yes, leap for joy! For a great reward awaits you in heaven. And remember, their ancestors treated the ancient prophets that same way.

SORROWS FORETOLD

24“What sorrow awaits you who are rich, for you have your only happiness now.

25What sorrow awaits you who are fat and prosperous now, for a time of awful hunger awaits you.
What sorrow awaits you who laugh now, for your laughing will turn to mourning and sorrow.

26What sorrow awaits you who are praised by the crowds, for their ancestors also praised false prophets.

LOVE FOR ENEMIES

27“But to you who are willing to listen, I say, love your enemies! Do good to those who hate you. 28Bless those who curse you. Pray for those who hurt you. 29If someone slaps you on one cheek, offer the other cheek also. If someone demands your coat, offer your shirt also. 30Give to anyone who asks; and when things are taken away from you, don’t try to get them back. 31Do to others as you would like them to do to you.

32“If you love only those who love you, why should you get credit for that? Even sinners love those who love them! 33And if you do good only to those who do good to you, why should you get credit? Even sinners do that much! 34And if you lend money only to those who can repay you, why should you get credit? Even sinners will lend to other sinners for a full return.

35"Love your enemies! Do good to them. Lend to them without expecting to be repaid. Then your reward from heaven will be very great, and you will truly be acting as children of the Most High, for he is kind to those who are unthankful and wicked. 36You must be compassionate, just as your Father is compassionate.

DO NOT JUDGE OTHERS

37"Do not judge others, and you will not be judged. Do not condemn others, or it will all come back against you. Forgive others, and you will be forgiven. 38Give, and you will receive. Your gift will return to you in full—pressed down, shaken together to make room for more, running over, and poured into your lap. The amount you give will determine the amount you get back.*"

39Then Jesus gave the following illustration: "Can one blind person lead another? Won't they both fall into a ditch? 40Students* are not greater than their teacher. But the student who is fully trained will become like the teacher.

41"And why worry about a speck in your friend's eye* when you have a log in your own? 42How can you think of saying, 'Friend,* let me help you get rid of that speck in your eye,' when you can't see past the log in your own eye? Hypocrite! First get rid of the log in your own eye; then you will see well enough to deal with the speck in your friend's eye.

THE TREE AND ITS FRUIT

43"A good tree can't produce bad fruit, and a bad tree can't produce good fruit. 44A tree is identified by its fruit. Figs are never gathered from thornbushes, and grapes are not picked from bramble bushes.

45A good person produces good things from the treasury of a good heart, and an evil person produces evil things from the treasury of an evil heart. What you say flows from what is in your heart.

BUILDING ON A SOLID FOUNDATION

46"So why do you keep calling me 'Lord, Lord!' when you don't do what I say? 47I will show you what it's like when someone comes to me, listens to my teaching, and then follows it. 48It is like a person building a house who digs deep and lays the foundation on solid rock. When the floodwaters rise and break against that house, it stands firm because it is well built. 49But anyone who hears and doesn't obey is like a person who builds a house without a foundation. When the floods sweep down against that house, it will collapse into a heap of ruins."

Luke 7

THE FAITH OF A ROMAN OFFICER

1When Jesus had finished saying all this to the people, he returned to Capernaum. 2At that time the highly valued slave of a Roman officer* was sick and near death. 3When the officer heard about Jesus, he sent some respected Jewish elders to ask him to come and heal his slave. 4So they earnestly begged Jesus to help the man. "If anyone deserves your help, he does," they said, 5"for he loves the Jewish people and even built a synagogue for us."

6So Jesus went with them. But just before they arrived at the house, the officer sent some friends to say, "Lord, don't trouble yourself by coming to my home, for I am not worthy of such an honor. 7I am not even worthy to come and meet you. Just say the word from where you are, and my servant will be healed. 8I know this because I am under the authority of my superior officers, and I have authority over my soldiers. I only need to say, 'Go,' and they go, or 'Come,' and they come. And if I say to my slaves, 'Do this,' they do it.”

9When Jesus heard this, he was amazed. Turning to the crowd that was following him, he said, “I tell you, I haven’t seen faith like this in all Israel!” 10And when the officer’s friends returned to his house, they found the slave completely healed.

JESUS RAISES A WIDOW’S SON

11Soon afterward Jesus went with his disciples to the village of Nain, and a large crowd followed him. 12A funeral procession was coming out as he approached the village gate. The young man who had died was a widow’s only son, and a large crowd from the village was with her. 13When the Lord saw her, his heart overflowed with compassion. “Don’t cry!” he said. 14Then he walked over to the coffin and touched it, and the bearers stopped. “Young man,” he said, “I tell you, get up.” 15Then the dead boy sat up and began to talk! And Jesus gave him back to his mother.

16Great fear swept the crowd, and they praised God, saying, “A mighty prophet has risen among us,” and “God has visited his people today.” 17And the news about Jesus spread throughout Judea and the surrounding countryside.

JESUS AND JOHN THE BAPTIST

18The disciples of John the Baptist told John about everything Jesus was doing. So John called for two of his disciples, 19and he sent them to the Lord to ask him, “Are you the Messiah we’ve been expecting,* or should we keep looking for someone else?”

20John’s two disciples found Jesus and said to him, “John the Baptist sent us to ask, ‘Are you the Messiah we’ve been expecting, or should we keep looking for someone else?’”

21At that very time, Jesus cured many people of their diseases, illnesses, and evil spirits, and he restored sight to many who were blind. 22Then he told John's disciples, "Go back to John and tell him what you have seen and heard—the blind see, the lame walk, the lepers are cured, the deaf hear, the dead are raised to life, and the Good News is being preached to the poor. 23And tell him, 'God blesses those who do not turn away because of me.*'"

24After John's disciples left, Jesus began talking about him to the crowds. "What kind of man did you go into the wilderness to see?
Was he a weak reed, swayed by every breath of wind? 25Or were you expecting to see a man dressed in expensive clothes? No, people who wear beautiful clothes and live in luxury are found in palaces. 26Were you looking for a prophet? Yes, and he is more than a prophet. 27John is the man to whom the Scriptures refer when they say, 'Look, I am sending my messenger ahead of you, and he will prepare your way before you.'*

28I tell you, of all who have ever lived, none is greater than John.
Yet even the least person in the Kingdom of God is greater than he is!"

29When they heard this, all the people—even the tax collectors—agreed that God's way was right,* for they had been baptized by John. 30But the Pharisees and experts in religious law rejected God's plan for them, for they had refused John's baptism.

31"To what can I compare the people of this generation?" Jesus asked. "How can I describe them? 32They are like children playing a game in the public square. They complain to their friends, 'We played wedding songs, and you didn't dance, so we played funeral songs, and you didn't weep.'

33For John the Baptist didn't spend his time eating bread or drinking wine, and you say, 'He's possessed by a demon.' 34The Son of Man,* on the other hand, feasts and drinks, and you say, 'He's a glutton and a drunkard, and a friend of tax collectors and other sinners!' 35But wisdom is shown to be right by the lives of those who follow it.*"

FORGIVENESS LUKE 7:36-50

JESUS ANOINTED BY A SINFUL WOMAN

36One of the Pharisees asked Jesus to have dinner with him, so Jesus went to his home and sat down to eat.*37When a certain immoral woman from that city heard he was eating there, she brought a beautiful alabaster jar filled with expensive perfume. 38Then she knelt behind him at his feet, weeping. Her tears fell on his feet, and she wiped them off with her hair. Then she kept kissing his feet and putting perfume on them.

39When the Pharisee who had invited him saw this, he said to himself, "If this man were a prophet, he would know what kind of woman is touching him. She's a sinner!"

40Then Jesus answered his thoughts. "Simon," he said to the Pharisee, "I have something to say to you."

"Go ahead, Teacher," Simon replied.

41Then Jesus told him this story: “A man loaned money to two people—500 pieces of silver* to one and 50 pieces to the other.
42But neither of them could repay him, so he kindly forgave them both, canceling their debts. Who do you suppose loved him more after that?”

43Simon answered, “I suppose the one for whom he canceled the larger debt.”

“That’s right,” Jesus said. 44Then he turned to the woman and said to Simon, “Look at this woman kneeling here. When I entered your home, you didn’t offer me water to wash the dust from my feet, but she has washed them with her tears and wiped them with her hair.
45You didn’t greet me with a kiss, but from the time I first came in, she has not stopped kissing my feet. 46You neglected the courtesy of olive oil to anoint my head, but she has anointed my feet with rare perfume.

47“I tell you, her sins—and they are many—have been forgiven, so she has shown me much love. But a person who is forgiven little shows only little love.” 48Then Jesus said to the woman, “Your sins are forgiven.”

49The men at the table said among themselves, “Who is this man, that he goes around forgiving sins?”

50And Jesus said to the woman, “Your faith has saved you; go in peace.”

Luke 8

WOMEN WHO FOLLOWED JESUS

1Soon afterward Jesus began a tour of the nearby towns and villages, preaching and announcing the Good News about the Kingdom of God. He took his twelve disciples with him, 2along with some women who had been cured of evil spirits and diseases. Among them were Mary Magdalene, from whom he had cast out seven demons; 3Joanna, the wife of Chuza, Herod's business manager; Susanna; and many others who were contributing from their own resources to support Jesus and his disciples.

PARABLE OF THE FARMER SCATTERING SEED

4One day Jesus told a story in the form of a parable to a large crowd that had gathered from many towns to hear him: 5"A farmer went out to plant his seed. As he scattered it across his field, some seed fell on a footpath, where it was stepped on, and the birds ate it. 6Other seed fell among rocks. It began to grow, but the plant soon wilted and died for lack of moisture. 7Other seed fell among thorns that grew up with it and choked out the tender plants. 8Still other seed fell on fertile soil. This seed grew and produced a crop that was a hundred times as much as had been planted!" When he had said this, he called out, "Anyone with ears to hear should listen and understand."

9His disciples asked him what this parable meant. 10He replied, "You are permitted to understand the secrets* of the Kingdom of God. But I use parables to teach the others so that the Scriptures might be fulfilled: 'When they look, they won't really see.

When they hear, they won't understand.'*

11"This is the meaning of the parable: The seed is God's word. 12The seeds that fell on the footpath represent those who hear the message, only to have the devil come and take it away from their hearts and prevent them from believing and being saved. 13The seeds on the rocky soil represent those who hear the message and receive it with joy. But since they don't have deep roots, they believe for a while, then they fall away when they face temptation. 14The seeds that fell among the thorns represent those who hear the message, but all too quickly the message is crowded out by the cares and riches and pleasures of this life. And so they never grow into maturity. 15And the seeds that fell on the good soil represent honest, good-hearted people who hear God's word, cling to it, and patiently produce a huge harvest.

PARABLE OF THE LAMP

16"No one lights a lamp and then covers it with a bowl or hides it under a bed. A lamp is placed on a stand, where its light can be seen by all who enter the house. 17For all that is secret will eventually be brought into the open, and everything that is concealed will be brought to light and made known to all.

18"So pay attention to how you hear. To those who listen to my teaching, more understanding will be given. But for those who are not listening, even what they think they understand will be taken away from them."

THE TRUE FAMILY OF JESUS

19Then Jesus' mother and brothers came to see him, but they couldn't get to him because of the crowd. 20Someone told Jesus, "Your mother and your brothers are standing outside, and they want to see you."

21Jesus replied, "My mother and my brothers are all those who hear God's word and obey it."

JESUS CALMS THE STORM

22One day Jesus said to his disciples, "Let's cross to the other side of the lake." So they got into a boat and started out. 23As they sailed across, Jesus settled down for a nap. But soon a fierce storm came down on the lake. The boat was filling with water, and they were in real danger.

24The disciples went and woke him up, shouting, "Master, Master, we're going to drown!"

When Jesus woke up, he rebuked the wind and the raging waves.

Suddenly the storm stopped and all was calm. 25Then he asked them, “Where is your faith?”

The disciples were terrified and amazed. “Who is this man?” they asked each other. “When he gives a command, even the wind and waves obey him!”

DEMONS LUKE 8:26-39

JESUS HEALS A DEMON-POSSESSED MAN

26So they arrived in the region of the Gerasenes,* across the lake from Galilee. 27As Jesus was climbing out of the boat, a man who was possessed by demons came out to meet him. For a long time he had been homeless and naked, living in a cemetery outside the town.

28As soon as he saw Jesus, he shrieked and fell down in front of him. Then he screamed, “Why are you interfering with me, Jesus, Son of the Most High God? Please, I beg you, don’t torture me!” 29For Jesus had already commanded the evil* spirit to come out of him. This spirit had often taken control of the man. Even when he was placed under guard and put in chains and shackles, he simply broke them and rushed out into the wilderness, completely under the demon’s power.

30Jesus demanded, “What is your name?”

“Legion,” he replied, for he was filled with many demons. 31The demons kept begging Jesus not to send them into the bottomless pit.*

32There happened to be a large herd of pigs feeding on the hillside nearby, and the demons begged him to let them enter into the pigs.

So Jesus gave them permission. 33Then the demons came out of the man and entered the pigs, and the entire herd plunged down the steep hillside into the lake and drowned.

34When the herdsmen saw it, they fled to the nearby town and the surrounding countryside, spreading the news as they ran. 35People rushed out to see what had happened. A crowd soon gathered around Jesus, and they saw the man who had been freed from the demons. He was sitting at Jesus' feet, fully clothed and perfectly sane, and they were all afraid. 36Then those who had seen what happened told the others how the demon-possessed man had been healed. 37And all the people in the region of the Gerasenes begged Jesus to go away and leave them alone, for a great wave of fear swept over them.

So Jesus returned to the boat and left, crossing back to the other side of the lake. 38The man who had been freed from the demons begged to go with him. But Jesus sent him home, saying, 39"No, go back to your family, and tell them everything God has done for you." So he went all through the town proclaiming the great things Jesus had done for him.

DON'T FEAR LUKE 8:40-56

JESUS HEALS IN RESPONSE TO FAITH

40On the other side of the lake the crowds welcomed Jesus, because they had been waiting for him. 41Then a man named Jairus, a leader of the local synagogue, came and fell at Jesus' feet, pleading with him to come home with him. 42His only daughter,* who was about twelve years old, was dying.

As Jesus went with him, he was surrounded by the crowds. 43A woman in the crowd had suffered for twelve years with constant bleeding,* and she could find no cure. 44Coming up behind Jesus, she touched the fringe of his robe. Immediately, the bleeding stopped.

45"Who touched me?" Jesus asked.

Everyone denied it, and Peter said, "Master, this whole crowd is pressing up against you."

46But Jesus said, "Someone deliberately touched me, for I felt healing power go out from me." 47When the woman realized that she could not stay hidden, she began to tremble and fell to her knees in front of him. The whole crowd heard her explain why she had touched him and that she had been immediately healed.
48"Daughter," he said to her, "your faith has made you well. Go in peace."

49While he was still speaking to her, a messenger arrived from the home of Jairus, the leader of the synagogue. He told him, "Your daughter is dead. There's no use troubling the Teacher now."

50But when Jesus heard what had happened, he said to Jairus,
"Don't be afraid. Just have faith, and she will be healed."

51When they arrived at the house, Jesus wouldn't let anyone go in with him except Peter, John, James, and the little girl's father and mother. 52The house was filled with people weeping and wailing, but he said, “Stop the weeping! She isn’t dead; she’s only asleep.”

53But the crowd laughed at him because they all knew she had died.
54Then Jesus took her by the hand and said in a loud voice, “My child, get up!” 55And at that moment her life* returned, and she immediately stood up! Then Jesus told them to give her something to eat. 56Her parents were overwhelmed, but Jesus insisted that they not tell anyone what had happened.

Luke 9

JESUS SENDS OUT THE TWELVE DISCIPLES

1One day Jesus called together his twelve disciples* and gave them power and authority to cast out all demons and to heal all diseases.
2Then he sent them out to tell everyone about the Kingdom of God and to heal the sick. 3“Take nothing for your journey,” he instructed them. “Don’t take a walking stick, a traveler’s bag, food, money,* or even a change of clothes. 4Wherever you go, stay in the same house until you leave town. 5And if a town refuses to welcome you, shake its dust from your feet as you leave to show that you have abandoned those people to their fate.”

6So they began their circuit of the villages, preaching the Good News and healing the sick.

HEROD’S CONFUSION

7When Herod Antipas, the ruler of Galilee,* heard about everything Jesus was doing, he was puzzled. Some were saying that John the Baptist had been raised from the dead. 8Others thought Jesus was Elijah or one of the other prophets risen from the dead.

9“I beheaded John,” Herod said, “so who is this man about whom I hear such stories?” And he kept trying to see him.

JESUS FEEDS FIVE THOUSAND

10When the apostles returned, they told Jesus everything they had done. Then he slipped quietly away with them toward the town of Bethsaida. 11But the crowds found out where he was going, and they followed him. He welcomed them and taught them about the Kingdom of God, and he healed those who were sick.

12Late in the afternoon the twelve disciples came to him and said,
"Send the crowds away to the nearby villages and farms, so they can find food and lodging for the night. There is nothing to eat here in this remote place."

13But Jesus said, "You feed them."

"But we have only five loaves of bread and two fish," they answered. "Or are you expecting us to go and buy enough food for this whole crowd?" 14For there were about 5,000 men there.

Jesus replied, "Tell them to sit down in groups of about fifty each."
15So the people all sat down. 16Jesus took the five loaves and two fish, looked up toward heaven, and blessed them. Then, breaking the loaves into pieces, he kept giving the bread and fish to the disciples so they could distribute it to the people. 17They all ate as much as they wanted, and afterward, the disciples picked up twelve baskets of leftovers!

PETER'S DECLARATION ABOUT JESUS

18One day Jesus left the crowds to pray alone. Only his disciples were with him, and he asked them, "Who do people say I am?"

19"Well," they replied, "some say John the Baptist, some say Elijah, and others say you are one of the other ancient prophets risen from the dead."

20Then he asked them, “But who do you say I am?”

Peter replied, “You are the Messiah* sent from God!”

JESUS PREDICTS HIS DEATH

21Jesus warned his disciples not to tell anyone who he was. 22“The Son of Man* must suffer many terrible things,” he said. “He will be rejected by the elders, the leading priests, and the teachers of religious law. He will be killed, but on the third day he will be raised from the dead.”

23Then he said to the crowd, “If any of you wants to be my follower, you must turn from your selfish ways, take up your cross daily, and follow me. 24If you try to hang on to your life, you will lose it. But if you give up your life for my sake, you will save it. 25And what do you benefit if you gain the whole world but are yourself lost or destroyed? 26If anyone is ashamed of me and my message, the Son of Man will be ashamed of that person when he returns in his glory and in the glory of the Father and the holy angels. 27I tell you the truth, some standing here right now will not die before they see the Kingdom of God.”

THE TRANSFIGURATION

28About eight days later Jesus took Peter, John, and James up on a mountain to pray. 29And as he was praying, the appearance of his face was transformed, and his clothes became dazzling white. 30Suddenly, two men, Moses and Elijah, appeared and began talking with Jesus. 31They were glorious to see. And they were speaking about his exodus from this world, which was about to be fulfilled in Jerusalem.

32Peter and the others had fallen asleep. When they woke up, they saw Jesus’ glory and the two men standing with him. 33As Moses and Elijah were starting to leave, Peter, not even knowing what he was saying, blurted out, “Master, it’s wonderful for us to be here! Let’s make three shelters as memorials*—one for you, one for Moses, and one for Elijah.” 34But even as he was saying this, a cloud overshadowed them, and terror gripped them as the cloud covered them.

35Then a voice from the cloud said, “This is my Son, my Chosen One.* Listen to him.” 36When the voice finished, Jesus was there alone. They didn’t tell anyone at that time what they had seen.

JESUS HEALS A DEMON-POSSESSED BOY

37The next day, after they had come down the mountain, a large crowd met Jesus. 38A man in the crowd called out to him, “Teacher, I beg you to look at my son, my only child. 39An evil spirit keeps seizing him, making him scream. It throws him into convulsions so that he foams at the mouth. It batters him and hardly ever leaves him alone. 40I begged your disciples to cast out the spirit, but they couldn’t do it.”

41Jesus said, “You faithless and corrupt people! How long must I be with you and put up with you?” Then he said to the man, “Bring your son here.”

42As the boy came forward, the demon knocked him to the ground and threw him into a violent convulsion. But Jesus rebuked the evil* spirit and healed the boy. Then he gave him back to his father. 43Awe gripped the people as they saw this majestic display of God’s power.

JESUS AGAIN PREDICTS HIS DEATH

While everyone was marveling at everything he was doing, Jesus said to his disciples, 44“Listen to me and remember what I say. The Son of Man is going to be betrayed into the hands of his enemies.”

45But they didn't know what he meant. Its significance was hidden from them, so they couldn't understand it, and they were afraid to ask him about it.

THE GREATEST IN THE KINGDOM

46Then his disciples began arguing about which of them was the greatest. 47But Jesus knew their thoughts, so he brought a little child to his side. 48Then he said to them, "Anyone who welcomes a little child like this on my behalf* welcomes me, and anyone who welcomes me also welcomes my Father who sent me. Whoever is the least among you is the greatest."

USING THE NAME OF JESUS

49John said to Jesus, "Master, we saw someone using your name to cast out demons, but we told him to stop because he isn't in our group."

50But Jesus said, "Don't stop him! Anyone who is not against you is for you."

OPPOSITION FROM SAMARITANS

51As the time drew near for him to ascend to heaven, Jesus resolutely set out for Jerusalem. 52He sent messengers ahead to a Samaritan village to prepare for his arrival. 53But the people of the village did not welcome Jesus because he was on his way to Jerusalem. 54When James and John saw this, they said to Jesus,
"Lord, should we call down fire from heaven to burn them up*?"
55But Jesus turned and rebuked them.*56So they went on to another village.

THE COST OF FOLLOWING JESUS

57As they were walking along, someone said to Jesus, "I will follow you wherever you go."

58But Jesus replied, “Foxes have dens to live in, and birds have nests, but the Son of Man has no place even to lay his head.”

59He said to another person, “Come, follow me.”

The man agreed, but he said, “Lord, first let me return home and bury my father.”

60But Jesus told him, “Let the spiritually dead bury their own dead!*
Your duty is to go and preach about the Kingdom of God.”

61Another said, “Yes, Lord, I will follow you, but first let me say good-bye to my family.”

62But Jesus told him, “Anyone who puts a hand to the plow and then looks back is not fit for the Kingdom of God.”

Luke 10

JESUS SENDS OUT HIS DISCIPLES

1The Lord now chose seventy-two* other disciples and sent them ahead in pairs to all the towns and places he planned to visit.
2These were his instructions to them: “The harvest is great, but the workers are few. So pray to the Lord who is in charge of the harvest; ask him to send more workers into his fields. 3Now go, and remember that I am sending you out as lambs among wolves. 4Don’t take any money with you, nor a traveler’s bag, nor an extra pair of sandals. And don’t stop to greet anyone on the road.

5“Whenever you enter someone’s home, first say, ‘May God’s peace be on this house.’ 6If those who live there are peaceful, the blessing will stand; if they are not, the blessing will return to you. 7Don’t move around from home to home. Stay in one place, eating and drinking what they provide. Don’t hesitate to accept hospitality, because those who work deserve their pay.

8“If you enter a town and it welcomes you, eat whatever is set before you. 9Heal the sick, and tell them, ‘The Kingdom of God is near you now.’ 10But if a town refuses to welcome you, go out into its streets and say, 11‘We wipe even the dust of your town from our feet to show that we have abandoned you to your fate. And know this—the Kingdom of God is near!’ 12I assure you, even wicked Sodom will be better off than such a town on judgment day.

13“What sorrow awaits you, Korazin and Bethsaida! For if the miracles I did in you had been done in wicked Tyre and Sidon, their people would have repented of their sins long ago, clothing themselves in burlap and throwing ashes on their heads to show their remorse. 14Yes, Tyre and Sidon will be better off on judgment day than you. 15And you people of Capernaum, will you be honored in heaven? No, you will go down to the place of the dead.*”

16Then he said to the disciples, “Anyone who accepts your message is also accepting me. And anyone who rejects you is rejecting me.
And anyone who rejects me is rejecting God, who sent me.”

17When the seventy-two disciples returned, they joyfully reported to him, “Lord, even the demons obey us when we use your name!”

18“Yes,” he told them, “I saw Satan fall from heaven like lightning!
19Look, I have given you authority over all the power of the enemy, and you can walk among snakes and scorpions and crush them.
Nothing will injure you. 20But don’t rejoice because evil spirits obey you; rejoice because your names are registered in heaven.”

JESUS’ PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING

21At that same time Jesus was filled with the joy of the Holy Spirit, and he said, “O Father, Lord of heaven and earth, thank you for hiding these things from those who think themselves wise and clever, and for revealing them to the childlike. Yes, Father, it pleased you to do it this way.

22“My Father has entrusted everything to me. No one truly knows the Son except the Father, and no one truly knows the Father except the Son and those to whom the Son chooses to reveal him.”

23Then when they were alone, he turned to the disciples and said, “Blessed are the eyes that see what you have seen. 24I tell you, many prophets and kings longed to see what you see, but they didn’t see it. And they longed to hear what you hear, but they didn’t hear it.”

THE MOST IMPORTANT COMMANDMENT

25One day an expert in religious law stood up to test Jesus by asking him this question: “Teacher, what should I do to inherit eternal life?”

26Jesus replied, “What does the law of Moses say? How do you read it?”

27The man answered, “‘You must love the LORD your God with all your heart, all your soul, all your strength, and all your mind.’ And, ‘Love your neighbor as yourself.’”*

28“Right!” Jesus told him. “Do this and you will live!”

29The man wanted to justify his actions, so he asked Jesus, “And who is my neighbor?”

THE ROAD TO JERICHO

PARABLE OF THE GOOD SAMARITAN

30Jesus replied with a story: “A Jewish man was traveling from Jerusalem down to Jericho, and he was attacked by bandits. They stripped him of his clothes, beat him up, and left him half dead beside the road.

31“By chance a priest came along. But when he saw the man lying there, he crossed to the other side of the road and passed him by.
32A Temple assistant* walked over and looked at him lying there, but he also passed by on the other side.

33“Then a despised Samaritan came along, and when he saw the man, he felt compassion for him. 34Going over to him, the Samaritan soothed his wounds with olive oil and wine and bandaged them. Then he put the man on his own donkey and took him to an inn, where he took care of him. 35The next day he handed the innkeeper two silver coins,* telling him, ‘Take care of this man.
If his bill runs higher than this, I’ll pay you the next time I’m here.’

36“Now which of these three would you say was a neighbor to the man who was attacked by bandits?” Jesus asked.

37The man replied, “The one who showed him mercy.”

Then Jesus said, “Yes, now go and do the same.”

THE VILLAGE OF BETHANY

JESUS VISITS MARTHA AND MARY

38As Jesus and the disciples continued on their way to Jerusalem, they came to a certain village where a woman named Martha welcomed him into her home. 39Her sister, Mary, sat at the Lord's feet, listening to what he taught. 40But Martha was distracted by the big dinner she was preparing. She came to Jesus and said, "Lord, doesn't it seem unfair to you that my sister just sits here while I do all the work? Tell her to come and help me."

41But the Lord said to her, "My dear Martha, you are worried and upset over all these details! 42There is only one thing worth being concerned about. Mary has discovered it, and it will not be taken away from her."

Luke 11

TEACHING ABOUT PRAYER

1Once Jesus was in a certain place praying. As he finished, one of his disciples came to him and said, "Lord, teach us to pray, just as John taught his disciples."

2Jesus said, "This is how you should pray:*

“Father, may your name be kept holy.
May your Kingdom come soon.

3Give us each day the food we need,*

4and forgive us our sins, as we forgive those who sin against us.
And don’t let us yield to temptation.*”

5Then, teaching them more about prayer, he used this story:
“Suppose you went to a friend’s house at midnight, wanting to borrow three loaves of bread. You say to him, 6‘A friend of mine has just arrived for a visit, and I have nothing for him to eat.’ 7And suppose he calls out from his bedroom, ‘Don’t bother me. The door is locked for the night, and my family and I are all in bed. I can’t help you.’ 8But I tell you this—though he won’t do it for friendship’s sake, if you keep knocking long enough, he will get up and give you whatever you need because of your shameless persistence.*

9“And so I tell you, keep on asking, and you will receive what you ask for. Keep on seeking, and you will find. Keep on knocking, and the door will be opened to you. 10For everyone who asks, receives.
Everyone who seeks, finds. And to everyone who knocks, the door will be opened.

11“You fathers—if your children ask* for a fish, do you give them a snake instead? 12Or if they ask for an egg, do you give them a scorpion? Of course not! 13So if you sinful people know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will your heavenly Father give the Holy Spirit to those who ask him.”

JESUS AND THE PRINCE OF DEMONS

14One day Jesus cast out a demon from a man who couldn’t speak, and when the demon was gone, the man began to speak. The crowds were amazed, 15but some of them said, “No wonder he can cast out demons. He gets his power from Satan,* the prince of demons.” 16Others, trying to test Jesus, demanded that he show them a miraculous sign from heaven to prove his authority.

17He knew their thoughts, so he said, “Any kingdom divided by civil war is doomed. A family splintered by feuding will fall apart. 18You say I am empowered by Satan. But if Satan is divided and fighting against himself, how can his kingdom survive? 19And if I am empowered by Satan, what about your own exorcists? They cast out demons, too, so they will condemn you for what you have said.
20But if I am casting out demons by the power of God,* then the Kingdom of God has arrived among you. 21For when a strong man like Satan is fully armed and guards his palace, his possessions are safe—22until someone even stronger attacks and overpowers him, strips him of his weapons, and carries off his belongings.

23“Anyone who isn’t with me opposes me, and anyone who isn’t working with me is actually working against me.

24“When an evil* spirit leaves a person, it goes into the desert, searching for rest. But when it finds none, it says, ‘I will return to the person I came from.’ 25So it returns and finds that its former home is all swept and in order. 26Then the spirit finds seven other spirits more evil than itself, and they all enter the person and live there. And so that person is worse off than before.”

27As he was speaking, a woman in the crowd called out, “God bless your mother—the womb from which you came, and the breasts that nursed you!”

28Jesus replied, “But even more blessed are all who hear the word of God and put it into practice.”

THE SIGN OF JONAH

29As the crowd pressed in on Jesus, he said, “This evil generation keeps asking me to show them a miraculous sign. But the only sign I will give them is the sign of Jonah. 30What happened to him was a sign to the people of Nineveh that God had sent him. What happens to the Son of Man* will be a sign to these people that he was sent by God.

31“The queen of Sheba* will stand up against this generation on judgment day and condemn it, for she came from a distant land to hear the wisdom of Solomon. Now someone greater than Solomon is here—but you refuse to listen. 32The people of Nineveh will also stand up against this generation on judgment day and condemn it, for they repented of their sins at the preaching of Jonah. Now someone greater than Jonah is here—but you refuse to repent.

RECEIVING THE LIGHT

33“No one lights a lamp and then hides it or puts it under a basket.*
Instead, a lamp is placed on a stand, where its light can be seen by all who enter the house.

34“Your eye is a lamp that provides light for your body. When your eye is good, your whole body is filled with light. But when it is bad, your body is filled with darkness. 35Make sure that the light you think you have is not actually darkness. 36If you are filled with light, with no dark corners, then your whole life will be radiant, as though a floodlight were filling you with light.”

JESUS CRITICIZES THE RELIGIOUS LEADERS

37As Jesus was speaking, one of the Pharisees invited him home for a meal. So he went in and took his place at the table.*38His host was amazed to see that he sat down to eat without first performing the hand-washing ceremony required by Jewish custom. 39Then the Lord said to him, “You Pharisees are so careful to clean the outside of the cup and the dish, but inside you are filthy—full of greed and wickedness! 40Fools! Didn't God make the inside as well as the outside? 41So clean the inside by giving gifts to the poor, and you will be clean all over.

42"What sorrow awaits you Pharisees! For you are careful to tithe even the tiniest income from your herb gardens,* but you ignore justice and the love of God. You should tithe, yes, but do not neglect the more important things.

43"What sorrow awaits you Pharisees! For you love to sit in the seats of honor in the synagogues and receive respectful greetings as you walk in the marketplaces. 44Yes, what sorrow awaits you! For you are like hidden graves in a field. People walk over them without knowing the corruption they are stepping on."

45"Teacher," said an expert in religious law, "you have insulted us, too, in what you just said."

46"Yes," said Jesus, "what sorrow also awaits you experts in religious law! For you crush people with unbearable religious demands, and you never lift a finger to ease the burden. 47What sorrow awaits you! For you build monuments for the prophets your own ancestors killed long ago. 48But in fact, you stand as witnesses who agree with what your ancestors did. They killed the prophets, and you join in their crime by building the monuments! 49This is what God in his wisdom said about you:* 'I will send prophets and apostles to them, but they will kill some and persecute the others.'

50"As a result, this generation will be held responsible for the murder of all God's prophets from the creation of the world—51from the murder of Abel to the murder of Zechariah, who was killed between the altar and the sanctuary. Yes, it will certainly be charged against this generation.

52“What sorrow awaits you experts in religious law! For you remove the key to knowledge from the people. You don’t enter the Kingdom yourselves, and you prevent others from entering.”

53As Jesus was leaving, the teachers of religious law and the Pharisees became hostile and tried to provoke him with many questions. 54They wanted to trap him into saying something they could use against him.

Luke 12

A WARNING AGAINST HYPOCRISY

1Meanwhile, the crowds grew until thousands were milling about and stepping on each other. Jesus turned first to his disciples and warned them, “Beware of the yeast of the Pharisees—their hypocrisy. 2The time is coming when everything that is covered up will be revealed, and all that is secret will be made known to all.
3Whatever you have said in the dark will be heard in the light, and what you have whispered behind closed doors will be shouted from the housetops for all to hear!

4“Dear friends, don’t be afraid of those who want to kill your body; they cannot do any more to you after that. 5But I’ll tell you whom to fear. Fear God, who has the power to kill you and then throw you into hell.* Yes, he’s the one to fear.

GOD LOVES YOU LUKE 12:6-12

6“What is the price of five sparrows—two copper coins*? Yet God does not forget a single one of them. 7And the very hairs on your head are all numbered. So don’t be afraid; you are more valuable to God than a whole flock of sparrows.

8“I tell you the truth, everyone who acknowledges me publicly here on earth, the Son of Man* will also acknowledge in the presence of God’s angels. 9But anyone who denies me here on earth will be denied before God’s angels. 10Anyone who speaks against the Son of Man can be forgiven, but anyone who blasphemes the Holy Spirit will not be forgiven.

11“And when you are brought to trial in the synagogues and before rulers and authorities, don’t worry about how to defend yourself or what to say, 12for the Holy Spirit will teach you at that time what needs to be said.”

PARABLE OF THE RICH FOOL

13Then someone called from the crowd, “Teacher, please tell my brother to divide our father’s estate with me.”

14Jesus replied, “Friend, who made me a judge over you to decide such things as that?” 15Then he said, “Beware! Guard against every kind of greed. Life is not measured by how much you own.”

16Then he told them a story: “A rich man had a fertile farm that produced fine crops. 17He said to himself, ‘What should I do? I don’t have room for all my crops.’ 18Then he said, ‘I know! I’ll tear down my barns and build bigger ones. Then I’ll have room enough to store all my wheat and other goods. 19And I’ll sit back and say to myself, “My friend, you have enough stored away for years to come. Now take it easy! Eat, drink, and be merry!”’

20“But God said to him, ‘You fool! You will die this very night. Then who will get everything you worked for?’

21“Yes, a person is a fool to store up earthly wealth but not have a rich relationship with God.”

TEACHING ABOUT MONEY AND POSSESSIONS

22Then, turning to his disciples, Jesus said, “That is why I tell you not to worry about everyday life—whether you have enough food to eat or enough clothes to wear. 23For life is more than food, and your body more than clothing. 24Look at the ravens. They don’t plant or harvest or store food in barns, for God feeds them. And you are far more valuable to him than any birds! 25Can all your worries add a single moment to your life? 26And if worry can’t accomplish a little thing like that, what’s the use of worrying over bigger things?

27“Look at the lilies and how they grow. They don’t work or make their clothing, yet Solomon in all his glory was not dressed as beautifully as they are. 28And if God cares so wonderfully for flowers that are here today and thrown into the fire tomorrow, he will certainly care for you. Why do you have so little faith?

29"And don't be concerned about what to eat and what to drink.
Don't worry about such things. 30These things dominate the thoughts of unbelievers all over the world, but your Father already knows your needs. 31Seek the Kingdom of God above all else, and he will give you everything you need.

32"So don't be afraid, little flock. For it gives your Father great happiness to give you the Kingdom.

33"Sell your possessions and give to those in need. This will store up treasure for you in heaven! And the purses of heaven never get old or develop holes. Your treasure will be safe; no thief can steal it and no moth can destroy it. 34Wherever your treasure is, there the desires of your heart will also be.

BE READY FOR THE LORD'S COMING

35"Be dressed for service and keep your lamps burning, 36as though you were waiting for your master to return from the wedding feast.
Then you will be ready to open the door and let him in the moment he arrives and knocks. 37The servants who are ready and waiting for his return will be rewarded. I tell you the truth, he himself will seat them, put on an apron, and serve them as they sit and eat! 38He may come in the middle of the night or just before dawn.* But whenever he comes, he will reward the servants who are ready.

39"Understand this: If a homeowner knew exactly when a burglar was coming, he would not permit his house to be broken into. 40You also must be ready all the time, for the Son of Man will come when least expected."

41Peter asked, "Lord, is that illustration just for us or for everyone?"

42And the Lord replied, “A faithful, sensible servant is one to whom the master can give the responsibility of managing his other household servants and feeding them. 43If the master returns and finds that the servant has done a good job, there will be a reward.
44I tell you the truth, the master will put that servant in charge of all he owns. 45But what if the servant thinks, ‘My master won’t be back for a while,’ and he begins beating the other servants, partying, and getting drunk? 46The master will return unannounced and unexpected, and he will cut the servant in pieces and banish him with the unfaithful.

47“And a servant who knows what the master wants, but isn’t prepared and doesn’t carry out those instructions, will be severely punished. 48But someone who does not know, and then does something wrong, will be punished only lightly. When someone has been given much, much will be required in return; and when someone has been entrusted with much, even more will be required.

JESUS CAUSES DIVISION

49“I have come to set the world on fire, and I wish it were already burning! 50I have a terrible baptism of suffering ahead of me, and I am under a heavy burden until it is accomplished. 51Do you think I have come to bring peace to the earth? No, I have come to divide people against each other! 52From now on families will be split apart, three in favor of me, and two against—or two in favor and three against.

53‘Father will be divided against son and son against father; mother against daughter and daughter against mother; and mother-in-law against daughter-in-law and daughter-in-law against mother-in-law.’*”

54Then Jesus turned to the crowd and said, “When you see clouds beginning to form in the west, you say, ‘Here comes a shower.’ And you are right. 55When the south wind blows, you say, ‘Today will be a scorcher.' And it is. 56You fools! You know how to interpret the weather signs of the earth and sky, but you don't know how to interpret the present times.

57"Why can't you decide for yourselves what is right? 58When you are on the way to court with your accuser, try to settle the matter before you get there. Otherwise, your accuser may drag you before the judge, who will hand you over to an officer, who will throw you into prison. 59And if that happens, you won't be free again until you have paid the very last penny.*"

Luke 13

A CALL TO REPENTANCE

1About this time Jesus was informed that Pilate had murdered some people from Galilee as they were offering sacrifices at the Temple. 2"Do you think those Galileans were worse sinners than all the other people from Galilee?" Jesus asked. "Is that why they suffered? 3Not at all! And you will perish, too, unless you repent of your sins and turn to God. 4And what about the eighteen people who died when the tower in Siloam fell on them? Were they the worst sinners in Jerusalem? 5No, and I tell you again that unless you repent, you will perish, too."

PARABLE OF THE BARREN FIG TREE

6Then Jesus told this story: "A man planted a fig tree in his garden and came again and again to see if there was any fruit on it, but he was always disappointed. 7Finally, he said to his gardener, 'I've waited three years, and there hasn't been a single fig! Cut it down. It's just taking up space in the garden.'

8"The gardener answered, 'Sir, give it one more chance. Leave it another year, and I'll give it special attention and plenty of fertilizer. 9If we get figs next year, fine. If not, then you can cut it down.'"

JESUS HEALS ON THE SABBATH

10One Sabbath day as Jesus was teaching in a synagogue, 11he saw a woman who had been crippled by an evil spirit. She had been bent double for eighteen years and was unable to stand up straight. 12When Jesus saw her, he called her over and said, "Dear woman, you are healed of your sickness!" 13Then he touched her, and instantly she could stand straight. How she praised God!

14But the leader in charge of the synagogue was indignant that Jesus had healed her on the Sabbath day. "There are six days of the week for working," he said to the crowd. "Come on those days to be healed, not on the Sabbath."

15But the Lord replied, "You hypocrites! Each of you works on the Sabbath day! Don't you untie your ox or your donkey from its stall on the Sabbath and lead it out for water? 16This dear woman, a daughter of Abraham, has been held in bondage by Satan for eighteen years. Isn't it right that she be released, even on the Sabbath?"

17This shamed his enemies, but all the people rejoiced at the wonderful things he did.

PARABLE OF THE MUSTARD SEED

18Then Jesus said, "What is the Kingdom of God like? How can I illustrate it? 19It is like a tiny mustard seed that a man planted in a garden; it grows and becomes a tree, and the birds make nests in its branches."

PARABLE OF THE YEAST

20He also asked, "What else is the Kingdom of God like? 21It is like the yeast a woman used in making bread. Even though she put only a little yeast in three measures of flour, it permeated every part of the dough."

THE NARROW DOOR

22Jesus went through the towns and villages, teaching as he went, always pressing on toward Jerusalem. 23Someone asked him, "Lord, will only a few be saved?"

He replied, 24"Work hard to enter the narrow door to God's Kingdom, for many will try to enter but will fail. 25When the master of the house has locked the door, it will be too late. You will stand outside knocking and pleading, 'Lord, open the door for us!' But he will reply, 'I don't know you or where you come from.' 26Then you will say, 'But we ate and drank with you, and you taught in our streets.' 27And he will reply, 'I tell you, I don't know you or where you come from. Get away from me, all you who do evil.'

28"There will be weeping and gnashing of teeth, for you will see Abraham, Isaac, Jacob, and all the prophets in the Kingdom of God, but you will be thrown out. 29And people will come from all over the world—from east and west, north and south—to take their places in the Kingdom of God. 30And note this: Some who seem least important now will be the greatest then, and some who are the greatest now will be least important then.*"

JESUS GRIEVES OVER JERUSALEM

31At that time some Pharisees said to him, "Get away from here if you want to live! Herod Antipas wants to kill you!"

32Jesus replied, “Go tell that fox that I will keep on casting out demons and healing people today and tomorrow; and the third day
I will accomplish my purpose. 33Yes, today, tomorrow, and the next day I must proceed on my way. For it wouldn’t do for a prophet of God to be killed except in Jerusalem!

34“O Jerusalem, Jerusalem, the city that kills the prophets and stones God’s messengers! How often I have wanted to gather your children together as a hen protects her chicks beneath her wings, but you wouldn’t let me. 35And now, look, your house is abandoned.
And you will never see me again until you say, ‘Blessings on the one who comes in the name of the LORD!’*”

Luke 14

JESUS HEALS ON THE SABBATH

1One Sabbath day Jesus went to eat dinner in the home of a leader of the Pharisees, and the people were watching him closely. 2There was a man there whose arms and legs were swollen.3Jesus asked the Pharisees and experts in religious law, “Is it permitted in the law to heal people on the Sabbath day, or not?” 4When they refused to answer, Jesus touched the sick man and healed him and sent him away. 5Then he turned to them and said, “Which of you doesn’t work on the Sabbath? If your son or your cow falls into a pit, don’t you rush to get him out?” 6Again they could not answer.

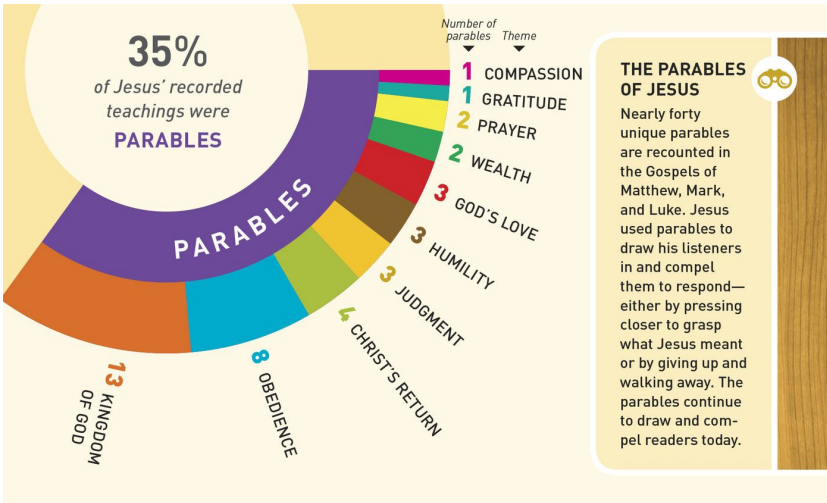
JESUS TEACHES ABOUT HUMILITY

7When Jesus noticed that all who had come to the dinner were trying to sit in the seats of honor near the head of the table, he gave them this advice: 8“When you are invited to a wedding feast, don’t sit in the seat of honor. What if someone who is more distinguished than you has also been invited? 9The host will come and say, ‘Give this person your seat.’ Then you will be embarrassed, and you will have to take whatever seat is left at the foot of the table!

10“Instead, take the lowest place at the foot of the table. Then when your host sees you, he will come and say, ‘Friend, we have a better place for you!’ Then you will be honored in front of all the other guests. 11For those who exalt themselves will be humbled, and those who humble themselves will be exalted.”

12Then he turned to his host. “When you put on a luncheon or a banquet,” he said, “don’t invite your friends, brothers, relatives, and rich neighbors. For they will invite you back, and that will be your only reward. 13Instead, invite the poor, the crippled, the lame, and the blind. 14Then at the resurrection of the righteous, God will reward you for inviting those who could not repay you.”



PARABLES OF JESUS

PARABLE OF THE GREAT FEAST

15 Hearing this, a man sitting at the table with Jesus exclaimed, "What a blessing it will be to attend a banquet* in the Kingdom of God!"

16 Jesus replied with this story: "A man prepared a great feast and sent out many invitations. 17 When the banquet was ready, he sent his servant to tell the guests, 'Come, the banquet is ready.' 18 But they all began making excuses. One said, 'I have just bought a field and must inspect it. Please excuse me.' 19 Another said, 'I have just bought five pairs of oxen, and I want to try them out. Please excuse me.' 20 Another said, 'I now have a wife, so I can't come.'

21 "The servant returned and told his master what they had said. His master was furious and said, 'Go quickly into the streets and alleys of the town and invite the poor, the crippled, the blind, and the lame.' 22 After the servant had done this, he reported, 'There is still room for more.' 23 So his master said, 'Go out into the country lanes and behind the hedges and urge anyone you find to come, so that the house will be full. 24For none of those I first invited will get even the smallest taste of my banquet.'"

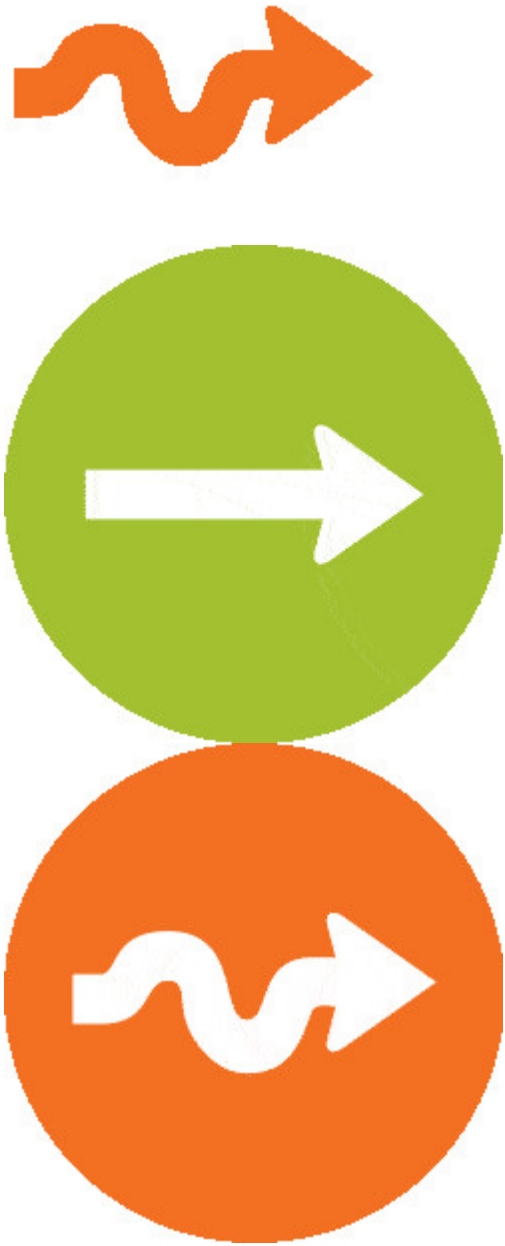
THE COST OF BEING A DISCIPLE

25A large crowd was following Jesus. He turned around and said to them, 26"If you want to be my disciple, you must hate everyone else by comparison—your father and mother, wife and children, brothers and sisters—yes, even your own life. Otherwise, you cannot be my disciple. 27And if you do not carry your own cross and follow me, you cannot be my disciple.

28"But don't begin until you count the cost. For who would begin construction of a building without first calculating the cost to see if there is enough money to finish it? 29Otherwise, you might complete only the foundation before running out of money, and then everyone would laugh at you. 30They would say, 'There's the person who started that building and couldn't afford to finish it!'

31"Or what king would go to war against another king without first sitting down with his counselors to discuss whether his army of 10,000 could defeat the 20,000 soldiers marching against him? 32And if he can't, he will send a delegation to discuss terms of peace while the enemy is still far away. 33So you cannot become my disciple without giving up everything you own.

34"Salt is good for seasoning. But if it loses its flavor, how do you make it salty again? 35Flavorless salt is good neither for the soil nor for the manure pile. It is thrown away. Anyone with ears to hear should listen and understand!"



Luke 15

PARABLE OF THE LOST SHEEP

1Tax collectors and other notorious sinners often came to listen to Jesus teach. 2This made the Pharisees and teachers of religious law complain that he was associating with such sinful people—even eating with them!

3So Jesus told them this story: 4"If a man has a hundred sheep and one of them gets lost, what will he do? Won't he leave the ninety-nine others in the wilderness and go to search for the one that is lost until he finds it? 5And when he has found it, he will joyfully carry it home on his shoulders. 6When he arrives, he will call together his friends and neighbors, saying, 'Rejoice with me because I have found my lost sheep.' 7In the same way, there is more joy in heaven over one lost sinner who repents and returns to God than over ninety-nine others who are righteous and haven't strayed away!

PARABLE OF THE LOST COIN

8"Or suppose a woman has ten silver coins* and loses one. Won't she light a lamp and sweep the entire house and search carefully until she finds it? 9And when she finds it, she will call in her friends and neighbors and say, 'Rejoice with me because I have found my lost coin.' 10In the same way, there is joy in the presence of God's angels when even one sinner repents."

PARABLE OF THE LOST SON

11To illustrate the point further, Jesus told them this story: "A man had two sons. 12The younger son told his father, 'I want my share of your estate now before you die.' So his father agreed to divide his wealth between his sons.

13"A few days later this younger son packed all his belongings and moved to a distant land, and there he wasted all his money in wild living. 14About the time his money ran out, a great famine swept over the land, and he began to starve. 15He persuaded a local farmer to hire him, and the man sent him into his fields to feed the pigs.

16The young man became so hungry that even the pods he was feeding the pigs looked good to him. But no one gave him anything.

17"When he finally came to his senses, he said to himself, 'At home even the hired servants have food enough to spare, and here I am dying of hunger! 18I will go home to my father and say, "Father, I have sinned against both heaven and you, 19and I am no longer worthy of being called your son. Please take me on as a hired servant."'

20"So he returned home to his father. And while he was still a long way off, his father saw him coming. Filled with love and compassion, he ran to his son, embraced him, and kissed him. 21His son said to him, 'Father, I have sinned against both heaven and you, and I am no longer worthy of being called your son.*'

22"But his father said to the servants, 'Quick! Bring the finest robe in the house and put it on him. Get a ring for his finger and sandals for his feet. 23And kill the calf we have been fattening. We must celebrate with a feast, 24for this son of mine was dead and has now returned to life. He was lost, but now he is found.' So the party began.

25"Meanwhile, the older son was in the fields working. When he returned home, he heard music and dancing in the house, 26and he asked one of the servants what was going on. 27'Your brother is back,' he was told, 'and your father has killed the fattened calf. We are celebrating because of his safe return.'

28"The older brother was angry and wouldn't go in. His father came out and begged him, 29but he replied, 'All these years I've slaved for you and never once refused to do a single thing you told me to. And in all that time you never gave me even one young goat for a feast with my friends. 30Yet when this son of yours comes back after squandering your money on prostitutes, you celebrate by killing the fattened calf!'

31"His father said to him, 'Look, dear son, you have always stayed by me, and everything I have is yours. 32We had to celebrate this happy day. For your brother was dead and has come back to life! He was lost, but now he is found!'"

Luke 16

PARABLE OF THE SHREWD MANAGER

1Jesus told this story to his disciples: "There was a certain rich man who had a manager handling his affairs. One day a report came that the manager was wasting his employer's money. 2So the employer called him in and said, 'What's this I hear about you? Get your report in order, because you are going to be fired.'

3"The manager thought to himself, 'Now what? My boss has fired me. I don't have the strength to dig ditches, and I'm too proud to beg. 4Ah, I know how to ensure that I'll have plenty of friends who will give me a home when I am fired.'

5"So he invited each person who owed money to his employer to come and discuss the situation. He asked the first one, 'How much do you owe him?' 6The man replied, 'I owe him 800 gallons of olive oil.' So the manager told him, 'Take the bill and quickly change it to 400 gallons.*'

7“‘And how much do you owe my employer?’ he asked the next man. ‘I owe him 1,000 bushels of wheat,’ was the reply. ‘Here,’ the manager said, ‘take the bill and change it to 800 bushels.*’

8“The rich man had to admire the dishonest rascal for being so shrewd. And it is true that the children of this world are more shrewd in dealing with the world around them than are the children of the light. 9Here’s the lesson: Use your worldly resources to benefit others and make friends. Then, when your earthly possessions are gone, they will welcome you to an eternal home.*

10“If you are faithful in little things, you will be faithful in large ones. But if you are dishonest in little things, you won’t be honest with greater responsibilities. 11And if you are untrustworthy about worldly wealth, who will trust you with the true riches of heaven? 12And if you are not faithful with other people’s things, why should you be trusted with things of your own?

13“No one can serve two masters. For you will hate one and love the other; you will be devoted to one and despise the other. You cannot serve both God and money.”

14The Pharisees, who dearly loved their money, heard all this and scoffed at him. 15Then he said to them, “You like to appear righteous in public, but God knows your hearts. What this world honors is detestable in the sight of God.

16“Until John the Baptist, the law of Moses and the messages of the prophets were your guides. But now the Good News of the Kingdom of God is preached, and everyone is eager to get in.* 17But that doesn’t mean that the law has lost its force. It is easier for heaven and earth to disappear than for the smallest point of God’s law to be overturned.

18“For example, a man who divorces his wife and marries someone else commits adultery. And anyone who marries a woman divorced from her husband commits adultery.”

AFTERLIFE LUKE 16:19-31

PARABLE OF THE RICH MAN AND LAZARUS

19Jesus said, “There was a certain rich man who was splendidly clothed in purple and fine linen and who lived each day in luxury.
20At his gate lay a poor man named Lazarus who was covered with sores. 21As Lazarus lay there longing for scraps from the rich man’s table, the dogs would come and lick his open sores.

22“Finally, the poor man died and was carried by the angels to be with Abraham.* The rich man also died and was buried, 23and his soul went to the place of the dead.* There, in torment, he saw Abraham in the far distance with Lazarus at his side.

24“The rich man shouted, ‘Father Abraham, have some pity! Send Lazarus over here to dip the tip of his finger in water and cool my tongue. I am in anguish in these flames.’

25“But Abraham said to him, ‘Son, remember that during your lifetime you had everything you wanted, and Lazarus had nothing. So now he is here being comforted, and you are in anguish. 26And besides, there is a great chasm separating us. No one can cross over to you from here, and no one can cross over to us from there.'

27"Then the rich man said, 'Please, Father Abraham, at least send him to my father's home. 28For I have five brothers, and I want him to warn them so they don't end up in this place of torment.'

29"But Abraham said, 'Moses and the prophets have warned them. Your brothers can read what they wrote.'

30"The rich man replied, 'No, Father Abraham! But if someone is sent to them from the dead, then they will repent of their sins and turn to God.'

31"But Abraham said, 'If they won't listen to Moses and the prophets, they won't be persuaded even if someone rises from the dead.'"

TEACHINGS ABOUT FORGIVENESS AND FAITH

1One day Jesus said to his disciples, “There will always be temptations to sin, but what sorrow awaits the person who does the tempting! 2It would be better to be thrown into the sea with a millstone hung around your neck than to cause one of these little ones to fall into sin. 3So watch yourselves!

“If another believer* sins, rebuke that person; then if there is repentance, forgive. 4Even if that person wrongs you seven times a day and each time turns again and asks forgiveness, you must forgive.”

5The apostles said to the Lord, “Show us how to increase our faith.”

6The Lord answered, “If you had faith even as small as a mustard seed, you could say to this mulberry tree, ‘May you be uprooted and thrown into the sea,’ and it would obey you!

7“When a servant comes in from plowing or taking care of sheep, does his master say, ‘Come in and eat with me’? 8No, he says, ‘Prepare my meal, put on your apron, and serve me while I eat.
Then you can eat later.’ 9And does the master thank the servant for doing what he was told to do? Of course not. 10In the same way, when you obey me you should say, ‘We are unworthy servants who have simply done our duty.’”

SAMARIA

TEN HEALED OF LEPROSY

11As Jesus continued on toward Jerusalem, he reached the border between Galilee and Samaria. 12As he entered a village there, ten lepers stood at a distance, 13crying out, “Jesus, Master, have mercy on us!”

14He looked at them and said, “Go show yourselves to the priests.”* And as they went, they were cleansed of their leprosy.

15One of them, when he saw that he was healed, came back to Jesus, shouting, “Praise God!” 16He fell to the ground at Jesus’ feet, thanking him for what he had done. This man was a Samaritan.

17Jesus asked, “Didn’t I heal ten men? Where are the other nine? 18Has no one returned to give glory to God except this foreigner?” 19And Jesus said to the man, “Stand up and go. Your faith has healed you.*”

THE COMING OF THE KINGDOM

20One day the Pharisees asked Jesus, “When will the Kingdom of God come?”

Jesus replied, “The Kingdom of God can’t be detected by visible signs.* 21You won’t be able to say, ‘Here it is!’ or ‘It’s over there!’ For the Kingdom of God is already among you.*”

22Then he said to his disciples, “The time is coming when you will long to see the day when the Son of Man returns,* but you won’t see

it. 23People will tell you, ‘Look, there is the Son of Man,’ or ‘Here he is,’ but don’t go out and follow them. 24For as the lightning flashes and lights up the sky from one end to the other, so it will be on the day* when the Son of Man comes. 25But first the Son of Man must suffer terribly* and be rejected by this generation.

26“When the Son of Man returns, it will be like it was in Noah’s day. 27In those days, the people enjoyed banquets and parties and weddings right up to the time Noah entered his boat and the flood came and destroyed them all.

28“And the world will be as it was in the days of Lot. People went about their daily business—eating and drinking, buying and selling, farming and building—29until the morning Lot left Sodom. Then fire and burning sulfur rained down from heaven and destroyed them all. 30Yes, it will be ‘business as usual’ right up to the day when the Son of Man is revealed. 31On that day a person out on the deck of a roof must not go down into the house to pack. A person out in the field must not return home. 32Remember what happened to Lot’s wife! 33If you cling to your life, you will lose it, and if you let your life go, you will save it. 34That night two people will be asleep in one bed; one will be taken, the other left. 35Two women will be grinding flour together at the mill; one will be taken, the other left.*”

37“Where will this happen, Lord?”* the disciples asked.

Jesus replied, “Just as the gathering of vultures shows there is a carcass nearby, so these signs indicate that the end is near.”*

Luke 18

PARABLE OF THE PERSISTENT WIDOW

1One day Jesus told his disciples a story to show that they should always pray and never give up. 2“There was a judge in a certain city," he said, "who neither feared God nor cared about people. 3A widow of that city came to him repeatedly, saying, 'Give me justice in this dispute with my enemy.' 4The judge ignored her for a while, but finally he said to himself, 'I don't fear God or care about people, 5but this woman is driving me crazy. I'm going to see that she gets justice, because she is wearing me out with her constant requests!'"

6Then the Lord said, "Learn a lesson from this unjust judge. 7Even he rendered a just decision in the end. So don't you think God will surely give justice to his chosen people who cry out to him day and night? Will he keep putting them off? 8I tell you, he will grant justice to them quickly! But when the Son of Man* returns, how many will he find on the earth who have faith?"

PARABLE OF THE PHARISEE AND TAX COLLECTOR

9Then Jesus told this story to some who had great confidence in their own righteousness and scorned everyone else: 10"Two men went to the Temple to pray. One was a Pharisee, and the other was a despised tax collector. 11The Pharisee stood by himself and prayed this prayer*: 'I thank you, God, that I am not a sinner like everyone else. For I don't cheat, I don't sin, and I don't commit adultery. I'm certainly not like that tax collector! 12I fast twice a week, and I give you a tenth of my income.'

13"But the tax collector stood at a distance and dared not even lift his eyes to heaven as he prayed. Instead, he beat his chest in sorrow, saying, 'O God, be merciful to me, for I am a sinner.' 14I tell you, this sinner, not the Pharisee, returned home justified before God. For those who exalt themselves will be humbled, and those who humble themselves will be exalted."

JESUS BLESSES THE CHILDREN

15One day some parents brought their little children to Jesus so he could touch and bless them. But when the disciples saw this, they scolded the parents for bothering him.

16Then Jesus called for the children and said to the disciples, “Let the children come to me. Don’t stop them! For the Kingdom of God belongs to those who are like these children. 17I tell you the truth, anyone who doesn’t receive the Kingdom of God like a child will never enter it.”

THE RICH MAN

18Once a religious leader asked Jesus this question: “Good Teacher, what should I do to inherit eternal life?”

19“Why do you call me good?” Jesus asked him. “Only God is truly good. 20But to answer your question, you know the commandments: ‘You must not commit adultery. You must not murder. You must not steal. You must not testify falsely. Honor your father and mother.’*”

21The man replied, “I’ve obeyed all these commandments since I was young.”

22When Jesus heard his answer, he said, “There is still one thing you haven’t done. Sell all your possessions and give the money to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven. Then come, follow me.”

23But when the man heard this he became very sad, for he was very rich.

24When Jesus saw this,* he said, “How hard it is for the rich to enter the Kingdom of God! 25In fact, it is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle than for a rich person to enter the Kingdom of God!”

26Those who heard this said, “Then who in the world can be saved?”

27He replied, “What is impossible for people is possible with God.”

28Peter said, “We’ve left our homes to follow you.”

29“Yes,” Jesus replied, “and I assure you that everyone who has given up house or wife or brothers or parents or children, for the sake of the Kingdom of God, 30will be repaid many times over in this life, and will have eternal life in the world to come.”

JESUS AGAIN PREDICTS HIS DEATH

31Taking the twelve disciples aside, Jesus said, “Listen, we’re going up to Jerusalem, where all the predictions of the prophets concerning the Son of Man will come true. 32He will be handed over to the Romans,* and he will be mocked, treated shamefully, and spit upon. 33They will flog him with a whip and kill him, but on the third day he will rise again.”

34But they didn’t understand any of this. The significance of his words was hidden from them, and they failed to grasp what he was talking about.

JESUS HEALS A BLIND BEGGAR

35As Jesus approached Jericho, a blind beggar was sitting beside the road. 36When he heard the noise of a crowd going past, he asked what was happening. 37They told him that Jesus the Nazarene* was going by. 38So he began shouting, “Jesus, Son of David, have mercy on me!”

39“Be quiet!” the people in front yelled at him.

But he only shouted louder, “Son of David, have mercy on me!”

40When Jesus heard him, he stopped and ordered that the man be brought to him. As the man came near, Jesus asked him, 41“What do you want me to do for you?”

“Lord,” he said, “I want to see!”

42And Jesus said, “All right, receive your sight! Your faith has healed you.” 43Instantly the man could see, and he followed Jesus, praising God. And all who saw it praised God, too.

JERICHO AND JERUSALEM

Luke 19

JESUS AND ZACCHAEUS

1Jesus entered Jericho and made his way through the town. 2There was a man there named Zacchaeus. He was the chief tax collector in the region, and he had become very rich. 3He tried to get a look at Jesus, but he was too short to see over the crowd. 4So he ran ahead and climbed a sycamore-fig tree beside the road, for Jesus was going to pass that way.

5When Jesus came by, he looked up at Zacchaeus and called him by name. “Zacchaeus!” he said. “Quick, come down! I must be a guest in your home today.”

6Zacchaeus quickly climbed down and took Jesus to his house in great excitement and joy. 7But the people were displeased. “He has gone to be the guest of a notorious sinner,” they grumbled.

8Meanwhile, Zacchaeus stood before the Lord and said, “I will give half my wealth to the poor, Lord, and if I have cheated people on their taxes, I will give them back four times as much!”

9Jesus responded, “Salvation has come to this home today, for this man has shown himself to be a true son of Abraham. 10For the Son of Man* came to seek and save those who are lost.”

PARABLE OF THE TEN SERVANTS

11The crowd was listening to everything Jesus said. And because he was nearing Jerusalem, he told them a story to correct the impression that the Kingdom of God would begin right away. 12He said, “A nobleman was called away to a distant empire to be crowned king and then return. 13Before he left, he called together ten of his servants and divided among them ten pounds of silver,* saying, ‘Invest this for me while I am gone.’ 14But his people hated him and sent a delegation after him to say, ‘We do not want him to be our king.’

15“After he was crowned king, he returned and called in the servants to whom he had given the money. He wanted to find out what their profits were. 16The first servant reported, ‘Master, I invested your money and made ten times the original amount!’

17“‘Well done!’ the king exclaimed. ‘You are a good servant. You have been faithful with the little I entrusted to you, so you will be governor of ten cities as your reward.'

18"The next servant reported, 'Master, I invested your money and made five times the original amount.'

19"'Well done!' the king said. 'You will be governor over five cities.'

20"But the third servant brought back only the original amount of money and said, 'Master, I hid your money and kept it safe. 21I was afraid because you are a hard man to deal with, taking what isn't yours and harvesting crops you didn't plant.'

22"'You wicked servant!' the king roared. 'Your own words condemn you. If you knew that I'm a hard man who takes what isn't mine and harvests crops I didn't plant, 23why didn't you deposit my money in the bank? At least I could have gotten some interest on it.'

24"Then, turning to the others standing nearby, the king ordered, 'Take the money from this servant, and give it to the one who has ten pounds.'

25"'But, master,' they said, 'he already has ten pounds!'

26"'Yes,' the king replied, 'and to those who use well what they are given, even more will be given. But from those who do nothing, even what little they have will be taken away. 27And as for these enemies of mine who didn't want me to be their king—bring them in and execute them right here in front of me.'"

JESUS' TRIUMPHANT ENTRY

28After telling this story, Jesus went on toward Jerusalem, walking ahead of his disciples. 29As he came to the towns of Bethphage and Bethany on the Mount of Olives, he sent two disciples ahead. 30"Go into that village over there," he told them. "As you enter it, you will see a young donkey tied there that no one has ever ridden. Untie it and bring it here. 31If anyone asks, 'Why are you untying that colt?' just say, 'The Lord needs it.'"

32So they went and found the colt, just as Jesus had said. 33And sure enough, as they were untying it, the owners asked them, "Why are you untying that colt?"

34And the disciples simply replied, "The Lord needs it." 35So they brought the colt to Jesus and threw their garments over it for him to ride on.

36As he rode along, the crowds spread out their garments on the road ahead of him. 37When he reached the place where the road started down the Mount of Olives, all of his followers began to shout and sing as they walked along, praising God for all the wonderful miracles they had seen.

38"Blessings on the King who comes in the name of the LORD! Peace in heaven, and glory in highest heaven!"*

39But some of the Pharisees among the crowd said, "Teacher, rebuke your followers for saying things like that!"

40He replied, "If they kept quiet, the stones along the road would burst into cheers!"

JESUS WEEPS OVER JERUSALEM

41But as he came closer to Jerusalem and saw the city ahead, he began to weep. 42"How I wish today that you of all people would understand the way to peace. But now it is too late, and peace is hidden from your eyes. 43Before long your enemies will build ramparts against your walls and encircle you and close in on you from every side. 44They will crush you into the ground, and your children with you. Your enemies will not leave a single stone in place, because you did not recognize it when God visited you.*"

JESUS CLEARS THE TEMPLE

45Then Jesus entered the Temple and began to drive out the people selling animals for sacrifices. 46He said to them, "The Scriptures declare, 'My Temple will be a house of prayer,' but you have turned it into a den of thieves."*

47After that, he taught daily in the Temple, but the leading priests, the teachers of religious law, and the other leaders of the people began planning how to kill him. 48But they could think of nothing, because all the people hung on every word he said.

Luke 20

THE AUTHORITY OF JESUS CHALLENGED

1One day as Jesus was teaching the people and preaching the Good News in the Temple, the leading priests, the teachers of religious law, and the elders came up to him. 2They demanded, "By what authority are you doing all these things? Who gave you the right?"

3"Let me ask you a question first," he replied. 4"Did John's authority to baptize come from heaven, or was it merely human?"

5They talked it over among themselves. "If we say it was from heaven, he will ask why we didn't believe John. 6But if we say it was merely human, the people will stone us because they are convinced John was a prophet." 7So they finally replied that they didn't know.

8And Jesus responded, “Then I won’t tell you by what authority I do these things.”

PARABLE OF THE EVIL FARMERS

9Now Jesus turned to the people again and told them this story: “A man planted a vineyard, leased it to tenant farmers, and moved to another country to live for several years. 10At the time of the grape harvest, he sent one of his servants to collect his share of the crop. But the farmers attacked the servant, beat him up, and sent him back empty-handed. 11So the owner sent another servant, but they also insulted him, beat him up, and sent him away empty-handed. 12A third man was sent, and they wounded him and chased him away.

13“‘What will I do?’ the owner asked himself. ‘I know! I’ll send my cherished son. Surely they will respect him.’

14“But when the tenant farmers saw his son, they said to each other, ‘Here comes the heir to this estate. Let’s kill him and get the estate for ourselves!’ 15So they dragged him out of the vineyard and murdered him.

“What do you suppose the owner of the vineyard will do to them?” Jesus asked. 16“I’ll tell you—he will come and kill those farmers and lease the vineyard to others.”

“How terrible that such a thing should ever happen,” his listeners protested.

17Jesus looked at them and said, “Then what does this Scripture mean?

18Everyone who stumbles over that stone will be broken to pieces, and it will crush anyone it falls on."

19The teachers of religious law and the leading priests wanted to arrest Jesus immediately because they realized he was telling the story against them—they were the wicked farmers. But they were afraid of the people's reaction.

TAXES FOR CAESAR

20Watching for their opportunity, the leaders sent spies pretending to be honest men. They tried to get Jesus to say something that could be reported to the Roman governor so he would arrest Jesus. 21"Teacher," they said, "we know that you speak and teach what is right and are not influenced by what others think. You teach the way of God truthfully. 22Now tell us—is it right for us to pay taxes to Caesar or not?"

23He saw through their trickery and said, 24"Show me a Roman coin.* Whose picture and title are stamped on it?"

"Caesar's," they replied.

25"Well then," he said, "give to Caesar what belongs to Caesar, and give to God what belongs to God."

26So they failed to trap him by what he said in front of the people. Instead, they were amazed by his answer, and they became silent.

DISCUSSION ABOUT RESURRECTION

27Then Jesus was approached by some Sadducees—religious leaders who say there is no resurrection from the dead. 28They posed this question: "Teacher, Moses gave us a law that if a man dies, leaving a wife but no children, his brother should marry the widow and have a child who will carry on the brother's name.*29Well, suppose there were seven brothers. The oldest one married and then died without children. 30So the second brother married the widow, but he also died. 31Then the third brother married her. This continued with all seven of them, who died without children. 32Finally, the woman also died. 33So tell us, whose wife will she be in the resurrection? For all seven were married to her!”

34Jesus replied, “Marriage is for people here on earth. 35But in the age to come, those worthy of being raised from the dead will neither marry nor be given in marriage. 36And they will never die again. In this respect they will be like angels. They are children of God and children of the resurrection.

37“But now, as to whether the dead will be raised—even Moses proved this when he wrote about the burning bush. Long after Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob had died, he referred to the Lord* as ‘the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob.’* 38So he is the God of the living, not the dead, for they are all alive to him.”

39“Well said, Teacher!” remarked some of the teachers of religious law who were standing there. 40And then no one dared to ask him any more questions.

WHOSE SON IS THE MESSIAH?

41Then Jesus presented them with a question. “Why is it,” he asked, “that the Messiah is said to be the son of David? 42For David himself wrote in the book of Psalms: ‘The LORD said to my Lord, Sit in the place of honor at my right hand

43until I humble your enemies, making them a footstool under your feet.’*

44Since David called the Messiah ‘Lord,’ how can the Messiah be his son?”

45Then, with the crowds listening, he turned to his disciples and said, 46“Beware of these teachers of religious law! For they like to parade around in flowing robes and love to receive respectful greetings as they walk in the marketplaces. And how they love the seats of honor in the synagogues and the head table at banquets.
47Yet they shamelessly cheat widows out of their property and then pretend to be pious by making long prayers in public. Because of this, they will be severely punished.”

Luke 21

THE WIDOW’S OFFERING

1While Jesus was in the Temple, he watched the rich people dropping their gifts in the collection box. 2Then a poor widow came by and dropped in two small coins.*

3“I tell you the truth,” Jesus said, “this poor widow has given more than all the rest of them. 4For they have given a tiny part of their surplus, but she, poor as she is, has given everything she has.”

5Some of his disciples began talking about the majestic stonework of the Temple and the memorial decorations on the walls. But Jesus said, 6“The time is coming when all these things will be completely demolished. Not one stone will be left on top of another!”

7“Teacher,” they asked, “when will all this happen? What sign will show us that these things are about to take place?”

8He replied, “Don’t let anyone mislead you, for many will come in my name, claiming, ‘I am the Messiah,’* and saying, ‘The time has come!’ But don’t believe them. 9And when you hear of wars and insurrections, don’t panic. Yes, these things must take place first, but the end won't follow immediately." 10Then he added, "Nation will go to war against nation, and kingdom against kingdom. 11There will be great earthquakes, and there will be famines and plagues in many lands, and there will be terrifying things and great miraculous signs from heaven.

12"But before all this occurs, there will be a time of great persecution. You will be dragged into synagogues and prisons, and you will stand trial before kings and governors because you are my followers. 13But this will be your opportunity to tell them about me.* 14So don't worry in advance about how to answer the charges against you, 15for I will give you the right words and such wisdom that none of your opponents will be able to reply or refute you! 16Even those closest to you—your parents, brothers, relatives, and friends—will betray you. They will even kill some of you. 17And everyone will hate you because you are my followers.* 18But not a hair of your head will perish! 19By standing firm, you will win your souls.

20"And when you see Jerusalem surrounded by armies, then you will know that the time of its destruction has arrived. 21Then those in Judea must flee to the hills. Those in Jerusalem must get out, and those out in the country should not return to the city. 22For those will be days of God's vengeance, and the prophetic words of the Scriptures will be fulfilled. 23How terrible it will be for pregnant women and for nursing mothers in those days. For there will be disaster in the land and great anger against this people. 24They will be killed by the sword or sent away as captives to all the nations of the world. And Jerusalem will be trampled down by the Gentiles until the period of the Gentiles comes to an end.

25"And there will be strange signs in the sun, moon, and stars. And here on earth the nations will be in turmoil, perplexed by the roaring seas and strange tides. 26People will be terrified at what they see coming upon the earth, for the powers in the heavens will be shaken. 27Then everyone will see the Son of Man* coming on a cloud with power and great glory.* 28So when all these things begin to happen, stand and look up, for your salvation is near!”

29Then he gave them this illustration: “Notice the fig tree, or any other tree. 30When the leaves come out, you know without being told that summer is near. 31In the same way, when you see all these things taking place, you can know that the Kingdom of God is near. 32I tell you the truth, this generation will not pass from the scene until all these things have taken place. 33Heaven and earth will disappear, but my words will never disappear.

34“Watch out! Don’t let your hearts be dulled by carousing and drunkenness, and by the worries of this life. Don’t let that day catch you unaware, 35like a trap. For that day will come upon everyone living on the earth. 36Keep alert at all times. And pray that you might be strong enough to escape these coming horrors and stand before the Son of Man.”

37Every day Jesus went to the Temple to teach, and each evening he returned to spend the night on the Mount of Olives. 38The crowds gathered at the Temple early each morning to hear him.

Luke 22

JUDAS AGREES TO BETRAY JESUS

1The Festival of Unleavened Bread, which is also called Passover, was approaching. 2The leading priests and teachers of religious law were plotting how to kill Jesus, but they were afraid of the people’s reaction.

3Then Satan entered into Judas Iscariot, who was one of the twelve disciples, 4and he went to the leading priests and captains of the Temple guard to discuss the best way to betray Jesus to them. 5They were delighted, and they promised to give him money. 6So he agreed and began looking for an opportunity to betray Jesus so they could arrest him when the crowds weren't around.

THE LAST SUPPER

7Now the Festival of Unleavened Bread arrived, when the Passover lamb is sacrificed. 8Jesus sent Peter and John ahead and said, "Go and prepare the Passover meal, so we can eat it together."

9"Where do you want us to prepare it?" they asked him.

10He replied, "As soon as you enter Jerusalem, a man carrying a pitcher of water will meet you. Follow him. At the house he enters, 11say to the owner, 'The Teacher asks: Where is the guest room where I can eat the Passover meal with my disciples?' 12He will take you upstairs to a large room that is already set up. That is where you should prepare our meal." 13They went off to the city and found everything just as Jesus had said, and they prepared the Passover meal there.

14When the time came, Jesus and the apostles sat down together at the table.*15Jesus said, "I have been very eager to eat this Passover meal with you before my suffering begins. 16For I tell you now that I won't eat this meal again until its meaning is fulfilled in the Kingdom of God."

17Then he took a cup of wine and gave thanks to God for it. Then he said, "Take this and share it among yourselves. 18For I will not drink wine again until the Kingdom of God has come."

19He took some bread and gave thanks to God for it. Then he broke it in pieces and gave it to the disciples, saying, "This is my body, which is given for you. Do this to remember me."

20After supper he took another cup of wine and said, “This cup is the new covenant between God and his people—an agreement confirmed with my blood, which is poured out as a sacrifice for
you.*

21“But here at this table, sitting among us as a friend, is the man who will betray me. 22For it has been determined that the Son of Man* must die. But what sorrow awaits the one who betrays him.”
23The disciples began to ask each other which of them would ever do such a thing.

24Then they began to argue among themselves about who would be the greatest among them. 25Jesus told them, “In this world the kings and great men lord it over their people, yet they are called ‘friends of the people.’ 26But among you it will be different. Those who are the greatest among you should take the lowest rank, and the leader should be like a servant. 27Who is more important, the one who sits at the table or the one who serves? The one who sits at the table, of course. But not here! For I am among you as one who serves.

28“You have stayed with me in my time of trial. 29And just as my Father has granted me a Kingdom, I now grant you the right 30to eat and drink at my table in my Kingdom. And you will sit on thrones, judging the twelve tribes of Israel.

JESUS PREDICTS PETER’S DENIAL

31“Simon, Simon, Satan has asked to sift each of you like wheat.
32But I have pleaded in prayer for you, Simon, that your faith should not fail. So when you have repented and turned to me again, strengthen your brothers.”

33Peter said, “Lord, I am ready to go to prison with you, and even to die with you.”

34But Jesus said, “Peter, let me tell you something. Before the rooster crows tomorrow morning, you will deny three times that you even know me.”

35Then Jesus asked them, “When I sent you out to preach the Good News and you did not have money, a traveler’s bag, or an extra pair of sandals, did you need anything?”

“No,” they replied.

36“But now,” he said, “take your money and a traveler’s bag. And if you don’t have a sword, sell your cloak and buy one! 37For the time has come for this prophecy about me to be fulfilled: ‘He was counted among the rebels.’* Yes, everything written about me by the prophets will come true.”

38“Look, Lord,” they replied, “we have two swords among us.”

“That’s enough,” he said.

JESUS PRAYS ON THE MOUNT OF OLIVES

39Then, accompanied by the disciples, Jesus left the upstairs room and went as usual to the Mount of Olives. 40There he told them, “Pray that you will not give in to temptation.”

41He walked away, about a stone’s throw, and knelt down and prayed, 42“Father, if you are willing, please take this cup of suffering away from me. Yet I want your will to be done, not mine.” 43Then an angel from heaven appeared and strengthened him. 44He prayed more fervently, and he was in such agony of spirit that his sweat fell to the ground like great drops of blood.*

45At last he stood up again and returned to the disciples, only to find them asleep, exhausted from grief. 46“Why are you sleeping?”
he asked them. “Get up and pray, so that you will not give in to temptation."

JESUS IS BETRAYED AND ARRESTED

47But even as Jesus said this, a crowd approached, led by Judas, one of the twelve disciples. Judas walked over to Jesus to greet him with a kiss. 48But Jesus said, "Judas, would you betray the Son of Man with a kiss?"

49When the other disciples saw what was about to happen, they exclaimed, "Lord, should we fight? We brought the swords!" 50And one of them struck at the high priest's slave, slashing off his right ear.

51But Jesus said, "No more of this." And he touched the man's ear and healed him.

52Then Jesus spoke to the leading priests, the captains of the Temple guard, and the elders who had come for him. "Am I some dangerous revolutionary," he asked, "that you come with swords and clubs to arrest me? 53Why didn't you arrest me in the Temple? I was there every day. But this is your moment, the time when the power of darkness reigns."

EASTER LUKE 22:54-62

PETER DENIES JESUS

54So they arrested him and led him to the high priest's home. And Peter followed at a distance. 55The guards lit a fire in the middle of the courtyard and sat around it, and Peter joined them there. 56A servant girl noticed him in the firelight and began staring at him.
Finally she said, "This man was one of Jesus' followers!"

57But Peter denied it. "Woman," he said, "I don't even know him!"

58After a while someone else looked at him and said, "You must be one of them!"

"No, man, I'm not!" Peter retorted.

59About an hour later someone else insisted, "This must be one of them, because he is a Galilean, too."

60But Peter said, "Man, I don't know what you are talking about."
And immediately, while he was still speaking, the rooster crowed.

61At that moment the Lord turned and looked at Peter. Suddenly, the Lord's words flashed through Peter's mind: "Before the rooster crows tomorrow morning, you will deny three times that you even know me." 62And Peter left the courtyard, weeping bitterly.

63The guards in charge of Jesus began mocking and beating him.
64They blindfolded him and said, "Prophesy to us! Who hit you that time?" 65And they hurled all sorts of terrible insults at him.

JESUS BEFORE THE COUNCIL

66At daybreak all the elders of the people assembled, including the leading priests and the teachers of religious law. Jesus was led before this high council,*67and they said, “Tell us, are you the Messiah?”

But he replied, “If I tell you, you won’t believe me. 68And if I ask you a question, you won’t answer. 69But from now on the Son of Man will be seated in the place of power at God’s right hand.*”

70They all shouted, “So, are you claiming to be the Son of God?”

And he replied, “You say that I am.”

71“Why do we need other witnesses?” they said. “We ourselves heard him say it.”

Luke 23

JESUS’ TRIAL BEFORE PILATE

1Then the entire council took Jesus to Pilate, the Roman governor.
2They began to state their case: “This man has been leading our people astray by telling them not to pay their taxes to the Roman government and by claiming he is the Messiah, a king.”

3So Pilate asked him, “Are you the king of the Jews?”

Jesus replied, “You have said it.”

4Pilate turned to the leading priests and to the crowd and said, “I find nothing wrong with this man!”

5Then they became insistent. “But he is causing riots by his teaching wherever he goes—all over Judea, from Galilee to Jerusalem!”

6“Oh, is he a Galilean?” Pilate asked. 7When they said that he was, Pilate sent him to Herod Antipas, because Galilee was under Herod’s jurisdiction, and Herod happened to be in Jerusalem at the time.

8Herod was delighted at the opportunity to see Jesus, because he had heard about him and had been hoping for a long time to see him perform a miracle. 9He asked Jesus question after question, but Jesus refused to answer. 10Meanwhile, the leading priests and the teachers of religious law stood there shouting their accusations.
11Then Herod and his soldiers began mocking and ridiculing Jesus.
Finally, they put a royal robe on him and sent him back to Pilate.
12(Herod and Pilate, who had been enemies before, became friends that day.)

13Then Pilate called together the leading priests and other religious leaders, along with the people, 14and he announced his verdict.
“You brought this man to me, accusing him of leading a revolt. I have examined him thoroughly on this point in your presence and find him innocent. 15Herod came to the same conclusion and sent him back to us. Nothing this man has done calls for the death penalty. 16So I will have him flogged, and then I will release him."*

18Then a mighty roar rose from the crowd, and with one voice they shouted, "Kill him, and release Barabbas to us!" 19(Barabbas was in prison for taking part in an insurrection in Jerusalem against the government, and for murder.) 20Pilate argued with them, because he wanted to release Jesus. 21But they kept shouting, "Crucify him! Crucify him!"

22For the third time he demanded, "Why? What crime has he committed? I have found no reason to sentence him to death. So I will have him flogged, and then I will release him."

23But the mob shouted louder and louder, demanding that Jesus be crucified, and their voices prevailed. 24So Pilate sentenced Jesus to die as they demanded. 25As they had requested, he released Barabbas, the man in prison for insurrection and murder. But he turned Jesus over to them to do as they wished.

THE CRUCIFIXION

26As they led Jesus away, a man named Simon, who was from Cyrene,* happened to be coming in from the countryside. The soldiers seized him and put the cross on him and made him carry it behind Jesus. 27A large crowd trailed behind, including many grief-stricken women. 28But Jesus turned and said to them, "Daughters of Jerusalem, don't weep for me, but weep for yourselves and for your children. 29For the days are coming when they will say, 'Fortunate indeed are the women who are childless, the wombs that have not borne a child and the breasts that have never nursed.' 30People will beg the mountains, 'Fall on us,' and plead with the hills, 'Bury us.'* 31For if these things are done when the tree is green, what will happen when it is dry?*"

AFTERLIFE LUKE 23:32-43

32Two others, both criminals, were led out to be executed with him.
33When they came to a place called The Skull,* they nailed him to the cross. And the criminals were also crucified—one on his right and one on his left.

34Jesus said, “Father, forgive them, for they don’t know what they are doing.”* And the soldiers gambled for his clothes by throwing dice.*

35The crowd watched and the leaders scoffed. “He saved others,” they said, “let him save himself if he is really God’s Messiah, the Chosen One.” 36The soldiers mocked him, too, by offering him a drink of sour wine. 37They called out to him, “If you are the King of the Jews, save yourself!” 38A sign was fastened above him with these words: “This is the King of the Jews.”

39One of the criminals hanging beside him scoffed, “So you’re the Messiah, are you? Prove it by saving yourself—and us, too, while you’re at it!”

40But the other criminal protested, “Don’t you fear God even when you have been sentenced to die? 41We deserve to die for our crimes, but this man hasn’t done anything wrong.” 42Then he said, “Jesus, remember me when you come into your Kingdom.”

43And Jesus replied, “I assure you, today you will be with me in paradise.”

THE DEATH OF JESUS

44By this time it was about noon, and darkness fell across the whole land until three o’clock. 45The light from the sun was gone. And suddenly, the curtain in the sanctuary of the Temple was torn down the middle. 46Then Jesus shouted, “Father, I entrust my spirit into your hands!”* And with those words he breathed his last.

47When the Roman officer* overseeing the execution saw what had happened, he worshiped God and said, “Surely this man was innocent.*” 48And when all the crowd that came to see the crucifixion saw what had happened, they went home in deep sorrow.*49But Jesus’ friends, including the women who had followed him from Galilee, stood at a distance watching.

THE BURIAL OF JESUS

50Now there was a good and righteous man named Joseph. He was a member of the Jewish high council, 51but he had not agreed with the decision and actions of the other religious leaders. He was from the town of Arimathea in Judea, and he was waiting for the Kingdom of God to come. 52He went to Pilate and asked for Jesus’ body. 53Then he took the body down from the cross and wrapped it in a long sheet of linen cloth and laid it in a new tomb that had been carved out of rock. 54This was done late on Friday afternoon, the day of preparation,* as the Sabbath was about to begin.

55As his body was taken away, the women from Galilee followed and saw the tomb where his body was placed. 56Then they went home and prepared spices and ointments to anoint his body. But by the time they were finished the Sabbath had begun, so they rested as required by the law.

Luke 24

THE RESURRECTION

1But very early on Sunday morning* the women went to the tomb, taking the spices they had prepared. 2They found that the stone had been rolled away from the entrance. 3So they went in, but they didn't find the body of the Lord Jesus. 4As they stood there puzzled, two men suddenly appeared to them, clothed in dazzling robes.

5The women were terrified and bowed with their faces to the ground. Then the men asked, "Why are you looking among the dead for someone who is alive? 6He isn't here! He is risen from the dead!
Remember what he told you back in Galilee, 7that the Son of Man* must be betrayed into the hands of sinful men and be crucified, and that he would rise again on the third day."

8Then they remembered that he had said this. 9So they rushed back from the tomb to tell his eleven disciples—and everyone else—what had happened. 10It was Mary Magdalene, Joanna, Mary the mother of James, and several other women who told the apostles what had happened. 11But the story sounded like nonsense to the men, so they didn't believe it. 12However, Peter jumped up and ran to the tomb to look. Stooping, he peered in and saw the empty linen wrappings; then he went home again, wondering what had happened.

THE ROAD TO EMMAUS

THE WALK TO EMMAUS

13That same day two of Jesus' followers were walking to the village of Emmaus, seven miles* from Jerusalem. 14As they walked along they were talking about everything that had happened. 15As they talked and discussed these things, Jesus himself suddenly came and began walking with them. 16But God kept them from recognizing him.

17He asked them, “What are you discussing so intently as you walk along?”

They stopped short, sadness written across their faces. 18Then one of them, Cleopas, replied, “You must be the only person in Jerusalem who hasn’t heard about all the things that have happened there the last few days.”

19“What things?” Jesus asked.

“The things that happened to Jesus, the man from Nazareth,” they said. “He was a prophet who did powerful miracles, and he was a mighty teacher in the eyes of God and all the people. 20But our leading priests and other religious leaders handed him over to be condemned to death, and they crucified him. 21We had hoped he was the Messiah who had come to rescue Israel. This all happened three days ago.

22“Then some women from our group of his followers were at his tomb early this morning, and they came back with an amazing report. 23They said his body was missing, and they had seen angels who told them Jesus is alive! 24Some of our men ran out to see, and sure enough, his body was gone, just as the women had said.”

25Then Jesus said to them, “You foolish people! You find it so hard to believe all that the prophets wrote in the Scriptures. 26Wasn’t it clearly predicted that the Messiah would have to suffer all these things before entering his glory?” 27Then Jesus took them through the writings of Moses and all the prophets, explaining from all the Scriptures the things concerning himself.

28By this time they were nearing Emmaus and the end of their journey. Jesus acted as if he were going on, 29but they begged him, “Stay the night with us, since it is getting late.” So he went home with them. 30As they sat down to eat,* he took the bread and blessed it. Then he broke it and gave it to them. 31Suddenly, their eyes were opened, and they recognized him. And at that moment he disappeared!

32They said to each other, “Didn’t our hearts burn within us as he talked with us on the road and explained the Scriptures to us?” 33And within the hour they were on their way back to Jerusalem. There they found the eleven disciples and the others who had gathered with them, 34who said, “The Lord has really risen! He appeared to Peter.*”

JESUS APPEARS AFTER HIS RESURRECTION

JESUS APPEARS TO THE DISCIPLES

35Then the two from Emmaus told their story of how Jesus had appeared to them as they were walking along the road, and how they had recognized him as he was breaking the bread. 36And just as they were telling about it, Jesus himself was suddenly standing there among them. “Peace be with you,” he said. 37But the whole group was startled and frightened, thinking they were seeing a ghost!

38“Why are you frightened?” he asked. “Why are your hearts filled with doubt? 39Look at my hands. Look at my feet. You can see that it’s really me. Touch me and make sure that I am not a ghost, because ghosts don’t have bodies, as you see that I do.” 40As he spoke, he showed them his hands and his feet.

41Still they stood there in disbelief, filled with joy and wonder. Then he asked them, “Do you have anything here to eat?” 42They gave him a piece of broiled fish, 43and he ate it as they watched.

44Then he said, “When I was with you before, I told you that everything written about me in the law of Moses and the prophets and in the Psalms must be fulfilled.” 45Then he opened their minds to understand the Scriptures. 46And he said, “Yes, it was written long ago that the Messiah would suffer and die and rise from the dead on the third day. 47It was also written that this message would be proclaimed in the authority of his name to all the nations,* beginning in Jerusalem: ‘There is forgiveness of sins for all who repent.’ 48You are witnesses of all these things.

49“And now I will send the Holy Spirit, just as my Father promised.
But stay here in the city until the Holy Spirit comes and fills you with power from heaven.”

THE ASCENSION

50Then Jesus led them to Bethany, and lifting his hands to heaven, he blessed them. 51While he was blessing them, he left them and was taken up to heaven. 52So they worshiped him and then returned to Jerusalem filled with great joy. 53And they spent all of their time in the Temple, praising God.

WELCOME TO

JOHN

John's Gospel is unique among the four Gospels. John doesn't start with Jesus' earthly life; instead, he starts "in the beginning" when Jesus, the Word, is living in perfect communion with God. John is less concerned about the specifics of Jesus' actions during his ministry and more concerned about what those actions say about who he is: the eternal Son of God. By focusing on seven of Jesus' miracles that show his divinity, John shows clearly that Jesus is not simply a great man. All that Jesus does and says springs from his life with God. Throughout this Gospel, Jesus talks with crowds and teaches his disciples, and many of their discussions center on his identity as the Son of God. John shows this clearly in his Gospel so that those who read it might believe in Christ and have eternal life (20:31).

3 STOPS

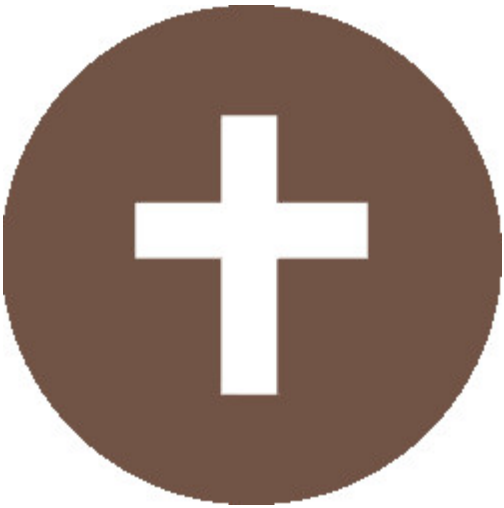
ON THE FLYOVER ROUTE: You'll stop three times in John to read about Jesus' ministry: how he feeds a hungry crowd, heals a blind man, and reveals the way to the Father. Your next stop is at John 6:1.

10 STOPS

ON THE DIRECT ROUTE: You'll stop ten times to study some of the most famous stories about Jesus. He turns water into wine, mingles with outcasts, feeds a crowd, gives life back to a dead friend, and comforts his disciples. Your next stop is at John 1:1.

12 STOPS

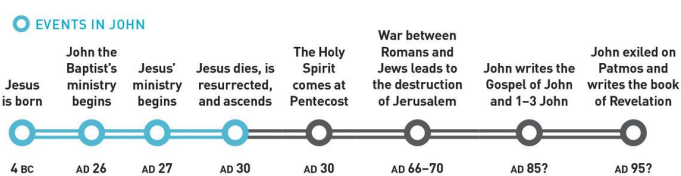
ON THE SCENIC ROUTE: Your stops in this book will give you more insights into Jesus' teachings, including some of his "I am" statements. You'll also read the famous section about Jesus being the Word, the one who reveals the Father. Your next stop is at John 1:1.



FINDING JESUS IN JOHN

Jesus is at the center of John's good news. In contrast to the other Gospel writers, John gives a more abstract view of Jesus. He is the Word with God, the One who shares the Father's glory and who is himself God. Jesus reveals God to us and gives eternal life. John provides a detailed account of the Last Supper and Jesus' death and resurrection, recording what Jesus did and said as well as people's reactions to him.

John's Gospel reveals Jesus as the Word, the Lamb of God, and the Chosen One. Jesus describes himself as the Bread of Life; the light of the world; the I AM; the gate for the sheep; the Good Shepherd; the resurrection and the life; the way, the truth, and the life; and the true grapevine.



John 1

PROLOGUE: CHRIST, THE ETERNAL WORD

1In the beginning the Word already existed.
The Word was with God, and the Word was God.

2He existed in the beginning with God.

3God created everything through him, and nothing was created except through him.

4The Word gave life to everything that was created,* and his life brought light to everyone.

5The light shines in the darkness, and the darkness can never extinguish it.*

6God sent a man, John the Baptist,*7to tell about the light so that everyone might believe because of his testimony. 8John himself was not the light; he was simply a witness to tell about the light. 9The one who is the true light, who gives light to everyone, was coming into the world.

10He came into the very world he created, but the world didn't recognize him. 11He came to his own people, and even they rejected him. 12But to all who believed him and accepted him, he gave the right to become children of God. 13They are reborn—not with a physical birth resulting from human passion or plan, but a birth that comes from God.

14So the Word became human* and made his home among us. He was full of unfailing love and faithfulness.* And we have seen his glory, the glory of the Father's one and only Son.

15John testified about him when he shouted to the crowds, "This is the one I was talking about when I said, 'Someone is coming after me who is far greater than I am, for he existed long before me.'"

16From his abundance we have all received one gracious blessing after another.17For the law was given through Moses, but God's unfailing love and faithfulness came through Jesus Christ. 18No one has ever seen God. But the unique One, who is himself God, is near to the Father's heart. He has revealed God to us.

THE TESTIMONY OF JOHN THE BAPTIST

19This was John's testimony when the Jewish leaders sent priests and Temple assistants* from Jerusalem to ask John, "Who are you?"
20He came right out and said, "I am not the Messiah."

21"Well then, who are you?" they asked. "Are you Elijah?"

"No," he replied.

"Are you the Prophet we are expecting?"*

"No."

22"Then who are you? We need an answer for those who sent us.
What do you have to say about yourself?"

23John replied in the words of the prophet Isaiah: "I am a voice shouting in the wilderness, 'Clear the way for the LORD's coming!'"*

24Then the Pharisees who had been sent 25asked him, "If you aren't the Messiah or Elijah or the Prophet, what right do you have to baptize?"

26John told them, "I baptize with* water, but right here in the crowd is someone you do not recognize. 27Though his ministry follows mine, I'm not even worthy to be his slave and untie the straps of his sandal."

28This encounter took place in Bethany, an area east of the Jordan River, where John was baptizing.

JESUS, THE LAMB OF GOD

29The next day John saw Jesus coming toward him and said, “Look! The Lamb of God who takes away the sin of the world! 30He is the one I was talking about when I said, ‘A man is coming after me who is far greater than I am, for he existed long before me.’ 31I did not recognize him as the Messiah, but I have been baptizing with water so that he might be revealed to Israel.”

32Then John testified, “I saw the Holy Spirit descending like a dove from heaven and resting upon him. 33I didn’t know he was the one, but when God sent me to baptize with water, he told me, ‘The one on whom you see the Spirit descend and rest is the one who will baptize with the Holy Spirit.’ 34I saw this happen to Jesus, so I testify that he is the Chosen One of God.*”

THE FIRST DISCIPLES

35The following day John was again standing with two of his disciples. 36As Jesus walked by, John looked at him and declared, “Look! There is the Lamb of God!” 37When John’s two disciples heard this, they followed Jesus.

38Jesus looked around and saw them following. “What do you want?” he asked them.

They replied, “Rabbi” (which means “Teacher”), “where are you staying?”

39“Come and see,” he said. It was about four o’clock in the afternoon when they went with him to the place where he was staying, and they remained with him the rest of the day.

40Andrew, Simon Peter’s brother, was one of these men who heard what John said and then followed Jesus. 41Andrew went to find his brother, Simon, and told him, “We have found the Messiah” (which means “Christ”*).

42Then Andrew brought Simon to meet Jesus. Looking intently at Simon, Jesus said, “Your name is Simon, son of John—but you will be called Cephas” (which means “Peter”*).

43The next day Jesus decided to go to Galilee. He found Philip and said to him, “Come, follow me.” 44Philip was from Bethsaida, Andrew and Peter’s hometown.

45Philip went to look for Nathanael and told him, “We have found the very person Moses* and the prophets wrote about! His name is Jesus, the son of Joseph from Nazareth.”

46“Nazareth!” exclaimed Nathanael. “Can anything good come from Nazareth?”

“Come and see for yourself,” Philip replied.

47As they approached, Jesus said, “Now here is a genuine son of Israel—a man of complete integrity.”

48“How do you know about me?” Nathanael asked.

Jesus replied, “I could see you under the fig tree before Philip found you.”

49Then Nathanael exclaimed, “Rabbi, you are the Son of God—the King of Israel!”

50Jesus asked him, “Do you believe this just because I told you I had seen you under the fig tree? You will see greater things than this.”
51Then he said, “I tell you the truth, you will all see heaven open and the angels of God going up and down on the Son of Man, the one who is the stairway between heaven and earth.*”

WEDDINGS JOHN 2:1-12

CANA

John 2

THE WEDDING AT CANA

1The next day* there was a wedding celebration in the village of Cana in Galilee. Jesus' mother was there, 2and Jesus and his disciples were also invited to the celebration. 3The wine supply ran out during the festivities, so Jesus' mother told him, "They have no more wine."

4"Dear woman, that's not our problem," Jesus replied. "My time has not yet come."

5But his mother told the servants, "Do whatever he tells you."

6Standing nearby were six stone water jars, used for Jewish ceremonial washing. Each could hold twenty to thirty gallons.*7Jesus told the servants, "Fill the jars with water." When the jars had been filled, 8he said, "Now dip some out, and take it to the master of ceremonies." So the servants followed his instructions.

9When the master of ceremonies tasted the water that was now wine, not knowing where it had come from (though, of course, the servants knew), he called the bridegroom over. 10"A host always serves the best wine first," he said. "Then, when everyone has had a lot to drink, he brings out the less expensive wine. But you have kept the best until now!"

11This miraculous sign at Cana in Galilee was the first time Jesus revealed his glory. And his disciples believed in him.

12After the wedding he went to Capernaum for a few days with his mother, his brothers, and his disciples.

TRAVELING TO JERUSALEM

Jesus probably traveled from Galilee to Jerusalem many times throughout his life. There are two likely routes that he may have taken, one through the Judean hills and one along the Jordan River.

John 2:13

TRAVELING TO JERUSALEM

JESUS CLEARS THE TEMPLE

13It was nearly time for the Jewish Passover celebration, so Jesus went to Jerusalem. 14In the Temple area he saw merchants selling cattle, sheep, and doves for sacrifices; he also saw dealers at tables exchanging foreign money. 15Jesus made a whip from some ropes and chased them all out of the Temple. He drove out the sheep and cattle, scattered the money changers' coins over the floor, and turned over their tables. 16Then, going over to the people who sold doves, he told them, "Get these things out of here. Stop turning my Father's house into a marketplace!"

17Then his disciples remembered this prophecy from the Scriptures:
"Passion for God's house will consume me."*

18But the Jewish leaders demanded, "What are you doing? If God gave you authority to do this, show us a miraculous sign to prove it."

19"All right," Jesus replied. "Destroy this temple, and in three days I will raise it up."

20"What!" they exclaimed. "It has taken forty-six years to build this Temple, and you can rebuild it in three days?" 21But when Jesus said "this temple," he meant his own body. 22After he was raised from the dead, his disciples remembered he had said this, and they believed both the Scriptures and what Jesus had said.

JERUSALEM UNDER HEROD'S RULE

JESUS AND NICODEMUS

23Because of the miraculous signs Jesus did in Jerusalem at the Passover celebration, many began to trust in him. 24But Jesus didn't trust them, because he knew all about people. 25No one needed to tell him about human nature, for he knew what was in each person's heart.

JESUS IN JERUSALEM

John 3

1There was a man named Nicodemus, a Jewish religious leader who was a Pharisee. 2After dark one evening, he came to speak with Jesus. “Rabbi,” he said, “we all know that God has sent you to teach us. Your miraculous signs are evidence that God is with you.”

3Jesus replied, “I tell you the truth, unless you are born again,* you cannot see the Kingdom of God.”

4“What do you mean?” exclaimed Nicodemus. “How can an old man go back into his mother’s womb and be born again?”

5Jesus replied, “I assure you, no one can enter the Kingdom of God without being born of water and the Spirit.* 6Humans can reproduce only human life, but the Holy Spirit gives birth to spiritual life.* 7So don’t be surprised when I say, ‘You* must be born again.’ 8The wind blows wherever it wants. Just as you can hear the wind but can’t tell where it comes from or where it is going, so you can’t explain how people are born of the Spirit.”

9“How are these things possible?” Nicodemus asked.

10Jesus replied, “You are a respected Jewish teacher, and yet you don’t understand these things? 11I assure you, we tell you what we know and have seen, and yet you won’t believe our testimony. 12But if you don’t believe me when I tell you about earthly things, how can you possibly believe if I tell you about heavenly things? 13No one has ever gone to heaven and returned. But the Son of Man* has come down from heaven. 14And as Moses lifted up the bronze snake on a pole in the wilderness, so the Son of Man must be lifted up, 15so that everyone who believes in him will have eternal life.*

GOD LOVES YOU JOHN 3:16-21

16“For this is how God loved the world: He gave* his one and only Son, so that everyone who believes in him will not perish but have eternal life. 17God sent his Son into the world not to judge the world, but to save the world through him.

18“There is no judgment against anyone who believes in him. But anyone who does not believe in him has already been judged for not believing in God’s one and only Son. 19And the judgment is based on this fact: God’s light came into the world, but people loved the darkness more than the light, for their actions were evil. 20All who do evil hate the light and refuse to go near it for fear their sins will be exposed. 21But those who do what is right come to the light so others can see that they are doing what God wants.*”

JOHN THE BAPTIST EXALTS JESUS

22Then Jesus and his disciples left Jerusalem and went into the Judean countryside. Jesus spent some time with them there, baptizing people.

23At this time John the Baptist was baptizing at Aenon, near Salim, because there was plenty of water there; and people kept coming to him for baptism. 24(This was before John was thrown into prison.) 25A debate broke out between John’s disciples and a certain Jew* over ceremonial cleansing. 26So John’s disciples came to him and said, “Rabbi, the man you met on the other side of the Jordan River, the one you identified as the Messiah, is also baptizing people. And everybody is going to him instead of coming to us.”

27John replied, “No one can receive anything unless God gives it from heaven. 28You yourselves know how plainly I told you, ‘I am not the Messiah. I am only here to prepare the way for him.’ 29It is the bridegroom who marries the bride, and the best man is simply glad to stand with him and hear his vows. Therefore, I am filled with joy at his success. 30He must become greater and greater, and I must become less and less.

31“He has come from above and is greater than anyone else. We are of the earth, and we speak of earthly things, but he has come from heaven and is greater than anyone else.*32He testifies about what he has seen and heard, but how few believe what he tells them!
33Anyone who accepts his testimony can affirm that God is true.
34For he is sent by God. He speaks God’s words, for God gives him the Spirit without limit. 35The Father loves his Son and has put everything into his hands. 36And anyone who believes in God’s Son has eternal life. Anyone who doesn’t obey the Son will never experience eternal life but remains under God’s angry judgment.”

John 4

JESUS AND THE SAMARITAN WOMAN

1Jesus* knew the Pharisees had heard that he was baptizing and making more disciples than John 2(though Jesus himself didn't baptize them—his disciples did). 3So he left Judea and returned to Galilee.

JACOB'S WELL

4He had to go through Samaria on the way. 5Eventually he came to the Samaritan village of Sychar, near the field that Jacob gave to his son Joseph. 6Jacob's well was there; and Jesus, tired from the long walk, sat wearily beside the well about noontime. 7Soon a Samaritan woman came to draw water, and Jesus said to her,
"Please give me a drink." 8He was alone at the time because his disciples had gone into the village to buy some food.

THE JEWS AND THE SAMARITANS

9The woman was surprised, for Jews refuse to have anything to do with Samaritans.* She said to Jesus, “You are a Jew, and I am a Samaritan woman. Why are you asking me for a drink?”

10Jesus replied, “If you only knew the gift God has for you and who you are speaking to, you would ask me, and I would give you living water.”

11“But sir, you don’t have a rope or a bucket,” she said, “and this well is very deep. Where would you get this living water? 12And besides, do you think you’re greater than our ancestor Jacob, who gave us this well? How can you offer better water than he and his sons and his animals enjoyed?”

13Jesus replied, “Anyone who drinks this water will soon become thirsty again. 14But those who drink the water I give will never be thirsty again. It becomes a fresh, bubbling spring within them, giving them eternal life.”

15“Please, sir,” the woman said, “give me this water! Then I’ll never be thirsty again, and I won’t have to come here to get water.”

16“Go and get your husband,” Jesus told her.

17“I don’t have a husband,” the woman replied.

Jesus said, “You’re right! You don’t have a husband—18for you have had five husbands, and you aren’t even married to the man you’re living with now. You certainly spoke the truth!”

19“Sir,” the woman said, “you must be a prophet. 20So tell me, why is it that you Jews insist that Jerusalem is the only place of worship, while we Samaritans claim it is here at Mount Gerizim,* where our ancestors worshiped?”

21Jesus replied, “Believe me, dear woman, the time is coming when it will no longer matter whether you worship the Father on this mountain or in Jerusalem. 22You Samaritans know very little about the one you worship, while we Jews know all about him, for salvation comes through the Jews. 23But the time is coming—indeed it’s here now—when true worshipers will worship the Father in spirit and in truth. The Father is looking for those who will worship him that way. 24For God is Spirit, so those who worship him must worship in spirit and in truth.”

25The woman said, “I know the Messiah is coming—the one who is called Christ. When he comes, he will explain everything to us.”

26Then Jesus told her, “I AM the Messiah!”*

27Just then his disciples came back. They were shocked to find him talking to a woman, but none of them had the nerve to ask, “What do you want with her?” or “Why are you talking to her?” 28The woman left her water jar beside the well and ran back to the village, telling everyone, 29“Come and see a man who told me everything I ever did! Could he possibly be the Messiah?” 30So the people came streaming from the village to see him.

31Meanwhile, the disciples were urging Jesus, “Rabbi, eat something.”

32But Jesus replied, “I have a kind of food you know nothing about.”

33“Did someone bring him food while we were gone?” the disciples asked each other.

34Then Jesus explained: “My nourishment comes from doing the will of God, who sent me, and from finishing his work. 35You know the saying, ‘Four months between planting and harvest.’ But I say, wake up and look around. The fields are already ripe* for harvest.
36The harvesters are paid good wages, and the fruit they harvest is people brought to eternal life. What joy awaits both the planter and the harvester alike! 37You know the saying, ‘One plants and another harvests.’ And it’s true. 38I sent you to harvest where you didn’t plant; others had already done the work, and now you will get to gather the harvest.”

MANY SAMARITANS BELIEVE

39Many Samaritans from the village believed in Jesus because the woman had said, “He told me everything I ever did!” 40When they came out to see him, they begged him to stay in their village. So he stayed for two days, 41long enough for many more to hear his message and believe. 42Then they said to the woman, “Now we believe, not just because of what you told us, but because we have heard him ourselves. Now we know that he is indeed the Savior of the world.”

JESUS HEALS AN OFFICIAL’S SON

43At the end of the two days, Jesus went on to Galilee. 44He himself had said that a prophet is not honored in his own hometown. 45Yet the Galileans welcomed him, for they had been in Jerusalem at the Passover celebration and had seen everything he did there.

46As he traveled through Galilee, he came to Cana, where he had turned the water into wine. There was a government official in nearby Capernaum whose son was very sick. 47When he heard that Jesus had come from Judea to Galilee, he went and begged Jesus to come to Capernaum to heal his son, who was about to die.

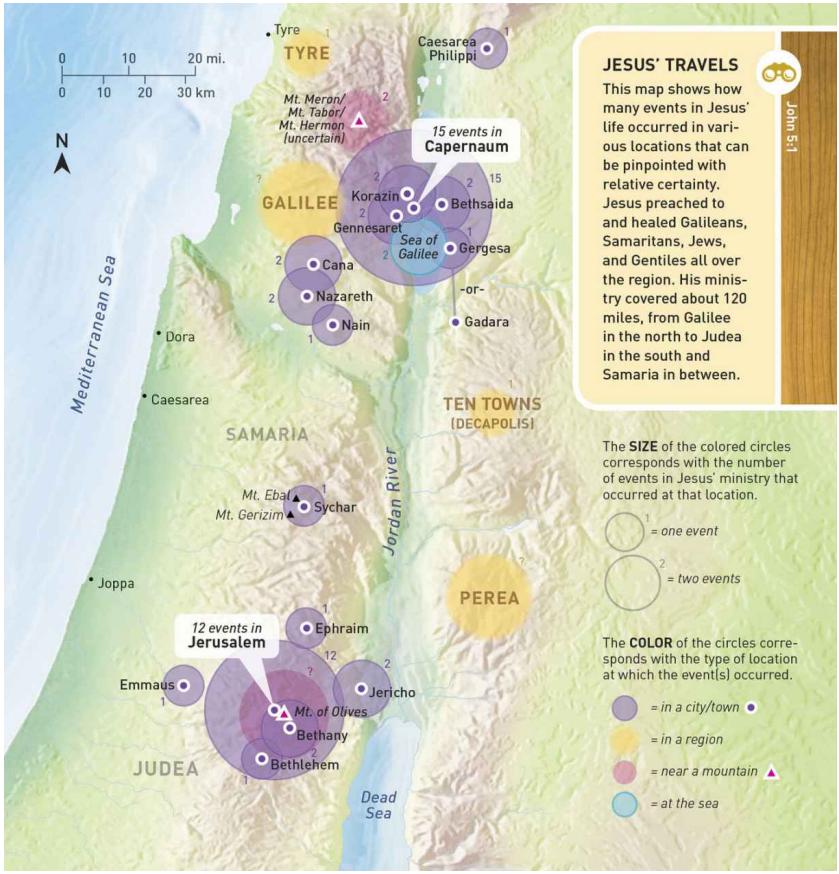
48Jesus asked, “Will you never believe in me unless you see miraculous signs and wonders?”

49The official pleaded, “Lord, please come now before my little boy dies.”

50Then Jesus told him, “Go back home. Your son will live!” And the man believed what Jesus said and started home.

51While the man was on his way, some of his servants met him with the news that his son was alive and well. 52He asked them when the boy had begun to get better, and they replied, “Yesterday afternoon at one o’clock his fever suddenly disappeared!” 53Then the father realized that that was the very time Jesus had told him, “Your son will live.” And he and his entire household believed in Jesus. 54This was the second miraculous sign Jesus did in Galilee after coming from Judea.



JESUS' TRAVELS

John 5

JESUS HEALS A LAME MAN

1 Afterward Jesus returned to Jerusalem for one of the Jewish holy days. 2 Inside the city, near the Sheep Gate, was the pool of Bethesda,* with five covered porches. 3 Crowds of sick people—blind, lame, or paralyzed—lay on the porches.* 5 One of the men lying there had been sick for thirty-eight years. 6 When Jesus saw him and knew he had been ill for a long time, he asked him,
"Would you like to get well?"

7“I can’t, sir,” the sick man said, “for I have no one to put me into the pool when the water bubbles up. Someone else always gets there ahead of me.”

8Jesus told him, “Stand up, pick up your mat, and walk!”

9Instantly, the man was healed! He rolled up his sleeping mat and began walking! But this miracle happened on the Sabbath, 10so the Jewish leaders objected. They said to the man who was cured, “You can’t work on the Sabbath! The law doesn’t allow you to carry that sleeping mat!”

11But he replied, “The man who healed me told me, ‘Pick up your mat and walk.’”

12“Who said such a thing as that?” they demanded.

13The man didn’t know, for Jesus had disappeared into the crowd.
14But afterward Jesus found him in the Temple and told him, “Now you are well; so stop sinning, or something even worse may happen to you.” 15Then the man went and told the Jewish leaders that it was Jesus who had healed him.

JESUS CLAIMS TO BE THE SON OF GOD

16So the Jewish leaders began harassing* Jesus for breaking the Sabbath rules. 17But Jesus replied, “My Father is always working, and so am I.” 18So the Jewish leaders tried all the harder to find a way to kill him. For he not only broke the Sabbath, he called God his Father, thereby making himself equal with God.

19So Jesus explained, “I tell you the truth, the Son can do nothing by himself. He does only what he sees the Father doing. Whatever the Father does, the Son also does. 20For the Father loves the Son and shows him everything he is doing. In fact, the Father will show him how to do even greater works than healing this man. Then you will truly be astonished. 21For just as the Father gives life to those he raises from the dead, so the Son gives life to anyone he wants. 22In addition, the Father judges no one. Instead, he has given the Son absolute authority to judge, 23so that everyone will honor the Son, just as they honor the Father. Anyone who does not honor the Son is certainly not honoring the Father who sent him.

24"I tell you the truth, those who listen to my message and believe in God who sent me have eternal life. They will never be condemned for their sins, but they have already passed from death into life.

25"And I assure you that the time is coming, indeed it's here now, when the dead will hear my voice—the voice of the Son of God. And those who listen will live. 26The Father has life in himself, and he has granted that same life-giving power to his Son. 27And he has given him authority to judge everyone because he is the Son of Man.* 28Don't be so surprised! Indeed, the time is coming when all the dead in their graves will hear the voice of God's Son, 29and they will rise again. Those who have done good will rise to experience eternal life, and those who have continued in evil will rise to experience judgment. 30I can do nothing on my own. I judge as God tells me. Therefore, my judgment is just, because I carry out the will of the one who sent me, not my own will.

WITNESSES TO JESUS

31"If I were to testify on my own behalf, my testimony would not be valid. 32But someone else is also testifying about me, and I assure you that everything he says about me is true. 33In fact, you sent investigators to listen to John the Baptist, and his testimony about me was true. 34Of course, I have no need of human witnesses, but I say these things so you might be saved. 35John was like a burning and shining lamp, and you were excited for a while about his message. 36But I have a greater witness than John—my teachings and my miracles. The Father gave me these works to accomplish, and they prove that he sent me. 37And the Father who sent me has testified about me himself. You have never heard his voice or seen him face to face, 38and you do not have his message in your hearts, because you do not believe me—the one he sent to you.

39"You search the Scriptures because you think they give you eternal life. But the Scriptures point to me! 40Yet you refuse to come to me to receive this life.

41"Your approval means nothing to me, 42because I know you don't have God's love within you. 43For I have come to you in my Father's name, and you have rejected me. Yet if others come in their own name, you gladly welcome them. 44No wonder you can't believe!
For you gladly honor each other, but you don't care about the honor that comes from the one who alone is God.*

45"Yet it isn't I who will accuse you before the Father. Moses will accuse you! Yes, Moses, in whom you put your hopes. 46If you really believed Moses, you would believe me, because he wrote about me.
47But since you don't believe what he wrote, how will you believe what I say?"

John 6

JESUS FEEDS FIVE THOUSAND

1After this, Jesus crossed over to the far side of the Sea of Galilee, also known as the Sea of Tiberias. 2A huge crowd kept following him wherever he went, because they saw his miraculous signs as he healed the sick. 3Then Jesus climbed a hill and sat down with his disciples around him. 4(It was nearly time for the Jewish Passover celebration.) 5Jesus soon saw a huge crowd of people coming to look for him. Turning to Philip, he asked, “Where can we buy bread to feed all these people?” 6He was testing Philip, for he already knew what he was going to do.

7Philip replied, “Even if we worked for months, we wouldn’t have enough money* to feed them!”

8Then Andrew, Simon Peter’s brother, spoke up. 9“There’s a young boy here with five barley loaves and two fish. But what good is that with this huge crowd?”

10“Tell everyone to sit down,” Jesus said. So they all sat down on the grassy slopes. (The men alone numbered about 5,000.) 11Then Jesus took the loaves, gave thanks to God, and distributed them to the people. Afterward he did the same with the fish. And they all ate as much as they wanted. 12After everyone was full, Jesus told his disciples, “Now gather the leftovers, so that nothing is wasted.” 13So they picked up the pieces and filled twelve baskets with scraps left by the people who had eaten from the five barley loaves.

14When the people saw him* do this miraculous sign, they exclaimed, “Surely, he is the Prophet we have been expecting!”*15When Jesus saw that they were ready to force him to be their king, he slipped away into the hills by himself.

JESUS WALKS ON WATER

16That evening Jesus’ disciples went down to the shore to wait for him. 17But as darkness fell and Jesus still hadn’t come back, they got into the boat and headed across the lake toward Capernaum. 18Soon a gale swept down upon them, and the sea grew very rough. 19They had rowed three or four miles* when suddenly they saw Jesus walking on the water toward the boat. They were terrified, 20but he called out to them, “Don’t be afraid. I am here!*” 21Then they were eager to let him in the boat, and immediately they arrived at their destination!

JESUS, THE BREAD OF LIFE

22The next day the crowd that had stayed on the far shore saw that the disciples had taken the only boat, and they realized Jesus had not gone with them. 23Several boats from Tiberias landed near the place where the Lord had blessed the bread and the people had eaten. 24So when the crowd saw that neither Jesus nor his disciples were there, they got into the boats and went across to Capernaum to look for him. 25They found him on the other side of the lake and asked, “Rabbi, when did you get here?”

26Jesus replied, “I tell you the truth, you want to be with me because I fed you, not because you understood the miraculous signs.
27But don’t be so concerned about perishable things like food.
Spend your energy seeking the eternal life that the Son of Man* can give you. For God the Father has given me the seal of his approval.”

28They replied, “We want to perform God’s works, too. What should we do?”

29Jesus told them, “This is the only work God wants from you: Believe in the one he has sent.”

30They answered, “Show us a miraculous sign if you want us to believe in you. What can you do? 31After all, our ancestors ate manna while they journeyed through the wilderness! The Scriptures say, ‘Moses gave them bread from heaven to eat.’*”

32Jesus said, “I tell you the truth, Moses didn’t give you bread from heaven. My Father did. And now he offers you the true bread from heaven. 33The true bread of God is the one who comes down from heaven and gives life to the world.”

34“Sir,” they said, “give us that bread every day.”

35Jesus replied, “I am the bread of life. Whoever comes to me will never be hungry again. Whoever believes in me will never be thirsty. 36But you haven’t believed in me even though you have seen me. 37However, those the Father has given me will come to me, and I will never reject them. 38For I have come down from heaven to do the will of God who sent me, not to do my own will. 39And this is the will of God, that I should not lose even one of all those he has given me, but that I should raise them up at the last day. 40For it is my Father's will that all who see his Son and believe in him should have eternal life. I will raise them up at the last day."

41Then the people* began to murmur in disagreement because he had said, "I am the bread that came down from heaven." 42They said, "Isn't this Jesus, the son of Joseph? We know his father and mother. How can he say, 'I came down from heaven'?"

43But Jesus replied, "Stop complaining about what I said. 44For no one can come to me unless the Father who sent me draws them to me, and at the last day I will raise them up. 45As it is written in the Scriptures,* 'They will all be taught by God.' Everyone who listens to the Father and learns from him comes to me. 46(Not that anyone has ever seen the Father; only I, who was sent from God, have seen him.)

47"I tell you the truth, anyone who believes has eternal life. 48Yes, I am the bread of life! 49Your ancestors ate manna in the wilderness, but they all died. 50Anyone who eats the bread from heaven, however, will never die. 51I am the living bread that came down from heaven. Anyone who eats this bread will live forever; and this bread, which I will offer so the world may live, is my flesh."

52Then the people began arguing with each other about what he meant. "How can this man give us his flesh to eat?" they asked.

53So Jesus said again, "I tell you the truth, unless you eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink his blood, you cannot have eternal life within you. 54But anyone who eats my flesh and drinks my blood has eternal life, and I will raise that person at the last day. 55For my flesh is true food, and my blood is true drink. 56Anyone who eats my flesh and drinks my blood remains in me, and I in him. 57I live because of the living Father who sent me; in the same way, anyone who feeds on me will live because of me. 58I am the true bread that came down from heaven. Anyone who eats this bread will not die as your ancestors did (even though they ate the manna) but will live forever."

59He said these things while he was teaching in the synagogue in Capernaum.

MANY DISCIPLES DESERT JESUS

60Many of his disciples said, "This is very hard to understand. How can anyone accept it?"

61Jesus was aware that his disciples were complaining, so he said to them, "Does this offend you? 62Then what will you think if you see the Son of Man ascend to heaven again? 63The Spirit alone gives eternal life. Human effort accomplishes nothing. And the very words I have spoken to you are spirit and life. 64But some of you do not believe me." (For Jesus knew from the beginning which ones didn't believe, and he knew who would betray him.) 65Then he said, "That is why I said that people can't come to me unless the Father gives them to me."

66At this point many of his disciples turned away and deserted him. 67Then Jesus turned to the Twelve and asked, "Are you also going to leave?"

68Simon Peter replied, "Lord, to whom would we go? You have the words that give eternal life. 69We believe, and we know you are the Holy One of God.*”

70Then Jesus said, “I chose the twelve of you, but one is a devil.” 71He was speaking of Judas, son of Simon Iscariot, one of the Twelve, who would later betray him.

John 7

JESUS AND HIS BROTHERS

1After this, Jesus traveled around Galilee. He wanted to stay out of Judea, where the Jewish leaders were plotting his death. 2But soon it was time for the Jewish Festival of Shelters, 3and Jesus’ brothers said to him, “Leave here and go to Judea, where your followers can see your miracles! 4You can’t become famous if you hide like this! If you can do such wonderful things, show yourself to the world!” 5For even his brothers didn’t believe in him.

6Jesus replied, “Now is not the right time for me to go, but you can go anytime. 7The world can’t hate you, but it does hate me because I accuse it of doing evil. 8You go on. I’m not going* to this festival, because my time has not yet come.” 9After saying these things, Jesus remained in Galilee.

JESUS TEACHES OPENLY AT THE TEMPLE

10But after his brothers left for the festival, Jesus also went, though secretly, staying out of public view. 11The Jewish leaders tried to find him at the festival and kept asking if anyone had seen him. 12There was a lot of grumbling about him among the crowds. Some argued, “He’s a good man,” but others said, “He’s nothing but a fraud who deceives the people.” 13But no one had the courage to speak favorably about him in public, for they were afraid of getting in trouble with the Jewish leaders.

14Then, midway through the festival, Jesus went up to the Temple and began to teach. 15The people* were surprised when they heard him. “How does he know so much when he hasn’t been trained?”
they asked.

16So Jesus told them, “My message is not my own; it comes from God who sent me. 17Anyone who wants to do the will of God will know whether my teaching is from God or is merely my own.
18Those who speak for themselves want glory only for themselves, but a person who seeks to honor the one who sent him speaks truth, not lies. 19Moses gave you the law, but none of you obeys it! In fact, you are trying to kill me.”

20The crowd replied, “You’re demon possessed! Who’s trying to kill
you?”

21Jesus replied, “I did one miracle on the Sabbath, and you were amazed. 22But you work on the Sabbath, too, when you obey Moses’ law of circumcision. (Actually, this tradition of circumcision began with the patriarchs, long before the law of Moses.) 23For if the correct time for circumcising your son falls on the Sabbath, you go ahead and do it so as not to break the law of Moses. So why should you be angry with me for healing a man on the Sabbath? 24Look beneath the surface so you can judge correctly.”

IS JESUS THE MESSIAH?

25Some of the people who lived in Jerusalem started to ask each other, “Isn’t this the man they are trying to kill? 26But here he is, speaking in public, and they say nothing to him. Could our leaders possibly believe that he is the Messiah? 27But how could he be? For we know where this man comes from. When the Messiah comes, he will simply appear; no one will know where he comes from.”

28While Jesus was teaching in the Temple, he called out, “Yes, you know me, and you know where I come from. But I’m not here on my own. The one who sent me is true, and you don't know him.

29But I know him because I come from him, and he sent me to you."
30Then the leaders tried to arrest him; but no one laid a hand on him, because his time* had not yet come.

31Many among the crowds at the Temple believed in him. "After all," they said, "would you expect the Messiah to do more miraculous signs than this man has done?"

32When the Pharisees heard that the crowds were whispering such things, they and the leading priests sent Temple guards to arrest Jesus. 33But Jesus told them, "I will be with you only a little longer.
Then I will return to the one who sent me. 34You will search for me but not find me. And you cannot go where I am going."

35The Jewish leaders were puzzled by this statement. "Where is he planning to go?" they asked. "Is he thinking of leaving the country and going to the Jews in other lands?* Maybe he will even teach the Greeks! 36What does he mean when he says, 'You will search for me but not find me,' and 'You cannot go where I am going'?"

JESUS PROMISES LIVING WATER

37On the last day, the climax of the festival, Jesus stood and shouted to the crowds, "Anyone who is thirsty may come to me! 38Anyone who believes in me may come and drink! For the Scriptures declare, 'Rivers of living water will flow from his heart.'"* 39(When he said
"living water," he was speaking of the Spirit, who would be given to everyone believing in him. But the Spirit had not yet been given,* because Jesus had not yet entered into his glory.)

DIVISION AND UNBELIEF

40When the crowds heard him say this, some of them declared,

“Surely this man is the Prophet we’ve been expecting.”*41Others said, “He is the Messiah.” Still others said, “But he can’t be! Will the Messiah come from Galilee? 42For the Scriptures clearly state that the Messiah will be born of the royal line of David, in Bethlehem, the village where King David was born.”*43So the crowd was divided about him. 44Some even wanted him arrested, but no one laid a hand on him.

45When the Temple guards returned without having arrested Jesus, the leading priests and Pharisees demanded, “Why didn’t you bring him in?”

46“We have never heard anyone speak like this!” the guards responded.

47“Have you been led astray, too?” the Pharisees mocked. 48“Is there a single one of us rulers or Pharisees who believes in him? 49This foolish crowd follows him, but they are ignorant of the law. God’s curse is on them!”

50Then Nicodemus, the leader who had met with Jesus earlier, spoke up. 51“Is it legal to convict a man before he is given a hearing?” he asked.

52They replied, “Are you from Galilee, too? Search the Scriptures and see for yourself—no prophet ever comes* from Galilee!”

[The most ancient Greek manuscripts do not include John 7:53–8:11.]

53Then the meeting broke up, and everybody went home.

John 8

A WOMAN CAUGHT IN ADULTERY

1Jesus returned to the Mount of Olives, 2but early the next morning he was back again at the Temple. A crowd soon gathered, and he sat down and taught them. 3As he was speaking, the teachers of religious law and the Pharisees brought a woman who had been caught in the act of adultery. They put her in front of the crowd.

4"Teacher," they said to Jesus, "this woman was caught in the act of adultery. 5The law of Moses says to stone her. What do you say?"

6They were trying to trap him into saying something they could use against him, but Jesus stooped down and wrote in the dust with his finger. 7They kept demanding an answer, so he stood up again and said, "All right, but let the one who has never sinned throw the first stone!" 8Then he stooped down again and wrote in the dust.

9When the accusers heard this, they slipped away one by one, beginning with the oldest, until only Jesus was left in the middle of the crowd with the woman. 10Then Jesus stood up again and said to the woman, "Where are your accusers? Didn't even one of them condemn you?"

11"No, Lord," she said.

And Jesus said, "Neither do I. Go and sin no more."

JESUS, THE LIGHT OF THE WORLD

12Jesus spoke to the people once more and said, "I am the light of the world. If you follow me, you won't have to walk in darkness, because you will have the light that leads to life."

13The Pharisees replied, “You are making those claims about yourself! Such testimony is not valid.”

14Jesus told them, “These claims are valid even though I make them about myself. For I know where I came from and where I am going, but you don’t know this about me. 15You judge me by human standards, but I do not judge anyone. 16And if I did, my judgment would be correct in every respect because I am not alone. The Father* who sent me is with me. 17Your own law says that if two people agree about something, their witness is accepted as fact.* 18I am one witness, and my Father who sent me is the other.”

19“Where is your father?” they asked.

Jesus answered, “Since you don’t know who I am, you don’t know who my Father is. If you knew me, you would also know my Father.” 20Jesus made these statements while he was teaching in the section of the Temple known as the Treasury. But he was not arrested, because his time* had not yet come.

THE UNBELIEVING PEOPLE WARNED

21Later Jesus said to them again, “I am going away. You will search for me but will die in your sin. You cannot come where I am going.”

22The people* asked, “Is he planning to commit suicide? What does he mean, ‘You cannot come where I am going’?”

23Jesus continued, “You are from below; I am from above. You belong to this world; I do not. 24That is why I said that you will die in your sins; for unless you believe that I AM who I claim to be,*
you will die in your sins.”

25“Who are you?” they demanded.

Jesus replied, “The one I have always claimed to be.* 26I have much to say about you and much to condemn, but I won’t. For I say only what I have heard from the one who sent me, and he is completely truthful.” 27But they still didn’t understand that he was talking about his Father.

28So Jesus said, “When you have lifted up the Son of Man on the cross, then you will understand that I AM he.* I do nothing on my own but say only what the Father taught me. 29And the one who sent me is with me—he has not deserted me. For I always do what pleases him.” 30Then many who heard him say these things believed in him.

JESUS AND ABRAHAM

31Jesus said to the people who believed in him, “You are truly my disciples if you remain faithful to my teachings. 32And you will know the truth, and the truth will set you free.”

33“But we are descendants of Abraham,” they said. “We have never been slaves to anyone. What do you mean, ‘You will be set free’?”

34Jesus replied, “I tell you the truth, everyone who sins is a slave of sin. 35A slave is not a permanent member of the family, but a son is part of the family forever. 36So if the Son sets you free, you are truly free. 37Yes, I realize that you are descendants of Abraham. And yet some of you are trying to kill me because there’s no room in your hearts for my message. 38I am telling you what I saw when I was with my Father. But you are following the advice of your father.”

39“Our father is Abraham!” they declared.

“No,” Jesus replied, “for if you were really the children of Abraham, you would follow his example.* 40Instead, you are trying to kill me because I told you the truth, which I heard from God. Abraham never did such a thing. 41No, you are imitating your real father."

They replied, "We aren't illegitimate children! God himself is our true Father."

42Jesus told them, "If God were your Father, you would love me, because I have come to you from God. I am not here on my own, but he sent me. 43Why can't you understand what I am saying? It's because you can't even hear me! 44For you are the children of your father the devil, and you love to do the evil things he does. He was a murderer from the beginning. He has always hated the truth, because there is no truth in him. When he lies, it is consistent with his character; for he is a liar and the father of lies. 45So when I tell the truth, you just naturally don't believe me! 46Which of you can truthfully accuse me of sin? And since I am telling you the truth, why don't you believe me? 47Anyone who belongs to God listens gladly to the words of God. But you don't listen because you don't belong to God."

48The people retorted, "You Samaritan devil! Didn't we say all along that you were possessed by a demon?"

49"No," Jesus said, "I have no demon in me. For I honor my Father —and you dishonor me. 50And though I have no wish to glorify myself, God is going to glorify me. He is the true judge. 51I tell you the truth, anyone who obeys my teaching will never die!"

52The people said, "Now we know you are possessed by a demon. Even Abraham and the prophets died, but you say, 'Anyone who obeys my teaching will never die!' 53Are you greater than our father Abraham? He died, and so did the prophets. Who do you think you are?"

54Jesus answered, "If I want glory for myself, it doesn't count. But it is my Father who will glorify me. You say, 'He is our God,'* 55but you don’t even know him. I know him. If I said otherwise, I would be as great a liar as you! But I do know him and obey him. 56Your father Abraham rejoiced as he looked forward to my coming. He saw it and was glad.”

57The people said, “You aren’t even fifty years old. How can you say you have seen Abraham?*”

58Jesus answered, “I tell you the truth, before Abraham was even born, I AM!*” 59At that point they picked up stones to throw at him.
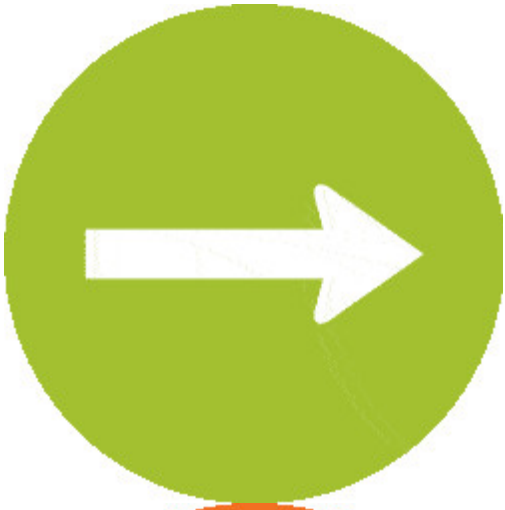
But Jesus was hidden from them and left the Temple.



HEALING JOHN 9:1-11

John 9

JESUS HEALS A MAN BORN BLIND

1As Jesus was walking along, he saw a man who had been blind from birth. 2"Rabbi," his disciples asked him, "why was this man born blind? Was it because of his own sins or his parents' sins?"

3"It was not because of his sins or his parents' sins," Jesus answered. "This happened so the power of God could be seen in him. 4We must quickly carry out the tasks assigned us by the one who sent us.* The night is coming, and then no one can work. 5But while I am here in the world, I am the light of the world."

THE POOL OF SILOAM

6Then he spit on the ground, made mud with the saliva, and spread the mud over the blind man's eyes. 7He told him, "Go wash yourself in the pool of Siloam" (Siloam means "sent"). So the man went and washed and came back seeing!

8His neighbors and others who knew him as a blind beggar asked each other, "Isn't this the man who used to sit and beg?" 9Some said he was, and others said, "No, he just looks like him!"

But the beggar kept saying, "Yes, I am the same one!"

10They asked, "Who healed you? What happened?"

11He told them, "The man they call Jesus made mud and spread it over my eyes and told me, 'Go to the pool of Siloam and wash yourself.’ So I went and washed, and now I can see!”

12“Where is he now?” they asked.

“I don’t know,” he replied.

13Then they took the man who had been blind to the Pharisees, 14because it was on the Sabbath that Jesus had made the mud and healed him. 15The Pharisees asked the man all about it. So he told them, “He put the mud over my eyes, and when I washed it away, I could see!”

16Some of the Pharisees said, “This man Jesus is not from God, for he is working on the Sabbath.” Others said, “But how could an ordinary sinner do such miraculous signs?” So there was a deep division of opinion among them.

17Then the Pharisees again questioned the man who had been blind and demanded, “What’s your opinion about this man who healed
you?”

The man replied, “I think he must be a prophet.”

18The Jewish leaders still refused to believe the man had been blind and could now see, so they called in his parents. 19They asked them, “Is this your son? Was he born blind? If so, how can he now see?”

20His parents replied, “We know this is our son and that he was born blind, 21but we don’t know how he can see or who healed him.
Ask him. He is old enough to speak for himself.” 22His parents said this because they were afraid of the Jewish leaders, who had announced that anyone saying Jesus was the Messiah would be expelled from the synagogue. 23That’s why they said, “He is old enough. Ask him.”

24So for the second time they called in the man who had been blind and told him, “God should get the glory for this,* because we know this man Jesus is a sinner.”

25“I don’t know whether he is a sinner,” the man replied. “But I know this: I was blind, and now I can see!”

26“But what did he do?” they asked. “How did he heal you?”

27“Look!” the man exclaimed. “I told you once. Didn’t you listen?
Why do you want to hear it again? Do you want to become his disciples, too?”

28Then they cursed him and said, “You are his disciple, but we are disciples of Moses! 29We know God spoke to Moses, but we don’t even know where this man comes from.”

30“Why, that’s very strange!” the man replied. “He healed my eyes, and yet you don’t know where he comes from? 31We know that God doesn’t listen to sinners, but he is ready to hear those who worship him and do his will. 32Ever since the world began, no one has been able to open the eyes of someone born blind. 33If this man were not from God, he couldn’t have done it.”

34“You were born a total sinner!” they answered. “Are you trying to teach us?” And they threw him out of the synagogue.

SPIRITUAL BLINDNESS

35When Jesus heard what had happened, he found the man and asked, “Do you believe in the Son of Man?*”

36The man answered, “Who is he, sir? I want to believe in him.”

37“You have seen him,” Jesus said, “and he is speaking to you!”

38“Yes, Lord, I believe!” the man said. And he worshiped Jesus.

39Then Jesus told him,“I entered this world to render judgment—to give sight to the blind and to show those who think they see that they are blind.”

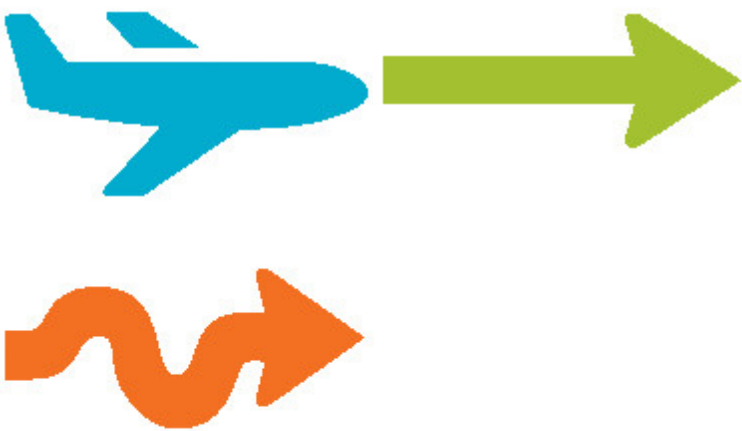
40Some Pharisees who were standing nearby heard him and asked, “Are you saying we’re blind?”

41“If you were blind, you wouldn’t be guilty,” Jesus replied. “But you remain guilty because you claim you can see.



John 10

THE GOOD SHEPHERD AND HIS SHEEP

1"I tell you the truth, anyone who sneaks over the wall of a sheepfold, rather than going through the gate, must surely be a thief and a robber! 2But the one who enters through the gate is the shepherd of the sheep. 3The gatekeeper opens the gate for him, and the sheep recognize his voice and come to him. He calls his own sheep by name and leads them out. 4After he has gathered his own flock, he walks ahead of them, and they follow him because they know his voice. 5They won't follow a stranger; they will run from him because they don't know his voice."

6Those who heard Jesus use this illustration didn't understand what he meant, 7so he explained it to them: "I tell you the truth, I am the gate for the sheep. 8All who came before me* were thieves and robbers. But the true sheep did not listen to them. 9Yes, I am the gate. Those who come in through me will be saved.* They will come and go freely and will find good pastures. 10The thief's purpose is to steal and kill and destroy. My purpose is to give them a rich and satisfying life.

11“I am the good shepherd. The good shepherd sacrifices his life for the sheep. 12A hired hand will run when he sees a wolf coming. He will abandon the sheep because they don’t belong to him and he isn’t their shepherd. And so the wolf attacks them and scatters the flock. 13The hired hand runs away because he’s working only for the money and doesn’t really care about the sheep.

14“I am the good shepherd; I know my own sheep, and they know me, 15just as my Father knows me and I know the Father. So I sacrifice my life for the sheep. 16I have other sheep, too, that are not in this sheepfold. I must bring them also. They will listen to my voice, and there will be one flock with one shepherd.

17“The Father loves me because I sacrifice my life so I may take it back again. 18No one can take my life from me. I sacrifice it voluntarily. For I have the authority to lay it down when I want to and also to take it up again. For this is what my Father has commanded.”

19When he said these things, the people* were again divided in their opinions about him. 20Some said, “He’s demon possessed and out of his mind. Why listen to a man like that?” 21Others said, “This doesn’t sound like a man possessed by a demon! Can a demon open the eyes of the blind?”

THE ORIGIN OF HANUKKAH

JESUS CLAIMS TO BE THE SON OF GOD

22It was now winter, and Jesus was in Jerusalem at the time of Hanukkah, the Festival of Dedication. 23He was in the Temple, walking through the section known as Solomon's Colonnade. 24The people surrounded him and asked, "How long are you going to keep us in suspense? If you are the Messiah, tell us plainly."

25Jesus replied, "I have already told you, and you don't believe me.
The proof is the work I do in my Father's name. 26But you don't believe me because you are not my sheep. 27My sheep listen to my voice; I know them, and they follow me. 28I give them eternal life, and they will never perish. No one can snatch them away from me, 29for my Father has given them to me, and he is more powerful than anyone else.* No one can snatch them from the Father's hand. 30The Father and I are one."

31Once again the people picked up stones to kill him. 32Jesus said,
"At my Father's direction I have done many good works. For which one are you going to stone me?"

33They replied, "We're stoning you not for any good work, but for blasphemy! You, a mere man, claim to be God."

34Jesus replied, "It is written in your own Scriptures* that God said to certain leaders of the people, 'I say, you are gods!'* 35And you know that the Scriptures cannot be altered. So if those people who received God's message were called 'gods,' 36why do you call it blasphemy when I say, 'I am the Son of God'? After all, the Father set me apart and sent me into the world. 37Don't believe me unless I carry out my Father's work. 38But if I do his work, believe in the evidence of the miraculous works I have done, even if you don't believe me. Then you will know and understand that the Father is in me, and I am in the Father."

39Once again they tried to arrest him, but he got away and left them. 40He went beyond the Jordan River near the place where John was first baptizing and stayed there awhile. 41And many followed him. “John didn’t perform miraculous signs,” they remarked to one another, “but everything he said about this man has come true.” 42And many who were there believed in Jesus.

John 11

THE RAISING OF LAZARUS

1A man named Lazarus was sick. He lived in Bethany with his sisters, Mary and Martha. 2This is the Mary who later poured the expensive perfume on the Lord's feet and wiped them with her hair.* Her brother, Lazarus, was sick. 3So the two sisters sent a message to Jesus telling him, "Lord, your dear friend is very sick."

4But when Jesus heard about it he said, "Lazarus's sickness will not end in death. No, it happened for the glory of God so that the Son of God will receive glory from this." 5So although Jesus loved Martha, Mary, and Lazarus, 6he stayed where he was for the next two days. 7Finally, he said to his disciples, "Let's go back to Judea."

8But his disciples objected. "Rabbi," they said, "only a few days ago the people* in Judea were trying to stone you. Are you going there again?"

9Jesus replied, "There are twelve hours of daylight every day.
During the day people can walk safely. They can see because they have the light of this world. 10But at night there is danger of stumbling because they have no light." 11Then he said, "Our friend Lazarus has fallen asleep, but now I will go and wake him up."

12The disciples said, "Lord, if he is sleeping, he will soon get better!" 13They thought Jesus meant Lazarus was simply sleeping, but Jesus meant Lazarus had died.

14So he told them plainly, "Lazarus is dead. 15And for your sakes, I'm glad I wasn't there, for now you will really believe. Come, let's go see him."

16Thomas, nicknamed the Twin,* said to his fellow disciples, “Let’s go, too—and die with Jesus.”

17When Jesus arrived at Bethany, he was told that Lazarus had already been in his grave for four days. 18Bethany was only a few miles* down the road from Jerusalem, 19and many of the people had come to console Martha and Mary in their loss. 20When Martha got word that Jesus was coming, she went to meet him. But Mary stayed in the house. 21Martha said to Jesus, “Lord, if only you had been here, my brother would not have died. 22But even now I know that God will give you whatever you ask.”

23Jesus told her, “Your brother will rise again.”

24“Yes,” Martha said, “he will rise when everyone else rises, at the last day.”

25Jesus told her, “I am the resurrection and the life.* Anyone who believes in me will live, even after dying. 26Everyone who lives in me and believes in me will never ever die. Do you believe this, Martha?”

27“Yes, Lord,” she told him. “I have always believed you are the Messiah, the Son of God, the one who has come into the world from God.” 28Then she returned to Mary. She called Mary aside from the mourners and told her, “The Teacher is here and wants to see you.”
29So Mary immediately went to him.

30Jesus had stayed outside the village, at the place where Martha met him. 31When the people who were at the house consoling Mary saw her leave so hastily, they assumed she was going to Lazarus’s grave to weep. So they followed her there. 32When Mary arrived and saw Jesus, she fell at his feet and said, “Lord, if only you had been here, my brother would not have died.”

33When Jesus saw her weeping and saw the other people wailing with her, a deep anger welled up within him,* and he was deeply troubled. 34“Where have you put him?” he asked them.

They told him, “Lord, come and see.” 35Then Jesus wept. 36The people who were standing nearby said, “See how much he loved him!” 37But some said, “This man healed a blind man. Couldn’t he have kept Lazarus from dying?”

38Jesus was still angry as he arrived at the tomb, a cave with a stone rolled across its entrance. 39“Roll the stone aside,” Jesus told them.

But Martha, the dead man’s sister, protested, “Lord, he has been dead for four days. The smell will be terrible.”

40Jesus responded, “Didn’t I tell you that you would see God’s glory if you believe?” 41So they rolled the stone aside. Then Jesus looked up to heaven and said, “Father, thank you for hearing me. 42You always hear me, but I said it out loud for the sake of all these people standing here, so that they will believe you sent me.” 43Then Jesus shouted, “Lazarus, come out!” 44And the dead man came out, his hands and feet bound in graveclothes, his face wrapped in a headcloth. Jesus told them, “Unwrap him and let him go!”

THE PLOT TO KILL JESUS

45Many of the people who were with Mary believed in Jesus when they saw this happen. 46But some went to the Pharisees and told them what Jesus had done. 47Then the leading priests and Pharisees called the high council* together. “What are we going to do?” they asked each other. “This man certainly performs many miraculous signs. 48If we allow him to go on like this, soon everyone will believe in him. Then the Roman army will come and destroy both our Temple* and our nation.”

49Caiaphas, who was high priest at that time,* said, “You don’t know what you’re talking about! 50You don’t realize that it’s better for you that one man should die for the people than for the whole nation to be destroyed.”

51He did not say this on his own; as high priest at that time he was led to prophesy that Jesus would die for the entire nation. 52And not only for that nation, but to bring together and unite all the children of God scattered around the world.

53So from that time on, the Jewish leaders began to plot Jesus’ death. 54As a result, Jesus stopped his public ministry among the people and left Jerusalem. He went to a place near the wilderness, to the village of Ephraim, and stayed there with his disciples.

55It was now almost time for the Jewish Passover celebration, and many people from all over the country arrived in Jerusalem several days early so they could go through the purification ceremony before Passover began. 56They kept looking for Jesus, but as they stood around in the Temple, they said to each other, “What do you think? He won’t come for Passover, will he?” 57Meanwhile, the leading priests and Pharisees had publicly ordered that anyone seeing Jesus must report it immediately so they could arrest him.

John 12

JESUS ANOINTED AT BETHANY

1Six days before the Passover celebration began, Jesus arrived in Bethany, the home of Lazarus—the man he had raised from the dead. 2A dinner was prepared in Jesus' honor. Martha served, and Lazarus was among those who ate* with him. 3Then Mary took a twelve-ounce jar* of expensive perfume made from essence of nard, and she anointed Jesus' feet with it, wiping his feet with her hair.
The house was filled with the fragrance.

4But Judas Iscariot, the disciple who would soon betray him, said, 5"That perfume was worth a year's wages.* It should have been sold and the money given to the poor." 6Not that he cared for the poor—he was a thief, and since he was in charge of the disciples' money, he often stole some for himself.

7Jesus replied, "Leave her alone. She did this in preparation for my burial. 8You will always have the poor among you, but you will not always have me."

9When all the people* heard of Jesus' arrival, they flocked to see him and also to see Lazarus, the man Jesus had raised from the dead. 10Then the leading priests decided to kill Lazarus, too, 11for it was because of him that many of the people had deserted them* and believed in Jesus.

JESUS' TRIUMPHANT ENTRY

12The next day, the news that Jesus was on the way to Jerusalem swept through the city. A large crowd of Passover visitors 13took palm branches and went down the road to meet him. They shouted, "Praise God!*

Blessings on the one who comes in the name of the LORD!
Hail to the King of Israel!"*

14Jesus found a young donkey and rode on it, fulfilling the prophecy that said:

15"Don't be afraid, people of Jerusalem.*
Look, your King is coming, riding on a donkey's colt."*

16His disciples didn't understand at the time that this was a fulfillment of prophecy. But after Jesus entered into his glory, they remembered what had happened and realized that these things had been written about him.

17Many in the crowd had seen Jesus call Lazarus from the tomb, raising him from the dead, and they were telling others* about it.
18That was the reason so many went out to meet him—because they had heard about this miraculous sign. 19Then the Pharisees said to each other, "There's nothing we can do. Look, everyone* has gone after him!"

JESUS PREDICTS HIS DEATH

20Some Greeks who had come to Jerusalem for the Passover celebration 21paid a visit to Philip, who was from Bethsaida in Galilee. They said, “Sir, we want to meet Jesus.” 22Philip told Andrew about it, and they went together to ask Jesus.

23Jesus replied, “Now the time has come for the Son of Man* to enter into his glory. 24I tell you the truth, unless a kernel of wheat is planted in the soil and dies, it remains alone. But its death will produce many new kernels—a plentiful harvest of new lives.
25Those who love their life in this world will lose it. Those who care nothing for their life in this world will keep it for eternity. 26Anyone who wants to serve me must follow me, because my servants must be where I am. And the Father will honor anyone who serves me.

27“Now my soul is deeply troubled. Should I pray, ‘Father, save me from this hour’? But this is the very reason I came! 28Father, bring glory to your name.”

Then a voice spoke from heaven, saying, “I have already brought glory to my name, and I will do so again.” 29When the crowd heard the voice, some thought it was thunder, while others declared an angel had spoken to him.

30Then Jesus told them, “The voice was for your benefit, not mine.
31The time for judging this world has come, when Satan, the ruler of this world, will be cast out. 32And when I am lifted up from the earth, I will draw everyone to myself.” 33He said this to indicate how he was going to die.

34The crowd responded, “We understood from Scripture* that the Messiah would live forever. How can you say the Son of Man will die? Just who is this Son of Man, anyway?”

35Jesus replied, “My light will shine for you just a little longer. Walk in the light while you can, so the darkness will not overtake you.
Those who walk in the darkness cannot see where they are going.
36Put your trust in the light while there is still time; then you will become children of the light.”

After saying these things, Jesus went away and was hidden from them.

THE UNBELIEF OF THE PEOPLE

37But despite all the miraculous signs Jesus had done, most of the people still did not believe in him. 38This is exactly what Isaiah the prophet had predicted: “LORD, who has believed our message?

To whom has the LORD revealed his powerful arm?”*

39But the people couldn’t believe, for as Isaiah also said,

40“The Lord has blinded their eyes and hardened their hearts— so that their eyes cannot see, and their hearts cannot understand, and they cannot turn to me and have me heal them.”*

41Isaiah was referring to Jesus when he said this, because he saw the future and spoke of the Messiah’s glory. 42Many people did believe in him, however, including some of the Jewish leaders. But they wouldn’t admit it for fear that the Pharisees would expel them from the synagogue. 43For they loved human praise more than the praise of God.

44Jesus shouted to the crowds, “If you trust me, you are trusting not only me, but also God who sent me. 45For when you see me, you are seeing the one who sent me. 46I have come as a light to shine in this dark world, so that all who put their trust in me will no longer remain in the dark. 47I will not judge those who hear me but don’t obey me, for I have come to save the world and not to judge it.
48But all who reject me and my message will be judged on the day of judgment by the truth I have spoken. 49I don’t speak on my own authority. The Father who sent me has commanded me what to say and how to say it. 50And I know his commands lead to eternal life; so I say whatever the Father tells me to say.”

THE UPPER ROOM

John 13

JESUS WASHES HIS DISCIPLES’ FEET

1Before the Passover celebration, Jesus knew that his hour had come to leave this world and return to his Father. He had loved his disciples during his ministry on earth, and now he loved them to the very end.2It was time for supper, and the devil had already prompted Judas, son of Simon Iscariot, to betray Jesus. 3Jesus knew that the Father had given him authority over everything and that he had come from God and would return to God. 4So he got up from the table, took off his robe, wrapped a towel around his waist, 5and poured water into a basin. Then he began to wash the disciples' feet, drying them with the towel he had around him.

6When Jesus came to Simon Peter, Peter said to him, "Lord, are you going to wash my feet?"

7Jesus replied, "You don't understand now what I am doing, but someday you will."

8"No," Peter protested, "you will never ever wash my feet!"

Jesus replied, "Unless I wash you, you won't belong to me."

9Simon Peter exclaimed, "Then wash my hands and head as well, Lord, not just my feet!"

10Jesus replied, "A person who has bathed all over does not need to wash, except for the feet,* to be entirely clean. And you disciples are clean, but not all of you." 11For Jesus knew who would betray him. That is what he meant when he said, "Not all of you are clean."

12After washing their feet, he put on his robe again and sat down and asked, "Do you understand what I was doing? 13You call me 'Teacher' and 'Lord,' and you are right, because that's what I am. 14And since I, your Lord and Teacher, have washed your feet, you ought to wash each other's feet. 15I have given you an example to follow. Do as I have done to you. 16I tell you the truth, slaves are not greater than their master. Nor is the messenger more important than the one who sends the message. 17Now that you know these things, God will bless you for doing them.

JESUS PREDICTS HIS BETRAYAL

18"I am not saying these things to all of you; I know the ones I have chosen. But this fulfills the Scripture that says, 'The one who eats my food has turned against me.'* 19I tell you this beforehand, so that when it happens you will believe that I AM the Messiah.* 20I tell you the truth, anyone who welcomes my messenger is welcoming me, and anyone who welcomes me is welcoming the Father who sent me."

21Now Jesus was deeply troubled,* and he exclaimed, "I tell you the truth, one of you will betray me!"

22The disciples looked at each other, wondering whom he could mean. 23The disciple Jesus loved was sitting next to Jesus at the table.*24Simon Peter motioned to him to ask, "Who's he talking about?" 25So that disciple leaned over to Jesus and asked, "Lord, who is it?"

26Jesus responded, "It is the one to whom I give the bread I dip in the bowl." And when he had dipped it, he gave it to Judas, son of Simon Iscariot. 27When Judas had eaten the bread, Satan entered into him. Then Jesus told him, "Hurry and do what you're going to do." 28None of the others at the table knew what Jesus meant. 29Since Judas was their treasurer, some thought Jesus was telling him to go and pay for the food or to give some money to the poor. 30So Judas left at once, going out into the night.

JESUS PREDICTS PETER'S DENIAL

31As soon as Judas left the room, Jesus said, “The time has come for the Son of Man* to enter into his glory, and God will be glorified because of him. 32And since God receives glory because of the Son,* he will give his own glory to the Son, and he will do so at once.
33Dear children, I will be with you only a little longer. And as I told the Jewish leaders, you will search for me, but you can’t come where I am going. 34So now I am giving you a new commandment:
Love each other. Just as I have loved you, you should love each other. 35Your love for one another will prove to the world that you are my disciples.”

36Simon Peter asked, “Lord, where are you going?”

And Jesus replied, “You can’t go with me now, but you will follow me later.”

37“But why can’t I come now, Lord?” he asked. “I’m ready to die for
you.”

38Jesus answered, “Die for me? I tell you the truth, Peter—before the rooster crows tomorrow morning, you will deny three times that you even know me.

AFTERLIFE JOHN 14:1-14

John 14

JESUS, THE WAY TO THE FATHER

1“Don’t let your hearts be troubled. Trust in God, and trust also in me. 2There is more than enough room in my Father’s home.* If this were not so, would I have told you that I am going to prepare a place for you?* 3When everything is ready, I will come and get you, so that you will always be with me where I am. 4And you know the way to where I am going.”

5“No, we don’t know, Lord,” Thomas said. “We have no idea where you are going, so how can we know the way?”

6Jesus told him, “I am the way, the truth, and the life. No one can come to the Father except through me. 7If you had really known me, you would know who my Father is.* From now on, you do know him and have seen him!”

8Philip said, “Lord, show us the Father, and we will be satisfied.”

9Jesus replied, “Have I been with you all this time, Philip, and yet you still don’t know who I am? Anyone who has seen me has seen the Father! So why are you asking me to show him to you? 10Don’t you believe that I am in the Father and the Father is in me? The words I speak are not my own, but my Father who lives in me does his work through me. 11Just believe that I am in the Father and the Father is in me. Or at least believe because of the work you have seen me do.

12“I tell you the truth, anyone who believes in me will do the same works I have done, and even greater works, because I am going to be with the Father. 13You can ask for anything in my name, and I will do it, so that the Son can bring glory to the Father. 14Yes, ask me for anything in my name, and I will do it!

JESUS PROMISES THE HOLY SPIRIT

15“If you love me, obey* my commandments. 16And I will ask the Father, and he will give you another Advocate,* who will never leave you. 17He is the Holy Spirit, who leads into all truth. The world cannot receive him, because it isn’t looking for him and doesn’t recognize him. But you know him, because he lives with you now and later will be in you.* 18No, I will not abandon you as orphans—I will come to you. 19Soon the world will no longer see me, but you will see me. Since I live, you also will live. 20When I am raised to life again, you will know that I am in my Father, and you are in me, and I am in you. 21Those who accept my commandments and obey them are the ones who love me. And because they love me, my Father will love them. And I will love them and reveal myself to each of them."

22Judas (not Judas Iscariot, but the other disciple with that name) said to him, "Lord, why are you going to reveal yourself only to us and not to the world at large?"

23Jesus replied, "All who love me will do what I say. My Father will love them, and we will come and make our home with each of them. 24Anyone who doesn't love me will not obey me. And remember, my words are not my own. What I am telling you is from the Father who sent me. 25I am telling you these things now while I am still with you. 26But when the Father sends the Advocate as my representative—that is, the Holy Spirit—he will teach you everything and will remind you of everything I have told you.

27"I am leaving you with a gift—peace of mind and heart. And the peace I give is a gift the world cannot give. So don't be troubled or afraid. 28Remember what I told you: I am going away, but I will come back to you again. If you really loved me, you would be happy that I am going to the Father, who is greater than I am. 29I have told you these things before they happen so that when they do happen, you will believe.

30"I don't have much more time to talk to you, because the ruler of this world approaches. He has no power over me, 31but I will do what the Father requires of me, so that the world will know that I love the Father. Come, let's be going.

John 15

JESUS, THE TRUE VINE

1“I am the true grapevine, and my Father is the gardener. 2He cuts off every branch of mine that doesn’t produce fruit, and he prunes the branches that do bear fruit so they will produce even more.
3You have already been pruned and purified by the message I have given you. 4Remain in me, and I will remain in you. For a branch cannot produce fruit if it is severed from the vine, and you cannot be fruitful unless you remain in me.

5“Yes, I am the vine; you are the branches. Those who remain in me, and I in them, will produce much fruit. For apart from me you can do nothing. 6Anyone who does not remain in me is thrown away like a useless branch and withers. Such branches are gathered into a pile to be burned. 7But if you remain in me and my words remain in you, you may ask for anything you want, and it will be granted! 8When you produce much fruit, you are my true disciples.
This brings great glory to my Father.

9“I have loved you even as the Father has loved me. Remain in my love. 10When you obey my commandments, you remain in my love, just as I obey my Father's commandments and remain in his love.

11I have told you these things so that you will be filled with my joy.
Yes, your joy will overflow! 12This is my commandment: Love each other in the same way I have loved you. 13There is no greater love than to lay down one's life for one's friends. 14You are my friends if you do what I command. 15I no longer call you slaves, because a master doesn't confide in his slaves. Now you are my friends, since I have told you everything the Father told me. 16You didn't choose me. I chose you. I appointed you to go and produce lasting fruit, so that the Father will give you whatever you ask for, using my name.
17This is my command: Love each other.

THE WORLD'S HATRED

18"If the world hates you, remember that it hated me first. 19The world would love you as one of its own if you belonged to it, but you are no longer part of the world. I chose you to come out of the world, so it hates you. 20Do you remember what I told you? 'A slave is not greater than the master.' Since they persecuted me, naturally they will persecute you. And if they had listened to me, they would listen to you. 21They will do all this to you because of me, for they have rejected the one who sent me. 22They would not be guilty if I had not come and spoken to them. But now they have no excuse for their sin. 23Anyone who hates me also hates my Father. 24If I hadn't done such miraculous signs among them that no one else could do, they would not be guilty. But as it is, they have seen everything I did, yet they still hate me and my Father. 25This fulfills what is written in their Scriptures*: 'They hated me without cause.'

26"But I will send you the Advocate*—the Spirit of truth. He will come to you from the Father and will testify all about me. 27And you must also testify about me because you have been with me from the beginning of my ministry.

John 16

1“I have told you these things so that you won’t abandon your faith.
2For you will be expelled from the synagogues, and the time is coming when those who kill you will think they are doing a holy service for God. 3This is because they have never known the Father or me. 4Yes, I’m telling you these things now, so that when they happen, you will remember my warning. I didn’t tell you earlier because I was going to be with you for a while longer.

THE WORK OF THE HOLY SPIRIT

5“But now I am going away to the one who sent me, and not one of you is asking where I am going. 6Instead, you grieve because of what I’ve told you. 7But in fact, it is best for you that I go away, because if I don’t, the Advocate* won’t come. If I do go away, then I will send him to you. 8And when he comes, he will convict the world of its sin, and of God’s righteousness, and of the coming judgment. 9The world’s sin is that it refuses to believe in me.
10Righteousness is available because I go to the Father, and you will see me no more. 11Judgment will come because the ruler of this world has already been judged.

12“There is so much more I want to tell you, but you can’t bear it now. 13When the Spirit of truth comes, he will guide you into all truth. He will not speak on his own but will tell you what he has heard. He will tell you about the future. 14He will bring me glory by telling you whatever he receives from me. 15All that belongs to the Father is mine; this is why I said, ‘The Spirit will tell you whatever he receives from me.’

SUFFERING JOHN 16:16-33

SADNESS WILL BE TURNED TO JOY

16 “In a little while you won’t see me anymore. But a little while after that, you will see me again.”

17 Some of the disciples asked each other, “What does he mean when he says, ‘In a little while you won’t see me, but then you will see me,’ and ‘I am going to the Father’? 18 And what does he mean by ‘a little while’? We don’t understand.”

19 Jesus realized they wanted to ask him about it, so he said, “Are you asking yourselves what I meant? I said in a little while you won’t see me, but a little while after that you will see me again. 20 I tell you the truth, you will weep and mourn over what is going to happen to me, but the world will rejoice. You will grieve, but your grief will suddenly turn to wonderful joy. 21 It will be like a woman suffering the pains of labor. When her child is born, her anguish gives way to joy because she has brought a new baby into the world. 22 So you have sorrow now, but I will see you again; then you will rejoice, and no one can rob you of that joy. 23 At that time you won’t need to ask me for anything. I tell you the truth, you will ask the Father directly, and he will grant your request because you use my name. 24 You haven’t done this before. Ask, using my name, and you will receive, and you will have abundant joy.

25 “I have spoken of these matters in figures of speech, but soon I will stop speaking figuratively and will tell you plainly all about the Father. 26Then you will ask in my name. I'm not saying I will ask the Father on your behalf, 27for the Father himself loves you dearly because you love me and believe that I came from God.* 28Yes, I came from the Father into the world, and now I will leave the world and return to the Father."

29Then his disciples said, "At last you are speaking plainly and not figuratively. 30Now we understand that you know everything, and there's no need to question you. From this we believe that you came from God."

31Jesus asked, "Do you finally believe? 32But the time is coming—indeed it's here now—when you will be scattered, each one going his own way, leaving me alone. Yet I am not alone because the Father is with me. 33I have told you all this so that you may have peace in me. Here on earth you will have many trials and sorrows.
But take heart, because I have overcome the world."

PRAYERS JOHN 17:1-26

John 17

THE PRAYER OF JESUS

1After saying all these things, Jesus looked up to heaven and said, "Father, the hour has come. Glorify your Son so he can give glory back to you. 2For you have given him authority over everyone. He gives eternal life to each one you have given him. 3And this is the way to have eternal life—to know you, the only true God, and Jesus Christ, the one you sent to earth. 4I brought glory to you here on earth by completing the work you gave me to do. 5Now, Father, bring me into the glory we shared before the world began.

6"I have revealed you* to the ones you gave me from this world.
They were always yours. You gave them to me, and they have kept your word. 7Now they know that everything I have is a gift from you, 8for I have passed on to them the message you gave me. They accepted it and know that I came from you, and they believe you sent me.

9"My prayer is not for the world, but for those you have given me, because they belong to you. 10All who are mine belong to you, and you have given them to me, so they bring me glory. 11Now I am departing from the world; they are staying in this world, but I am coming to you. Holy Father, you have given me your name;* now protect them by the power of your name so that they will be united just as we are. 12During my time here, I protected them by the power of the name you gave me.* I guarded them so that not one was lost, except the one headed for destruction, as the Scriptures foretold.

13"Now I am coming to you. I told them many things while I was with them in this world so they would be filled with my joy. 14I have given them your word. And the world hates them because they do not belong to the world, just as I do not belong to the world.
15I'm not asking you to take them out of the world, but to keep them safe from the evil one. 16They do not belong to this world any more than I do. 17Make them holy by your truth; teach them your word, which is truth. 18Just as you sent me into the world, I am sending them into the world. 19And I give myself as a holy sacrifice for them so they can be made holy by your truth.

20"I am praying not only for these disciples but also for all who will ever believe in me through their message. 21I pray that they will all be one, just as you and I are one—as you are in me, Father, and I am in you. And may they be in us so that the world will believe you sent me.

22"I have given them the glory you gave me, so they may be one as we are one. 23I am in them and you are in me. May they experience such perfect unity that the world will know that you sent me and that you love them as much as you love me. 24Father, I want these whom you have given me to be with me where I am. Then they can see all the glory you gave me because you loved me even before the world began!

25"O righteous Father, the world doesn't know you, but I do; and these disciples know you sent me. 26I have revealed you to them, and I will continue to do so. Then your love for me will be in them, and I will be in them."

John 18

JESUS IS BETRAYED AND ARRESTED

1After saying these things, Jesus crossed the Kidron Valley with his disciples and entered a grove of olive trees. 2Judas, the betrayer, knew this place, because Jesus had often gone there with his disciples. 3The leading priests and Pharisees had given Judas a contingent of Roman soldiers and Temple guards to accompany him. Now with blazing torches, lanterns, and weapons, they arrived at the olive grove.

4Jesus fully realized all that was going to happen to him, so he stepped forward to meet them. "Who are you looking for?" he asked.

5"Jesus the Nazarene,"* they replied.

“I AM he,”* Jesus said. (Judas, who betrayed him, was standing with them.) 6As Jesus said “I AM he,” they all drew back and fell to the ground! 7Once more he asked them, “Who are you looking for?”

And again they replied, “Jesus the Nazarene.”

8“I told you that I AM he,” Jesus said. “And since I am the one you want, let these others go.” 9He did this to fulfill his own statement: “I did not lose a single one of those you have given me.”*

10Then Simon Peter drew a sword and slashed off the right ear of Malchus, the high priest’s slave. 11But Jesus said to Peter, “Put your sword back into its sheath. Shall I not drink from the cup of suffering the Father has given me?”

JESUS AT THE HIGH PRIEST’S HOUSE

12So the soldiers, their commanding officer, and the Temple guards arrested Jesus and tied him up. 13First they took him to Annas, since he was the father-in-law of Caiaphas, the high priest at that time.*14Caiaphas was the one who had told the other Jewish leaders, “It’s better that one man should die for the people.”

PETER’S FIRST DENIAL

15Simon Peter followed Jesus, as did another of the disciples. That other disciple was acquainted with the high priest, so he was allowed to enter the high priest’s courtyard with Jesus. 16Peter had to stay outside the gate. Then the disciple who knew the high priest spoke to the woman watching at the gate, and she let Peter in. 17The woman asked Peter, “You’re not one of that man’s disciples, are you?”

“No,” he said, “I am not.”

18Because it was cold, the household servants and the guards had made a charcoal fire. They stood around it, warming themselves, and Peter stood with them, warming himself.

THE HIGH PRIEST QUESTIONS JESUS

19Inside, the high priest began asking Jesus about his followers and what he had been teaching them. 20Jesus replied, “Everyone knows what I teach. I have preached regularly in the synagogues and the Temple, where the people* gather. I have not spoken in secret.
21Why are you asking me this question? Ask those who heard me.
They know what I said.”

22Then one of the Temple guards standing nearby slapped Jesus across the face. “Is that the way to answer the high priest?” he demanded.

23Jesus replied, “If I said anything wrong, you must prove it. But if I’m speaking the truth, why are you beating me?”

24Then Annas bound Jesus and sent him to Caiaphas, the high priest.

PETER’S SECOND AND THIRD DENIALS

25Meanwhile, as Simon Peter was standing by the fire warming himself, they asked him again, “You’re not one of his disciples, are
you?”

He denied it, saying, “No, I am not.”

26But one of the household slaves of the high priest, a relative of the man whose ear Peter had cut off, asked, “Didn’t I see you out there in the olive grove with Jesus?” 27Again Peter denied it. And immediately a rooster crowed.

EASTER JOHN 18:28–19:16

JESUS' TRIAL BEFORE PILATE

28Jesus' trial before Caiaphas ended in the early hours of the morning. Then he was taken to the headquarters of the Roman governor.* His accusers didn't go inside because it would defile them, and they wouldn't be allowed to celebrate the Passover. 29So Pilate, the governor, went out to them and asked, "What is your charge against this man?"

30"We wouldn't have handed him over to you if he weren't a criminal!" they retorted.

31"Then take him away and judge him by your own law," Pilate told them.

"Only the Romans are permitted to execute someone," the Jewish leaders replied. 32(This fulfilled Jesus' prediction about the way he would die.*)

33Then Pilate went back into his headquarters and called for Jesus to be brought to him. "Are you the king of the Jews?" he asked him.

34Jesus replied, "Is this your own question, or did others tell you about me?"

35"Am I a Jew?" Pilate retorted. "Your own people and their leading priests brought you to me for trial. Why? What have you done?”

36Jesus answered, “My Kingdom is not an earthly kingdom. If it were, my followers would fight to keep me from being handed over to the Jewish leaders. But my Kingdom is not of this world.”

37Pilate said, “So you are a king?”

Jesus responded, “You say I am a king. Actually, I was born and came into the world to testify to the truth. All who love the truth recognize that what I say is true.”

38“What is truth?” Pilate asked. Then he went out again to the people and told them, “He is not guilty of any crime. 39But you have a custom of asking me to release one prisoner each year at Passover. Would you like me to release this ‘King of the Jews’?”

40But they shouted back, “No! Not this man. We want Barabbas!” (Barabbas was a revolutionary.)

John 19

JESUS SENTENCED TO DEATH

1Then Pilate had Jesus flogged with a lead-tipped whip. 2The soldiers wove a crown of thorns and put it on his head, and they put a purple robe on him. 3“Hail! King of the Jews!” they mocked, as they slapped him across the face.

4Pilate went outside again and said to the people, “I am going to bring him out to you now, but understand clearly that I find him not guilty.” 5Then Jesus came out wearing the crown of thorns and the purple robe. And Pilate said, “Look, here is the man!”

6When they saw him, the leading priests and Temple guards began shouting, “Crucify him! Crucify him!”

“Take him yourselves and crucify him,” Pilate said. “I find him not guilty.”

7The Jewish leaders replied, “By our law he ought to die because he called himself the Son of God.”

8When Pilate heard this, he was more frightened than ever. 9He took Jesus back into the headquarters* again and asked him, “Where are you from?” But Jesus gave no answer. 10“Why don’t you talk to me?” Pilate demanded. “Don’t you realize that I have the power to release you or crucify you?”

11Then Jesus said, “You would have no power over me at all unless it were given to you from above. So the one who handed me over to you has the greater sin.”

12Then Pilate tried to release him, but the Jewish leaders shouted, “If you release this man, you are no ‘friend of Caesar.’* Anyone who declares himself a king is a rebel against Caesar.”

13When they said this, Pilate brought Jesus out to them again. Then Pilate sat down on the judgment seat on the platform that is called the Stone Pavement (in Hebrew, Gabbatha). 14It was now about noon on the day of preparation for the Passover. And Pilate said to the people,* “Look, here is your king!”

15“Away with him,” they yelled. “Away with him! Crucify him!”

“What? Crucify your king?” Pilate asked.

“We have no king but Caesar,” the leading priests shouted back.

16Then Pilate turned Jesus over to them to be crucified.

THE CRUCIFIXION

So they took Jesus away. 17Carrying the cross by himself, he went to the place called Place of the Skull (in Hebrew, Golgotha). 18There they nailed him to the cross. Two others were crucified with him, one on either side, with Jesus between them. 19And Pilate posted a sign on the cross that read, "Jesus of Nazareth,* the King of the Jews." 20The place where Jesus was crucified was near the city, and the sign was written in Hebrew, Latin, and Greek, so that many people could read it.

21Then the leading priests objected and said to Pilate, "Change it from 'The King of the Jews' to 'He said, I am King of the Jews.'"

22Pilate replied, "No, what I have written, I have written."

23When the soldiers had crucified Jesus, they divided his clothes among the four of them. They also took his robe, but it was seamless, woven in one piece from top to bottom. 24So they said, "Rather than tearing it apart, let's throw dice* for it." This fulfilled the Scripture that says, "They divided my garments among themselves and threw dice for my clothing."* So that is what they did.

25Standing near the cross were Jesus' mother, and his mother's sister, Mary (the wife of Clopas), and Mary Magdalene. 26When Jesus saw his mother standing there beside the disciple he loved, he said to her, "Dear woman, here is your son." 27And he said to this disciple, "Here is your mother." And from then on this disciple took her into his home.

THE DEATH OF JESUS

28Jesus knew that his mission was now finished, and to fulfill Scripture he said, “I am thirsty.”* 29A jar of sour wine was sitting there, so they soaked a sponge in it, put it on a hyssop branch, and held it up to his lips. 30When Jesus had tasted it, he said, “It is finished!” Then he bowed his head and released his spirit.

31It was the day of preparation, and the Jewish leaders didn’t want the bodies hanging there the next day, which was the Sabbath (and a very special Sabbath, because it was the Passover). So they asked Pilate to hasten their deaths by ordering that their legs be broken.
Then their bodies could be taken down. 32So the soldiers came and broke the legs of the two men crucified with Jesus. 33But when they came to Jesus, they saw that he was already dead, so they didn’t break his legs. 34One of the soldiers, however, pierced his side with a spear, and immediately blood and water flowed out. 35(This report is from an eyewitness giving an accurate account. He speaks the truth so that you also may continue to believe.*) 36These things happened in fulfillment of the Scriptures that say, “Not one of his bones will be broken,”37and “They will look on the one they pierced.”

THE BURIAL OF JESUS

38Afterward Joseph of Arimathea, who had been a secret disciple of Jesus (because he feared the Jewish leaders), asked Pilate for permission to take down Jesus’ body. When Pilate gave permission, Joseph came and took the body away. 39With him came Nicodemus, the man who had come to Jesus at night. He brought about seventy-five pounds* of perfumed ointment made from myrrh and aloes.
40Following Jewish burial custom, they wrapped Jesus’ body with the spices in long sheets of linen cloth. 41The place of crucifixion was near a garden, where there was a new tomb, never used before.
42And so, because it was the day of preparation for the Jewish Passover* and since the tomb was close at hand, they laid Jesus there.

THE RESURRECTION

1Early on Sunday morning,* while it was still dark, Mary Magdalene came to the tomb and found that the stone had been rolled away from the entrance. 2She ran and found Simon Peter and the other disciple, the one whom Jesus loved. She said, “They have taken the Lord’s body out of the tomb, and we don’t know where they have put him!”

3Peter and the other disciple started out for the tomb. 4They were both running, but the other disciple outran Peter and reached the tomb first. 5He stooped and looked in and saw the linen wrappings lying there, but he didn’t go in. 6Then Simon Peter arrived and went inside. He also noticed the linen wrappings lying there, 7while the cloth that had covered Jesus’ head was folded up and lying apart from the other wrappings. 8Then the disciple who had reached the tomb first also went in, and he saw and believed—9for until then they still hadn’t understood the Scriptures that said Jesus must rise from the dead. 10Then they went home.

JESUS APPEARS TO MARY MAGDALENE

11Mary was standing outside the tomb crying, and as she wept, she stooped and looked in. 12She saw two white-robed angels, one sitting at the head and the other at the foot of the place where the body of Jesus had been lying. 13“Dear woman, why are you crying?”
the angels asked her.

“Because they have taken away my Lord,” she replied, “and I don’t know where they have put him.”

14She turned to leave and saw someone standing there. It was Jesus, but she didn’t recognize him. 15“Dear woman, why are you crying?”
Jesus asked her. “Who are you looking for?”

She thought he was the gardener. “Sir,” she said, “if you have taken him away, tell me where you have put him, and I will go and get him.”

16“Mary!” Jesus said.

She turned to him and cried out, “Rabboni!” (which is Hebrew for “Teacher”).

17“Don’t cling to me,” Jesus said, “for I haven’t yet ascended to the Father. But go find my brothers and tell them, ‘I am ascending to my Father and your Father, to my God and your God.’”

18Mary Magdalene found the disciples and told them, “I have seen the Lord!” Then she gave them his message.

JESUS APPEARS TO HIS DISCIPLES

19That Sunday evening* the disciples were meeting behind locked doors because they were afraid of the Jewish leaders. Suddenly, Jesus was standing there among them! “Peace be with you,” he said. 20As he spoke, he showed them the wounds in his hands and his side. They were filled with joy when they saw the Lord! 21Again he said, “Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me, so I am sending you.” 22Then he breathed on them and said, “Receive the Holy Spirit. 23If you forgive anyone’s sins, they are forgiven. If you do not forgive them, they are not forgiven.”

JESUS APPEARS TO THOMAS

24One of the twelve disciples, Thomas (nicknamed the Twin),* was not with the others when Jesus came. 25They told him, “We have seen the Lord!”

But he replied, “I won’t believe it unless I see the nail wounds in his hands, put my fingers into them, and place my hand into the wound in his side.”

26Eight days later the disciples were together again, and this time Thomas was with them. The doors were locked; but suddenly, as before, Jesus was standing among them. “Peace be with you,” he said. 27Then he said to Thomas, “Put your finger here, and look at my hands. Put your hand into the wound in my side. Don’t be faithless any longer. Believe!”

28“My Lord and my God!” Thomas exclaimed.

29Then Jesus told him, “You believe because you have seen me.
Blessed are those who believe without seeing me.”

PURPOSE OF THE BOOK

30The disciples saw Jesus do many other miraculous signs in addition to the ones recorded in this book. 31But these are written so that you may continue to believe* that Jesus is the Messiah, the Son of God, and that by believing in him you will have life by the power of his name.

John 21

EPILOGUE: JESUS APPEARS TO SEVEN DISCIPLES

1Later, Jesus appeared again to the disciples beside the Sea of Galilee.* This is how it happened. 2Several of the disciples were there—Simon Peter, Thomas (nicknamed the Twin),* Nathanael from Cana in Galilee, the sons of Zebedee, and two other disciples.

3Simon Peter said, “I’m going fishing.”

“We’ll come, too,” they all said. So they went out in the boat, but they caught nothing all night.

4At dawn Jesus was standing on the beach, but the disciples couldn’t see who he was. 5He called out, “Fellows,* have you caught any fish?”

“No,” they replied.

6Then he said, “Throw out your net on the right-hand side of the boat, and you’ll get some!” So they did, and they couldn’t haul in the net because there were so many fish in it.

7Then the disciple Jesus loved said to Peter, “It’s the Lord!” When Simon Peter heard that it was the Lord, he put on his tunic (for he had stripped for work), jumped into the water, and headed to shore.
8The others stayed with the boat and pulled the loaded net to the shore, for they were only about a hundred yards* from shore. 9When they got there, they found breakfast waiting for them—fish cooking over a charcoal fire, and some bread.

10“Bring some of the fish you’ve just caught,” Jesus said. 11So Simon Peter went aboard and dragged the net to the shore. There were 153 large fish, and yet the net hadn’t torn.

12“Now come and have some breakfast!” Jesus said. None of the disciples dared to ask him, “Who are you?” They knew it was the Lord. 13Then Jesus served them the bread and the fish. 14This was the third time Jesus had appeared to his disciples since he had been raised from the dead.

15After breakfast Jesus asked Simon Peter, “Simon son of John, do you love me more than these?*”

“Yes, Lord,” Peter replied, “you know I love you.”

“Then feed my lambs,” Jesus told him.

16Jesus repeated the question: “Simon son of John, do you love me?”

“Yes, Lord,” Peter said, “you know I love you.”

“Then take care of my sheep,” Jesus said.

17A third time he asked him, “Simon son of John, do you love me?”

Peter was hurt that Jesus asked the question a third time. He said, “Lord, you know everything. You know that I love you.”

Jesus said, “Then feed my sheep.

18“I tell you the truth, when you were young, you were able to do as you liked; you dressed yourself and went wherever you wanted to go. But when you are old, you will stretch out your hands, and others* will dress you and take you where you don’t want to go.” 19Jesus said this to let him know by what kind of death he would glorify God. Then Jesus told him, “Follow me.”

20Peter turned around and saw behind them the disciple Jesus loved —the one who had leaned over to Jesus during supper and asked, “Lord, who will betray you?” 21Peter asked Jesus, “What about him, Lord?”

22Jesus replied, “If I want him to remain alive until I return, what is that to you? As for you, follow me.” 23So the rumor spread among the community of believers* that this disciple wouldn’t die. But that isn’t what Jesus said at all. He only said, “If I want him to remain alive until I return, what is that to you?”

24This disciple is the one who testifies to these events and has recorded them here. And we know that his account of these things is accurate.

25Jesus also did many other things. If they were all written down, I suppose the whole world could not contain the books that would be written.

WELCOME TO

ACTS

The book of Acts is the sequel to the Gospel of Luke, written by the same author. It carefully records the “acts” of the Holy Spirit working through the apostles and the early church. In great detail it tells the story of the church’s beginnings, the Spirit’s arrival to empower God’s people to share the gospel, and the amazing growth of the church from a few people in Jerusalem to thousands in communities throughout the known world. The book begins with Jesus’ ascension and the coming of the Holy Spirit at Pentecost. Then it focuses on the missionary work of Peter and moves on to the conversion and the missionary journeys of Paul. The apostles preach the Good News in Jerusalem before spreading out into Judea and Samaria, to the cities of Damascus and Antioch, and then to “the ends of the earth”—Asia Minor, Macedonia, Greece, and Rome.

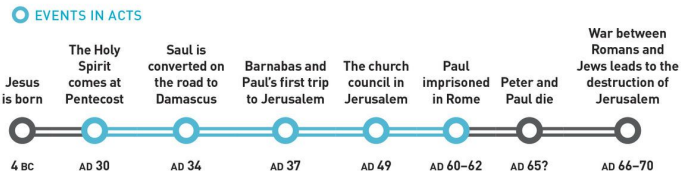
FINDING JESUS IN ACTS

Acts begins with Jesus ascending to heaven, but the whole book is about his activity through his church. Shortly after the Ascension, the Holy Spirit, whom Jesus had promised to his disciples, arrived. Although Jesus was no longer present in body, his Spirit infused the newly founded church with confidence to boldly share his teachings: first in Judea and Samaria, then throughout the Roman world. Through the power of the Holy Spirit, Jesus worked in the lives of such people as Peter, James, John, Stephen, Philip, Cornelius, Paul, Barnabas, Silas, Lydia, Priscilla, Aquila, John Mark, and Luke.



Acts 1

THE PROMISE OF THE HOLY SPIRIT

1In my first book* I told you, Theophilus, about everything Jesus began to do and teach 2until the day he was taken up to heaven after giving his chosen apostles further instructions through the Holy Spirit. 3During the forty days after he suffered and died, he appeared to the apostles from time to time, and he proved to them in many ways that he was actually alive. And he talked to them about the Kingdom of God.

4Once when he was eating with them, he commanded them, “Do not leave Jerusalem until the Father sends you the gift he promised, as I told you before. 5John baptized with* water, but in just a few days you will be baptized with the Holy Spirit.”

MOUNT OF OLIVES

THE ASCENSION OF JESUS

6So when the apostles were with Jesus, they kept asking him, “Lord, has the time come for you to free Israel and restore our kingdom?”

7He replied, “The Father alone has the authority to set those dates and times, and they are not for you to know. 8But you will receive power when the Holy Spirit comes upon you. And you will be my witnesses, telling people about me everywhere—in Jerusalem, throughout Judea, in Samaria, and to the ends of the earth.”

9After saying this, he was taken up into a cloud while they were watching, and they could no longer see him. 10As they strained to see him rising into heaven, two white-robed men suddenly stood among them. 11“Men of Galilee,” they said, “why are you standing here staring into heaven? Jesus has been taken from you into heaven, but someday he will return from heaven in the same way you saw him go!”

MATTHIAS REPLACES JUDAS

12Then the apostles returned to Jerusalem from the Mount of Olives, a distance of half a mile.*13When they arrived, they went to the upstairs room of the house where they were staying.

Here are the names of those who were present: Peter, John, James, Andrew, Philip, Thomas, Bartholomew, Matthew, James (son of Alphaeus), Simon (the Zealot), and Judas (son of James). 14They all met together and were constantly united in prayer, along with Mary the mother of Jesus, several other women, and the brothers of Jesus.

15During this time, when about 120 believers* were together in one place, Peter stood up and addressed them. 16“Brothers,” he said, “the Scriptures had to be fulfilled concerning Judas, who guided those who arrested Jesus. This was predicted long ago by the Holy Spirit, speaking through King David. 17Judas was one of us and shared in the ministry with us.”

18(Judas had bought a field with the money he received for his treachery. Falling headfirst there, his body split open, spilling out all his intestines. 19The news of his death spread to all the people of Jerusalem, and they gave the place the Aramaic name Akeldama, which means “Field of Blood.”)

20Peter continued, “This was written in the book of Psalms, where it says, ‘Let his home become desolate, with no one living in it.’ It also says, ‘Let someone else take his position.’*

21“So now we must choose a replacement for Judas from among the men who were with us the entire time we were traveling with the Lord Jesus—22from the time he was baptized by John until the day he was taken from us. Whoever is chosen will join us as a witness of Jesus’ resurrection.”

23So they nominated two men: Joseph called Barsabbas (also known as Justus) and Matthias. 24Then they all prayed, “O Lord, you know every heart. Show us which of these men you have chosen 25as an apostle to replace Judas in this ministry, for he has deserted us and gone where he belongs.” 26Then they cast lots, and Matthias was selected to become an apostle with the other eleven.

HOLY SPIRIT ACTS 2:1-13

Acts 2

THE HOLY SPIRIT COMES

1On the day of Pentecost* all the believers were meeting together in one place. 2Suddenly, there was a sound from heaven like the roaring of a mighty windstorm, and it filled the house where they were sitting. 3Then, what looked like flames or tongues of fire appeared and settled on each of them. 4And everyone present was filled with the Holy Spirit and began speaking in other languages,* as the Holy Spirit gave them this ability.

5At that time there were devout Jews from every nation living in Jerusalem. 6When they heard the loud noise, everyone came running, and they were bewildered to hear their own languages being spoken by the believers.

7They were completely amazed. “How can this be?” they exclaimed.
“These people are all from Galilee, 8and yet we hear them speaking in our own native languages! 9Here we are—Parthians, Medes, Elamites, people from Mesopotamia, Judea, Cappadocia, Pontus, the province of Asia, 10Phrygia, Pamphylia, Egypt, and the areas of Libya around Cyrene, visitors from Rome 11(both Jews and converts to Judaism), Cretans, and Arabs. And we all hear these people speaking in our own languages about the wonderful things God has done!” 12They stood there amazed and perplexed. “What can this mean?” they asked each other.

13But others in the crowd ridiculed them, saying, “They’re just drunk, that’s all!”

PETER PREACHES TO THE CROWD

14Then Peter stepped forward with the eleven other apostles and shouted to the crowd, “Listen carefully, all of you, fellow Jews and residents of Jerusalem! Make no mistake about this. 15These people are not drunk, as some of you are assuming. Nine o’clock in the morning is much too early for that. 16No, what you see was predicted long ago by the prophet Joel:

17‘In the last days,’ God says, ‘I will pour out my Spirit upon all people.
Your sons and daughters will prophesy.
Your young men will see visions, and your old men will dream dreams.

18In those days I will pour out my Spirit even on my servants—men and women alike— and they will prophesy.

19And I will cause wonders in the heavens above and signs on the earth below— blood and fire and clouds of smoke.

20The sun will become dark, and the moon will turn blood red before that great and glorious day of the LORD arrives.

21But everyone who calls on the name of the LORD
will be saved.’*

22“People of Israel, listen! God publicly endorsed Jesus the Nazarene* by doing powerful miracles, wonders, and signs through him, as you well know. 23But God knew what would happen, and his prearranged plan was carried out when Jesus was betrayed.
With the help of lawless Gentiles, you nailed him to a cross and killed him. 24But God released him from the horrors of death and raised him back to life, for death could not keep him in its grip.
25King David said this about him: ‘I see that the LORD is always with me.

I will not be shaken, for he is right beside me.

26No wonder my heart is glad, and my tongue shouts his praises!
My body rests in hope.

27For you will not leave my soul among the dead*
or allow your Holy One to rot in the grave.

28You have shown me the way of life, and you will fill me with the joy of your presence.’*

29“Dear brothers, think about this! You can be sure that the patriarch David wasn’t referring to himself, for he died and was buried, and his tomb is still here among us. 30But he was a prophet, and he knew God had promised with an oath that one of David’s own descendants would sit on his throne. 31David was looking into the future and speaking of the Messiah’s resurrection. He was saying that God would not leave him among the dead or allow his body to rot in the grave.

32“God raised Jesus from the dead, and we are all witnesses of this.
33Now he is exalted to the place of highest honor in heaven, at God’s right hand. And the Father, as he had promised, gave him the Holy Spirit to pour out upon us, just as you see and hear today.
34For David himself never ascended into heaven, yet he said, ‘The LORD said to my Lord, “Sit in the place of honor at my right hand

35until I humble your enemies, making them a footstool under your feet.”’*

36“So let everyone in Israel know for certain that God has made this Jesus, whom you crucified, to be both Lord and Messiah!”

37Peter’s words pierced their hearts, and they said to him and to the other apostles, “Brothers, what should we do?”

38Peter replied, “Each of you must repent of your sins and turn to God, and be baptized in the name of Jesus Christ for the forgiveness of your sins. Then you will receive the gift of the Holy Spirit. 39This promise is to you, to your children, and to those far away*—all who have been called by the Lord our God.” 40Then Peter continued preaching for a long time, strongly urging all his listeners, “Save yourselves from this crooked generation!”

41Those who believed what Peter said were baptized and added to the church that day—about 3,000 in all.

THE BELIEVERS FORM A COMMUNITY

42All the believers devoted themselves to the apostles’ teaching, and to fellowship, and to sharing in meals (including the Lord’s Supper*), and to prayer.

43A deep sense of awe came over them all, and the apostles performed many miraculous signs and wonders. 44And all the believers met together in one place and shared everything they had.
45They sold their property and possessions and shared the money with those in need. 46They worshiped together at the Temple each day, met in homes for the Lord's Supper, and shared their meals with great joy and generosity*—47all the while praising God and enjoying the goodwill of all the people. And each day the Lord added to their fellowship those who were being saved.

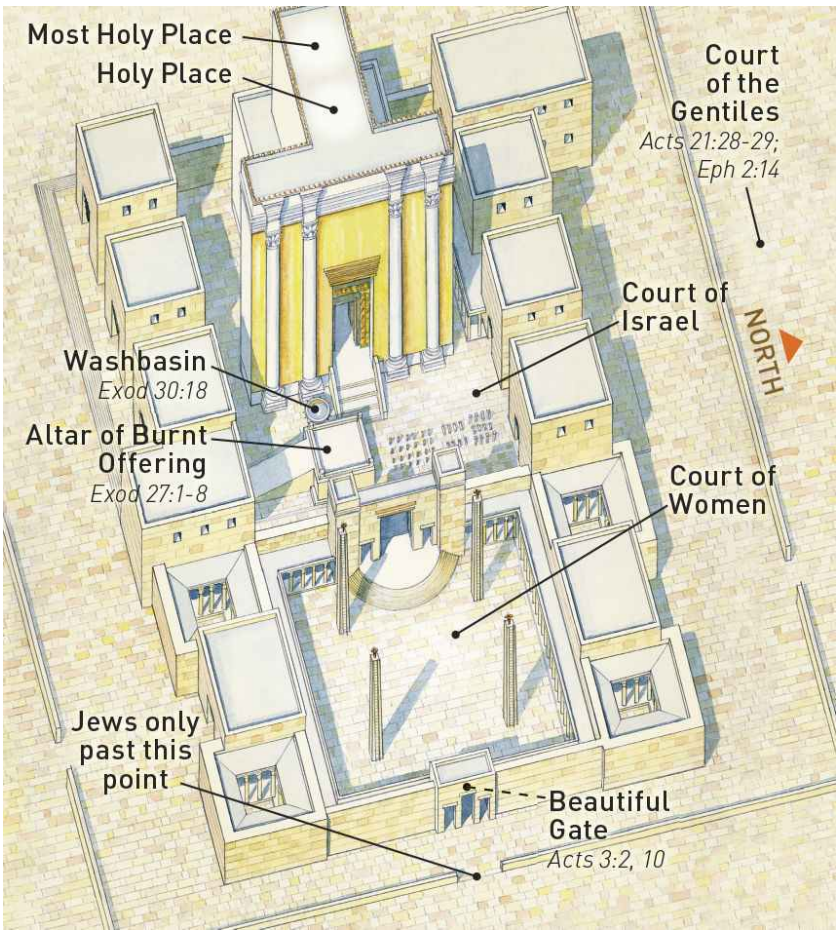
HEALING ACTS 3:1-11



THE TEMPLE IN JERUSALEM

Acts 3

PETER HEALS A CRIPPLED BEGGAR

1Peter and John went to the Temple one afternoon to take part in the three o'clock prayer service. 2As they approached the Temple, a man lame from birth was being carried in. Each day he was put beside the Temple gate, the one called the Beautiful Gate, so he could beg from the people going into the Temple. 3When he saw Peter and John about to enter, he asked them for some money.

4Peter and John looked at him intently, and Peter said, “Look at us!” 5The lame man looked at them eagerly, expecting some money. 6But Peter said, “I don’t have any silver or gold for you. But I’ll give you what I have. In the name of Jesus Christ the Nazarene,* get up and* walk!”

7Then Peter took the lame man by the right hand and helped him up. And as he did, the man’s feet and ankles were instantly healed and strengthened. 8He jumped up, stood on his feet, and began to walk! Then, walking, leaping, and praising God, he went into the Temple with them.

9All the people saw him walking and heard him praising God. 10When they realized he was the lame beggar they had seen so often at the Beautiful Gate, they were absolutely astounded! 11They all rushed out in amazement to Solomon’s Colonnade, where the man was holding tightly to Peter and John.

PETER PREACHES IN THE TEMPLE

12Peter saw his opportunity and addressed the crowd. “People of Israel,” he said, “what is so surprising about this? And why stare at us as though we had made this man walk by our own power or godliness? 13For it is the God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob—the God of all our ancestors—who has brought glory to his servant

Jesus by doing this. This is the same Jesus whom you handed over and rejected before Pilate, despite Pilate's decision to release him.
14You rejected this holy, righteous one and instead demanded the release of a murderer. 15You killed the author of life, but God raised him from the dead. And we are witnesses of this fact!

16"Through faith in the name of Jesus, this man was healed—and you know how crippled he was before. Faith in Jesus' name has healed him before your very eyes.

17"Friends,* I realize that what you and your leaders did to Jesus was done in ignorance. 18But God was fulfilling what all the prophets had foretold about the Messiah—that he must suffer these things. 19Now repent of your sins and turn to God, so that your sins may be wiped away. 20Then times of refreshment will come from the presence of the Lord, and he will again send you Jesus, your appointed Messiah. 21For he must remain in heaven until the time for the final restoration of all things, as God promised long ago through his holy prophets. 22Moses said, 'The LORD your God will raise up for you a Prophet like me from among your own people.
Listen carefully to everything he tells you.'23Then Moses said, 'Anyone who will not listen to that Prophet will be completely cut off from God's people.'

24"Starting with Samuel, every prophet spoke about what is happening today. 25You are the children of those prophets, and you are included in the covenant God promised to your ancestors. For God said to Abraham, 'Through your descendants* all the families on earth will be blessed.' 26When God raised up his servant, Jesus, he sent him first to you people of Israel, to bless you by turning each of you back from your sinful ways."

Acts 4

PETER AND JOHN BEFORE THE COUNCIL

1While Peter and John were speaking to the people, they were confronted by the priests, the captain of the Temple guard, and some of the Sadducees. 2These leaders were very disturbed that Peter and John were teaching the people that through Jesus there is a resurrection of the dead. 3They arrested them and, since it was already evening, put them in jail until morning. 4But many of the people who heard their message believed it, so the number of believers now totaled about 5,000 men, not counting women and children.*

5The next day the council of all the rulers and elders and teachers of religious law met in Jerusalem. 6Annas the high priest was there, along with Caiaphas, John, Alexander, and other relatives of the high priest. 7They brought in the two disciples and demanded, “By what power, or in whose name, have you done this?”

8Then Peter, filled with the Holy Spirit, said to them, “Rulers and elders of our people, 9are we being questioned today because we’ve done a good deed for a crippled man? Do you want to know how he was healed? 10Let me clearly state to all of you and to all the people of Israel that he was healed by the powerful name of Jesus Christ the Nazarene,* the man you crucified but whom God raised from the dead. 11For Jesus is the one referred to in the Scriptures, where it says, ‘The stone that you builders rejected has now become the cornerstone.’*

12There is salvation in no one else! God has given no other name under heaven by which we must be saved."

13The members of the council were amazed when they saw the boldness of Peter and John, for they could see that they were ordinary men with no special training in the Scriptures. They also recognized them as men who had been with Jesus. 14But since they could see the man who had been healed standing right there among them, there was nothing the council could say. 15So they ordered Peter and John out of the council chamber* and conferred among themselves.

16"What should we do with these men?" they asked each other. "We can't deny that they have performed a miraculous sign, and everybody in Jerusalem knows about it. 17But to keep them from spreading their propaganda any further, we must warn them not to speak to anyone in Jesus' name again." 18So they called the apostles back in and commanded them never again to speak or teach in the name of Jesus.

19But Peter and John replied, "Do you think God wants us to obey you rather than him? 20We cannot stop telling about everything we have seen and heard."

21The council then threatened them further, but they finally let them go because they didn't know how to punish them without starting a riot. For everyone was praising God 22for this miraculous sign—the healing of a man who had been lame for more than forty years.

THE BELIEVERS PRAY FOR COURAGE

23As soon as they were freed, Peter and John returned to the other believers and told them what the leading priests and elders had said. 24When they heard the report, all the believers lifted their voices together in prayer to God: "O Sovereign Lord, Creator of heaven and earth, the sea, and everything in them—25you spoke long ago by the Holy Spirit through our ancestor David, your servant, saying, ‘Why were the nations so angry?

Why did they waste their time with futile plans?

26The kings of the earth prepared for battle; the rulers gathered together against the LORD and against his Messiah.’*

27“In fact, this has happened here in this very city! For Herod Antipas, Pontius Pilate the governor, the Gentiles, and the people of Israel were all united against Jesus, your holy servant, whom you anointed. 28But everything they did was determined beforehand according to your will. 29And now, O Lord, hear their threats, and give us, your servants, great boldness in preaching your word. 30Stretch out your hand with healing power; may miraculous signs and wonders be done through the name of your holy servant Jesus.”

31After this prayer, the meeting place shook, and they were all filled with the Holy Spirit. Then they preached the word of God with boldness.

THE BELIEVERS SHARE THEIR POSSESSIONS

32All the believers were united in heart and mind. And they felt that what they owned was not their own, so they shared everything they had. 33The apostles testified powerfully to the resurrection of the Lord Jesus, and God's great blessing was upon them all. 34There were no needy people among them, because those who owned land or houses would sell them 35and bring the money to the apostles to give to those in need.

THE ISLAND OF CYPRUS

36For instance, there was Joseph, the one the apostles nicknamed Barnabas (which means "Son of Encouragement"). He was from the tribe of Levi and came from the island of Cyprus. 37He sold a field he owned and brought the money to the apostles.

Acts 5

ANANIAS AND SAPPHIRA

1But there was a certain man named Ananias who, with his wife, Sapphira, sold some property. 2He brought part of the money to the apostles, claiming it was the full amount. With his wife's consent, he kept the rest.

3Then Peter said, "Ananias, why have you let Satan fill your heart? You lied to the Holy Spirit, and you kept some of the money for yourself. 4The property was yours to sell or not sell, as you wished. And after selling it, the money was also yours to give away. How could you do a thing like this? You weren't lying to us but to God!"

5As soon as Ananias heard these words, he fell to the floor and died.
Everyone who heard about it was terrified. 6Then some young men got up, wrapped him in a sheet, and took him out and buried him.

7About three hours later his wife came in, not knowing what had happened. 8Peter asked her, “Was this the price you and your husband received for your land?”

“Yes,” she replied, “that was the price.”

9And Peter said, “How could the two of you even think of conspiring to test the Spirit of the Lord like this? The young men who buried your husband are just outside the door, and they will carry you out, too.”

10Instantly, she fell to the floor and died. When the young men came in and saw that she was dead, they carried her out and buried her beside her husband. 11Great fear gripped the entire church and everyone else who heard what had happened.

SOLOMON’S COLONNADE

THE APOSTLES HEAL MANY

12The apostles were performing many miraculous signs and wonders among the people. And all the believers were meeting regularly at the Temple in the area known as Solomon’s Colonnade. 13But no one else dared to join them, even though all the people had high regard for them. 14Yet more and more people believed and were brought to the Lord—crowds of both men and women. 15As a result of the apostles’ work, sick people were brought out into the streets on beds and mats so that Peter’s shadow might fall across some of them as he went by. 16Crowds came from the villages around

Jerusalem, bringing their sick and those possessed by evil* spirits, and they were all healed.

THE APOSTLES MEET OPPOSITION

17The high priest and his officials, who were Sadducees, were filled with jealousy. 18They arrested the apostles and put them in the public jail. 19But an angel of the Lord came at night, opened the gates of the jail, and brought them out. Then he told them, 20"Go to the Temple and give the people this message of life!"

21So at daybreak the apostles entered the Temple, as they were told, and immediately began teaching.

When the high priest and his officials arrived, they convened the high council*—the full assembly of the elders of Israel. Then they sent for the apostles to be brought from the jail for trial. 22But when the Temple guards went to the jail, the men were gone. So they returned to the council and reported, 23"The jail was securely locked, with the guards standing outside, but when we opened the gates, no one was there!"

24When the captain of the Temple guard and the leading priests heard this, they were perplexed, wondering where it would all end. 25Then someone arrived with startling news: "The men you put in jail are standing in the Temple, teaching the people!"

26The captain went with his Temple guards and arrested the apostles, but without violence, for they were afraid the people would stone them. 27Then they brought the apostles before the high council, where the high priest confronted them. 28"We gave you strict orders never again to teach in this man's name!" he said. "Instead, you have filled all Jerusalem with your teaching about him, and you want to make us responsible for his death!"

29But Peter and the apostles replied, "We must obey God rather than any human authority. 30The God of our ancestors raised Jesus from the dead after you killed him by hanging him on a cross.*31Then God put him in the place of honor at his right hand as Prince and Savior. He did this so the people of Israel would repent of their sins and be forgiven. 32We are witnesses of these things and so is the Holy Spirit, who is given by God to those who obey him."

33When they heard this, the high council was furious and decided to kill them. 34But one member, a Pharisee named Gamaliel, who was an expert in religious law and respected by all the people, stood up and ordered that the men be sent outside the council chamber for a while. 35Then he said to his colleagues, "Men of Israel, take care what you are planning to do to these men! 36Some time ago there was that fellow Theudas, who pretended to be someone great.
About 400 others joined him, but he was killed, and all his followers went their various ways. The whole movement came to nothing. 37After him, at the time of the census, there was Judas of Galilee. He got people to follow him, but he was killed, too, and all his followers were scattered.

38"So my advice is, leave these men alone. Let them go. If they are planning and doing these things merely on their own, it will soon be overthrown. 39But if it is from God, you will not be able to overthrow them. You may even find yourselves fighting against God!"

40The others accepted his advice. They called in the apostles and had them flogged. Then they ordered them never again to speak in the name of Jesus, and they let them go.

41The apostles left the high council rejoicing that God had counted them worthy to suffer disgrace for the name of Jesus.*42And every day, in the Temple and from house to house, they continued to teach and preach this message: "Jesus is the Messiah."

THE GOOD NEWS SPREADS

Acts 6

SEVEN MEN CHOSEN TO SERVE

1But as the believers* rapidly multiplied, there were rumblings of discontent. The Greek-speaking believers complained about the Hebrew-speaking believers, saying that their widows were being discriminated against in the daily distribution of food.

2So the Twelve called a meeting of all the believers. They said, "We apostles should spend our time teaching the word of God, not running a food program. 3And so, brothers, select seven men who are well respected and are full of the Spirit and wisdom. We will give them this responsibility. 4Then we apostles can spend our time in prayer and teaching the word."

5Everyone liked this idea, and they chose the following: Stephen (a man full of faith and the Holy Spirit), Philip, Procorus, Nicanor, Timon, Parmenas, and Nicolas of Antioch (an earlier convert to the Jewish faith). 6These seven were presented to the apostles, who prayed for them as they laid their hands on them.

7So God's message continued to spread. The number of believers greatly increased in Jerusalem, and many of the Jewish priests were converted, too.

STEPHEN IS ARRESTED

8Stephen, a man full of God's grace and power, performed amazing miracles and signs among the people. 9But one day some men from the Synagogue of Freed Slaves, as it was called, started to debate with him. They were Jews from Cyrene, Alexandria, Cilicia, and the province of Asia. 10None of them could stand against the wisdom and the Spirit with which Stephen spoke.

11So they persuaded some men to lie about Stephen, saying, "We heard him blaspheme Moses, and even God." 12This roused the people, the elders, and the teachers of religious law. So they arrested Stephen and brought him before the high council.*

13The lying witnesses said, “This man is always speaking against the holy Temple and against the law of Moses. 14We have heard him say that this Jesus of Nazareth* will destroy the Temple and change the customs Moses handed down to us.”

15At this point everyone in the high council stared at Stephen, because his face became as bright as an angel’s.

Acts 7

STEPHEN ADDRESSES THE COUNCIL

1Then the high priest asked Stephen, “Are these accusations true?”

2This was Stephen’s reply: “Brothers and fathers, listen to me. Our glorious God appeared to our ancestor Abraham in Mesopotamia before he settled in Haran.*3God told him, ‘Leave your native land and your relatives, and come into the land that I will show you.’*4So Abraham left the land of the Chaldeans and lived in Haran until his father died. Then God brought him here to the land where you now live.

5“But God gave him no inheritance here, not even one square foot of land. God did promise, however, that eventually the whole land would belong to Abraham and his descendants—even though he had no children yet. 6God also told him that his descendants would live in a foreign land, where they would be oppressed as slaves for 400 years. 7‘But I will punish the nation that enslaves them,’ God said, ‘and in the end they will come out and worship me here in this place.’*

8“God also gave Abraham the covenant of circumcision at that time.
So when Abraham became the father of Isaac, he circumcised him on the eighth day. And the practice was continued when Isaac became the father of Jacob, and when Jacob became the father of the twelve patriarchs of the Israelite nation.

9“These patriarchs were jealous of their brother Joseph, and they sold him to be a slave in Egypt. But God was with him 10and rescued him from all his troubles. And God gave him favor before Pharaoh, king of Egypt. God also gave Joseph unusual wisdom, so that Pharaoh appointed him governor over all of Egypt and put him in charge of the palace.

11“But a famine came upon Egypt and Canaan. There was great misery, and our ancestors ran out of food. 12Jacob heard that there was still grain in Egypt, so he sent his sons—our ancestors—to buy some. 13The second time they went, Joseph revealed his identity to his brothers,* and they were introduced to Pharaoh. 14Then Joseph sent for his father, Jacob, and all his relatives to come to Egypt, seventy-five persons in all. 15So Jacob went to Egypt. He died there, as did our ancestors. 16Their bodies were taken to Shechem and buried in the tomb Abraham had bought for a certain price from Hamor’s sons in Shechem.

17“As the time drew near when God would fulfill his promise to Abraham, the number of our people in Egypt greatly increased.
18But then a new king came to the throne of Egypt who knew nothing about Joseph. 19This king exploited our people and oppressed them, forcing parents to abandon their newborn babies so they would die.

20“At that time Moses was born—a beautiful child in God’s eyes. His parents cared for him at home for three months. 21When they had to abandon him, Pharaoh’s daughter adopted him and raised him as her own son. 22Moses was taught all the wisdom of the Egyptians, and he was powerful in both speech and action.

23“One day when Moses was forty years old, he decided to visit his relatives, the people of Israel. 24He saw an Egyptian mistreating an Israelite. So Moses came to the man’s defense and avenged him, killing the Egyptian. 25Moses assumed his fellow Israelites would realize that God had sent him to rescue them, but they didn’t.

26“The next day he visited them again and saw two men of Israel fighting. He tried to be a peacemaker. ‘Men,’ he said, ‘you are brothers. Why are you fighting each other?’

27“But the man in the wrong pushed Moses aside. ‘Who made you a ruler and judge over us?’ he asked. 28‘Are you going to kill me as you killed that Egyptian yesterday?’ 29When Moses heard that, he fled the country and lived as a foreigner in the land of Midian.
There his two sons were born.

30“Forty years later, in the desert near Mount Sinai, an angel appeared to Moses in the flame of a burning bush. 31When Moses saw it, he was amazed at the sight. As he went to take a closer look, the voice of the LORD called out to him, 32‘I am the God of your ancestors—the God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob.’ Moses shook with terror and did not dare to look.

33“Then the LORD said to him, ‘Take off your sandals, for you are standing on holy ground. 34I have certainly seen the oppression of my people in Egypt. I have heard their groans and have come down to rescue them. Now go, for I am sending you back to Egypt.’*

35“So God sent back the same man his people had previously rejected when they demanded, ‘Who made you a ruler and judge over us?’ Through the angel who appeared to him in the burning bush, God sent Moses to be their ruler and savior. 36And by means of many wonders and miraculous signs, he led them out of Egypt, through the Red Sea, and through the wilderness for forty years.

37“Moses himself told the people of Israel, ‘God will raise up for you a Prophet like me from among your own people.’38Moses was with our ancestors, the assembly of God’s people in the wilderness, when the angel spoke to him at Mount Sinai. And there Moses received life-giving words to pass on to us.

39“But our ancestors refused to listen to Moses. They rejected him and wanted to return to Egypt. 40They told Aaron, ‘Make us some gods who can lead us, for we don’t know what has become of this Moses, who brought us out of Egypt.’ 41So they made an idol shaped like a calf, and they sacrificed to it and celebrated over this thing they had made. 42Then God turned away from them and abandoned them to serve the stars of heaven as their gods! In the book of the prophets it is written, ‘Was it to me you were bringing sacrifices and offerings during those forty years in the wilderness, Israel?

43No, you carried your pagan gods— the shrine of Molech, the star of your god Rephan, and the images you made to worship them.
So I will send you into exile as far away as Babylon.’*

44“Our ancestors carried the Tabernacle* with them through the wilderness. It was constructed according to the plan God had shown to Moses. 45Years later, when Joshua led our ancestors in battle against the nations that God drove out of this land, the Tabernacle was taken with them into their new territory. And it stayed there until the time of King David.

46“David found favor with God and asked for the privilege of building a permanent Temple for the God of Jacob.*47But it was Solomon who actually built it. 48However, the Most High doesn’t live in temples made by human hands. As the prophet says, 49‘Heaven is my throne, and the earth is my footstool.

Could you build me a temple as good as that?’

asks the LORD.
‘Could you build me such a resting place?

50Didn’t my hands make both heaven and earth?’*

51“You stubborn people! You are heathen* at heart and deaf to the truth. Must you forever resist the Holy Spirit? That’s what your ancestors did, and so do you! 52Name one prophet your ancestors didn’t persecute! They even killed the ones who predicted the coming of the Righteous One—the Messiah whom you betrayed and murdered. 53You deliberately disobeyed God’s law, even though you received it from the hands of angels.”

54The Jewish leaders were infuriated by Stephen’s accusation, and they shook their fists at him in rage.*55But Stephen, full of the Holy Spirit, gazed steadily into heaven and saw the glory of God, and he saw Jesus standing in the place of honor at God’s right hand. 56And he told them, “Look, I see the heavens opened and the Son of Man standing in the place of honor at God’s right hand!”

57Then they put their hands over their ears and began shouting. They rushed at him 58and dragged him out of the city and began to stone him. His accusers took off their coats and laid them at the feet of a young man named Saul.*

59As they stoned him, Stephen prayed, “Lord Jesus, receive my spirit.” 60He fell to his knees, shouting, “Lord, don’t charge them with this sin!” And with that, he died.

Acts 8

1Saul was one of the witnesses, and he agreed completely with the killing of Stephen.

PERSECUTION SCATTERS THE BELIEVERS

A great wave of persecution began that day, sweeping over the church in Jerusalem; and all the believers except the apostles were scattered through the regions of Judea and Samaria. 2(Some devout men came and buried Stephen with great mourning.) 3But Saul was going everywhere to destroy the church. He went from house to house, dragging out both men and women to throw them into prison.

DEMONS ACTS 8:4-25

PHILIP PREACHES IN SAMARIA

4But the believers who were scattered preached the Good News about Jesus wherever they went. 5Philip, for example, went to the city of Samaria and told the people there about the Messiah.
6Crowds listened intently to Philip because they were eager to hear his message and see the miraculous signs he did. 7Many evil* spirits were cast out, screaming as they left their victims. And many who had been paralyzed or lame were healed. 8So there was great joy in that city.

9A man named Simon had been a sorcerer there for many years, amazing the people of Samaria and claiming to be someone great.
10Everyone, from the least to the greatest, often spoke of him as "the Great One—the Power of God." 11They listened closely to him because for a long time he had astounded them with his magic.

12But now the people believed Philip's message of Good News concerning the Kingdom of God and the name of Jesus Christ. As a result, many men and women were baptized. 13Then Simon himself believed and was baptized. He began following Philip wherever he went, and he was amazed by the signs and great miracles Philip performed.

14When the apostles in Jerusalem heard that the people of Samaria had accepted God's message, they sent Peter and John there. 15As soon as they arrived, they prayed for these new believers to receive the Holy Spirit. 16The Holy Spirit had not yet come upon any of them, for they had only been baptized in the name of the Lord Jesus. 17Then Peter and John laid their hands upon these believers, and they received the Holy Spirit.

18When Simon saw that the Spirit was given when the apostles laid their hands on people, he offered them money to buy this power. 19"Let me have this power, too," he exclaimed, "so that when I lay my hands on people, they will receive the Holy Spirit!"

20But Peter replied, "May your money be destroyed with you for thinking God's gift can be bought! 21You can have no part in this, for your heart is not right with God. 22Repent of your wickedness and pray to the Lord. Perhaps he will forgive your evil thoughts, 23for I can see that you are full of bitter jealousy and are held captive by sin."

24"Pray to the Lord for me," Simon exclaimed, "that these terrible things you've said won't happen to me!"

25After testifying and preaching the word of the Lord in Samaria, Peter and John returned to Jerusalem. And they stopped in many Samaritan villages along the way to preach the Good News.

ETHIOPIA

PHILIP AND THE ETHIOPIAN EUNUCH

26As for Philip, an angel of the Lord said to him, “Go south* down the desert road that runs from Jerusalem to Gaza.” 27So he started out, and he met the treasurer of Ethiopia, a eunuch of great authority under the Kandake, the queen of Ethiopia. The eunuch had gone to Jerusalem to worship, 28and he was now returning.
Seated in his carriage, he was reading aloud from the book of the prophet Isaiah.

29The Holy Spirit said to Philip, “Go over and walk along beside the carriage.”

30Philip ran over and heard the man reading from the prophet Isaiah. Philip asked, “Do you understand what you are reading?”

31The man replied, “How can I, unless someone instructs me?” And he urged Philip to come up into the carriage and sit with him.

32The passage of Scripture he had been reading was this: “He was led like a sheep to the slaughter.

And as a lamb is silent before the shearers, he did not open his mouth.

33He was humiliated and received no justice.
Who can speak of his descendants?
For his life was taken from the earth.”*

34The eunuch asked Philip, “Tell me, was the prophet talking about himself or someone else?” 35So beginning with this same Scripture, Philip told him the Good News about Jesus.

36As they rode along, they came to some water, and the eunuch said, “Look! There’s some water! Why can’t I be baptized?”*38He ordered the carriage to stop, and they went down into the water, and Philip baptized him.

39When they came up out of the water, the Spirit of the Lord snatched Philip away. The eunuch never saw him again but went on his way rejoicing. 40Meanwhile, Philip found himself farther north at the town of Azotus. He preached the Good News there and in every town along the way until he came to Caesarea.

DAMASCUS

Acts 9

SAUL'S CONVERSION

1Meanwhile, Saul was uttering threats with every breath and was eager to kill the Lord's followers.* So he went to the high priest. 2He requested letters addressed to the synagogues in Damascus, asking for their cooperation in the arrest of any followers of the Way he found there. He wanted to bring them—both men and women—back to Jerusalem in chains.

3As he was approaching Damascus on this mission, a light from heaven suddenly shone down around him. 4He fell to the ground and heard a voice saying to him, "Saul! Saul! Why are you persecuting me?"

5“Who are you, lord?” Saul asked.

And the voice replied, “I am Jesus, the one you are persecuting!
6Now get up and go into the city, and you will be told what you must do.”

7The men with Saul stood speechless, for they heard the sound of someone’s voice but saw no one! 8Saul picked himself up off the ground, but when he opened his eyes he was blind. So his companions led him by the hand to Damascus. 9He remained there blind for three days and did not eat or drink.

10Now there was a believer* in Damascus named Ananias. The Lord spoke to him in a vision, calling, “Ananias!”

“Yes, Lord!” he replied.

11The Lord said, “Go over to Straight Street, to the house of Judas.
When you get there, ask for a man from Tarsus named Saul. He is praying to me right now. 12I have shown him a vision of a man named Ananias coming in and laying hands on him so he can see again.”

13“But Lord,” exclaimed Ananias, “I’ve heard many people talk about the terrible things this man has done to the believers* in Jerusalem! 14And he is authorized by the leading priests to arrest everyone who calls upon your name.”

15But the Lord said, “Go, for Saul is my chosen instrument to take my message to the Gentiles and to kings, as well as to the people of Israel. 16And I will show him how much he must suffer for my name’s sake.”

17So Ananias went and found Saul. He laid his hands on him and said, “Brother Saul, the Lord Jesus, who appeared to you on the road, has sent me so that you might regain your sight and be filled with the Holy Spirit.” 18Instantly something like scales fell from Saul’s eyes, and he regained his sight. Then he got up and was baptized. 19Afterward he ate some food and regained his strength.

SAUL IN DAMASCUS AND JERUSALEM

Saul stayed with the believers* in Damascus for a few days. 20And immediately he began preaching about Jesus in the synagogues, saying, “He is indeed the Son of God!”

21All who heard him were amazed. “Isn’t this the same man who caused such devastation among Jesus’ followers in Jerusalem?” they asked. “And didn’t he come here to arrest them and take them in chains to the leading priests?”

22Saul’s preaching became more and more powerful, and the Jews in Damascus couldn’t refute his proofs that Jesus was indeed the Messiah. 23After a while some of the Jews plotted together to kill him. 24They were watching for him day and night at the city gate so they could murder him, but Saul was told about their plot. 25So during the night, some of the other believers* lowered him in a large basket through an opening in the city wall.

26When Saul arrived in Jerusalem, he tried to meet with the believers, but they were all afraid of him. They did not believe he had truly become a believer! 27Then Barnabas brought him to the apostles and told them how Saul had seen the Lord on the way to Damascus and how the Lord had spoken to Saul. He also told them that Saul had preached boldly in the name of Jesus in Damascus.

28So Saul stayed with the apostles and went all around Jerusalem with them, preaching boldly in the name of the Lord. 29He debated with some Greek-speaking Jews, but they tried to murder him. 30When the believers* heard about this, they took him down to Caesarea and sent him away to Tarsus, his hometown.

31The church then had peace throughout Judea, Galilee, and Samaria, and it became stronger as the believers lived in the fear of the Lord. And with the encouragement of the Holy Spirit, it also grew in numbers.

PETER HEALS AENEAS AND RAISES DORCAS

32Meanwhile, Peter traveled from place to place, and he came down to visit the believers in the town of Lydda. 33There he met a man named Aeneas, who had been paralyzed and bedridden for eight years. 34Peter said to him, “Aeneas, Jesus Christ heals you! Get up, and roll up your sleeping mat!” And he was healed instantly. 35Then the whole population of Lydda and Sharon saw Aeneas walking around, and they turned to the Lord.

36There was a believer in Joppa named Tabitha (which in Greek is Dorcas*). She was always doing kind things for others and helping the poor. 37About this time she became ill and died. Her body was washed for burial and laid in an upstairs room. 38But the believers had heard that Peter was nearby at Lydda, so they sent two men to beg him, “Please come as soon as possible!”

39So Peter returned with them; and as soon as he arrived, they took him to the upstairs room. The room was filled with widows who were weeping and showing him the coats and other clothes Dorcas had made for them. 40But Peter asked them all to leave the room;
then he knelt and prayed. Turning to the body he said, “Get up, Tabitha.” And she opened her eyes! When she saw Peter, she sat up!

41He gave her his hand and helped her up. Then he called in the widows and all the believers, and he presented her to them alive.

42The news spread through the whole town, and many believed in the Lord. 43And Peter stayed a long time in Joppa, living with Simon, a tanner of hides.

CAESAREA

Acts 10

CORNELIUS CALLS FOR PETER

1In Caesarea there lived a Roman army officer* named Cornelius, who was a captain of the Italian Regiment. 2He was a devout, God-fearing man, as was everyone in his household. He gave generously to the poor and prayed regularly to God. 3One afternoon about three o'clock, he had a vision in which he saw an angel of God coming toward him. "Cornelius!" the angel said.

4Cornelius stared at him in terror. "What is it, sir?" he asked the angel.

And the angel replied, "Your prayers and gifts to the poor have been received by God as an offering! 5Now send some men to Joppa, and summon a man named Simon Peter. 6He is staying with Simon, a tanner who lives near the seashore."

7As soon as the angel was gone, Cornelius called two of his household servants and a devout soldier, one of his personal attendants. 8He told them what had happened and sent them off to Joppa.

PETER VISITS CORNELIUS

9The next day as Cornelius's messengers were nearing the town, Peter went up on the flat roof to pray. It was about noon, 10and he was hungry. But while a meal was being prepared, he fell into a trance. 11He saw the sky open, and something like a large sheet was let down by its four corners. 12In the sheet were all sorts of animals, reptiles, and birds. 13Then a voice said to him, "Get up, Peter; kill and eat them."

14"No, Lord," Peter declared. "I have never eaten anything that our Jewish laws have declared impure and unclean.*"

15But the voice spoke again: "Do not call something unclean if God has made it clean." 16The same vision was repeated three times.
Then the sheet was suddenly pulled up to heaven.

17Peter was very perplexed. What could the vision mean? Just then the men sent by Cornelius found Simon's house. Standing outside the gate, 18they asked if a man named Simon Peter was staying there.

19Meanwhile, as Peter was puzzling over the vision, the Holy Spirit said to him, "Three men have come looking for you. 20Get up, go downstairs, and go with them without hesitation. Don't worry, for I have sent them."

21So Peter went down and said, "I'm the man you are looking for.
Why have you come?"

JOPPA

22They said, "We were sent by Cornelius, a Roman officer. He is a devout and God-fearing man, well respected by all the Jews. A holy angel instructed him to summon you to his house so that he can hear your message." 23So Peter invited the men to stay for the night.
The next day he went with them, accompanied by some of the brothers from Joppa.

24They arrived in Caesarea the following day. Cornelius was waiting for them and had called together his relatives and close friends. 25As Peter entered his home, Cornelius fell at his feet and worshiped him. 26But Peter pulled him up and said, "Stand up! I'm a human being just like you!" 27So they talked together and went inside, where many others were assembled.

28Peter told them, "You know it is against our laws for a Jewish man to enter a Gentile home like this or to associate with you. But God has shown me that I should no longer think of anyone as impure or unclean. 29So I came without objection as soon as I was sent for. Now tell me why you sent for me."

30Cornelius replied, "Four days ago I was praying in my house about this same time, three o'clock in the afternoon. Suddenly, a man in dazzling clothes was standing in front of me. 31He told me, 'Cornelius, your prayer has been heard, and your gifts to the poor have been noticed by God! 32Now send messengers to Joppa, and summon a man named Simon Peter. He is staying in the home of Simon, a tanner who lives near the seashore.' 33So I sent for you at once, and it was good of you to come. Now we are all here, waiting before God to hear the message the Lord has given you."

THE GENTILES HEAR THE GOOD NEWS

34Then Peter replied, "I see very clearly that God shows no favoritism. 35In every nation he accepts those who fear him and do what is right. 36This is the message of Good News for the people of Israel—that there is peace with God through Jesus Christ, who is Lord of all. 37You know what happened throughout Judea, beginning in Galilee, after John began preaching his message of baptism. 38And you know that God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Spirit and with power. Then Jesus went around doing good and healing all who were oppressed by the devil, for God was with him.

39"And we apostles are witnesses of all he did throughout Judea and in Jerusalem. They put him to death by hanging him on a cross,40but God raised him to life on the third day. Then God allowed him to appear, 41not to the general public, but to us whom God had chosen in advance to be his witnesses. We were those who ate and drank with him after he rose from the dead. 42And he ordered us to preach everywhere and to testify that Jesus is the one appointed by God to be the judge of all—the living and the dead. 43He is the one all the prophets testified about, saying that everyone who believes in him will have their sins forgiven through his

THE GENTILES RECEIVE THE HOLY SPIRIT

44Even as Peter was saying these things, the Holy Spirit fell upon all who were listening to the message. 45The Jewish believers* who came with Peter were amazed that the gift of the Holy Spirit had been poured out on the Gentiles, too. 46For they heard them speaking in other tongues* and praising God.

Then Peter asked, 47“Can anyone object to their being baptized, now that they have received the Holy Spirit just as we did?” 48So he gave orders for them to be baptized in the name of Jesus Christ.
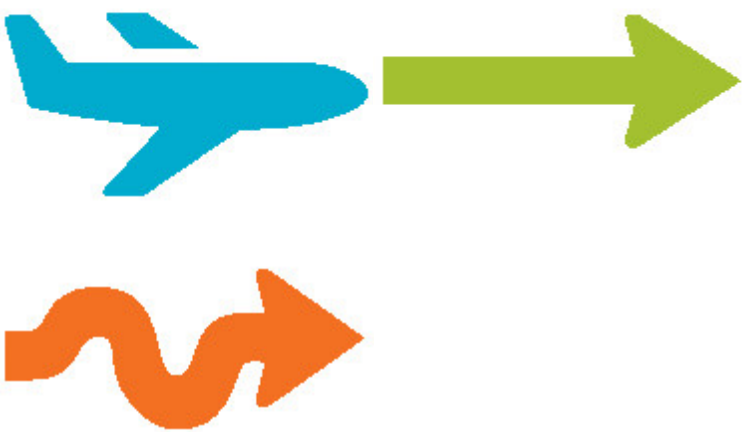
Afterward Cornelius asked him to stay with them for several days.



Acts 11

PETER EXPLAINS HIS ACTIONS

1Soon the news reached the apostles and other believers* in Judea that the Gentiles had received the word of God. 2But when Peter arrived back in Jerusalem, the Jewish believers* criticized him.
3“You entered the home of Gentiles* and even ate with them!” they said.

4Then Peter told them exactly what had happened. 5"I was in the town of Joppa," he said, "and while I was praying, I went into a trance and saw a vision. Something like a large sheet was let down by its four corners from the sky. And it came right down to me.
6When I looked inside the sheet, I saw all sorts of tame and wild animals, reptiles, and birds. 7And I heard a voice say, 'Get up, Peter; kill and eat them.'

8"'No, Lord,' I replied. 'I have never eaten anything that our Jewish laws have declared impure or unclean.*'

9"But the voice from heaven spoke again: 'Do not call something unclean if God has made it clean.' 10This happened three times before the sheet and all it contained was pulled back up to heaven.

11"Just then three men who had been sent from Caesarea arrived at the house where we were staying. 12The Holy Spirit told me to go with them and not to worry that they were Gentiles. These six brothers here accompanied me, and we soon entered the home of the man who had sent for us. 13He told us how an angel had appeared to him in his home and had told him, 'Send messengers to Joppa, and summon a man named Simon Peter. 14He will tell you how you and everyone in your household can be saved!'

15"As I began to speak," Peter continued, "the Holy Spirit fell on them, just as he fell on us at the beginning. 16Then I thought of the Lord's words when he said, 'John baptized with* water, but you will be baptized with the Holy Spirit.' 17And since God gave these Gentiles the same gift he gave us when we believed in the Lord Jesus Christ, who was I to stand in God's way?"

18When the others heard this, they stopped objecting and began praising God. They said, "We can see that God has also given the Gentiles the privilege of repenting of their sins and receiving eternal life."

HOLY SPIRIT ACTS 11:19-24

THE CHURCH IN ANTIOCH OF SYRIA 19MEANWHILE, THE BELIEVERS WHO HAD BEEN SCATTERED DURING THE PERSECUTION AFTER STEPHEN'S DEATH TRAVELED AS FAR AS PHOENICIA, CYPRUS, AND ANTIOCH OF SYRIA. THEY PREACHED THE WORD OF GOD, BUT ONLY TO JEWS. 20HOWEVER, SOME OF THE BELIEVERS WHO WENT TO ANTIOCH FROM CYPRUS AND CYRENE BEGAN PREACHING TO THE GENTILES* ABOUT THE LORD JESUS. 21THE POWER OF THE LORD WAS WITH THEM, AND A LARGE NUMBER OF THESE GENTILES BELIEVED AND TURNED TO THE LORD.

22When the church at Jerusalem heard what had happened, they sent Barnabas to Antioch. 23When he arrived and saw this evidence of God's blessing, he was filled with joy, and he encouraged the believers to stay true to the Lord. 24Barnabas was a good man, full of the Holy Spirit and strong in faith. And many people were brought to the Lord.

25Then Barnabas went on to Tarsus to look for Saul. 26When he found him, he brought him back to Antioch. Both of them stayed there with the church for a full year, teaching large crowds of people. (It was at Antioch that the believers* were first called Christians.)

27During this time some prophets traveled from Jerusalem to Antioch. 28One of them named Agabus stood up in one of the meetings and predicted by the Spirit that a great famine was coming upon the entire Roman world. (This was fulfilled during the reign of Claudius.) 29So the believers in Antioch decided to send relief to the brothers and sisters* in Judea, everyone giving as much as they could. 30This they did, entrusting their gifts to Barnabas and Saul to take to the elders of the church in Jerusalem.

ANGELS ACTS 12:1-19

Acts 12

JAMES IS KILLED AND PETER IS IMPRISONED

1About that time King Herod Agrippa* began to persecute some believers in the church. 2He had the apostle James (John's brother) killed with a sword. 3When Herod saw how much this pleased the Jewish people, he also arrested Peter. (This took place during the Passover celebration.*) 4Then he imprisoned him, placing him under the guard of four squads of four soldiers each. Herod intended to bring Peter out for public trial after the Passover. 5But while Peter was in prison, the church prayed very earnestly for him.

PETER'S MIRACULOUS ESCAPE FROM PRISON

6The night before Peter was to be placed on trial, he was asleep, fastened with two chains between two soldiers. Others stood guard at the prison gate. 7Suddenly, there was a bright light in the cell, and an angel of the Lord stood before Peter. The angel struck him on the side to awaken him and said, "Quick! Get up!" And the chains fell off his wrists. 8Then the angel told him, "Get dressed and put on your sandals." And he did. "Now put on your coat and follow me," the angel ordered.

9So Peter left the cell, following the angel. But all the time he thought it was a vision. He didn't realize it was actually happening.
10They passed the first and second guard posts and came to the iron gate leading to the city, and this opened for them all by itself. So they passed through and started walking down the street, and then the angel suddenly left him.

11Peter finally came to his senses. "It's really true!" he said. "The Lord has sent his angel and saved me from Herod and from what the Jewish leaders* had planned to do to me!"

12When he realized this, he went to the home of Mary, the mother of John Mark, where many were gathered for prayer. 13He knocked at the door in the gate, and a servant girl named Rhoda came to open it. 14When she recognized Peter's voice, she was so overjoyed that, instead of opening the door, she ran back inside and told everyone, “Peter is standing at the door!”

15“You’re out of your mind!” they said. When she insisted, they decided, “It must be his angel.”

16Meanwhile, Peter continued knocking. When they finally opened the door and saw him, they were amazed. 17He motioned for them to quiet down and told them how the Lord had led him out of prison. “Tell James and the other brothers what happened,” he said. And then he went to another place.

18At dawn there was a great commotion among the soldiers about what had happened to Peter. 19Herod Agrippa ordered a thorough search for him. When he couldn’t be found, Herod interrogated the guards and sentenced them to death. Afterward Herod left Judea to stay in Caesarea for a while.

THE DEATH OF HEROD AGRIPPA

20Now Herod was very angry with the people of Tyre and Sidon. So they sent a delegation to make peace with him because their cities were dependent upon Herod’s country for food. The delegates won the support of Blastus, Herod’s personal assistant, 21and an appointment with Herod was granted. When the day arrived, Herod put on his royal robes, sat on his throne, and made a speech to them. 22The people gave him a great ovation, shouting, “It’s the voice of a god, not of a man!”

23Instantly, an angel of the Lord struck Herod with a sickness, because he accepted the people's worship instead of giving the glory to God. So he was consumed with worms and died.

24Meanwhile, the word of God continued to spread, and there were many new believers.

25When Barnabas and Saul had finished their mission to Jerusalem, they returned,* taking John Mark with them.

HOW FAR PAUL TRAVELED

BARNABAS AND SAUL ARE COMMISSIONED

1Among the prophets and teachers of the church at Antioch of Syria were Barnabas, Simeon (called “the black man”), Lucius (from Cyrene), Manaen (the childhood companion of King Herod Antipas), and Saul. 2One day as these men were worshiping the Lord and fasting, the Holy Spirit said, “Dedicate Barnabas and Saul for the special work to which I have called them.” 3So after more fasting and prayer, the men laid their hands on them and sent them on their way.

PAUL'S FIRST MISSIONARY JOURNEY

4So Barnabas and Saul were sent out by the Holy Spirit. They went down to the seaport of Seleucia and then sailed for the island of Cyprus. 5There, in the town of Salamis, they went to the Jewish synagogues and preached the word of God. John Mark went with them as their assistant.

6Afterward they traveled from town to town across the entire island until finally they reached Paphos, where they met a Jewish sorcerer, a false prophet named Bar-Jesus. 7He had attached himself to the governor, Sergius Paulus, who was an intelligent man. The governor invited Barnabas and Saul to visit him, for he wanted to hear the word of God. 8But Elymas, the sorcerer (as his name means in Greek), interfered and urged the governor to pay no attention to what Barnabas and Saul said. He was trying to keep the governor from believing.

9Saul, also known as Paul, was filled with the Holy Spirit, and he looked the sorcerer in the eye. 10Then he said, "You son of the devil, full of every sort of deceit and fraud, and enemy of all that is good!
Will you never stop perverting the true ways of the Lord? 11Watch now, for the Lord has laid his hand of punishment upon you, and you will be struck blind. You will not see the sunlight for some time." Instantly mist and darkness came over the man's eyes, and he began groping around begging for someone to take his hand and lead him.

12When the governor saw what had happened, he became a believer, for he was astonished at the teaching about the Lord.

PAUL PREACHES IN ANTIOCH OF PISIDIA 13PAUL AND HIS COMPANIONS THEN LEFT PAPHOS BY SHIP FOR PAMPHYLIA, LANDING AT THE PORT TOWN OF PERGA. THERE JOHN MARK

LEFT THEM AND RETURNED TO JERUSALEM. 14BUT PAUL AND BARNABAS TRAVELED INLAND TO ANTIOCH OF PISIDIA.*

On the Sabbath they went to the synagogue for the services. 15After the usual readings from the books of Moses* and the prophets, those in charge of the service sent them this message: "Brothers, if you have any word of encouragement for the people, come and give it."

16So Paul stood, lifted his hand to quiet them, and started speaking. "Men of Israel," he said, "and you God-fearing Gentiles, listen to me.

17"The God of this nation of Israel chose our ancestors and made them multiply and grow strong during their stay in Egypt. Then with a powerful arm he led them out of their slavery. 18He put up with them* through forty years of wandering in the wilderness. 19Then he destroyed seven nations in Canaan and gave their land to Israel as an inheritance. 20All this took about 450 years.

"After that, God gave them judges to rule until the time of Samuel the prophet. 21Then the people begged for a king, and God gave them Saul son of Kish, a man of the tribe of Benjamin, who reigned for forty years. 22But God removed Saul and replaced him with David, a man about whom God said, 'I have found David son of Jesse, a man after my own heart. He will do everything I want him to do.'*

23"And it is one of King David's descendants, Jesus, who is God's promised Savior of Israel! 24Before he came, John the Baptist preached that all the people of Israel needed to repent of their sins and turn to God and be baptized. 25As John was finishing his ministry he asked, 'Do you think I am the Messiah? No, I am not! But he is coming soon—and I'm not even worthy to be his slave and untie the sandals on his feet.'

26"Brothers—you sons of Abraham, and also you God-fearing Gentiles—this message of salvation has been sent to us! 27The people in Jerusalem and their leaders did not recognize Jesus as the one the prophets had spoken about. Instead, they condemned him, and in doing this they fulfilled the prophets' words that are read every Sabbath. 28They found no legal reason to execute him, but they asked Pilate to have him killed anyway.

29"When they had done all that the prophecies said about him, they took him down from the cross* and placed him in a tomb. 30But God raised him from the dead! 31And over a period of many days he appeared to those who had gone with him from Galilee to Jerusalem. They are now his witnesses to the people of Israel.

32"And now we are here to bring you this Good News. The promise was made to our ancestors, 33and God has now fulfilled it for us, their descendants, by raising Jesus. This is what the second psalm says about Jesus: 'You are my Son.

Today I have become your Father.*'

34For God had promised to raise him from the dead, not leaving him to rot in the grave. He said, 'I will give you the sacred blessings I promised to David.'*35Another psalm explains it more fully: 'You will not allow your Holy One to rot in the grave.'*36This is not a reference to David, for after David had done the will of God in his own generation, he died and was buried with his ancestors, and his body decayed. 37No, it was a reference to someone else—someone whom God raised and whose body did not decay.

38*"Brothers, listen! We are here to proclaim that through this man Jesus there is forgiveness for your sins. 39Everyone who believes in him is declared right with God—something the law of Moses could never do. 40Be careful! Don't let the prophets' words apply to you.
For they said,

41'Look, you mockers, be amazed and die!

For I am doing something in your own day, something you wouldn't believe even if someone told you about it.'*"

42As Paul and Barnabas left the synagogue that day, the people begged them to speak about these things again the next week.
43Many Jews and devout converts to Judaism followed Paul and Barnabas, and the two men urged them to continue to rely on the grace of God.

PAUL TURNS TO THE GENTILES

44The following week almost the entire city turned out to hear them preach the word of the Lord. 45But when some of the Jews saw the crowds, they were jealous; so they slandered Paul and argued against whatever he said.

46Then Paul and Barnabas spoke out boldly and declared, "It was necessary that we first preach the word of God to you Jews. But since you have rejected it and judged yourselves unworthy of eternal life, we will offer it to the Gentiles. 47For the Lord gave us this command when he said, 'I have made you a light to the Gentiles, to bring salvation to the farthest corners of the earth.'*"

48When the Gentiles heard this, they were very glad and thanked the Lord for his message; and all who were chosen for eternal life became believers. 49So the Lord's message spread throughout that region.

50Then the Jews stirred up the influential religious women and the leaders of the city, and they incited a mob against Paul and Barnabas and ran them out of town. 51So they shook the dust from their feet as a sign of rejection and went to the town of Iconium.
52And the believers* were filled with joy and with the Holy Spirit.

Acts 14

PAUL AND BARNABAS IN ICONIUM

1The same thing happened in Iconium.* Paul and Barnabas went to the Jewish synagogue and preached with such power that a great number of both Jews and Greeks became believers. 2Some of the Jews, however, spurned God's message and poisoned the minds of the Gentiles against Paul and Barnabas. 3But the apostles stayed there a long time, preaching boldly about the grace of the Lord.
And the Lord proved their message was true by giving them power to do miraculous signs and wonders. 4But the people of the town were divided in their opinion about them. Some sided with the Jews, and some with the apostles.

5Then a mob of Gentiles and Jews, along with their leaders, decided to attack and stone them. 6When the apostles learned of it, they fled to the region of Lycaonia—to the towns of Lystra and Derbe and the surrounding area. 7And there they preached the Good News.

PAUL AND BARNABAS IN LYSTRA AND DERBE

8While they were at Lystra, Paul and Barnabas came upon a man with crippled feet. He had been that way from birth, so he had never walked. He was sitting 9and listening as Paul preached.
Looking straight at him, Paul realized he had faith to be healed.
10So Paul called to him in a loud voice, "Stand up!" And the man jumped to his feet and started walking.

11When the crowd saw what Paul had done, they shouted in their local dialect, “These men are gods in human form!” 12They decided that Barnabas was the Greek god Zeus and that Paul was Hermes, since he was the chief speaker. 13Now the temple of Zeus was located just outside the town. So the priest of the temple and the crowd brought bulls and wreaths of flowers to the town gates, and they prepared to offer sacrifices to the apostles.

14But when the apostles Barnabas and Paul heard what was happening, they tore their clothing in dismay and ran out among the people, shouting, 15“Friends,* why are you doing this? We are merely human beings—just like you! We have come to bring you the Good News that you should turn from these worthless things and turn to the living God, who made heaven and earth, the sea, and everything in them. 16In the past he permitted all the nations to go their own ways, 17but he never left them without evidence of himself and his goodness. For instance, he sends you rain and good crops and gives you food and joyful hearts.” 18But even with these words, Paul and Barnabas could scarcely restrain the people from sacrificing to them.

19Then some Jews arrived from Antioch and Iconium and won the crowds to their side. They stoned Paul and dragged him out of town, thinking he was dead. 20But as the believers* gathered around him, he got up and went back into the town. The next day he left with Barnabas for Derbe.

PAUL AND BARNABAS RETURN TO ANTIOCH OF SYRIA 21AFTER PREACHING THE GOOD NEWS IN DERBE AND MAKING MANY DISCIPLES, PAUL AND BARNABAS RETURNED TO LYSTRA, ICONIUM, AND ANTIOCH OF PISIDIA, 22WHERE
THEY STRENGTHENED THE BELIEVERS. THEY ENCOURAGED THEM TO CONTINUE IN THE FAITH, REMINDING THEM THAT WE MUST SUFFER MANY HARDSHIPS TO ENTER THE KINGDOM OF GOD. 23PAUL AND BARNABAS ALSO APPOINTED ELDERS IN EVERY CHURCH. WITH PRAYER AND FASTING, THEY TURNED THE ELDERS OVER TO THE CARE OF THE LORD, IN WHOM THEY HAD PUT THEIR TRUST. 24THEN THEY TRAVELED BACK THROUGH PISIDIA TO PAMPHYLIA. 25THEY PREACHED THE WORD IN PERGA, THEN WENT DOWN TO ATTALIA.

26Finally, they returned by ship to Antioch of Syria, where their journey had begun. The believers there had entrusted them to the grace of God to do the work they had now completed. 27Upon arriving in Antioch, they called the church together and reported everything God had done through them and how he had opened the door of faith to the Gentiles, too. 28And they stayed there with the believers for a long time.

Acts 15

THE COUNCIL AT JERUSALEM

1While Paul and Barnabas were at Antioch of Syria, some men from Judea arrived and began to teach the believers*: “Unless you are circumcised as required by the law of Moses, you cannot be saved.”
2Paul and Barnabas disagreed with them, arguing vehemently.
Finally, the church decided to send Paul and Barnabas to Jerusalem, accompanied by some local believers, to talk to the apostles and elders about this question. 3The church sent the delegates to Jerusalem, and they stopped along the way in Phoenicia and Samaria to visit the believers. They told them—much to everyone's joy—that the Gentiles, too, were being converted.

4When they arrived in Jerusalem, Barnabas and Paul were welcomed by the whole church, including the apostles and elders. They reported everything God had done through them. 5But then some of the believers who belonged to the sect of the Pharisees stood up and insisted, "The Gentile converts must be circumcised and required to follow the law of Moses."

6So the apostles and elders met together to resolve this issue. 7At the meeting, after a long discussion, Peter stood and addressed them as follows: "Brothers, you all know that God chose me from among you some time ago to preach to the Gentiles so that they could hear the Good News and believe. 8God knows people's hearts, and he confirmed that he accepts Gentiles by giving them the Holy Spirit, just as he did to us. 9He made no distinction between us and them, for he cleansed their hearts through faith. 10So why are you now challenging God by burdening the Gentile believers* with a yoke that neither we nor our ancestors were able to bear? 11We believe that we are all saved the same way, by the undeserved grace of the Lord Jesus."

12Everyone listened quietly as Barnabas and Paul told about the miraculous signs and wonders God had done through them among the Gentiles.

13When they had finished, James stood and said, "Brothers, listen to me. 14Peter* has told you about the time God first visited the Gentiles to take from them a people for himself. 15And this conversion of Gentiles is exactly what the prophets predicted. As it is written:

16‘Afterward I will return and restore the fallen house* of David.
I will rebuild its ruins and restore it,

17so that the rest of humanity might seek the LORD, including the Gentiles— all those I have called to be mine.
The LORD has spoken—

18he who made these things known so long ago.’*

19“And so my judgment is that we should not make it difficult for the Gentiles who are turning to God. 20Instead, we should write and tell them to abstain from eating food offered to idols, from sexual immorality, from eating the meat of strangled animals, and from consuming blood. 21For these laws of Moses have been preached in Jewish synagogues in every city on every Sabbath for many generations.”

THE LETTER FOR GENTILE BELIEVERS

22Then the apostles and elders together with the whole church in Jerusalem chose delegates, and they sent them to Antioch of Syria with Paul and Barnabas to report on this decision. The men chosen were two of the church leaders*—Judas (also called Barsabbas) and Silas. 23This is the letter they took with them:

“This letter is from the apostles and elders, your brothers in Jerusalem. It is written to the Gentile believers in Antioch, Syria, and Cilicia. Greetings!

24“We understand that some men from here have troubled you and upset you with their teaching, but we did not send them! 25So we decided, having come to complete agreement, to send you official representatives, along with our beloved Barnabas and Paul, 26who have risked their lives for the name of our Lord Jesus Christ. 27We are sending Judas and Silas to confirm what we have decided concerning your question.

28“For it seemed good to the Holy Spirit and to us to lay no greater burden on you than these few requirements: 29You must abstain from eating food offered to idols, from consuming blood or the meat of strangled animals, and from sexual immorality. If you do this, you will do well. Farewell."

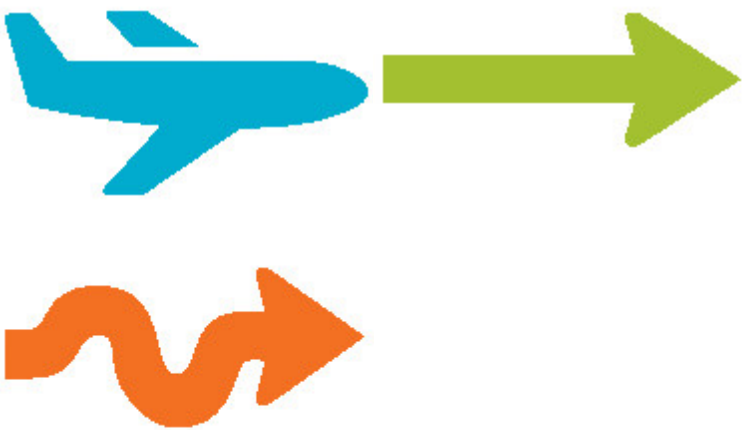
30The messengers went at once to Antioch, where they called a general meeting of the believers and delivered the letter. 31And there was great joy throughout the church that day as they read this encouraging message.

32Then Judas and Silas, both being prophets, spoke at length to the believers, encouraging and strengthening their faith. 33They stayed for a while, and then the believers sent them back to the church in Jerusalem with a blessing of peace.*35Paul and Barnabas stayed in Antioch. They and many others taught and preached the word of the Lord there.



PAUL AND BARNABAS SEPARATE

36After some time Paul said to Barnabas, "Let's go back and visit each city where we previously preached the word of the Lord, to see how the new believers are doing." 37Barnabas agreed and wanted to take along John Mark. 38But Paul disagreed strongly, since John Mark had deserted them in Pamphylia and had not continued with them in their work. 39Their disagreement was so sharp that they separated. Barnabas took John Mark with him and sailed for Cyprus. 40Paul chose Silas, and as he left, the believers entrusted him to the Lord's gracious care. 41Then he traveled throughout Syria and Cilicia, strengthening the churches there.

Acts 16

PAUL'S SECOND MISSIONARY JOURNEY

1Paul went first to Derbe and then to Lystra, where there was a young disciple named Timothy. His mother was a Jewish believer, but his father was a Greek. 2Timothy was well thought of by the believers* in Lystra and Iconium, 3so Paul wanted him to join them on their journey. In deference to the Jews of the area, he arranged for Timothy to be circumcised before they left, for everyone knew that his father was a Greek. 4Then they went from town to town, instructing the believers to follow the decisions made by the apostles and elders in Jerusalem. 5So the churches were strengthened in their faith and grew larger every day.

A CALL FROM MACEDONIA

6Next Paul and Silas traveled through the area of Phrygia and Galatia, because the Holy Spirit had prevented them from preaching the word in the province of Asia at that time. 7Then coming to the borders of Mysia, they headed north for the province of Bithynia,* but again the Spirit of Jesus did not allow them to go there. 8So instead, they went on through Mysia to the seaport of Troas.

9That night Paul had a vision: A man from Macedonia in northern Greece was standing there, pleading with him, “Come over to Macedonia and help us!” 10So we* decided to leave for Macedonia at once, having concluded that God was calling us to preach the Good News there.

▸ The gymnasium in Philippi

LYDIA OF PHILIPPI BELIEVES IN JESUS

11We boarded a boat at Troas and sailed straight across to the island of Samothrace, and the next day we landed at Neapolis. 12From there we reached Philippi, a major city of that district of Macedonia and a Roman colony. And we stayed there several days.

13On the Sabbath we went a little way outside the city to a riverbank, where we thought people would be meeting for prayer, and we sat down to speak with some women who had gathered there. 14One of them was Lydia from Thyatira, a merchant of expensive purple cloth, who worshiped God. As she listened to us, the Lord opened her heart, and she accepted what Paul was saying.

15She and her household were baptized, and she asked us to be her guests. “If you agree that I am a true believer in the Lord,” she said, “come and stay at my home.” And she urged us until we agreed.

PAUL AND SILAS IN PRISON

16One day as we were going down to the place of prayer, we met a slave girl who had a spirit that enabled her to tell the future. She earned a lot of money for her masters by telling fortunes. 17She followed Paul and the rest of us, shouting, “These men are servants of the Most High God, and they have come to tell you how to be saved.”

18This went on day after day until Paul got so exasperated that he turned and said to the demon within her, “I command you in the name of Jesus Christ to come out of her.” And instantly it left her.

19Her masters’ hopes of wealth were now shattered, so they grabbed Paul and Silas and dragged them before the authorities at the marketplace. 20“The whole city is in an uproar because of these Jews!” they shouted to the city officials. 21“They are teaching customs that are illegal for us Romans to practice.”

22A mob quickly formed against Paul and Silas, and the city officials ordered them stripped and beaten with wooden rods. 23They were severely beaten, and then they were thrown into prison. The jailer was ordered to make sure they didn’t escape. 24So the jailer put them into the inner dungeon and clamped their feet in the stocks.

25Around midnight Paul and Silas were praying and singing hymns to God, and the other prisoners were listening. 26Suddenly, there was a massive earthquake, and the prison was shaken to its foundations. All the doors immediately flew open, and the chains of every prisoner fell off! 27The jailer woke up to see the prison doors wide open. He assumed the prisoners had escaped, so he drew his sword to kill himself. 28But Paul shouted to him, “Stop! Don’t kill yourself! We are all here!”

29The jailer called for lights and ran to the dungeon and fell down trembling before Paul and Silas. 30Then he brought them out and asked, “Sirs, what must I do to be saved?”

31They replied, “Believe in the Lord Jesus and you will be saved, along with everyone in your household.” 32And they shared the word of the Lord with him and with all who lived in his household.
33Even at that hour of the night, the jailer cared for them and washed their wounds. Then he and everyone in his household were immediately baptized. 34He brought them into his house and set a meal before them, and he and his entire household rejoiced because they all believed in God.

35The next morning the city officials sent the police to tell the jailer, “Let those men go!” 36So the jailer told Paul, “The city officials have said you and Silas are free to leave. Go in peace.”

37But Paul replied, “They have publicly beaten us without a trial and put us in prison—and we are Roman citizens. So now they want us to leave secretly? Certainly not! Let them come themselves to release us!”

38When the police reported this, the city officials were alarmed to learn that Paul and Silas were Roman citizens. 39So they came to the jail and apologized to them. Then they brought them out and begged them to leave the city. 40When Paul and Silas left the prison, they returned to the home of Lydia. There they met with the believers and encouraged them once more. Then they left town.

THESSALONICA

Acts 17

PAUL PREACHES IN THESSALONICA

1Paul and Silas then traveled through the towns of Amphipolis and Apollonia and came to Thessalonica, where there was a Jewish synagogue. 2As was Paul's custom, he went to the synagogue service, and for three Sabbaths in a row he used the Scriptures to reason with the people. 3He explained the prophecies and proved that the Messiah must suffer and rise from the dead. He said, "This Jesus I'm telling you about is the Messiah." 4Some of the Jews who listened were persuaded and joined Paul and Silas, along with many God-fearing Greek men and quite a few prominent women.*

5But some of the Jews were jealous, so they gathered some troublemakers from the marketplace to form a mob and start a riot.
They attacked the home of Jason, searching for Paul and Silas so they could drag them out to the crowd.6Not finding them there, they dragged out Jason and some of the other believers instead and took them before the city council. "Paul and Silas have caused trouble all over the world," they shouted, "and now they are here disturbing our city, too. 7And Jason has welcomed them into his home. They are all guilty of treason against Caesar, for they profess allegiance to another king, named Jesus."

8The people of the city, as well as the city council, were thrown into turmoil by these reports. 9So the officials forced Jason and the other believers to post bond, and then they released them.

PAUL AND SILAS IN BEREA

10That very night the believers sent Paul and Silas to Berea. When they arrived there, they went to the Jewish synagogue. 11And the people of Berea were more open-minded than those in Thessalonica, and they listened eagerly to Paul's message. They searched the Scriptures day after day to see if Paul and Silas were teaching the truth. 12As a result, many Jews believed, as did many of the prominent Greek women and men.

13But when some Jews in Thessalonica learned that Paul was preaching the word of God in Berea, they went there and stirred up trouble. 14The believers acted at once, sending Paul on to the coast, while Silas and Timothy remained behind. 15Those escorting Paul went with him all the way to Athens; then they returned to Berea with instructions for Silas and Timothy to hurry and join him.

PAUL PREACHES IN ATHENS

16While Paul was waiting for them in Athens, he was deeply troubled by all the idols he saw everywhere in the city. 17He went to the synagogue to reason with the Jews and the God-fearing Gentiles, and he spoke daily in the public square to all who happened to be there.

18He also had a debate with some of the Epicurean and Stoic philosophers. When he told them about Jesus and his resurrection, they said, "What's this babbler trying to say with these strange ideas he's picked up?" Others said, "He seems to be preaching about some foreign gods."

19Then they took him to the high council of the city.* "Come and tell us about this new teaching," they said. 20"You are saying some rather strange things, and we want to know what it's all about."

21(It should be explained that all the Athenians as well as the foreigners in Athens seemed to spend all their time discussing the latest ideas.)

22So Paul, standing before the council,* addressed them as follows: "Men of Athens, I notice that you are very religious in every way, 23for as I was walking along I saw your many shrines. And one of your altars had this inscription on it: 'To an Unknown God.' This God, whom you worship without knowing, is the one I'm telling you about.

24"He is the God who made the world and everything in it. Since he is Lord of heaven and earth, he doesn't live in man-made temples, 25and human hands can't serve his needs—for he has no needs. He himself gives life and breath to everything, and he satisfies every need. 26From one man* he created all the nations throughout the whole earth. He decided beforehand when they should rise and fall, and he determined their boundaries.

27"His purpose was for the nations to seek after God and perhaps feel their way toward him and find him—though he is not far from any one of us. 28For in him we live and move and exist. As some of your* own poets have said, 'We are his offspring.' 29And since this is true, we shouldn't think of God as an idol designed by craftsmen from gold or silver or stone.

30"God overlooked people's ignorance about these things in earlier times, but now he commands everyone everywhere to repent of their sins and turn to him. 31For he has set a day for judging the world with justice by the man he has appointed, and he proved to everyone who this is by raising him from the dead."

32When they heard Paul speak about the resurrection of the dead, some laughed in contempt, but others said, "We want to hear more about this later." 33That ended Paul's discussion with them, 34but some joined him and became believers. Among them were Dionysius, a member of the council,* a woman named Damaris, and others with them.

Acts 18

PAUL MEETS PRISCILLA AND AQUILA IN CORINTH

1Then Paul left Athens and went to Corinth.2There he became acquainted with a Jew named Aquila, born in Pontus, who had recently arrived from Italy with his wife, Priscilla. They had left Italy when Claudius Caesar deported all Jews from Rome. 3Paul lived and worked with them, for they were tentmakers just as he was.

4Each Sabbath found Paul at the synagogue, trying to convince the Jews and Greeks alike. 5And after Silas and Timothy came down from Macedonia, Paul spent all his time preaching the word. He testified to the Jews that Jesus was the Messiah. 6But when they opposed and insulted him, Paul shook the dust from his clothes and said, “Your blood is upon your own heads—I am innocent. From now on I will go preach to the Gentiles.”

7Then he left and went to the home of Titius Justus, a Gentile who worshiped God and lived next door to the synagogue. 8Crispus, the leader of the synagogue, and everyone in his household believed in the Lord. Many others in Corinth also heard Paul, became believers, and were baptized.

9One night the Lord spoke to Paul in a vision and told him, “Don’t be afraid! Speak out! Don’t be silent! 10For I am with you, and no one will attack and harm you, for many people in this city belong to me.” 11So Paul stayed there for the next year and a half, teaching the word of God.

12But when Gallio became governor of Achaia, some Jews rose up together against Paul and brought him before the governor for judgment. 13They accused Paul of “persuading people to worship God in ways that are contrary to our law.”

14But just as Paul started to make his defense, Gallio turned to Paul's accusers and said, "Listen, you Jews, if this were a case involving some wrongdoing or a serious crime, I would have a reason to accept your case. 15But since it is merely a question of words and names and your Jewish law, take care of it yourselves. I refuse to judge such matters." 16And he threw them out of the courtroom.

17The crowd* then grabbed Sosthenes, the leader of the synagogue, and beat him right there in the courtroom. But Gallio paid no attention.

PAUL RETURNS TO ANTIOCH OF SYRIA 18PAUL STAYED IN CORINTH FOR SOME TIME AFTER THAT, THEN SAID GOOD-BYE TO THE BROTHERS AND SISTERS* AND WENT TO NEARBY CENCHREA. THERE HE SHAVED HIS HEAD ACCORDING TO JEWISH CUSTOM, MARKING THE END OF A VOW. THEN HE SET SAIL FOR SYRIA, TAKING PRISCILLA AND AQUILA WITH HIM.

19They stopped first at the port of Ephesus, where Paul left the others behind. While he was there, he went to the synagogue to reason with the Jews. 20They asked him to stay longer, but he declined. 21As he left, however, he said, "I will come back later,* God willing." Then he set sail from Ephesus. 22The next stop was at the port of Caesarea. From there he went up and visited the church at Jerusalem* and then went back to Antioch.

23After spending some time in Antioch, Paul went back through Galatia and Phrygia, visiting and strengthening all the believers.*

APOLLOS INSTRUCTED AT EPHESUS

24Meanwhile, a Jew named Apollos, an eloquent speaker who knew the Scriptures well, had arrived in Ephesus from Alexandria in Egypt. 25He had been taught the way of the Lord, and he taught others about Jesus with an enthusiastic spirit* and with accuracy.
However, he knew only about John's baptism. 26When Priscilla and Aquila heard him preaching boldly in the synagogue, they took him aside and explained the way of God even more accurately.

SENDING LETTERS

27Apollos had been thinking about going to Achaia, and the brothers and sisters in Ephesus encouraged him to go. They wrote to the believers in Achaia, asking them to welcome him. When he arrived there, he proved to be of great benefit to those who, by God's grace, had believed. 28He refuted the Jews with powerful arguments in public debate. Using the Scriptures, he explained to them that Jesus was the Messiah.

EPHESUS

Acts 19

PAUL'S THIRD MISSIONARY JOURNEY

1While Apollos was in Corinth, Paul traveled through the interior regions until he reached Ephesus, on the coast, where he found several believers.*2"Did you receive the Holy Spirit when you believed?" he asked them.

"No," they replied, "we haven't even heard that there is a Holy Spirit."

3"Then what baptism did you experience?" he asked.

And they replied, "The baptism of John."

4Paul said, "John's baptism called for repentance from sin. But John himself told the people to believe in the one who would come later, meaning Jesus."

5As soon as they heard this, they were baptized in the name of the Lord Jesus. 6Then when Paul laid his hands on them, the Holy Spirit came on them, and they spoke in other tongues* and prophesied.
7There were about twelve men in all.

PAUL MINISTERS IN EPHESUS

8Then Paul went to the synagogue and preached boldly for the next three months, arguing persuasively about the Kingdom of God. 9But some became stubborn, rejecting his message and publicly speaking against the Way. So Paul left the synagogue and took the believers with him. Then he held daily discussions at the lecture hall of Tyrannus. 10This went on for the next two years, so that people throughout the province of Asia—both Jews and Greeks—heard the word of the Lord.

DEMONS ACTS 19:11-20

11God gave Paul the power to perform unusual miracles. 12When handkerchiefs or aprons that had merely touched his skin were placed on sick people, they were healed of their diseases, and evil spirits were expelled.

13A group of Jews was traveling from town to town casting out evil spirits. They tried to use the name of the Lord Jesus in their incantation, saying, “I command you in the name of Jesus, whom Paul preaches, to come out!” 14Seven sons of Sceva, a leading priest, were doing this. 15But one time when they tried it, the evil spirit replied, “I know Jesus, and I know Paul, but who are you?” 16Then the man with the evil spirit leaped on them, overpowered them, and attacked them with such violence that they fled from the house, naked and battered.

17The story of what happened spread quickly all through Ephesus, to Jews and Greeks alike. A solemn fear descended on the city, and the name of the Lord Jesus was greatly honored. 18Many who became believers confessed their sinful practices. 19A number of them who had been practicing sorcery brought their incantation books and burned them at a public bonfire. The value of the books was several million dollars.*20So the message about the Lord spread widely and had a powerful effect.

21Afterward Paul felt compelled by the Spirit* to go over to Macedonia and Achaia before going to Jerusalem. “And after that,” he said, “I must go on to Rome!” 22He sent his two assistants, Timothy and Erastus, ahead to Macedonia while he stayed awhile longer in the province of Asia.

THE RIOT IN EPHESUS

23About that time, serious trouble developed in Ephesus concerning the Way. 24It began with Demetrius, a silversmith who had a large business manufacturing silver shrines of the Greek goddess Artemis.* He kept many craftsmen busy. 25He called them together, along with others employed in similar trades, and addressed them as follows: “Gentlemen, you know that our wealth comes from this business. 26But as you have seen and heard, this man Paul has persuaded many people that handmade gods aren’t really gods at all. And he’s done this not only here in Ephesus but throughout the entire province! 27Of course, I’m not just talking about the loss of public respect for our business. I’m also concerned that the temple of the great goddess Artemis will lose its influence and that Artemis —this magnificent goddess worshiped throughout the province of Asia and all around the world—will be robbed of her great prestige!”

28At this their anger boiled, and they began shouting, “Great is Artemis of the Ephesians!” 29Soon the whole city was filled with confusion. Everyone rushed to the amphitheater, dragging along Gaius and Aristarchus, who were Paul’s traveling companions from Macedonia. 30Paul wanted to go in, too, but the believers wouldn’t let him. 31Some of the officials of the province, friends of Paul, also sent a message to him, begging him not to risk his life by entering the amphitheater.

32Inside, the people were all shouting, some one thing and some another. Everything was in confusion. In fact, most of them didn’t even know why they were there. 33The Jews in the crowd pushed Alexander forward and told him to explain the situation. He motioned for silence and tried to speak. 34But when the crowd realized he was a Jew, they started shouting again and kept it up for about two hours: “Great is Artemis of the Ephesians! Great is Artemis of the Ephesians!”

35At last the mayor was able to quiet them down enough to speak.
“Citizens of Ephesus,” he said. “Everyone knows that Ephesus is the official guardian of the temple of the great Artemis, whose image fell down to us from heaven. 36Since this is an undeniable fact, you should stay calm and not do anything rash. 37You have brought these men here, but they have stolen nothing from the temple and have not spoken against our goddess.

38“If Demetrius and the craftsmen have a case against them, the courts are in session and the officials can hear the case at once. Let them make formal charges. 39And if there are complaints about other matters, they can be settled in a legal assembly. 40I am afraid we are in danger of being charged with rioting by the Roman government, since there is no cause for all this commotion. And if Rome demands an explanation, we won’t know what to say.”
41*Then he dismissed them, and they dispersed.

Acts 20

PAUL GOES TO MACEDONIA AND GREECE

1When the uproar was over, Paul sent for the believers* and encouraged them. Then he said good-bye and left for Macedonia.
2While there, he encouraged the believers in all the towns he passed through. Then he traveled down to Greece, 3where he stayed for three months. He was preparing to sail back to Syria when he discovered a plot by some Jews against his life, so he decided to return through Macedonia.

4Several men were traveling with him. They were Sopater son of Pyrrhus from Berea; Aristarchus and Secundus from Thessalonica; Gaius from Derbe; Timothy; and Tychicus and Trophimus from the province of Asia. 5They went on ahead and waited for us at Troas.
6After the Passover* ended, we boarded a ship at Philippi in Macedonia and five days later joined them in Troas, where we stayed a week.

PAUL'S FINAL VISIT TO TROAS

7On the first day of the week, we gathered with the local believers to share in the Lord's Supper.* Paul was preaching to them, and since he was leaving the next day, he kept talking until midnight.
8The upstairs room where we met was lighted with many flickering lamps. 9As Paul spoke on and on, a young man named Eutychus, sitting on the windowsill, became very drowsy. Finally, he fell sound asleep and dropped three stories to his death below. 10Paul went down, bent over him, and took him into his arms. "Don't worry," he said, "he's alive!" 11Then they all went back upstairs, shared in the Lord's Supper,* and ate together. Paul continued talking to them until dawn, and then he left. 12Meanwhile, the young man was taken home alive and well, and everyone was greatly relieved.

PAUL MEETS THE EPHESIAN ELDERS

13Paul went by land to Assos, where he had arranged for us to join him, while we traveled by ship. 14He joined us there, and we sailed together to Mitylene. 15The next day we sailed past the island of Kios. The following day we crossed to the island of Samos, and* a day later we arrived at Miletus.

16Paul had decided to sail on past Ephesus, for he didn't want to spend any more time in the province of Asia. He was hurrying to get to Jerusalem, if possible, in time for the Festival of Pentecost.
17But when we landed at Miletus, he sent a message to the elders of the church at Ephesus, asking them to come and meet him.

18When they arrived he declared, "You know that from the day I set foot in the province of Asia until now 19I have done the Lord's work humbly and with many tears. I have endured the trials that came to me from the plots of the Jews. 20I never shrank back from telling you what you needed to hear, either publicly or in your homes. 21I have had one message for Jews and Greeks alike—the necessity of repenting from sin and turning to God, and of having faith in our Lord Jesus.

22“And now I am bound by the Spirit* to go to Jerusalem. I don’t know what awaits me, 23except that the Holy Spirit tells me in city after city that jail and suffering lie ahead. 24But my life is worth nothing to me unless I use it for finishing the work assigned me by the Lord Jesus—the work of telling others the Good News about the wonderful grace of God.

25“And now I know that none of you to whom I have preached the Kingdom will ever see me again. 26I declare today that I have been faithful. If anyone suffers eternal death, it’s not my fault,*27for I didn’t shrink from declaring all that God wants you to know.

28“So guard yourselves and God’s people. Feed and shepherd God’s flock—his church, purchased with his own blood*—over which the Holy Spirit has appointed you as elders.*29I know that false teachers, like vicious wolves, will come in among you after I leave, not sparing the flock. 30Even some men from your own group will rise up and distort the truth in order to draw a following. 31Watch out! Remember the three years I was with you—my constant watch and care over you night and day, and my many tears for you.

32“And now I entrust you to God and the message of his grace that is able to build you up and give you an inheritance with all those he has set apart for himself.

33“I have never coveted anyone’s silver or gold or fine clothes. 34You know that these hands of mine have worked to supply my own needs and even the needs of those who were with me. 35And I have been a constant example of how you can help those in need by working hard. You should remember the words of the Lord Jesus: ‘It is more blessed to give than to receive.’”

36When he had finished speaking, he knelt and prayed with them.
37They all cried as they embraced and kissed him good-bye. 38They were sad most of all because he had said that they would never see him again. Then they escorted him down to the ship.

Acts 21

PAUL'S JOURNEY TO JERUSALEM

1After saying farewell to the Ephesian elders, we sailed straight to the island of Cos. The next day we reached Rhodes and then went to Patara. 2There we boarded a ship sailing for Phoenicia. 3We sighted the island of Cyprus, passed it on our left, and landed at the harbor of Tyre, in Syria, where the ship was to unload its cargo.

4We went ashore, found the local believers,* and stayed with them a week. These believers prophesied through the Holy Spirit that Paul should not go on to Jerusalem. 5When we returned to the ship at the end of the week, the entire congregation, including women* and children, left the city and came down to the shore with us. There we knelt, prayed, 6and said our farewells. Then we went aboard, and they returned home.

7The next stop after leaving Tyre was Ptolemais, where we greeted the brothers and sisters* and stayed for one day. 8The next day we went on to Caesarea and stayed at the home of Philip the Evangelist, one of the seven men who had been chosen to distribute food. 9He had four unmarried daughters who had the gift of prophecy.

10Several days later a man named Agabus, who also had the gift of prophecy, arrived from Judea. 11He came over, took Paul's belt, and bound his own feet and hands with it. Then he said, "The Holy Spirit declares, 'So shall the owner of this belt be bound by the Jewish leaders in Jerusalem and turned over to the Gentiles.'" 12When we heard this, we and the local believers all begged Paul not to go on to Jerusalem.

13But he said, "Why all this weeping? You are breaking my heart! I am ready not only to be jailed at Jerusalem but even to die for the sake of the Lord Jesus." 14When it was clear that we couldn't persuade him, we gave up and said, "The Lord's will be done."

PAUL ARRIVES AT JERUSALEM

15After this we packed our things and left for Jerusalem. 16Some believers from Caesarea accompanied us, and they took us to the home of Mnason, a man originally from Cyprus and one of the early believers. 17When we arrived, the brothers and sisters in Jerusalem welcomed us warmly.

18The next day Paul went with us to meet with James, and all the elders of the Jerusalem church were present. 19After greeting them, Paul gave a detailed account of the things God had accomplished among the Gentiles through his ministry.

20After hearing this, they praised God. And then they said, "You know, dear brother, how many thousands of Jews have also believed, and they all follow the law of Moses very seriously. 21But the Jewish believers here in Jerusalem have been told that you are teaching all the Jews who live among the Gentiles to turn their backs on the laws of Moses. They've heard that you teach them not to circumcise their children or follow other Jewish customs. 22What should we do? They will certainly hear that you have come.

23"Here's what we want you to do. We have four men here who have completed their vow. 24Go with them to the Temple and join them in the purification ceremony, paying for them to have their heads ritually shaved. Then everyone will know that the rumors are all false and that you yourself observe the Jewish laws.

25“As for the Gentile believers, they should do what we already told them in a letter: They should abstain from eating food offered to idols, from consuming blood or the meat of strangled animals, and from sexual immorality.”

PAUL IS ARRESTED

26So Paul went to the Temple the next day with the other men. They had already started the purification ritual, so he publicly announced the date when their vows would end and sacrifices would be offered for each of them.

27The seven days were almost ended when some Jews from the province of Asia saw Paul in the Temple and roused a mob against him. They grabbed him, 28yelling, “Men of Israel, help us! This is the man who preaches against our people everywhere and tells everybody to disobey the Jewish laws. He speaks against the Temple—and even defiles this holy place by bringing in Gentiles.” 29(For earlier that day they had seen him in the city with Trophimus, a Gentile from Ephesus, and they assumed Paul had taken him into the Temple.)

30The whole city was rocked by these accusations, and a great riot followed. Paul was grabbed and dragged out of the Temple, and immediately the gates were closed behind him. 31As they were trying to kill him, word reached the commander of the Roman regiment that all Jerusalem was in an uproar. 32He immediately called out his soldiers and officers* and ran down among the crowd. When the mob saw the commander and the troops coming, they stopped beating Paul.

33Then the commander arrested him and ordered him bound with two chains. He asked the crowd who he was and what he had done. 34Some shouted one thing and some another. Since he couldn’t find out the truth in all the uproar and confusion, he ordered that Paul be taken to the fortress. 35As Paul reached the stairs, the mob grew so violent the soldiers had to lift him to their shoulders to protect him. 36And the crowd followed behind, shouting, “Kill him, kill him!”

PAUL SPEAKS TO THE CROWD

37As Paul was about to be taken inside, he said to the commander, “May I have a word with you?”

“Do you know Greek?” the commander asked, surprised. 38“Aren’t you the Egyptian who led a rebellion some time ago and took 4,000 members of the Assassins out into the desert?”

39“No,” Paul replied, “I am a Jew and a citizen of Tarsus in Cilicia, which is an important city. Please, let me talk to these people.” 40The commander agreed, so Paul stood on the stairs and motioned to the people to be quiet. Soon a deep silence enveloped the crowd, and he addressed them in their own language, Aramaic.*

Acts 22

1“Brothers and esteemed fathers,” Paul said, “listen to me as I offer my defense.” 2When they heard him speaking in their own language,* the silence was even greater.

3Then Paul said, “I am a Jew, born in Tarsus, a city in Cilicia, and I was brought up and educated here in Jerusalem under Gamaliel. As his student, I was carefully trained in our Jewish laws and customs. I became very zealous to honor God in everything I did, just like all of you today. 4And I persecuted the followers of the Way, hounding some to death, arresting both men and women and throwing them in prison. 5The high priest and the whole council of elders can testify that this is so. For I received letters from them to our Jewish brothers in Damascus, authorizing me to bring the followers of the Way from there to Jerusalem, in chains, to be punished.

6“As I was on the road, approaching Damascus about noon, a very bright light from heaven suddenly shone down around me. 7I fell to the ground and heard a voice saying to me, ‘Saul, Saul, why are you persecuting me?’

8“‘Who are you, lord?’ I asked.

“And the voice replied, ‘I am Jesus the Nazarene,* the one you are persecuting.’ 9The people with me saw the light but didn’t understand the voice speaking to me.

10“I asked, ‘What should I do, Lord?’

“And the Lord told me, ‘Get up and go into Damascus, and there you will be told everything you are to do.’

11“I was blinded by the intense light and had to be led by the hand to Damascus by my companions. 12A man named Ananias lived there. He was a godly man, deeply devoted to the law, and well regarded by all the Jews of Damascus. 13He came and stood beside me and said, ‘Brother Saul, regain your sight.’ And that very moment I could see him!

14“Then he told me, ‘The God of our ancestors has chosen you to know his will and to see the Righteous One and hear him speak.
15For you are to be his witness, telling everyone what you have seen and heard. 16What are you waiting for? Get up and be baptized.
Have your sins washed away by calling on the name of the Lord.’

17“After I returned to Jerusalem, I was praying in the Temple and fell into a trance. 18I saw a vision of Jesus* saying to me, ‘Hurry!
Leave Jerusalem, for the people here won’t accept your testimony about me.’

19"'But Lord,' I argued, 'they certainly know that in every synagogue I imprisoned and beat those who believed in you. 20And I was in complete agreement when your witness Stephen was killed. I stood by and kept the coats they took off when they stoned him.'

21"But the Lord said to me, 'Go, for I will send you far away to the Gentiles!'"

22The crowd listened until Paul said that word. Then they all began to shout, "Away with such a fellow! He isn't fit to live!" 23They yelled, threw off their coats, and tossed handfuls of dust into the air.

PAUL REVEALS HIS ROMAN CITIZENSHIP

24The commander brought Paul inside and ordered him lashed with whips to make him confess his crime. He wanted to find out why the crowd had become so furious. 25When they tied Paul down to lash him, Paul said to the officer* standing there, "Is it legal for you to whip a Roman citizen who hasn't even been tried?"

26When the officer heard this, he went to the commander and asked, "What are you doing? This man is a Roman citizen!"

27So the commander went over and asked Paul, "Tell me, are you a Roman citizen?"

"Yes, I certainly am," Paul replied.

28"I am, too," the commander muttered, "and it cost me plenty!"

Paul answered, "But I am a citizen by birth!"

29The soldiers who were about to interrogate Paul quickly withdrew when they heard he was a Roman citizen, and the commander was frightened because he had ordered him bound and whipped.

PAUL BEFORE THE HIGH COUNCIL

30The next day the commander ordered the leading priests into session with the Jewish high council.* He wanted to find out what the trouble was all about, so he released Paul to have him stand before them.

Acts 23

1Gazing intently at the high council,* Paul began: “Brothers, I have always lived before God with a clear conscience!”

2Instantly Ananias the high priest commanded those close to Paul to slap him on the mouth. 3But Paul said to him, “God will slap you, you corrupt hypocrite!* What kind of judge are you to break the law yourself by ordering me struck like that?”

4Those standing near Paul said to him, “Do you dare to insult God’s high priest?”

5“I’m sorry, brothers. I didn’t realize he was the high priest,” Paul replied, “for the Scriptures say, ‘You must not speak evil of any of your rulers.’*”

6Paul realized that some members of the high council were Sadducees and some were Pharisees, so he shouted, “Brothers, I am a Pharisee, as were my ancestors! And I am on trial because my hope is in the resurrection of the dead!”

7This divided the council—the Pharisees against the Sadducees—8for the Sadducees say there is no resurrection or angels or spirits, but the Pharisees believe in all of these. 9So there was a great uproar. Some of the teachers of religious law who were Pharisees jumped up and began to argue forcefully. “We see nothing wrong with him,” they shouted. “Perhaps a spirit or an angel spoke to him.” 10As the conflict grew more violent, the commander was afraid they would tear Paul apart. So he ordered his soldiers to go and rescue him by force and take him back to the fortress.

11That night the Lord appeared to Paul and said, “Be encouraged, Paul. Just as you have been a witness to me here in Jerusalem, you must preach the Good News in Rome as well.”

THE PLAN TO KILL PAUL

12The next morning a group of Jews* got together and bound themselves with an oath not to eat or drink until they had killed Paul. 13There were more than forty of them in the conspiracy. 14They went to the leading priests and elders and told them, “We have bound ourselves with an oath to eat nothing until we have killed Paul. 15So you and the high council should ask the commander to bring Paul back to the council again. Pretend you want to examine his case more fully. We will kill him on the way.”

16But Paul’s nephew—his sister’s son—heard of their plan and went to the fortress and told Paul. 17Paul called for one of the Roman officers* and said, “Take this young man to the commander. He has something important to tell him.”

18So the officer did, explaining, “Paul, the prisoner, called me over and asked me to bring this young man to you because he has something to tell you.”

19The commander took his hand, led him aside, and asked, “What is it you want to tell me?”

20Paul’s nephew told him, “Some Jews are going to ask you to bring

Paul before the high council tomorrow, pretending they want to get some more information. 21But don't do it! There are more than forty men hiding along the way ready to ambush him. They have vowed not to eat or drink anything until they have killed him. They are ready now, just waiting for your consent."

22"Don't let anyone know you told me this," the commander warned the young man.

PAUL IS SENT TO CAESAREA

23Then the commander called two of his officers and ordered, "Get 200 soldiers ready to leave for Caesarea at nine o'clock tonight. Also take 200 spearmen and 70 mounted troops. 24Provide horses for Paul to ride, and get him safely to Governor Felix." 25Then he wrote this letter to the governor:

26"From Claudius Lysias, to his Excellency, Governor Felix: Greetings!

27"This man was seized by some Jews, and they were about to kill him when I arrived with the troops. When I learned that he was a Roman citizen, I removed him to safety. 28Then I took him to their high council to try to learn the basis of the accusations against him. 29I soon discovered the charge was something regarding their religious law—certainly nothing worthy of imprisonment or death. 30But when I was informed of a plot to kill him, I immediately sent him on to you. I have told his accusers to bring their charges before you."

31So that night, as ordered, the soldiers took Paul as far as Antipatris. 32They returned to the fortress the next morning, while the mounted troops took him on to Caesarea. 33When they arrived in Caesarea, they presented Paul and the letter to Governor Felix. 34He read it and then asked Paul what province he was from. "Cilicia," Paul answered.

35“I will hear your case myself when your accusers arrive,” the governor told him. Then the governor ordered him kept in the prison at Herod’s headquarters.*

Acts 24

PAUL APPEARS BEFORE FELIX

1Five days later Ananias, the high priest, arrived with some of the Jewish elders and the lawyer* Tertullus, to present their case against Paul to the governor. 2When Paul was called in, Tertullus presented the charges against Paul in the following address to the governor: “You have provided a long period of peace for us Jews and with foresight have enacted reforms for us. 3For all of this, Your Excellency, we are very grateful to you. 4But I don’t want to bore you, so please give me your attention for only a moment. 5We have found this man to be a troublemaker who is constantly stirring up riots among the Jews all over the world. He is a ringleader of the cult known as the Nazarenes. 6Furthermore, he was trying to desecrate the Temple when we arrested him.*8You can find out the truth of our accusations by examining him yourself.” 9Then the other Jews chimed in, declaring that everything Tertullus said was true.

10The governor then motioned for Paul to speak. Paul said, “I know, sir, that you have been a judge of Jewish affairs for many years, so I gladly present my defense before you. 11You can quickly discover that I arrived in Jerusalem no more than twelve days ago to worship at the Temple. 12My accusers never found me arguing with anyone in the Temple, nor stirring up a riot in any synagogue or on the streets of the city. 13These men cannot prove the things they accuse me of doing.

14“But I admit that I follow the Way, which they call a cult. I worship the God of our ancestors, and I firmly believe the Jewish law and everything written in the prophets. 15I have the same hope in God that these men have, that he will raise both the righteous and the unrighteous. 16Because of this, I always try to maintain a clear conscience before God and all people.

17"After several years away, I returned to Jerusalem with money to aid my people and to offer sacrifices to God. 18My accusers saw me in the Temple as I was completing a purification ceremony. There was no crowd around me and no rioting. 19But some Jews from the province of Asia were there—and they ought to be here to bring charges if they have anything against me! 20Ask these men here what crime the Jewish high council* found me guilty of, 21except for the one time I shouted out, 'I am on trial before you today because I believe in the resurrection of the dead!'"

22At that point Felix, who was quite familiar with the Way, adjourned the hearing and said, "Wait until Lysias, the garrison commander, arrives. Then I will decide the case." 23He ordered an officer* to keep Paul in custody but to give him some freedom and allow his friends to visit him and take care of his needs.

24A few days later Felix came back with his wife, Drusilla, who was Jewish. Sending for Paul, they listened as he told them about faith in Christ Jesus. 25As he reasoned with them about righteousness and self-control and the coming day of judgment, Felix became frightened. "Go away for now," he replied. "When it is more convenient, I'll call for you again." 26He also hoped that Paul would bribe him, so he sent for him quite often and talked with him.

27After two years went by in this way, Felix was succeeded by Porcius Festus. And because Felix wanted to gain favor with the Jewish people, he left Paul in prison.

Acts 25

PAUL APPEARS BEFORE FESTUS

1Three days after Festus arrived in Caesarea to take over his new responsibilities, he left for Jerusalem, 2where the leading priests and other Jewish leaders met with him and made their accusations against Paul. 3They asked Festus as a favor to transfer Paul to Jerusalem (planning to ambush and kill him on the way). 4But Festus replied that Paul was at Caesarea and he himself would be returning there soon. 5So he said, “Those of you in authority can return with me. If Paul has done anything wrong, you can make your accusations.”

6About eight or ten days later Festus returned to Caesarea, and on the following day he took his seat in court and ordered that Paul be brought in. 7When Paul arrived, the Jewish leaders from Jerusalem gathered around and made many serious accusations they couldn’t prove.

8Paul denied the charges. “I am not guilty of any crime against the Jewish laws or the Temple or the Roman government,” he said.

9Then Festus, wanting to please the Jews, asked him, “Are you willing to go to Jerusalem and stand trial before me there?”

10But Paul replied, “No! This is the official Roman court, so I ought to be tried right here. You know very well I am not guilty of harming the Jews. 11If I have done something worthy of death, I don’t refuse to die. But if I am innocent, no one has a right to turn me over to these men to kill me. I appeal to Caesar!”

12Festus conferred with his advisers and then replied, “Very well! You have appealed to Caesar, and to Caesar you will go!”

13A few days later King Agrippa arrived with his sister, Bernice,* to pay their respects to Festus. 14During their stay of several days, Festus discussed Paul’s case with the king. “There is a prisoner here,” he told him, “whose case was left for me by Felix. 15When I was in Jerusalem, the leading priests and Jewish elders pressed charges against him and asked me to condemn him. 16I pointed out to them that Roman law does not convict people without a trial. They must be given an opportunity to confront their accusers and defend themselves.

17"When his accusers came here for the trial, I didn't delay. I called the case the very next day and ordered Paul brought in. 18But the accusations made against him weren't any of the crimes I expected. 19Instead, it was something about their religion and a dead man named Jesus, who Paul insists is alive. 20I was at a loss to know how to investigate these things, so I asked him whether he would be willing to stand trial on these charges in Jerusalem. 21But Paul appealed to have his case decided by the emperor. So I ordered that he be held in custody until I could arrange to send him to Caesar."

22"I'd like to hear the man myself," Agrippa said.

And Festus replied, "You will—tomorrow!"

PAUL SPEAKS TO AGRIPPA

23So the next day Agrippa and Bernice arrived at the auditorium with great pomp, accompanied by military officers and prominent men of the city. Festus ordered that Paul be brought in. 24Then Festus said, "King Agrippa and all who are here, this is the man whose death is demanded by all the Jews, both here and in Jerusalem. 25But in my opinion he has done nothing deserving death. However, since he appealed his case to the emperor, I have decided to send him to Rome.

26"But what shall I write the emperor? For there is no clear charge against him. So I have brought him before all of you, and especially you, King Agrippa, so that after we examine him, I might have something to write. 27For it makes no sense to send a prisoner to the emperor without specifying the charges against him!"

Acts 26

1Then Agrippa said to Paul, “You may speak in your defense.”

So Paul, gesturing with his hand, started his defense: 2“I am fortunate, King Agrippa, that you are the one hearing my defense today against all these accusations made by the Jewish leaders, 3for
I know you are an expert on all Jewish customs and controversies.
Now please listen to me patiently!

4“As the Jewish leaders are well aware, I was given a thorough Jewish training from my earliest childhood among my own people and in Jerusalem. 5If they would admit it, they know that I have been a member of the Pharisees, the strictest sect of our religion.
6Now I am on trial because of my hope in the fulfillment of God’s promise made to our ancestors. 7In fact, that is why the twelve tribes of Israel zealously worship God night and day, and they share the same hope I have. Yet, Your Majesty, they accuse me for having this hope! 8Why does it seem incredible to any of you that God can raise the dead?

9“I used to believe that I ought to do everything I could to oppose the very name of Jesus the Nazarene.* 10Indeed, I did just that in Jerusalem. Authorized by the leading priests, I caused many believers* there to be sent to prison. And I cast my vote against them when they were condemned to death. 11Many times I had them punished in the synagogues to get them to curse Jesus.* I was so violently opposed to them that I even chased them down in foreign cities.

12“One day I was on such a mission to Damascus, armed with the authority and commission of the leading priests. 13About noon, Your Majesty, as I was on the road, a light from heaven brighter than the sun shone down on me and my companions. 14We all fell down, and I heard a voice saying to me in Aramaic,‘Saul, Saul, why are you persecuting me? It is useless for you to fight against my will.’

15"'Who are you, lord?' I asked.

"And the Lord replied, 'I am Jesus, the one you are persecuting.
16Now get to your feet! For I have appeared to you to appoint you as my servant and witness. Tell people that you have seen me, and tell them what I will show you in the future. 17And I will rescue you from both your own people and the Gentiles. Yes, I am sending you to the Gentiles 18to open their eyes, so they may turn from darkness to light and from the power of Satan to God. Then they will receive forgiveness for their sins and be given a place among God's people, who are set apart by faith in me.'

19"And so, King Agrippa, I obeyed that vision from heaven. 20I preached first to those in Damascus, then in Jerusalem and throughout all Judea, and also to the Gentiles, that all must repent of their sins and turn to God—and prove they have changed by the good things they do. 21Some Jews arrested me in the Temple for preaching this, and they tried to kill me. 22But God has protected me right up to this present time so I can testify to everyone, from the least to the greatest. I teach nothing except what the prophets and Moses said would happen—23that the Messiah would suffer and be the first to rise from the dead, and in this way announce God's light to Jews and Gentiles alike."

24Suddenly, Festus shouted, "Paul, you are insane. Too much study has made you crazy!"

25But Paul replied, "I am not insane, Most Excellent Festus. What I am saying is the sober truth. 26And King Agrippa knows about these things. I speak boldly, for I am sure these events are all familiar to him, for they were not done in a corner! 27King Agrippa, do you believe the prophets? I know you do—"

28Agrippa interrupted him. "Do you think you can persuade me to become a Christian so quickly?"*

29Paul replied, "Whether quickly or not, I pray to God that both you and everyone here in this audience might become the same as I am, except for these chains."

30Then the king, the governor, Bernice, and all the others stood and left. 31As they went out, they talked it over and agreed, "This man hasn't done anything to deserve death or imprisonment."

32And Agrippa said to Festus, "He could have been set free if he hadn't appealed to Caesar."

ANGELS ACTS 27:1-44

Acts 27

PAUL SAILS FOR ROME

1When the time came, we set sail for Italy. Paul and several other prisoners were placed in the custody of a Roman officer* named Julius, a captain of the Imperial Regiment. 2Aristarchus, a Macedonian from Thessalonica, was also with us. We left on a ship whose home port was Adramyttium on the northwest coast of the province of Asia;* it was scheduled to make several stops at ports along the coast of the province.

3The next day when we docked at Sidon, Julius was very kind to Paul and let him go ashore to visit with friends so they could provide for his needs. 4Putting out to sea from there, we encountered strong headwinds that made it difficult to keep the ship on course, so we sailed north of Cyprus between the island and the mainland. 5Keeping to the open sea, we passed along the coast of Cilicia and Pamphylia, landing at Myra, in the province of Lycia.
6There the commanding officer found an Egyptian ship from Alexandria that was bound for Italy, and he put us on board.

7We had several days of slow sailing, and after great difficulty we finally neared Cnidus. But the wind was against us, so we sailed across to Crete and along the sheltered coast of the island, past the cape of Salmone. 8We struggled along the coast with great difficulty and finally arrived at Fair Havens, near the town of Lasea. 9We had lost a lot of time. The weather was becoming dangerous for sea travel because it was so late in the fall,* and Paul spoke to the ship's officers about it.

10"Men," he said, "I believe there is trouble ahead if we go on—shipwreck, loss of cargo, and danger to our lives as well." 11But the officer in charge of the prisoners listened more to the ship's captain and the owner than to Paul. 12And since Fair Havens was an exposed harbor—a poor place to spend the winter—most of the crew wanted to go on to Phoenix, farther up the coast of Crete, and spend the winter there. Phoenix was a good harbor with only a southwest and northwest exposure.

THE STORM AT SEA

13When a light wind began blowing from the south, the sailors thought they could make it. So they pulled up anchor and sailed close to the shore of Crete. 14But the weather changed abruptly, and a wind of typhoon strength (called a “northeaster”) burst across the island and blew us out to sea. 15The sailors couldn’t turn the ship into the wind, so they gave up and let it run before the gale.

16We sailed along the sheltered side of a small island named Cauda,* where with great difficulty we hoisted aboard the lifeboat being towed behind us. 17Then the sailors bound ropes around the hull of the ship to strengthen it. They were afraid of being driven across to the sandbars of Syrtis off the African coast, so they lowered the sea anchor to slow the ship and were driven before the wind.

18The next day, as gale-force winds continued to batter the ship, the crew began throwing the cargo overboard. 19The following day they even took some of the ship’s gear and threw it overboard. 20The terrible storm raged for many days, blotting out the sun and the stars, until at last all hope was gone.

21No one had eaten for a long time. Finally, Paul called the crew together and said, “Men, you should have listened to me in the first place and not left Crete. You would have avoided all this damage and loss. 22But take courage! None of you will lose your lives, even though the ship will go down. 23For last night an angel of the God to whom I belong and whom I serve stood beside me, 24and he said, ‘Don’t be afraid, Paul, for you will surely stand trial before Caesar!
What’s more, God in his goodness has granted safety to everyone sailing with you.’ 25So take courage! For I believe God. It will be just as he said. 26But we will be shipwrecked on an island.”

THE SHIPWRECK

27About midnight on the fourteenth night of the storm, as we were being driven across the Sea of Adria,* the sailors sensed land was near. 28They dropped a weighted line and found that the water was 120 feet deep. But a little later they measured again and found it was only 90 feet deep.*29At this rate they were afraid we would soon be driven against the rocks along the shore, so they threw out four anchors from the back of the ship and prayed for daylight.

30Then the sailors tried to abandon the ship; they lowered the lifeboat as though they were going to put out anchors from the front of the ship. 31But Paul said to the commanding officer and the soldiers, “You will all die unless the sailors stay aboard.” 32So the soldiers cut the ropes to the lifeboat and let it drift away.

33Just as day was dawning, Paul urged everyone to eat. “You have been so worried that you haven’t touched food for two weeks,” he said. 34“Please eat something now for your own good. For not a hair of your heads will perish.” 35Then he took some bread, gave thanks to God before them all, and broke off a piece and ate it. 36Then everyone was encouraged and began to eat—37all 276 of us who were on board. 38After eating, the crew lightened the ship further by throwing the cargo of wheat overboard.

39When morning dawned, they didn't recognize the coastline, but they saw a bay with a beach and wondered if they could get to shore by running the ship aground. 40So they cut off the anchors and left them in the sea. Then they lowered the rudders, raised the foresail, and headed toward shore. 41But they hit a shoal and ran the ship aground too soon. The bow of the ship stuck fast, while the stern was repeatedly smashed by the force of the waves and began to break apart.

42The soldiers wanted to kill the prisoners to make sure they didn't swim ashore and escape. 43But the commanding officer wanted to spare Paul, so he didn't let them carry out their plan. Then he ordered all who could swim to jump overboard first and make for land. 44The others held on to planks or debris from the broken ship.* So everyone escaped safely to shore.

MALTA

Acts 28

PAUL ON THE ISLAND OF MALTA

1Once we were safe on shore, we learned that we were on the island of Malta. 2The people of the island were very kind to us. It was cold and rainy, so they built a fire on the shore to welcome us.

3As Paul gathered an armful of sticks and was laying them on the fire, a poisonous snake, driven out by the heat, bit him on the hand. 4The people of the island saw it hanging from his hand and said to each other, "A murderer, no doubt! Though he escaped the sea, justice will not permit him to live.” 5But Paul shook off the snake into the fire and was unharmed. 6The people waited for him to swell up or suddenly drop dead. But when they had waited a long time and saw that he wasn’t harmed, they changed their minds and decided he was a god.

7Near the shore where we landed was an estate belonging to Publius, the chief official of the island. He welcomed us and treated us kindly for three days. 8As it happened, Publius’s father was ill with fever and dysentery. Paul went in and prayed for him, and laying his hands on him, he healed him. 9Then all the other sick people on the island came and were healed. 10As a result we were showered with honors, and when the time came to sail, people supplied us with everything we would need for the trip.

PAUL ARRIVES AT ROME

11It was three months after the shipwreck that we set sail on another ship that had wintered at the island—an Alexandrian ship with the twin gods* as its figurehead. 12Our first stop was Syracuse,* where we stayed three days. 13From there we sailed across to Rhegium.* A day later a south wind began blowing, so the following day we sailed up the coast to Puteoli. 14There we found some believers,* who invited us to spend a week with them. And so we came to Rome.

ROME

15The brothers and sisters* in Rome had heard we were coming, and they came to meet us at the Forum* on the Appian Way. Others joined us at The Three Taverns.* When Paul saw them, he was encouraged and thanked God.

16When we arrived in Rome, Paul was permitted to have his own private lodging, though he was guarded by a soldier.

PAUL PREACHES AT ROME UNDER GUARD

17Three days after Paul's arrival, he called together the local Jewish leaders. He said to them, "Brothers, I was arrested in Jerusalem and handed over to the Roman government, even though I had done nothing against our people or the customs of our ancestors. 18The Romans tried me and wanted to release me, because they found no cause for the death sentence. 19But when the Jewish leaders protested the decision, I felt it necessary to appeal to Caesar, even though I had no desire to press charges against my own people. 20I asked you to come here today so we could get acquainted and so I could explain to you that I am bound with this chain because I believe that the hope of Israel—the Messiah—has already come."

21They replied, “We have had no letters from Judea or reports against you from anyone who has come here. 22But we want to hear what you believe, for the only thing we know about this movement is that it is denounced everywhere.”

23So a time was set, and on that day a large number of people came to Paul’s lodging. He explained and testified about the Kingdom of God and tried to persuade them about Jesus from the Scriptures.
Using the law of Moses and the books of the prophets, he spoke to them from morning until evening. 24Some were persuaded by the things he said, but others did not believe. 25And after they had argued back and forth among themselves, they left with this final word from Paul: “The Holy Spirit was right when he said to your ancestors through Isaiah the prophet,

26‘Go and say to this people: When you hear what I say, you will not understand.
When you see what I do, you will not comprehend.

27For the hearts of these people are hardened, and their ears cannot hear, and they have closed their eyes— so their eyes cannot see, and their ears cannot hear, and their hearts cannot understand, and they cannot turn to me and let me heal them.’*

28So I want you to know that this salvation from God has also been offered to the Gentiles, and they will accept it.”*

30For the next two years, Paul lived in Rome at his own expense.*
He welcomed all who visited him, 31boldly proclaiming the Kingdom of God and teaching about the Lord Jesus Christ. And no one tried to stop him.

WELCOME TO

ROMANS

The book of Romans is Paul's systematic presentation of the basic beliefs of the Christian faith—including sin, salvation, and service. He begins by exploring the universal sin of humanity. Everyone is guilty of sin, but God has opened the way for us to be reunited with him. By God's grace and through his Son, Jesus Christ, we are saved from the punishment we deserve. Because we are saved we have the opportunity to live a victorious Christian life by serving God and our neighbors. Paul also provides words of comfort and assurance that nothing can ever separate us from God's love.

Unlike most of Paul's other letters, Romans is written to a group of believers Paul has not yet met at this point in his ministry. He writes this letter from the city of Corinth at the end of his third missionary journey as a way to introduce himself to the Christians of Rome. He will arrive in Rome about three years later.

ON THE FLYOVER ROUTE: You'll fly over Romans completely, but you may want to return later to read up on Paul's important teachings about sin and salvation. Your next stop is at 1 Corinthians 13:1.

2 STOPS

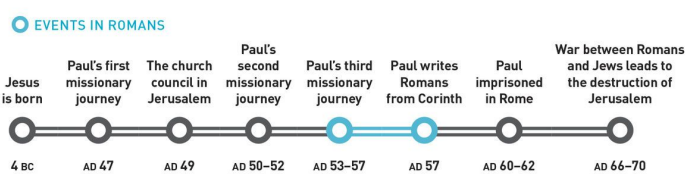
ON THE DIRECT ROUTE: You'll stop to read two of the most important passages in this book, both of which describe the profound blessings that are ours in Christ. Your next stop is at Romans 5:1.

3 STOPS

ON THE SCENIC ROUTE: You'll encounter two of the central themes of the letter: the seriousness of sin and the power of God's saving work in Christ. Your next stop is at Romans 3:1.

FINDING JESUS IN ROMANS

In Romans, Paul shows how Jesus Christ is central to all of the Christian life. The Christian life begins with Christ—through his death and resurrection we are made right with God. Christ's great work continues as believers grow and mature to become more like him in every way. Even after life on earth ends, believers will live with Christ eternally. Paul shows how Jesus makes it possible to enter into this life with God and enables us to continue living in it. He also compares Jesus to Adam: Just as all humans received sin and death from the first Adam, so they receive salvation and life through Christ (5:12-21; see also 1 Corinthians 15:45).



THE LETTERS TO THE CHURCHES

Romans 1

GREETINGS FROM PAUL

1This letter is from Paul, a slave of Christ Jesus, chosen by God to be an apostle and sent out to preach his Good News. 2God promised this Good News long ago through his prophets in the holy Scriptures. 3The Good News is about his Son. In his earthly life he was born into King David's family line, 4and he was shown to be* the Son of God when he was raised from the dead by the power of the Holy Spirit.* He is Jesus Christ our Lord. 5Through Christ, God has given us the privilege* and authority as apostles to tell Gentiles everywhere what God has done for them, so that they will believe and obey him, bringing glory to his name.

6And you are included among those Gentiles who have been called to belong to Jesus Christ. 7I am writing to all of you in Rome who are loved by God and are called to be his own holy people.

May God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ give you grace and peace.

GOD'S GOOD NEWS

8Let me say first that I thank my God through Jesus Christ for all of you, because your faith in him is being talked about all over the world. 9God knows how often I pray for you. Day and night I bring you and your needs in prayer to God, whom I serve with all my heart* by spreading the Good News about his Son.

10One of the things I always pray for is the opportunity, God willing, to come at last to see you. 11For I long to visit you so I can bring you some spiritual gift that will help you grow strong in the Lord. 12When we get together, I want to encourage you in your faith, but I also want to be encouraged by yours.

13I want you to know, dear brothers and sisters,* that I planned many times to visit you, but I was prevented until now. I want to work among you and see spiritual fruit, just as I have seen among other Gentiles. 14For I have a great sense of obligation to people in both the civilized world and the rest of the world,* to the educated and uneducated alike. 15So I am eager to come to you in Rome, too, to preach the Good News.

16For I am not ashamed of this Good News about Christ. It is the power of God at work, saving everyone who believes—the Jew first and also the Gentile.17This Good News tells us how God makes us right in his sight. This is accomplished from start to finish by faith. As the Scriptures say, "It is through faith that a righteous person has life."

GOD'S ANGER AT SIN

18But God shows his anger from heaven against all sinful, wicked people who suppress the truth by their wickedness.*19They know the truth about God because he has made it obvious to them. 20For ever since the world was created, people have seen the earth and sky. Through everything God made, they can clearly see his invisible qualities—his eternal power and divine nature. So they have no excuse for not knowing God.

21Yes, they knew God, but they wouldn't worship him as God or even give him thanks. And they began to think up foolish ideas of what God was like. As a result, their minds became dark and confused. 22Claiming to be wise, they instead became utter fools. 23And instead of worshiping the glorious, ever-living God, they worshiped idols made to look like mere people and birds and animals and reptiles.

24So God abandoned them to do whatever shameful things their hearts desired. As a result, they did vile and degrading things with each other's bodies. 25They traded the truth about God for a lie. So they worshiped and served the things God created instead of the Creator himself, who is worthy of eternal praise! Amen. 26That is why God abandoned them to their shameful desires. Even the women turned against the natural way to have sex and instead indulged in sex with each other. 27And the men, instead of having normal sexual relations with women, burned with lust for each other. Men did shameful things with other men, and as a result of this sin, they suffered within themselves the penalty they deserved.

28Since they thought it foolish to acknowledge God, he abandoned them to their foolish thinking and let them do things that should never be done. 29Their lives became full of every kind of wickedness, sin, greed, hate, envy, murder, quarreling, deception, malicious behavior, and gossip. 30They are backstabbers, haters of God, insolent, proud, and boastful. They invent new ways of sinning, and they disobey their parents. 31They refuse to understand, break their promises, are heartless, and have no mercy. 32They know God's justice requires that those who do these things deserve to die, yet they do them anyway. Worse yet, they encourage others to do them, too.

Romans 2

GOD'S JUDGMENT OF SIN

1You may think you can condemn such people, but you are just as bad, and you have no excuse! When you say they are wicked and should be punished, you are condemning yourself, for you who judge others do these very same things. 2And we know that God, in his justice, will punish anyone who does such things. 3Since you judge others for doing these things, why do you think you can avoid God's judgment when you do the same things? 4Don't you see how wonderfully kind, tolerant, and patient God is with you? Does this mean nothing to you? Can't you see that his kindness is intended to turn you from your sin?

5But because you are stubborn and refuse to turn from your sin, you are storing up terrible punishment for yourself. For a day of anger is coming, when God's righteous judgment will be revealed. 6He will judge everyone according to what they have done. 7He will give eternal life to those who keep on doing good, seeking after the glory and honor and immortality that God offers. 8But he will pour out his anger and wrath on those who live for themselves, who refuse to obey the truth and instead live lives of wickedness. 9There will be trouble and calamity for everyone who keeps on doing what is evil —for the Jew first and also for the Gentile.*10But there will be glory and honor and peace from God for all who do good—for the Jew first and also for the Gentile. 11For God does not show favoritism.

12When the Gentiles sin, they will be destroyed, even though they never had God's written law. And the Jews, who do have God's law, will be judged by that law when they fail to obey it. 13For merely listening to the law doesn't make us right with God. It is obeying the law that makes us right in his sight. 14Even Gentiles, who do not have God's written law, show that they know his law when they instinctively obey it, even without having heard it. 15They demonstrate that God's law is written in their hearts, for their own conscience and thoughts either accuse them or tell them they are doing right. 16And this is the message I proclaim—that the day is coming when God, through Christ Jesus, will judge everyone's secret life.

THE JEWS AND THE LAW

17You who call yourselves Jews are relying on God's law, and you boast about your special relationship with him. 18You know what he wants; you know what is right because you have been taught his law. 19You are convinced that you are a guide for the blind and a light for people who are lost in darkness. 20You think you can instruct the ignorant and teach children the ways of God. For you are certain that God's law gives you complete knowledge and truth.

21Well then, if you teach others, why don't you teach yourself? You tell others not to steal, but do you steal? 22You say it is wrong to commit adultery, but do you commit adultery? You condemn idolatry, but do you use items stolen from pagan temples?* 23You are so proud of knowing the law, but you dishonor God by breaking it.
24No wonder the Scriptures say, "The Gentiles blaspheme the name of God because of you."*

25The Jewish ceremony of circumcision has value only if you obey God's law. But if you don't obey God's law, you are no better off than an uncircumcised Gentile. 26And if the Gentiles obey God's law, won't God declare them to be his own people? 27In fact, uncircumcised Gentiles who keep God's law will condemn you Jews who are circumcised and possess God's law but don't obey it.

28For you are not a true Jew just because you were born of Jewish parents or because you have gone through the ceremony of circumcision. 29No, a true Jew is one whose heart is right with God.
And true circumcision is not merely obeying the letter of the law; rather, it is a change of heart produced by the Spirit. And a person with a changed heart seeks praise* from God, not from people.

Romans 3

GOD REMAINS FAITHFUL

1Then what's the advantage of being a Jew? Is there any value in the ceremony of circumcision? 2Yes, there are great benefits! First of all, the Jews were entrusted with the whole revelation of God.*

3True, some of them were unfaithful; but just because they were unfaithful, does that mean God will be unfaithful? 4Of course not!
Even if everyone else is a liar, God is true. As the Scriptures say about him, "You will be proved right in what you say, and you will win your case in court."*

5"But," some might say, "our sinfulness serves a good purpose, for it helps people see how righteous God is. Isn't it unfair, then, for him to punish us?" (This is merely a human point of view.) 6Of course not! If God were not entirely fair, how would he be qualified to judge the world? 7"But," someone might still argue, "how can God condemn me as a sinner if my dishonesty highlights his truthfulness and brings him more glory?" 8And some people even slander us by claiming that we say, "The more we sin, the better it is!" Those who say such things deserve to be condemned.

ALL PEOPLE ARE SINNERS

9Well then, should we conclude that we Jews are better than others? No, not at all, for we have already shown that all people, whether Jews or Gentiles,* are under the power of sin. 10As the Scriptures say, “No one is righteous— not even one.

11No one is truly wise; no one is seeking God.

12All have turned away; all have become useless.
No one does good, not a single one.”*

13“Their talk is foul, like the stench from an open grave.
Their tongues are filled with lies.”
“Snake venom drips from their lips.”*

14“Their mouths are full of cursing and bitterness.”*

15“They rush to commit murder.

16Destruction and misery always follow them.

17They don’t know where to find peace.”*

18“They have no fear of God at all.”*

19Obviously, the law applies to those to whom it was given, for its purpose is to keep people from having excuses, and to show that the entire world is guilty before God. 20For no one can ever be made right with God by doing what the law commands. The law simply shows us how sinful we are.

CHRIST TOOK OUR PUNISHMENT

21But now God has shown us a way to be made right with him without keeping the requirements of the law, as was promised in the writings of Moses* and the prophets long ago. 22We are made right with God by placing our faith in Jesus Christ. And this is true for everyone who believes, no matter who we are.

23For everyone has sinned; we all fall short of God's glorious standard. 24Yet God freely and graciously declares that we are righteous. He did this through Christ Jesus when he freed us from the penalty for our sins. 25For God presented Jesus as the sacrifice for sin. People are made right with God when they believe that Jesus sacrificed his life, shedding his blood. This sacrifice shows that God was being fair when he held back and did not punish those who sinned in times past, 26for he was looking ahead and including them in what he would do in this present time. God did this to demonstrate his righteousness, for he himself is fair and just, and he declares sinners to be right in his sight when they believe in Jesus.

27Can we boast, then, that we have done anything to be accepted by God? No, because our acquittal is not based on obeying the law. It is based on faith. 28So we are made right with God through faith and not by obeying the law.

29After all, is God the God of the Jews only? Isn't he also the God of the Gentiles? Of course he is. 30There is only one God, and he makes people right with himself only by faith, whether they are Jews or Gentiles.*31Well then, if we emphasize faith, does this mean that we can forget about the law? Of course not! In fact, only when we have faith do we truly fulfill the law.

Romans 4

THE FAITH OF ABRAHAM

1Abraham was, humanly speaking, the founder of our Jewish nation. What did he discover about being made right with God? 2If his good deeds had made him acceptable to God, he would have had something to boast about. But that was not God's way. 3For the Scriptures tell us, "Abraham believed God, and God counted him as righteous because of his faith."*

4When people work, their wages are not a gift, but something they have earned. 5But people are counted as righteous, not because of their work, but because of their faith in God who forgives sinners.
6David also spoke of this when he described the happiness of those who are declared righteous without working for it:

7"Oh, what joy for those whose disobedience is forgiven, whose sins are put out of sight.

8Yes, what joy for those whose record the LORD has cleared of sin."*

9Now, is this blessing only for the Jews, or is it also for uncircumcised Gentiles?* Well, we have been saying that Abraham was counted as righteous by God because of his faith. 10But how did this happen? Was he counted as righteous only after he was circumcised, or was it before he was circumcised? Clearly, God accepted Abraham before he was circumcised!

11Circumcision was a sign that Abraham already had faith and that God had already accepted him and declared him to be righteous—even before he was circumcised. So Abraham is the spiritual father of those who have faith but have not been circumcised. They are counted as righteous because of their faith. 12And Abraham is also the spiritual father of those who have been circumcised, but only if they have the same kind of faith Abraham had before he was circumcised.

13Clearly, God's promise to give the whole earth to Abraham and his descendants was based not on his obedience to God's law, but on a right relationship with God that comes by faith. 14If God's promise is only for those who obey the law, then faith is not necessary and the promise is pointless. 15For the law always brings punishment on those who try to obey it. (The only way to avoid breaking the law is to have no law to break!)

16So the promise is received by faith. It is given as a free gift. And we are all certain to receive it, whether or not we live according to the law of Moses, if we have faith like Abraham's. For Abraham is the father of all who believe. 17That is what the Scriptures mean when God told him, "I have made you the father of many nations."* This happened because Abraham believed in the God who brings the dead back to life and who creates new things out of nothing.

18Even when there was no reason for hope, Abraham kept hoping—believing that he would become the father of many nations. For God had said to him, "That's how many descendants you will have!"*19And Abraham's faith did not weaken, even though, at about 100 years of age, he figured his body was as good as dead—and so was Sarah's womb.

20Abraham never wavered in believing God's promise. In fact, his faith grew stronger, and in this he brought glory to God. 21He was fully convinced that God is able to do whatever he promises. 22And because of Abraham's faith, God counted him as righteous. 23And when God counted him as righteous, it wasn't just for Abraham's benefit. It was recorded 24for our benefit, too, assuring us that God will also count us as righteous if we believe in him, the one who raised Jesus our Lord from the dead. 25He was handed over to die because of our sins, and he was raised to life to make us right with God.

GOD LOVES YOU ROMANS 5:1-11

Romans 5

FAITH BRINGS JOY

1Therefore, since we have been made right in God's sight by faith, we have peace* with God because of what Jesus Christ our Lord has done for us. 2Because of our faith, Christ has brought us into this place of undeserved privilege where we now stand, and we confidently and joyfully look forward to sharing God's glory.

3We can rejoice, too, when we run into problems and trials, for we know that they help us develop endurance. 4And endurance develops strength of character, and character strengthens our confident hope of salvation. 5And this hope will not lead to disappointment. For we know how dearly God loves us, because he has given us the Holy Spirit to fill our hearts with his love.

6When we were utterly helpless, Christ came at just the right time and died for us sinners. 7Now, most people would not be willing to die for an upright person, though someone might perhaps be willing to die for a person who is especially good. 8But God showed his great love for us by sending Christ to die for us while we were still sinners. 9And since we have been made right in God's sight by the blood of Christ, he will certainly save us from God's condemnation.
10For since our friendship with God was restored by the death of his Son while we were still his enemies, we will certainly be saved through the life of his Son. 11So now we can rejoice in our wonderful new relationship with God because our Lord Jesus Christ has made us friends of God.

ADAM AND CHRIST CONTRASTED

12When Adam sinned, sin entered the world. Adam's sin brought death, so death spread to everyone, for everyone sinned. 13Yes, people sinned even before the law was given. But it was not counted as sin because there was not yet any law to break. 14Still, everyone died—from the time of Adam to the time of Moses—even those who did not disobey an explicit commandment of God, as Adam did. Now Adam is a symbol, a representation of Christ, who was yet to come. 15But there is a great difference between Adam's sin and God's gracious gift. For the sin of this one man, Adam, brought death to many. But even greater is God's wonderful grace and his gift of forgiveness to many through this other man, Jesus Christ. 16And the result of God's gracious gift is very different from the result of that one man's sin. For Adam's sin led to condemnation, but God's free gift leads to our being made right with God, even though we are guilty of many sins. 17For the sin of this one man, Adam, caused death to rule over many. But even greater is God's wonderful grace and his gift of righteousness, for all who receive it will live in triumph over sin and death through this one man, Jesus Christ.

18Yes, Adam's one sin brings condemnation for everyone, but Christ's one act of righteousness brings a right relationship with God and new life for everyone. 19Because one person disobeyed God, many became sinners. But because one other person obeyed

God, many will be made righteous.

20God's law was given so that all people could see how sinful they were. But as people sinned more and more, God's wonderful grace became more abundant. 21So just as sin ruled over all people and brought them to death, now God's wonderful grace rules instead, giving us right standing with God and resulting in eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Romans 6

SIN'S POWER IS BROKEN

1Well then, should we keep on sinning so that God can show us more and more of his wonderful grace? 2Of course not! Since we have died to sin, how can we continue to live in it? 3Or have you forgotten that when we were joined with Christ Jesus in baptism, we joined him in his death? 4For we died and were buried with Christ by baptism. And just as Christ was raised from the dead by the glorious power of the Father, now we also may live new lives.

5Since we have been united with him in his death, we will also be raised to life as he was. 6We know that our old sinful selves were crucified with Christ so that sin might lose its power in our lives. We are no longer slaves to sin. 7For when we died with Christ we were set free from the power of sin. 8And since we died with Christ, we know we will also live with him. 9We are sure of this because Christ was raised from the dead, and he will never die again. Death no longer has any power over him. 10When he died, he died once to break the power of sin. But now that he lives, he lives for the glory of God. 11So you also should consider yourselves to be dead to the power of sin and alive to God through Christ Jesus.

12Do not let sin control the way you live;* do not give in to sinful desires. 13Do not let any part of your body become an instrument of evil to serve sin. Instead, give yourselves completely to God, for you were dead, but now you have new life. So use your whole body as an instrument to do what is right for the glory of God. 14Sin is no longer your master, for you no longer live under the requirements of the law. Instead, you live under the freedom of God's grace.

15Well then, since God's grace has set us free from the law, does that mean we can go on sinning? Of course not! 16Don't you realize that you become the slave of whatever you choose to obey? You can be a slave to sin, which leads to death, or you can choose to obey God, which leads to righteous living. 17Thank God! Once you were slaves of sin, but now you wholeheartedly obey this teaching we have given you. 18Now you are free from your slavery to sin, and you have become slaves to righteous living.

19Because of the weakness of your human nature, I am using the illustration of slavery to help you understand all this. Previously, you let yourselves be slaves to impurity and lawlessness, which led ever deeper into sin. Now you must give yourselves to be slaves to righteous living so that you will become holy.

20When you were slaves to sin, you were free from the obligation to do right. 21And what was the result? You are now ashamed of the things you used to do, things that end in eternal doom. 22But now you are free from the power of sin and have become slaves of God. Now you do those things that lead to holiness and result in eternal life. 23For the wages of sin is death, but the free gift of God is eternal life through Christ Jesus our Lord.

NO LONGER BOUND TO THE LAW

1Now, dear brothers and sisters*—you who are familiar with the law—don't you know that the law applies only while a person is living? 2For example, when a woman marries, the law binds her to her husband as long as he is alive. But if he dies, the laws of marriage no longer apply to her. 3So while her husband is alive, she would be committing adultery if she married another man. But if her husband dies, she is free from that law and does not commit adultery when she remarries.

4So, my dear brothers and sisters, this is the point: You died to the power of the law when you died with Christ. And now you are united with the one who was raised from the dead. As a result, we can produce a harvest of good deeds for God. 5When we were controlled by our old nature,* sinful desires were at work within us, and the law aroused these evil desires that produced a harvest of sinful deeds, resulting in death. 6But now we have been released from the law, for we died to it and are no longer captive to its power. Now we can serve God, not in the old way of obeying the letter of the law, but in the new way of living in the Spirit.

GOD'S LAW REVEALS OUR SIN

7Well then, am I suggesting that the law of God is sinful? Of course not! In fact, it was the law that showed me my sin. I would never have known that coveting is wrong if the law had not said, "You must not covet."*8But sin used this command to arouse all kinds of covetous desires within me! If there were no law, sin would not have that power. 9At one time I lived without understanding the law. But when I learned the command not to covet, for instance, the power of sin came to life, 10and I died. So I discovered that the law's commands, which were supposed to bring life, brought spiritual death instead. 11Sin took advantage of those commands and deceived me; it used the commands to kill me. 12But still, the law itself is holy, and its commands are holy and right and good.

13But how can that be? Did the law, which is good, cause my death? Of course not! Sin used what was good to bring about my condemnation to death. So we can see how terrible sin really is. It uses God's good commands for its own evil purposes.

STRUGGLING WITH SIN

14So the trouble is not with the law, for it is spiritual and good. The trouble is with me, for I am all too human, a slave to sin. 15I don't really understand myself, for I want to do what is right, but I don't do it. Instead, I do what I hate. 16But if I know that what I am doing is wrong, this shows that I agree that the law is good. 17So I am not the one doing wrong; it is sin living in me that does it.

18And I know that nothing good lives in me, that is, in my sinful nature.* I want to do what is right, but I can't. 19I want to do what is good, but I don't. I don't want to do what is wrong, but I do it anyway. 20But if I do what I don't want to do, I am not really the one doing wrong; it is sin living in me that does it.

21I have discovered this principle of life—that when I want to do what is right, I inevitably do what is wrong. 22I love God's law with all my heart. 23But there is another power* within me that is at war with my mind. This power makes me a slave to the sin that is still within me. 24Oh, what a miserable person I am! Who will free me from this life that is dominated by sin and death? 25Thank God! The answer is in Jesus Christ our Lord. So you see how it is: In my mind I really want to obey God's law, but because of my sinful nature I am a slave to sin.

Romans 8

LIFE IN THE SPIRIT

1So now there is no condemnation for those who belong to Christ
Jesus. 2And because you belong to him, the power* of the life-giving Spirit has freed you* from the power of sin that leads to death. 3The law of Moses was unable to save us because of the weakness of our sinful nature.* So God did what the law could not do. He sent his own Son in a body like the bodies we sinners have. And in that body God declared an end to sin's control over us by giving his Son as a sacrifice for our sins. 4He did this so that the just requirement of the law would be fully satisfied for us, who no longer follow our sinful nature but instead follow the Spirit.

5Those who are dominated by the sinful nature think about sinful things, but those who are controlled by the Holy Spirit think about things that please the Spirit. 6So letting your sinful nature control your mind leads to death. But letting the Spirit control your mind leads to life and peace. 7For the sinful nature is always hostile to God. It never did obey God's laws, and it never will. 8That's why those who are still under the control of their sinful nature can never please God.

9But you are not controlled by your sinful nature. You are controlled by the Spirit if you have the Spirit of God living in you. (And remember that those who do not have the Spirit of Christ living in them do not belong to him at all.) 10And Christ lives within you, so even though your body will die because of sin, the Spirit gives you life* because you have been made right with God. 11The Spirit of God, who raised Jesus from the dead, lives in you. And just as God raised Christ Jesus from the dead, he will give life to your mortal bodies by this same Spirit living within you.

12Therefore, dear brothers and sisters,* you have no obligation to do what your sinful nature urges you to do. 13For if you live by its dictates, you will die. But if through the power of the Spirit you put to death the deeds of your sinful nature,* you will live. 14For all who are led by the Spirit of God are children* of God.

SUFFERING ROMANS 8:15-30

15So you have not received a spirit that makes you fearful slaves.
Instead, you received God's Spirit when he adopted you as his own children.* Now we call him, "Abba, Father."*16For his Spirit joins with our spirit to affirm that we are God's children. 17And since we are his children, we are his heirs. In fact, together with Christ we are heirs of God's glory. But if we are to share his glory, we must also share his suffering.

THE FUTURE GLORY

18Yet what we suffer now is nothing compared to the glory he will reveal to us later. 19For all creation is waiting eagerly for that future day when God will reveal who his children really are. 20Against its will, all creation was subjected to God's curse. But with eager hope, 21the creation looks forward to the day when it will join God's children in glorious freedom from death and decay. 22For we know that all creation has been groaning as in the pains of childbirth right up to the present time. 23And we believers also groan, even though we have the Holy Spirit within us as a foretaste of future glory, for we long for our bodies to be released from sin and suffering. We, too, wait with eager hope for the day when God will give us our full rights as his adopted children,* including the new bodies he has promised us. 24We were given this hope when we were saved. (If we already have something, we don't need to hope* for it. 25But if we look forward to something we don't yet have, we must wait patiently and confidently.)

26And the Holy Spirit helps us in our weakness. For example, we don't know what God wants us to pray for. But the Holy Spirit prays for us with groanings that cannot be expressed in words. 27And the Father who knows all hearts knows what the Spirit is saying, for the Spirit pleads for us believers* in harmony with God's own will. 28And we know that God causes everything to work together* for the good of those who love God and are called according to his purpose for them. 29For God knew his people in advance, and he chose them to become like his Son, so that his Son would be the firstborn* among many brothers and sisters. 30And having chosen them, he called them to come to him. And having called them, he gave them right standing with himself. And having given them right standing, he gave them his glory.

GOD LOVES YOU ROMANS 8:31–39

NOTHING CAN SEPARATE US FROM GOD'S LOVE

31What shall we say about such wonderful things as these? If God is for us, who can ever be against us? 32Since he did not spare even his own Son but gave him up for us all, won't he also give us everything else? 33Who dares accuse us whom God has chosen for his own? No one—for God himself has given us right standing with himself. 34Who then will condemn us? No one—for Christ Jesus died for us and was raised to life for us, and he is sitting in the place of honor at God's right hand, pleading for us.

35Can anything ever separate us from Christ's love? Does it mean he no longer loves us if we have trouble or calamity, or are persecuted, or hungry, or destitute, or in danger, or threatened with death?
36(As the Scriptures say, "For your sake we are killed every day; we are being slaughtered like sheep."*) 37No, despite all these things, overwhelming victory is ours through Christ, who loved us.

38And I am convinced that nothing can ever separate us from God's love. Neither death nor life, neither angels nor demons,* neither our fears for today nor our worries about tomorrow—not even the powers of hell can separate us from God's love. 39No power in the sky above or in the earth below—indeed, nothing in all creation will ever be able to separate us from the love of God that is revealed in Christ Jesus our Lord.

Romans 9

GOD'S SELECTION OF ISRAEL

1With Christ as my witness, I speak with utter truthfulness. My conscience and the Holy Spirit confirm it. 2My heart is filled with bitter sorrow and unending grief 3for my people, my Jewish brothers and sisters.* I would be willing to be forever cursed—cut off from Christ!—if that would save them. 4They are the people of Israel, chosen to be God's adopted children.* God revealed his glory to them. He made covenants with them and gave them his law. He gave them the privilege of worshiping him and receiving his wonderful promises. 5Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob are their ancestors, and Christ himself was an Israelite as far as his human nature is concerned. And he is God, the one who rules over everything and is worthy of eternal praise! Amen.*

6Well then, has God failed to fulfill his promise to Israel? No, for not all who are born into the nation of Israel are truly members of God's people! 7Being descendants of Abraham doesn't make them truly Abraham's children. For the Scriptures say, "Isaac is the son through whom your descendants will be counted,"* though Abraham had other children, too. 8This means that Abraham's physical descendants are not necessarily children of God. Only the children of the promise are considered to be Abraham's children.
9For God had promised, "I will return about this time next year, and Sarah will have a son."*

10This son was our ancestor Isaac. When he married Rebekah, she gave birth to twins.*11But before they were born, before they had done anything good or bad, she received a message from God. (This message shows that God chooses people according to his own purposes; 12he calls people, but not according to their good or bad works.) She was told, "Your older son will serve your younger son."13In the words of the Scriptures, "I loved Jacob, but I rejected Esau."

14Are we saying, then, that God was unfair? Of course not! 15For God said to Moses, "I will show mercy to anyone I choose, and I will show compassion to anyone I choose."*

16So it is God who decides to show mercy. We can neither choose it nor work for it.

17For the Scriptures say that God told Pharaoh, “I have appointed you for the very purpose of displaying my power in you and to spread my fame throughout the earth.”*18So you see, God chooses to show mercy to some, and he chooses to harden the hearts of others so they refuse to listen.

19Well then, you might say, “Why does God blame people for not responding? Haven’t they simply done what he makes them do?”

20No, don’t say that. Who are you, a mere human being, to argue with God? Should the thing that was created say to the one who created it, “Why have you made me like this?” 21When a potter makes jars out of clay, doesn’t he have a right to use the same lump of clay to make one jar for decoration and another to throw garbage into? 22In the same way, even though God has the right to show his anger and his power, he is very patient with those on whom his anger falls, who are destined for destruction. 23He does this to make the riches of his glory shine even brighter on those to whom he shows mercy, who were prepared in advance for glory. 24And we are among those whom he selected, both from the Jews and from the Gentiles.

25Concerning the Gentiles, God says in the prophecy of Hosea, “Those who were not my people, I will now call my people.

And I will love those whom I did not love before.”*

26And, “Then, at the place where they were told, ‘You are not my people,’

there they will be called ‘children of the living God.’”*

27And concerning Israel, Isaiah the prophet cried out, “Though the people of Israel are as numerous as the sand of the seashore, only a remnant will be saved.

28For the LORD will carry out his sentence upon the earth quickly and with finality."*

29And Isaiah said the same thing in another place: "If the LORD of Heaven's Armies had not spared a few of our children, we would have been wiped out like Sodom, destroyed like Gomorrah."*

ISRAEL'S UNBELIEF

30What does all this mean? Even though the Gentiles were not trying to follow God's standards, they were made right with God.
And it was by faith that this took place. 31But the people of Israel, who tried so hard to get right with God by keeping the law, never succeeded. 32Why not? Because they were trying to get right with God by keeping the law* instead of by trusting in him. They stumbled over the great rock in their path. 33God warned them of this in the Scriptures when he said, "I am placing a stone in Jerusalem* that makes people stumble, a rock that makes them fall.

But anyone who trusts in him will never be disgraced."*

Romans 10

1Dear brothers and sisters,* the longing of my heart and my prayer to God is for the people of Israel to be saved. 2I know what enthusiasm they have for God, but it is misdirected zeal. 3For they don't understand God's way of making people right with himself.
Refusing to accept God's way, they cling to their own way of getting right with God by trying to keep the law. 4For Christ has already accomplished the purpose for which the law was given.* As a result, all who believe in him are made right with God.

SALVATION IS FOR EVERYONE

5For Moses writes that the law's way of making a person right with God requires obedience to all of its commands.6But faith's way of getting right with God says, "Don't say in your heart, 'Who will go up to heaven?' (to bring Christ down to earth). 7And don't say, 'Who will go down to the place of the dead?' (to bring Christ back to life again)." 8In fact, it says, "The message is very close at hand; it is on your lips and in your heart."

And that message is the very message about faith that we preach: 9If you openly declare that Jesus is Lord and believe in your heart that God raised him from the dead, you will be saved. 10For it is by believing in your heart that you are made right with God, and it is by openly declaring your faith that you are saved. 11As the Scriptures tell us, "Anyone who trusts in him will never be disgraced."12Jew and Gentile are the same in this respect. They have the same Lord, who gives generously to all who call on him. 13For "Everyone who calls on the name of the LORD will be saved."*

14But how can they call on him to save them unless they believe in him? And how can they believe in him if they have never heard about him? And how can they hear about him unless someone tells them? 15And how will anyone go and tell them without being sent? That is why the Scriptures say, "How beautiful are the feet of messengers who bring good news!"*

16But not everyone welcomes the Good News, for Isaiah the prophet said, "LORD, who has believed our message?"17So faith comes from hearing, that is, hearing the Good News about Christ. 18But I ask, have the people of Israel actually heard the message? Yes, they have: "The message has gone throughout the earth, and the words to all the world."

19But I ask, did the people of Israel really understand? Yes, they did, for even in the time of Moses, God said, "I will rouse your jealousy through people who are not even a nation.

I will provoke your anger through the foolish Gentiles.”*

20And later Isaiah spoke boldly for God, saying, “I was found by people who were not looking for me.

I showed myself to those who were not asking for me.”*

21But regarding Israel, God said, “All day long I opened my arms to them, but they were disobedient and rebellious.”*

Romans 11

GOD’S MERCY ON ISRAEL

1I ask, then, has God rejected his own people, the nation of Israel?
Of course not! I myself am an Israelite, a descendant of Abraham and a member of the tribe of Benjamin.

2No, God has not rejected his own people, whom he chose from the very beginning. Do you realize what the Scriptures say about this?
Elijah the prophet complained to God about the people of Israel and said, 3“LORD, they have killed your prophets and torn down your altars. I am the only one left, and now they are trying to kill me, too.”*

4And do you remember God’s reply? He said, “No, I have 7,000 others who have never bowed down to Baal!”*

5It is the same today, for a few of the people of Israel* have remained faithful because of God’s grace—his undeserved kindness in choosing them. 6And since it is through God’s kindness, then it is not by their good works. For in that case, God’s grace would not be what it really is—free and undeserved.

7So this is the situation: Most of the people of Israel have not found the favor of God they are looking for so earnestly. A few have—the ones God has chosen—but the hearts of the rest were hardened. 8As the Scriptures say, “God has put them into a deep sleep.

To this day he has shut their eyes so they do not see, and closed their ears so they do not hear.”*

9Likewise, David said, “Let their bountiful table become a snare, a trap that makes them think all is well.

Let their blessings cause them to stumble, and let them get what they deserve.

10Let their eyes go blind so they cannot see, and let their backs be bent forever.”*

11Did God’s people stumble and fall beyond recovery? Of course not! They were disobedient, so God made salvation available to the Gentiles. But he wanted his own people to become jealous and claim it for themselves. 12Now if the Gentiles were enriched because the people of Israel turned down God’s offer of salvation, think how much greater a blessing the world will share when they finally accept it.

13I am saying all this especially for you Gentiles. God has appointed me as the apostle to the Gentiles. I stress this, 14for I want somehow to make the people of Israel jealous of what you Gentiles have, so I might save some of them. 15For since their rejection meant that God offered salvation to the rest of the world, their acceptance will be even more wonderful. It will be life for those who were dead! 16And since Abraham and the other patriarchs were holy, their descendants will also be holy—just as the entire batch of dough is holy because the portion given as an offering is holy. For if the roots of the tree are holy, the branches will be, too.

17But some of these branches from Abraham’s tree—some of the people of Israel—have been broken off. And you Gentiles, who were branches from a wild olive tree, have been grafted in. So now you also receive the blessing God has promised Abraham and his children, sharing in the rich nourishment from the root of God's special olive tree. 18But you must not brag about being grafted in to replace the branches that were broken off. You are just a branch, not the root.

19"Well," you may say, "those branches were broken off to make room for me." 20Yes, but remember—those branches were broken off because they didn't believe in Christ, and you are there because you do believe. So don't think highly of yourself, but fear what could happen. 21For if God did not spare the original branches, he won't* spare you either.

22Notice how God is both kind and severe. He is severe toward those who disobeyed, but kind to you if you continue to trust in his kindness. But if you stop trusting, you also will be cut off. 23And if the people of Israel turn from their unbelief, they will be grafted in again, for God has the power to graft them back into the tree. 24You, by nature, were a branch cut from a wild olive tree. So if God was willing to do something contrary to nature by grafting you into his cultivated tree, he will be far more eager to graft the original branches back into the tree where they belong.

GOD'S MERCY IS FOR EVERYONE

25I want you to understand this mystery, dear brothers and sisters,* so that you will not feel proud about yourselves. Some of the people of Israel have hard hearts, but this will last only until the full number of Gentiles comes to Christ. 26And so all Israel will be saved. As the Scriptures say, "The one who rescues will come from Jerusalem,* and he will turn Israel* away from ungodliness.

27And this is my covenant with them, that I will take away their sins."*

28Many of the people of Israel are now enemies of the Good News, and this benefits you Gentiles. Yet they are still the people he loves because he chose their ancestors Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. 29For God's gifts and his call can never be withdrawn. 30Once, you Gentiles were rebels against God, but when the people of Israel rebelled against him, God was merciful to you instead. 31Now they are the rebels, and God's mercy has come to you so that they, too, will share* in God's mercy. 32For God has imprisoned everyone in disobedience so he could have mercy on everyone.

33Oh, how great are God's riches and wisdom and knowledge! How impossible it is for us to understand his decisions and his ways!

34For who can know the LORD's thoughts?
Who knows enough to give him advice?*

35And who has given him so much that he needs to pay it back?*

36For everything comes from him and exists by his power and is intended for his glory. All glory to him forever! Amen.

Romans 12

A LIVING SACRIFICE TO GOD

1And so, dear brothers and sisters,* I plead with you to give your bodies to God because of all he has done for you. Let them be a living and holy sacrifice—the kind he will find acceptable. This is truly the way to worship him.*2Don't copy the behavior and customs of this world, but let God transform you into a new person by changing the way you think. Then you will learn to know God's will for you, which is good and pleasing and perfect.

3Because of the privilege and authority* God has given me, I give each of you this warning: Don't think you are better than you really are. Be honest in your evaluation of yourselves, measuring yourselves by the faith God has given us.*4Just as our bodies have many parts and each part has a special function, 5so it is with Christ's body. We are many parts of one body, and we all belong to each other.

6In his grace, God has given us different gifts for doing certain things well. So if God has given you the ability to prophesy, speak out with as much faith as God has given you. 7If your gift is serving others, serve them well. If you are a teacher, teach well. 8If your gift is to encourage others, be encouraging. If it is giving, give generously. If God has given you leadership ability, take the responsibility seriously. And if you have a gift for showing kindness to others, do it gladly.

9Don't just pretend to love others. Really love them. Hate what is wrong. Hold tightly to what is good. 10Love each other with genuine affection,* and take delight in honoring each other. 11Never be lazy, but work hard and serve the Lord enthusiastically.*12Rejoice in our confident hope. Be patient in trouble, and keep on praying. 13When God's people are in need, be ready to help them. Always be eager to practice hospitality.

14Bless those who persecute you. Don't curse them; pray that God will bless them. 15Be happy with those who are happy, and weep with those who weep. 16Live in harmony with each other. Don't be too proud to enjoy the company of ordinary people. And don't think you know it all!

17Never pay back evil with more evil. Do things in such a way that everyone can see you are honorable. 18Do all that you can to live in peace with everyone.

19Dear friends, never take revenge. Leave that to the righteous anger of God. For the Scriptures say, “I will take revenge; I will pay them back,”*

says the LORD.

20Instead, “If your enemies are hungry, feed them.

If they are thirsty, give them something to drink.
In doing this, you will heap burning coals of shame on their heads.”*

21Don’t let evil conquer you, but conquer evil by doing good.

Romans 13

RESPECT FOR AUTHORITY

1Everyone must submit to governing authorities. For all authority comes from God, and those in positions of authority have been placed there by God. 2So anyone who rebels against authority is rebelling against what God has instituted, and they will be punished. 3For the authorities do not strike fear in people who are doing right, but in those who are doing wrong. Would you like to live without fear of the authorities? Do what is right, and they will honor you. 4The authorities are God’s servants, sent for your good.
But if you are doing wrong, of course you should be afraid, for they have the power to punish you. They are God’s servants, sent for the very purpose of punishing those who do what is wrong. 5So you must submit to them, not only to avoid punishment, but also to keep a clear conscience.

6Pay your taxes, too, for these same reasons. For government workers need to be paid. They are serving God in what they do.
7Give to everyone what you owe them: Pay your taxes and government fees to those who collect them, and give respect and honor to those who are in authority.

LOVE FULFILLS GOD'S REQUIREMENTS

8Owe nothing to anyone—except for your obligation to love one another. If you love your neighbor, you will fulfill the requirements of God's law. 9For the commandments say, "You must not commit adultery. You must not murder. You must not steal. You must not covet."* These—and other such commandments—are summed up in this one commandment: "Love your neighbor as yourself."*10Love does no wrong to others, so love fulfills the requirements of God's law.

11This is all the more urgent, for you know how late it is; time is running out. Wake up, for our salvation is nearer now than when we first believed. 12The night is almost gone; the day of salvation will soon be here. So remove your dark deeds like dirty clothes, and put on the shining armor of right living. 13Because we belong to the day, we must live decent lives for all to see. Don't participate in the darkness of wild parties and drunkenness, or in sexual promiscuity and immoral living, or in quarreling and jealousy. 14Instead, clothe yourself with the presence of the Lord Jesus Christ. And don't let yourself think about ways to indulge your evil desires.

Romans 14

THE DANGER OF CRITICISM

1Accept other believers who are weak in faith, and don't argue with them about what they think is right or wrong. 2For instance, one person believes it's all right to eat anything. But another believer with a sensitive conscience will eat only vegetables. 3Those who feel free to eat anything must not look down on those who don't. And those who don't eat certain foods must not condemn those who do, for God has accepted them. 4Who are you to condemn someone else's servants? Their own master will judge whether they stand or fall. And with the Lord's help, they will stand and receive his approval.

5In the same way, some think one day is more holy than another day, while others think every day is alike. You should each be fully convinced that whichever day you choose is acceptable. 6Those who worship the Lord on a special day do it to honor him. Those who eat any kind of food do so to honor the Lord, since they give thanks to God before eating. And those who refuse to eat certain foods also want to please the Lord and give thanks to God. 7For we don't live for ourselves or die for ourselves. 8If we live, it's to honor the Lord.
And if we die, it's to honor the Lord. So whether we live or die, we belong to the Lord. 9Christ died and rose again for this very purpose —to be Lord both of the living and of the dead.

10So why do you condemn another believer*? Why do you look down on another believer? Remember, we will all stand before the judgment seat of God. 11For the Scriptures say, "'As surely as I live,' says the LORD, 'every knee will bend to me, and every tongue will declare allegiance to God.*'"

12Yes, each of us will give a personal account to God. 13So let's stop condemning each other. Decide instead to live in such a way that you will not cause another believer to stumble and fall.

14I know and am convinced on the authority of the Lord Jesus that no food, in and of itself, is wrong to eat. But if someone believes it is wrong, then for that person it is wrong. 15And if another believer is distressed by what you eat, you are not acting in love if you eat it. Don't let your eating ruin someone for whom Christ died. 16Then you will not be criticized for doing something you believe is good.
17For the Kingdom of God is not a matter of what we eat or drink, but of living a life of goodness and peace and joy in the Holy Spirit.
18If you serve Christ with this attitude, you will please God, and others will approve of you, too. 19So then, let us aim for harmony in the church and try to build each other up.

20Don't tear apart the work of God over what you eat. Remember, all foods are acceptable, but it is wrong to eat something if it makes another person stumble. 21It is better not to eat meat or drink wine or do anything else if it might cause another believer to stumble.22You may believe there's nothing wrong with what you are doing, but keep it between yourself and God. Blessed are those who don't feel guilty for doing something they have decided is right. 23But if you have doubts about whether or not you should eat something, you are sinning if you go ahead and do it. For you are not following your convictions. If you do anything you believe is not right, you are sinning.

Romans 15

LIVING TO PLEASE OTHERS

1We who are strong must be considerate of those who are sensitive about things like this. We must not just please ourselves. 2We should help others do what is right and build them up in the Lord. 3For even Christ didn't live to please himself. As the Scriptures say, "The insults of those who insult you, O God, have fallen on me."*4Such things were written in the Scriptures long ago to teach us. And the Scriptures give us hope and encouragement as we wait patiently for God's promises to be fulfilled.

BLESSINGS ROMANS 15:5-6

5May God, who gives this patience and encouragement, help you live in complete harmony with each other, as is fitting for followers of Christ Jesus. 6Then all of you can join together with one voice, giving praise and glory to God, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ.

7Therefore, accept each other just as Christ has accepted you so that God will be given glory. 8Remember that Christ came as a servant to the Jews* to show that God is true to the promises he made to their ancestors. 9He also came so that the Gentiles might give glory to God for his mercies to them. That is what the psalmist meant when he wrote: "For this, I will praise you among the Gentiles; I will sing praises to your name."*

10And in another place it is written, "Rejoice with his people, you Gentiles."*

11And yet again, "Praise the LORD, all you Gentiles.

Praise him, all you people of the earth."*

12And in another place Isaiah said, "The heir to David's throne* will come, and he will rule over the Gentiles.

They will place their hope on him."*

13I pray that God, the source of hope, will fill you completely with joy and peace because you trust in him. Then you will overflow with confident hope through the power of the Holy Spirit.

PAUL'S REASON FOR WRITING

14I am fully convinced, my dear brothers and sisters,* that you are full of goodness. You know these things so well you can teach each other all about them. 15Even so, I have been bold enough to write about some of these points, knowing that all you need is this reminder. For by God's grace, 16I am a special messenger from Christ Jesus to you Gentiles. I bring you the Good News so that I might present you as an acceptable offering to God, made holy by the Holy Spirit. 17So I have reason to be enthusiastic about all Christ Jesus has done through me in my service to God. 18Yet I dare not boast about anything except what Christ has done through me, bringing the Gentiles to God by my message and by the way I worked among them. 19They were convinced by the power of miraculous signs and wonders and by the power of God's Spirit.* In this way, I have fully presented the Good News of Christ from Jerusalem all the way to Illyricum.*

20My ambition has always been to preach the Good News where the name of Christ has never been heard, rather than where a church has already been started by someone else. 21I have been following the plan spoken of in the Scriptures, where it says, "Those who have never been told about him will see, and those who have never heard of him will understand."*

22In fact, my visit to you has been delayed so long because I have been preaching in these places.

PAUL'S TRAVEL PLANS

23But now I have finished my work in these regions, and after all these long years of waiting, I am eager to visit you. 24I am planning to go to Spain, and when I do, I will stop off in Rome. And after I have enjoyed your fellowship for a little while, you can provide for my journey.

25But before I come, I must go to Jerusalem to take a gift to the believers* there. 26For you see, the believers in Macedonia and Achaia* have eagerly taken up an offering for the poor among the believers in Jerusalem. 27They were glad to do this because they feel they owe a real debt to them. Since the Gentiles received the spiritual blessings of the Good News from the believers in Jerusalem, they feel the least they can do in return is to help them financially. 28As soon as I have delivered this money and completed this good deed of theirs, I will come to see you on my way to Spain. 29And I am sure that when I come, Christ will richly bless our time together.

30Dear brothers and sisters, I urge you in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ to join in my struggle by praying to God for me. Do this because of your love for me, given to you by the Holy Spirit. 31Pray that I will be rescued from those in Judea who refuse to obey God. Pray also that the believers there will be willing to accept the donation* I am taking to Jerusalem. 32Then, by the will of God, I will be able to come to you with a joyful heart, and we will be an encouragement to each other.

33And now may God, who gives us his peace, be with you all. Amen.*

Romans 16

PAUL GREETS HIS FRIENDS

1I commend to you our sister Phoebe, who is a deacon in the church in Cenchrea. 2Welcome her in the Lord as one who is worthy of honor among God's people. Help her in whatever she needs, for she has been helpful to many, and especially to me.

3Give my greetings to Priscilla and Aquila, my co-workers in the ministry of Christ Jesus. 4In fact, they once risked their lives for me. I am thankful to them, and so are all the Gentile churches. 5Also give my greetings to the church that meets in their home.

Greet my dear friend Epenetus. He was the first person from the province of Asia to become a follower of Christ. 6Give my greetings to Mary, who has worked so hard for your benefit. 7Greet Andronicus and Junia,* my fellow Jews,* who were in prison with me. They are highly respected among the apostles and became followers of Christ before I did. 8Greet Ampliatus, my dear friend in the Lord. 9Greet Urbanus, our co-worker in Christ, and my dear friend Stachys.

10Greet Apelles, a good man whom Christ approves. And give my greetings to the believers from the household of Aristobulus. 11Greet Herodion, my fellow Jew.* Greet the Lord's people from the household of Narcissus. 12Give my greetings to Tryphena and Tryphosa, the Lord's workers, and to dear Persis, who has worked so hard for the Lord. 13Greet Rufus, whom the Lord picked out to be his very own; and also his dear mother, who has been a mother to me.

14Give my greetings to Asyncritus, Phlegon, Hermes, Patrobas, Hermas, and the brothers and sisters* who meet with them. 15Give my greetings to Philologus, Julia, Nereus and his sister, and to Olympas and all the believers* who meet with them. 16Greet each other with a sacred kiss. All the churches of Christ send you their greetings.

PAUL'S FINAL INSTRUCTIONS

17And now I make one more appeal, my dear brothers and sisters. Watch out for people who cause divisions and upset people's faith by teaching things contrary to what you have been taught. Stay away from them. 18Such people are not serving Christ our Lord; they are serving their own personal interests. By smooth talk and glowing words they deceive innocent people. 19But everyone knows that you are obedient to the Lord. This makes me very happy. I want you to be wise in doing right and to stay innocent of any wrong. 20The God of peace will soon crush Satan under your feet. May the grace of our Lord Jesus* be with you.

21Timothy, my fellow worker, sends you his greetings, as do Lucius, Jason, and Sosipater, my fellow Jews.

22I, Tertius, the one writing this letter for Paul, send my greetings, too, as one of the Lord's followers.

23Gaius says hello to you. He is my host and also serves as host to the whole church. Erastus, the city treasurer, sends you his greetings, and so does our brother Quartus.*

25Now all glory to God, who is able to make you strong, just as my Good News says. This message about Jesus Christ has revealed his plan for you Gentiles, a plan kept secret from the beginning of time.
26But now as the prophets* foretold and as the eternal God has commanded, this message is made known to all Gentiles everywhere, so that they too might believe and obey him. 27All glory to the only wise God, through Jesus Christ, forever. Amen.*

WELCOME TO

1 CORINTHIANS

The church in Corinth has some problems. Just to name a few, they are questioning Paul's right to be an apostle, gorging themselves on the Lord's Supper, going to court against one another, and overlooking immorality. The young Corinthian church needs Paul's encouragement and instruction to correct their internal problems and to stand firm against their city's immoral culture. Paul feels he must deal with the situation, or else the church in Corinth could fall to pieces. As Paul addresses their problems (many of which still exist today in some form), he touches upon many of the fundamental teachings of the faith, including the wisdom of God, the importance of love, and the truth of the Resurrection.

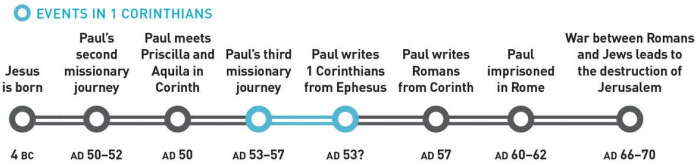
FINDING JESUS IN 1 CORINTHIANS

We can clearly see Jesus when Christians are united together as the body of Christ—the church. Unfortunately, many Christians can act like the Corinthians—divided over disagreements among themselves. As Paul exhorted the Corinthians to live in harmony with each other, he pointed them to Christ as "the power of God and the wisdom of God" (1:24). Understanding our salvation in Christ leaves no room for the kind of boasting that causes division (1:30-31). He also encouraged them to be united as they celebrated the Lord's Supper (11:17-34). This celebration is entirely focused on Jesus, bringing believers together to remember his death and reaffirm the unity with God and each other that has resulted from it.



1 Corinthians 1

GREETINGS FROM PAUL

1This letter is from Paul, chosen by the will of God to be an apostle of Christ Jesus, and from our brother Sosthenes.

CORINTH

2I am writing to God's church in Corinth,* to you who have been called by God to be his own holy people. He made you holy by means of Christ Jesus,* just as he did for all people everywhere who call on the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, their Lord and ours.

3May God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ give you grace and peace.

PAUL GIVES THANKS TO GOD

4I always thank my God for you and for the gracious gifts he has given you, now that you belong to Christ Jesus. 5Through him, God has enriched your church in every way—with all of your eloquent words and all of your knowledge. 6This confirms that what I told you about Christ is true. 7Now you have every spiritual gift you need as you eagerly wait for the return of our Lord Jesus Christ. 8He will keep you strong to the end so that you will be free from all blame on the day when our Lord Jesus Christ returns. 9God will do this, for he is faithful to do what he says, and he has invited you into partnership with his Son, Jesus Christ our Lord.

DIVISIONS IN THE CHURCH

10I appeal to you, dear brothers and sisters,* by the authority of our Lord Jesus Christ, to live in harmony with each other. Let there be no divisions in the church. Rather, be of one mind, united in thought and purpose. 11For some members of Chloe's household have told me about your quarrels, my dear brothers and sisters.
12Some of you are saying, "I am a follower of Paul." Others are saying, "I follow Apollos," or "I follow Peter,*" or "I follow only Christ."

13Has Christ been divided into factions? Was I, Paul, crucified for you? Were any of you baptized in the name of Paul? Of course not!
14I thank God that I did not baptize any of you except Crispus and Gaius, 15for now no one can say they were baptized in my name.

16(Oh yes, I also baptized the household of Stephanas, but I don't remember baptizing anyone else.) 17For Christ didn't send me to baptize, but to preach the Good News—and not with clever speech, for fear that the cross of Christ would lose its power.

THE WISDOM OF GOD

18The message of the cross is foolish to those who are headed for destruction! But we who are being saved know it is the very power of God. 19As the Scriptures say, "I will destroy the wisdom of the wise and discard the intelligence of the intelligent."*

20So where does this leave the philosophers, the scholars, and the world's brilliant debaters? God has made the wisdom of this world look foolish. 21Since God in his wisdom saw to it that the world would never know him through human wisdom, he has used our foolish preaching to save those who believe. 22It is foolish to the Jews, who ask for signs from heaven. And it is foolish to the Greeks, who seek human wisdom. 23So when we preach that Christ was crucified, the Jews are offended and the Gentiles say it's all nonsense.

24But to those called by God to salvation, both Jews and Gentiles,* Christ is the power of God and the wisdom of God. 25This foolish plan of God is wiser than the wisest of human plans, and God's weakness is stronger than the greatest of human strength.

26Remember, dear brothers and sisters, that few of you were wise in the world's eyes or powerful or wealthy* when God called you.
27Instead, God chose things the world considers foolish in order to shame those who think they are wise. And he chose things that are powerless to shame those who are powerful. 28God chose things despised by the world,* things counted as nothing at all, and used them to bring to nothing what the world considers important. 29As a result, no one can ever boast in the presence of God.

30God has united you with Christ Jesus. For our benefit God made him to be wisdom itself. Christ made us right with God; he made us pure and holy, and he freed us from sin. 31Therefore, as the Scriptures say, “If you want to boast, boast only about the LORD.”*

1 Corinthians 2

PAUL’S MESSAGE OF WISDOM

1When I first came to you, dear brothers and sisters,* I didn’t use lofty words and impressive wisdom to tell you God’s secret plan.*2For I decided that while I was with you I would forget everything except Jesus Christ, the one who was crucified. 3I came to you in weakness—timid and trembling. 4And my message and my preaching were very plain. Rather than using clever and persuasive speeches, I relied only on the power of the Holy Spirit. 5I did this so you would trust not in human wisdom but in the power of God.

6Yet when I am among mature believers, I do speak with words of wisdom, but not the kind of wisdom that belongs to this world or to the rulers of this world, who are soon forgotten. 7No, the wisdom we speak of is the mystery of God*—his plan that was previously hidden, even though he made it for our ultimate glory before the world began. 8But the rulers of this world have not understood it; if they had, they would not have crucified our glorious Lord. 9That is what the Scriptures mean when they say, “No eye has seen, no ear has heard, and no mind has imagined what God has prepared for those who love him.”*

10But* it was to us that God revealed these things by his Spirit. For his Spirit searches out everything and shows us God’s deep secrets.
11No one can know a person’s thoughts except that person’s own spirit, and no one can know God's thoughts except God's own Spirit.

12And we have received God's Spirit (not the world's spirit), so we can know the wonderful things God has freely given us.

13When we tell you these things, we do not use words that come from human wisdom. Instead, we speak words given to us by the Spirit, using the Spirit's words to explain spiritual truths.14But people who aren't spiritual can't receive these truths from God's Spirit. It all sounds foolish to them and they can't understand it, for only those who are spiritual can understand what the Spirit means.
15Those who are spiritual can evaluate all things, but they themselves cannot be evaluated by others. 16For, "Who can know the LORD's thoughts?

Who knows enough to teach him?"*

But we understand these things, for we have the mind of Christ.

1 Corinthians 3

PAUL AND APOLLOS, SERVANTS OF CHRIST

1Dear brothers and sisters,* when I was with you I couldn't talk to you as I would to spiritual people.* I had to talk as though you belonged to this world or as though you were infants in Christ. 2I had to feed you with milk, not with solid food, because you weren't ready for anything stronger. And you still aren't ready, 3for you are still controlled by your sinful nature. You are jealous of one another and quarrel with each other. Doesn't that prove you are controlled by your sinful nature? Aren't you living like people of the world?
4When one of you says, "I am a follower of Paul," and another says,
"I follow Apollos," aren't you acting just like people of the world?

5After all, who is Apollos? Who is Paul? We are only God's servants through whom you believed the Good News. Each of us did the work the Lord gave us. 6I planted the seed in your hearts, and Apollos watered it, but it was God who made it grow. 7It's not important who does the planting, or who does the watering. What's important is that God makes the seed grow. 8The one who plants and the one who waters work together with the same purpose. And both will be rewarded for their own hard work. 9For we are both God's workers. And you are God's field. You are God's building.

10Because of God's grace to me, I have laid the foundation like an expert builder. Now others are building on it. But whoever is building on this foundation must be very careful. 11For no one can lay any foundation other than the one we already have—Jesus Christ.

12Anyone who builds on that foundation may use a variety of materials—gold, silver, jewels, wood, hay, or straw. 13But on the judgment day, fire will reveal what kind of work each builder has done. The fire will show if a person's work has any value. 14If the work survives, that builder will receive a reward. 15But if the work is burned up, the builder will suffer great loss. The builder will be saved, but like someone barely escaping through a wall of flames.

16Don't you realize that all of you together are the temple of God and that the Spirit of God lives in* you? 17God will destroy anyone who destroys this temple. For God's temple is holy, and you are that temple.

18Stop deceiving yourselves. If you think you are wise by this world's standards, you need to become a fool to be truly wise. 19For the wisdom of this world is foolishness to God. As the Scriptures say, "He traps the wise in the snare of their own cleverness."*

20And again, "The LORD knows the thoughts of the wise; he knows they are worthless."*

21So don't boast about following a particular human leader. For everything belongs to you—22whether Paul or Apollos or Peter,* or the world, or life and death, or the present and the future. Everything belongs to you, 23and you belong to Christ, and Christ belongs to God.

1 Corinthians 4

PAUL'S RELATIONSHIP WITH THE CORINTHIANS

1So look at Apollos and me as mere servants of Christ who have been put in charge of explaining God's mysteries. 2Now, a person who is put in charge as a manager must be faithful. 3As for me, it matters very little how I might be evaluated by you or by any human authority. I don't even trust my own judgment on this point. 4My conscience is clear, but that doesn't prove I'm right. It is the Lord himself who will examine me and decide.

5So don't make judgments about anyone ahead of time—before the Lord returns. For he will bring our darkest secrets to light and will reveal our private motives. Then God will give to each one whatever praise is due.

6Dear brothers and sisters,* I have used Apollos and myself to illustrate what I've been saying. If you pay attention to what I have quoted from the Scriptures,* you won't be proud of one of your leaders at the expense of another. 7For what gives you the right to make such a judgment? What do you have that God hasn't given you? And if everything you have is from God, why boast as though it were not a gift?

8You think you already have everything you need. You think you are already rich. You have begun to reign in God's kingdom without us! I wish you really were reigning already, for then we would be reigning with you. 9Instead, I sometimes think God has put us apostles on display, like prisoners of war at the end of a victor's parade, condemned to die. We have become a spectacle to the entire world—to people and angels alike.

10Our dedication to Christ makes us look like fools, but you claim to be so wise in Christ! We are weak, but you are so powerful! You are honored, but we are ridiculed. 11Even now we go hungry and thirsty, and we don't have enough clothes to keep warm. We are often beaten and have no home. 12We work wearily with our own hands to earn our living. We bless those who curse us. We are patient with those who abuse us. 13We appeal gently when evil things are said about us. Yet we are treated like the world's garbage, like everybody's trash—right up to the present moment.

14I am not writing these things to shame you, but to warn you as my beloved children. 15For even if you had ten thousand others to teach you about Christ, you have only one spiritual father. For I became your father in Christ Jesus when I preached the Good News to you. 16So I urge you to imitate me.

17That's why I have sent Timothy, my beloved and faithful child in the Lord. He will remind you of how I follow Christ Jesus, just as I teach in all the churches wherever I go.

18Some of you have become arrogant, thinking I will not visit you again. 19But I will come—and soon—if the Lord lets me, and then I'll find out whether these arrogant people just give pretentious speeches or whether they really have God's power. 20For the Kingdom of God is not just a lot of talk; it is living by God's power.
21Which do you choose? Should I come with a rod to punish you, or should I come with love and a gentle spirit?

1 Corinthians 5

PAUL CONDEMNS SPIRITUAL PRIDE

1I can hardly believe the report about the sexual immorality going on among you—something that even pagans don't do. I am told that a man in your church is living in sin with his stepmother.*2You are so proud of yourselves, but you should be mourning in sorrow and shame. And you should remove this man from your fellowship.

3Even though I am not with you in person, I am with you in the Spirit.* And as though I were there, I have already passed judgment on this man 4in the name of the Lord Jesus. You must call a meeting of the church.* I will be present with you in spirit, and so will the power of our Lord Jesus. 5Then you must throw this man out and hand him over to Satan so that his sinful nature will be destroyed* and he himself* will be saved on the day the Lord* returns.

6Your boasting about this is terrible. Don't you realize that this sin is like a little yeast that spreads through the whole batch of dough? 7Get rid of the old "yeast" by removing this wicked person from among you. Then you will be like a fresh batch of dough made without yeast, which is what you really are. Christ, our Passover Lamb, has been sacrificed for us.8So let us celebrate the festival, not with the old bread of wickedness and evil, but with the new bread* of sincerity and truth.

9When I wrote to you before, I told you not to associate with people who indulge in sexual sin. 10But I wasn't talking about unbelievers who indulge in sexual sin, or are greedy, or cheat people, or worship idols. You would have to leave this world to avoid people like that. 11I meant that you are not to associate with anyone who claims to be a believer* yet indulges in sexual sin, or is greedy, or worships idols, or is abusive, or is a drunkard, or cheats people. Don't even eat with such people.

12It isn't my responsibility to judge outsiders, but it certainly is your responsibility to judge those inside the church who are sinning. 13God will judge those on the outside; but as the Scriptures say, "You must remove the evil person from among you."*

1 Corinthians 6

AVOIDING LAWSUITS WITH CHRISTIANS

1When one of you has a dispute with another believer, how dare you file a lawsuit and ask a secular court to decide the matter instead of taking it to other believers*! 2Don't you realize that someday we believers will judge the world? And since you are going to judge the world, can't you decide even these little things among yourselves? 3Don't you realize that we will judge angels? So you should surely be able to resolve ordinary disputes in this life. 4If you have legal disputes about such matters, why go to outside judges who are not respected by the church? 5I am saying this to shame you. Isn't there anyone in all the church who is wise enough to decide these issues? 6But instead, one believer* sues another—right in front of unbelievers!

7Even to have such lawsuits with one another is a defeat for you.
Why not just accept the injustice and leave it at that? Why not let yourselves be cheated? 8Instead, you yourselves are the ones who do wrong and cheat even your fellow believers.*

9Don't you realize that those who do wrong will not inherit the Kingdom of God? Don't fool yourselves. Those who indulge in sexual sin, or who worship idols, or commit adultery, or are male prostitutes, or practice homosexuality, 10or are thieves, or greedy people, or drunkards, or are abusive, or cheat people—none of these will inherit the Kingdom of God. 11Some of you were once like that. But you were cleansed; you were made holy; you were made right with God by calling on the name of the Lord Jesus Christ and by the Spirit of our God.

AVOIDING SEXUAL SIN

12You say, “I am allowed to do anything”—but not everything is good for you. And even though “I am allowed to do anything,” I must not become a slave to anything. 13You say, “Food was made for the stomach, and the stomach for food.” (This is true, though someday God will do away with both of them.) But you can’t say that our bodies were made for sexual immorality. They were made for the Lord, and the Lord cares about our bodies. 14And God will raise us from the dead by his power, just as he raised our Lord from the dead.

15Don’t you realize that your bodies are actually parts of Christ?
Should a man take his body, which is part of Christ, and join it to a prostitute? Never! 16And don’t you realize that if a man joins himself to a prostitute, he becomes one body with her? For the Scriptures say, “The two are united into one.”*17But the person who is joined to the Lord is one spirit with him.

18Run from sexual sin! No other sin so clearly affects the body as this one does. For sexual immorality is a sin against your own body.
19Don’t you realize that your body is the temple of the Holy Spirit, who lives in you and was given to you by God? You do not belong to yourself, 20for God bought you with a high price. So you must honor God with your body.

1 Corinthians 7

INSTRUCTION ON MARRIAGE

1 Now regarding the questions you asked in your letter. Yes, it is good to abstain from sexual relations.* 2 But because there is so much sexual immorality, each man should have his own wife, and each woman should have her own husband.

3 The husband should fulfill his wife's sexual needs, and the wife should fulfill her husband's needs. 4 The wife gives authority over her body to her husband, and the husband gives authority over his body to his wife.

5 Do not deprive each other of sexual relations, unless you both agree to refrain from sexual intimacy for a limited time so you can give yourselves more completely to prayer. Afterward, you should come together again so that Satan won't be able to tempt you because of your lack of self-control. 6 I say this as a concession, not as a command. 7 But I wish everyone were single, just as I am. Yet
